The December meeting of the Somerset County Past Councilors' Association, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held in the council rooms of Raritan Valley Council, No. 150, at Raritan, this evening. This is "vaudeville" meeting and the principal entertainer will be Harry C. White, of South Bound Brook.

Mrs. Charles W. Blaine, of Dunellen, was a visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Giles, at Harris Lane, yesterday.

Bound Brook Council, No. 1339, Royal Arcanum, elected the following officers on Tuesday night: Regent, F. J. Maudeley; vice-regent, A. B. Cook; orator, L. J. Wells; secretary, S. A. Dutcher; collector, Paul E. Egel; treasurer, B. H. Kinsley; chaplain, Dominick Beronio; guide, C. Russell Byer; warden, L. C. Rugen, Jr.; sentry, Theodore P. Rigg; trustee, Charles Byer; delegate to grand council, Peter A. Delrich; alternate, S. A. Dutcher.

'Plains & Fanwood.

The Lend-a-Hand Society of the Baptist church met in the parlors of the church for the regular meeting yesterday afternoon.

Dr. H. K. Carroll has returned from a trip of several weeks, which took him to Denver, Col., and Richmond, Va., and will be in charge of the weekly prayer meeting in the Methodist church tonight. He will also conduct the services on Sunday.

Rev. Oscar S. Michaels, the new pastor of All Saints' Episcopal church, has removed with his family from Arlington to Plainfield, where he has leased a home on Putnam avenue.

James Edris has vacated the bungalow which he recently had built on King street and has removed to Brooklyn.

John Widner has taken a position with Sheelen Brothers, the local grocers.

The Boy Scouts in Scotch Plains are arranging for a good time on Tuesday night, when they will have an entertainment in the Sunday-school room of the Baptist church. The colored Boy Scout patrol from Plainfield will again be the guests of the local Scouts and Captain S. B. Saunders will give the second of his series of lectures, this time dealing with "Science," and will illustrate it with stereopticon views.

Those connected with the Episcopal church will go to the Fanwood firehouse tonight and help to arrange the booths and decorate for the fair tomorrow.

Albert Hollingsworth, who has been spending several weeks with his father, Loftus Hollingsworth, of Johnston's Drive, has returned to his home in Buffalo.

The Shepherd's quartet, composed of four young women of the Episcopal church, will meet at the home of Miss Elizabeth Babcock, on North avenue, this evening, to rehearse selections they will render at the cantata to be held after Christmas. The teachers in the Sunday-school of the Episcopal church will meet at the home of Miss Babcock following the quartet rehearsal.

Frank Urner, of Tilliston road, is entertaining his son, Arnold Urner and family, of Alden, for several weeks.

Mrs. Samuel Jackson has returned to her home in Newark after visiting Mrs. Henry Ripley, of the township.

The Boy Scouts of Scotch Plains have purchased a new basketball with the idea of forming a team to play those of other patrols in this vicinity.

Nearly forty women from the 'Plains and borough gathered at the residence of the Misses Kyte, on Martine avenue, yesterday afternoon, and spent a very profitable afternoon sewing on garments to send to Europe for the relief of the Belgians. The second box will be sent following the next meeting. After the meeting tea was served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Louis W. Lott and family, of Forest road, will leave for Florida next week to spend the winter.

VISIONS OF LIBERTY SUDDENLY BLIGHTED

Dramatic Accusation of Woman in Courtroom Proves Overland's Downfall.

"That's the boy that was in my house," shouted Mrs. Edward Bowman from a seat in the rear of the city courtroom, this morning, when Jacob Overland was being arraigned to determine his complicity in the petty depredations committed in the business section of the city Wednesday night.

Through his cunning the eighteen-year-old defendant had convinced the court that his alibi was a good one and Chief Kiely and Judge DeMeza were ready to ship him out of town, thinking that the city was well rid of such "stock" as this individual, who has many times been in the police coils. His vision of liberty was treated to a sad jolt, however, when Mrs. Bowman made her declaration and instead of being turned into the open air he was led back to a cell, pending the formalities of drawing up a complaint.

Overland, together with E. R. Williams, alias Harry P. Griffen, was discharged from the Union county jail at Elizabeth last Tuesday, both having served time for robbery, the former in Plainfield and the latter in Elizabeth. Overland brought Griffen, who claims his home in Irvington, back to Plainfield with him and took him to a boarding-house run by Joseph Penz, on West Second street. Following the robbery of the Penz and Bowman boarding-houses and the Singer Sewing Machine store on West Front street, Wednesday night, the finger of suspicion pointed at Overland and Griffen, who, according to Mrs. Penz, had been acting suspiciously. Overland showed up at the Penz house for breakfast yesterday morning and while the youth was filling up on oatmeal and milk Mrs. Penz locked the dining-room doors and called to Mr. Penz to summon the police. Overland was arrested and brought to police headquarters for examination purposes.

Queried by Chief Kiely the youth admitted that he had heard Griffen say he was getting ready to "pull something big." From description furnished by Overland, Griffen was rounded up by Patrolman Wicht and Sergeant Higgins as he was applying for work as a roofer at the home of Councilman Charles C. Graves yesterday noon.

Overland denied being implicated in the burglaries although he admitted furnishing certain information to Griffen which aided him in locating prospective quarry. At police headquarters Griffen also endeavored to prove an alibi, but when arraigned in court this morning he waived examination and was held in $500 bond to await the action of the Grand Jury. Overland still maintains that he had nothing to do with the burglaries and contends that he was at the home of his sister from 9:30 Tuesday night until he showed up at the Penz home for breakfast Thursday morning. Efforts to shake his story have proven futile, but the police have little respect for the youth's ability to tell the truth and a formal charge of breaking and entering will be lodged against him by Mrs. Bowman today, and he will be re-arraigned tomorrow morning.

The escapade at the Penz home came within an ace of causing the death of eleven persons who were boarding there. It is alleged that Griffen went to the cellar for the purpose of robbing the gas meter and in getting at the money compartment he tore the meter from the wall. This caused the gas to escape in large volumes directly over the furnace and had it not been discovered by a boarder shortly afterwards it is likely that an explosion would have been the result and the house and occupants blown to atoms.

HEAR RUMORS OF MOVE TO BRING ABOUT PEACE ABROAD

The New York Sun printed the following despatch from a correspondent in Rome this morning:

"Rome, Dec. 10.—I am informed that besides striving to avert the intervention of Italy on the side of the Allies in the war, Prince von Buelow, who has been appointed provisional Ambassador of Germany here, is entrusted with a special secret mission to prepare for peace. This is practically certain to be negotiated under the joint auspices of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy and President Wilson of the United States, whose efforts to bring about peace have been unceasing.

"Prince von Buelow will represent Germany when the peace pourparlers are negotiated in this city.

"Prince von Buelow is detained at Berlin owing to the illness of the Kaiser, who is unable to receive him in audience for his final instructions."

FIRST OF SERIES OF "HOME SOCIALS" HELD

The first of a series of "home socials" was held yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Charles Graves, 914 West Fifth street, under the auspices of the Women's Guild, of the Church of the Heavenly Rest. There was a large attendance of the members. Mrs. Graves was assisted in entertaining the guests by her daughter, Mrs. David Rose.

The afternoon was spent playing games and in discussing plans of work for the winter months. These meetings will be held between the time of the regular session of the guild to further the interest of church work. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Grannatt, 744 West Fourth street, January 14.

AN EYE TO BUSINESS.

Mme. Strauss Saw a Chance For Profit That Her Husband Missed.

A little story told by Les Annales shows that Mme. Strauss, the wife of Richard Strauss, the composer, is a woman with a keen business sense. It is perhaps she who has made her husband's reputation as the shrewdest dealer among musicians.

One day a young musician called on Strauss and asked permission to play for him a parody on the famous composer's "Salome." Strauss granted the request. When the young man had finished Strauss was enthusiastic in his approval. "Very droll, very droll!" he cried. "It will be a success, a great success! I congratulate you."

As the young musician was on the point of leaving Mme. Strauss entered, and her husband at once began an enthusiastic explanation. "This young gentleman," he cried, "has just composed a parody on 'Salome,' a truly remarkable piece of work."

Mme. Strauss raised her eyebrows. "What terms have you made?" she asked in a low voice.

"Why, no terms."

"That is no way to do. Demand 25 per cent royalties."

And, turning to the writer of the parody, Mme. Strauss advised him, with seemingly maternal solicitude, to accept the advantageous offer that the master was willing to make him. Thus it came about that the parody on "Salome," which, as M. Strauss prophesied, was very successful, proved a source of considerable income for the Strausses.

MODERN FACTORY METHODS.

An Illustration of the Efficiency of Scientific Management.

Writing in the American Magazine on the development of the modern factory under the new principles of scientific management, Miss Ida M. Tarbell describes the importance of keeping tools and materials in order in the workshop and tells the following story:

"The promptness and sureness with which a part can be located under this system I once saw illustrated in an interesting way at the Watertown arsenal. Lieutenant Colonel Wheeler, the commanding officer, told me to select a piece in any one of the gun carriages under construction and we would take the number of it to the office and ask the clerk to tell us where that particular piece was.

"In five minutes after we had given him the number he had located the piece. I think it is not an exaggeration to say that if under the old system such a question had been asked of anybody in the Watertown arsenal it would have taken days for them to have answered it, if indeed they ever could have done so.

"As there are fifty different kinds and grades of material and 4,600 different pieces used in a disappearing gun carriage, the advantage of being able to put your hand promptly on material and pieces as well as knowing every night whether you have in stock the quantities of each necessary to carry on work does not need arguing. The gain to workingmen and to management obviously is enormous."

Exploding Ice Bubbles.

The intensely cold nights of Siberia, says a writer, produce a curious phenomenon. Occasionally the silence is broken by a loud report resembling the boom of a cannon. The noise is caused by the bursting of an ice bubble on a river. The streams coming from the hills are incased in ice six to nine inches thick, and as the water descends faster than it escapes through the river the result is a heavy hydrostatic pressure. This first causes the ice upon the river to rise in mounds often six to eight feet high. For a time they seem to yield elastically to the pressure, but finally can withstand no more and burst with an explosive report. The water rushes out, soon freezing, however, and causing further explosions. The writer asserts that he has seen scores of these ice hillocks within a few miles.

Smallest Bird.

The golden crested wren is the smallest, not only of British, but of all European birds. Its average weight is only about eighty grains troy, so that it would take seventy-two of the birds to weigh a pound. The length of the feathers is about three and a half inches and the stretch of the wings about five inches, but when the feathers are taken off the length of the body does not exceed an inch.

HUBERT RICHARDSON WEDS MISS FEDELIA TODMAN

Miss Fedelia Todman and Hubert Richardson, of Plainfield, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Arindell, 639 West Fourth street, Thursday evening. Miss Martha Lovell, the maid of honor, wearing a blue gown and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations, and James Thomas, the best man, were the attendants.

The bride was gowned in white satin, with veil caught in cap fashion, carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations and roses, entered with James Arindell, a relative, who gave her away. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. P. Collier, pastor of Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, the ring ceremony being used. The marriage was witnessed by a few close friends.

ARGUE THAW CASE IN U. S. SUPREME COURT

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—Distinguished lawyers made final arguments in the Supreme Court today for and against Harry K. Thaw's efforts to prevent his extradition from New Hampshire to New York on the demand of the latter State that he be returned to face an indictment for conspiracy in connection with his escape from Matteawan Insane Asylum.

William Travers Jerome, special counsel for the State of New York, argued that Thaw should be extradited. In Thaw's behalf Philander C. Knox, former Secretary of State, argued the constitutional questions that have crept into the Thaw extraditions controversy.

Thaw's case is before the Supreme Court on an appeal by the State of New York from the decision of Federal Judge Aldrich, of New Hampshire, sustaining Thaw's application for a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Aldrich held the extradition process to be invalid.

CANTATA CHORUS WILL GIVE "STAR OF PROMISE"

"The Star of Promise," a Christmas cantata, will be given at the Monroe Avenue church tonight by the Cantata chorus, under the direction of William Holmes, of this city. An excellent rehearsal was held last night and the affair promises to be the best yet given by this ambitious musical organization.

The first part of the program will comprise solo numbers by a mixed chorus, B. F. Tallamy, Miss Hall, Mrs. A. H. Flood, L. V. Tallamy and E. D. Young. The second part will be devoted to the cantata, arranged and composed by E. L. Ashford.

The chorus will be assisted by B. F. Tallamy and E. D. Young. Mrs. F. J. Hubach will be the accompanist and organist. The chorus is composed of the following:

Mrs. E. H. Beekman, Mrs. Albert Drake, Mrs. A. H. Flood, Mrs. Jos. Gilbert, Mrs. Harry Gardner, Mrs. S. T. Saums, Mrs. L. V. Tallamy, Mrs. J. MAKE YOURS A PUBLIC SERVICE STORE

This is the age of service. The rewards of today go to the men who give the most in return.

Translated for you, Mr. Merchant, this means that the customers are certain to patronize the store that will give them what they want when they want it.

Cut prices may bring some trade, but better service will bring more.

This is the age when people are reading the advertising in their daily newspapers because they are finding it a distinct part of the service they expect their newspapers to give.

When a nationally distributed article of merit is advertised in the newspapers a demand for it sets in right away.

People want to see it and, if satisfied, want to buy it.

They are going to turn to the store that lets them know it has the article. That store will be giving them the service they want at that particular moment.

If it is a good article they are going to remember the store where they got it and will come back to that store again.

Co-operate with the manufacturers who come into the newspapers of your town to exploit their goods and you will be building business for yourself.

—Compare the COST of holding tenantless property with the cost of enough advertising to rent it—and decide the matter in a business way.

—RECRUITS TO THE RANKS of classified advertisers are coming all the time. And they are winning "the victories of peace" every day.

INCREASE IN WAR BUDGET.

All nations of the globe have learned some new lessons from the war in Europe. Army and navy experts of the United States have undoubtedly been studying the developments abroad, and that they will have many fundamental changes to recommend in our defensive plans, as soon as Congress gets down to real business, goes without saying. Undoubtedly much capital will be made of submarines and airships, and there has already been insistence from some sources that we raise a larger land army.

Appropriations aggregating $104,124,512 to carry the army through the coming fiscal year are proposed in estimates which the War Department at Washington has just completed for submission to Congress. This is an increase of $3,105,300 over the total carried by the army bill for the current year, although reductions are made in the allowances of many branches of the service.

A new item of $150,000 for buying of automatic machine rifles is asked, altogether $2,900,000 is sought for ammunition, compared with $3,000,000 carried in the current law. The machine gun does as much damage, when properly served, as a whole company of infantrymen. For field artillery for organized militia $2,090,000 is asked, $2,100,000 having been appropriated last year. For the manufacture, repair and issuance of arms at the national armories $250,000 is asked, as against $450,000 last year.

The signal service would get $700,000, of which $400,000 would be for the buying, maintenance, operation and repair of airships. Provision would be made for giving one-year' additional pay to the beneficiaries of men killed in the army aviation service. Other items in the estimates on which Congress will be asked to base the army bill include. Subsistence of the army, $10,250,912; regular supplies for the quartermaster department, $8,000,000; new barracks and quarters in the United States proper, $2,000,000; transportation of the army, $10,000,000; barracks in the Philippine Islands, $400,000; clothing and camp equipage, $6,900,000, an increase of $400,000; medical department, $750,000, an increase of $250,000. Peace costs a lot, but war costs more.

ADULTERATING CLOVER SEED.

It will rejoice the hearts of the farmers of New Jersey, says the Trenton Times, to be told that Judge Shay, of Sussex county, has sentenced to State Prison for from one to three years, Oliver J. Rice, who pleaded guilty to selling adulterated clover seed to the farmers of Sussex. Rice confessed that he had mixed thirty-four bushels of German millet seed with five and a half bushels of red and two bushels of crimson clover seed, selling the mixture as clover seed.

Seven farmers who were defrauded lost a year's crop in addition to the cost of the seed. Under the most favorable conditions it is difficult to keep seeds free from adulteration, and when the fraud is deliberately practiced the offender should be severely punished. A few more sentences like that imposed by Judge Shay will do a lot of good.

There is every evidence that the Republican majority in the House of Assembly is seriously considering an economy program for the coming session, and in the plan they have the hearty endorsement of everyone except a few officeholders who will lose their jobs. Probably the most popular thing that has been suggested is the abolition of the county tax boards, useless bodies created at the behest of former Governor Stokes, to provide some eighty-four or more fat jobs. If they were established to serve a purpose, that of equalizing taxes, they certainly should have done so in the last eight or nine years. If an organization of the kind is needed, the Legislature can create a small board with power to go all over the State, at one-tenth the expense, and the members should be compelled to give their entire time to the work. Better yet, the State equalization body could be called upon to do the work, and earn their fancy salaries.

If you don't get your Christmas shopping done very soon, you'll certainly find that the crowds will make it hard for you to make proper selections. Plainfield stores offer a big variety of merchandise, suitable for gift purposes, and the salespeople will be doubly thankful if you will make your purchases within the next three or four days, so the final rush will be lessened.

James R. Joy, associate editor of the Christian Advocate, and chairman of the publicity committee for the Community Christmas, has written the contributed editorial for tomorrow's paper. He will tell the readers of the Press something about the Christmas plans for Plainfield.

Some anti-administration newspapers have criticised President Wilson for the silence on the Mexican question in his message to Congress What was there that he could have said? The conditions there certainly speak for themselves.

The new election laws evidently have not done away with all corruption of the ballot. In one district of Bergen county, where a recount is being held, the defeated candidate on the original returns has gained seventy votes.

WAR NEWS

that the British and French troops prefer to occupy such ground as they can hold to dashing forward to points from which they can be easily driven out.

The Allies, too, are organizing and strengthening all of the positions they capture from the Germans, connecting them with the system of intrenchments they leave behind. In this way the Allies hope that if the Germans are able to resume the offensive they will find themselves attacking positions that are almost impossible to carry. Such a plan was followed, for instance, at Le Quesnoy and Andechy, where the Allies gained from 200 to 600 metres. These positions were at once organized and connected with the Allies' positions in the rear, so that no weak points are left for the Germans to attack.

A Copenhagen despatch says that a Danish ship owner from Kiel states that two Danish and six Norwegian steamers laden with wood for England have been seized in the Baltic Sea by German warships and have now been declared by the court as being German war prizes.

Paris, Dec. 11.—The French War Office gave out the following statement at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

"The enemy showed some activity in the region of Ypres yesterday. He directed several attacks against our lines, three of which were completely repulsed. At only one point at the front did the Germans succeed in reaching one of our trenches in the first line. For our part we have continued to advance in the direction of the enemy's lines in the region of Arras and in that of Juvincourt.

"In the Argonne was have pushed forward several of our trenches and rolled back two German attacks. In the region of Varennes we have consolidated our gains of preceding days. The German artillery is showing great activity but has been unable to inflict upon us any losses."

Francisco Bergamin, Spanish minister of public instruction, resigned yesterday, as a result of an attack on him in the Chamber of Deputies by Count Romanones, former premier and minister of public instruction, says a despatch from Madrid. The minister was speaking in defense of the budget of his department when he referred to those who opposed him as "those who lead the country to ruin."

Rome, Dec. 11 (Central News Cable.—Western Servia has been cleared of Austrians, leaving only Belgrade and a short section of the railroad up the Kerava Valley toward Nish in the hands of the invaders, according to a despatch to the Messagero from Nish. The Austrian army on the Kolubara has been driven west across the Drina by the reinforced Servians, who have steadily pursued the fleeing enemy since the decisive defeat administered on the night of December 5.

The Messagero's correspondent at Nish also says that the Servians have repulsed the Austrian fugitives, driving them beyond the Drina. Nearly all the Austrian Slavs surrendered and the others fled, throwing away their arms.

American officers returning from Beirut declare that a holy war has by no means been begun, that the Syrians are too apathetic and indifferent to engage in any such enterprises.

Athens, Dec. 11 (Central News Cable).—Members of all foreign consulates have left the Turkish city of Alexandretta, at the head of the Gulf of Iskendrum, opposite the Island of Cyprus. Three hundred German army officers have passed through Alexandretta, they report, and 4,000 Turkish troops are expected there. All troops have left Damascus, with the exception of a garrison of 2,000 An Italian warship has arrived at Beirut.

Petrograd, Dec. 11 (Central News Cable).—German army aviators making flights over the Russian lines are being shot down almost daily. At Lodz two were brought down last Tuesday by the Russian riflemen.

A despatch to the Bourse Gazette from Helsingfors confirms the reports that mines have been placed in the Gulf of Bothnia by a German cruiser.

London, Dec. 11—A corespondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing from the North of France, recalls the fact that December 10 was reported to be the date fixed for the German occupation of Calais and says:

"The allies are now upon the offensive and, although the Germans are not in many places content with merely defensive work they are beginning slowly but surely to move eastward.

"For the last two or three days the allies have been especially successfully on the line between Ypres and Dixmude."

London, Dec. 11.—That from one to three submarines were sunk when an attack was made on several English war vessels in the harbor of Dover, by eight or more German under-water craft, is the report here today. The attempted raid is said to have taken place early yesterday, when the morning was very dark, and rain and haze favored attempts to slip past the defending batteries.

Powerful searchlights on the piers and breakwaters swept the sea from the moment the first submarine was sighted. About 100 rounds were fired by the eastern pier batteries during the operations. The gunners claim to have sunk one submarine and to have hit others. Men on ships in the neighborhood of the attack say that at least three submarines were hit. They believe six took part in the attack. One report is that three were sunk. The Admiralty has issued nothing on the subject of the raid. The newspapers conclude their reports with the identical statement, "We understand the Admiralty has no confirmation."

Nurnberg Sunk.

"The Nurnberg was also sunk on December 8. The pursuit of the Dresden continues."

This brief message to the Admiralty from Vice Admiral Sid Frederick Sturdee, commander of the British South Atlantic squadron which sank the Scharnhorst, the Gneisenau and the Leipzig off the Falkland Islands, Tuesday, showed that the business of clearing the high seas of German warships is proceeding with despatch. Only the Dresden and the Karlsruhe remain afloat, and there is great confidence in England that they will soon be captured or sunk.

The engagement, one of the greatest that has ever been fought between modern warships, lasted only five hours. The Scharnhorst went down at the end of three hours and the Gneisenau followed Admiral von Spee's flagship to the bottom two hours later. The fighting began at 7:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning and by 12:30 the dangerous units of the German squadron had been disposed of. That left an afternoon of daylight for the British light cruisers to chase the Leipzig, the Nurnberg and the Dresden.

The fate of the Leipzig was soon sealed and she was destroyed in time for the inclusion of the news in the first brief report which Admiral Sturdee flashed to England. The speedy British cruisers then continued their pursuit of the remaining ships and evidently overtook the Nurnberg within a few hours.

A complete sweep of the Atlantic of all German commerce raiders by the first of the year is the task now before the victorious fleet of Vice-Admiral Sir Frederick Sturdee. It is confidently believed in England that this will be successfully accomplished.

As the news of the victory off the South American coast has come piecemeal from the Admiralty, all England now awaits the official announcement that the cruiser Dresden, the last of Admiral von Spee's squadron, has been sunk. The last report of Vice-Admiral Sturdee stated that his ships were pursuing the Dresden. With the fast cruisers at the command of the British naval leader the capture or sinking of the German vessel is considered a certainty.

As yet the people of England have not been informed of the vessels comprising Vice-Admiral Sturdee's fleet. Newspapers are demanding that the war bureau announce the names of the warships which have contributed the most important naval victory of the war, avenged the Good Hope and the Monmouth, and removed the greatest menace in American waters.

The raider Karlsruhe, which has established a record second only to that of the late Emden, is still at large. She was last reported, however, in South American waters. With the Dresden destroyed or captured, it is believed the British fleet will begin a systematic combing of the ocean until the Karlsruhe is accounted for. Vice-Admiral Sturdee's last report indicated that the Dresden was cut off.

Naval experts declare that the British fleet has now undoubtedly spread out over a great area in the region of the Falkland Islands and by narrowing the circle about the Straits of Magellan, toward which the last official report says the Dresden aparently fled, will speedily place the German ship at bay. Any one of the vessels in the British fleet would be a match for the Dresden, which is a light cruiser. Her heaviest guns are only of the four inch type.

LOW COST OF N. J. LEGISLATION SHOWN

Statistician Has Figured That $76 is Price for Each Effort —Four States Lower.

A statistician, who does not make the basis upon which he establishes his figures public, has taken the time and trouble to figure how much it costs each state in the Union for every bill introduced in the Legislature of the state. New Jersey people have lately been crying for economy in the conduct of the Legislature, but the need here is not half so bad as that in many other states, and is far below the average. New York, Illinois and Ohio top the list for expensive legislation.

In New Jersey there are 4.9 bills introduced in the Legislature at the various seesions, for each 10,000 of population, and the cost per bill is figured at $76. There are only four States where the figure is lower. The average for the whole country is $164.45, and the average throughout the country per 10,000 of population is 7.4 bills. In New York it costs $582.26 for every bill introduced, and the average to 10,000 of population is 4.5 bills.

By the table which is reproduced below, one is able to make a comparison which is of some value, although elements enter into the matter which cannot be shown in such a table. The figures, while not representing the whole problem, do give certain lights which increase the power of the individaul to gain a better conception of the legislative conditions as they exist in this and other states.

PERSONAL.

Hugh B. Sweeney, of Madison avenue, is able to be out again after being detained at home by illness.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman B. Probasco, of Park avenue, who have been stopping in New York, have returned home.

Miss Florence Brisco, of West End avenue, has taken a position at The White Store.

Herbert Packard, formerly of Easton, Pa., is stopping with Mrs. Cornelia Zabriskie, of West End avenue, for a short time.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Birney S. Hudson have taken possession of the parsonage of the Park Avenue Baptist church, which is located on East Ninth street.

A. L. Force, of Duer street, the borough, who has been detained at home by illness for a few weeks, is greatly improved although not yet able to go out of doors.

PRIVATE COMMUNION SERVICE.

The Consistory of Trinity Reformed church held its meeting last night, at the home of Elder George L. Van-Emburgh, on East Second street, who is one of the members who has been ill for a long time. Prior to the transaction of routine business there was a private communion which was in charge of Rev. J. Y. Broek, pastor of the church. Owing to Mr. Van-Emburgh's condition he is unable to go out and the Consistory planned to meet at his home.

POSTPONE WEEKLY HUNTS.

Owing to the bad going the Watchung Hunt Club has been obliged to temporarily abandon its weekly hunts. The ground is too soft to permit of the runs and they will not be resumed until conditions improve.

TILL FAMILY TO ENTERTAIN.

Under the auspices of the Dutch Arms of Trinity Reformed church, the Till family will give an entertainment at the church Monday night, December 21.

PLAINFIELD NEWS.

There is no better way to keep out-of-town friends informed as to Plainfield news than to mail to them from time to time a copy of The Press after you have finished with it, sometimes marking an article of special interest.

Better yet, you might send some one out-of-town a subscription to receive The Daily Press every day at the rate of 10 cents a week or $5.00 a year.

WILL DISCUSS PROBLEM OF SCHOOL SUPERVISION

Trenton, Dec. 11—To discuss the problems of supervision of schools by supervising principals, State Commissioner of Education Calvin N. Kendall has arranged for a meeting of supervising principals and county superintendents of Cape May, Atlantic, Cumberland, Salem, Gloucester, Camden and Burlington counties, for Wednesday and Thursday of next week at Atlantic City. This will be the first of a series of three meetings of the principals with the State commissioner.

The most important means of improving the work of teachers, according to Dr. Kendall is to improve the quality of the supervision of instruction. At the Atlantic City meeting, various phases of the government of the schools will be discussed by the members attending. A second meeting will be held at New Brunswick, January 11 and 12. The superintendents and principals of the central division of the State will attend this conference.

DEFY INVESTIGATION BY AN INQUIRY COMMITTEE

Trenton, Dec. 11—Still defying the Legislature's joint appropriations committee, which is investigating the State Road Department, George M. Brewster and Walter Scott, president and secretary of the George M. Brewster Construction Company, of Bergen county, failed to appear yesterday when the inquiry was continued. According to the Attorney General, they are guilty of a misdemeanor for ignoring the committee's subpoenas. The matter has been taken up with the Mercer county prosecutor, and indictments will probably be asked.

XMAS CAROL SERVICE.

Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson announces that a carol song service will be held at Grace church, Christmas eve from 5 to 5:30 o'clock, by the choir under the direction of S. Frederick Smith, organist. The choir will sing the old-fashioned Christmas carols and a general invitation is extended to the public to attend this service, the rector believing that it will help to enthuse people with the proper Christmas spirit.

NO FOOTBALL GAMES.

For the first time in two months Plainfield will be without a Saturday afternoon football game tomorrow. Manager Doyle, of the Holy Cross team, has announced the completion of his schedule.

EDISON'S WIFE SAVES HIS NOTES

Was the First to Order Books Carried From the Big Fire.

Out in Llewellyn Park this morning they were smiling. The Edison plant is gutted by fire. A loss of $2,000,000 has had to be checked up on the debit side. All New Jerseyites around Llewellyn Park regard Mr. Edison as a prize possession and neighbor. But out in Llewellyn Park they were smiling this morning.

For why? The smile concerns a young man from New York, who came rushing out to the home of the inventor and interviewed Mrs. Thomas A. Edison. Mrs. Edison, according to the evidence, excused herself from a tea party she was giving to friends in the dining room and came out on the porch of her beautiful home to be interviewed. It was evening, but how anyone could make such a mistake even in the dark is a puzzle to Llewellyn Park.

The young man went away and called Mrs. Thomas A. Edison the "sweet old lady of the Edison works."

Now there is something awfully funny about that. It tickled Llewellyn Park right in the midriff. Imagine Llewellyn Park set tingling with surprise over its morning coffee, having its risibilities touched suddenly as it dawns on the comprehension that the interview took place in the dark, and at odd intervals in the course of the day exploding with laughter.

"The sweet old lady of the Edison works," as thousands of employes are alleged to call her, looks about 30 years old. She is, of course, a trfle beyond. But anything above thirty doesn't count because Mrs. Edison is tall, straight, with shimmering hair and a complexion—well a young girl would do well to envy it. She is really of the type that needn't hesitate to be interviewed in broad daylight.

And Mrs. Edison is the boss. A very young boss for 67-year-old Mr. Edison. She will not allow the "old man of the Edison works" to overdue things. But she will work at all hours when the Edison plant is destroyed and then entertain in the evening.

Mrs. Edison is the one who made the inventor begin to take regular sleep and to quit resting by "spells" throughout the night on the library sofa. She has been that sort of a taskmaster for years and the only bad habit she hasn't broken him of is eating pie.

INCOME TAX RIDDLES IN NEW 1915 BLANK

Married Couples Must Separate Revenue Under Each Classification.

The 1,040 puzzle, 1915 model, reached this city yesterday and will provide new mental gymnastics for those who will have to make income tax returns after Dec. 31. The new Form 1,040, which is that prescribed for individuals, is not so different from the old one as it looks, but it contains changes, the most important of which is that a married man must separate under each classification his own income from that of his wife, and must make the same division in respect to deductions.

The theory is that husband and wife are entitled to only $4,000 exemption jointly, unless they are permanently living apart, in which case they are entitled each to $3,000 exemption. Many lawyers hold that the intent of the law is to give the husband $4,000 and the wife $3,000 exemption, or vice versa, but the Internal Revenue Department ruled otherwise last year.

Form 1,040 starts off with a brand new set of questions that are likely to embarrass careless persons who did not file returns due last year.

The first questions is: "Did you render a return of income for the preceding year?" It doesn't say what will happen if you didn't, but the penalties are all specified in the law. If you did file a return, you must say in what district you did so.

The next questions are: "Were you single or married with wife or husband living with you on Dec. 31, of the year for which this return is rendered? Has your wife or husband income from sources independent of your own? Have you included your wife's or husband's income in this return?"

Comparison of Returns

If married you are also required to give "full name of wife or husband." If separate return is made by husband or wife and the exemption is prorated the amount claimed by each is to be stated separately. By this means the collector will be able to check one return with the other and see that only $4,000 altogether has been claimed in the two returns.

Under the head of a gross income, instead of a requirement that the entire amount must be reported, as in the old form, an exception is made of "income derived from the obligations of the United States or any of its possessions or of any State or political subdivision thereof, including drainage district bonds and amounts paid by a State or any political subdivision there of for services rendered as an officer or employe." Such income is exempt under the law, but the old form made no exception, yet provided no place for it to be deducted from the "entire amount."

The new form provides that "if husband and wife render separate returns, only the income and deductions of the husband or wife (as the case may be) who renders this return shall be included herein, but if separate returns are no rendered by both husband and wife the income and deductions of both husband and wife shall be included separately on this form."

There are several more divisions of income than in the old blank and under each there is a line for the wife's income from the same kind of cource. The first item is "salaries and wages' as before. The next two are "professions' and vocations" and "business, trade, commerce or sales, or dealings in property, whether real or personal," both of which came under one heading in the old form. The new blank gives separate lines of "rents" and for "interest on notes, mortgages, bank deposits and securities" other than corporate bonds, notes, etc., which are reported on another line, as before. Interest on bank deposits was not specified in the old blank and many persons had the idea that they need not include interest on savings bank accounts, although the law clearly applied to them. A new classification is provided in "royalties from mines, oil wells, patents, franchises or other legalized privileges."

The list winds up with the catch all "other sources not enumerated above," but the new form provides lines for details as to what these sources are.

Under general deductions much information is required where none was required before, and the form says: "Claims for deductions cannot be allowed unless the information required below is clearly set forth."

Expenses to be deducted are confined now to those incurred in carrying on "any individual business' and it is noted that amounts paid for permanent improvement of property are not deductible. Several lines follow on which the taxpayer is directed to "state the priacipal businesses in which the above expense were incurred," a new requirement.

Under the head of losses sustained the taxpayer must explain of what the loss consisted, when it actually was sustained, and how it was determined to be a loss, another new requirement. Similar details are required about debts found worthless and charged off. Under depreciation the taxpayer must state "what the property was on which depreciation is taken, (if buildings, state when erected, of what material constructed, and value of same, as of Jan. 1 of the calendar year for which this return is rendered.) and what percentage of depreciation is claimed." For these details two lines, close together and about six inches long, are provided.

A separate item is made of depletion of mines and oil wells, and details are required as to the cost of mine or well, gross value of the output for the year, and the percentage of depletion claimed.

The place of filing the return is changed from the district in which the taxpayer has his principal place of business to the district in which he lives.

LEGEND OF THE TEAPOT.

Origin of the Beverage as the Tale Is Told In China.

The Chinese claim to be the first users of tea as a drink, and how it originated is told in a pretty little legend that dates from 2,000 years before the coming of Christ.

A daughter of a then reigning sovereign fell in love with a young nobleman whose humble birth excluded him from marrying her. They managed to exchange glances, and he occasionally gathered a few blossoms and had them conveyed to her.

One day in the palace garden the sweethearts met, and the young man endeavored to give her a few flowers, but so keen was the watchfulness of her attendants that all she could grasp was a little twig with green leaves.

On reaching her room she put the twig in water, and toward evening she drank the water in which the twig had been kept. So agreeable was the taste that she even ate the leaves and stalks. Every day afterward she had bunches of the tea tree brought to her, which she treated in the same way.

Imitation being the sincerest form of flattery, the ladies of the court tried the experiment and with such pleasing results that the custom spread throughout the kingdom—and the great Chinese tea industry became one of the greatest businesses in the world.—London Tit-Bits.

Tribulation.

Tribulation is no respecter of people. W'en he sees a man tryin' ter climb high he says ter him: "De higher you goes, ole boy, de furder you'll have ter fall. I'm right behind you fer ter keep you gwine w'en yo' time comes ter roll down!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Protective.

"It's no use insisting, gentlemen. I will not sing. The doctor has forbidden it."

"Why? He lives in this house, then?"—Paris Rire.

"SMILE FOR THE GENTLEMEN"

Trade In Plainfield and Grow With Us

The growth of a city depends largely on the amount of money spent within its borders. Are YOU buying in Plainfield? Are YOU selecting our own men to do your work instead of outsiders? Are YOU helping Plainfield to grow? Ask yourself this question. Are you?

Plainfield is one of the prettiest cities in New Jersey. She can point with pride to her magnificent High School, excellent graded schools, elegant homes and beautiful streets. What have you done? If you take Plainfield money and spend it in other cities, are you helping Plainfield to grow? Spend your money home where you and your children are enjoying the splendor of our city. Do YOUR part for a better and bigger Plainfield.

Interesting to Men--But to Women

The question of cultivation of good taste in a home means the purchase of whatever improves the appearance, comfort and welfare of every one connected with it. The woman is the purchasing agent of the American home; keenly interested in high grade merchandise and table goodies; the kind presented by Plainfield merchants, backed by prompt courteous attention, a stock of large variety to select from, and prices that are no higher than the stores of other cities.

Trading in Plainfield is the easiest, safest, and most profitable, and when you purchase an article that is not entirely satisfactory you experience no difficulty in having it exchanged or your money refunded. On the other hand, can an article purchased in stores in these other cities afford you the same protection as our Plainfield merchants? Sometimes an article can be exchanged, but then it is necessary to have it travel 20 or 25 miles back to the store where you purchased it, and the second selection forwarded to you, and if you wern't fortunate enough to make a second selection on the day you did your shopping you are either obliged to make it from a catalog or take another trip yourself to straighten the matter out. Do your shopping in your home town and avoid any unnecessary risks or delays. Help your city to grow.

HOPE CHAPEL LOSES TO NEWARK QUINTET

High Street Presbyterians Defeated Local Aggregation on Newark Court.

The Hope Chapel basketball team lost to the High Street Presbyterians, in Newark, last night, by the score of 48 to 37. The scoring was close throughout until the last part of the game and then the home players rolled up several baskets that put them in the lead. The local aggregation was without the services of Captain Heron and Art Grisley played forward with Walls.

Grisley dropped in four field goals, while Walls was high score man for the locals, getting six baskets. Morgan, of the Newark five, was the individual star, having nine field goals and one foul to his credit.

Y. M. C. A. CONQUERORS WANT GAME WITH ANOTHER TEAM

The Chatham basketball five, of Brooklyn, that defeated the local Y. M. C. A. five on the association court two weeks ago, has challenged the Columbus Club aggregation to a game to be played on the West Front street court at an early date. This team defeated the Y. M. C. A. by about ten points and is considered one of the fastest teams in Brooklyn.

No manager has yet been elected for the local team. Several challenges have been received and good attractions will undoubtedly be booked for the local court.

HOW FAMOUS HORSES GET THEIR NAMES

People often wonder who names the race horses and why some of them bear such unreasonable titles. Horses are racing around the American circuits carrying names that in some cases would appear to be handicaps. Here are a few samples of odd names: Rags, P. D. Q., Baby Doll, Yum Yum, Wingobockin, Friskerina, Syzygy, Snake Brown, Sydvianone, Strawpile Billy, Pittsfield Brick Yard, Some Pumpkins, Shecam, Chilly the Clipper and Joe the Rowdy.

Few personages of ancient or modern times have escaped having a race horse named in their honor. There are Ty Cobb, Admiral Dewey, President Taft, Woodrow Wilson, Billy Sunday, Caesar, Joan of Arc, Napoleon, King Solomon, Moses, Queen Anne, Adam and Eve, Duke of Wellington, Richelieu, etc.

A playwright would have no difficulty in securing all the characters necessary for a high-class melodrama from the names of the racers, as the following show: Jolly Bachelor, Suitor, Sweetheart, Bride, Groom, The Minister; Wedding Bells, Matrimony, Honeymoon, Villain, Highwayman, The Lawyer, Divorcee and Alimony.

Then there are the hot names, such as Mustard, Pepper, Ginger, and Tobasco, only to be cooled off by Ice Cream, Iceman, Klondike, Lemon and Sherbert.

Some of the horses have names longer than their manes. There are Blue Grass Hambletonian, Jr., Little Babe of Company G., Major General Bepp Bellpepper, Knox's Sparkling Gelatine, Maid of the Rocky Run, and Tommy the Irish Boy. There is some difference between the above and the following names: O, and Ve, the shortest names on record, and Oi, who made big winnings on Ohio tracks.

TO SETTLE LACROSSE WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 11.—The right of possession of the Mann Cup, emblematic of the amateur lacrosse championship of the world, will be decided at the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, which began here yesterday.

The trophy is the subject of much discord and dispute, and the trustee of the cup is threatened with removal. The Mann Cup is resting in some vault in Vancouver, and the Calgary Club, which claims the cup and the championship, are looking longingly in that direction in anticipation of gaining the decision of the A. A. U. of C. So far there has been no decision one way or the other from Joe Lally, the trustee, and the cup remains in Vancouver, in possession of the club which was declared ineligible to possess it on account of having played professionals on their team. The Brampton team protested, but Calgary was named the winner. Now, it is said, if the cup goes to Calgary, the Vancouver A. C. will ask for the removal of Lally as trustee, and if this is not done, the Pacific Coast League will have nothing further to do with the Mann Cup.

The case will be presented by Rev. A. E. Wert, a British Columbia official. The Calvary club has announced it will remain in the field next year, where it is still in possession of the trophy, or not.

ELKS' LEAGUE BOWLING.

Paterson and Newark bowling teams, of the Elks' Senior League, will try conclusions on the latter's drives tonight. The Elizabeth Junior team is due in Jersey City tonight for three games.

FRITTS' TEAM FOURTH.

Two games out of three went to the credit of the Hoboken team last night, in an Elks' League match on its own alleys with the Jersey City bowlers. There was a tie at 873 in the final and deciding contest of the series, but the home five was there with 95 in the extra frame, showing the way by twenty-one pins. In the initial game the visitors rolled 916 and won by twenty-one pins, while Hoboken, with 933, had an advantage of forty-six pins in the second contest. Wright tallied 222 for the visitors, Mahlenbrock had 204, Wasserman 202 and Corydon 200. Mittlesdorf led the Hoboken five with 208, Miller had 207 and Duffy 200.

Rutherford bowlers performed on their own alleys in an Elks' League match last night, and succeeded in capturing two games out of three from the Rahway five. The latter started off in fine style, getting 956 for its best total of the season, and the Rutherfords, with 792, never had a chance. In the next game there was a form reversal, the Rutherfords being there for 917, while the visitors dropped back to 802. It was much the same in the final and deciding game, the Rahway bowlers scoring 817, while Rurtherford was there for 888.

Sport Snap Shots

BY MORRIS MILLER

Charlie Herzog frankly says that a great deal of the Reds' prospects for 1915 will depend upon the development of two men—also that these two will have to be developed in both branches of the game—offensive and defensive. In other words, the Reds cannot succeed unless they have a first and third baseman, both able to hit heavily as well as defend their positions. The team batted very feebly during the season of 1914. Heavy-hitting outfielders, who form the slugging force of nearly all clubs, are scarce; few of them seem obtainable, and the Reds don't seem to find any. Most clubs can sacrifice infield batting power in favor of a stonewall defense, because the outfield wallopers will make good in such fashion as to even up this weakness. Not so with the Reds. The Cincinnati outfield is shy on hitting strength; there seems small chance that there will be much reinforcement, and the infield will simply have to make up the deficit. Hence it is absolutely necessary that the first and third basemen should be hitters as well as reliable fielders—which makes Herzog's task at Alexandria doubly wearisome.

For the eighth consecutive season Ty Cobb of Detroit was officially returned champion batsman of the American league, his percentage being .368. Eddie Collins was second with .344, and Tris Speaker tied Joe Jackson for third place with .338. All told, twelve hit over .300 in the Johnson league last season. This includes Lelivelt, Naps, .328; Baker, Philadelphia, .319; Hoblitzel, Boston, .319; Crawford, Detroit, .314; McInnis, Philadelphia, .314; Fournier, Chicago, .311; Cree, New York, .309, and Barbare, Naps, .308. Barbare, however, played in only fifteen games.

Pitchers found one of the smallest men in the American league the hardest to pitch to in 1914. Donie Bush, shortstop of the Detroit Tigers, was the most patient waiter. He coaxed 112 passes out of opposing pitchers.

Eddie Collins, besides being one of the leading batsmen, also waited 'em out. He drew 87 passes. Eddie Murphy, lead-off man of the Athletics, received transportation 87 times.

Moeller of the Washington team was rewarded on 71 occasions and Sam Crawford managed to get on through the pitchers' generosity 69 times. Tris Speaker walked 77 times.

McInnis and Oldring of the Athletics were impatient. Mac drew only 19 walks and Rube 18.

Graney and Leibold did most of the leading off for the Naps. The former drew 67 passes and the latter 54.

There seems little chance that the reported plan of the American league—to make the world's series consist of 11 games—will go through. Nor is it at all certain that the seven-game idea will hold the boards much longer. A nine-game series meets the approval of fans and players, and a nine-game set is the most likely way out of all discussion.

The raise in passenger rates means considerable to the baseball leagues. It won't mean so much to the big leagues, although it adds to their financial burdens, but it hits hard the very smallest associations. Possibly the advance in prices will be met, in the big leagues, by a more sensible schedule; less hop-scotching all over the map, fewer long jumps when teams might just as well stop off half way and general shortening of travel. The added expense, half a cent a mile, means approximately, regular circuit, training camp and exhibition games, $70 per player on the season. Counting trainers, officials, etc., that means perhaps $2,700 added costs per season. That item won't break a big club—but how can the tiny leagues stand it?

Well, they've picked up a tough one for Tommy McCarty, the latest thing in white hopes. Tom will go up against Gunboat Smith in a 10-round bout in New York next Tuesday night. It will be the test of the cowboy's life. It looks as if Tommy is trying to jump across Lake Erie—but then he might win. He'll understand fully that the Gunner is not a Driscoll or a Savage by the time he has sampled a few of the sailor's whacks to the jaw.

FRITTS WILL RUN MILE FOR PASTIME

Local Athlete on Medley Team of New York Club That Will Compete Tomorrow.

Jack Fritts will be pitted against a crack field tomorrow night when he starts in the mile run of the medley relay race for the small clubs' championship at the Twenty-third Regiment games. The local runner will compete for the Pastime A. C., which claims the championship, against eight other clubs, including the Mohawk A. C. and Bronx Church House teams.

Fritts will run the last leg of the race and his position when he cr the tape will decide the position of his club. Among those who will compete against him are Harry Smith, of the Bronx Church House, amateur ten-mile champion, and Frank Joyce, of the Mohawk Club, who won the five-mile race for The Ritz trophy here several years ago. Fritts has been in training for some time and expects to make a good showing in the stretch.

The clubs that will be represented in the race are the Long Island A. C., Pastime A. C., Millrose A. A., Presentation Club, Loughlin Lyceum, Bronx Church House, Knights of St. Anthony and the Smart Set A. C.

RATING OF LEADING SCHOOL ELEVENS IN NEW JERSEY.

Following is the rating of the leading school football teams of New Jersey for the season of 1914. Where a defeated team appears ahead of an unbeaten eleven the former was given the higher rating in judging its class. Here is the ranking based on comparative scores and general showing:

SPORTING NOTES

The Federals are still angling for Walter Johnson.

Watch for big news from the National League meeting at New York.

Pacific Coast League will start March 23 and close on October 17.

Connie Mack is maintaining his usual silence, but he is sawing wood vigorously.

President Tener's salary of $25,000 a year begins January 1, when he quits the "small" job of governing Pennsylvania.

The Federal League announces the opening of the 1915 season on April 13, with full equipment and added stars.

Sam Langford declares he will retire from the ring in one year, if he does not get a bout with Jack Johnson.

Only two Braves show in the .300 class in the official league batting list. They are Strand and Connolly.

Gunboat Smith will face Jim Coffey, instead of Tom McCarthy, at New York next Tuesday night.

The "New Orleans Inaugural Handicap" will open the Business Men's Racing Association meet in Crescent City, January 1.

Iowa State College and New York University are gunning for Charley Brickley to become their football coach. The Harvard star is in great demand.

New Orleans may get the bout between Frankie Burns and Kid Williams, the bantam weight champion. The hitch so far is over guarantees.

The Giants were the only team to score over 100 runs against the Braves last season. They put over 114, while the Cincinnati Reds registered 53.

Reports from Chicago tell of blood poison threatening our old friend, Bob Fitzsimmons. He scraped his shin while training "Young Bob."

Great growth in tennis is announced. Since March, 80 new clubs, having 15,000 playing members and 1,000 courts, have joined the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association.

There is a difference of opinion on the propriety of holding the Olympic games in America next year. With fully half the best athletes of the world out, on account of the war, what could the winners claim?

HERE'S PING BODIE, WELL-KNOWN FENCE BUSTER, ON HIS WAY TO JOIN THE FEDS

Ping Bodie.

Ping Bodie, former Chicago White Sox, who earned his reputation by busting fences, is here seen on his way to the Fed camp. Ping was followed last week by numerous other well known major leaguers, who have been offered fatter salaries by the outlaws than the major leagues could afford to pay.

ABBOTT WINS POINTS IN FIVE BACK PLAY

Scores Three in Weekly Competition at the Park Club Last Night.

The weekly five-back handicap competition at the Park Club was held last night, and A. M. Abbott chalked up three points for the night and leads in the monthly run for the average prize. Abbott has the lowest handicap of the players, his being 5, and his net score was 169. With the handicap he had a mark of 174, which was the highest gross score returned.

F. M. Butler and Mr. Parker were tied for second place with a gross score of 168 and were awarded 1½ points each. There were several handicaps of 49, which was the highest.

The results of last night's play and the point leaders follow:

INSPIRING TALK BY EDUCATOR

School regime may be applicable to a large percentage of the pupils, the remainder are left totally uncared for.

"If you are going to have good High School educational facilities you have to pay for them. Our taxes here in America are hardly worth mentioning when it is considered that in Germany property owners are paying nearly twenty per cent. of their incomes to support the government. We are making American society through our school systems and there are two things that the schools should strive to do: First, to serve the boys and girls, and secondly, to serve the community. The High Schools should furnish opportunities for those who have completed elementary courses of training to profit by others' knowledge and experience.

"The time is fast approaching when this country will have six-year elementary courses of study and six-year High School courses. At present there is too large a tendency on the part of the American High School to confine itself to what has been revealed by preceding educators. It should conserve the development of better health, promote the free vocational period and enable the pupil to select a more intelligent choice and also fit the student to enter a higher and broader field of study. Children should be given an opportunity to gain better knowledge of the human race. There is too great a tendency to develop 'cold storage' education. Mere knowledge, unless it is hitched up to the world of today, is invaluable. Schools should furnish leaders and a variety of preparation for community service. There is no particular brand of education that is better than any other brand. The pupil must be taught to place the public welfare first in his thinking and also to correct the evils of the day.

"The schools should be working lavatories of democracy. The pupils should be taught they have the right and power to enforce community welfare and we should make and class the school as a self-governing unit. Essential branches of study should be adopted. English teachers have been making a great mistake in teaching English literature. We should aim to give the pupil a realization of life as it surges through great literature and should teach composition that is needed in their daily lives. Physical training, manual training and hygiene are also essentials. Girls should have some training that will make them more efficient in the homes, such as the laws of health, dress and decency. They will readily forget Latin and impractical mathematics.

"The schools should establish a standard of righteousness as God sees righteousness. This great institution is serving tradition. Tradition is the iron hoop wound around small minds to keep them from expanding. It has thrown present day pupils into isolation and has shoved into the streets thousands of our best boys because they failed to repeat the jingles of educators of the past. Why should we compel boys and girls to stick to algebra and Latin? Ten per cent. need algebra, but for the other ninety per cent. it is sheer folly and down-right foolishness. For ninety per cent. the dead language course is folly. We do not need Latin to converse with our neighbors. All of our powers and memories are concrete and specific. Mental discipline is useful and is nothing more than a formed habit. This discipline can be instilled with practical subjects besides Latin and algebra. Some say we are forgetting culture, but there is also a danger that culture is becoming a mere accomplishment. We need culture but we also need democracy with it."

FAMILY SEEK AID OF ALL AMHERST MEN

Walter W. Breck, whose wife disappeared mysteriously last Friday, yesterday sent out circulars to all Amherst College graduates in New York and vicinity asking their help in finding her. These circulars say.

"You are asked to interest yourself personally in aiding the search for my wife, Mrs. Helen Meeker Breck, formerly of Boonton and Dover, N. J., who was last seen at the D., L. and W. R. R. station in Orange, N. J., at 8 a. m. on Friday, December 4. Every Amherst man and any other friend can be of great service to me by interesting themselves in this search."

The circular asks that any information concerning Mrs. Breck, for which a reward of $250 is offered, be sent to the nearest Burns detective agency, or to Mr. Breck, at 292 Park avenue, Orange, Telephone 4410—W Orange. Similar appeals have been made to the employes of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad and the Public Service Corporation of New Jersey; the 200 offices of the Western Union Telegraph Company in and near New York, Brooklyn, Newark, Hoboken, and the Oranges, and the New York tugboat companies. More than 10,000 circulars and several hundred pictures have thus been distributed.

The Burns Detective Agency said last night that no clue of Mrs. Breck had as yet been found.

The first shipment is ready in time to offer

Henry and S. G. Lindeman Pianos, New, $160 to $225
Formerly sold for $250 to $350

Henry and S. G. Lindeman Player-Pianos, $325 to $355
Formerly sold for $450 to $600

Beginning tomorrow, Saturday, in the JOHN WANAMAKER

Christmas SALE of PIANOS

Used uprights, grand and square pianos, new upright and grand pianos reduced and new player-pianos reduced

The Occasion is a Remarkable One

There are used uprights as little as $45, $65, $70, $75, $85, $90; forty of them are under $150; the highest-priced among them is a Steinway in fine condition for $350.

All taken in exchange in the regular course of our great piano business; all put in first-class condition, ready to go into any home; and the prices represent the cost to us—no more. Among them these honored names—Steck, Schomacker, Chickering, Emerson, Gabler, Estey, Kurtzmann, Lindeman, Kranich & Bach, Knabe.

There are new player-pianos—our own—at actual SAVINGS of $60 to $235; and actual savings of $90 to $245 on the Henry and S. G. Lindeman instruments, fresh from the factory.

The Henry & S. G. Lindeman Purchase

includes pianos and player pianos, built by Henry & S. G Lindeman and Holmes & Sons, owned and controlled by Henry & S. G. Lindeman; all these instruments, finished and in course of construction, on hand at the time of purchase.

Lindeman

is one of the most honored names in the piano industry of America. The first Lindeman was William, who began the building of Lindeman pianos in New York in 1836. He incorporated his business in 1890 under the name of Lindeman & Sons Piano Co., and it was purchased a few years ago by John Wanamaker.

Some relatives of the original William Lindeman, under the name of Henry & S. G. Lindeman, were then building pianos for themselves and for piano dealers who recognized the merit of the instruments they built, and it is this business and plant which has now become the property of which in the future will be the only Lindeman in the piano field—continuing a business which has continued without interruption since 1836.

UNITED STATES UNPREPARED FOR WAR, SAYS GENERAL WOOD

Dangerous to Believe Navy Invincible—We Must Support Permanent Defenses.

Mobile Force of 300,000 Men Required For Our Atlantic Seaboard Alone.

"AN army is only as capable as its leaders, only as strong as its force of properly trained soldiers. A bit trite, eh? But a military truism that may cost us dearly if we let it go unheeded longer."

So spoke Major General Leonard Wood the other day to a reporter for the New York Sun. The quiet way in which he spoke carried an added weight because it had the finality of years of study and yet betokened the moderation of one seeking through earnestness rather than fervor to make the facts clear.

"As you know, we are not now permitted to discuss the European war, nor yet to express our opinions upon the lessons to be drawn from that conflict or its conduct. What must be perfectly plain to every intelligent American is the appalling wastage among the battling personnel, and then, what is not so evident to the layman, there is the equally impressive destruction of the fighting material—the soldier's tools, as it were.

"These are not military secrets, but facts to be found in the technical, the professional and even in the lay press reports, but possibly not properly suggestive to the man in the street. What we must ask ourselves is, How far are we prepared to meet the demands of armed strife? And then, What are our available resources for filling the gaps and maintaining our battle strength after the first brief period of the initial clash?

"Most of the answers that can be given to these questions are already available in the official reports of the chief of staff of the United States army, and it is no violation of the present order for silence if I help to a better understanding by calling particular attention to certain portions of these publications. It is equally possible for you to draw your own conclusions freely from the facts as thus disclosed.

"Today we have immediately available a regular army consisting of 26,000 mobile troops in the form of infantry, cavalry and field artillery, besides 17,000 men in the seacoast branch of the service—the soldiers trained for the manning of our permanent defenses. In addition the existing state militia aggregates an additional force of 104,000, of which possibly 60 per cent would prove effective material in time of need.

"This sums up our ready military resources. We have no reserves. Keep these figures in mind in view of our extended continental coast lines and what you have learned for yourself of the possible wastage of modern warfare.

Reserves Are Important.

"In my last annual report, that for the fiscal year 1913, you will find the following: 'The subject of reserves is one of great national importance. Military organizations are maintained during peace at the minimum strength consistent with training. When war comes it will be necessary to increase these organizations nearly to three times the peace strength. Unless some system is adopted through which trained men can be assured such increase must come from the untrained civilians constituting the mass of the population, and it is evident that organizations increased in this manner would be rendered ineffective for immediate use.'

"But before we take up the subject of a way to provide these reserves and their affairs let us grasp the state of affairs as they exist.

"We have no warrant for believing that man for man our fighting personnel is any better than that of a possible foe. We have reason for pride in what the American soldier has proved himself to be on the field of battle, and that is gratifying in its promise for the future. But overconfidence will hurt us more than it will help, for war, if it comes for us, will come suddenly, and no enemy would dare to attack us on our own shores unless he were fully prepared in the light of modern standards and thoroughly equipped with all of the machinery of present day combat.

"As the militia of the various states exists today it is immediately subject to the executive authority of those states and only subordinate to the general government when the troops have been mustered into the regular organization and discipline over them relegated to the secretary of war. Primarily the feeling is that these state troops are for service mainly within the borders of their own states and their transfer to the national defense is a discretionary matter resting with each governor concerned.

"Picture for yourself the first consequence following upon a declaration of war by an alert and efficient enemy. His object will be to attack our defending fleets and to cripple them. This done, his next objective will be to effect a landing in force with the ultimate aim of establishing a base from which to operate in reducing certain of our defenses and in bringing the richest of our seaboard cities under tribute.

"Naturally we should like to think that our navy is invincible, but it is dangerous to do this. The enemy concentrates in making his attack, while our fleets must of necessity be more or less scattered because of the extent of our coast lines. For the sake of argument, let us assume that some point on our Atlantic littoral is to be the objective.

Vital Area of Attack.

"The vital area of attack in all likelihood would lie somewhere between Boston and Washington. Let us make the north and eastern limit Cape Ann and the southern one Cape Henry at the entrance to Chesapeake bay. Broadly, without going into refinements of topography, this means quite 700 miles.

"True, we have powerful fortifications or batteries posted at strategic points along this line, and, as I have already mentioned, we have 17,000 men whose special duty it is to man and serve these guns. But quite apart from these soldiers, military requirements demand that these permanent defenses should be supported by a mobile force of quite 300,000 men for our Atlantic seaboard alone!

"You have already added up the total of our standing army and the 62,400 of the effective militia, assuming all of the latter could be called upon and placed where the immediate need required. This means an available mobile force at best of but 88,400 as against the 300,000 that would be needful to meet the situation imagined!

"But are we even as well off as these figures indicate? Fancy the state of the public mind should the navy not be victorious in its first clash with the foe. Back upon the coast come our crippled ships, bringing evidence of the enemy's aggressive force. Simultaneously we learn by wireless of the sailing or the approach of a great fleet of soldier laden transports bent upon invading us. Perhaps there may be rumors of a kindred move in the direction of the Pacific seaboard.

"The governors of the states are appealed to for their militia, but public clamor demands their retention at home for protection, and if not so, still these men must be moved speedily toward the seaboards, and do we know that the bulk of these could reach the desired destination in time? Instead of a supporting force of 88,400 we would probably have a considerable smaller mobile army with which to meet the enemy, coming undoubtedly with a body of troops twice as large if not greater!

"And then whence would we draw the vitally necessary reserves that would be needed to make up the losses incident to the first clash? Just think of it, 700 miles to defend and probably fewer than 70,000 soldiers available for the task!

"At the end of the civil war the Union and the Confederate armies totaled something like 1,200,000, but this ultimate fighting strength represented what remained of the 4,000,000 men called into service during the years of that conflict. This fact shows how much depends upon this matter of reserves.

Blows Struck Quickly.

"But aside from this lesson we cannot draw any comfort now from our capacity then to supply the wastage incidental to disease and the battlefield. In a large measure both sides were fighting under kindred conditions of unpreparedness and both drew upon untrained citizens to keep the struggle going, and there was time enough in that prolonged strife to familiarize the soldiers with the simpler requirements of warfare of that date.

"Now circumstances would differ radically. The withering machinery of battle is totally unlike that employed during the civil war. Every blow would be struck quickly and with the utmost violence.

"But the need of more men in the ranks is only one phase of the problem as it confronts us now. There exists equally the necessity for building up with as little delay as practicable a reserve of officers qualified to serve as company officers of reserves or volunteers. If we were called upon to mobilize to meet a first class power we should require immediately several thousand officers. Where are we to get them? This is a matter of vital importance and one which should be attended to at once and not left to the rush, hurry and confusion preceding a war.

"I am of the opinion that it would be practicable to select from the graduating classes of those military schools at which we have officers of the army as military instructors, on the recommendation of such instructors, 400 men each year who could be commissioned as provisional second lieutenants in the different line branches of the regular army, including coast artillery, for a period of one year, subject only to physical examination, to receive the full pay and allowances of a second lieutenant, to be junior to all second lieutenants of the regular establishment, and to be discharged at the end of one year with a certificate of proficiency, if they merit it, as company, troop or battery officers of militia, volunteers and the regular establishment in war. I believe that a proposition of this kind on the part of the government would meet with a generous response, and that it is a practicable way of providing a reserve of officers. The results obtained would justify the expense.

"As you know, for the past two summers we have conducted students' military instruction camps. To enter one of these camps applicants must be citizens of the United States between eighteen and thirty years of age, of good moral character, physically qualified, and students in, or recent graduates of, universities, colleges and the senior class at high schools.

"As matters have been up to date the students have been obliged to pay for their transportation to and from the camp, for their subsistence at the rate of $3.50 per week, and also for their uniform, costing about $5. The government has furnished gratuitously only the instructors and the camp equipage. You might imagine that this proposition was not an appealing one, especially as the government expected to be the ultimate beneficiary. The results, however, have been extremely encouraging.

Camps Produce Results.

"During the past summer we had four camps, one at Asheville, N. C., from July 6 to Aug. 7; one at Burlington, Vt., and one at Ludington, Mich., at the same time, and one at Monterey, Cal., from June 26 to July 31 inclusive. Take the Burlington camp as an example.

"We had there 350 students and at the end of their five weeks of training 129 were recommended to fill lieutenancies and captaincies of volunteers. In five days of target practice 60 per cent of the 350 students made the rating of markmanship or better, which is a high classification. The discipline was excellent, and only one man was sent home from camp because of an infraction. The men were as keen as mustard for the work and were heartily interested in both the practical and the academic side of the training. Their student habits made it easy for them to follow the books and to absorb the lessons designed for them.

"The officer in charge of the Burlington camp frankly said that the results were such that had he not witnessed them himself he would not have believed them possible. The extension of this camp idea is full of possibilities both for officers and men of the volunteers, and its logical expansion would provide means for an almost unlimited number of excellent material.

"But back of these camps, as a source of potential leaders, there is need for some such progressive military education as that which has been developed so admirably in Switzerland. By starting with the lower grades the Swiss boy receives a progressive training which culminates at his graduation or when he reaches the age requiring service with the colors. Then, because of what he has learned gradually during his school days, his actual field service is but sixty days for infantry and ninety days for either the cavalry or the artillery branches.

"The actual annual outlay to the government for its reserves does not exceed $8,000,000, and yet with this extremely economical outlay Switzerland can muster in the hour of need a fighting force of 500,000 trained men! We have a population of more than 90,000,000, while that of Switzerland is less than 4,000,000, but see how differently we are circumstanced in this vital matter of military personnel.

"Australia has lately found it necessary to evolve a somewhat allied system of military training for her youth, with service accountability for all capable male inhabitants between the years of eighteen and sixty. By reason of this statutory provision Australia will in the course of a few years have available a trained force of approximately 300,000.

Must Awaken Public.

"I have urged this matter in various reports while chief of staff, and the one thing needful is that the general public shall awaken to an intelligent need of a suitable provision in the way of a potential volunteer army with proportionate reserves. We haven't these men now, and who can tell when they shall be needed?

"Of course the regular troops must always constitute the working nucleus of our military service, and here again the increment has not been proportionate to the national growth. We have acquired outlying possessions, and these have drawn from the existing establishment and even when provided for in addition have still left us undermanned at home. It is necessary to amplify our field army of regular troops within the continental limits of the United States. That means a field army of about 70,000 mobile troops in a population of more than 90,000,000. This certainly is very remote from anything approaching militarism and in no sense anywhere near the force needful in time of war for the successful repelling of an invasion.

"While quite aside from the question of our military needs, this matter of military education may have a deeper and broader national effect in its essentially moral aspect. The soldier training which starts with the mere lad in school in Switzerland and goes with him until his graduation brings in its train a notable fruit in the way of character building. In Switzerland the murder rate is only one-tenth of ours per million inhabitants. It is larger in Germany, but still away below that which prevails here.

"I believe that this military system of education, with its incidental discipline, brings about a stabilizing of the mind in its conception of a citizen's duty to the nation and to his fellows as well. It might be worth while for the critics of our military schools and the like to consider this view of the matter."

The Christmas Sale of Furs

"The newness of the styles will make this the sale of the season," said the fur chief. We did not have one coat made until the style question was settled, for some people advocated the Russian mode, and others favored Cheruit's coat, which flares at the sides and ripples in the back. As the latter mode finally won out, we have had practically all the coats made in this distinguished style. This feature alone makes the sale unique, for the coats are the "last word" in fashion and they are what women desire.

YALE PRODUCTIONS ARE "REAL PLAYS"

Are Direct Efforts of the Professors at the New Haven University.

The Yale University Dramatic Association which appears at the Plainfield Theatre, on Thursday, December 31, is fortunate in the excellent assistance afforded its members by the faculty of the university. Several of the past productions of the association are the direct efforts of the professors at Yale. Both as translators and as dramatists they have lent the association a most excellent and scholarly dramatic air. The November American pays tribute to Professor William Lyon Phelps and the dramatic association, whose productions it classes as "real plays, classic and modern, most of them plays, too, which the professional stage never shows us."

By their assistance, various members of the faculty, notably Prof. Phelps and Mr. Crawford, have guaranteed the choice of a wholly dramatic and unique selection of plays for the Christmas trip. This year, Mr. Crawford has provided the association with one of its selections, in his dramatization of Stephen Leacock's "Behind the Beyond." The other three one-act plays will be a romantic drama entitled "St. Bartholomew's Eve," by the president of the Yale actors, F. W. Tuttle; "The Ghost of Jerry Bundler," by W. W. Jacobs and Charles Rock, and "The Stranger," an unusually strong tragedy, by A. F. Jenks.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The New York Times names former Senator Aldrich as the father of the Federal Reserve System.

That Herrick boom is growing to enormous proportions. But early booms become threadbare by election time.

The President's visits with Colonel House portend some important announcements. The Colonel is the fountain of administration wisdom.

Governor-elect Willis, of Ohio, will submit to the Legislature a plan for juries to grant liquor licenses.

"Under blind leadership, the Progressive Party followed a shallow middle-of-the-road course," is the summary of Amos Pinchot.

Champ Clark's nomination of Mann is a sincere compliment to the Chicagoan, who at all times commands the Speaker's respect in the House.

The attempt of ex-Mayor Eugene Schmitz, of San Francisco, to "seek vindication" by running again, recalls the political scandal of the Golden Gate.

The fall of Tim Ansberry in the recent election is attributed to religious agitation in Ohio. Tim is an invalid, and couldn't fight a good battle.

North Branch.

The members of the Home and Foreign Missionary Society, of the Lower Valley Presbyterian church, were entertained yesterday by Mrs. Daniel S. Apgar, of Academy street, Califon.

A meeting of the Young Men's Association will be held tonight at the Presbyterian manse.

A cottage prayer meeting was held Wednesday night, at the home of Mrs. William Philhower.

Mrs. George Benner, of Newark, and Mrs. Roy Miller, of Pocono Summit, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Alpaugh, on Academy street, Califon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stillwell, who were recently married, will begin housekeeping at Middle Valley next Monday.

Mrs. Charles Oakley is ill at her home at Little Brook.

George Burrell and family returned this week to Schooley's Mountain, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Amos Y. Burrell, at Little Brook.

A chicken pie supper was served last night at the High Bridge Reformed chapel.

A meeting of the High Bridge Garden Club will be held today at the residence of Knox Taylor, High Bridge.

Flemington.

Flemington's letter boxes have arrived and the work of installing them was begun Wednesday. The borough has had free delivery service for a considerable length of time, but the boxes for the collection of mail matter had not been erected.

Norman Landis, organist of the Presbyterian church, gave an organ recital in the Sellersville Methodist Episcopal church, last evening. A new organ has just been installed in the church.

MARKETING SYSTEM TO BE IMPROVED

American Farmers Meet in Omaha to Discuss Approved Methods.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 11—Representatives of 10,000 farmers' organizations throughout the United States gathered here yesterday, for the first convention of the American Farmers' Federation, which was organized last August at Kansas City. The convention opened at the Hotel Millard, with J. A. Everitt, of Omaha, president of the federation, presiding. Aside from the completion of the organization work, whereby all farming districts in the United States will be combined in the federation, the one big problem that is before the meeting is the perfection of a marketing system. The various forms of this measure were discussed by able speakers, and they provided for the establishment of a central system that would work with the present local farmers' associations, forming a central clearing house for farmers, both organized and unorganized, in handling their marketing.

It was pointed out that the local organizations of farmers, covering practically every section of the country, have met with great success in their separate and limited fields. The proposition of uniting this great body of some ten thousand different organizations into a distinctive marketing organization is one of the largest combines ever undertaken, and it means, if successful, a new era for the American farmer. Although the plan is in its infancy, and many of the delegates from remote sections were not altogether sure that such a big body would be able to benefit their particular locality, the meeting took on an enthusiastic aspect from the start. Today and tomorrow further meetings are to be held, for further consideration and discussion of the practical points of organization and scope of work to be undertaken.

It is estimated that the small amount of two cents per acre for land in cultivation will provide sufficient funds to establish the most efficient central organization. It is expected that the federation will approve this plan of financing the plan.

The big central idea, as advanced yesterday, is the formation of a system of county or district clearing houses reporting directly to a national clearing house on crop conditions and available supply. The national clearing house would undertake to meet the prevailing demand at any given terminal market and prevent congestion of the market, which so often brings loss to the producers.

VICE PRESIDENT AIDS NEGRO.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 11.—Through the intercession of Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, Logan Helm, a negro murderer, will serve life imprisonment instead of being executed for murder. Helm has entered on his life term at Eddyville Penitentiary. Helm's mother was a servant in the boyhood home of Marshall, and her plea did not go unanswered. The negro shot and killed his sweetheart last year. Helm won much sympathy for himself by soliciting funds from the jail inmates for the starving Belgians.

CREAM FOR CATARRH OPENS UP NOSTRILS

Tells How To Get Quick Relief from Head-Colds. It's Splendid.

In one minute your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh will be gone.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh—Relief comes so quickly.—Adv.

The Moon Draws the Water of the Ocean Toward Her.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

A Fairy Story About the Moon And the Tides.

"ONCE upon a time, kiddies," began daddy, "there was a big crab that lived in the bottom of the ocean. It was a very, very big crab and, of course, took up a great deal of room.

"The crab would get tired of staying away down in the bottom of the ocean; so twice every twenty-four hours it would go up to the top of the water.

"Of course when the crab was on top of the water there would be a big hole left in the ocean which the waters would rush to fill.

"Then when the crab would go back down into the ocean again, of course the waters all had to scamper away to give it room.

"Of course this made the ocean very vexed, and so it complained very bitterly to the moon. Its waters lashed themselves into a great fury and the thunder roared like a lion and the lightning flashed until the moon, although she liked the ocean very much, slunk away and hid her face behind a black cloud.

"The crab heard all this complaining, and it was very angry—just as angry as the ocean had been, only it didn't say anything about it, but resolved to have revenge upon the moon for listening to the complaints.

"One night on one of the islands in mideocean a beautiful princess was walking, and as she turned suddenly she was horrified to see a huge crab directly in the path of the rising moon.

"He was a dreadful thing to look at, and as she watched she saw that he was getting ready to spring at the moon.

"She wanted to save the moon, so she blew on a fairy horn she was carrying, and that brought to her assistance a whole band of gnomes, who fell upon the crab and killed it.

"Then there was a terrible time because now there wouldn't be any tide, and the people all along the shore began setting up a cry, because, you see, not having a tide upset all the plans they made about fishing and putting out to sea in ships because in some harbors the ships have to wait until high tide before they can sail.

"Then the moon because it loved the ocean determined to help.

"So now twice a day the moon lovingly draws the waters of the ocean toward her and then just as lovingly pushes them away again, so that the fishermen and navigators shall be able to go on with their daily lives as they did when the crab was at the bottom of the ocean."

"That's only a fairy story, daddy," said Evelyn.

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

"Why, what is this, Mary?" asked Mr. Ripley in surprise as he looked at a piece of paper he held in his hand.

"That, my dear, is the first installment of the money to be paid into the funds of the firm by the junior partner," said his wife with a radiant face. "Have I not kept my secret well?" she added, as her husband continued to stare in blank astonishment — first at the paper and then at her.

"Well?" she questioned, laying her happy face against the blue coat of a car conductor, "congratulations are in order!"

"Oh, Mary," came a troubled voice as he slid his arm around the plump little figure.

"Aren't you glad?" she questioned.

"Has it come to this? You don't think I can support you well enough."

"Now, Harry, don't be tragic. This is only a temporary thing. We have been hard hit all around and I see no reason why I should not stand by your side till this breach in our fortunes is repaired."

"Any man with any business sense would never have been caught in any such trap as I am in," he replied bitterly. "I suppose as I cannot buy the things you need and are accustomed to I ave I ought not to object to your buying them for yourself."

"Look here, dear," she said, taking the moody face between her hands and smiling into the troubled eyes, "it was more my fault than yours that you gave up your bookkeeping job and came down here and buried all our money in that strip of sand and bunch grass that we call our ranch. I was so worried about your health, you were so thin, and coughed all the time. I felt certain that you would not hold out many years at that confining work, bending over accounts in a stuffy office all day. The ranch has swallowed all our hoardings and is crying for more and sullenly refuses to do anything for us in return, but it has not been a failure from my point of view, for it has made you brown and hearty and stopped that cough, and it has made Jack a real boy instead of the pale, quiet little fellow he was in the city.

"I call that ranch my business scheme and I do not feel that I made a mistake in pushing it. True, we used up all our money and we had to move into town, and you had to get to work at what you could find to do, and so you are a car conductor. Jack gets home from school only an hour before I am through work, and Mrs. Jennings, the woman in the opposite flat across the hall, is so kind she says she will look after him. He is very happy with her boy. I can double our income just now when we need it so sorely and it will help us to get on our feet again.

"Things will change. You will find something better to do after a while, or the ranch may turn out better than we think. Everyone says these last two years have been exceptional. Anyhow, we are rich. You are well and strong and we love each other and so can stand side by side in troublous times."

"Dear little helpmate," he whispered, drawing her toward him. "I certainly am rich. About you I am not so certain."

She laughed gaily as she hastened away to the kitchen.

Household Hints

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

Avoid using grease at all upon your aluminum griddle. Cakes will not stick to it, while if it is greased the grease burns on it and blackens it. Do not use scouring powder, as this ware is very easily scratched. Steel-wool is good for cleaning aluminum.

A good storm door can be made by covering the screen doors with table oilcloth. Draw oilcloth smoothly over screen door frame and all and tack neatly on the inside. To make a window cut out the square size you want for a window and glue or stitch isinglass on.

To keep cover on cream pitcher, have a supply of waxed paper and some ordinary rubber bands. Cut paper large enough to come well down around pitcher; the rubber band holds it tight and keeps odor and dirt from the milk.

MINCEMEAT

Mincemeat—Boil until tender two pounds of lean beef; while warm remove all gristle and bone; when cold, chop fine, add two and one-half pounds brown sugar, half pound each of suet and citron chopped fine; chopped apples in proportion of one and one-half bowls of apples to one of meat. One teaspoon each of allspice, cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg and salt; add one pound each of raisins and currants, one pint of cider and one of fruit juice.

Economy Mincemeat—Try using the much-despised hog's head for making your winter mincemeat. Have the butcher get you a medium-sized hog's head and cut it up. Soak over night and cook until meat drops from bones. The tongue and ears can be used for pickling, the fat may be fried out and makes very fine drippings. Separate the lean meat and put through meat chopper. With this amount of meat use about eight pounds of apples; also use one quart of the liquor. Instead of cider, use one lemon and a can of sour cherries, one pound of raisins, chopped; two tablespoons each of ground cloves, nutmeg and cinnamon; two ounces candied orange peel will add to the flavor. A little water may be added while cooking. This makes delicious and economical mincemeat.

THE TABLE

Yocomain (to take the place of meat)—Boil one pound wide noodles in salt water; strain when well done. Cut three medium onions real fine, also one-half cup mushrooms. Salt to taste. Fry mushrooms and onions in plenty of butter until onion is a golden brown; mix noodles with same. Then cut two hard boiled eggs very fine, and fry all together about five or ten minutes. Serve hot. This makes a very delicious dish.

Scotch Mince—Into a stewing pan put piece of butter size of a walnut, one-half small onion chopped fine and teaspoon flour; let this brown slightly and add one pound ground round steak. Keep stirring this until every little flake is separated, then add pepper, salt and one cup boiling water. Let simmer from one and one-half to two hours, adding water if needed. Enough for four persons. This is very nice served with mashed potatoes and plain boiled rice as a side dish to be eaten with sugar and cream.

Boston Brown—One can kidney beans or same amount of navy beans (cooked), half pound cheese, a little onion and bread. Put beans through grinder, then add cheese and enough breadcrumbs to make a stiff mixture—enough to form a roll. Bake in moderate oven and baste with butter and water. Serve with tomato sauce.

FOUNDERS' DAY IS CELEBRATED

Fifty-fourth Anniversary of Illinois Wesleyan University Observed Today.

Bloomington, Ill., Dec. 11.—In celebration of the 54th anniversary of the founding of Illinois Wesleyan University, four presidents of the university, the faculty, a host of alumni and the student body took part in exercises today.

The program of the celebration opened this morning at Amie Chapel, where President Theodore Kemp, D. D., introduced three living ex-presidents of the university. For the first time in the history of the institution, all living heads of the university gathered for Founders' Day.

Bishop Samuel Fellows, of Chicago, who is known throughout the religious centres of the United States, served as president of Wesleyan from 1873 to 1875, and during his term the law school was organized, and the non-resident and graduate schools established. Bishop Fellows is now in the Reformed Epuscipal Church, which movement he entered two years ago.

One of Bishop Fellows' students, Dr. William H. Wilder, later became president of Wesleyan, serving from 1888 to 1897. He was warmly greeted today, for he is the best known of the former presidents.

The third honored guest is Dr. Edgar M. Smith, who succeeded Dr. Wilder, serving as president from 1897 to 1905, when he resigned to again take up pastoral work.

Other guests of honor here are Dr. C. B. Spencer, of Kansas City, editor of the Central Christian Advocate, and Dr. Robb Baring, of Chicago, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate. Both will deliver talks during the day.

This afternoon was a grand reunion of the alumni and guests. Tonight the Founders' Day banquet will be held.

CONSECRATION OF NEW BISHOP ON JANUARY 25

The consecration of Bishop Paul Matthews, recently selected to take charge of the Episcopal diocese in New Jersey, will take place, according to the semi-official announcement, on January 25 in St. Mary's church, Burlington, one of the oldest parishes in the State. The late Bishop Scarborough and several former bishops received their orders in the historic church, which originated more than two centuries ago.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

The problem of obtaining new and novel acts is one that prevents monotony occurring in the life of the average vaudeville manager, but it is seldom that such a unique offering is obtained as the one presented at Proctor's Theatre, yesterday, when "The Mystic Bird" was shown for the first time. The bird is a golden canary, which sings to the accompaniment of a violin and re-imitates the calls and trills of other songsters when imitated on the violin. Even when carried through the audience the little fellow suffers no stage fright and warbles away to his heart's content. To miss hearing the mystic bird means passing up the most novel presentation the stage offers today. Another feature act on the Proctor bill for the last half of the week is the Six Navigators, a sextet of acrobatic sailor boys who disport themselves about a ship's deck with such reckless daring that the audience is continually thrilled. The stage setting adds to the originality of the presentation. Miss Grace DeMar, the popular comedienne, offers a budget of laugh-producing songs and imitations, and Barrett and Earle present an original skit featuring Miss Earle as the automatic doll. "Buster" Barrett, the three-year-old acrobatic, helps to make a big finish for the act. The fifth number of the program is a comedy sketch entitled "Who Is She?" presented by Theodore Dousel and Co. Excellent photo plays are shown at each performance.

German Valley. and Chester

Mrs. John R. Burr, of Morristown, has concluded a visit to Mrs. James A. Burr, of Chester.

The congregation of the Chester Congregational church will hold a delicatessen sale at the home of Mrs. Elias H. Skellenger, in the Centennial block, tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Linnet V. Beams, of Chester, will be graduated from the Trenton State Normal School, January 29.

The Chester Literary Circle met at the home of Mrs. Alonzo P. Green yesterday. The readers were Mrs. Clarence Kinsey and Mrs. Reuben C. Carlisle.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

NO HEADACHE OR NEURALGIA PAIN

Get a 10 cent package of Dr. James' Headache Powders and don't suffer.

When your head aches you simply must have relief or you will go wild. It's needless to suffer when you can take a remedy like Dr. James' Headache Powders and relieve the pain and neuralgia at once. Send someone to the drug store now for a dime package of Dr. James' Headache Powders. Don't suffer! In a few moments you will feel fine—headache gone—no more neuralgia pain.

DOROTHY ARNOLD'S FATE UNSOLVED

No Trace of Woman Who Disappeared Four Years Ago.

New York, Dec. 11—After four years of search by police and detectives, aided by the newspapers and popular effort, the mystery of Dorothy Arnold, America's most noted disappearance case, is yet unsolved. A half million dollars has been expended in the long search, the whole earth has been canvassed for news of the pretty young New York girl.

Today there is but scant hope that Dorothy Arnold is alive. If she fell a victim to white slavers, the theory under which the police worked, her captors have shown marvellous capacity for concealment. Whether this theory was correct, and the search led her captors to murder the girl and do away with the body, bids fair to remain forever a mystery. During the most painstaking search, no trace of the girl or her body has been found.

Four years ago tomorrow, December 12, 1910, Dorothy Arnold left her home on the shopping trip that ended so disastrously for herself and her wealthy parents. On that morning she told her mother she would visit shops on Fifth avenue to select a new gown. It was shortly after 10 o'clock when she bade her mother good-bye, and she promised to return home for lunch. Since the door closed that morning at the Arnold home on East 79th street, Dorothy Arnold has been totally lost to the world.

Although Miss Arnold disappeared on December 12, no public announcement was made until the following month, when the New York Detective Bureau announced she was missing. False clues led to all parts of America, and even to Europe, but these were all run down and proven useless. Thousands of photographs were sent broadcast by the police, and the newspapers took up the search. Private detectives were engaged by the score by Francis R. Arnold, the wealthy father of the girl. Liberal rewards were offered. The underworld was searched to its depths, but among the white slave victims Dorothy Arnold was not to be found.

Miss Arnold had been educated at Bryn Mawr, and was 26 years old when she disappeared. Her brother, John W. Arnold, who returned from Europe shortly after the girl was lost, has been working hard in the search. The name of George S. Griscom, Jr., was linked with the case. That there was an attachment between him and Miss Arnold was admitted, but Griscom, who was in Florence, Italy, claimed to know nothing of her whereabouts. Shortly afterward he came to America to aid the stricken family in the search. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, parents of the girl, have made several trips to Europe, but they denied they went in search of the girl, declaring they had given up hope of ever seeing her alive.

While he was head of the detective bureau and directing the search, William J. Flynn believed that the girl was alive and would be found. Later he stated his conviction that she was dead and that the case would go down in history as an unsolved mystery.

ODD KANSAS SUIT.

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 11.—A law suit which started over $89 nearly eight years ago and has piled up court costs of $600 and attorneys' fees exceeding $30,000, bids fair to be ended shortly. The case has been twice before the State Supreme Court, and twice before the Supreme Court of the United States, and is now under consideration again in the Kansas Supreme Court. It is the suit of the Larabee Flour Mills, of Hutchinson, against the Missouri Pacific Railroad. The amount involved was $89 for demurrage on freight cars which were retained too long in the loading. The railroad lost out in its contention, and was forced to withdraw its charges and continue switching cars to the mill. But the fight had only begun, for the question of who would settle the lawyers' fees was still to be fought out. Whether the mill can recover its attorneys' fees is the question the Supreme Court will decide this month.

PLANNING ALASKA RAILROAD.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11—Commissioners Edes, Mears and Riggs, appointed by Secretary Lane of the Department of the Interior to draw up plans for the Government railroad to the Alaska coal fields have begun work on their report, which will soon be ready. The commissioners made field surveys and will recommend a route to Secretary Lane, who will transmit the report to President Wilson who is charged by Congress with constructing the road. It is said that, in addition to original routes, the commission is considering the advisability of taking over the Copper River & the Alaska Northern Railroad.

FILL VACANCIES IN CONSTABLE'S STAFF

Republican and Democrat Named to Succeed Retiring Officials.

The two vacancies on the staff of constables at the sheriff's office caused by the dismissal of Edward Sherwood and John C. Blore, of Rahway, were filled yesterday by the appointment of Charles J. Flanagan, of Elizabeth, and A. G. Hughson, of Rahway. The former was named by Judge Connolly, and is a Democrat. The latter was appointed by Sheriff Otto, and is a Republican. Both took office at once.

Mr. Hughson formerly was a guard in the State Reformatory. Mr. Flanagan was formerly employed in the shipping department of the Singer Manufacturing Company plant, and is a nephew of Judge Connolly.

It is rumored that a number of changes are to be made in the work of the constables and the methods used. Among other things it is understood that they are to be uniformed while on duty in the courthouse. The details of these changes are as yet not all worked out by Sheriff Otto, and he declined to discuss them for that reason. Any put into operation directly affecting the public and not merely changing the routine of the office will be announced in due time, the sheriff said.

As yet no action has been taken by either of the constables dismissed to contest their removal under the Civil Service Act. They have ten days following their notice to file a complaint with the Civil Service Commission. The reason assigned for their removal was their age. Both of the men appointed are young and vigorous.

SOMERSET COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD MEETS TOMORROW

The Somerset County School Board Association will meet at the courthouse tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. Reports will be received from each board on progress and improvements made in the district during the past year and on the present needs of the district. This will include new buildings, improvements on old buildings, progress in securing regular attendance, proper medical attendance, good teachers, school supplies, etc.

At 11:30 an address will be made by Superintendent H. M. Cressman, of Atlantic county, on "Vocational Schools,' four of which have become established in Atlantic to fit students directly for industrial occupations.

Charts will be shown giving figures for 1913-14 for each district in regard to attendance, current expenses, etc.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

President Daniel McNamee, of the senior class, has appointed the following committee to take charge of the junior "stings:" The Misses Margaret Eaton, Ruth Dunn, Ruth Ralston, and Harold Burdick, Adelbert Whitford and Vernal Williams.

Herbert Peacock, president of the junior class, has appointed the following committee for the selection of the junior play: William Wheelan, chairman; Mary Taylor, Ruth Voorhees, Elizabeth Sperry, Marion Blanchard, Helen Weseman, Irma Waldorf, Florence Nielson, Miner Trowbridge, Richmond Riterbusch and Townsend Dickinson.

Preparations are being made for the feed which the juniors give to the seniors after the junior "knocks." The following committee has been appointed to take charge: Miss Marion Blanchard, chairman; Helen Codington, Edith Little, Irma Good, Elizabeth Moyer, Telford Bailie, Townley Pierson, Holmes Clawson, Adam Dealaman, Sheldon Coudray and Carlton Dunham.

The girls' team will go to Roselle tomorrow afternoon to play the Roselle High School five. The boys' first and second teams will go to Jersey City tomorrow evening to line up against the first and second teams of Dickinson High School.

At a meeting of the junior "sting" committee yesterday afternoon, Miss Margaret Eaton was elected chairman.

The following people were nominated to make the presentation speech when the students present the High School with a picture at the Christmas exercises: James Herman, Miss Dorothy Simons and William Peacock. Two will be elected, one to present the picture and one to receive it.

In and Out of the Woods by Telephone.

In a very interesting article entitled "In and Out of the Woods by Telephone," the New York Telephone Review gives an enlightening picture of telephone facilities in the Great North Woods, and the telephone as a factor SIGNAL TOWER ON BALD MOUNT USED BY FIRE RANGERS.

[Telephone in the little house. Coil of wire outside. If a fire is sighted from the tower the ranger telephones its location to the various camps.]

in the lives of the guides and hunters in this secluded corner of the world.

"In the large Adirondack summer resorts, like Saranac, Tupper Lake, Paul Smith's, etc.," says the Telephone Review, "one would expect to see the familiar Blue Bell Sign and find the telephone in general use, but after traveling many miles over a trail so hard to find that it is necessary in some places to depend on the blazed trees, the sight of a telephone in a little camp at the end of the journey might excite surprise."

It is, however, true that even to camps in the heart of the woods telephone wires have been strung, and many problems have been overcome to make this possible. Lines are strung through porcelain insulators which are tied with wire to trees. In one instance a river crossing of half a mile had to be made. Here natural conditions helped and the wire was fastened to an old tree growing in the middle of the river. One of the shore ends of the telephone line at this point is supported by a pole lashed to an old pine tree. In another place a tamarack swamp had to be crossed, and here was used a very ingenious tripod fixture made of three little spruce trees lashed together by wire. One station on the line is a camp built around the forest trees, it being against the law to cut standing timber.

One might ask, "Of what use is a telephone line in the woods?" The answer is that it saves more time and steps than it does in the city, and steps in the woods count. It is customary for the various camps to call the railroad station and ask if there is any freight, express or mail for them. Here is a case where there is no R. F. D., and if Uncle Sam ever installs it the mail will have to go by pack on a man's back and by canoe, as that is the way all supplies are taken into the camps.

The fire rangers have signal towers equipped with telephones, so that the moment a forest fire is discovered the ranger telephones the camps in that section, with the result that danger from forest fires is materially lessened.

In case a person is going into one of these camps and has not notified the camp ahead, he can call by telephone and a guide will come out to the station or to the foot of the first lake and meet him.

TELEPHONE WIRES STRUNG THROUGH PORCELAIN INSULATORS ON A BIRCH TREE IN A HEAVY FOREST.

Then, too, it enables a busy man to go on a trout fishing or hunting expedition in the wildest sort of country, where the telegraph or even the mail will not reach him, and yet be in touch with the outside world.

Booming Business.

The relation of the present European situation to the industrial and commercial life of the United States and the part to be played by the business men of the country in meeting the conditions which now exist is the theme of an interesting editorial in the October issue of the New York Telephone Review which says in part:

"While preparations for war always cause a feverish activity in business, there inevitably follows a period of depression which increases in intensity with the proportions and extent of the conflict. As a consequence of the European war, which is the greatest ever waged, our own country is bound to suffer.

"It is estimated that England is spending $55 a second, and that it is costing the seven belligerent nations $1,200,000,000 a month.

"In America we have both an opportunity and a responsibility in this world crisis. We have the opportunity, in which, as the New York Times says, 'there is nothing underhanded, there is nothing unfair or ungenerous,' to reach out 'to possess ourselves of a larger share of the world's trade;' we have the responsibility of our economic security at home and the devising of new means to keep in motion the wheels of our industry and commerce."

The Review points out that the telephone offers large possibilities in facilitating matters for the business man at this time of increased pressure—whether it be the financial pressure or the pressure of added business. If it is necessary to reduce expenses by reducing a sales-force the telephone will reach more customers in an hour than a salesman on the street could reach in a day; if the tradesmen complain of dull times, they can call up their customers and make sales by telephone. More business can be done and at less expense; automobiles can be bought and sold, houses can be rented, deals can be made, and a thousand other things can be done by telephone if only it is used to the extent of its possibilities.

Business With Pleasure.

"The ugliest of trades have their moments of pleasure. Now, if I were a gravedigger, or even a hangman, there are some people I could work for with a great deal of enjoyment," wrote Jerrold.

"There used to be a saying,—When you close your office door at night, leave business behind. Though not yet extinct, this saying gradually has given way to another,—Business is the most exacting mistress in the world. Another saying some of us had to write in our copy-books was,—Business before pleasure. To-day the sentiment on the subject is probably best expressed by saying,—Business with pleasure.

"Jerrold was a famous wit, but there's many a true thing said in jest, and if the above quotation from his writings tells the truth, it is evident that business can be combined with pleasure in all occupations."

With this humorous introduction the New York Telephone Review in an amusing and apt editorial calls attention to the two leading articles of the issue, in which are discussed some of the peculiar telephone problems of Porto Rico and of the Great North Woods. The articles are written by two employees of a telephone company who spent their vacations in Porto Rico and the Adirondacks respectively, and that their business was enough of a pleasure to them to help make their "play-time" interesting, is amply proved by the two articles which make very pleasant and profitable reading not only to those intrested in the telephone business but to the general reader as well.

Don't Make Curiosity Telephone Calls

"Because 2,000 idle curiosity seekers in Binghamton asked 'Central' where the fire was, an emergency call for an ambulance was held up nearly 15 minutes, and this delay resulted in the death of _____. Physicians say that had the ambulance been secured at once _____'s life might have been saved."
—Elmira Advertiser.

IT is beyond the bounds of possibility to answer promptly the mass of curiosity telephone calls that threaten to swamp our exchanges every time there is a large fire.

Calls for physicians, the ambulance or the police, held up at such times, might result in the loss of human life.

For your protection, as well as for the protection of your neighbors, we ask you not to call the telephone operator merely out of curiosity. After all, she has no more information than you have. 131—24

THE GREAT LIBRARY CONTEST

Exclusively at This Store For the Shoe Purchase

Practical Gifts like VanArsdale's Reliable Footwear

Are in line with the sensible movement for useful giving. The unprecedented amount of suffering and want all over the world, this terrible war year, will surely open hearts and purse strings—at the same time teaching the futility of the "Gilt and Tinsel" kind of Xmas gifts. Plain, everyday needs—such as the sterling VAN ARSDALE FOOTWEAR—are THE THING!

"SHOP EARLY" is another sensible Xmas slogan, which means greater consideration for the salespeople and greater convenience in buying.

MANY ENJOY 'THE STAR OF PROMISE'

Excellent Rendition of Christmas Cantata at Monroe Avenue Church.

PLEASING SOLO WORK

Varied Program of Selections Precede the Cantata—Program May Be Repeated for One of the Local Charities.

The Christmas cantata, "The Star of Promise," given by the Cantata Chorus, under the direction of William Holmes, attracted a large and appreciative audience to the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, last night. The rendition was considered one of the best yet given by the chorus, and its work throughout showed careful training on the part of Mr. Holmes and painstaking efforts on the part of the singers.

The musical was so succesful that it has been suggested that it be repeated at an early date for the benefit of some local charity such as The Day Nursery or Children's Home. This will probably be done. The first part of the program was devoted to varied selections, which were as follows:

"There Were Shepherds," Vincent, Cantata Chorus; "Star of Bethlehem," Wilson, male chorus; soprano solo, "Christmas Song," Adams, Miss Hall; bass solo, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," Schnecker, B. F. Tallamy; "Arise, Shine," Maker-Nevin, male chorus; duet, "Jesus the Very Thought of Thee," Brewer, Mrs. A. H. Flood and Louis V. Tallamy; tenor solo, "Night of Nights," Vandewater, E. D. Young; "Brightest and Best," Hanscom, Cantata Chorus.

In this part the duet by Mrs. Flood and Louis V. Tallamy, the bass solo by B. F. Tallamy and Miss Hall's number were noteworthy features. It was in the rendition of "The Star of Promse" that the work of the chorus was heard to the best advantage. The singing was well received and the audience was generous in its applause. The chorus was especially well balanced and the singing meritorious throughout.

Features were the contralto solo by Miss Esther Hofer, the soprano solo, "There Burns a Star O'er Bethlehem Town," by Mrs. James Gilbert, of the First Baptist church choir, whose singing was greatly enjoyed; the tenor solo by Fred Tallamy and the baritone solo by Louis V. Tallamy, all of which were particularly well sung. Mrs. F. J. Hubach was the accompanist of the evening and her work added not a little to the success of the program. The chorus was composed of the following:

Mrs. E. H. Beekman, Mrs. Albert Drake, Mrs. A. H. Flood, Mrs. James Gilbert, Mrs. Harry Gardner, Mrs. S. T. Saums, Mrs. L. V. Tallamy, Mrs. J. VanArsdale, Miss Daisy Brouard, Miss Georgiana Beekman, Miss E. Baldwin, Miss Helen Hall, Mis Hofer, Miss M. Hofer, Miss Powelson, Miss L. LePoldevin, Miss Edith Randolph, Miss Ethel Teck, Miss Bessie Gunzelman, E. H. Beekman, A. H. Flood, James Gilbert, Arthur Hofer, Isaac Houston, L. V. Tallamy, A. E. Dunham, F. B. Tallamy.

ORIGINATION OF THE RED CROSS SEALS TOLD

Date Back to Civil War Days Used in 1904 for T.-B. Work.

Nearly $1,900,000 has been raised by Red Cross Christmas Seals in the last six years, and yet many people who will buy these holiday stickers at this seventh annual sale do not know how the charity stamp idea originated.

It was war that brought forth the charity stamp—our Civil War of '61 to '65. Some of our grandmothers first played "postoffice" with stickers similar to Red Cross Seals 'way back in 1862, when they conceived the idea of selling stamps at fairs for the benefit of the relief funds for the soldiers' hospitals in Brooklyn, Boston and elsewhere. Nearly $1,000,000 was raised in this way before 1865. After the war this method of raising money was discontinued in this country for a generation, although it found vogue in Portugal, Switzerland, Austria, France, Spain, Denmark, Norway, Russia, Sweden and other European countries. There are now several thousands of different types of charity stamps used in all parts of the world, as many as forty being used in Austria for children's hospitals alone.

Stamps on seals were first used to get money for the anti-tuberculosis crusade in Norway and Sweden in 1904. To Jacob Riis, the well-known social worker of New York, and to Miss Emily P. Bissell, the energetic secretary of the Delaware Red Cross, jointly belong the honor of originating our American Red Cross Christmas Seal. In 1909, Mr. Riis' interest was aroused by the receipt of a Christmas tuberculosis stamp on a letter from Norway. He published an article about this queer looking stamp in the "Outlook," and suggested some possible uses for it in this country. Miss Bissell at once saw an opportunity here and prepared a stamp, from the sale of which her society realized $3,000 for tuberculosis work. So impressed was she with this success that she induced the American Red Cross to take up the sale in 1908 on a national basis. With very little organization and with hardly any attempt at careful advertising the sale that year brought in, nevertheless, over $135,000 for anti-tuberculosis work in various parts of the United States. In 1909, with more thorough organization, the sale was increased to nearly $310,000; in 1911 to over $300,000, and in 1912 to over $400,000. Last year the sale was increased to nearly 45,000,000 seals, netting $450,000 for the anti-tuberculosis campaign.

It is fitting to note that war, inhuman and cruel, was the mother of the Red Cross Seal, and that now war for humanity against disease brings it back to its fullest usefulness.

BONNIE BURN'S CHIRSTMAS PARTY

The Community Santa Claus Will Make Trip to County Institutions.

Plainfield is the nearest city to Bonnie Burn, and it naturally came within the province of the "Community Christmas" committee last year to carry cheer to the inmates. Two days before Christmas a "flock" of automobiles went over the mountain carrying the party including Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, a lively troop of choir boys and Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, who was to play the part of Santa Claus.

There was an address, carol singing, a tree with trimmings galore, and distribution of gifts by St. Nicholas, in which no one was overlooked, from Dr. J. F. Runnells, his doctors, nurses and patients, to the last servant in the big household, some 120 in all. Besides the committee there were a good many interested visitors from Plainfield who shared the happiness of the occasion.

Mrs. William H. Murray is chairman of the sub-committee which is making the arrangements for the Bonnie Burn party this season. It will take place Wednesday afternoon before Christmas, and the address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. John S. Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. There will be music and a tree with all the "fixins," and visitors will be cordially welcome.

This Bonnie Burn jollification is only one of the good times made possible by the gifts to the "Community Christmas" fund, which ought not to be overlooked in the multiplicity of appeals. With Christmas less than two weeks away the treasurer is beginning to be anxious about the fund, which is not growing quite as fast as the demands upon it.

The following have contributed since the last list was published: W. W. Robison, W. F. Taliaferro, John M. Whiton, Emily A. Ryder, A Friend of the Children, Mrs. J. E. Kimball, A Friend, Mrs. George H. Goddard, Mrs. G. S. Clay, Mrs. Percy H. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Max Munger, Mary A. McKenzie, W. T. Kaufman and "C. L.," Helen Rice. Amount previously acknowledged, $325.27; total, $386.47.

Checks should be sent to the treasurer, Charles A. Rice, 836 West Seventh street.

WILL TELL OF EXPERIENCE IN EUROPEAN WAR ZONE

"Personal exeriences in the war zone" will be the subject of a lecture at the Netherwood Reformed church next Thursday evening. The lecturer will be Miss Grace Greenwood, of the Teachers' College, Columbia University.

Miss Greenwood was one of the Americans caught by the sudden outbreak of the war, and had many interesting and troublous experiences. She has given this lecture before large audiences at Columbia University. There will be numerous stereopticon illustrations.

LYDIA CHAPTER, O. E. S. LODGE, ELECTS OFFICERS

Lydia Chapter, Order Eastern Star Lodge, at is annual meeting last night, elected these officers for the coming year: Worthy matron, Mrs. Lulu Krinic; worthy patron, Guy D. WANT NEW ENGINE AT HEADQUARTERS

Civic Association Favors Keeping High Power Machine Down Town.

ADOPTED RESOLUTIONS

Annual Meeting Will Be Held January 8 to Discuss School Question —T. C. Vail Makes Interesting Address.

Believing that it will be for the best interest of the city to have the new automobile fire engine, which is expected to arrive here soon, stationed at headquarters, instead of at the Netherwood fire house, the West End Civic Association, at its December meeting, last night, adopted resolutions to that effect. W. J. Boyd, the secretary, was instructed to write to the chairman of the Councilmanic fire committee, informing him of the action, thus endorsing the plan as suggested in a recent editorial in the Daily Press.

The matter was discussed at some length, and it seemed to be the unanimous opinion that by keeping the new engine of higher power at headquarters better fire protection would be afforded the city. It was also the belief that the present auto engine at headquarters is of sufficient capacity to amply take care of the needs of the Netherwood section. The association did not want it to appear as though its action was in any sense dictatorial, but simply wanted to go on record as favoring the plan of keeping the new engine in the centre of the city, where there is need for a high-power machine.

The association decided to hold its annual meeting on January 8, at which time all of the members of civic bodies in the city, as well as the Building Trades Council will be invited to attend. The subject to be discussed at that time will be "The School Question," and by having present representatives from all of the civic organizations of the city it is believed that a full consideration and free discussion of the matter will be possible.

Following the business session last night, Thomas C. Vail, president of the associatio, gave an interesting talk on his experiences in a West India hurricane on August 27, 1893. He was on a barge at the time of the hurricane and was carried a distance of seventeen miles finding himself on a strip of land. There were 1,500 lives lost and many buildings were demolished. Mr. Vail gave many incidents in connection with his experience which were listened to with the greatest interest.

HOLD OVERLAND IN $500 BAIL FOR THE GRAND JURY

Jacob Overland, the eighteen-year-old boy who was arrested by the local police as an accomplice to Harry P. Griffen, alias E. R. Williams, in the robbing of several places in the business section, Wednesday night, was arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court, this morning, and held in $500 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Griffen was arraigned on a charge of burglary yesterday, and held in the same bail for the Grand Jury. Both will be committed to the Union county jail, from which they were discharged last Tuesday afternoon, late this afternoon.

MRS. ANNA M. REUTER DIES IN NEW YORK

Mrs. Anna Margaret Reuter, aged about 73 years, mother of Mrs. Frank Neidig, of the borough, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 101 West 90th street, New York, following a short illness with pneumonia. She was well-known here, where she visited frequently. There survives two daughters, Mrs. Frank Neidig, of the borough, and Miss Minnie Reuter, who lived at home, and two sons, Frederick Reuter, of New York, and Henry J. Reuter.

The last named has been appointed secretary to Governor-elect R. L. Beekman, of Rhode Island. The funeral will be held at the late home at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and the burial will be in the Lutheran cemetery on Long Island, Monday.

BOARD UPHOLDING LOCAL ASSESSORS

All Reductions Being Granted at the Suggestion of the Plainfield Officials.

David T. Kenney, owner of property on North avenue, near Hill street, which is at present occupied by a hair factory, applied to the Union County Board for the Equalization of Taxes for a reduction in the assessment made on the property by the local assessors, at a meeting in the city building, yesterday afternoon. Arguments to substantiate the claim for a decrease were heard and it was finally decided to adjourn the hearing until the next meeting of the Board, and in the meantime an investigation of the claims will be made. A number of petitions were heard at yesterday's meeting, but the list is still incomplete and another session has been set down for next Friday, at which it is expected that a final disposition of all local petitions will be made.

All of the reductions granted by the Board yesterday were with the consent and at the suggestion of the local assessors for the purpose of equalizing the assessments, the Board upholding the assessors wherever the reductions were opposed.

The other petitions disposed of yesterday follow:

Reduction of $375 granted to William K. Kitchen for property located on Everett place.

The Home Real Estate Company was granted a reduction of $750 on property located at 133 Watchung avenue and the assessment on prpoerty located at 209 East Second street was increased $300.

Amos Andrews was granted a reduction of $1,500 for properties located at 67-45-47-55-33-41-69-71-49-55-57 Laramie road.

The petition of Edward Mayer of 942 West Fifth street, was dismissed.

M. E. Stevens, of 933 Grant avenue, was granted a reduction of $1,000 on personal property.

S. K. Monroe, of 311 East Sixth street, was granted a reduction of $100 on personal property.

A reduction of $425 on a house was granted to Sadie Bond, of 533 Leland avenue.

Henry P. Talmadge was granted reductions of $200 on land located at 742 Woodland avenue; $700 on land located at 735 Central street, $5,300 on land and $200 on building at 728 Woodland avenue.

A reduction of $550 on one building and an increase of $100 was made on the application of Charles P. Sebring, of 210 Watchung avenue.

GEORGE P. MELLICK'S FIRM MAKES FIRST DEAL

New York, Dec. 12.—Carlisle, Mellick and Company, of which firm George P. Mellick, of Plainfield, is a member, put through the first transaction on the floor of the Stock Exchange upon the resumption of trade this morning. The firm are specialists in Pittsburg Coal, and they sold and bought 100 shares of that stock at 16⅜. There was lively bidding on stocks this morning, and the market closed firm, railway and other bonds being strong.

FREUND & HARKEN PATENT COMPANY TO LOCATE HERE

The Freund & Harken Patent Company, of Kingston, N. Y., has leased the property at 42-46 Somerset street, the borough, formerly occupied by the Standard Auto Tire Company, of 42-46 Somerset street, the borough, of which H. P. Vosseller was the head, and about January 1 will open a first-class garage and machine shop. The concern has had a wide and extensive experience in this line of work and propose to establish an up-to-date plant with all the latest equipment for the repair of automobiles.

The transaction was made for the owners of the property by Edward Hardingham, the local real estate broker. H. F. Harken, of the concern, was in Plainfield today making arrangements to take possession of the property.

CHIEF KIELY THE MAN-OF-THE HOUR

Prevents a Fistic Combat in the Union Co. Courtroom Between Officials.

Chief Kiely proved to be the man of the hour in the Union county court building in Elizabeth, yesterday afternoon, when County Detective John Gallatian and Victor D'Aloia, an Italian lawyer, displayed every indication that they intended to start fistic hostilities in the courtroom where Judge James C. Connolly was preparing to try a case. It appears that the Italian lawyer and another legalite from Paterson had come to Elizabeth for the same purpose—to try the same case. After some argument, Judge Connolly finally turned the matter over to the follower of Blackstone hailing from the Silk City and this aroused the ire of D'Aloia. He is said to have accused Gallatian of using his influence to gain the case for the Patersonian.

A fracas ensued and while D'Aloia was bending over Gallatian it appeared as though the latter took a crack at his opponent. At this signal Chief Kiely jumped into the arena and pulled the would-be combatants apart. For the time being the noise ceased and everything was thought to be at an end.

Sometime later, however, D'Aloia entered a room in which a representative of the Daily Press, Frank Louden, of the prosecutor's office, and several others were enjoying a "smoke" and is said to have loudly proclaimed that Gallatian was a "crook." Louden took exception to this and asked the Italian if he could prove it. D'Aloia declared that he could and Gallatian was acquainted with his charge. The county detective was enraged and immediately filed papers in a $500 libel suit against the lawyer.

GOES TO DENMARK TO JOIN ITS ARMY

Plainfield Man Sells Business and Property to Answer Call From Native Land.

Although an American citizen and comfortably located in Plainfield, Peter Urup, a contracting carpenter, whose home was at 689 West Third street, bade good bye to his friends yesterday and sailed for Denmark to join the Danish army. When a younger man than he is now he served the full military term and has since been retained on the reserve list. No one outside of official circles knows what Denmark is planning in mobilizing her army, but at any rate she is and Urup is one of the many sons who are flocking to their country's colors He left New York on one of the Holland-American line boats.

Urup's patriotism was severely tested when the call came, but he did not flinch. To clear the way for sailing he sold a house and lot he owned on Watson avenue and wound up several local ventures. He booked passage as soon as these were concluded. Even the fact that he had premonition his ship would strike a mine before reaching port had no deterrent effect.

"I am afraid I will never reach Denmark alive," he said to friends yesterday, "but when a man's native land calls him he must go."

Urup is about forty years old and lived here for several years. He is unmarried.

CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS.

Class No. 1, of Trinity Reformed church, held a meeting in the parlors of the church, last night, with William F. Oliver, the teacher, in charge. These officers were elected for the coming year: President, Samuel Harper; vice president, Mr. Adams; secretary and treasurer, Ernest Pruden. Following the business there was a social hour with refreshments.

HAD HIS LEG CUT OFF.

Oscar Bendix, of 227 East 118th street, New York city, was received at Muhlenberg Hospital last night, following an accident on the Central Railroad tracks near Bound Brook. He was hit by a train and had his leg cut off above the knee. He gave his employment as a cook and said that he recently came to this country from Sweden.

ALLIES CONTINUE ADVANCE ON YSER

Now Occupying West Bank of The Canal—More Artillery Duels.

GAINS BY RUSSIANS

Czar's Troops Said to Have Repulsed Germans and Retaken the Offensive at Mlawa—Servians Take 18,000 Austrian Prisoners.

Paris, Dec. 12.—Further successes by the Allies are reported in the statement issued by the French War Office at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The statement says:

"The enemy has been compelled to evacuate the western banks of the Yser Canal to the north of the house of the ferrymen. We are occupying that bank. In the region of Arras there are artillery conflicts. In the region of Nampcel our batteries have silenced the batteries of the enemy.

"In the region of the Aisne our heavy artillery has licensed the German field artillery. One of their batteries of howitzers has been completely destroyed.

"To the northwest of Vailly, in the region of Perthes and in that of the forest of Grurie, there have been artillery duels and some infantry engagements, which have turned to our advantage.

"On the heights of the Meuse the enemy's artillery has been less active. On the contrary that of our troops has destroyed at Deuxmonds, to the west of Vigneulles les Hatonchatel, two of the enemy's batteries. In the same region we have thrown up a block house and destroyed several trenches.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle there is nothing to report. In the Vosges there are artillery combats. In the region of Senomes we have strengthened the positions taken the day before."

Regarding the situation in Russia the report further says, "In the region of Mlawa the violent attacks of the Germans have been repulsed. The Russians have retaken the offensive against the columns of the enemy, withdrawing in disorder.

"In the region to the north of Lowicz, attacks of the Germans have likewise been repulsed everywhere with great losses for them. In the region to the south of Cracow the Russian offensive continues satisfactorily, despite obstinate resistance."

"The Servian armies which had reached the Kolubara River," continues the statement, "have crossed that stream near Veljevo, which they have captured. The number of prisoners they have taken in the course of the latest battles has reached the neighborhood of 18,000."

Unofficial reports reaching here tell of a decisive British victory to Belgium. While details are lacking, it is said that the Germans have been repulsed for a considerable distance, losing heavily. In military circles, it is said that if this is true it will probably prove the turning point of the campaign in the north.

Rome, Dec. 12 (Central News Cable).—In consequence of the defeat of two Austrian army corps between Valjevo and Uzitsa, the Austrians have halted the advance of two further army corps from the north, says a despatch to the Messagero from its correspondent at Nish. The Servians captured an additional 10,000 prisoners on December 9.

An official bulletin reaching here from Berlin says that the Kaiser's catarrh continues.

London, Dec. 12.—The British Admiralty announces that in the battle of the Balkland Islands the British casualties were seven men killed and four wounded. No officers are on the list.

New York, Dec. 12.—A despatch from Montevideo says that a wireless message has been received there that the German cruiser Dresden has taken refuge in the Argentine port of Santa Cruz. The Dresden, the message says, is badly damaged and probably will be interned until the end of the war.

DANIEL WINS POINTS.

Edwin Daniel won three points in the ten-pin handicap bowling tournament at the Park Club, last night, and annexed the first week prize. His total score was 644 and the next best was made by Boice, who won two points with a 552. There were twelve who took part in the competition.

EDWARD P. TAYLOR DIES SUDDENLY, AGED 58 YEARS

Edward P. Taylor, of North avenue, aged 58 years, died shortly after high noon yesterday following an illness of six weeks with pneumonia.

The end was sudden. Mr. Taylor's nurse had been attending him and was obliged to leave the room for a few minutes. Prior to the nurse leaving Mr. Taylor he had been talking with her and his condition appeared to be improved, but when she re-entered the room she noted an alarming change and in a few minutes he had passed away.

The deceased was a resident of this place for thirty-two years. He was born in Boonton. He is survived by a widow, a father, W. H. Taylor, proprietor of Taylor's Hotel, this place; a daughter, Miss Mary Louise Kenney, of New York; a son, Herbert Taylor, of Philadelphia, and a brother, George Taylor, of Elizabeth. The funeral will be held from the late home on Monday afternoon. Rev. E. R. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will be in charge of the service. Interment will be at Hillside cemetery, Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Rookogey entertained a few of their friends at their home on New Market road last evening. The evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing. Refreshments were served.

PLANNING A TOURNEY.

A meeting will be held in the Baraca room of the Presbyterian church on Monday evening with the object of starting a two-man team bowling tournament. It is understood that quite a number have already given their assent to join such a tournament. Robert Braun, who managed the tournament so successfully last year, and Fred Oakley are in back of the movement this year and we will say right here without waiting for Monday night, that with men of such calibre in back of it the movement is an assured success. Mr. Braun said last evening that he is desirous of having at least 34 men join this tournament.

N. P. H. S. STUDENTS TO FOSTER DEBATING

Council Decides to Enter Interscholastic Literary League This Winter.

Charles Richardson, of Rutgers College, visited the student council of North Plainfield High School, yesterday afternoon, and discussed with them the plans for organizing a debating club in the High School to take part in the series of interscholastic debates to be given under the supervision of Rutgers in the early spring.

Mr. Richardson said that the object in running these debates was to promote interest along literary lines in the High Schools and also to give Rutgers a good idea of the work in English done in the schools and how well the students are prepared for later work in college.

A delegate appointed from each school which will enter the contest, will be sent to Rutgers sometime during January, when the various rules which will govern the debates will be arranged for.

Sixteen schools from Hunterdon, Somerset and Middlesex counties have agreed to enter the contest. They are from Somerset county: North Plainfield, Bernardsville, Somerville and Bound Brook; from Hunterdon, High Bridge, Clinton, South Lamberton and Flemington; from Middlesex, Woodbridge, South Amboy, Perth Amboy, Metuchen, New Brunswick, South River, Sewaren and Rutgers Prep.

MANY GUESTS WILL ATTEND RUTGERS DANCE

A number of guests from Union county will be present at the annual sophomore hop of Rutgers College this evening. The dance promises to be a big success. All of the fraternities will hold house parties for the week-end, and several private dances are planned.

The hop will be held in the Ballantine gymnasium. Music will be furnished by Van Epps' orchestra, of Plainfield.

Among the guests will be the following: The Misses Hazel Drake, Grace Valentine, the Messrs. Earl MacClary, Earl Silvers and William Ainsworth, of Rahway, at the Delta Phi House; Miss Olga Hohenstatter and Henry Kreh, of Elizabeth, at the Queen's Club; Miss Marjorie Slausen, of Elizabeth, at the Beta Theta Pi House; Miss Ruth E. NOT NECESSARY TO TAX EVERY AUTO LICENSE

Trenton, Dec. 12—Notice was received today from the Internal Revenue Department by Commissioner of Motor Vehicles J. H. Lippincott, that it would be unnecessary to impose a war tax on every license for motor vehicles issued in this State next year. This is in contradiction to an opinion by the Attorney General of New Jersey. Mr. Lippincott has asked for confirmation of the Internal Revenue Department order and will be guided by the department's ruling.

MRS. CLEMENTINE M. FOWKES DIES IN THE HOSPITAL

Mrs. Clementine Milward Fowkes, widow of Alfred Fowkes, of 521 Central avenue, died at Muhlenberg Hospital this morning, where she had been under treatment for some time. She formerly lived in Philadelphia. During her residence here she attend- of the First M. E. church.

ARTHUR LAING TENDERED SURPRISE PARTY BY FRIENDS

Arthur L. Laury, of Park avenue, was biven a birthday surprise party last evening. Several hours were spent in playing games. Later in the evening guests were invited to the bungalows, where they danced to the strains of Victrola music.

A flashlight picture was taken. The bungalow was decorated in Christmas colors, red and green. At a late hour a collation was served. Guests were present from New York, Newark, Plainfield, Oak Tree, South Plainfield, Mt. Pleasant, Metuchen, Bound Brook and Somerville.

ANXIETY OVER MISSING FRENCH LINER FLORIDA

New York, Dec. 12.—Anxiety is being felt in shipping circles for the S. S. Florida of the French line, which is several days over due. A rumor is running through shipping circles here that she has fallen into the hands of the German Cruiser Karlsruhe. It is said that the vessel should have reached this port yesterday morning had she made only seven knots an hour during the entire voyage,

The Florida left Havre on November 24, with 24 second class and 15 steerage passengers, and has not been reported since leaving the French port. She carries about 300 bags of mail. At the office of the French line it was said that the vessel probably met with heavy weather and may have been forced to put in, either at the Azores, or that she will be reported from Halifax.

MAKE WAY FOR APPROPRIATION

Washington, Dec. 12—Right of way for all Government bills was recommended by the Senate steering committee to the Democratic caucus, which met today on Senator Kern's call to map out a legislative program for the present session. Feeling is growing stronger daily among Senate leaders that the appropriation bills alone will require all the time of the Senate up to March4, the end of the session.

WILL VESSELS BE SOLD?

New York, Dec. 12.—A despatch from London says that the Hamburg-American line has sent an agent to New York to negotiate the formation of a new company to take over the line's vessels lying in American harbors, in order to carry on trade with South America.

SPOKE TO ENGINEERS.

Charles Brownley, asociate editor of the "Power," delivered a lecture before the local engineers' society in Exempt Firemen's Hall last night, taking for his subject, "Higher Boiler Room Economics."

TO CONTINUE EXHIBIT.

Miss C. D. Elliott, who has been receiving her friends during the week at her studio, 120 Grove street, the borough, will continue her exhibit until Christmas.

Luxury and a Newspaper.

La Prensa of Buenos Aires is probably the most sumptuously housed journal in the world. Apart from a number of spacious and luxuriously furnished rooms for the accommodation of the staff the Prensa offices comprise a well equipped library open to the general public and a suit of reception rooms where dances are periodically given. The journal also retains the exclusive services of a highly efficient doctor who is at the disposal of every subscriber and whose prescriptions are made up free of charge on the premises. On the roof of the offices is an ear piercing steam whistle which sounds whenever any special item of news is about to be exhibited in the windows.

The Family History.

A new arrival in a certain town has put up the following sign on his lawn:

My name is Pilleton Wombat.
This is my first wife.
We get along together pretty well.
My income is $900 per year.
My wife makes her own clothes.
She has never left me.
The piano is nearly paid for.

Some of the neighbors think this man is a plain nut, but others claim that he's a public benefactor, considering all the trouble he has saved the local gossips.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Japan's Religions.

The two religions of Japan, Buddhism and Shintoism, are entirely different in the decorations of their temples. Temples and shrines dedicated to Buddha are very elaborate and beautiful. Those devoted to the worship of Shinto are very plain and ordinary.

Careful Management.

"My wife seldom criticises me," said Mr. Meekton.

"Lovely disposition?"

"No. Good discipline. She's afraid that if she keeps noticing me I'll get notions of self importance."—Washington Star.

Enjoy Christmas Many Times Before It Really Arrives

CHRISTMAS is lived a thousand times before it comes. The Christmas sweets are tasted before they are taken from the tree. The Christmas presents are reveled in before Santa Claus puts them on his sled. The human spirit, impatient under the restraints of the clock, breaks away and lives Christmas before the prosaic almanac grants permission. How poor the world would be if deprived of the pleasure of expectation! Good things would lose half their virtue if we could not enjoy them before we get them into our hands. Looking forward is one of the fountains at which we drink life and vigor. Imagine, if you can, dropping into Christmas in the twinkling of an eye, without the privilege of tasting it in advance! Christmas becomes the great day of the year, because it is preceded by such elaborate and long drawn and loving preparation. To cut off all that preceded Christmas would be like shearing the sun of its beams. The whole year becomes brighter to everybody who has Christmas to look forward to.

It is part of the mission of the Christian religion to foster and develop the spirit of anticipation. Hope, says Ruskin, is the distinguishing characteristic of the Christian faith. Christianity keeps us on the tiptoe of expectancy. It entices us to look ahead. It will not permit us to consider present situations final. No matter how high we climb, we are directed to a still loftier height. However great our joy, there is still sweeter blessedness ahead of us. Satisfaction with present attainments is forbidden because of the mightier achievements within the compass of our developing powers. It was the habit of Jesus to keep his disciples' eyes on the future. When they were amazed by what they saw he thrilled them by saying, "Ye shall see greater things than these." When they were astounded by his miracles he assured them, "Greater things than these shall ye do." When they exulted in their successes he reminded them of their relationship to a world whose glories man cannot now conceive. He himself had the heart of a child. He was always looking ahead. When he saw dark things immediately in front of him he looked farther. He always looked through the darkness into light. He never spoke of his death without referring to what would happen on the third day. For the joy that was set before him he endured the agony of the cross. — "The Joy of Looking Ahead," by Charles E. Jefferson, D. D., Broadway Tabernacle, New York, in Woman's Home Companion.

PICTURES AS GIFTS.

A picture need not be expensive to be beautiful. The stores are selling copies of the best pictures by great artists and copies of pictures valuable for their tender, noble sentiments or for pleasing colors. The frames are made of odds and ends of stained or polished molding and are in good taste.

If you took some interesting snapshots last summer of your holiday trips or of your home, which you would like to send to relatives at a distance, mount them on the regular photograph cardboard, which may be bought for 8 cents a dozen up. Fasten them together in a long strip by running a narrow ribbon through holes made in the lower corners of the mounts. When hung in a long strip on the wall the pictures add beauty to that particular corner of the room and give pleasure to the beholder.

To mount a water color picture on thin cardboard for framing cut the mat the desired size, place the picture back of it and use a number of strips of paper to join the corners to the thin cardboard. Passe partout is excellent for the purpose, or the mat material may be used. It will not wrinkle the cardboard, and pictures so arranged may be carefully rolled, placed in a tube and sent by mail.

When making picture mats, calendars, booklets and other articles of soft cardboard a blemish will sometimes occur which is difficult to remove. By rubbing the spot with bread it will disappear. The bread should be fresh and not dry. A putty made with flour and ammonia is often used for cleaning white mats.

Five Million Dolls From One Town.

About 5,000,000 dolls are turned out in one year at Vincennes, France. The dolls are not dressed there, but are sent to Paris, where several hundred girls, some of whom are fashion experts, clothe them in the latest styles. Each year prizes are offered for the best design of a doll and for improvements in the art of manufacturing them. This is one of the reasons why the French doll has reached such a high degree of finish. Scores of women in all parts of the world make their living by dressing dolls and many by designing the clothes for the novelties demanded every year.

HOW JOFFRE RUNS HIS GREAT ARMY

Has Every Detail at His Finger Tips.

NEITHER political considerations nor those of actual service in the field weighed with the French ministry of war in placing General Joffre at the head of the French forces. It was believed that he was the best soldier France has today, and this belief has grown since General Joffre assumed the chief command. He is alert, resourceful and has every detail at his finger tips. As the actual head of the army he handles all the big questions, presses the buttons, so to speak, while his chief of staff, General Bertholet, does the work of carrying out the instructions. This is how General Joffre keeps track of his 200 mile battle line.

In General Joffre's headquarters, in a certain long room, hangs a special map, the scale of which is 1-1000. It shows every road, canal, railway, bridle path, pig trail, bridge, clump of trees, hill, mountain, valley, river, creek, rill and swamp. This is part of the outfit. Another part is a wonderful collection of wax headed pins of all colors and sizes. Into the long room run many wires, both telephone and telegraph. Wireless apparatus is also in this room. The way it works seems wonderfully simple when it is explained.

The battle is about to commence. The troops have been distributed all along the 200 mile line. The Germans are facing them. A bell rings:

"Hello! Yes! The Germans are attacking General Durand's division? They are in superior numbers? The general needs re-enforcements? All right."

The staff officer who has taken this information over the phone hurries to where General Bertholet is sleeping.

GENERAL JOFFRE, AT RIGHT, AND GENERAL DE CASTELNAU OF HIS IMMEDIATE STAFF.

The general has just dozed off. This is the first sleep he has had in thirty-six hours, but General Bertholet is wide awake in an instant. He jumps to the floor, still wearing his pajamas, the only garment he has worn in several days. The staff officer reports.

In a twinkle General Bertholet, who knows his map as he does his own face, locates Durand's division. He knows that ten miles back of Durand's command are quartered a number of reserves under General Blanc, according to the pins. Bertholet also learns from the pins that a number of autobuses are near Blanc's soldiers.

"Order General Blanc," he commands, "to re-enforce Durand at once with 10,000 men, four batteries of seventy-five millimeter artillery, ten machine guns and three squadrons of cavalry. Tell Blanc to transport his troops in autobuses."

Within two minutes General Blanc has received the order. Within five more he is executing it and Durand is informed help is coming to him.

Every time a bridge is blown up or a pontoon has been thrown across a stream or a food convoy shifts General Bertholet gets up and shifts his pins to indicate the change. Nothing happens along the 200 mile battle line but that General Bertholet leaps from his bed and changes the pins on the map. The map must be kept up to the minute. General Joffre must be able to look at it any time of the day or night.

As far as possible through information brought in by spies or aviators the forces of the enemy are kept track of in the same manner. No detail that is of use is overlooked. The pins indicate even the size of the guns, the kind of ammunition they use, and so on ad infinitum.

Christmas Concert at 2.30 P. M.

The John Wanamaker Store

Broadway at Ninth, New York

People are Remarking the Great Christmas Crowds In This Store

Why should the crowds not be here? Here are the Christmas goods that people want—over seven million dollars' worth this very minute. Here are the specialized stocks—each a leader in its class—in so great a variety that people may find just what they want at the price they wish to pay. And here is the old-fashioned way of dealing that says everything must be just what it is represented to be or the money is refunded. It would be strange, indeed, if the crowds were not here.

Monday Begins the Greatest of All Christmas Weeks

More people will come into the stores of New York next week, and more out-of-town people will come to New York to shop, than in any other week of the year.

The stores that deserve their patronage will get it.

Speaking for ourselves, we were never so ready to receive our visitors, and to serve them with true Christmas spirit as now. Every section of the store is at its best. Everyone of the store family is eager and ready to make shopping a pleasure.

The Rotunda in the Old Stewart Building, with its tapestries, old flags, wood carvings, and with music and Christmas carols throughout the day, contains in itself the whole essence of the Christmas spirit. From this centre the Christmas feeling radiates out through both buildings.

Concerts in the Auditorium at 2:30 daily. Restaurants and London Lounge open all day on the Eighth Gallery. Store open only until six o'clock—it will not be open nights. The golden morning hours are the least crowded of the day.

Sale of Hand-Embroidered Semi-Made Robes

Special Fur Day Monday

The fur market at Wanamaker's is a good place in which to find thoroughly dependable, fine furs, at reasonable prices.

All Wanamaker furs labeled true to their name.

They are picked pelts—the very best that come from the furriers. They are all in the new styles so very different from anything shown in other seasons.

The small furs have been designed to go with the new kinds of tailored suits. The coats are practical and mostly of the flaring type.

In these last few days before Christmas we have been able to secure from our regular furriers certain limited quantities of furs at very great discounts.

Some have been secured at 25 per cent less.

Many at 33⅓ per cent less.

Some are even 40 per cent. less.

Beautiful Coats

An exceptional quality of Hudson seal (dyed muskrat) may be had in 40-inch coats at $85.

Small Furs

The fashionable dyed blue wolf may be had in complete sets at $22.50.

Black lynx is one of the favorite furs of the season, and we have secured a lustrous quality in muffs at $25 to $35; scarfs, $19.50 to $35.

A special purchase of black fox brings pillow muffs at $12.50 to $28; scarfs, $9.50 to $16.50.

Another special purchase of natural raccoon furs for young girls include muffs, $15 and $20; scarfs, $8 to $14.

Skunk Furs a Specialty

Among moderate priced furs a man can give nothing to his wife which would please her better than natural skunk.

Wanamaker's has been noted for several seasons for its large collections of these beautiful furs and the variety we show now is the best we can recall.

Pillow muffs, $25, $28, $32.50 and $39.50; barrel muffs, $35 and $37.50; scarfs, $10 to $200.

Fur Salons,
Second floor, Old Building.

Fireless Cookers in General and One in Particular

All fireless cookers use the principle of fireless cooking to good advantage. They save time and labor. They reduce the cost of fuel. They save the usual shrinkage due to evaporation in the old stove method. But—

The Wanamaker Housewares Store has secured a new fireless cooker which has gone a step further in this scientific method of cooking.

The new cooker—the Domestic Science—is more sanitary. It will last longer. It will produce better results than were possible before.

The secret of all this is in its construction. Just how and why this new cooker performs new wonders is being thoroughly explained daily in the Wanamaker Housewares Store by an expert who knows cooking from A to Z.

Suggestion—Here is an opportunity for a real Christmas surprise.

The Christmas Piano Sale will be continued Monday, with

The Henry & S. G. Lindeman purchase;
New pianos and player-pianos, reduced;
Used pianos put right and priced at cost.

TERMS to suit, in reason

It will be the day of greatest opportunity for all who want Christmas music and who could not come to the store today.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, DECEMBER 12, 1914.

On Saturdays the editorial columns of the Daily Press are conducted by citizens who are free to express their own views. The contributing editor for today is James R. Joy, Chairman of the Publicity Committee for the Community Christmas.

THE CITY OF GOOD WILL!

The credit of originating the Community Christmas idea cannot be awarded definitely, unless it be to some deathless words in an old book: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." It certainly does not belong to the hard-shell type of Christian (now, let us hope, extinct,) whose prayer used to be quoted: "Lord bless me and my wife, my son John and his wife—us four and no more." We may rejoice that the idea has come in our day and that this city of Good Will has taken it up so promptly.

Two years ago this month the first "Tree of Light" was set up in Madison Square, New York, a lofty Adirondack evergreen, with the spicy breath of the North woods still clinging to its boughs. The sight of it, towering snow-clad, and blazing with lights up to its star-crowned tip, was a godsend to myriads. It was not only an object of memorable beauty, an oasis in Manhattan's Sahara of stone and asphalt, but its rustling branches whispered stories of home and childhood and revived sweet strains of old carols, long forgotten in the discords of the great city. Around that tree of sentiment it will be remembered, Jacob Riis, the unfailing friend of "the other half," organized New York's first Community Christmas demonstration, an open air musical service in which choirs and bands and soloists of many nationalities took part, to the delight of listening thousands.

This idea of doing something at Christmas time for the common good in the name of the community struck a popular chord, and several cities at once followed the metropolitan example in the matter of an out door tree and public carol singing. But the development did not stop there. In Cleveland, Ohio, a Community Christmas Committee, appointed by Mayor Baker, Tom Johnson's successor, raised $12,000 by marketing shares of stock in "Cleveland, the City of Good Will" (unlimited) incorporated under the laws of the laws of the Commonwealth of Good Cheer." Dividends were guaranteed "payable daily in the form of the happy voices of robust children, the contented faces of friendly citizens, etc." Some sixty charitable and philanthropic activities in the city combined their pleas for Christmas donations in one great co-ordinated appeal. The money was expended by the Federation for Charity and Philanthropy, (corresponding to our Charity Organization Society) which distributed 3 tons of chicken, 3 tons of potatoes, 3,000 pounds of sugar, 2 tons of candy, 1,500 mince pies, 5,000 popcorn balls, etc., among 13,000 families and individuals, without duplication in giving. Cleveland had a huge tree, too, a seventy footer, in the great square, and its evening of light and song. The Clevelanders glory in the fact that no one was solicited personally for subscriptions, the money coming in small amounts from 4,500 individuals, who were moved in their hearts to give by what they read in the public prints.

"The Survey," December 5, 1914, reports a variety of Community Christmas celebrations which took place last year. Riverside, in Southern California, had a tree and a marching pageant of costumed characters. At Evansville, Ind., a plucky Y. W. C. A. secretary saved the day after the committee of ministers had defaulted. Five days before Christmas she secured a tree, and a central site for it, and with the help of indispensable newspaper publicity, lined up the people for the celebration, which included "Stille Nacht" by German singers, and the Hallelujah Chorus by the Oratorio Society. At Beloit, Wis., the Federation of Women had charge; marching choir boys sang carols, and the Mayor's official touch set the light aglow. The City Council transplanted a flourishing balsom fir to the park to remain as a permanent rallying place for such festivities. Long may it abide in strength! Baltimore, Md., kept its tree lighted from Christmas to New Year's, with a different program nightly. On "Tiny Tim Day" hundreds of crippled children were brought in automobiles to witness the illumination and hear the music. Chicago, Dayton, O., and many other cities had celebrations varying only in detail. Wherever they were held they were so successful that they will be repeated this year on a larger scale.

Plainfield did not need more than a hint to take up the idea. Several years before the term "Community Christmas" was invented this newspaper had called on the "Good Fellows" of the community to provide toys and Christmas gifts for friendless children and had met with generous response. Last year the Good Fellows gracefully retired and made way for the organization which under the inspiration of Mr. R. A. Claybrook and other citizens did a thorough piece of community service, reaching with gifts of playthings and other less festive commodities a great many needy families, besides the city's poor, and giving a Christmas tree and entertainment to the inmates of Bonnie Burn. This year the committee has been reconstituted, under the chairmanship of Arthur M. Harris, and has addressed itself with enthusiasm to the same task. The close co-operation of the Charity Organization Society assures the wise use of such funds as may be entrusted to it. Last year the donations amounted to a little under $800, and the present indications are that the need will be even greater. As the work is done in the name of the community, and for the needy, without regard to race or creed, the committee confidently appeals to all public spirited citizens for support. The treasurer is Charles A. Rice, 836 West Seventh street.

Closely allied with the committee's work is the proposed celebration in the City Park on Christmas Eve around the biggest evergreen that this deforested region affords. That design has been taken up with vigor, and promises to be a striking feature of the community celebration. The tree, however, is the special care of the Sunday School Superintendents' Association, and makes no claim upon any funds that may be collected by this committee.

If there is any "City of Good Will" it is this goodly community of ours. The twin Plainfields respond as one to every appeal that touches their sympathy and their concern for the common good. The Hospital, the Children's Home, the Charity Organization Society, the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations, the Anti-Tuberculosis League, the Commission on Unemployment and recreation movements, etc., are concrete expressions of the good will of large numbers of our people. Every beneficent social institution we have is the result of community effort and not, as in so many cities, the labeled memorial of some individual donor. Not that our wealthy citizens do less than their share, but "the Plainfield way" is for people of all sorts and conditions to get together in the furtherance of all such unselfish undertakings. It is team-work of this sort which the Community Christmas organization represents, and to the ruling spirit of this City of Good Will it offers its services as Santa Claus.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

The offering at Proctor's Theatre for the first half of next week, commencing Monday, will again include several novelties. One of these is the "Carbaret Dogs," a group of highly educated canines who do almost everything but talk. This act is far beyond the ordinary animal number of its kind and not only delights the young folks but pleases the adults as well. Another feature on the bill will be Charlie Diamond, the "Man With the Heart," who comes with his company of instrumentalists, direct from the big times houses in New York. Al Carleton, the popular comedian, will offer fifteen minutes of solid fun and Bronston, Ryan and Gillette comedy singers, will keep the humorous ball rolling. The fifth number on the program will be "Twice a Week," a comedy sketch presented by Charles Roberts and Company, who have received flattering press notices from the entire Proctor circuit. The second installment of the new serial film, "Zudora," is scheduled for next Wednesday, and a full synopsis of the picture will be given in Monday's Daily Press. Don't fail to read it.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 35 degrees; 11 a. m., 39 degrees; 12:30 p. m., 36 degrees.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples Are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.—Adv.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know.

The use of sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

The brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.—Adv.

INDIAN PROBLEM GREATER TODAY, SAYS SECRETARY OF INTERIOR LANE

For Century Red Man Has Been Spun Around Like Blindfolded Child In Blind Man's Buff.

Wealth Approximates $900,000,000—Orphan Asylum Idea Must Be Killed In Minds of All.

ONE of the most interesting government reports that has been made in a long time is that of Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior. As a usual thing annual reports are about as dry and uninteresting as baled hay. Secretary Lane has broken precedents in the making of detailed reports of operation of federal departments. He has taken the important subjects and written about them, while the unimportant details are omitted or handled in paragraphs.

Secretary Lane devotes some space to the Indian question as follows:

Three things of unusual purport have marked the life of this department during the past year—the passing of the Cherokee nation, the opening of Alaska and the advancement of a series of measures aimed to promote the further development of the west. These things are apparently unrelated, yet they have made an appeal to me as alike illustrative of the newness of our country, the novelty of its problems and the responsiveness of our government. There is such a significance in these policies, they evidence a faith so robust, as to give them distinction. And if it is true that "in America each is to have his chance" the events of this year are well designed to give a sure confidence to the Alaskans and those who look to that territory as a land of opportunity, to the Indians and those who are concerned as to their future, to the home maker and miner of the west and all whose interests are allied with theirs.

On the 1st of last July the Cherokee nation ceased to exist. This act was the culmination of a treaty promise made over eighty years ago, extended by statute and at last placed within administrative discretion. The word of the white man has been made good. These native and aspiring people have been lifted as American citizens into full fellowship with their civilized conquerors. Surely there is something fine in this slight bit of history. It takes hold upon the imagination and the memory, arouses dreams of the day when the Indian shall be wholly blended into our life and at the same time draws the mind backward over the stumbling story of our relationship with him.

We have had three centuries of contact with the Indian. Do we now know where we are leading him and what our own purpose is with regard to him? Have we aught that may be openly declared as a definite and somewhat immediate aim toward which we can work with clear and unwavering purpose? If we have such a policy it should be stated. And this is for love of the Indian himself, who daily asks the question, "What is my future to be at the hands of the white man?"

A Bewildered People.

That the Indian is confused in mind as to his status and very much at sea as to our ultimate purpose toward him is not surprising. For a hundred years he has been spun round like a blindfolded child in a game of blind man's buff. Treated as an enemy at first, overcome, driven from his lands, negotiated with most formally as an independent nation, given by treaty a distinct boundary which was never to be changed "while water runs and grass grows," he later found himself pushed beyond that boundary line, negotiated with again and then set down upon a reservation, half captive, half protege. What could an Indian, simple thinking and direct of mind, make of all this? To us it might give rise to a deprecatory smile. To him it must have seemed the systematized malevolence of a cynical civilization. And if this perplexed individual sought solace in a bottle of whisky or followed after some daring and visionary medicine man who promised a way out of a hopeless maze, can we wonder?

Manifestly the Indian has been confused in his thought because we have been confused in ours. It has been difficult for Uncle Sam to regard the Indian as enemy, national menace, prisoner of war and babe in arms all at the same time. The United States may be open to the charge of having treated the Indian with injustice, of having broken promises and sometimes neglected an unfortunate people, but we may plead by way of confession and avoidance that we did not mark for ourselves a clear course, and so, "like bats that fly at noon," we have "spelled out our paths in syllables of pain."

Census of Indians.

There are some 300,000 Indians in the United States. This grand total includes all who are of Indian blood or who have been adopted into the tribes. The census figures of 1910 show an Indian population of 304,950, as contrasted, it may be noted, with a population in 1800 of 254,300. These are for the most part wards in chancery, the government being the chancellor. They live in large part on reservations, which are little more than expanded and perhaps somewhat idealized orphan asylums. They have lands aggregating in extent 109,150 square miles, or a territory equal to that of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Kentucky and Virginia, and worth, by rough estimate, $600,000,000. Over two-thirds of this land is now held as individual farms, the unallotted or tribal lands being estimated as worth less than $200,000,000. If an appraisement were made of the full value of the timberlands and of the oil and coal lands and added to this was the value of the herds and personal property of the Indians it is probable that they would be found to have a wealth approximating $900,000,000. In moneys the treasury of the United States has trust or tribal funds approximating $50,000,000, while in the banks throughout the country we have deposited to the credit of individual Indians under our control something over $18,000,000.

The function which this government is performing for these Indians is to care for their personal welfare, supervise their business affairs, improve their property, hold their moneys, give education to their children, care for their sick, protect them from their enemies and insure them against starvation. This surely is doing much for a people who are richer on the average than the majority of our own people. And, we ask, must this governmental activity persist? Must this burden always rest upon the people of this country? Is it for the benefit of the Indian himself that it should continue?

There are those who say that it should not last a single day. The American conscience, however, our sense of justice, our traditions, in fact, will not permit the adoption of a drastic course that would cast the Indian upon a world for which he is ill prepared. Yet I am of the opinion that it would be better, far better, to sever all ties between the Indian and the government, give every man his own and let him go his own way to success or destruction rather than keep alive in the Indian the belief that he is to remain a ward of the government. The advocates of the sink or swim policy may be reckless. The advocates of the almshouse policy are surely doing harm.

Is there, then, no way out? Must we go blunderingly on without goal and without policy?

Kill Orphan Asylum Idea.

The way out is gradually and wisely to put the Indian out. Our goal is the free Indian. The orphan asylum idea must be killed in the mind of Indian and white man. The Indian should know that he is upon the road to enjoy or suffer full capacity. He is to have his opportunity as a "forward looking man." If year by year a few from each of the tribes can be made to stand altogether upon their own feet we will be adding to the dignity of the Indian race and to their value as citizens. To be master of himself, to be given his chance—this is the Indian's right when he has proved himself. And all that we should do is to help him to make ready for that day of self ownership.

Viewed in this light, the Indian problem is incomparably larger today than it was when the Cherokees were gathered up from the southern states and sent into the unknown across the Mississippi. In 1830 the problem was how to get the Indian out of the way. To day the problem is how to make him really a part of the nation. This blend of wisdom, dignity and childishness this creature of a noncommercial age has been brought into a new day when all must live by conforming to a system that is as foreign to him as the life of the Buddhistic ascetic would be to us. Slowly through a century and more of torturous experience he has come to see that it is not our purpose to do him harm, but he must learn to find his place in an economy that antagonizes every tradition of his 10,000 years of history. How, then, are we to get into the mind of this soldier-sportsman the fact that the old order has passed away and that the gentleman of today earns his right to live by his usefulness—that the American cannot be a man and a ward at the same time?

Anxious to Be Just.

It is a strange thing indeed that we should be concerning ourselves so largely and spending so many millions each year for the remaking of the people who are the truest of Americans. It shows how anxious to be just and willing to be generous are our people. They feel with a quick conscience how cruel it would be to introduce this primitive man into a harsh, competitive world of business with a code of its own more foreign to him than that of the Bushido; too much, they fear, like pitting Little Boy Blue against Shylock in a trade. Let us frankly state the fact—there is such a thing as being too unselfish, and this the Indian too often is, for he has not gained a forecasting imagination. His training has not given him the cardinal principle of a competitive civilization, the self protecting sense. It is not instinctive in him to be afraid of starving tomorrow if he is generous or wasteful today. And work? Why work if not necessary? Is it not, as an Osage chief once reprovingly said to me—is it not the hope of every American that he may some day be a gentleman who does not work?

Methods to Be Employed.

There are many thousand Indians in our charge who are entirely self supporting, capable, thrifty, farsighted, sensible men. And singularly enough these are most often found among those tribes which were most savage and ruthless in making war upon the whites. Some of these are indeed so farsighted that they do not wish to enjoy full independence because their property would then become subject to taxation. Others are attached by a tribal sentiment and by the natural conservatism of the Indian to existing conditions. Still others are held to governmental control in part because of the entanglement of their tribal affairs. The government will not do its duty toward itself or toward these Indians until men of this class are fully released. There is a second class, made up of those willing to work, but not knowing how, and a third class, of those who know how, but have no tools. For these there is help—the teacher farmer for the one and a small loan in the form of tools for the other. There are those, too, for whom it is too great a jump to pass from hunting to farming, but who can herd cattle, and for these the government is providing herds for their ranges. Congress has been liberal in its appropriations for these things, and with a stable policy and administrative efficiency these Indians can be gradually lifted into usefulness, full self support and into entire independence. Then there is the "proud" red man, who idly clings to the traditions of his race and talks of its past with such dignified eloquence, declaring in one glowing moment against the injustice of requiring service from those who once owned the continent and in the next sentence pleading for rations. This man is half brother to him who has degenerated under the orphan asylum system into a loafer. My confidence is that for all these there is some hope, for most of them much.

Educate the Indian.

But from what has been already said it will be perceived that in the direction of Indian affairs I believe it wisest to give our chief concern to those who are willing to work, who show evidence of a rudimentary ambition, and to convert the bureau of Indian affairs into a great co-operative educational institution for young and old, reducing to the minimum the eleemosynary side of its work and its trust functions. It sounds trite, but it has its significance here, that it is not so important to conserve the wealth of a people as to develop their capacity for independence.

To turn the Indian loose from the bonds of governmental control not in great masses, but individually, basing this action upon his ability to watch his steps and make his way not in any fool's dream that he will advance without tripping, but in the reasonable hope that he will develop self confidence as he goes along; to destroy utterly the orphan asylum idea, giving charity only to the helpless and in gravest emergencies; to teach the Indian that he must work his way, that the government will no longer play the part of Elijah's raven; to convert the young to our civilization through the creation of ambitions and desires which the blanket life cannot satisfy; to organize each group of Indians into a community of sanely guided co-operators who shall be told and taught that this government is not to continue as an indulgent father, but as a helpful, experienced and solicitous elder brother—this program we are adventuring upon. It may be inadequate, but it is surely a long step on the road which the Cherokees took.

GUARD WOMEN AT FAIR.

Plans of World's Purity Federation at San Francisco Exposition.

Plans for the protection of young women at the world's fair at San Francisco were announced by John H. Hammond of Des Moines, chairman of the legislative division of the world's purity federation, after a conference with B. S. Steadwell, president of the federation.

Mr. Hammond will go to San Francisco with a corps of detectives, investigators and social workers to institute the system decided on. It is designed to guard, so far as possible, every strange young woman who arrives in San Francisco alone during the fair.

At every public place and at all points of danger men and women will be constantly on watch. Every train into San Francisco after the fair opens will have women detectives on board. A fund of $20,000 is already available for this work.

"WILD MAN" TWO YEARS.

Believed Sanity Returned to Poe In the Time He Was Fugitive.

L. M. Poe, who escaped from the State insane asylum two years ago and who has since been living in the woods, has gone to the sheriff's office in Princeton, W. Va., and given himself up.

It is believed sanity returned to him in the time he was a fugitive.

Poe said he subsisted on roots and fruits and had not been inside a house in the two years. Naturally he was in rags when he presented himself to the sheriff, but his experience in the open has put him in fine physical condition.

He says he has made discoveries with reference to the cultivation of ginseng that he believes will bring him a fortune.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

PLEA FOR PEACE.

I wonder why this world is sad!
The warriors fight at the king's command.
Some of them fight against their will,
As they are kind and hate to kill.
Some of the heroes shout and yell,
With their shining swords the enemy fell.
The Mussleman soldier is brave and strong,
When he goes to battle he sings a song.
The Mohammedan soldier is led and taught
To use the sword on the enemy sought.
By Allah's help he meets his foe,
And thrusts him through from top to toe.
The sheike of Islam preached Jahad (Holy Word)—
Call the Moslems from every land.
Some of you wonder how they fight well,
They're rewarded in heaven for each one pretty belle.
This promise to them is a great relief
As they are impressed with this belief.
The Christian soldier is just as brave,
He goes to battle and faces the grave.
The Christian soldier fights with a gun,
He hits the mark and thinks it's fun.
There is no reason why the guns should thunder,
Disturbing the peace and the homes they plunder.
Many children and women have been killed
By those cruel soldiers who have been drilled.
Isn't their father Adam and mother Eve?
The way they are slaughtered, it makes you grieve.
O, God the King of heaven and earth,
Restore the peace with joy and mirth.

Trade In Plainfield and Grow With Us

The growth of a city depends largely on the amount of money spent within its borders. Are YOU buying in Plainfield? Are YOU selecting our own men to do your work instead of outsiders? Are YOU helping Plainfield to grow? Ask yourself this question. Are you?

Plainfield is one of the prettiest cities in New Jersey. She can point with pride to her magnificent High School, excellent graded schools, elegant homes and beautiful streets. What have you done? If you take Plainfield money and spend it in other cities, are you helping Plainfield to grow? Spend your money home where you and your children are enjoying the splendor of our city. Do YOUR part for a better and bigger Plainfield.

Interesting to Men--But to Women

The question of cultivation of good taste in a home means the purchase of whatever improves the appearance, comfort and welfare of every one connected with it. The woman is the purchasing agent of the American home; keenly interested in high grade merchandise and table goodies; the kind presented by Plainfield merchants, backed by prompt courteous attention, a stock of large variety to select from, and prices that are no higher than the stores of other cities.

Trading in Plainfield is the easiest, safest, and most profitable, and when you purchase an article that is not entirely satisfactory you experience no difficulty in having it exchanged or your money refunded. On the other hand, can an article purchased in stores in these other cities afford you the same protection as our Plainfield merchants? Sometimes an article can be exchanged, but then it is necessary to have it travel 20 or 25 miles back to the store where you purchased it, and the second selection forwarded to you, and if you wern't fortunate enough to make a second selection on the day you did your shopping you are either obliged to make it from a catalog or take another trip yourself to straighten the matter out. Do your shopping in your home town and avoid any unnecessary risks or delays. Help your city to grow.

"The Michigan Aggies have one bad fault," comments the Chicago Evening Post. "Two years ago they had no trouble finding high class opponents. Now they have considerable difficulty. They have become too strong. If this keeps up much longer we will find another western conference composed of teams like Michigan, Notre Dame, Michigan Aggies, Nebraska, South Dakota and others. Should this be the case the 'Big Nine' wouldn't have all the best elevens in this part of the country by any means. By any means being right to a large degree.

Although Charlie Dooin has now been deposed as manager of the Phillies, when one considers the encouragement he got from his employers, the marvel is that Charlie ever kept the debilitated Phils as high up in the race as he did. According to a reliable source, the only money the club ever spent for Charlie for new players was $7,500 it gave for Alexander, and the other players that helped to keep the team in the race were secured by trades, in which art Dooin was an adept.

Fans in New York have criticized McGraw severely for not appearing on the coaching lines during the city series with the Yankees, but the Giant manager has his reasons.

After seeing that the crowd had come out to "kid" the Giants because they had lost the pennant, he refused to be the "goat" and let them "boo" him.

McGraw, always loyal to New York, felt this lack of encouragement keenly. Consider that he had won five pennants in ten years and finished one, two, three on four occasions, he cannot well be blamed for declining to allow himself to be made the target of ridicule.

When J. F. Coolidge, Harvard's left end, picked up a ball that Knowles of Yale fumbled on the crimson two-yard line and ran 38 yards for a touchdown in the Yale-Harvard game, he performed a feat that may never be equaled in football history, not unless they lengthen the gridiron. Four longer runs have been made since 1873, which year marked the beginning of football history, but all these runs were recorded when the gridiron was longer than now. To beat Coolidge's run a player would have to start practically from his own goal line.

Pittsburg promoters who matched Dick Stosh with Frank Mandole are insistent that he go through with the bout despite his recent reverses, and there is a possibility that Dick may reconsider his decision to retire. The Beaver Falls, Pa., club also wants Stosh against Battling Terry for December 18. Though beaten, Stosh is still popular.

The rank of veteran baseball players suffered heavy inroads during 1914, no less than 11 famous stars having died up to December 1. Among the number were: Rube Waddell, Buck Weaver, Harry Steinfeldt, Buster Brown, Rosie Weber, Charlie Ganzel, Danny Green, Ossie Scherck and Heinie Reitz. Jack Sheridan, the veteran umpire, also joined the great majority.

Del Young, the husky Cleveland outfielder, who did more or less fancy pastiming for the Buffalo Federals last season, has only one objection to register against the outlaw circuit. That concerns the system of compiling swatting statistics. "I was out of the game off and on," said Del, "because of my game leg. At one period of the race I was hitting .336. Two weeks elapsed before I got another chance to break in. Meanwhile my average had fallen off to .316, and I hadn't been up to bat one single time. Aside from the Federal league way of getting out averages, it's a regular league."

Scattered Sport Gleanings

When the Plainfield High School athletic association went to Newark to order mackinaws for its football team it did a grave injustice to local merchants. The Plainfield High School association without a doubt owes more to local business men from a business standpoint than any other organization in the city or borough. The mackinaws in question were purchased with money taken in at the last minstrel, an event for which local merchants did much. Whenever the pupils of the school have conducted benefits to swell the athletic fund of the institution they have always met with ready response from the merchants. Plenty of advertisements for programs have been forthcoming and the business men have assisted the scholars in many other ways. Purchasing athletic necessities with this money is a queer sort of reciprocation and one which the local merchants have a perfect right to take exception to. The profits on this particular purchase might not have amounted to a whole lot but it is the principal of the thing that is troubling the business men who have so faithfully supported school interests. Several times before similar purchases by the schoolboys have aroused criticism and it is about time someone who understands the value of home trade and co-operation took charge of the P. H. S. athletic funds and saw to it that they are spent in the right way.

Printed schedules of the games to be played by the Plainfield High School girls' basketball team this season made their appearance today. They were donated by the Daily Press and may be obtained from members of the team upon application.

Committeemen in charge of the Columbus Club basketball interests have been swamped with challenges since it was announced that the local club would enter this sport field. The committee has ordered a 60 by 28 foot net and the first call for practise will be issued in the near future. The basketball bee is buzzing in the club rooms and present indications point to the turning out of a small sized army at the first drill.

Basketball fans who are looking for a good attraction to while away the time on tonight will be well repaid for a visit to the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. gym. Indications are that the contest between the Y. M. C. A. and the New Brunswick outfit will be one of the speediest of the year.

Let's hope they surprise us all by starting the game on time.

North Plainfield High School basketball lassies have lodged an exception against being called "Fairies" and "Girlies." What about the Elizabeth scribe who refers to the N. P. H. S. sextet in the following terms: Miss Bertis, (Burtis); Miss Erhebel (Debele); and Miss Duglas(Douglas). Whadodayasay Luc?

The North Plainfield High School boys went on their first basketball "strawride" of the season last night. That's the first step in the winter campaign that goes with the court sport.

SOME FOUL RECORDS MADE BY LOCAL TEAMS YESTERDAY.

Miss Ruth Morris, of the Plainfield High School girls' basketball team, broke into the limelight as a foul shooting artist yesterday afternoon, by making good on sixteen out of eighteen attempts from the fifteen-foot mark. This is a remarkable accomplishment for one of the fair sex and a record that has seldom been equalled. Six years ago on the P. H. S. court, Clyde Doane, then a member of the red and blue outfit, established a unique male record by turning eighteen out of twenty-one attempts into points.

In the N. P. H. S.-Woodbridge game on the latter's court last night, the officials called a total of sixty-two fouls in two twenty-minutes periods. This is an average of 1.055 fouls per minute. N. P. H. S. made good on fourteen attempts and Woodbridge tallied thirteen one-point scores.

THRILLING VICTORY FOR P. H. S. GIRLS

Battin Feminine Quintet Was Downed in Local Gym Yesterday Afternoon.

The Plainfield High School girls' basketball team annexed a 20 to 18 victory at the expense of the Battin High School five yesterday. The game was a thriller from start to finish, and although Plainfield led most of the way, the lead was such a small one that the game was either team's up to the final whistle. Plainfield's win was due mainly to the wonderful foul goal shooting of Miss Ruth Morris. Out of eighteen tries at foul goals, Miss Morris shot sixteen baskets. This record compares very well with that set by Clyde Doane six years ago when he caged eighteen foul goals out of twenty-one chances.

Battin had a pair of splendid guards who kept the local girls so well covered that no field goal was made until the second half, when Miss Crane dropped two baskets, one of these being caged in a critical period in the last few minutes of play, when a goal by Battin would have tied the score.

Battin also had an excellent forward in Miss Monica Richart, who caged six field goals, many of them being beautiful shots from very difficult angles. At the beginning of the last five minutes of play Plainfield led by the score of eighteen to sixteen. A goal by Miss Crane after two hard minutes of play gave Plainfield its last score. No more scoring was done until Miss Ogden caged her first field goal in the last minute of play. Both teams fought desperately to score in the last forty-five seconds, but the whistle blew before a goal could be tallied.

VICTORY IS SWEET.

Boston, Dec. 12.—Harvard's championship football team last night tasted the fruits of victory at a banquet given by the Harvard Club of this city. The usual gold footballs, significant of victory over Yale, were presented to twenty-five members of the squad and to Coach Percy D. Haughton, Trainer Donovan, and Manager Blanchard. An unexpected incident was the presentation to Coach Haughton of a silver bowl by Captain Charles E. Brickley in behalf of the team. The Crimson's success on the gridiron, the retiring captain said, was due to Haughton's system of coaching.

It was an awful slam that was handed the Newark bowlers on their own alleys in an Elks' League match by the Paterson pin-knights, last night. The Silk City aggregation, which is leading in the race, captured three games in a row and increased their advantage over their nearest rivals, the members of the Jersey City team, to four games each way. The Newarkers are now practically on even terms with the New Brunswicks for fifth place. The local quintet, after dropping the first two games last night by pretty wide margins, gave the Patersonians an awful argument in the final battle, only losing by three pins, with a total of 959. In the second game there was good pinning by both sides, the Newarks being there for 939, while the Patersonians led them by forty-six pins with 985. There was little class to Newark's exhibition in the initial contest, a score of 822 being recorded, but the visitors were in fine fettle and touched 984.

Connie Leick talled 226 and 206 for the locals last night and had an average of 208-1. Billy Weingarth gave him a close race with marks of 223 and 203 and his average was 201-2. Weber, who relieved Hinton after the latter had rolled six frames in the first game, did good work in the final contest, having a mark of 201.

Anderson was the star performer for the Silk City quintet, having tallies of 216 and 208 and an average of 205-2. Wright tallied 227, Taylor 213, Ernest 212 and Hausin 200.

Elizabeth bowlers tightened their grip on first place in the Junior Elks' League last night, when they succeeded in capturing three games in a row on the Jersey City team's alleys. The last contest was a hummer, but the Elizabeth five, with 953, succeeded in coming through a winner by a one-pin margin. The second contest was also fairly close, the visitors, with 865, having an advantage of thirty-two pins. In the initial game the visitors had 961, while the home five only touched 863.

NEWARK BAN ON BOXING.

Chief of Police Michael Long, of Newark, issued an order yesterday prohibiting any more boxing bouts in the city. Two places where boxing exhibitions were being held weekly were notified of the Chief's order. They were Troxler's gymnasium and the club of the Bay View Wheelmen. The order of Chief Long followed closely on the order a week ago of Prosecutor Guild, who placed a ban on the fighting exhibitions at Olympic Park in Irvington. Too many "knockouts" is said to have led to the stopping of the bouts.

INABILITY TO SHOOT FOULS LOST CONTEST

N. P. H. S. and Woodbridge Clash Featured by Sixty-two Penalties.

In a battle of fouls, sixty-two in number, North Plainfield High School basketball representatives were forced to accept the shorter end of a 27 to 24 count on the Woodbridge High School court last night, the contest being one of the greatest sport issues ever decided in that suburb. Principally because of their inability to score consistently from the fifteen foot mark, the boroughites were behind by three points at the completion of the final half of the battling. Both aggregations put up a slashing, riotous article of basketball and the enactment of fouls was fairly evenly distributed. Woodbridge had in Wand, the lanky youth who played the pivot position, a crack foul shooter and when the task of turning penalties into one point tallies was turned over to him in the latter part of the second half he returned eight out of nine chances in a finished style.

Everyone of the ten men who got into the fight, scrapped tooth and nail for every advantage that made its appearance and the close and hard playing was largely responsible for the many penalties. Despite the fact that the issue was interrupted on sixty-two different occasions while men took chances from the foul line, the encounter was a speedy one and interest reigned high from start to finish. At the completion of the first half of play N. P. H. S. led by a margin of 11 to 10, having secured the upper hand several minutes before the half was culminated.

Soon after the final period was sent under way the Woodbridge youths began chalking up field goals, Wand tallying three out of his four in the opening minutes of the last canto. This trio of double deckers, together with four goals by Wand put the home players way in the lead and the visitors seemed to be hopelessly out of the running.

Field goals were exceedingly rare, North Plainfield accounting for five and the Woodbridge players for two more. The visitors' two-point tallies were divided up between VanMater and Townley, the former getting three and the latter two. "Ronnie" Conroy chalked up eight of the N. P. H. S. boys' fouls and Townley was responsible for six.

TAYLOR AGAIN LEADS THE SENIOR LEAGUE

Paterson Also Has High Team Record with 19 Wins and Eight Defeats.

Harry Taylor, of the Silk City tribe, is once more the logical leader of the Elks' Senior League individual average race having crept back to the top rung with a mark of 196.19 for twenty-seven games. Anderson, a Patersonian, who got into his first series of games during the past week, has a mark of 206.1 for a trio of contests. Dick Erler, of the Newark champions, is runner-up to Taylor and Wright, of Jersey City, who led the league last week, has fallen to third place.

Paterson's clean sweep on the shutes last night gave the Silk City quintet a clear title to the top rung with nineteen wins and eight losses to date. Jersey City, with fifteen and twelve respectively, is the runner-up and Elizabeth occupies third position. Plainfield is sharing the cellar honors in the dugout with Rahway.

BORO YOUNGSTERS WON CLOSE GAME FROM RIVALS

In a well played game the North Plainfield basketball team defeated the Heavenly Rest five on the latter's court, last night, by the score of 42 to 37. The game was an interesting one from whistle to whistle, the teams being separated by not more than two goals throughout.

The closeness of the contest made it very rough and the referee was obliged to call forty fouls, Dealman, of the Heavenly Rest team, making good on fifteen of these. His foul shooting kept his team in the game. For North Plainfield, Dunning and Force were the mainstays, each making twenty points.

The score:

COULDN'T TRAVEL FAST ENOUGH FOR THE CROWS

The Dunellen Crows easily defeated the Plainfield "Travelers," last night, on the Presbyterian court Dunellen, by the score of 47 to 26 Although the score shows that the Crows completely outclased the visitors the game was exciting through out.

Rough play featured and many fouls were called, but neither side could make them count. Russell was the leading point getter for Dunellen, making 10 field goals, while Lewis was kept busy caging seven of the two point variety. Marsh and Fredicks put up the best game for Plainfield, each getting five baskets.

BEST WAY TO DRAW A CHICKEN

Government Experts Give Directions for Poultry Dressing.

METHODS DESCRIBED

Once the Fowl is Cleaned Put it in a Cold Place Until Ready to Cook—Ways of Preparing Giblets—Wash in Clean, Cold Water.

Following are the directions given by the poultry-dressing specialists of the Government for drawing a chicken at home:

Hold the chicken by the legs and run it quickly over the flame from a loosely twisted lighted newspaper which, for safety, may be laid in a coal bucket or ash tray. This will remove the fine hairs. Remove any pin feathers with the aid of a sharp small knife blade. The charred hair may be washed off later.

Cut the legs off well below the knee joint. If the legs are cut above the knee joint, the flesh on the drum stick will be pulled back from the end.

Cut the head off, leaving as much of the neck as possible, then pull the skin of the neck back and cut the neck off quite close to the body. The envelope of the remaining skin gives the dressed bird a neater appearance The neck bones with the adhering meat make a valuable addition to the giblets. The gullet and windpipe are of course, on the neck and must be pulled away.

To remove the entrails, make an incision about 2½ inches in length across the abdomen and as close to the vent as possible. In making this incision, be careful not to penetrate the intestine. Slip the fingers in first and gradually insert the whole hand through the slit into the body cavity Work the viscera loose from its attachments by sliding the fingers over the inner surface of the body walls In this way, after a little practice the viscera can be removed quickly and easily. The lungs will almost invariably tear, leaving shreds sticking to the back. These, and the kidneys of the chicken, which are two long, dark red bodies lying each side of the backbone and firmly fastened should be removed in pieces. The rest of the viscera, including the crop which lies far front and just under the skin of the breast, when loosened will come out in a mass through the incision. The intestine is still attached to the bird at the vent. To separate it cleanly, the tube should be picked up just as close to the vent as possible and its contents pushed well back from the vent Then cut closely around the vent holding the intestine tightly between the fingers to insure cleanliness Run a stream of water through the slit into the body cavity in such wise that it flows out through the vent and cleans the short piece of intestine still remaining. Then cut both vent and intestine away, leaving a neat, round hole no larger than is necessary.

To prepare the giblets, detach the heart, gizzard and liver, taking great care not to break the little green gall bladder attached to the liver, which contains a very bitter liquid which, if allowed to escape, will give a bitter flavor to the giblets and gravy. This gall bladder is so close to the liver that some liver tissue must be cut away, to be on the safe side. The color of a healthy chicken liver may vary from yellow to dark red. To prepare the gizzard, hold it with the thin edge toward the palm of the hand and make an incision the whole length along the thick side, being careful merely to cut through the muscle, but not into the inner sac Then open the gizzard as you would a pocketbook and remove the inner sac, which is full of gravel, if possible without breaking it.

Finally, wash the chicken and giblets in clean, cold water, but do not let the chicken soak in the water, because the finest flavors of the meat and much nutritive material are dissolved in the water.

Once the chicken is dressed and washed, put it at once in the coldest place available and keep it there until it is to be put on the fire. The best way is to dress it just in time to go into the stove.

PROGRESS AND PROSPERITY IN PLAINFIFLD

NO SPECTACULAR REVIVAL IN TRADE

However, Everyone Seems to Be Optomistic Regarding the Future.

RESTORING CONFIDENCE

Operation of Federal Reserve Banking System, It is Believed, Will Prove a Boom to Realty Conditions.

While a majority of those who make a business of following the trend of real estate developments in this section are optimistic in their views regarding the prospects for the coming year, no one is rash enough to prophesy a spectacular revival in real estate trading in the very near future.

There are still too many evidences of the stagnation that has been caused by general business depression and which effects detrimentally the real estate market as well as other lines of industry. A depression breeds conservatism and investors proceed cautiously following a period of hard times and it requires a return to active business by the large industrial organizations of this country to restore the confidence which has been shaken, and until this confidence is fully restored they cannot be normal.

However, the real estate market in Plainfield and the surrounding towns has not felt the depression to such an extent that properties have been thrown upon the market and sacrificed regardless of price, but the depression has merely caused new development and construction to come to a standstill and thus when the revival comes and prosperity is once more in full swing it will not be necessary for our market to overcome the handicap of a demoralized and chaotic condition, but, merely to go forward from the point where we halted, thus being able to take full advantage of the upward swing. And this means more than a great many people think for many communities have missed completely a share in an active general demand for realty, owing to a lack of faith in the stability of a locality due to a former demoralized market.

Owing to the bad weather conditions which prevailed early in the week it is impossible for local dealers to judge of general improvement in the realty line. Of course, the season just before the holidays is always dull, yet the general opinion is that conditions have improved considerably over those of a month ago, as men are talking more of building.

The local money situation, however, fails to show much improvement and until the banks exhibit a tendency of meeting the needs of the business community with respect to new loans no marked recovery can take place. Of course, it is impossible that the benefits to be derived from our currency system should be felt immediately, and even with the great extension of the credit which is now permitted the larger bankers of the country are advising caution, as of course the business horizon has not been finally and completely cleared of clouds which might grow ominous if any sudden inflation of business should occur and it may be that our local banks are proceeding slowly with this in mind.

But not withstanding this conservatism on the part of big banking interests a system which releases $137,000,000 in reserves alone, to say nothing of the immense additional credit made possible by the rediscounting of commercial paper cannot help but prove beneficial to every branch of industry. With the stock market again open for limited business we are gradually returning to normal conditions, and if the near future was only a little brighter for the resumption of full capacity work by our large manufacturing concerns we could predict in 1915 a real estate year such as the men in this city have not known for a long time. In any event we can afford to be patient, as the termination of the European war will be an impetus for the greatest industrial boom that the country has ever felt and in the meantime it will pay realty investors to take advantage of every opportunity offered for securing bargains in local properties.

Lewis T. Churchill, president of the Dunellen Home and Investment Company, is a shrewd observer of the trend of the times and being thoroughly conversant with the realty values and conditions throughout New Jersey, his opinion was asked concerning the question of the future tendency of realty values in Plainfield and vicinity. Mr. Churchill said that the person who had $50,000 to invest and used it with discretion in buying properties at present prices along the Central Railroad of New Jersey, anywhere between Elizabeth and Bound Brook, would double his money in from five to six years. Mr. Churchill sees in the war wonderful opportunity for the American people and advises everyone to invest now before the rise in the market commences. He is especially enthusiastic over the prospects of Dunellen, pointing out the rapidly growing advantages of the borough and the very low price of real estate. He states that his company would far rather buy today than sell.

The outlook for our Plainfield dealers is not without many hopeful and encouraging signs and they have reason to be thankful that they are operating in a city which does so much to advance the comfort and well being of its citizens, thus making for permanency of residence and an ever increasing demand for Plainfield property.

"FUZZY" RETURNS, HALE, HEARTY AND STILL SINGLE

Walter, alias "Fuzzy," Firstbrook, editor of the Plainfield Daily Press' weekly building page, who has been spending a two weeks' vacation in the sunny South, returned to the Queen City, Thursday afternoon, and will resume his duties Monday morning. During his absence "Fuzzy" has visited many points of interest and spent several days "warming up" at Charleston, S. C.

Climatic conditions in the South have Jersey weather "beaten to a frazzle," according to Mr. Firstbrook. During his trip he had the opportunity to bask daily in the southern sunbeams and claims that he is now in fine fettle for his winter campaign against the elements.

BUILDING NOTES

Weather conditions during the past week have put a crimp in outside construction work and carpenters and masons are putting in their time finishing up what interior work they can get hold of. As the result of the rainy spell many mechanics lost several days' pay. So much good weather has been served up during the last three months that a sudden shift of this kind is likely to be felt more than a spell of bad weather under ordinary conditions. Many houses are in the course of erection here, but it is a noticeable fact that the mechanics in charge have been able, in most instances, to put at least a portion of their gang to work on some interior work.

The North Plainfield Board of Education has awarded its new school contract to a Perth Amboy architect. The I. N. Pierson Sons' Company, the successful bidders, are well known in this section and will no doubt give thorough satisfaction in the Harrison Avenue School construction work. The firm has done extensive work on municipal buildings in Bound Brook and Dunellen and has always proven reliable.

Local mechanics who have been thrown out of work by hard times are looking forward to the start of the proposed sewerage system construction work. It is said that considerable building will be necessary in order to establish the contractors in winter headquarters and local carpenters and masons are hoping to get this work. It is planned to hire local workmen as far as possible and at the present time things look pretty promising for the workmen seeking remunerative labor.

Rumor has it that a non-union painter has been doing the exterior decorating on a house being erected on Liberty street. The Building Trades Council received this report at its last meeting and a representative was immediately detailed to investigate.

Another one of Plainfield's beautiful residences erected during the past year became occupied for the first time last week. William Abbott, the builder, moved in following his marriage last Monday. The house in question is located on Hillside avenue.

Readvertising of bids for the work on the new Evergreen Avenue School proved a profitable venture for the Plainfield Board of Education inasmuch as the figures were cut down several thousands of dollars.

One Plainfield landmark that has presented the same appearance for the past decade has undergone a change during the past week, a coat of light colored paint putting a more cheerful aspect on the Depew building at Park and North avenues. Stripes with large letter advertisements were conspicuous on the side and front of the structure, while it was occupied by the Monarch Printing Company, and these have now been blotted out.

CONSTRUCTION WORK AT A STANDSTILL

Only Three Permits Issued by Inspector Doane This Week.

Construction work in this city remains in about the same condition which has marked the trend of local movements during the past four or five weeks.

Three permits have been issued during the week by Inspector T. O. Doane calling for the erection of a dwelling, a store and apartment, and a garage with an aggregate expenditure of $12,950.

The dwelling is to be erected by Contractor William D. Bird, of North Plainfield, for Hugh T. Treacy, of 901 West Sixth street, on Darrow avenue, 400 feet north of West Seventh street. The dwelling is to be a frame structure with a frontage of 44 feet and a depth of 28 feet 6 inches. It will be two and a half stories high and will cost $8,000. William Loek, of 286 Fifth avenue, New York, was the architect.

The store and apartment is being erected by Jacob Pashin, of 235 Muhlenberg place, on 1001 West Third street for his own account. The building will be two and a half stories high and besides the store, will have two apartments. The estimated cost is $3,400. F. L. Lancaster was the architect.

The garage is being erected by John C. Abbott for John M. Whiton, of 821 Central avenue. The garage is being built in the rear of Mr. Whiton's residence. It is a brick structure with a frontage of 31 feet 4 inches and a depth of 21 feet 4 inches. It will cost its owner $1,550.

NEW INDUSTRY WILL LOCATE IN GARWOOD

George C. Moon Company, Dealers in Wire Cable, to Remove to That Place.

Garwood, Dec. 12.—A new industry which will give employment to a large number of hands is coming to Garwood next April. In the meantime the large factory buildings at present occupied by the Bell Electric Company will be fiteed up for the new industry.

The concern to locate here is the George C. Moon Company, of 124 White street, New York, dealers in wire cable and cordage. The head of the concern is George C. Moon, fire commissioner of Cranford.

Mr. Moon said last night that his concern was going into the manufacturing business on a large scale and that all kinds of wire rope would be made on the premises. He said the company selected Garwood on account of its nearness to New York and other shipping places, and on account of the good railroad facilities.

The Bell Electric Company will move into their new plant shortly after the first of the year and then workmen will begin to fit up the factory buildings for the Mobn company. Mr. Moon said that it would take many weeks to remodel the interior of the plant and to install machinery.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS ARE BEING CONSIDERED

During the past week a neighboring municipality and township, Kenilworth and Piscataway township, voted on propositions of erecting additions to two of their schools.

As concerns Kenilworth at a special school meeting held on Monday night, a resolution to make a four-room addition to the McKinley School was carried by a vote of 29-13.

On the other hand at the special school meeting of the voters of Piscataway township, held in the district school at New Market on Wednesday night to vote on the proposition of building a $12,500 addition to the South Plainfield School, the proposition was defeated by a vote of 31-21.

W. H. ABBOTT TO BUILD.

W. H. Clum, the Park avenue architect, has completed plans for a house of colonial architecture, which W. H. Abbott, the North avenue real estate agent, is contemplating erecting on Sheridan avenue, near Grant avenue. Acording to the plans the house will contain 8 rooms and two baths. It will have a frontage of 38 feet and a depth of 26. If built it will be placed on the market to sell. Its estimated cost is $6,000.

—The Daily Press can be purchased each night at Mallinson's drug store, East Second street.

OPENING OF NEW CHILDREN'S WARD

Informal Inspection to Be Held at Muhlenberg Hospital Dec. 19-20.

The changes and alterations at Muhlenberg Hospital are now entirely completed, and the new children's ward and one of the re-constructed public wards are ready for occupancy and will be opened informally next week. It has been decided to open these departments of the hospital to the public for informal inspection on the afternoons of Saturday and Sunday, December 19 and 20, from 3 until 6 o'clock.

This opportunity is given to the general public to view these wards before they are occupied by patients, that some idea may be gotten by the people of Plainfield, as to what has been accomplished in the reconstructing of the old hospital building. It is hoped that the public will show a lively interest in this opening by visiting the hospital wards thrown open on the afternoons of December 19 and 20, in large numbers.

TOWNLEY BROTHERS HAVE A DUNELLEN CONTRACT

Townley Brothers, sub-contracting masons, have commenced work on the foundation of the house of colonial architecture that Contractor J. Newton Apgar, of Dunellen, is erecting for Clifford D. Manning, the local real estate agent, on Sheridan avenue near Grant avenue.

The house, which will be very desirably situated in a grove of trees, will cost $6,500 to build. On the first floor there will be a dining-room, living room, pantry and hall. On the second floor there will be four bedrooms and two baths. The third floor will contain two bedrooms. The house will be finished on the inside with white enamel. It will have mahogany doors and the floors throughout will be of oak parquet. It will be placed in the market for sale. W. H. Clum was the architect.

REALTY COMPANY MAKING EXTENSIVE DEVELOPMENTS

The Kline Realty Company is making extensive developments on the old Dan Cory farm on the road between Warrenville and Mt. Bethel. The site of the farm is on the Second Mountain and an excellent view is afforded of the surrounding country for miles around. Six bungalows have already been constructed and the prospects of several more in the near future is considered quite bright.

Many prospective purchasers are taken to the development on Sundays by automobile from the Plainfield station.

REALTY TRANSFERS

The following real estate transfers have been recorded at the Union county seat:

THE DAILY PRESS IN DUNELLEN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Edward Pennock, druggist and newsdealer.

—You'll know what the old adage-makings meant by urging that "time is money" if you delay advertising for a tenant.

IMPROVEMENT WORK IN WEST END OF THE CITY

Wonderful improvement in property in the extreme West End of town has been affected during the past few weeks by a large squad of laborers in road construction and land clearing. Large tracts of unimproved land have been purchased by a Dr. Shaw, of New York city, and he has opened up the heretofore unused section of Fourth street between Monroe and Clinton avenues.

A steady westward movement in the city's improvement work is in evidence and the recent reconstruction work will greatly improve property in that particular section. Foot and vehicle traffic has been greatly benefited and the progress of the work has been watched with interest.

J. F. MACDONALD WILL BUILD ON WATCHUNG AVE.

Among the buildings started during the course of the past week is the one-story structure at 112 Watchung avenue by J. Fred MacDonald. The structure will be of brick and will adjoin the building now occupied by Marchant Brothers, the new store to be utilized by the concern for its growing business. A frontage of twenty-five feet will be had by the structure, while it will run the etnre depth of the building now occupied by the concern.

Mr. MacDonald drew the plans of the building himself and he will also look after the carpentry work. Contractor William H. Pangborn is doing the mason work. The estimate cost of the building is $5,000.

FACTORIES SHOULD HAVE AUTOMATIC SPRINKLERS

Fire Chief T. O. Doane and Councilmen John Cose and Charles Graves made an automobile trip to Orange, yesterday, to view the ruins left by the fire in the Thomas A. Edison plant at that place. Commenting on the conflagration this morning, Chief Doane said that in his estimation the loss will not reach the high figures that were at first reported.

He spoke of the concrete construction of the building and intimated that had the structure been built with a steel skeleton and wire window coverings the damage might have been held down to a minimum. He expressed surprise at finding that the factory and experimental plant was not equipped with automatic sprinkling apparatus and declared that the Edison fire should be a lesson to other factory owners who have not provided this modern equipment.

NO REALTY SALES.

No realty sales or the awarding of contracts to erect houses developed in Dunellen during the week. Inquiries, however, continue brisk and W. H. Clum, the local architect, is drawing plans of a handsome dwelling for a local client, whose name he does not care to divulge. The plans will be placed in the hands of local contractors for estimates as soon as completed.

Household Hints

TO KEEP RUBBERS OUT OF THE WAY

Many housekeepers are annoyed by having rubbers on the closet floor and, when needed, find them mismated.

To avoid this, make a rubber bag of some table oilcloth (three-fourths of a yard) and a sash curtain rod to hold it. Make the foundation 16 by 18 inches and two rows of pockets, with three in each row; for these use two strips, 30 by 9 inches. Divide into three equal parts, and form boxpleats in each section. Stitch bottom and sides of both rows to the foundation. Also stitch between each pocket, same as a shoe bag.

Stitch a narrow casing across the top of foundation for the rod; or it may be tacked in the hall closet or on the door.

When the bag becomes soiled by damp or dirty rubbers, it can be easily cleaned.

CHRISTMAS GIFT IDEAS

Roll for Centerpieces and Doilies—A woolen curtain pole covered first with a layer of cotton and then with one of white linen, makes an excellent roll for centerpieces and enables one to put them away without creasing. The pole should be an inch or so longer than the centerpiece. Several pieces may be put on one roll. Use a cover of gray linen tied with pink ribbons. Two loops of ribbon are sewed at the ends of the case and it hangs up.

For small centerpieces and doilies, make a book of heavy water color paper with top and back of cardboard covered with embroidered linen and tied with ribbons; or it can be of heavy cream-colored collar canvas painted in oil colors and bound with ribbon. This saves the trouble of having to press doilies when wanted for use, as is often the case when folded and kept in a drawer. This makes a very useful, inexpensive Christmas present.

On account of the hard times this year, many people are limiting their Christmas giving to the children—not because they could not afford something to others, but because, if once started, it is hard to know how to draw the line. One family has decided to give grown people only 25-cent presents and is having lots of fun seeing how much can be bought with a quarter. Among them are toilet supplies, stationery supplies, bath or individual towels, small silver things like pencil, key ring, etc.

An everlasting joy for the children, from the baby to the boy or girl of six or seven years. Buy cambric and cut into sheets any size you wish. Lay together and stitch through center. Notch edges of top, bottom and side. Hunt up your old magazines, either colored or plain. Paste in book, using two large pictures, size of book, for front and back. These books are strong and will last for years.

Novel Match Holder—Something the children can make for Christmas gifts: Secure two corncob pipes, remove stems, cut one of the stems in two, insert one of these pieces in the pipes, thus connecting the two, and you will have one of the neatest match holders you could procure, and the cost is certainly trifling.

If it is for mother's room and she has a mahogany dresser, finish to match. If for sister, and she has a white room, finish in white. If for father's smoking stand, or for a boy's room, the natural finish will appeal to them.

THE TABLE.

Good Soup—Boil beef until tender, then add a few potatoes cut into pieces, one cup rice boiled until well done, two good-sized onions and one pint tomatoes.

Good Luncheon Dish—Put leftover ham and chicken through chopper, put in a baking dish with layers of boiled macaroni, with top layer of bread crumbs.

Roast Pork Chops—Fill roastpan (or frying pan) about three-fourths full of sliced potatoes, then place a layer of onions (sliced) on them. Add salt and pepper and sprinkle with flour. Next add the pork chops. Fill pan half full of water and bake about one hour.

ANTI-SUFFRAGE

Conducted by Plainfield Branch New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage.

The following clipping sent me by a friend is a good example of the superficial way in which many people reason.

Suffrage Notes.

When this year began, according to the Child Labor Bulletin, twenty States possessed laws limiting the work of minors to eight hours a day. Scanning the list one noted that two-thirds of the suffrage States had these laws and less than one-third of the non-suffrage States. From this one must infer that mothers with votes can and do protect children from exploitation more effectively than voteless mothers.—Mrs. Anna Cadogan Etz.

That is an extremely plausible statement, but it will not bear much examination. When we ask why, in the suffrage States the cause of prohibition is not advanced while, for one reason and another, several non-suffrage States have passed prohibitory laws about the sale of liquor, we are told that the reason is that the men are in the majority in those States. The inference is then that the men have practically been the ones to protect children from exploitation.

But the suffrage States are comparatively new and they do not suffer from evils which have come down from a former generation. They can lay out their cities with wide streets and spacious sidewalks. The can appropriate land on which to teach the best way to raise crops; they can use orchards surrounding the cities as fruit clinics where the boys and girls are taught how to prune and cultivate the trees and how best to fight the many dangers that follow in the wake of improved cultivation. In the same way manufacturers in starting plants can introduce all improved methods which do away with children's labor. All over the world, however, people are realizing more and more that proper care of women and children must be ensured if we are to have strong and healthy men and women to carry on the work of the world. But in the more closely populated States conditions are such as to make the task of wise legislation very difficult.

In the business world today we know how interference with the established business customs has brought about much financial distress and thinking men and women can easily see that it is not a very easy task to re-arrange the working forces in manufacturing districts so as to eliminate the children. It must be done, of course. Science and humanity both call for it. The public calls loudly for a change and that change will come, quickly in some places, more slowly in some.

The discussion that was raised here in Plainfield last summer about the weekly holiday for the clerks is an example of how difficult it is to make changes in the business world. It was but a small matter, but it caused a good deal of argument. New York passed a law making the salaries of women teachers equal to those of men in the same grade, but it is claimed in many places that the result has only been to drive the men out of the profession, a result far from desirable in the view of the best authorities on education. Meanwhile here is good news from our own State in a clipping from "Life," of Sept. 3.

Rumor has it that on July 4th the most stringent child-labor laws in the United States went into effect in New Jersey, and any State wishing to protect its rising generation at the time when protection is most needed would do well to communicate with her.

Marjorie Dorman, in the Brooklyn Eagle, calls attention to the following parable taken from Judges IX. 8-16:

The trees went forth on a time to annoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, "Reign thou over us."

But the olive tree said unto them, "Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honor God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?"

And the trees said to the fig tree, "Come thou and reign over us."

But the fig tree said unto them, "Should I forsake my sweetness and my good fruit and go to be promoted over the trees?"

Then said the trees unto the vine, "Come thou and reign over us."

And the vine said unto them, "Should I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?"

Then all the trees said unto the bramble, "Come thou and reign over us."

And the bramble said unto the trees, "If in truth ye annoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow; and if not, then let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon."

The fruits of the olive, fig and vine all seem to symbolize the domestic virtues and it is only the bramble that is willing to enter the political arena.

Our friends, the Suffragists, seem to think the right to a vote in political matters differs in its source from that right in other organizations. Mr. Stubbs, who seems to have been a remarkably ignorant person, judging from Mrs. Selden's description should have told his wife that the people continuing to make an organization, be it a national, State or club government, decide at first in the qualification of voters, and it is these organizers who form the first "they" of Mrs. Stubbs' inquiry. From time to time new voters may be admitted when it is found expedient, but a vote is a granted privilege not an inherent right.

Ingenious, But Not Commendable.

In the current issue of The Women's Political World there apears, without any credit except to the artist, the half-page reproduction of a cartoon that was drawn for The Times and is still its property.

Such appropriation, without consent asked or given, constitutes a grievance for this paper, not desperate or as large as could be conceived, but still real. Rather more grave, in some respects, is the fact that before using the cartoon The Women's Political World changed the identifying inscriptions on the figures portrayed and so made the picture serve a purpose not intended by either its maker or its owner.

It seems to us that women who rather loudly profess to be aiming at the elevation of the world's morals and manners should not do things of this sort. It creates a bad impression, and, from their own standpoint, is certainly injudicious. It awakens doubt of their sincerity as reformers, or at any rate of their ability to discriminate in more delicate cases between right and wrong.

Of course, the alteration of pictures and making them useful or amusing in new ways is an ancient practice, but the scrupulous do not resort to it without explicit announcement of what they have done.—New York Times, Sept. 30.

He Was Changed Into a Narcissus.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Legend of The Flower Narcissus.

"NARCISSUS was a very beautiful boy, and he had a sister who looked so much like him that people could not tell them apart. They had blue eyes, long yellow curls, lovely skin and were always dressed just alike.

"They were together from morning until night and were never happy apart. They played a good deal in the forest, and Narcissus taught his sister how to shoot with a bow and arrow.

"But after awhile his sister died, and poor Narcissus would not be consoled. He wandered around through the forest from day to day, but he could not play. All he could do was to mourn for his sister.

"One bright spring day Narcissus bent over a little spring to get a drink when, lo and behold, there, looking up at him from the spring, was the face of his little sister, only it was very, very sad.

"Then he smiled and reached his arms out to her. She smiled and reached out her arms to him, but she did not offer to come out of the spring.

"He begged her to come out and play with him because he was so very lonely. But she made no reply and would not come out.

"So he sat by the edge of the spring every day and smiled and coaxed, but nothing would induce the little girl to come out.

"Then after awhile Narcissus refused to eat, he felt so bad. His beautiful face grew wan and white, and he grew very thin, but still he could not eat.

"After awhile he hadn't strength enough to peep into the stream at all, but would lie for hours beside it, longing for his little playmate.

"The gods had been watching him for a long time and felt very sorry for his loneliness and sadness.

"The gods conferred together about what should be done and at last came to the conclusion that they would end the misery of poor Narcissus.

"So one day when Narcissus was lying very quietly beside the pool the gods changed him into a beautiful white flower."

"Oh, daddy, it was his 'flection he saw in the pool all the time, wasn't it?" cried Evelyn.

"Reflection," said Jack wisely.

"Oh, well, I know what the word means!" said Evelyn.

"Well, what does it mean?" asked Jack.

"Just what I said," replied Evelyn. "He was looking at himself all the time."

"Must go to bed now, kiddies," said daddy.

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

"There's a wonderful difference in women," said Mr. Garland, as he lit a fresh cigar and settled himself to enjoy it in the smoker.

"That so?" asked his companion.

"I don't profess to be informed. I am only an outside observer, but it strikes me the differences are superficial; scratch the surface and you reach the eternal feminine every time."

"You're young yet," said the first speaker, patronizingly. "Take it in the matter of spending money alone; there is as much difference as between dark and daylight."

"As to that," said the young man, "I've such a wholesome fear of the spending capacity of the sex that I would have to be most desperately in love to risk it."

"I must admit that in the majority of cases your fears would be well grounded. Of course so-called society girls all have a bad name when it comes to knowing the value of a dollar, but they are not the only sinners. I had an experience that proved that beyond a doubt."

Mr. Garland relapsed into silence and sat looking out of the car window at the whirling snow flakes that settled in the dried grass and dead leaves.

"Go on with the story," said his companion, encouragingly.

"Oh, it's not much of a story," he answered, knocking the ashes off his cigar. "It was just a chunk of life. A year ago we had a siege of typhoid at our house. My wife, a son and a daughter were all down at once. We had a girl in the kitchen who had been with us over two years; a splendid worker, pleasant and capable. I thought the kitchen end of the business was in good hands.

"I got a trained nurse, sent the youngest boy to his grandmother's and braced myself for the strain. There were only three people to eat, for of course the fever patients could not be counted. You can imagine I was bowled over when I found I had been run in debt $110 for living expenses the first month."

"See here, old man, you are arguing on my side," laughed the young man.

"Do you know," continued Mr. Garland, paying no attention to the levity, "that girl would have fish and roast the same day. She would load the table with all kinds of fresh fruit and open jelly and preserves in the bargain. You may imagine I was not very hungry, anxious as I was. If I had not been so worried about the sick I should have noticed the pace she had set. Of course I called a halt when the bills came in. Now that girl came of a poor family, had been used to nothing at home but the barest necessities, and she knew what my wife had been accustomed to have, naturally, having been there so long; but she was a spendthrift by nature and here was her first chance at a fling."

"All of which goes to prove my thesis, that they are all alike," chuckled the young fellow. "What did she do after you called a halt?"

"She had no chance to do anything. I did the ordering myself after that," answered Mr. Garland.

"Well, I get off at the next station," said the young man, putting on his overcoat.

"Goodby," said Mr. Garland, shaking hands. "When you marry I hope you strike a woman like my wife. She can manage."

"Don't try holding your breath till I do it. I am afraid I'd strike a natural spendthrift," laughed his friend, shaking hands. "Goodby."

3COOP, THE CUB REPORTER — ONLY THIRTEEN DAYS MORE TILL CHRISTMAS — BY "HOP"

The Riddle of the Ages.

Gold is more highly prized than any other metal because it has the great quality of being more uniformly useless. Other metals fluctuate more or less in the degree of their usefulness. Gold continues on its even way.

Bricks made from clay are for all practical purposes more useful than gold. They can be made into houses, and nobody would attempt to break them off and carry them away. If bricks of gold were, however, employed for this purpose no house would be safe. The owner of the house, if he were a sound sleeper, would awake in the morning to find the walls gone, himself the center of an irreproachable system of ventilation.

Gold is like some stable people. It has no special accomplishments. Thus it never bores any one by its presence. You never hear any individual or any nation exclaim, "I'm tired of having so much gold around."

Gold is the greatest financial paradox in the world. Useless to sustain life, its very stability makes it lend itself to the most widely varying purposes. Without it war would be a failure, and so also peace.—Life.

An Iron Coat.

Plating iron with iron or steel with iron is a queer new scheme for delaying rusting. Chemically pure iron is nearly rustproof; so the plating idea is to cover iron or steel with iron that is as chemically pure as possible. Plating in much the same way that brass is plated with gold or nickel gives a coat that is very close to pure iron. A coat of zinc over the coat of iron also helps.

Rust is the bitterest and most persistent enemy of this age of steel, with its bridges and wires and skyscrapers and machines. The ancient Hindus had a secret method of making rustproof iron, and much iron is now manufactured for special uses at comparatively high cost which is reasonably free from impurities and so less likely to give way to rust, but the inventor of completely rustproof, cheap iron has a vast fortune awaiting him.—Saturday Evening Post.

Long Sentences.

Ruskin, it is said, has written more sentences of inordinate length than any other classic writer of modern English prose. Frederic Harrison some years ago counted the words in a number of typical sentences, finding that in the earlier books it was no uncommon thing for Ruskin to run beyond the page before permitting himself and his readers the relief of a full stop, but in every case the sense is as clear as day.

Wordsworth's poem on the "Character of Happy Warrior" is a notable example of sustained connections. Apart from the opening and closing couplets the poem consists of two very long compound sentences almost entirely comprised of adjectival clauses. The longer of the two sentences contains fifty-seven decasyllabic lines. This is probably a record in English verse.—Dundee Advertiser.

Most men have one big problem about this time of the year—they don't know what to buy their wives for Xmas.

They very much dislike hustling about from store to store looking for some geegaw that may be worn for a few weeks and then discarded, or for something else that may not win approval for so long as that.

It is about the most perplexing task they have in life.

To such men as this, and to all others, also, let us suggest a gift that requires no shopping to purchase.

It is a Continuous Monthly Income policy of life insurance—something that will pay a regular income every month so long as your wife may live.

Isn't that better than jewelry, or furs, or fine clothes?

SCHOOL CENSUS IS COMPLETED

Miss Margaret C. Holly, Makes a House to House Canvas in the City.

VISITED 6,157 HOUSES

Each 3,043 Contained 2,262 Children Under Five Years of Age and 4,148 Between Five and Sixteen Years of Age.

Miss Margaret C. Holly, the attendance office of the public schools of Plainfield, has recently submitted a report on the school census taken last summer for the Board of Education, which contains some interesting facts.

A complete house to house canvass was made in the city and records taken of all children living in the school district up to the age of sixteen years. In all 6,157 houses were visited, of which 3,043 houses contained 2,262 children under five years old, and 4,148 children between the ages of five and sixteen, 6,410 children in all. That all the children of school age or younger were sheltered in fifty per cent. of the residences in Plainfield is a fact worth noting.

Of the children of five to sixteen years, 3,308 attended the public schools, 494 were being educated at St. Mary's Parochial School, 239 went to private schools in the city, and 107 attended out of town schools.

An interesting fact is that out of all the children of compulsory school age (five to fourteen) years only 43 were found who were not attending some school. Nine of these were out on physicians' orders on account of ill health, and of the other 34 all have since entered school except five, who have left the city, and three who have gone to work.

Sixteen girls and twenty-six boys were at work between the ages of fourteen and sixteen. This census of course did not include the large number of children over sixteen years old who are attending the High School or private schools.

In almost every case the census takers were treated courteously and all the necessary information given them, though fourteen families refused to give out any information whatever through the fear, as they stated, that their taxes would be raised.

There are now on file at the Board of Education offices 6,157 census cards, and the probable number of school children for the next few years can be very accurately predicted. These figures are useful, not only in estimating the budget for next year, and providing accommodations for the children who may be expected to apply for an education, but also in figuring on the probable amount of State funds this school district can count on next year, as this is based largely on the daily attendance at the schools of the city.

The average number of children in each of the 3,043 families with children under sixteen in Plainfield was a trifle over two and one-tenth children to each family. A fairly large number of families, however, were without children, or contained only children over sixteen.

The nationality of the families who had children of school age was divided as follows: Americans, 1,668; colored, 288; Italians, 247; Irish, 210; Hebrew, 177; German, 126; Polish, 84; English, 73; Danish, 35; Swedish, 34; Scotch, 30; Slavish, 18; French, 8; Welsh, 7; Russians, 6; Swiss, 6; Dutch, 6; Austrian, 4; Japanese, 3; Greek, 3; Hungarian, 3; Syrian, 2; Spanish, 2; Romanian, 1; Australian, 1; West Indian, 1; total number of families, 3,043.

UNIQUE PRODUCTION GIVEN BY CHILDREN

Capacity Audience Witnessed "Pied-Piper" in High School Auditorium.

An audience that packed the Plainfield High School auditorium to its capacity witnessed the presentation of the Pied Piper of Hamelin, given under the auspices of the Recreation Committee, Saturday night, and receipts reputed to have passed $100 were added to the Committee's treasury as a result. Children of the primary and grammar grades of the local public schools played the various parts in the production and the careful training they have received during the preliminary rehearsing from Miss Lilian L. Lamson, supervisor of public recreation in Plainfield, was much in evidence. The spectacular performance was one of the most brilliant and unique ever portrayed by an amateur cast in this city and offered something extraordinary and thoroughly enjoyable along the amusement line.

Despite the numerous characters and varied parts the entire play was staged without a flaw and the mechanical-like smoothness evidenced on the part of the participants was the subject of considerable favorable comment. The well-known nursery fable was transformed from childish prose into real life with scenes enacted by children of the age who thoroughly enjoy the famous fable. The scenic effects and regalia of the youthful performers added much to the spectacle.

Miss Katherine Holt, garbed in a cloak of yellow and red, played the part of the "Pied Piper," and Miss Dorothy Roberts was the "Mayor." James Brownlee and Charles Kampf acted as heralds. Fifteen pupils from the First grade of the Franklin School's primary department, dressed in gray uniforms, scampered around the auditorium in a manner that resembled true rodent life and the children of the town of Hamelin numbered thirty-five and were also selected from the primary classes.

In the presentation of the novel play Miss Lamson was ably assisted by Miss Mildred Brownlee, the associate supervisor of recreation, to whom much of the credit much be attributed. Miss Griffin acted as piano accompanist and Carl Evans rendered cornet solos during the evening.

CLEARING LAND FOR FEDERAL BUILDING

Removal of Dwelling 115 Years Old is Now About Complete.

The dwelling, an old land mark, on the southeast corner of Watchung avenue and Second street, on the site of the new postoffice, is being torn down this week by Alexander Kane. The building prior to its being sold to the government was owned by A. L. Force and Charles H. Hand. It is said to be over one hundred and fifteen years old. Mr. Kane, when interviewed, said that he had never in his experience of house-wrecking torn down a dwelling of the same type of construction. The beams are all morticed and tied as are the crossbars in the partitions.

The boards of the partition are 2x10 oak, sawed out. The lathes, which cover the partitions and ceiling, are pine and furrowed out. The sidewalls are filled in with English imported brick. The bricks compare in size with the bricks of this country with the exception of their width, which is only 3½ inches. The frames are 6x10 oak. The main centre girder of the building is 10x12 oak. The flooring is double grooved throughout with boards 12x14 inches wide, all white pine. Mr. Kane estimates that it will take him over a week to wreck the building.

WILL REGARD FORCE AS A HOSTILE ACT

Washington, Dec. 14—General Carranza today telegraphed to the State Department that if any force were employed by the United States at Naco, Ariz., it would be regarded by the Mexican people and himself as a hostile act.

A report from General Bliss, on the border, reached the War Department that a Mexican woman had been shot while passing along a street on the American side. The bullet came from the Mexican side.

ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF RELIEF ARTICLES

West End Knitting Club's Contribution to British Soldiers Appreciated.

About a month ago the West End Knitting Club forwarded to Lady Paget a box of comforts for the British soldiers. The box contained socks, handkerchiefs, shoe-laces, Royal tooth powder, scarfs, etc.

The following letter acknowledging the arrival of the box has just been received:

"35 Belgrave Square,
"S. W.
"Nov 25, 1914.

Dear Miss Grant:

"The box arrived quite safely yesterday and I am most grateful to you and your sister and the friends who have helped you in sending such a generous and useful consignment of presents for our troops.

"I am really touched by the thoughtfulness and sympathy shown in the work done and the things chosen. I feel sure the "foot-ease" will be so much appreciated—and the handkerchiefs you placed inside the socks.

"Our poor men are having a terrible time in the trenches in this cold, wet weather, and I am so glad to have these things to send them, we feel we cannot do enough for them. I must send you special thanks for that very nice rug you have so kindly included. I will send it to the American hospital in Devonshire, where we have always 300 wounded men. It will be very useful there.

"With renewed thanks.

"Yours very truly,
"M. PAGET."

ELKS ENJOY SECOND CABARET.

Fully 200 members of Plainfield Lodge of Elks enjoyed the second cabaret social in the clubhouse, Saturday night. The program was furnished by the Phonograph Trio, of Orange, singers and instrumentalists, who made a decided hit. They were encored repeatedly, responding with a succession of numbers for nearly three hours. Two more cabaret affairs are to be held in the present series, December 19 and 26 being the dates.

BUSINESS MEN'S MEETING.

The Business Men's Association has arranged for a special meeting to be held tomorrow evening at the Exempt Firemen's Hall. Henry C. White, of the Public Recreation Committee, will address the gathering on the work being carried on by the committee. Members are invited to bring those interested in the welfare of the city.

HEAVY SENTENCES FOR SIX STREET ROWDIES

Recorder Hand Severe With Young Men Who Resisted Marshal Herrman.

Recorder Fred Hand, of the borough police court, brought the hand of the law down with full force on the heads of a sextet of disorderly characters, this morning, dealing out fines that aggregate $130 to the offenders. The defendants were rounded up by the North Plainfield authorities with the aid of Sergeant Maurice Higgins, Roundsman Andrew Saffron and Patrolman Charles Wicht, Saturday niht, following a fracas that took place on the Girard avenue bridge.

The trouble makers, who were alleged to have imbibed to freely in the amber fluid, started a rumpus in that section shortly before midnight, and Marshal John Herrman was dispatched post-haste to the scene of the disorder. Arriving while the scuffle was at its heighth the minion of the law atempted to subdue the half dozen combatants single handed. Ranging in age from seventeen to twenty-one years and being imbued with a rough and tumble knowledge of the pugilistic and wrestling game, five of the rowdies managed to gain their freedom and sped in all directions.

Herman Cogger, of 965 South Second street, was held a captive and when put through a course of questioning at the borough headquarters soon revealed the names of his five companions. While the escaped quintet were complimenting themselves on their getaway the Plainfield force was appealed to with the result that the following men were landed in borough cells yesterday: Harry Goff, 203 Grant avenue; Edward Hamilton, 345 Bergen street; Robert Kirkwood, 429 John street; Patrick Finnerty, 233 Prescott place, and Edward Hawk, 1209 South Second street.

Charges of resisting arrest and disorderly conduct were preferred against the defendants in the police court, this morning, and all were given the maximum penalty for the charges of which they were convicted. Cogger and Finnerty were found to be guilty of both disorderly conduct and resisting arrest and were fined $20 apiece on each charge; Hamilton was fine $20, and Kirkwood, Hawk and Goff were fined $10 each. The three latter fines were liquidated, but it is probable that the remaining three will have to serve jail sentences in Somerville.

SEEK TO REACH THE WORTHY POOR

Community Christmas Planning to Make Wide Distribution of its Bounty.

Great care is being taken by the Community Christmas Committee to reach by their system of distribution all the destitute who really ought to be remembered, and the number is very large this year, when so many wage-earners are out of a job. The committee is working in close relations with the Charity Organization Society, the Salvation Army and the churches with the object of extending its bounty to the persons who need it most. Where there are so many cases that deserve relief, especial care is necessary to prevent duplication. It is therefore urgently requested that any individual or organization which is planning to help any needy person or family, to call up "Plainfield 103" and notify to the central office the name of the person to be helped. This precaution will insure generous contributors that their gifts shall reach the largest possible number of persons.

Arrangements have been made to receive contributions at the Elks' Club, and at the principal drug stores, this week, so that everyone who wants to be a partner in this enterprise of Good Will may do so. Checks may be sent to the treasurer, Charles A. Rice, 836 West Seventh street.

RECORD ATTENDANCE AT GRACE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The attendance at the Sunday-school service of the Grace M. E. church yesterday afternoon, was a record-breaker, there being a total of 243 present, which was the largest in the history of the school. There is an average attendance of about 200 every Sunday. The Wednesday night prayer meeting service will be a "Promise" meeting this week, and the Pastor's Adult Probation Class will meet Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the parsonage.

The pastor will preach the third of his series of sermons on the Bible next Sunday morning. His subject will be "Some Bible Teachings About Man." The Chistmas service will be held the Sunday after Christmas.

TURKISH BATTLESHIP SUNK IN DARDENELLES BY A BRITISH SUBMARINE—WAS OLD VESSEL.

MESSUDIEH HAD BEEN USED FOR DEFENSE PURPOSES—B-11, AFTER SINKING VESSEL RETURNED SAFELY TO ALLIED FLEET.

TWO AUSTRIAN TORPEDO BOATS ARE SUNK

Germans Are Sending Recruits Into Flanders—Servian Victory Denied—Little Change Reported in France, Where Artillery Bombardment Continues—Montenegrins Take Vishegard.

London, Dec. 14 (Central News Cable).—Announcement was made by the Admiralty today that the British submarine B-11 had sunk the Turkish battleship Messudieh in the Dardanelles.

The submarine sunk the battleship yesterday and afteward safely rejoined the Allied fleet. The Messudieh was an old ship for which two heavy guns to replace those lost in a fight with a Greek fleet had been ordered in England before the present war began. When it was ascertained the guns would not be delivered the Turkish minister of marine decided that the Messudieh was unfit for active service and the warship was anchored in the Dardanelles for purposes of defense.

The official bureau statement was as follows:

"Yesterday submarine B-11, in charge of Lieutenant Commander Norman B. Holbrook, of the Royal Navy, entered the Dardanelles, and in spite of the difficult current dived under five rows of mines and torpedoed the Turkish battleship Messudieh, which was guarding the mine fields.

"Although pursued by gun fire and torpedo boats, the B-11 returned safely after being submerged on one occasion for nine hours.

"When last seen the Messudieh was sinking by the stern."

The Messudieh was a very old boat, having been built at Blackwall, England, in 1874, and reconstructed at Genoa in 1903. She wak 332 feet long, 59 feet beam, and of about 10,000 tons burden. She had a speed of 17½ knots and her main battery consisted of two 9.2 inch guns in turrets and twelve 6-inch guns in battery. In the war with Greece, in 1912, the Messudieh was reported badly damaged in a naval battle in the Dardanelles. She carried a crew of 600 men.

Rome, Dec. 14.—Two Austrian torpedo boats struck mines in the Ensana Canal and sank, according to a despatch to the Messagero from its correspondent at Trieste. Further details of the Austrian naval loss are withheld by the Austrian authorities.

The torpedo boats were en route to Lisha when they struck mines, the message states. The crews of both vessels were lost.

Amsterdam, Dec. 14 (Central News Cable.)—A number of German recruits passed through Brussels yesterday, proceeding in the direction of Flanders. A large body of exhausted Uhlans and Hussars from the region before Ypres yesterday defiled through Schaerbeck on their way to the rear. The Telegraaf has received reports of a great movement of troops on Saturday in the direction of Antwerp.

An unofficial despatch from Austrian sources declares that the strong Servian forces have compelled the reorganization of the Austrian army fighting in the Balkans, and made necessary the retirement of the Austrian right wing. That the Servians have won a decisive victory is denied.

Paris, Dec. 14.—The French War Office gave out the following statement at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

"There is nothing important to report between the North Sea and the Oise. In the region of the Aisne to the northwest of Soupier the enemy has violently bombarded our trenches. We have replied and thrown them into disorder. There was no infantry attack from either side in this region.

"Our artillery has destroyed important works on the slope of the Argonne. In the forest of Grurie we have advanced slightly by mining. There have been no attacks by the enemy.

"On the heights of the Meuse there was a violent cannonade. The enemy's batteries seeming to have been forced to withdraw toward the north in the region of the Woevre.

"After having taken a line of trenches on a front of 500 yards in

DR. SHAW TO VISIT HERE DECEMBER 16

Famous Woman Suffragist Will Speak at the Plainfield High School.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw will speak without fail, Wednesday evening, December 16, in the High School auditorium. Tickets sold for a previous meeting, when Dr. Shaw was unable to be present, will be good for the sixteenth. Mayor Percy H. Stewart will give a greeting to the distinguished visitor and the occasion promises to be one of unusual interest.

Dr. Shaw is almost the last representative of a group of able women who fought, through the last half-century, to obtain greater opportunities for wonmankind. Lucretia Mott, Lucy Stone, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony and Julia Ward Howe have laid down the work to which they devoted their lives. Antoinette Brown Blackwell alone remains of the brave little army of pioneers for women's rights. Visitors are requested to ask questions at the close of the meeting and to draw upon Dr. Shaws' wide and long experience for information concerning "The Woman Movement."

INFORMAL DANCE AT THE PARK CLUB

Large Number of Guests Enjoy Social Function Saturday Evening.

The informal dance given at the Park Club, Saturday evening, under the auspices of the entertainment committee, of which Mrs. Hugh Jarvis is the chairman, was largely attended and proved to be one of the most pleasant of the informal functions at the club this winter. A feature was the attractive program of music by VanEpps Brothers.

Supper was served at 11 o'clock, after which the dancing continued until midnight. The affair was in charge of the entertainment committee, the members of which were present to receive th guests.

NEIGHBORS IN COURT TO AIR LONG STANDING FEUD

Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, of South Second street, appeared in the city court, Saturday, as defendant on a charge of disorderly conduct preferred by Mrs. Charles Leighs, of 1174 South Second street, it being alleged that she disturbed the quiet of the neighborhood and let two of the complainant's chickens out of the latter's coop.

Considerable testimony from neighbors was given on both sides of the case and after a lengthy hearing Judge DeMeza found the defendant guilty of the allegations. Robert Newton Crane, counsel for Mrs. Leighs and the other complainants, in his summing up, took occasion to comment on the recent troubles charged to Mrs. Martin and urged the court to take measures to effect a remedy. J. Henry Crane was counsel for the defense.

In disposing of the charge, Judge DeMeza took occasion to score the defendant and suspended sentence on the condition that further trouble of this nature would result in a penalty.

PAUL RABOUIN INJURED IN FALL FROM WAGON

Paul Rabouin, a driver for the Park Hotel Stables, was thrown out of his wagon on Saturday afternoon in front of the Pennock pharmacy. The fall, a bad one, was witnessed by Taximan H. E. Nelson, who rushed to where he lay. Mr. Nelson lifted Rabouin to his feet and assisted him back to the office of the Park Hotel, where another driver, Henry Hill, was sent to take his place. The only thing that saved Rabouin, who struck his head a hard blow,, from being seriously injured, was the fact that the roadway had been rendered soft by the recent storms. He was able to be out this morning.

Rabouin at the time was on his way to Hillside cemetery for the W. G. Runyon undertaking establishment. Running the entire length down the center of the top of the casket case, is an eight-inch strip of board. The seat of the wagon was placed in this board and in order to keep it from sliding Rabouin was obliged to sit in the center of the seat. The accident was caused by one of the wheels of the wagon crossing from one side of the road to the other striking the trolley track in such a manner as to jolt the seat off of its balance.

Mrs. A. F. Samson, of New Market road, entertained her sister, Miss Christine Maag, of Plainfield, over the week-end.

The annual meeting of the O. T. C. U. R. M. T. Club will be held on New Year's Day.

214 W. FRONT ST.

Walter Walker, of Grove street, has returned from Brooklyn, where he spent a week with his sister, Mrs. George Doerr.

William Watercamp, of Dunellen avenue, has accepted a position with the New Jersey Central.

Gilbert Herlich, of Newark, son of Adam Herlich, of Front street, was a visitor in the borough yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Post, of New Market road, entertained their nieces, the Misses Janet and Eleanor McAllister, of New York, over the week-end.

Mrs. W. H. Cockburn, of Penfield place, was a recent visitor in New York.

Mrs. J. H. Schneidler, of Washington avenue, who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, does not seem to show any improvement.

Peter Ritter, of Prospect avenue, leaves on Friday for Jacksonville, Fla., where he will spend the winter. Mr. Ritter is hoping that he will be able to secure a position at his trade of ironworker upon his arrival in the South, but he will remain in the sunny clime away from this section of the country until next spring.

Mrs. Raymond Hamley, of Washington avenue, is a visitor at Newark today.

Mrs. Lorin W. Trickler and son, Lorin, Jr., of Fourth street, left Saturday for Waynesboro, Pa., where they will spend the holidays with Mrs. Trickler's mother, Mrs. Martha Frantz. Mr. Trickler will join them on Christmas.

Richmond Ritterbusch, of Dunellen avenue, who has been very ill with an ulcerated sore throat, is considerably improved.

Mrs. Martha Apgar, of Front street, visited her son, Harry Apgar, at Elizabeth, on Saturday. Mr. Apgar had his tonsils removed a week ago Saturday and for several days after the operation he was quite ill. He is getting along nicely now, however.

BANQUET A SUCCESS.

The committee in charge of the fourth annual banquet of the Board of Trade held in Stryker's garage, on Thursday evening, December 3, met in the Borough Hall on Saturday evening to wind up its affairs. The report of the ticket committee showed that enough tickets had been sold to cover all expenses of the banquet and to have a surplus of $15. This is the first year that the organization has ever come out ahead on its annual event. It is believed that the excellent showing is due to the fact that no liquors were served this year.

Borough Engineer and Mrs. L. T. Churchill spent Saturday in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright, of Front street, have returned home after having spent the past week in Brooklyn as guests of Mr. Wright's mother.

Mrs. Emilie Muller, of Lincoln avenue, spent Saturday in New York.

An adjourned meeting of the Mayor and Common Council will be held in the Borough Hall this evening for the purpose of awarding the contract for the construction of the borough's collecting sewerage system.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. J. G. Burdick, of Center street, on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. T. C. Bodine, of Plainfield, will address the meeting and give a report of the W. C. T. U. national convention.

Adelbert Whitford, of New Market road, is contemplating a visit to Stony Point, N. Y., over the holidays.

GOES INTO TRAINING.

Wesley Huff, the local "White Hope," has outfitted a gymnasium and gone into winter training, according to his manager, John McMahon, the famous old Dunellen catcher.

Mayor and Mrs. E. B. Latham attended a dance in New York, Saturday night They motored in and after the dance passed the night with friends, returning home yesterday.

PLAN XMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

A meeting of the teachers and the older pupils of the Presbyterian Sunday-school was held after the afternoon session of the school, yesterday, to decide about the Xmas exercises and festival. The exercises will be held in the church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The music is to be sung from the Christmas classics No. 3 and is especially beautiful. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

The festival will be held in the chapel of the church on Wednesday evening, December 30. On this occasion gifts of candy and oranges will be given the scholars and there will be an exchange of gifts between teachers and scholars. It was also planned to give an entertainment on this occasion and Mrs. Caskey was placed in charge of the affair. It was furthermore arranged to have the scholars bring gifts for the poor at that time. This will be explained to the school next Sunday.

Owing to the illness of a member of her family, Mrs. C. B. Mattis, superintendent of the primary department of the school for a good many years, was obliged to send in her resignation. This was accepted with the deepest regret, as it was felt by all that no one could more faithfully or efficiently perform the duties of that most important department of work in the Sunday-school than has Mrs. Mattis for many years.

MISCHAEL'S CHRISTMAS STORE.

Oscar Michael & Co. are one of the new stores that in the short time in which they have been open for business have made their mark in the retail field. This is particularly noticeable in discriminating clientele, who during the gift season are making this one of the chief sources of supply. The store is decorated for the occasion in a manner that makes it particularly attractive to patrons at this time, and numerous conveniences have been installed for their popular out-of-town trade.

'Plains & Fanwood.

A successful fair for the benefit of the All Saints' Episcopal church was held in the Fanwood firehouse from 2 until 9 on Saturday. When all expenses have been paid the sum realized will be about $200, exceeding that of any previous year. The booth conducted by the Ladies' Aid Society of the church, as in former years, had the biggest receipts, amounting to $80, while the grocery table and fancy table, conducted by the young men's and young women's classes of the church, reported $25 from each. The grab-bag table, candy table and peanut booth took in nearly $30. The surprise of the fair came when it was announced that one hundred and twenty diners were served between 6 and 8 o'clock. Interest was revived near closing time by the auctioning off of the few articles remaining. Dancing was enjoyed following the fair.

The members of the Sunday-school of the Baptist church met in the church yesterday afternoon, to make plans for the Christmas entertainment to be held during Christmas week, the exact date to be decided later. There will be several playlets in the program this year, with the various parts taken by the children. Santa Claus will be there as usual.

WILL PROBABLY AUTHORIZE BUILDING OF NEW SCHOOL

Stephen G. Van Hoesen, one of the Fanwood residents who was instrumental in the securing of names to a petition protesting against the appropriation of money for a new Fanwood school in the Graceland section, has received a communication from E. C. Westcott, attorney general of the State, informing him that if no further objection was lodged by Fanwood residents, the building of the new structure would be authorized by the State authorities within the next few days. To a representative of the Daily Press, Mr. Van Hoesen stated that he did not intend to carry the objections further and was satisfied to let the matter rest where it is.

An election held in August last indicated that the sentiment of 129 out of 172 voters favored the erection of a school building on Jerusalem road, in the Graceland section, to cost about $16,000.

TAKEN ILL WHILE VISITING.

Clark Martin, of New York, who was convalescing at the home of his sister, Miss M. F. Martin, of Sycamore avenue, was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital, Saturday, suffering from acute intestinal trouble. He will be operated upon later in the event of his failing to respond to treatment. Mr. Martin was discharged from Flower Hospital, New York, following an operation for appendicitis.

XMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

The first of the Congregational Christmas celebrations will be held tomorrow afternoon in the parish house at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the Women's Association. This will be a mothers' and children's meeting and all the women, young people and children are invited to attend. There will be a very pleasing program, which will be under the direction of Mrs. D. Foster Updyke.

--It's hard to be an optimist on the day your tenant leaves. But prompt recourse to classified advertising will soon set things to rights again.

—A day wasted in your classified advertising campaign for work is a real loss.

MISS SHRAGER WINS SPEAKING CONTEST

Her Subject "Immigration" Considered Best by the Judges.

The first of the public speaking contests in this city under the auspices of the local Young Men's Hebrew Association, for which the State body had made the preparations, was held last evening in the rooms of the association. A large number were in attendance.

The speakers and subjects were as follows: Miss Elizabeth Shrager, "Immigration;" Miss Nettie Soloman, "Reformed Judaism;" Miss Bessie Shrager, "Jewish Social Work;" Lena Moledezky, "Hebrew Literature." The silver medal, a prize offered by the State body, was awarded Miss Elizabeth Shrager. The judges in the contest were Dr. H. S. Martin, Benjamin Kline and Samuel Schwartz.

Similar contests were held by each local association throughout the State yesterday. The winners in the local contests will meet in the near future, the winner of the State contest to receive a gold medal from the national body. Samuel Rothberg presented the medal to Miss Shrager on behalf of the State body.

ALL KINDS OF ALARMS FOR SMALL AUTO FIRE

For one small automobile fire that occurred on Watchung avenue, near Second street, at 1:40 yesterday morning, fire headquarters received three alarms from as many sources. One man who saw the burst of flames rushed to the front door of headquarters and raised such a clatter he not only aroused the sleeping firemen but the entire neighborhood as well. Captain Townley was hurrying downstairs to learn the cause of the tumult when another man telephoned from the Elks' Club. This was being answered when Harry G. DeMeza spotted the blaze and pulled box 14 at Front street and Watchung avenue. The gong evidently decided enough excitement had been caused so very kindly refused to blow, although the house tappers sounded with a will.

The blaze did not amount to more than a $10 "shine" and was put out with two extinguishers. The car belonged to a Mr. Bostwick, of Plucketemin. The blaze was started by a back-fire in the carburetor, the drop igniting some grease in the pan.

WILL DEMONSTRATE TRUSSING AND BONING OF POULRTY

The monthly session of the New Jersey Association for Poultry Improvement will be held Wednesday evening, at Exempt Firemen's Hall, 109 Park avenue. Prof. Huff, who was giving demonstrations at the poultry show recently held at the Grand Central Palace, New York, recently, will be present, and demonstrate the trussing and boning of poultry.

William J. Trembath, secretary of the local show, to be opened at Columbus Auditorium, December 28, reports that entries are coming in fast. The entries will be closed Wednesday evening. Percy Cook & Sons, of Scotch Plains, have donated a silver cup for the best Orpington entry.

ATTENDED DINNER OF PENNSYLVANIA SOCIETY

Louis K. Hyde, Nils Anderson, Frederick Conlin and Leslie R. Fort were among the nine hundred guests at the annual dinner of the Pennsylvania Society held at the Waldorf-Astoria, Saturday evening.

The speakers were Ambassador Naon, of Argentine; Congressman R. P. Hobson and Governor-elect Brumbaugh, of Pennsylvania.

C. E. ANNIVERSARY.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist church celebrated its twenty-third anniversary on Saturday, when Rev. Edgar Van-Horn, of New York, made the address. The annual report of the society given by Miss Dorothy Hubbard, showed a year of considerable activity with bright prospects for the future. The society has forty-six active members.

INSTALLATION SERVICE.

Services of recognition of Rev. Dr. Birney S. Hudson, the new pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, who preached his first sermon to his local charge a week ago yesterday, will be held at the church Friday evening of this week. Dr. Hudson was last week elected to membership in the Plainfield Ministers' Association.

SUDDEN DROP IN MERCURY PREDICTED

Plainfielders to Experience Real Winter Weather Tomorrow.

Those who have been congratulating the weather man in dispensing mild temperatures, had better get their furs ready, if they are fortunate enough to own any, for Weather Prophet John Neagle announces today that there is to be a sudden drop of sixteen degrees in the mercury by tomorrow morning and that by Wednesday morning the temperature will be ten above zero.

The cold blast is traveling from the West at express train speed and timely warning is given so that preparations may be made to give it a proper reception. Mr. Neagle said today that had not yesterday's snow storm turned to rain, there would have been nearly a foot of snow in Plainfield today.

The weather bureau announced today that the "merger" of two storms, one from the Southwest and the other from the West, saved this part of the country a heavy snow storm. This "merger" took place in the vicinity of Canada. The heavy fall of rain which followed the snow late yesterday afternoon, flooded streets and sidewalks throughout the city and borough and no one stirred out of doors unless compeled to go. Within a short time every bit of snow had disappeared and this morning the air was clear and cold, with a gradual dropping of the temperature.

MISS SIBYLE CONKLIN TO SING IN THE "MESSIAH"

The Public Recreation Committee, under whose auspices the cantata, "The Messiah," is to be given tomorrow evening at the High School Auditorium, has announced that owing to the fact that Miss Grace Carroll, one of the soloists scheduled, being ill and unable to sing at this time, Miss Sibyle Conklin, who has sung in the cantata in Berlin and Vienna, will substitute. The committee feels fortuate in securing Miss Conklin at the last moment for the occasion.

A rehearsal of the Choral Society is to be held this evening at the High School, when the finishing touches on the chorus parts of the program.

RECREATION NOTES

The Italian Club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the Lincoln School.

The Sewing and Needlecraft Clubs meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the Stillman School.

A full rehearsal of chorus, orchestra and soloists for the "Messiah" will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the High School auditorium.

The Stillman School will be opened tomorrow evening for colored people. There is a girls' gymnasium class, young men's club, sewing class and dramatic. A social hour will follow the regular class meetings.

The Men's Gymnasium Class will meet Tuesday evening at 8:15 in the High School gymnasium.

The Girls' Athletic Club will play the Y. W. C. A. in basketball, Wednesday evening, in the High School gymnasium.

PERSONAL.

Charles VanArsdale, of West Third street, is a patient at Muhlenberg Hospital, following an operation for appendicitis performed Saturday. His condition is reported as being favorable.

Albert J. Glaeser, of Lenox avenue, underwent an operation at Muhlenberg Hospital today, for an intestinal trouble. Mrs. Glaeser is purchasing agent for the Levgar Iron Works.

Edward Schroppe, of Spooner avenue, who has been seriously ill for several months, is reported to be in a serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warman, of Grant avenue, have returned from a month's visit in the Middle West.

COURT GRANTS MOTION.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The Supreme Court today granted the motion of the Government to dismiss an appeal taken by David Lamar from a decision of the Courts of the District of Columbia in favor of his extradition to New York to face trial for impersonating a Federal officer. The arrest and conviction in New York of Lamar made it unnecessary for the high court to pass upon his case.

BENJAMIN DUERR'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Benjamin Duerr was held at 2 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, at his late home on Regent street, the borough. Rev. George Hauser, pastor of the German Reformed church, officiated. The burial was in Hillside cemetery.

WAR NEWS

the rest of Montmare our troops repulsed two violent counter attacks.

"In Alsace our advanced has carried out front as far as the line of hill No. 425.

"In Servia, during the days of December tenth, eleventh and twelfth, the Austrians continued to retreat on the entire front. The Servian advance guard has reached Veliki, Bosnia, in the direction of Shabatz as well as Zavalaka in the direction of Losnitza. During their retreat the Austrians abandoned numerous trophies of war. From the retaking of the offensive up to December eleventh inclusive, the Servians have taken 28,000 prisoners."

After two days of fighting the Montenegrins have taken Vishegard and have driven the Austrians across the Drina.

London, Monday, December 14—"For three days a furious battle has been raging from Ypres to La Bassee. The Anglo-French forces have borne the brunt of repeated German assaults on their trenches. The fighting began simultaneously from Menin to Warneton on one wing and from Armentieres to La Bassee on the other," says a "Chronicle" correspondent.

"It is probable that as I write La Bassee itself has been captured by the Allied forces, but on the northern wing, where the Germans suddenly abandoned their defense tactics of past weeks, long battalions of bayonets have debouched from their trenches to make wild onslaughts on the Allies, and, although they suffered heavier losses, they have been within an ace of piercing the front lines.

"They succeeded in driving back the men in the first line of the Allied trenches, but the Allied supporting trenches, barely 100 yards behind, poured volley into their confused ranks. The Germans never reached the second line, but were eventually pursued at the point of the bayonet to their own trenches."

Petrograd, Dec. 14 (via London).—An official communication issued by the Russian army sta of the Caucasus says:

"All day Friday fighting occurred in the front extending through the village of Pyrusk, Asmer and Tutak (southeast of Erzerum). The enemy was everywhere repulsed and pursued beyond the Euphrates with severe losses."

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Sewing Society of the Frst Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30. The Pastor's Aid Society of the same church will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Junior Boys' Club of Hope chapel will hold a social Thursday evening.

TRAINING GIRLS TO BUY.

An otherwise perfectly good housekeeper may know how to keep her house clean and neat, how to cook the best food, how to make her own clothes and how to care for and rear her children, but if she is not competent as a purchaser of home supplies she has failed in one of the essentials of her position in the home. To plan the weekly allowance to cover the needs of the home, to make purchases economically and judiciously and then to lay aside a little nest-egg for a rainy day, is as important as anything else in the art of the making of a home.

This ability to buy was never more necessary than right now, when prices of foodstuffs, particularly beef and other meats, are mounting to unprecedented and next to unattainable heights. To know how to best meet this condition and, if possible, to counteract it, is the problem confronting every family which cooks its own meals. The question narrows down to the woman of the house: here is no small responsibility which can be met only by ability, plus knowledge and experience, or training.

The purchases of the housewife, however, are not confined to foods. She must choose the clothes for herself and her children, picking the best cloths to meet the requirements for which the purchase is being made. She must know what looks best and wears best, and gives the best service for the outlay. Other incidentals come under her watchful eye, including family amusements, health, outings, church and social obligations.

The housewife of today should not be a drudge. Her position is one of managerial duties, even though she be of the great masses of admirable, industrious wives who do all their own work. Training, as it does with men, lifts women in the home from drudgery and common labor to be more productive and of more service.

Training thus becomes a necessity in the fitting of the housewife for her profession of homemaking. Teaching her how to buy is as important as instruction in cooking, sewing and other factors in domestic science. Working girls have been making the best wives in the past because they have been trained by business experience in the value of money. Schools and colleges are slowly taking up the task of teaching girls how to buy for the home and working girls will have no monopoly of this knowledge in the future. There is need, however, of far more general instruction of this sort in the public schools.

Residents of the city are to have another splendid opportunity tomorrow night to learn more about the work being done by the Public Recreation Committee, when the Choral Society organized by the Committee will render "The Messiah." The two hundred or more who will participate have spent many hours in preparation, and the production will be well worth hearing. Plainfield is indeed fortunate in having an organization to bring about such performances as the one promised, and the people cannot do too much to further the work of the Recreation Committee.

Fifty or more candidates will seek election as commissioners under the new form of government in Asbury Park, when the election is held in a few weeks. As the voting is to be by the preferential method, and but five are to be chosen, there is little or no hope of a majority election in a single instance. There are two colored candidates in the list, and as there are a large number of colored people in the city, they have a chance to be elected.

Prosecutor Florance, of Middlesex county, told Judge Daly on Friday that over $20,000 which had been imposed in fines in the Middlesex county courts is unpaid, and yet the persons so fined are at large. We always were under the impression that when fines were unpaid the convicted person was held in jail a certain number of days for each dollar. Is anything of the same kind going on in Union county?

From returns already made to those having the matter in charge, Plainfield people are apparently supporting the Christmas seal sale better than ever before. The local Anti-Tuberculosis League receives eighty-five per cent. of the money derived from the sale of the seals, and it is to be hoped that the support will measure up to the fullest expectations of those in charge.

German reports claim that three British ships were sunk in the recent naval battle in the South Atlantic, at the same time saying that their (the German) fleet was destroyed. If they would now advise how they got the information, in view of the fact that their fleet was either destroyed or ran away, they will oblige a waiting world.

At the rate they are being given out, it is evident that the leading industry in Germany at the present time is the manufacture of iron crosses. Before the struggle is over someone will probably hand the Kaiser a leather medal.

"Democrats to Try to Keep Pledges," says a newspaper headline, recording a meeting of the minority of the next House of Assembly. Is this an admission that it is a hard job for them to do so?

No, gentle reader, that $50,000 "paid for" Eddie Collins by the Chicago Americans does not mean that we have returned to slave days.

$40,000,000 is said to be spent annually for toys. But it might be added that it goes for happiness too.

PATRIOTIC ORDER ELECTS OFFICERS

Business Meeting Followed by a Euchre Party and Social.

The Patriotic Order of America, at its meeting Saturday night, in the Babcock building, nominated officers prior to the annual meeting in January. The nominations which are equivalent to an election, were as follows:

President, Mrs. Andrew McDowell; assistant, Mrs. William Clawson; vice-president, Mrs. John Lant; assistant vice-president, Mrs. Peter Johnson; conductor, Mrs. Florence Waldron; assistant conductor, Miss Emma Dixon; guard, Mrs. Ora Eckert; sentinel, Mrs. Minnie Poland; recording secretary, Mrs. Helen Freeman; financial secretary, Mrs. Lucetta Smith; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Cable; trustee, one year, Mrs. Minnie Poland. The chaplain, orator and assistant recording secretary will be appointed in January.

After the business session there was a euchre party in which members of the Patriotic Order Sons of America took part. Individual favors were given. Mrs. Theodore VanPelt and Nimrod Norton were in charge of the social features while the entertainment committee comprised Mrs. Andrew McDowell, chairman; Mrs. Helen Freeman, Mrs. Lucetta Smith and Mrs. Peter Johnson. Theodore VanPelt was the general chairman.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET.

The Plainfield Democratic Club will hold an important meeting tomorrow evening, when officers will be nominated. Plans for the coming year will be discussed.

DIED WHILE AT CHURCH SERVICE

Edwin M. Wight, Well Known Editor, Drops in Somerville Edifice.

APOPLEXY THE CAUSE

Deceased Was An Uncle of the Misses Trenbath, of This City, and a Classmate of the late President James A. Garfield.

Edwin Mather Wight, aged 78 years, editor and proprietor of the Somerset Democrat, of Somerville, and uncle of the Misses Alys, Mabel and Helen Trenbath, of this city; Rev. Robert Trenbath, of Trenton, and Edwin Trenbath, of State of Washington, died suddenly from apoplexy, while attending services in St. John's Episcopal church, Somerville, yesterday morning. Falling unconscious in his seat, he was carried to the vestibule, where he passed away within a few minutes. The funeral will be held at St. John's church, Wednesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock and the burial will be at Troy, N. Y., on Thursday.

Mr. Wight was born at Troy, N. Y., October 31, 1836, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wight, who ten years before had come from Coventry, Mass., to Troy. Mr. Wight was graduated from Williams College in 1857 and was a classmate of the late President James A. Garfield. He was graduated from the University of Albany in 1859 with the degree of LL. B., and immediately commenced the practice of law in New York city and had been in constant practice in that city until the time of his death. The father died in New York city of apoplexy October 19, 1864, and the widow and daughter, the late Mrs. Robert C. Trenbath, moved to Somerville, where Edwin M. Wight already had extensive business interests, and where the mother died November 10, 1892.

Mr. Wight married in Baltimore, February 9, 1869, Mrs. Mary Virginia Spencer, born Ball, and a descendant of Colonel William Ball who settled in Lancaster county, Virginia, in 1650 and died in 1669. He was the grandfather of Mary Ball, mother of George Washington. Mrs. Wight died in Somerville, November 2, 1890. Mr. Wight is survived by one daughter, Miss Mary Ball Wight, who lives in Somerville.

The first business interest of Edwin M. Wight in Somerville, was the hay business, into which he entered with a partner in the early sixties. They purchased hay throughout the State. After baling it, the product was sold on contract to the Federal army. He continued in this business until about 1868. He then interested himself in the Somerset Messenger, which was then located in a building on Division street, on the site of the present Lance building. In 1869 the Messenger office was removed to the Somerset Hall building. He continued his interest in it until about 1872. He interested himself in the Somerset Democrat in 1890, which had moved from the Brown building to the quarters vacated by the Messenger in the Somerset Hall building.

Mr. Wight was the oldest living member of the First Presbyterian church of New York city. Although not always maintaining a residence in Somerville, he has commuted to this place for over fifty years. He was one of a family of seven children. A brother, the Rev. Joseph Kingsbury Wight, is still living at New Hamburg, N. Y., at the age of 91 years. Mr. Wight was a descendant of Thomas Wight, who settled in New England in 1635.

HOSPITAL IS NOW THOROUGHLY EQUIPPED

Provided With Up-to-date Apparatus With Improved Facilities.

The newspapers published a short time ago, an account of an abdominal operation under which the patient died, and some fifteen minutes after life had passed out, the patient was brought back to life by the surgeon using the pressure of his fingers on the heart, which restored the functional activities of that organ.

This incident emphasizes the wonderful accomplishments of modern surgery and shows most remarkably how indispensable and necessary are the hospital and its corps of surgeons and physicians to the progress and well being of a community.

Muhlenberg Hospital is now most thoroughly equipped in all its departments with the most modern and up-to-date apparatus to continue to render, with its improved facilities, invaluable help to the sick of the community.

The Children's Ward is one of the new departments of the hospital and should interest the people of Plainfield to an additional degree in the activities of this great institution, and this ward will be opened to the informal inspection by the public on the afternoons of Saturday and Sunday, December 19 and 20, from 3 until 6 o'clock.

The public is invited to see for itself what Muhlenberg Hospital is able to do for the young and growing members of the community.

Open Evenings Commencing Wednesday, December 16th.

SUCCESSFUL BIDDER WILL BE ANNOUNCED

Special Meeting of the Borough Council Called for Tomorrow Night.

Mayor Clark, of North Plainfield, has called a special session of the Borough Council for tomorrow night, at which time the name of the successful bidder for the installation of a collecting sewerage system will be announced. The proposals were offered by the contractors at a meeting last week and the committee met to consider them Friday night.

While no official action was taken in accepting any one bid a survey of the figures showed that the Harrison-Burton Company, of New York, was the lowest bidder on Contract No. 1; and Frank Paglia, of Paterson, was the lowest bidder for Contract No. 2. The two contracts total about $143,000 nearly equally divided.

It was announced at Friday's meeting that the firm of A. D. Ambrosia, of Hartford, Conn., hade made a request that its bid be withdrawn.

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 34 degrees; 11 a. m., 39 degrees; 1 p. m., 38 degrees.

WILL WELCOME NEW MEMBERS AT SOCIAL TOMORROW NIGHT

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Grace M. E. church, will hold a social tomorrow night, in the church parlors to greet those who have recently joined the church. Seventy-five new members have been admitted to the church recently and all the members of the congregation are invited to attend this social.

The program committee, of which Mrs. J. S. Darby is chairman, has prepared an entertainment in the form of piano and cornet selections and readings. A large attendance is expected to be present.

THE GERMAN KAISER'S CHANGE OF FACE

Goes to Front With Little Pomp and Ceremony.

A decided change has come over the well known physiognomy of the kaiser, and this change has come from a seemingly slight cause—the clipping of the ends of his upturned mustaches. The two views of him reveal what a difference this has made. The kaiser is reported to be appearing at times at one German camp or another within ten miles or so from the enemy's lines, exhorting his troops.

A correspondent who saw him recently in France writes:

"I saw him come from a motor run late in the afternoon, four touring cars full of staff officers and personal entourage, and was struck by the complete absence of pomp and ceremony. In the second car sat the kaiser, wearing the dirty green gray uniform of his soldiers in the field. At a distance of fifteen feet he looked physically fit, but quite sober—an intense earnestness of expression that seemed to mirror the sternness of the times.

"His majesty is never so happy as when he is among his troops at the front," a transplanted Berlin detective told me. "If his majesty had his way he would be among them all the time, preferably sleeping under canvas and roughing it like the rest—eating the 'simple' food prepared by his private field kitchen. But his life is too valuable to be risked in that way, and his personal adjutant, Von Plessen, who watches over his majesty like a mother or a governess, won't let him go to the front often."

SHARPSHOOTERS IN ACTION.

They Play a Game of Hide and Seek Near Enemy's Lines.

Sharpshooting and sniping form frequent incidents of the present war. The illustration shows some French zouaves taking pot shots from the rear of a farmer's house. Sometimes the snipers succeed in getting quite near the enemy's lines and from a coign of vantage they shoot men passing to and fro. They often display much ingenuity in getting out of tight corners. German snipers in disguise have sometimes succeeded in penetrating the allies' lines and cutting telephone wires.

BATTLING UNSEEN FOES IN TRENCHES

Absence of Action and Noise First Impression.

AIR MEN'S DARING FEATURE.

Five Hundred Thousand Men In France Guard Approaches to Positions—Other Thousands, Hidden, Await Word to Charge—Surveillance More Strict Every Day.

Impressions of a visit to the allies' trenches in Flanders by a newspaper correspondent, under the auspices of the French general staff, are here given:

The first impression of an observer is one of surprise at the absence of movement and the lack of noise. Within one's range of vision, with a strong field glass, there are probably concealed no fewer than 100,000 men; yet, except for the few French soldiers, with rifles in their hands, peering over the flat land toward the positions known to be held by the Germans, no human presence was noticeable.

A staff officer said that behind a slight slope 300 yards away many German guns were hidden from sight, but only an occasional burst of flame and a sharp whirring sound coming from an indefinite point told of the presence of this artillery. A little forest to the left is believed to be bristling with machine guns backed by infantry in rifle pits and covered trenches.

Behind the advanced line of the allies are large bodies of fresh reserves. Troops of cavalrymen stand at the heads of their chargers in neighboring villages ready to jump into the saddle at a moment's call. Other cavalry regiments have been supplied with rifles and bayonets and are taking their turn in the trenches.

The artillerymen, who often have suffered severely from the destructive fire of shell and shrapnel, have now learned to seek proper cover and conceal their positions so that the hostile air men who constantly hover overhead can rarely discern them.

Daring of Aviators.

Aeronauts are compelled to keep to a considerable height in consequence of the accuracy of the fire from below. The military authorities have ordered them not to run any greater risks than are necessary, but these precautions do not prevent the aviators from undertaking many daring feats during which their lives are in constant danger. In this way they have obtained information which is invaluable.

One branch of the service which is often overlooked is the transport department. The men engaged in this work are daily on the most perilous parts of the field carrying ammunition and food to the men in the trenches.

Surveillance over the territory in which fighting is under way becomes more strict every week. No one, whether soldier or civilian, is permitted to pass the sentinels at the entrance to or exit from villages and towns without a permit stamped by the military authorities. At every grade crossing sentries are posted, with stringent orders to examine the papers of every person who attempts to pass. Any one who approaches rapidly is met with a leveled bayonet and a loaded rifle. There are no fewer than 500,000 men engaged in this duty throughout France. As they are all trained and disciplined soldiers, they would form the basis for another army.

Convoying Supplies.

As the actual fighting lines near the Belgian frontier are approached many of the roads are lined with gigantic convoys with supplies for the various brigades, divisions and army corps, which constantly are moving to fresh positions where the fighting is fiercest. At one village the traveler is stopped by a French sentry, at the next by a Belgian and perhaps a mile farther on by a British soldier.

Columns of British, French and Belgian troops are greeted with cheers by the people as they march from spells of duty in the trenches to the villages in the rear where they are billeted. These men are jaded and worn. They stay in the trenches for days at a time and are constantly under artillery fire as well as being subjected to infantry attacks. As one group goes back to rest another moves forward to take its place, and the men going into action cheer those who are retiring from the line of fire.

Along the country roads, in the fields and in the yards of farmhouses French soldiers could be seen making themselves as comfortable and as happy as possible in the cold and wet weather. Their campfires dotted the roadside, and over them were boiling great kettles of soup. Here the men sat in groups, under such shelter from the rain as they could improvise, and passed their hours in eating, sleeping, talking and playing.

Hung by Her Wedding Ring.

Mrs. Theese Budd, an elderly woman of Trenton, N. J., was standing on a chair fixing a curtain when she lost her balance. Throwing her hand out to stop the fall, her wedding ring caught over a gas jet. For some time she hung suspended by the ring, but by struggling managed to release herself. The flesh of the finger was torn completely away, and it was amputated at McKinley hospital.

"ON THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"

HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM LOSING SIGHT OF ONE EYE

Former Councilman William L. Smalley, of North Plainfield, was attacked by a rooster in his poultry yard on Greenbrook road, yesterday afternoon, the feathered fighter inflicting a painful wound in the victim's left eyelid. The rooster's spur caught the lower portion of the lid and tore a ragged gash.

The fact that permanent injury to the optic was averted is considered remarkable inasmuch as the well-developed spur of the ferocious cock dealt the delicate organ a stunning blow. Mr. Smalley was attended by Dr. J. H. Carman and the wound is not of a serious nature.

CALEB BROKAW DIES IN HIS 81ST YEAR

Caleb Brokaw, aged 81 years, of 254 Somerset street, died at his home this morning. He had been a resident of the borough for two years, having lived previous to that time in Raritan. Mr. Brokaw had been ailing for several years. Mr. Brokaw was well-known and respected. He was a member of the Third Reformed church, of Raritan.

Surviving him are his wife and four daughters, Mrs. Lester Dunham, of Chatham place; Mrs. Bertram Merrill, of Bound Brook, and the Misses Marielle and Elizabeth Brokaw, who live at home, and one son, Caleb, who also lives at home.

FRACTURES HIS LEG.

John MacInnes, aged 91 years, of Mariners place, fell at his home, Saturday afternoon, fracturing his leg. Owing to his advanced age, some doubt is expressed over his recovery.

Trade In Plainfield and Grow With Us

The growth of a city depends largely on the amount of money spent within its borders. Are YOU buying in Plainfield? Are YOU selecting our own men to do your work instead of outsiders? Are YOU helping Plainfield to grow? Ask yourself this question. Are you?

Plainfield is one of the prettiest cities in New Jersey. She can point with pride to her magnificent High School, excellent graded schools, elegant homes and beautiful streets. What have you done? If you take Plainfield money and spend it in other cities, are you helping Plainfield to grow? Spend your money home where you and your children are enjoying the splendor of our city. Do YOUR part for a better and bigger Plainfield.

Interesting to Men--But to Women

The question of cultivation of good taste in a home means the purchase of whatever improves the appearance, comfort and welfare of every one connected with it. The woman is the purchasing agent of the American home; keenly interested in high grade merchandise and table goodies; the kind presented by Plainfield merchants, backed by prompt courteous attention, a stock of large variety to select from, and prices that are no higher than the stores of other cities.

Trading in Plainfield is the easiest, safest, and most profitable, and when you purchase an article that is not entirely satisfactory you experience no difficulty in having it exchanged or your money refunded. On the other hand, can an article purchased in stores in these other cities afford you the same protection as our Plainfield merchants? Sometimes an article can be exchanged, but then it is necessary to have it travel 20 or 25 miles back to the store where you purchased it, and the second selection forwarded to you, and if you wern't fortunate enough to make a second selection on the day you did your shopping you are either obliged to make it from a catalog or take another trip yourself to straighten the matter out. Do your shopping in your home town and avoid any unnecessary risks or delays. Help your city to grow.

BY MORRIS MILLER.

Being "wished into" a championship ball club by a team which finishes with nothing more than blasted hopes is one of the lucky angles of baseball, and the Boston Braves furnish five bright examples of fortune smiling in this way on a player. Almost every championship club shows one or two athletes who were secured by trade or purchase after the season opened from a team down in the race, but the Braves have set up a new record in adding to the membership of the "Lucky Guy" club. The members whose names are added to the roster this season are Ted Cather, George Whitted, Herb Moran, Red Smith and Josh Devore. They are the lucky players of 1914. Connie Mack made no additions to the ranks this season. His only exchange was that of Pete Daly for Jimmie Walsh, but he owned both at the close of last season, and he was simply going through with an agreement entered into long ago. They are to divide up one share of the world's series money.

This year's Harvard team, or rather the Harvard team that will now disband, has done something which no preceding eleven accomplished—beat Yale three years running. Also the 36 to 0 defeat that the team handed Yale last Saturday is the worst ever given the blue by the crimson since they started playing football. And it is the largest score ever made in a Yale-Harvard game with the exception of the 1885 game, when Yale won 48 to 9.

Eddie Cicotte is one of the charter members of the order of the Ker-choo, past master of the Hay Fever. Far from permitting a little thing like that to trouble him, he makes use of it. He was pitching a game for the Chicago White Sox in Philadelphia, and he perpetrated a frightful balk. The umpire was just lifting his hand to call the balk when Eddie cut loose a ker-choo that started the flags flapping on the stands. "Balk nothing!" yelled Cicotte, as he recovered. "I was sneezing." A few moments later a runner reached first. Eddie commenced to make faces, distort his features, and, right in the midst of a terrific sneeze, he shot the ball to first and nipped the runner.

Following the example of George Stallings, Hugh Jennings, Jimmy Callahan, Hank O'Day, Miller Huggins and Branch Rickey have picked All-American teams. These managers have scattered their selections a bit more than Stallings, yet they all show not a little prejudice for home talent. Thus Jennings picks Sam Crawford as one of the outfielders, Hank O'Day puts Vic Saier on first base, Lavan is Rickey's choice for shortstop, Huggins would have us believe that Snyder is one of the country's best catchers and Callahan places Buck Weaver at shortstop. All five managers agree on two men. Speaker and Cobb figure in each team. Maranville is the pick of everyone but Callahan and Rickey for the post of shortstop. Jennings and Callahan pick McInnis for first base, while Rickey and Huggins favor Daubert. Hank is faithful to Saier. Jennings put Evers at second, but the other four like Collins.

Tad Jones, former Yale quarterback, is making a strong bid for honors as a prep school coach. Jones is in charge of football at Exeter. His 1914 team was considered one of the greatest prep school elevens ever turned out. Halfback Casey of Exeter is considered a second Mahan. He is slated to enter Harvard when he leaves Exeter. This year's Exeter-Andover game, the Yale-Harvard clash of eastern prep school football, resulted in an Exeter victory by a 78 to 7 score.

The Chinese have finally broken into professional baseball. Akana, who played in this country with the Chinese university team of Hawaii, has signed with the Portland club of the Northwestern league.

Connie Mack has issued forth with this:

"The report that I will buy the Yankees is false.

"The report that I will sell Eddie Collins is false.

"The report that I will succeed Ben Shibe as president of the Athletics is false."

Mack, however, refused to make any statement concerning the report that his team was beaten in four successive engagements with some Johnny Boston Beans about six weeks ago.

THERE HAVE BEEN MANY STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS SEEN IN NATIONAL PASTIME OF LATE; FANS WILL RAVE NEXT SUMMER

The several important trades, sales and deals that have been made in baseball latterly will have their effect on the pennant races next season. It is clear that the Athletics, with the loss of Collins and other big guns, will have a tougher time in the American league and many express pleasure at this.

Just at present baseball bugs are seizing the daily sport pages with something more than their wonted eagerness. Lately there have been developments in the baseball world that have elicited gasps and other expressions of astonishment. And we are entering, it would seem, a long and pleasant winter of stirring baseball discussion.

Walter Johnson's jump, the sale of Eddie Collins, Connie Mack's overhauling of his old machine—these are affairs that do not occur in every week's history of the grand old game. With a taste of it the fans are anxious for more and there will be much disappointment if the approach of spring has not seen other deals and sales as startling.

Connie Mack's behavior in shaking up his justly celebrated crew is to be applauded. The Athletics' matter-of-fact winning of game after game had become as disastrous in many ways as a losing streak of the same duration. It is safe to predict that the Athletics, though they finish in the second division next season, will draw better crowds. It will be a delightful thing to see them obliged to exert themselves to win.

There is detected in the disposition of baseball moguls just now a bit of frenzy. The war with the Feds and other distractions have so perplexed them that they are soberly considering further changes. The feeling is current that the game's interest would be enhanced if there were applied to baseball a little vigorous shaking about.

And fans will not protest. Come what may, they are prepared to flock to the parks next season and view with pleasure any innovation. Had it not been for the Boston Braves the season past would have been a rather dreary one. Next season there may be seen more heated encounters and more feverish fighting for the pennants.

OLD-TIMERS BEAT THE SCHOOL GIRLS

N. P. H. S. Team Forced to Take Another Beating on Saengerbund Court.

The North Plainfield High School girls' basketball team lost its second game of the season, Saturday night, in Saengerbund Hall, when it met defeat at the hands of the Y. W. C. A. quintet, the score being 21 to 13.

The game was a very exciting one, especially in the first half, when the score was tied three times and the schoolgirls put up a very good exhibition of basketball, but they were at a disadvantage in the second half which was played without lines and which is much against the previous playing of the "Canadians." The same number of baskets, however, were scored by both teams in each half and it was only the large number of fouls which were called on North Plainfield and which were usually made good by the Y. W. C. A. that won the game for the association girls.

The fine passing and guarding of the Y. W. C. A. team were also big factors that helped them win and if it had not been for the exceptionally good work of Miss Clara Smith at guard, whom the North Plainfield girls could not seem to keep the ball away from, there is no doubt that the borough girls would have made many more baskets and perhaps, have won the game.

Miss Burtis started the scoring by dropping a basket and a foul for N. P. H. S., but these were quickly followed by three fouls from Miss Helen Hummel, tieing the score. After a few minutes had elapsed durrng which neither side scored, Miss H. Hummel dropped another foul throw, but the score was again tied when Miss Spencer registered a four for North Plainfield. Each side then scored another basket, but from here on the boroughites could make no more points during the half, while their opponents scored two field goals and a foul, giving them a lead of five points. The half ended 12 to 7.

In the second half which started off in an exciting fashion the "White Sox" were the first to score, when Miss H. Hummel droped a foul, but this was soon followed by a neat basket from Miss Spencer. Miss Hummel then shot two baskets and two more fouls, making the score 19 to 9, and in the remaining minute of play the home team had only chances to make two field goals while the visitors added one more to their list.

Miss Spencer and Miss Douglas played the best game for the borough delegation and Miss Spencer showed up especially well in the last half, where no lines were used. For the victors, Miss Helen Hummel showed up especially well in the scoring department, making four baskets and nine fouls, while Miss Clara Smith proved herself very able in holding down her position at guard.

LOCAL GIRLS WON FROM ROSELLE FIVE

Brilliant Victory for P. H. S. Sextet on Rivals' Court.

The girls' basketball team of the Plainfield High School traveled to Roselle, Saturday afternoon, and defeated the girls' team of Roselle Hig School by the score of 18 to 15. In the first half of the game the Plainfield team had everything its own way, scoring eleven points and allowing its oponents but three.

Roselle came back strong in the second period and almost tied the score, but the whistle blew, ending the game, when they were but three points behind. Miss Apgar, substituting the second half was a tower of strength to the Roselle team and it was her three baskets that aided the home team in creeping up on the Queen Cityites. Both teams were fighting their hardest when the whistle blew at the close of the game, Roselle trying to tie the score and Plainfield fighting its hardest to keep them from doing so.

Miss Eaton played a fine game for Plainfield, allowing her forward but one field goal, and continually passing the ball from her end of the floor to the other.

SECOND STRING SQUAD FOR N. P. H. S. BASKETBALL

Claude Jeffrey, North Plainfield High School basketball coach, is rounding a second squad into form that is due to give the varsity five the necessary practice to keep them in shape for all of the big games that are on the schedule, particularly the interscholastic matches, the first of which is to be played next week. With eight or nine men on the first squad and with the same number of second string players, the teams are kept going during practice and the regulars have to be at their best when in scrimmages against the "cubs."

Mr. Jeffrey's plan is to have an organized second team to play a schedule, but whose important work will be to stack up against the representative team on occasions when a hard practice is needed before a game and to keep them in trim.

CHASE FOLLOWS HUNT BREAKFAST

Many Streams Crossed in the Weekly Run of Watchung Hounds.

After enjoying a hunt breakfast as guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. French, of Westfield, the riding members of the Watchung Hunt Club met the hounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at Fair Acres, Westfield, and the latter were thrown in nearby. Crossing the track, the first check was made at Kenilworth.

Cast in again nearby, on the second line the riders had to ford several streams, their horses swimming in some cases. The line led toward Roselle, where the second check was made. The chase then continued on to Bloodgood's Mills, near Cranford, and was concluded at Goodman's Crossing. Those who were able to follow throughout were the following: Rufus C. Finch, M. F. H.; J. J. O'Donoque, H. A. Bourne, Mrs. A. C. Mattlach, H. L. Finch, Miss Mary F. Baker, R. H. Towner, A. C. Fox, Mayor H. W. Evans, S. D. French and Huntsman Harrison.

CHAPEL FIVE TOOK ONE FROM MICHELINS

Milltown Aggregation Always in the Rear in Fast Game on Local Court.

The Hope chapel basketball team chalked up another victory Saturday night, when it took the measure of the strong Michelin five, of Milltown, on the Hope court by the score of 3- to 20. The local team was always the leader, and the visitors were allowed only ten points in each half. The game was fast throughout and there were times when the scoring was close, but the home shooters managed to keep their team in the lead by scoring timely baskets. Captain Heron did not take any chances of losing the game and used his five regular men throughout, every player helping to increase the score. The count at the end of the first half was 17 to 10.

The score of the initial period was repeated in the last half, which gave the Fourth street team a lead of fourteen points in all. Tommy Heron again stared from the fifteen foot mark, making good on six free throws and dropping in four field goals in addition. Walls counted for five of the two-point variety, while Clark scored three and Schott and Grisley each one. For the visitors, Bissett, Crabiel and Hermann were the main point getters.

SEVEN HOME GAMES FOR LOCAL PLAYERS

P. H. S. Girls the Only City or Borough Team to Visit Opponent's Court.

Local and borough basketball enthusiasts have plenty to keep them busy in the way of amusement during the coming week, an appetizing menu having been arranged by the game bookers. North Plainfield and Plainfield High Schools, both girls' and boys' teams; Leal's School; the Y. M. C. A. and Hope Chapel quintets are included in the attractions and one notable feature comes in the fact that a large majority of the contests will be staged on home courts. N. P. H. S. male athletes have two home contests and the Plainfield boys have one here. Leal's entertains Westfield here, the Y. M. C. A. the Elizabeth Y. M. C. "ART" M'GOVERN PLAYED TWO GOOD GAMES LAST SATURDAY

After playing a game against the Perth Amboy High School basketball team in the afternoon, Art McGovern played with the Knights of St. Peter's against the local Y. M. C. A., Saturday night. McGovern is a member of the Rutgers Prep. basketball five and was captain last year. In the game with the Amboy team, which the New Brunswick aggregation won, McGovern made seven field goals and his guarding was a big feature of the game.

In the battle Saturday night he led the visitors in the scoring department and was the star of the St. Peter's team.

P. H. S. SECONDS NO MATCH FOR DICKINSON

Skeetertown Aggregaion Completely Swamped Locals.

The boys' second team of the Plainfield High School journeyed to Jersey City, Saturday night, with the first team and lined-up against the Dickinson High School second team. They were no match for their larger opponents and went down to defeat by the score of 38 to 13. The second team of Dickinson High School would make a first team that any school would be proud of. Their passing and shooting was of the finest kind. Muery and Capvona made some shots from long distances that seemed impossible.

Only two field goals were made by Plainfield in the whole game and these were made in the last part of the second half when Canter got loose and caged the ball twice.

RALPH SMALLEY MAY NOT PLAY BASEBALL

Boro High School Captain's Health May Not Permit Him to Lead Team.

North Plainfield High School athletic interests seem to be "jinxed" this season, and after having plenty of trouble along basketball lines another discouragement has befallen the boroughites. The latest news from the "Canadian" front is that Captain Ralph Smalley, of the baseball team, may not be able to lead the team next spring. After captaining the nine through a championship series, such as was played last summer, Smalley was re-elected to that position again for next year and all the prospects for another record nine were bright.

Soon after the baseball season closed last June, Smalley underwent an operation and was laid up for some time. After this operation it was thought that he would come around all right, but later developments have made it necessary for him to undergo two more, the latest one being performed Saturday.

His position on the team would be a very hard one to fill, as there have been no second string catchers on the team for several years. Smalley has played on the nine for two years, one in the outfield and one behind the bat.

EVERS PASSES CRISIS.

According to Dr. J. E. Herrity, physician in attendance on Johnny Evers, the star ballplayer, passed the crisis in his attack of pneumonia, Saturday night, and should start on the mend today.

HIGH SCORES SET ON NEW CIRCUIT

Junior Elks' League Race Statistics Issued by Secretary V. W. Nash, Jr.

PLAINFIELD IS THIRD

Locals Traveling at Speedy Clip In the Infant Organization—Hudson Leads Individual Race—Capt. Weber, of Newark, Disqualified.

Initial official averages in the Elks Junior League issued today by Secretary V. W. Nash, Jr., present some unusually high scores set up by the clubs during the first few weeks of the infant circuit. Plainfield pinners are holding down third place with three wins and the same number of reverses and have a team average of 853.1. Elizabeth, with eight victories and one defeat, tops the team standing with a percentage of .888. The Silk City wood spinners to date have engaged in but one series and are holding down the rung between the Betsytown and Queen City quintets.

Hudson, of the Skeertown Elks, is leading the individual average race with a mark of 192.2 for a half dozen engagements. VanBergen, of Elizabeth, the fifth man in the individual ratings, is the individual high score bearer with a 239, while Hudson, of Jersey City, and Jackson, of Newark, are runners-up with 224 tallies.

Charlie Woolston is the first Plainfield man in the individual list and he is holding down twelfth position with an average of 175.4. Laing, of Plainfield, is fourteenth, and Waldorf, another localite, is settled in nineteenth position.

Captain Weber, of the Newark juniors, holds down fourth place in the individual statistics, but has now been declared ineligible and his name will be dropped from the list. He was called upon to replace Alexander Hinton during the opening game of the Paterson-Newark senior series Friday night, and while he made a splendid showing, his rolling in the senior engagement bars him from the junior circuit for the remainder of the season. He had already rolled one series with the senior aggregation at Elizabeth, and rolling in more than three games in the Senior League disqualifies a bowler from competition in the new organization.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR LOCAL Y. M. C. A. FIVE

St. Peter's, of New Brunswick, Downed on Plainfield Court Saturday Night.

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team avenged a lost game on the local court, Saturday night, when it defeated the St. Peter's five, of New Brunswick, by the score of 44 to 34. The victory offsets the defeat handed the locals on the New Brunswick court last month. The game was fast throughout, the local team never having a comfortable lead until the last few minutes of play, when Joe Gavett dropped in two field goals and Brynarski made three fouls. The home five, knowing their opponents' playing ability from previous experience, started off with a rush and through good teamwork and the fine shooting of Ricketts, took the lead which was never overcome during the game. Jack made several shots at the beginning of the first half that opened the visitors' eyes and brought applause from the gallery.

Both teams fouled many times and both missed many chances to increase the score by failing to make good on the free shots. McGovern led the attack of the New Brunswick aggregation and made two pretty field goals before his opponents started to help him out in this line. Only five fouls were shot in the first half and there were at least twenty called. Gavett and Ricketts each made four in this half and Moulton was credited with three. The score at the end of the first period was 26 to 17.

In the second period the locals made only one more point than their opponents, the association players scoring six field goals and six fouls, while the visitors registered seven field goals and three fouls. At the end of the game forty-six fouls were counted that were called during the forty minutes of play. Only fourteen of these were made good. Next Saturday night the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. five will be the attraction.

PASTIME A. C. WON BUT DISQUALIFIED

Jack Fritts and Teammates Ran Good Race Only to Be Put Out at Finish.

Jack Fritts' team was disqualified in the one and seven-eighth's mile medley relay race for the Bronx county chaimpionship at the Twenty-second Armory, Saturday night, after defeating the Bronx Church House team and landing first place. The Pastime A. C. team, of which the local runner is a member, claimed the title in this event as did several other clubs. Fritts did the mile stretch for his team, but after winning the race the team was disqualified. The time of the run was 7:53 3-5.

Ralph Runyon also took part in a meet in New York and came home with a solid gold ring, which was third prize for the running high jump. Runyon had a six-inch handicap and did 5 feet 6inches, copping third place. A diamond chip was set in the ring.

Dooin and the Federals.

Because Doolan, Knabe, Brennan and Walsh "jumped" Philadelphia to go to the Federals last spring it has been said that the Federal league ruined Charley Dooin's managerial career. Now, however, the Federals are doing Dooin a good turn. He wants his unconditional release from the Phillies, and, with the Federals in the field, he will no doubt get what he wants. Then he can sell himself for $15,000. Dooin might have failed as a manager had there not been any Federal league. In fact, he failed for four seasons prior to the advent of the Gilmoreans.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE WINTER LEAGUE.

Lee Magee of the Cardinals was the leading sacrifice hitter in the National league with a total of 35. Jake Daubert made 33 and Johnny Evers 31.

George Wiltse figured in twenty-one games last season, and he is listed officially for three times at bat. This would indicate that Hooks is no whale as a batsman.

Vic Saier of the Cubs did not finish high as a batsman, but he certainly made his hits count. His mark was only .240, but he got 24 doubles, 8 triples and 18 home runs.

As an evidence of the horrors of baseball war the poor baseball farmer may have to call in the reserve bank's aid to help move his crop of recruits. They come high now. Added horrors from the players' standpoint are noted in the fact that only seven men on each team—this is an average—in both big leagues now have automobiles.

Hans Wagner will be retained by Pittsburgh in spite of the fact that he hit only .254 the past season. This is the first time since he broke into the big league, in 1897 that the Flying Dutchman failed to hit .300 or better. With the exception of 1913 it was always better. On eight different occasions Wagner was batting champion of the National league. His best record, .385, was in 1899. Wagner will be forty-one years of age Feb. 24 next.

Cincinnati's board of directors has decided to abolish the scout nuisance. Henceforth the Reds will depend upon minor league managers for recruit material. This radical step doubtless will be deplored by John McGraw and six other National league managers, who have depended upon the Cincinnati scouts to find good material for the Red managers to turn over when properly developed.

Eddie Plank always was a hard luck pitcher in world's series games. He lost two 1-0 contests and two 3-0 games to Mathewson when he should have won. One of these went ten innings. He lost a fifth game by one run. Of seven games pitched Plank won but two, each by one run. His club never gave him very many runs in the world's series games he pitched.

CORBETT SAW FIREWORKS.

Beautiful Sight When He Got a Punch From Hanlon.

Young Corbett sat at a ringside in New York the other night. Somebody got floored and was making an effort to get up before the fatal ten.

"That reminds me of the time Eddie Hanlon floored me in San Francisco," said Corbett. "I was right at the top of my form then, but there I was flat on my back. As I got my shoulders up a little from the floor I saw a great big red moon coming up over the edge of the ring. I looked and looked at the thing. It seemed to hypnotize me. 'Gee, ain't that pretty?' I remembered mumbling to myself. Then it began to fade away as suddenly as it had appeared.

"I heard Referee Graney counting 'six—seven—eight,' and then I got up. I still insist that I never saw a prettier sight than that great red moon looming above the edge of the ring."

KAHANAMOKU IN THE PACIFIC.

Champion Swimmer Came Near Being Left Far From Land.

Duke Kahanamoku, the world's champion swimmer, on his way home to Honolulu after a series of exhibitions on the Pacific coast, came near being left alone in the middle of the Pacific in unwitting punishment for a daring bit of foolery. Passengers on the steamer Wilhelmina, which recently arrived at San Francisco from Honolulu, brought the story.

as the Wilhelmina. Four days out from San Francisco the two ships passed each other and stopped to transfer a stowaway caught aboard the outbound Matsonia. While they lay to Kahanamoku leaped overboard and began showing off his prowess as a swimmer to the other passengers. Before the officers knew he was overboard the two vessels began to get under way again in opposite directions, and it was necessary to lower a lifeboat to bring him back.

Money Saved on Umpires.

The Pacific Coast league will reduce expenses in 1915 by going back to the single umpire system, a saving of $10,000 on the season.

HELD SCORELESS FOR QUARTER OF CONTEST

P. H. S. Shattered by Dickinson High School Quintet.

Another defeat was chalked up against the Plainfield High School boys' basketball team, Saturday night, when their colors were lowered by the fast quintet of Dickinson High School, of Jersey City. The final score was 59 to 23. Plainfield never had a chance from the time the whistle blew for the start of the game. Every man on the Dickinson team was close to six feet tall, with the exception of Walsh at guard, and he was the fastest man on the floor. The floor was much larger and wider than the local court, which was also a disadvantage.

Dickinson started off with a rush and caged the ball three times in the first couple of minutes of play. This seemed to take the local five off of its feet, but they came back strong and made their opponents fight for each point scored.

Toward the middle of the first half McNamee caged the first goal for Plainfield and Rosenson immediately followed it with two more points from the field. The Plainfield team was far below what it should be in shooting and many chances to score were thrown away.

The second half was a repetition of the first, with the Dickinson players all over the floor at once and shooting from every angle. The two forwards, Captain Horn and Dickson, were splendid shots. Their shooting and the passing of the other members of their team made a combination which Plainfield could not hold down.

The score:

BOWLING WILL BE BRISK THIS WEEK

Plenty of Alley Matches Arranged for the Local Quintets.

Many bowling matches in the four leagues in which local teams are represented are scheduled for this week as the Plainfield Senior and Junior Elks, Eagles and Masons all have matches to play. There will also be local matches on the borough alleys and the weekly competition at the Park Club.

SENIOR ELKS' LEAGUE.

Five matches are scheduled for this week and after Friday the schedule will be suspended until after the holidays and the first matches of the new year will take place on January 5. The Plainfield "Bills" are not booked to roll until Thursday night, when they will go to Jersey City. Other matches for the week are Paterson at New Brunswick tonight, Rahway at Elizabeth and New York at Rutherford tomorrow night, and Newark at Hoboken, Thursday night.

JUNIOR ELKS' LEAGUE.

Captain Stout and his team will entertain New Brunswick for a match tomorrow night and there will be two other series this week. They are Jersey City at Newark, Wednesday night, and Paterson at Elizabeth, Thursday night.

EAGLES' LEAGUE.

After almost two weeks of idleness, the local birds are booked to play Rahway on the latter's alleys Wednesday night, and the following night Somerville will go to Newark for three games.

MASONIC LEAGUE.

The Anchor pinners, of this city, will play the Azure pinners, of Cranford, tonight on the Second street alleys. The visitors are at present helping to hold down the last place and the Anchor pinners hope to increase their average with three straight victories. Washington will play Tyrian at Elizabeth tonight, Herrmann will meet Lafayette, Wednesday, and Orient is scheduled at Essex in Newark for Thursday.

PARK CLUB.

The weekly competition in the handicap five back tournament will be held Thursday night, and the handicap ten-pin tourney will be rolled Friday.

GATES' ALLEYS.

A match between the single and married men of the borough will be rolled tonight, and the regular matches in the borough two-man tournament will be held this week.

The matches that local teams will engage in are listed below:

Senior League—Thursday, Plainfield at Jersey City.

Junior League—Tuesday, New Brunswick at Plainfield.

Eagles' League—Wednesday, Plainfield at Rahway.

Masonic League—Tonight, Azure at Anchor.

CAPTAIN BRYNAIRSKI AND MOULTON QUIT

New Leader Will Be Appointed for Y. M. C. A. Team Prior to Saturday.

Captain Albert Brynairski, of the Y. M. C. A. basketball team, announced this morning that he had played his last game of the court pastime and would turn over the captaincy to another member of the aggregation sometime prior to Saturday's contest with the Elizabeth association quintet. He has been troubled considerably with an injury sustained to his knee and this, together with business, has caused him to take this action.

Brynairski's retirement, coupled with the announcement from Harry Moulton to the effect that he will play no more owing to the fact that he has obtained a position that will make it impossible for him to indulge in Saturday night exhibitions, comes as a sad blow to the local five and the two vacancies are of a nature that will be hard to fill. Both have done good work at their respective positions and the team will feel their absence in both the shooting and guarding departments.

MAGEE JUMPS TO FEDERALS.

But His Real Status With New Employers Is Uncertain.

Lee Magee, first baseman for the St Louis Cardinals, has jumped to the Federal league, but he may jump back again. It was stated at one time that he was to become the manager of the Brooklyn team in place of Bill Bradley, but this was later denied. Magee was reported as saying that unless he got a managerial berth he would not stick with his new employers.

Magee is a young man—only twenty-six—to become a manager, but he is ambitious and is willing to try anything once. His salary as a member of the Cardinals last season was $6,000, and he got a bonus of $1,200 because the team finished third. He had signed a contract for two years longer, but it contained the ten days' clause, and Magee notified the owner of the Cardinals ten days before he jumped that he would not be with the team next year.

St. Louis fans are not inclined to look with favor on Magee's course. They feel that he was treated well by Schuyler Britton and Miller Huggins and that he should have observed the contract he signed last spring and which was at a higher figure than it would have been if the Federal league had not been bidding for him. Magee's friends, however, say that he has nothing to sell but his services and that he has a right to take them to the highest market.

COLUMBUS CLUB BOWLING.

The Sparrows and Hawks will meet in a series in the five-man bowling tournament at the Columbus Club tonight.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — The Pot of Gold at the Rainbow's End.

He Took a Path Through Dense Forests.

"I'LL tell you tonight, kiddies, about the little boy Billy who started out to find the pot of gold that he had heard was planted at the end of the rainbow.

"There had been a very bad storm this day, and Billy had been obliged to remain in the house. Jimmy Gray had been invited over to play with him, but Billy was cross because he couldn't go out of doors, so nothing that his mother did for him, even the treat of cakes and cocoa, seemed to make him happy. He didn't want to play with Jimmy Gray. He didn't like his home. He didn't care very much this particular day about his mamma.

"So Billy left Jimmy Gray to eat the cakes and drink the cocoa and wandered over to the window. He looked up in the sky, and there arched above he saw the rainbow.

"There popped into his head the story of the pot of gold, and Billy determined to slip away and go and find it.

"Now, Billy was a very little boy, and so he didn't know very much about direction, but he started to the point where he thought he would find the end of the rainbow, and when he got there, what do you think? Why, Jimmy Gray, his little friend, was sitting there as peacefully as possible eating away at his cakes and cocoa.

"This bewildered Billy somewhat, but he started again bravely enough. He wandered and wandered a long time through bogs and forests, and then all at once he discovered that he was right back in his own dooryard, with the lights from the windows blinking very friendly at him.

"Billy was very wet and uncomfortable by this time, but he started out again very bravely, you see, for he did want that pot of elusive gold and was willing to search for it.

"This time he took a path through a dense forest. For a time the path was quite free from obstructions, but after awhile the undergrowth began to grow thicker, vines draped across the path, and then from every side came wild beasts with big shining eyes which glared fiercely at him. But just when they were about to spring, why, his mother rushed toward him from out the shadows and caught him up in her arms."

"That must have been Billy's dream, daddy?"

"Yes," said daddy. "At the end of the rainbow Billy found a friend, a home and his dear mamma."

"I think that was a fine pot of gold!" cried Evelyn.

"Yes," said daddy; "I think so too. Now go to bed, kiddies. Good night."

"Good night, daddy."

Household Hints

TO MAKE SATIN QUILLS

Take heavy dress satin or ribbon 2½ inches wide, in any length or color you desire for the quills. Sew a satin-covered wire through the center of the ribbon or satin to make it firm; if neatly arranged this has the appearance of the natural stem of a quill. Then place between the under sides of the quills a strip of rubber tissue; put on an ironing board with a paper or muslin cloth over quills and press with warm iron. The heat of the iron will dissolve the rubber tissue and hold the two sides of the quill firmly together. If there are any rough edges trim them off. Makes a very neat appearing hat trimming for one who will take pride in making it.

HOMEMADE CEMENTS

For Wood, Stone, Ivory or Porcelain—Two parts by weight of common pitch, one part of gutta percha; melt together in iron vessel. This will mend a fish globe and it will stay.

For Rubber or Leather—Clean the parts to be mended, cover with a solution made by dissolving one ounce of gutta percha in one-half pound of chloroform. Let dry 20 to 30 minutes; warm each part in the flame of a candle and press together tightly until dry.

Cement Proof Against Hot Water—Five parts gelatin, soluble acid chromate of lime, one part. Cover broken edges and press tightly, then expose to sunlight for a few hours. Will not come apart if directions are followed.

THE TABLE

Eggless Pumpkin Pie—Wash the pumpkin, cut into inch cubes without paring, cook till soft, then dry till brown all through. Run this through a colander. To one cupful pumpkin add 1½ cups milk, one-half cup sugar, one-half teaspon ginger, one-half teaspon cinnamon, one-half teaspon grated nutmeg, pinch of cloves, dash of salt. Bake slowly till top puffs up. The secret of success lies in working the pumpkin dry and brown—a little scorching not hurting it any. For something extra nice, spread a little sweetened whipped cream over the pie just before serving.

Pork Chop Dish—Take one to two pounds of lean pork chops; fry good and brown. Then take four to six apples, cut in slices one-fourth inch thick, fry in drippings of pork chops and serve with the chops.

Fruit Cake—One and one-half cups granulated sugar, two egg yolks, about three-fourths cup shortening (half lard and half butter), one teaspoon salt, one teaspoon soda, one cup sour milk, one-half pound chopped nuts, one-fourth pound citron, one-half cup dark molasses, three tablespoons ground cinnamon, one-half package mincemeat, and flour to make stiff batter. Bake one-half hour in moderate oven. About mixing cake: Cream the sugar and beaten yolks, then add shortening, cream with the sugar and eggs, add sour milk with soda dissolved, then the flour, a little at a time, and dredge in the mincemeat, nuts and citron; season. Molasses may be added with the sour milk. The children may have their share without fear of its being too rich to digest. Cover with white icing made as follows: Two cups granulated sugar, hot water to dissolve; then add one-half cup sweet milk. When done beat into the whites of the eggs used for the cake. Beat all together until thick and creamy, flavor with vanilla or lemon and spread all over cake. This cake can be made two or three days before using, which makes it all the better.

MOTION PICTURES AND RED CROSS SEALS

Five different motion pictures, dealing with Red Cross Seals and the anti-tuberculosis campaign, have been prepared by Thomas A. Edison in co-operation with The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, and are being used all over the country during the holiday season. The first one, "The Red Cross Seal," prepared in 1910, deals with the struggle and self-sacrifice of a young girl artist, who won a coveted Red Cross Seal design prize, and then gave it all away to send a consumptive son of a neighbor to a sanatorium. "The Awakening of John Bond" deals with the reformation of a young politician, whose wife was stricken with tuberculosis through contact with a consumptive sailor, who lived in one of her husband's tumbledown tenements. "Hope," a Red Cross Seal story, shows that tuberculosis is a problem of the small towns as well as the city, and tells the story of a young girl who was cured by her determination to get well, being cheered on in her fight by the double red cross, the emblem of hope. The 1913 picture was entitled "The Price of Human Lives," and showed the evils resulting from the use of fraudulent consumption cures. This year's picture, "The Temple of Moloch," deals with the problem of tuberculosis in children, and shows in a dramatic story how this disease is spread by bad working and living conditions.

ZUDORA

Second Episode Shown December 16.
"The Mystery of the Sleeping House."

"The Mystery of the Sleeping House" is the title of the second episode of Zudora, the mysterious serial photo-play which is being shown each Wednesday at Proctor's Front street theatre. The instant popularity of the first installment, which was shown last Wednesday night, following the publication of a synopsis of it in last Monday night's Daily Press, has satisfied Manager Sanderson that no mistake has been made in deciding to run this feature.

In the episode to be run on Wednesday of this week is told a story teeming with love and fiery romantic impulsiveness of the East. Reel Life, a moving picture magazine, says that while enjoyment of this second episode is complete, even if one has not seen the first, it might be well to remind readers that Hassam Ali, a mystic detective, is scheming to deprive his niece and ward, Zudora, of the $20,000,000 mine which she is to inherit on her eighteenth birthday. He plans to get her and her lover, John Storm, out of the way, and in accordance with this idea, he tells Zudora that if she succeeds in solving the next twenty cases brought to him, she and Storm can have his permission to marry. How the first of these mysteries, that of "The Mystic Message of the Spotted Collar," was solved, was explained in the Press last Monday night, and shown on the screen at Proctor's on Wednesday night.

In describing this week's episode, Reel Life says that the small American town near New York where the mystic and his ward live, strangely enough, has become the scene of an Indian tribal feud. Worshippers of the elephant-headed god, Ganesha, have seized in a battle, shown interestingly and with realistic fidelity on the screen, the princess of the tribe that worships the brass ape, Hanuman, because their leader wishes her in marriage, and because the lady and her cohorts dislike him this seems the easiest way to gratify his desires. Taking their elephant-headed idol with them they journey to America and establish themselves in a large house.

Once there they find that their rites, ceremonies, and practices are being interfered with by a tendency to collapse into a state of temporary coma, to fall into involuntary sleep. The marriage ceremony is no more begun than all concerned, including the unwilling bride, fall to the floor with heavy-lidded eyes. Perplexed and frightened, with their leader as spokesman, a delegation from the tribe wrapped in black and white striped blankets call on Hassam Ali, the mystic detective, to seek his advice.

From an upstairs window Zudora sees them come and she rushes down and joins in the discussion. She claims the right to solve the case and her demand is finally granted by her uncle, so the tribesmen blindfold Hassam Ali and Zudora and take them to the mysterious sleeping house. Once in the house they witness a wonderful ceremonial procession, the beginning of another attempt to consummate the marriage service. Just as the reluctant princess and the villainous chieftain who holds her prisoner, come to a halt before the priest, the whole company is seen to be struggling to keep their eyes open. All soon fall asleep, Hassam Ali alone struggling to a window and breathing in enough fresh air to keep awake.

Meanwhile John Storm, Zudora's sweetheart, has sent a message to the ward of Hassam Ali by a carrier pigeon. He and Zudora have become accustomed to exchanging messages this way daily and when he gets no answer he becomes alarmed. Rushing to her house, he inquires for her of Hassam Ali's Hindu servant. Well knowing where she is, the Oriental takes John Storm to the house of the tribesmen. His entrance arouses them from their stupor, and they seize him and fling him into a cell. The next day he is tried, and found guilty of working the spell that causes them all to fall asleep. He is condemned to die in a cell which steadily grows smaller until its occupant is crushed. The screen shows a man outside relentlessly turning the crank. Inside, Storm is seen watching, at first with surprise, then with alarm, the wall as it creeps gradually towards him. He knows that very soon it will crush his life out. At three minute intervals this is repictured on the screen. Soon Storm tries to force the wall back, fails, prays for help, and despairs. Slowly the wall closes in on him.

Missing him, John Storm's old housekeeper goes to Hassam's house to inquire for him. "He was last seen on his way here," she says. From the Hindu servant Zudora learns where he has gone. Rushing back to the secret house, she manages to discover in the subterranean passages beneath the mysterious house, a den of the tribesmen, who worship the brass ape, among them the lover of the captured princess. At first when she intrudes on their sanctum they are determined to kill her, but she makes them understand that she wants to help them. She leads them upstairs, where they are set upon by their reawakened enemies, and once more she rushes below. There the one tribesman left on guard she persuades to distill a potion of the famous lotus leaf brew which has caused the strange, mysterious sleep. Like steam it pours into the great halls above, and all fall asleep.

Rushing upstairs, Zudora awakes the brass ape tribesmen only and leads them to where the slave is turning the wheel that is contracting the wall on John Storm, and just in time she flings the door open and her exhausted lover falls into her arms.

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

"Falling leaf and fading tree,
Lines of white on a sullen sea,
Shadows rising on you and me,
Shadows rising, on you and me.
The swallows are making them ready to fly,
Wheeling out on a windy sky.
Goodby, Summer, goodby, goodby."

The song floated out through the open door into the still autumn air. It reached a man oiling harness in the barn.

"Polly doesn't sing much any more," he said aloud. "I wonder why."

The wonder started a chain of memories. Memories of a slender girl with a rich voice who had come to the unattractive little farm house as a bride. He remembered telling her it would not be long before he could build her a new house, and he unconsciously shifted so that he could not see the dingy little place that had sheltered her for fifteen years.

"Goodby to Hope; goodby, goodby," sang the voice with a tragic quality in it. He rubbed the back of his hand over his eyes and rose and hung up the harness. Wiping the oil off his hands, he drew a bank book from his pocket and took it to the western window of the barn. The glow of sunset had begun to spread over the sky and the warm light streamed across the cement floor of the new barn he had built two summers before. Finally he thrust the book in his pocket and started for the house. The haunting beauty of the song followed him. He looked searchingly at his wife as he passed through the kitchen, but the face with its settled melancholy gave no answering sign.

While they sat at the supper table he said, "Polly, I believe we have money enough in the bank to make a good start on a new house, and I am not afraid to borrow the rest and give you a home such as you deserve."

Mrs. Watters fairly turned pale with surprise. Then she said with a voice trembling with eagerness, "That would be lovely, Frank, but I can't bear to have you borrow to build; I hate debt."

"So you said when I borrowed to build the barn," laughed her husband, "and I only wish I had made the cows wait for new quarters instead of you. Now when you get the dishes done come in here and we will go over the plans together."

"It's years since I drew any plans for a house," she answered as she hurried away with the tray.

"Frank, I have a bright idea," she said half an hour later, as she hung up her kitchen apron. "Why can't we have your mother's old loom set up in the shop? I have blue rags enough all sewed to make rugs for our bedrooms and bathroom. We can have a bathroom, can't we?" she added wistfully.

"Sure, we can have a bathroom," responded her husband, with a fine enthusiasm.

"I know I can get rugs to weave this winter. Since old Mrs. Jones died there is no one to do it. The boys can help and we can earn enough to pay for all the furnishings we will need. We can set up the old stove out there so we will be comfortable," and she came and stood by her husband's chair.

"That's a fine plan, Polly; you certainly are the cleverest woman to plan," he said, smiling up into her happy face. "And when the house is paid for you must have a piano. I want to hear you sing more. Your voice is just as sweet as it was fifteen years ago."

"Oh, your bird will sing when it gets its lovely new cage," she laughed.

THE BEST CHRISTMAS TREE.

The balsam fir makes the best Christmas tree because of its regular form and beautiful dark green foliage. Spruce is used also, but is not as attractive in form and color as balsam. Hemlock, pine and cedars are used occasionally, but are not considered equal to either the fir or the spruce. Every one interested should try to prevent clear cutting, but should favor thinning of the young forest, leaving the best formed, most rapid growing trees on the ground to form the future forest. The thinnings should be made in the densest young stands only, and no large, open spaces should be left. The state will suffer a great loss if the young spruce and fir forests are clear cut for Christmas trees.

Where the forest is under rational methods of management the Christmas tree is a legitimate byproduct in the development of the forest. Whether the forest is planted or starts naturally from seed there will usually be many more trees on the ground than soil and moisture conditions and the proper development of the trees justify. If the small trees which are crowding others of greater value are not removed nature will do it and that in a less effective way than if the small trees are removed as a thinning from the developing forest. Trees six feet high and two inches in diameter at the butt are most in demand, although larger sizes are frequently sold at good prices. The Christmas tree, provided it is properly cut, is a preliminary crop from the forest which should be taken out on the same principle as vegetable crops are thinned.

The Accusing Coin

A Christmas Parable

By EDWIN MARKHAM

It was when Ferdinand was king
In Naples, back in a little ring
Of noisy years forgot and gone,
A whirl of mist across the dawn.
A little legend of those years
Stays to proclaim their toils and tears,
One little legend that, I wit,
Is in the Book of Judgment writ.
And now the accusement of this rime
Will cry it into the ear of Time.

The king to bind with crafty hold
St. Francis of Castellammare,
Flung to the friar a purse of gold—
You should have seen the courtiers stare—
A thousand ducats as an alms
To lay within God's reaching palms!

But Francis, friend of God, stooped down
And, lifting up one coin aglow
New stamped with Ferdinand's head and crown,
He bent it till it broke, when, lo,
Blood gushed from it in scarlet flow!

"Take back your gold," the friar cried;
"The traitor gold that props your pride!
Behold, the people's blood you draw
Through stealthy treasons of the law!
This blood cries out the griefs and wrongs
Of them to whom the gold belongs.
Give all to them if you would give
The gold into God's hand and live!"

Beware! All deeds, even deeds of kings,
May cry from out these mortal things.
—New York Sun.

HOMEMADE TRIMMINGS ADD TO TREE'S BEAUTY

The beauty of a Christmas tree does not depend upon the amount of money which has been expended upon it. Capable fingers and judicious thought may weave the magic spell of romance about it. Indeed, the flutter of preparation and the merriment of creating your own decorations have far more the real spirit of Christmas than a hurried visit to a store where these things can be purchased at short notice.

Indeed, nothing quite takes the place of the old time tree, with its boughs laden with simple gifts and homemade ornaments. Each trifle has some significance—has a meaning of its own, or a funny incident connected with it. If you live away from the city there are many things right at hand which you can turn to good account for the purpose.

Nuts may be gilded or silvered or covered with gold or silver paper. Popcorn may be strung, and if you wish for a bit of gay color it may be dipped into a dye of the color you want. Individual cranberries, or strings of them, make effective trimmings. Crabapples, in all the radiance of their fresh color, or oranges make a bright spot on the somber green. Gingerbread animals, birds and dolls are a delight, and flowers of tissue paper, cornucopias and many geometrical figures may be made with a little ingenuity. Paper dolls, cut from magazines and colored, if they are not already so, mounted on cardboard look quite imposing, and chains of colored or gold paper may be made by folding the paper innumerable times and cutting it in the shape required. When you unfold it one link is fastened within the other, and a large chain may be draped from branch to branch. Circles made by folding a paper in quarters and stringing a number of these together at the folded point make lovely balls. Dolls can be fashioned from many objects. A corncob holds many possibilities, legs and arms and a cotton padded head being joined to this body. And did you ever see a doll shaped from a clothespin?

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE QUARANTINE

On account of the existence of the disease known as "foot-and-mouth disease" among animals in New Jersey, the Board of Health of the State has adopted the following regulations to take effect immediately (December 12, 1914).

Except as hereinafter provided, the movement of cattle, sheep or other ruminants, or swine upon the public highways of quarantined counties or townships (a list of which is enclosed herewith) is hereby prohibited.

Persons desiring to move any of the above mentioned animals from points within the quarantined areas, over the public highways, to other points within or outside of the quarantined areas, but within the State of New Jersey, can do so by permission of the State Board of Health. To obtain said permission application should be made to the Board of Health of the State of New Jersey, or to Dr. I. H. Shaw, Room 20, Federal building, Jersey City. Said application must state the name of the owner, address, number and kind of animals to be moved and the place to which they are to be removed. The application must also state that the animals to be removed have not been outside of the State of New Jersey since October 1, 1914, and that they have not been exposed to "foot-and-mouth disease" since that time. The application must be accompanied by a certificate signed by a duly qualified verterinarian. This certificate must show that the veterinarian signing the same has personally examined all of the cattle, sheep and other ruminants, and swine upon the premises from which said animals are to be removed not more than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the signing of such certificate. The certificate must also state that the animals are free from "foot-and-mouth-disease." Animals which are shipped into the State under Government Seal from non-infected territories, for immediate slaughter, may be moved from the railroad siding directly to the slaughter-house without a permit.

Sections of New Jersey under quarantine by the State Board of Health, on account of the existence of foot-and-mouth-disease, include the following:

Essex county, Hudson county, Union county, Morris county, Somerset county—Bedminster township, Bernards township; Hunterdon county—Holland township, Alexandria township, Bethlehem township, Union township, Franklin township; Kingwood township; Warren county—Harmony township, Franklin township, Hopatcong township, Greenwich township, Pohatcong township.

NEW POSTOFFICE FOR NETHERWOOD

Sub-station No. 4 to Be Established in J. B. Guttridge's Grocery Store.

RESULT OF AGITATION

Convenience Brought About as Result of Netherwood Residents' Association's Activity — Annual Meeting and Reports.

Agitation launched by the Netherwood Residents' Association during the past year of civic work has resulted in an order from the postoffice department to have Sub-station No. 4 established in J. B. Guttridge's grocery store, near the Netherwood depot. In order to have the proposed convenience made a reality it was necessary to secure the endorsement of the association and the consent of Mr. Guttridge. Both of these features were brought about at the annual meeting of the body held in the parish house of St. Stephen's church last night, and the station will probably be installed within the next month. For sometime past residents of the East End have urged the establishment of such an innovation in that section and it will undoubtedly prove a valuable asset and one that will be well patronized. Considerable urging was necessary in order to induce Mr. Guttridge to take charge of the station inasmuch as certain government regulations make such a feature in a grocery store impractical at times and the yearly compensation amounts to but $50. The office will be open twelve hours a day and all of the larger office conveniences with the exception of the parcel post will be enjoyed.

Reports submitted by the officers of the association at the meeting indicate that the past year has been an unusually prosperous one and much good has been accomplished in the way of civic welfare. Some discussion was evoked over the possibility of the new auto fire engine, purchased primarily for installation in the East End, being installed at headquarters and one of the other engines being sent to the Netherwood house. The members are greatly incensed over this possibility and should the new apparatus be kept in the central portion of the city a vigorous protest will prdobably be the result. The treasurer's report showed that a balance of $45.85 remains in the treasury at the conclusion of the year's work. The following officers were chosen to serve during the fiscal year:

President, H. P. Stevens; vice-president, H. B. Weir; secretary, Pelham C. Wilmerding; treasurer, R. W. Meeker; committee chairmen: railroad, J. D. Phillips; highway, C. D. Wardlaw; health, John Evans; mail and telephone, A. L. Seidler; public safety, M. C. Stewart; education, A. C. Wilmerding; lighting, F. L. Medbery; entertainment, Charles Lewis; membership, etc., W. R. Way.

The committee chairmen have the power to select two associate members in each case and a systematic supervision of the East End activities will be maintained next year. The re-election of the president and vice-president of the association although contrary to the usual custom of maintaining one year standards, was deemed advisable because of the present status of the organization and the need evidenced for a continued supervision of the present directors. C. B. Wardlaw, chairman of the mail and telephone committee, reported at last night's meeting that mail delivery service for residents of Helena avenue had been secured after considerable conference work with the postmaster and this announcement was received with keen enthusiasm inasmuch as this proposition has been before the association for sever-

WELL KNOWN WOMEN SELL RED CROSS SEALS

Booths Opened This Morning at Several Leading Business Houses.

Many well-known Plainfiedl matrons and maids are now taking part in the work of selling Red Cross Seals in aid of the local AntiTuberculosis League. Beginning this morning, and continuing until Thursday, when the local stores close, several groups will take charge of booths in the leading stores, and will sell the seals to patrons of the merchants.

Tonight, tomorrow and Thursday night a dozen men have volunteered to sell the seals in the lobbies of the Proctor and Plainfield Theatres. These men will be Sherman B. Joost, J. M. Charles, William B. Tyler, James Brewster, C. Ames Brooks, Joseph VanDeventer, Percy Ransome, Councilman-elect Robert H. Cox, Murray Rushmore.

At the Woodhull & Martin store the sales are in charge of Miss Mary Rodman, who has a corps of assistants to be announced later. At the A. E. Force & Company store Mrs. Frank Lawrence, Jr., is in charge, assisted by Mrs. H. R. Stockton, Miss Liela Hedges, Miss Barbara Fleming, Miss Helen Joy, Miss Elizabeth McGee, Mrs. Allen Cowperthwaite, Mrs. Charles Hyde and Mrs. Sherman Joost. The booth at Tepper Brothers is under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. C. McMillan, and she is being assisted by Mrs. Boardman Tyler, Miss Edith Smalley, Miss Ellen Burke, Mrs. Frank C. Ard, Miss Helen Besler and Miss Ralston.

Mrs. H. N. Avery and Miss Helen Hyde are in charge at the State Trust Company, and Mrs. Arthur Collens is in charge at the Kresge store, assisted by Mrs. Frank Osborne, Mrs. W. B. Tyler, Mrs. R. Story Rowland and Miss Dorothy Lyon.

The local league will receive eighty-five per cent. of the receipts from the sale of stamps, and the indications are now that nearly $700 will be raised by the work, an increase of about $200 over last year.

PLAINFIELD TRUST CO. CALENDAR A WORK OF ART

"Confidential Chat" is the title of the water color calendar for 1915 which is being distributed by The Plainfield Trust Company to its depositors. It is the work of Ridgeway Knight, an American artist, who studied under the famous Meissonier and who has spent most of his time abroad, getting his inspiration from the picturesque rural districts of France. The painting from which this calendar is copied portrays a scene along the banks of the Seine River. In the foreground are two women of the peasant class whose quaint native costumes blend harmoniously with the colors of the flowers with which they are surrounded. At their feet stretches the river with its beautiful background of hill and country, long since historic and now vitally concerned in the remaking of history.

As in former years, The Plainfield Trust Company is giving its adult customers a work of art that is well worth framing and it is suggested that those who wish to obtain one of the calendars call at the office of the company, 202 Park avenue, as soon as possible.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION AT INDUSTRIAL HOME

Plans for giving the inmates of the local Industrial Home an old-fashioned Christmas tree and entertainment under the direction of William F. Richards, of East Third street, are now well under way. Mr. Richards has been instrumental during the past three years of securing volunteer local talent to give weekly entertainments at the institution, giving one entertainment during the week with the exception of during the summer months.

Mr. Richards reports that he has received a contribution of $10 for this cause, and would appreciate other donations, in order that the inmates, who now look forward to the weekly events, might thoroughly enjoy the prevailing spirit of the occasion. From present plans, it is expected to hold the tree, Monday evening, December 28. Those desiring to make contributions to this fund may communicate with Mr. Richards, 259 East Third street.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Hughes, daughter of Mrs. William A. Hughes, of Indianapolis, to DeWitt P. Brokaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Brokaw, of Sycamore avenue, the borough. No date has been set for the wedding.

DEATH OF LEROY H. GATES' PARENTS

Father's Demise is Closely Followed by That of the Mother.

Following closely the death of her husband, Rev. C. H. Gates, which occurred at Auburndale, Mass., on Sunday, comes the word of the death of Mrs. Gates, aged 86 years, which occurred at the same place, last night. They were the parents of LeRoy H. Gates, of First place, this city. Mr. Gates was called to Auburndale on Sunday by the death of his father, which was due to the infirmities of old age, he being 92 years old. Mrs. Gates' death was due to the same cause. A double funeral will be held at Wilbraham, Mass., tomorrow.

Rev. Mr. Gates was a Congregational minister, his charges including some of the most important churches in the denomination. Both he and Mrs. Gates had visited in Plainfield many times and they had a number of friends here. Beside Mr. Gates, of this city, there survives two daughters, Mrs. John Freese, of South Framingham, Mass., and Mrs. E. T. Allen, of Auburndale, Mass.

CELEBRATE THIRTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Power, of West Seventh street, tendered a reception to twenty-five friends at their home last night, the event being the thirty-second anniversary of their wedding which was solemnized in Halifax, Nova Scotia, December 14, 1883. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Power was Miss Bertha A. Watt, of Halifax, and the wedding was performed in the home of her parents by the Rev. Dr. Winterburn, of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Watt came east fifteen years ago and located in Brooklyn. For the past nine years they have been living in Plainfield, Mr. Watt commuting to New York city, where he is engaged in business as a mechanical engineer.

COUNCILMAN F. J. BLATZ HEADS COUNTY BAR ASS'N

Councilman Francis J. Blatz, of this city, was this morning elected president of the Somerset County Bar Association, at the annual meeting of that body held at the courthouse, at Somerville, the session being held prior to the opening of the December term of the Supreme Court. Mr. Blatz succeeds A. M. Beekman, of Somerville, as the head of the organization.

The remaining officers elected are as follows: Vice-president, Daniel H. Beekman; treasurer, Hugh Gaston; secretary, Miss Mary Steele; trustees, Judge Case and H. C. Suydam.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS IN FALL FROM A WAGON

While unloading a load of coal in front of the Plainfield Daily Press office on North avenue, at 2:30 this afternoon, August Jaeckman, of West Third street, a driver employed by the Consumers' Coal Company, lost his balance and fell headlong to the macadam roadbed. The man struck the hard surface on the back of his head and was rendered unconscious.

When picked up by men in the immediate vicinity at the time the victim was carried into Armstrong's drug store and the ambulance was summoned. He soon responded to first aid remedies, however, and refused to go to the hospital. He was taken to police headquarters by Patrolman George Muir and a further examination of his hurts was made by City Physician Norman W. Currie.

FAVORS DESIRABLE ALIENS.

Washington, Dec. 15—President Wilson made it clear to visitors today that he was opposed to any legislation that would raise a bar to desirable aliens who sought asylum in the United States. The President had a special reference to the provisions for a literacy test contained in the Smith-Burnett Immigration Bill now before Congress.

EDITOR HAS APPENDICITIS.

Atlanta, Dec. 15—Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Evening Journal, who is seriously ill here, will be operated on today for acute appendicitis. Dr. Wylie, his private physician, has arrived from New York and will conduct the operation.

SEVEN MEN INJURED.

Silver Lake, Dec. 15—Seven workmen were injured when an explosion occured today in the film developing building of the Edison Company, one of the few remaining structures that escaped the flames last week.

GIVE A SOIREE MASQUE DANSANT

Pleasing Social Function at Dunellen is Largely Attended.

ATTRACTIVE COSTUMES

Mrs. Robert H. Lowrie and Paul Burns Wear Most Attractive Costumes and Receive Silver Loving Cups.

The most elaborate event of Dunellen's social season was given in the Dunellen Theatre, last evening, under the name of the "Soiree Masque Dansant." The affair was arranged by Mrs. Ford Eckerson, wife of Manager Eckerson, of the theatre, and the patronesses were Mrs. E. B. Latham, Mrs. Dr. Tuttle, Mrs. J. Z. Kelly and Mrs. W. E. Terry. There were 250 guests present, principally from Plainfield and Dunellen.

The costumes of the guests were both lavish and varied, presenting a most picturesque scene amid the artistic decorations of the theatre. No expense was spared in converting the theatre into a fairyland. The color scheme of the decorations was yellow and green. Just above the heads of the dancers, forming an almost complete canopy were streamers of yellow and green paper attached to which were over a hundred and fifty crepe paper chrysanthemums. The side walls were also artistically decorated with festoons of crepe paper of the same color.

In one corner of the auditorium was a punch booth attractively decorated with crepe paper of the prevailing colors. Elmira Ratti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ratti, attired in white, served the punch.

The dancing commenced at 9 o'clock and the grand march at 11 o'clock. It was led by Miss Ruth Voorhees and Charles Creger, of Plainfield, who has charge of the Saturday evening dances in the Dunellen Theatre. After the march the judges, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Cutter, of Plainfield, and Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Randolph, of Dunellen, had a difficult task before them in deciding as to which one among the women and the one among the gentlemen had the most attractive and complete costume. The task was at last completed, the judges deciding upon a woman attired in blue and white silk, to represent a shepherdess, and a gentleman in a perfect Indian outfit. The lights were then put out for a minute and a half during which the unmasking occured.

Upon relighting the interior of the theatre, Mrs. Robert Lowrie, of North avenue, and Paul Burns, of Plainfield, were revealed as the fortunate ones chosen by the judges. In recognition of their exceptional ability in preparing their costumes they were each awarded a valuable solid silver loving cup. Other features of the evening were moonlight dances, one of which occurred before the intermission at 12 o'clock and the other after. There were two moons made by covering electric light boxes with yellow paper, upon which had been printed the features of the moon.

The event broke up at 2 o'clock. Music was furnished by Squires' orchestra of Plainfield.

COUNCILS WILL PRESENT BORO SCHOOLS WITH FLAGS

Four councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will present the Watchung and Somerset Schools with four flags, Thursday afternoon, and special flag raising exercises will be held for the occasion. Two flags will be given to each school and separate exercises will be held in each of them.

State Councilor von Minden of New Market will be present and will make some appropriate remarks during the exercises, and the singing of national anthems by the students of the schools will also add to the interest of the program. Mr. von Minden will also present the flags, which will be received by Thomas A. Currin, a member of the Board of Education, and also of one of the councils. The exercises will begin at 3:30.

PARENTS OF TWINS.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Wyckoff, formerly of this city, but now of Newark, are parents of twins, a boy and a girl, born to them a few days ago. Mrs. Wyckoff was formerly Miss Nettie G. Stillman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Stillman, of West Fourth street.

WILL HOLD MUSICAL.

The senior members of St. Joseph's music class will hold a recital in St. Joseph's Villa, Westervelt avenue, tonight. A delightful program has been arranged, which will be only for the members of the class.

—The Daily Press can be purchased each night at Mallinson's drug store, East Second street.

Few Cases to Be Tried During December Term Opening Today.

Few cases are recorded on the docket of the Somerset county courts which convened for the December term in Somerville this morning and it is expected that a disposition of the litigations will be made in record time. Charles W. Parker, justice of the Supreme Court, will preside and Circuit Judge Luther A. Campbell will sit for the trial of causes tomorrow morning and continue all cases marked "ready" until they are disposed of.

The local law firm of Swackhamer and Bird is counsel for the defense in two of the thirteen cases on the Supreme Court blotter. But four cases will be tried in the Circuit Court and Winfield S. Angleman, of this city, is counsel for the defendant party, in the first of these. One case is slated for the Court of Common Pleas.

Among the petit jurors selected for the December panel are the following from North Plainfield: Geo. S. Adams, James A. Conroy, Robert Love, David Mogey, Edmund H. Terry, and Charles Trotter; Warrenville, Henry Williams and Joseph Wittman.

ALL IN READINESS FOR OPENING OF NEW THEATRE

Workmen have been rushing the work on the new Astor theatre building on West Front street and the interior decorating has now been completed and everything is in readiness for the opening performance tomorrow afternoon. Motion pictures of the highest order will be put on during the afternoon and evening performances and twice a week operatic films will be shown.

A reception was given by Joseph Coven, the manager, yesterday afternoon and over 200 guests viewed the playhouse and were treated to an enjoyable program of vaudeville numbers. A number of other guests will be entertained at the new rendezvous tonight prior to the inspection by the public tomorrow afternoon.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. ANNA REUTER HELD SUNDAY

The funeral services of Mrs. Anna M. Reuter, mother of Mrs. Frank Neidig, of the borough, who died at her home, 101 West Ninth street, New York, last Friday, were held at the late home Sunday afternoon, the Rev. McDonald, pastor of the Mizpah Chapel of West 57th street, officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. Neidermeyer, pastor of the Adams Memorial church, of East 30th street.

Burial was made yesterday in the Lutheran cemetery, Long Island. Mrs. Reuter was well known in this city, having visited her daughter a number of times.

THREE MEN RUN DOWN AND ANOTHER ONE KILLED

New York, Dec. 15—Three workmen were run down and probably fatally injured by a Second Avenue elevated train at Ninety-first street, this morning. The men are now in the hospital, but little hope is entertained for their recovery.

Shortly after this accident an unidentified man about 30 years of age jumped in front of a southbound Third Avenue train at Ninety-ninth street and was instantly killed. A letter found in his pocket bore the inscription, Morris Ludmier, No. 228 East Ninety-ninth street.

WILL GIVE A PLAYLET.

"Familiar Faces of a Funny Family," a playlet, will be presented at the New Dover M. E. church tomorrow evening, the feature of the evening being preceded by a musical program. The proceeds will be used for the Christmas fund. If stormy, the entertainment will be held the next evening. The Christmas entertainment of the church is to be held next Tuesday evening. Prayer services are now being held Friday evenings at the parsonage.

WILL RECEIVE CONTRIBUTIONS.

Members of the W. C. T. U. will meet at the union's rooms on Madison avenue, Thursday, from 10 o'clock in the morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, to receive articles for the box to be sent to Captain George Benn, for his work among the sailors in New York. Clothing of all kinds, wristlets, mufflers, toys, etc., will be acceptably received.

MODERN EQUIPMENT AT THE HOSPITAL

Pathological Laboratory, Gift of Mrs. C. A. Marsh, An Indispensible Adjunct.

Muhlenberg Hospital considers itself fortunate in having among its many departments such a well equipped Pathological Laboratory as it has. This is the gift of Mrs. Mary C. Marsh in memory of her husband, the late Craig Adams Marsh.

This laboratory, adjoining the new private room building, is a separate fire-proof building about 18 feet by 36 feet in dimensions, with high ceilings, large windows, tiled floor, and with all the most modern facilities to handle the work instrusted to this department.

The importance of this department to a well organized and equipped hospital cannot be over-estimated. It has become an indispensable adjunct to the modern practice of medicine and surgery. Many cases cannot be correctly diagnosed by physicians and many operations cannot be undertaken safely, without the assistance of pathological tests. In many instances these pathological tests are most imperative and the result of the tests cannot be delayed without danger to the patient.

Muhlenberg Hospital's Pathological Department is now in full operation and in charge of a most competent pathologist, Dr. M. N. Garhart, who will be at the laboratory in the hospital on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 9 a. m. till 1 p. m. Emergency work will be looked after by Dr. Garhart by communicating with him either at the hospital laboratory during his office hours, or at his home.

This department, together with the new children's ward, will be open for the informal inspection of the public on the afternoons of Saturday and Sunday, December 19 and 20, from 3 until 6 o'clock.

RUSH BEGINS IN THE LOCAL TAX OFFICES

With next Monday being set as the last day for the paying of taxes, activities in both city and borough tax offices are becoming noticeable, with Collectors William R. Townsend and George Brown being kept busy caring for the rush of business. Both offices report that up to the close of business Saturday, the receipts for the current year are somewhat below the mark set by last year.

The last week set aside for the purpose of paying taxes, however, has been instrumental in bringing in considerable cash. The mailing of the "Christmas Fund" checks by a local bank during the course of the latter part of the week will undoubtedly make the last two or three days record breakers for the payment of tax bills.

INVESTIGATORS NOW 100 MILES BELOW PITTSBURG

Several local people received letters yesterday from Henry Kirchoff and Harold Bigham, the Watchung residents who left on December 1 to study flood causes in the Ohio and Mississippin valleys in the interests of the United States government. At the time of writing they had gone into camp at Petersburg, W. Va., a point 100 miles from Pittsburg. They had already experienced very bad weather, they wrote, one of their tribulations being a three days' downpour of rain that had made it impossible for them to proceed in their houseboat. On the other hand it afforded just such an opportunity as they are looking for, that of observing the river banks under sudden rushes of water.

Taken as a whole, the letters state, the journey has been successful and gives promise of continuing so.

The mission of Messrs. Kirchoff and Bigham is the result of the disastrous floods in the Middle West during the spring of 1913. The government believes a proper understanding of conditions will suggest ways and means for planning preventatives. The two men will continue down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers and thnce across the gulf to Galveston. They will be gone at least six months.

DEMOCRATS TO ELECT.

The Plainfield Democratic Club will hold an important meeting tonight, when officers for the year will be chosen and plans discussed for the future welfare of the organization. It is understood that many of the present officers will retire.

RESUME FIGHT IN NORTHERN FRANCE

Allies Yesterday Took Several German Trenches Near Ypres.

SERVIANS IN BELGRADE

Have Driven Austrians Out of Capital—Army Surrounds Four Divisions of Austrians and They Must Surrender, is Claim.

Rome, Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—There is a strong desire in Hungary for peace. "It is well known there," says a despatch from Budapest, "that the most important passes of the Carpathians are in the hands of the Russians; that Hungary may be invaded any day and that it will be to their advantage if possible to secure peace before Austria be forced to cede Galicia. Hungary feels that she would have more influence in the Empire." It is recognized that the end of the war may mean the dissolution of the Austrian empire.

London, Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—After a period of comparative quiet fighting has recommenced in northern France, says a statement given out by the official news bureau this afternoon. The Allies yesterday made a combined attack on Hollebeke, four miles southeast of Ypres, and on Wytchaete. Several lines of German trenches were captured and a number of prisoners were taken. Substantial progress was made, in the language of the ultra conservative news bureau.

The Allies have purshed forward in Belgium until they now are occupying positions before Roulers and Thorout, if they are not actually in those positions. A defense as stubborn and unyielding as that presented by the Germans east of the Yser River cannot be said to have crumbled, but the German line is nevertheless slowly drawing back. The corresponding advance by the British and French may be regarded with some dubiety, as it will place the Allies in occupation of ground recently by the Germans which have been entrenched, fortified and possibly mined to meet the attacks from the west. Many rapid movements have taken place within Belgium recently, which it is believed can only portend a retirement to newly prepared lines of defense, where the Germans will go into winter quarters.

Bulgaria has declared to the Allies that it is her desire to remain neutral.

The Servians, after a terrific combat with the Austrians, have re-entered and re-occupied Belgrade. A considerable portion of the city is said to have been destroyed.

The most striking feature is the candid admission by the Austrian government of the defeat of the Austrian army in Servia and apparent abandonment of its third attempt at invasion of the territory of its small Slav neighbor.

Although attributing the failure to the enemy's superior force, as all government bulletins explain failures, the Austrian war office announces plainly an extended retirement and many losses.

The announcement made in Vienna follows:

"Our offensive movement directed in a southeasterly direction from the River Drina encountered southeast of Valjevo a greatly superior force of the enemy.

"Our advance had not merely to be stopped, but we were compelled also to make more extended retirements of our troops, which for many weeks have fought obstinately and brilliantly, but with many losses.

"Against this we may place the occupation of Belgrade. A new decision and measures will consequently be taken which will serve to repel the enemy."

The Servians are pressing home their victory with more captures of prisoners, and have driven part of the invading army across the Drina River.

Petrograd, Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—Four divisions of the Austrian army which occupied Belgrade have been cut off and surrounded, and will be forced to captiulate if they have not already done so, according to an interview given out here by M. Spalaixovitch, the Servian minister to Petrograd. The Servians are continuing their pursuit of the Austrians, advancing in a line through Mokragona, Zavlokla and Dobriva toward the Drina.

Armenian refugees who have arrived at Sebastopol, the Russian port on the Black Sea, report that the Turks in Ezerum threaten to massacre 20,000 Christians living there, because their attitude, according to the Turks, is pro-Russian. Groups of Armenian prisoners are being regularly removed from the prisons and hanged in the streets without trial.

OLD UP AWARD OF SEWER CONTRACT

Borough Council Committee Not Yet Ready to Make Recommendations.

The Borough Council with President Richard M. Ryan presiding, and Councilmen Bolard, Castner and Leighbour present, merely met and adjourned at the meeting called for last evening for the purpose of awarding the contract for the construction of the borough's collecting sewerage system. Before adjourning President Ryan had stated that the committee composed of Councilmen Jones, Castner and himself, that had been appointed by Mayor Latham for the purpose of meeting with a representative of the borough's sewerage engineers, the firm of George W. Fuller, and going over the lowest sewerage bids and deciding upon the one that was most advantageously, had met on Friday evening.

President Ryan, in continuing, said that there was three close bidders, viz., as published in these columns before: H. K. Corbin & Company, of New York, with a bid of $82,604.20; Bruno Pizzamenti, of Seneca Falls, N. Y., with a bid of $84,115, and the D'Napoli Construction Company, of Hackensack, who bid $86,805, and that the party who will get the contract will not be decided upon until satisfactory references have been given. In concluding his remarks, President Ryan said that Chairman Jones, of the committee that met on Friday night, was not present and he therefore thought that it would be advisable to postpone any action upon the matter until the next adjourned session of the Council. The usual motion was then made and the Council adjourned until next Monday night.

EVERYBODY'S XMAS TREE CELEBRATION

Community Yuletide Observance at City Park Will Be Novel Affair.

Plainfield is to have a "Tree of Light", this year, a forty-foot evergreen to be erected in the City Park, near the city High School. The arrangements are being made by the executive committee of the Sunday-school Superintendents' Association.

The tree will be lighted for the first time at 7 o'clock on Christmas Eve, when the children from all the Sabbath-schools in the city and borough to the number of at least two thousand are to assemble in the park to sing carols under the direction of Charles L. Lewis, director of public school music.

The carols which have been chosen are "O Come All Ye Faithful," "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "There Came Three Kings, Ere Break of Day," "God Rest You, Merry Gentlemen," "Silent Night," "The First Noel," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks By Night," and "Three Kings of Orient."

Diamond and Beatrice Company, at Proctor's Theatre.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

Charles Diamond, known throughout the country for the past twenty years as one of America's foremost harpists, is the feature number at Proctor's Theatre for the first half of the week, heading the musical trio of Diamond, Beatrice and Company. All three persons are instrumentalists of pronounced ability and their selections on the harps and saxaphone were encored repeatedly. Mr. Diamond has travelled all over the world in his harp offerings, frequently appearing before crowned heads in Europe. Another trio on the bill is composed of Bronson, Ryan and Gillette, high class vocalists, whose repertoire included popular as well as classical numbers. "Twice a Week" is the odd title of a sketch presented by Raymond and Company, in which the unusual sight of a cemetery entrance forms the set for the action. The sketch ends in genuine comedy. Johnson and Buckley present a singing and dancing number, in which they give an excellent impersonation of a Bowery boy and his "Moll" and the Cabaret dogs exhibit canine segacity that delights old and young. The second installment of "Zudora," the latest popular serial moving picture film, will be shown at the theatre tomorrow afternoon and night.

OLD-FASHIONED XMAS SINGING SCHOOL

Rehearsal of Carols and Recitations Comprise Enjoyable Program.

The First Methodist Sunday-school had an old-fashioned Christmas singing-school in Vincent chapel, last night, to practice the carols which are to be rendered in the school next Sunday morning. Clifford D. Braider was the chorister.

The social committee of the Epworth League was in charge of the entertainment, which united the East and the West, Plainfield doughnuts and Oregon Skokums. Miss Josephine Julio's program of recitations was greatly enjoyed, and she was compelled to lengthen it by several encores. Her pieces included a monologue, "The Department Store," "The Rivals," several clever imitations of children, and the well-known "Tit For Tat," which Mr. Braider accompanied.

Miss Julio is a pupil of Mrs. Minnie Marshall Smith, and her manner and expression are charming.

The committee of the Epworth League is as follows: Miss Joy, chairman, Norman Bohl, Alan Campbell, Miss Mary Robley, Miss Myrtle Darling, Miss Ruth Johnsen, Frederick Van Hoesen.

WHAT THREE CENTS DID.

A little boy, about six years old, rushed into a store and asked if they kept those stamps that had the picture of Santa Claus on. The clerk said: "Yes, my boy, we do; how many would you like to have?" The little boy looked earnestly into the clerk's face and asked: "How much are they?" The clerk answered that they were only a cent apiece. The child looked joyfully around and said, "I heard my mother talking about how the money was to help the poor sick people that had consumption. I've only got three cents, but I wanted to help them by buying stamps."

He received his three Red Cross Seals and left the store, proud to think he had perhaps helped some boy's father who had that terrible disease.

JERSEY CHURCHES WILL CELEBRATE

Episcopalians of Piscataway and Woodbridge to Observe Anniversary.

OVER 200 YEARS OLD

Plan For a Week of Special Services to Begin On December 24—Historical Sketches of the Two Parishes.

Two Episcopal churches, Trinity at Woodbridge and St. James' at Piscataway township, will celebrate during the week beginning December 24 the 212th and 200th anniversaries respectively of incidents connected with their careers. In the case of the first mentioned the anniversary will commemorate the holding of the first Episcopal service in the community. The ceremonies at the latter church will mark the organization of the parish in 1714.

Plans for celebrating the anniversary of the congregation of St. James' church provide for a week of special services and ceremonies over which the rector, Rev. Dr. Henry Hale Gifford, will preside.

Right Rev. Dr. Arthur Seldon Lloyd, president of the board of missions, will preach Sunday morning, December 27. The following Wednesday night the congregation will unite in a commemoration dinner at the Hotel Kline.

A service will be conducted on the night of December 30, in commemoration of the initial service. Frank D. Gifford, a student at General Theological Seminary, New York, who directs the religious work of this congregation during the illness of the rector, Rev. Scott Rathbun, will have charge.

While the actual organization of St. James' church was not effected until December 24, 1714, records exist which indicate that in 1898 Rev. Edward Portlock, who founded St. Peter's church, Perth Amboy, in 1695, also preached in Piscataway township. These records further show that on December 30, 1702, Rev. George Keith, a missionary sent by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, preached at Woodbridge and on the evening of the same day performed a like service at Piscataway township. Rev. Dr. W. H. Neilson, of this city, until recently served this church as rector.

The congregation of Trinity church was formed in 1711, when a number of persons then members of the First church, Woodbridge, seceded and with the early adherents to the Episcopal doctrine organized the congregation. During the years intervening between the first service and the founding of the church, Mr. Keith continued to serve here and to the people who eventually brought St. James' church into being. Succeeding him Rev. Edward Vaughan, of Elizabethtown, conducted the services for years.

The original members of St. James' church were among the earliest settlers of the district. They had come to New Jersey, then East Jersey, from Maine and brought with them the name Piscataque, that of a tribe of Maine Indians and prefixing it with "New" gave it to their new home. The first officers of this church were: Wardens, Thomas Wetherel and James Barron; vestrymen, John Malleson, William Hodgson, Robert Webster, Charles Glover, Hopewell Hull, Henry Langstaff, Samuel Walker, John Jennings, William Olden and Samuel Royce.

In 1710 a license was granted by Robert Hunter, third Royal Governor of New Jersey, for the erection of the church building. This was built on land granted in 1695 to the freeholders of New Piscataqua township by the East Jersey Proprietors.

Old records make mention of New Piscataqua being, as a chronicler expressed it in 1666, "considerable of a place." It is evident that the first rectors were men with plenty to do for the parish covered the entire community, which at that time had an area greater than the present county of Middlesex and included part of what is now Monmouth county.

During the war of the revolution the British troops took possession of the church, and in 1778 converted it to use as a hospital. In the adjacent cemetery is a mound approximately 100 feet in length, where it is said many of King George's soldiers were buried. Of the fixtures of the church, that which is most interesting is the pulpit, which was carried away by a tornado which destroyed the building on June 19, 1835. It was recovered in Princess Bay, twelve miles distant, and restored. The building was rebuilt the following year with funds given by Joseph Foulk, of New York.

For years the congregation of Trinity church, Woodbridge, met for services in the old Independent Meeting-house. Subsequently services were held in an old building then standing on the site now occupied by the present church. This proving inadequate, a new building was erected in 1754, a charter for the land being given by King George four years later. This building stood for over a century, being destroyed by fire in 1858. The corner-stone of the present church was laid two years later.

CITY MANAGERS A SUCCESS.

One step in advance of the commission form of government, the city manager method, although adopted in but few cities, is generally reported to be successful. Attention of engineers has been focused upon this form of government within the last few days by articles which have appeared in the Engineering News and Engineering Record. So successful has the plan been and so obvious is it that Plainfield will eventually adopt this or commission government, that a recital of some of the results will be of interest to the general public.

Early this month a convention of commission managers of cities was held at Springfield, Ohio, and while it attracted a small gathering, a significant fact was that the manager from Amarillo, Texas, told the others that by the next meeting, a year hence, that State alone would probably send ten delegates. At the present time there are only sixteen cities in the United States which have managers, with Dayton, Ohio, the leading example.

Engineering Record says that from the proceedings of the meeting it is evident that the movement has come to stay. Every man in reciting what has been done in his city indicated that he was getting substantially the same result as his fellow managers were, and that result was higher efficiency. The means by which inefficiency was reduced, as recounted by these men, varied as the problems varied, so that it is no more possible to lay down standard methods than it is for a capable foreman to recommend a successful formula for "hiring and firing" men.

One of the greatest problems of the city manager form of government unforeseen probably at its start, but referred to again and again in the convention, is that of sustaining the interest of the public in its own welfare. At Dayton, the flood disaster brought to the people a democratic spirit, but to keep this alive Mr. Waite has fostered various adjuncts in the way of citizens' organizations. The Greater Dayton Association, with 7,000 members, the Civic Music League, a Municipal Baseball League, a Playgrounds and Garden Association and other organizations with definite aims have been formed.

Publicity for municipal affairs is also needed for success, and while the newspapers may be relied upon to point out advantages as well as defects, fancied or real, constructive help is essential. Mr. Waite and one of the Springfield commissioners both admonished the 150 business men, gathered to do honor to the visiting managers, that the new plan needed their continued interest, else the movement would fail.

As the Record points out, the results so far obtained from the city deed, gratifying, and with the help that the new association can give its members even better progress may be expected in the near future. Experience will help to crystallize procedure, and these experiences and the resulting methods will be exchanged at the clearing house which the meetings of the new association will form.

DONE BY THE TYPES.

Mistakes that are laughable often creep into the columns of the largest newspapers, with great forces of editors, copy and proof readers. In the rush and hustle of getting a paper to press, such as the comparatively small ones in Plainfield, it is remarkable how few errors do get past those who should detect them. One of the most amusing things that has appeared in the Daily Press in years was that telling of the burial of a woman in the North Plainfield High School, when cemetery was, of course, intended by the writer. A dropped figure by a linotype operator recently made the new postoffice building 6 by 100 feet, and at another time made 20 people attend a large social function, when the figures should have been 200.

The Editor and Publisher, a trade paper, telling of errors that have been made by large city papers, said that a Chicago paper, in reporting a political meeting, stated that the vast audience rent the air with their snouts, and another paper in the same city reported a vessel sailing with 40,000 bushels of cats. A Buffalo paper, in describing the scene when Roosevelt took the oath of office as President, said it was a spectacle never to be forgotten when Roosevelt, before the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and a few witnesses, took his simple bath. In the same edition the Editor and Publisher, unintentionally, of course, said that a woman writer "spent the summer of 1908 among the fishermen and Eskimo on the Labrador coast. The summer of 1908 she spent in Mexico and Cuba." Were the statement true it was a remarkable case of dual personality. It was not so long ago that a local paper said that in "a clam manner" a man entered a room, the l and a being transposed.

If any of our readers think that these mistakes are easily avoidable, we invite them to spend a day reading proofs.

Montclair certainly has a busy press agent. All sorts of things are being printed in one of the New York papers about the accomplishments of that town, and the remarkable part of it all is that the things which are stated to be new ideas are all old ones with Plainfielders.

Have you sent your contribution to the Community Santa Claus? The time is getting short, and the need is great. Drop into any store where you see a green card, and leave your mite.

"BEHIND THE BEYOND" DELIGHTFUL FARCE COMEDY

The farce comedy which the Yale Dramatic Association will present here at the Plainfield Theatre on December 31, as one unit of its bill of four one-act plays, is a dramatization of Stephen Leacock's satire, "Behind the Beyond." The story concerns two parties of people who go to see a modern "problem play." In dramatized form, the play witnessed will be shown by means of an inner proscenium. The attending parties are seen sitting in two boxes, and their comments on the play-within-the-play add a great deal to the humor of the situation. The idea of a stage on the stage is always very successful in drawing laughs from an audience. "The Midnight Sons," "The Chorus Lady," "Miss Nobody from Starland" and other productions are testimony to the attractiveness of the plan.

But Mr. Leacock's story is brilliant enough without the added interest noted above. All who are familiar with the work of this clever Englishman know his pointed satire and broad humor. The plot of the inner play is at once complex, indefinite and ludicrous. The modern sex problem is made the butt of a withering sarcasm which makes the farce one of the most screamingly funny which the Dramatic Association could have selected.

"BONE ROLLERS" RETURN.

Merle Jackson and Wilbur Brown, two of the frequenters of Albert Rogers' den of crap shooters which was "pulled" by the police Sunday morning, December 6, and who eluded the authorities at that time, returned to town last night and were rounded up. They were arraigned in the city court this morning and sentenced to pay fines of $5 each. The disorderly house was located at

SCOUTS STRIVING FOR HIGH HONORS

Fifty-seven in Race for Second Eagle Scout in Plainfield.

"BIG BROTHER FUND"

Being Organized Among Members of Scout Council—Many Applications Received at Busy Session in Y. M. C. A. Parlors Last Night.

With the Boy Scout council in action in co-operation with the field officers the boys themselves are taking the keenest possible interest in perfecting themselves in scoutcraft. At the council meeting last night in the Y. M. C. A. parlors, fifty-seven applications were made by scouts who are trying to win the race to the honor of becoming the second eagle scout in Plainfield. This is the highest degree a scout can attain and is now held by Charles E. Rice, of Troop 5.

President William N. Runyon was in the chair. Secretary Dr. George T. Moore, who is also treasurer announced that the appeal to councilmen to pay in an extra dollar a piece as a Big Brother Fund, had been met with prompt and liberal response, but that all the members had not yet made returns. About $35 is needed to accomplish the objects desired.

Commissioner Allen E. Beals reported the establishment of Troop 1 in the First Baptist church. Ernest K. Powlison, scoutmaster, resigned as a member of the council. The name of Frank E. Bach was submitted by the retiring member as his successor in the council and he was elected. William F. Abbe was also elected to the Council. W. R. Krinen registered as scoutmaster of Troop 10, of Trinity Reformed church, with Russell Doeringer, assistant. Dr. Raymond Stevens registered as scoutmaster of Troop 9, of the First Baptist church.

Applications were received from George Wiggins, of Troop 10, for first class scout; Howard Leek, Howard Willett and Edwin Addes, of Troop 10; Caryl Dunovan, of Troop 9; Colin Millard, Harold McKay, Henry Hannigan and Jack Fawcett, of Troop 5 made application to council for examinations in merit badges in arts crafts and elementary sciences before the court of honor.

WILL HOLD COTTAGE PRAYER SERVICE TONIGHT

Another series of cottage prayer services under the auspices of the Monroe Avenue Methodist church has been arranged for various parts of the West End this evening. Previous gatherings of this nature have proved to be profitable and further meetings throughout the winter season will be held. The meetings scheduled for this evening are as follows: Mrs. Jacobs, 23 Mariners place; Mrs. Dorflinger, Clinton avenue and Fourth street; Mrs. G. D. Blair, 732 South Second street; Mrs. W. H. Stine, 924 West Fifth street; Mrs. Van Pelt, 967 West Third street, Mrs. J. J. Praed, 944 West Sixth street; Mrs. Olla Kline, 760 Clinton avenue.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

For the benefit of Christmas shoppers and sales-girls the association will hold fifteen cent suppers every night starting tonight and ending December 24. All are invited to attend these suppers which are served from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Health Officer N. J. R. Chandler addressed the members of the gym class last night on the subject of "Milk." The talk was very interesting and instructive, and is one of a series that is being given on local health conditions.

The senior Christmas entertainment will be held on the evening of December 30 at 8 o'clock. Plans are also being made for a junior party.

Every Sunday afternoon and Friday night the Fireside Club holds interesting meetings. Christmas stories are being read at present.

The association building will be open all day Christmas Day for the inspection of visitors.

BUILDING NEW HOME.

Contractor William Bird broke ground yesterday, for the erection of a residence on Darow avenue opposite Essex street, for H. T. Treacy, of West Sixth street. It will be of frame construction and cost about $8,000.

FUNERAL OF DAVID P. LEWIS.

The funeral services of David P. Lewis, of South Second street, who died last Saturday, will be held from his late home at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Interment will be made at Laceyville, Pa.

N. P. H. S. NOTES.

There will be a meeting of the "knocks" committee tomorrow evening, to make final arrangements for the "roasts" which are to be given out at the senior Christmas entertainment Friday night.

"Peg" Swart, of the junior class, who has been absent from school for the past four or five weeks, returned yesterday, to resume her studies in the High School.

The senior class has planned another debate for tomorrow, and it has been equally divided to debate on the question. The subject chosen for debate is, "Resolved, that the coast defences of the United States should be increased."

All the students of the Watchung and Somerset Schools have memorized the national anthems, "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner," in preparation for the flag raising exercises Thursday afternoon.

The invitations for the senior Christmas entertainment have been finished and given out to the seniors. The other classes will receive their tickets tomorrow.

Mr. Earley has planned an interesting talk for the biology class tomorrow on specimens of the cross-sections of woods. Mr. Earley has an interesting collection of different specimens and he will use a few of these to illustrate his talk.k

The following committees have recently been appointed in connection with the senior entertainment Friday evening: Decoration, Julia Rowley, chairman; Richard Schroeder, Frank Featherston, Edson Day and Russell Lee; invitations, Hyman Abrams; program, Edson Day and Julia Rowley.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Special Christmas music will be rendered by the choir at Hope chapel next Sunday morning. The Sunday-school will meet at Crescent Avenue church in the afternoon.

The choir of Trinity Reformed church will render Nevin's cantata, "Adoration," next Sunday morning. The exercise will be held at the usual hour in the afternoon, while the evening service will be omitted.

Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, will speak at the mid-week prayer service tomorrow evening on the topic, "The Heroic Life."

The Women's Guild, of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

POSTOFFICE FOR NETHERWOOD

al months and has entailed much hard work on the part of the committeemen. Amendments to the constitution providing for the election of honorary members at the quarterly and annual meeting and the election of chairmen and committees at annual meetings were adopted last night. The name of Rev. Henry Meiser, the new rector of St. Stephen's church, was added to the roster as the first honorary member, and John D. Wolf, of 1552 East Seventh street, made an application for membership which was accepted. Mr. Guttridge reported to the association that a culvert on South avenue below Leland avenue was in bad shape and urged that a report of this be made to the Union County Board of Freeholders.

In his report of the year's work President Stevens reviewed the accomplishments of the organization and said that the present membership numbered about 100 active members.

Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served. Vocal selections were rendered by William B. Smith and Elmer Cutting and humorous recitations were given by Dewitt Paxton.

MRS. LORTON SURPRISED.

Mrs. Amy Lorton, of West Fourth street, was surprised at her home Saturday night by about forty of her friends. The evening was spent in playing games and a musical program was also enjoyed. Refreshments were served during the evening. The affair was arranged by members of the family.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

NEURASTHENIA.

By DR. ALVAH H. DOTY.

During the past few years the public have become familiar with the term "neurasthenia," which in medical parlance means a weakness or exhaustion of the nervous system. However, considerable license has been used in connection with this word, for it is commonly applied to various forms of excitment and fatigue and other conditions which have no special relation to a breakdown of these organs.

The cause of neurasthenia is not difficult to explain, for we have already learned that nature is very tolerant and the resisting power of the body is able to overcome the fatigue caused by extended mental or physical exertion, provided it does not last too long, but if it is continued beyond a certain point the equilibrium is disturbed and the functions of the various organs become impaired, sometimes seriously so. As these changes take place slowly, considerable time is required to develop neurasthenia and recovery is likewise delayed.

Neurasthenia is in itself a functional trouble, i. e., it does not necessarily involve any organic change or destruction of tissue, although the latter condition may indirectly be the underlying cause. This is not the type to which this article refers, but rather to that form which is very common, comparatively mild and ends in complete recovery provided those who are affected will aid in securing this result, for there is no malady the cure of which is so largely in the hands of the patient as neurasthenia.

It is quite true that those of a nervous or excitable temperament, which is in itself more or less exhausting, are more susceptible to neurasthenia than those of a different disposition; yet it will attack almost anyone who is continually unmindful and careless of the limits of endurance of the human body. Those who are affected with neurasthenia usually become irritable, unreasonable, and as a rule are not pleasant companions; however, this should be attributed to the unsteady and tired condition of the nervous system. For this reason also neurasthenics are constantly seeking treatment for ailments the greater part of which are imaginary.

There is but little to be said here regarding the treatment of the ordinary case of neurasthenia to which this article refers beyond the statement that the agent which more than any other is to be avoided except in some special instances is medicine. It is very difficult for physicians to impress patients with this fact. This refers particularly to headache cures, for these are composed chiefly of coal tar products, which are very depressing to the heart and nervous system, although they may afford temporary relief. Neurasthenic patients should know that recovery will take place if they lead a quiet and regular life without excitement, eat good nutritious although plain and simple food, in order that the minimum amount of work will be thrown upon the digestive tract which is almost always disabled in this affection, take proper care of the skin and indulge in judicious exercise. All of these details should be under the direction of a physician.

The lesson which may be learned from this discussion is that neurasthenia is due commonly to an improper mode of living and a disregard of the rules of personal hygiene rather than overwork or overstudy, and those who are closely confined in occupations which are more or less exhausting may be reasonably sure that they will not suffer from neurasthenia if they are careful to observe the laws of health.—New York Telephone Review.

What Is a Telephone?

Referring to the article "Telephone" by Joseph Husband in the September issue of the Atlantic Monthly, the New York Telephone Review says:

"From time to time a writer with a vision which sees beyond the thing itself and past the imagination is able to describe what the telephone really is. The public regard the telephone in as many ways as individual experiences have demonstrated its usefulness. The men and women employed in the industry often regard the telephone from the standpoint of the work of the department on which they are engaged. It is time that we, all of us, should enlarge our vision and behold the telephone in its entirety, not only the details of the business, its opportunities and possibilities, but also its meaning.

"There is nothing that enters so completely and fully into the lives of everybody as the telephone, and once it has entered it becomes indispensable. Who is there that sometimes does not need to send a quick message and receive an immediate answer; when time and distance must be bridged; when the voice of the speaker and the ear of the hearer must be brought together, it may be across a thousand miles, for weal or woe? Without the telephone, organized society as it exists today would not have been possible nor could it hold together.

"How can all this be true? Because the telephone consists not only of the instruments and wires and poles and mechanism which can be seen, and upon which a tangible value can be placed, but also of the invisible and invaluable intelligence and trained ability, the devotion and courage, and the other qualities of the men and women who transform these inanimate things that have been created and designed for the purpose by the brains of genius, and placed them at the service of the public."—New York Telephone Review.

This fire substantiated the fact that a building of brick or concrete construction is not fire proof. It also showed that even great minds are short sighted in not protecting their investment with adequate insurance.

ROSELLE TROUNCED BY P. H. S. QUINTET

Locals Annex Their First Victory in Low Game by a Score of 34 to 13.

The boys' basketball team of the Plainfield High School defeated the team of Roselle High School, on the local court yesterday afternoon by the score of 34 to 13. The game was much closer than the score would indicate. Both teams battled evenly throughout the first half of the game when the score stood at 10 points each. The Plainfield boys familiarity with the court gave advantage over their opponents and they soon drew away from the Roselle team, only allowing them three more points in the last three-quarters of the game.

A field goal by Captain H. Davies was the only points made by Roselle in the second half, while the Plainfield team dropped the ball in seven times.

Roselle scored first blood, when Martin caged a field goal in the first minute of play. Chamberlain came right back with a goal from the field for the home team. A goal by Captain McNamee gave Plainfield the lead at the start off of the second half and they were not headed off throughout the rest of the contest.

WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT THAT SWIMMING MEET

The following communication has been received from a Westfield aquatic star and is only one of the many endorsements of our swimming pool.

Sporting Editor:

I understand that a swimming meet is to be held in Plainfield in the near future. As I desire to enter, I would thank you to send me the date of same or any other information as to the requirements, with entrance blank. Thanking you for advising me regarding the above, I remain

Yours truly,

Plainfield Eagles will meet the Rahway "birds" on the latter's alleys tomorrow night.

SIX TEAM LEAGUE MAY BE ORGANIZED

Allan Snyder, Hope Manager, Starts Plan for Good Basketball Circuit.

With the object in view of increasing basketball interest in this city and vicinity, Allan Snyder, manager of the Hope chapel basketball team, has undertaken the organization of a six-team league to be composed of teams from this city, Dunellen, Bound Brook and Somerville. Snyder is of the belief that if such an organization were started that the attendance would be increased, more interest would be aroused and the teams run at a minimum expense. The teams that the local manager has written to are Company M, of Somerville; Y. M. A., of Bound Brook; Baraca Class, of Dunellen, Y. M. C. A. and Hope chapel, of this city, and the Parish House, of Scotch Plains. As this last named team is not playing this season another one would have to be substituted, possibly a Westfield aggregation.

A schedule could be made up and the playing started early in January, which would give ample time for the completion of a good list of games. Snyder's idea is to have each team play two games a week, one at home and one on opponent's court, which would keep things livened up and maintain interest in the league. The winner will receive a cup purchased by the league. In case sufficient interest is shown in the league idea a meeting will be called within ten days and the circuit organized.

SPORT SCRIBES' OPINIONS

The good shooting exhibition given by Miss Ruth Morris, of Plainfield High School, in a game against the Battin sextet, Friday afternoon, comes nearer being a record than any performance seen on a basketball court hereabouts this season. Eighteen fouls were called on the Battin lassies in their game at Plainfield, and sixteen of these were converted into points by the able work of Miss Morris. There are no available records which might give the exact rating of this Plainfield lassie's performance, but even were such figures to be unearthed it is almost a certainty that they would show no better work for a single game by any one High School maid, and there are not many boys who can boast of a better mark.
—By Jay, Elizabeth Daily Journal.

If memory serves us aright, Rahway High School basketball players are going to have a pleasant time of it when they take on Woodbridge High School five, December 20. Woodbridge met North Plainfield, Friday night, and during the contest sixty-two fouls were called on the warring quintets. Guess Woodbridge laddies must still be putting up their pet "dumbbell" brand of basketball.

LAW SCHOOL TEAM HERE NEW YEARS

Ban Has Been Lifted and the Local Y. M. C. A. Five Notified.

Plainfield "fans" who have been looking forward to a basketball clash between the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. and New York University Law School quintets, two keen rivals of previous years, will be given their opportunity New Year's night. Some trouble arising in the law school camp several days ago came within an ace of blotting that team off the map and it was announced that the New Yorkers would not be able to appear here. Since then, however, an agreement has been arrived at and the following letter explains the situation:

Sporting Editor:

At a meeting of the Students' Athletic Council of New York University, at which the downtown schools were present, and in particular the law school, which was represented by Ira M. Greene, manager; Maurice Sutta, captain; Joseph I. Katsh, assistant manager; Max Bollt and Adrian Block, the following points were brought out in argument by the law committee, for the centralization of athletics and against disbanding the law school team:

1. Law students need recreation.

2. University Heights gymnasium a two hours' ride from Washington Square.

3. Practice of basketball at Heights held at 7:30 p. m., when law school and school of commerce are in session.

4. There are 5,000 students in downtown schools who should be accorded more consideration, whereas Heights only boast of 700 members.

5. Games scheduled by law school are all contracted for. Coach Helfant is under contract to direct the basketball team of law school.

After listening to arguments the result of the meeting was as follows:

1. Law school to be permitted to carry out and execute all contracts for games on schedule.

2. To carry out contract with Coach Helfant.

3. Law school have a professor of their school to be a member of faculty athletic committee.

4. That law students have a member of their school on StudentAthletic Council; also same representation be accorded to Commerce, Bellevue Medical, Washington Square College departments.

5. Chancelor Brown spoke in favor of unifying athletic teams and commended spirit in law school.

6. That the insignia be removed from uniforms of law school basketball teams.

TWO GAMES FOR BOROUGH AGGREGATION THIS WEEK

Manager Duclos VanMater has arranged two games for the boys' team this week, the first to be played Thursday afternoon at Saengerbund Hall against the Kearny H. S. aggregation. This will be the second meeting of the season for these two teams, the first, which was the initial game for the boroughites, being closely contested and a well-earned victory for the locals. There was only three points difference in the score. The game was originally scheduled for Friday, but because of the senior Christmas entertainment on that night the hall cannot be used.

Another game has been changed from tomorrow afternoon to Saturday afternoon, the Somerville team coming here on that date for the first match for the county championship between these two schools. North Plainfield already has one game to its credit for this title, having walloped Bernardsville recently. The girls' team is playing in Cranford this afternoon.

IS IRELAND A NATION?

Is Ireland a "foreign country?" This may sound like a pretty foolish question, but it may cause considerable dispute among officials of the Amateur Athletic Union within the next few days. If the officials decide that Ireland is really a foreign country they will have to refuse the entry of Pat Flynn, of the Irish-American A. C., for the two-mile run in the junior national indoor championship meet to be held in the Thirteenth Regiment Armory in Brooklyn, on December 29.

PATERSON LEADERS GET LICKED AT NEW BRUNSWICK

ELKS' LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	H.S.
Paterson	19	11	1035
Jersey City	15	12	1070
New Brunswick	13	11	1039

Rutherford	12	15	997
Rahway	9	12	956
Plainfield	9	15	975

Paterson bowlers, who are showing the way in the Elks' Senior League, encountered a big setback, last night, when they dropped three games in a row in a league match on the New Brunswick Elks' alleys. The latter are now tied with the Elizabeths for third place, just a shade behind the Jersey City team. In the last game of last night's match the New Brunswicks came through with 1,036. The visitors also did their best work in this game, having a score of 957.

In the first game the home five was there for 926 and it followed with 967, easily distancing the visitors in each contest. McCormack led the home five with 232, Harkins had 222, Burton 213, Coyne 218 and 201 for an average of 204.2. Greenwald went through the three games with only one missed spare, that being on the No. 4 pin in the first frame of the last game. Taylor tallied 215 for Paterson, Anderson had 201 and Wright an even 200.

The scores:

PATERSON.

Ernest	177	168	192

CARLSTROM FIELDED .987 IN INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Official fielding average of the International League for last season, give Albin Carlstrom, formerly a local player, who played first base for the Buffalo club, an average of .987. During the season he took part in 54 games, made 482 putouts, 30 assists, and 8 errors. He ranks fifth among the first basemen of the league.

The highest man was of the Jersey City team, with a mark of .990, and the next three players were tied for second place with an average of .988.

LOCALS AND WESTFIELD ON RAHWAY H. S. SCHEDULE

Eighteen games appear on the schedule of the Rahway High School basketball five and it is one of the hardest a Rahway aggregation has ever had to play. The first game will be staged on December 30, with Woodbridge at Rahway. The Plainfield and Westfield High School teams appear on this schedule twice. The local quintet will meet the Rahway five on the latter's court on January 6 and a return game will be played Friday, February 19.

Rahway will appear at Westfield on January 15, and the second meeting of these two teams is booked for March 5 at Rahway. Among the veterans who are well-known in this city and the borough are "Monk" Armstrong, captain; "Doc" Armstrong, Alfred Brooks and George Schweitzer.

TO BANQUET RAHWAY CHAMPS.

The Board of Trade of Rahway will tender the Rahway High School football eleven an elaborate banquet Friday night, in honor of the excellent showing made by the team on the gridiron this fall. Coach Short's boys did not lose a game and they gave the little town of Rahway a barrel of publicity. There will be speeches by the president of the Board of Trade, the principal of Rahway High School, Head Coach Walter E. Short and Captain Fay Rossell.

OFF FOR "SUNNY" SOUTH.

Jack Wilson, captain of the Holy Cross football team, left this morning for Tampa, Florida, where he has taken a position for the winter months.

Peacocks	2	4	.333	973
Quails	1	5	.167	818

The Sparrows advanced from last place to a second rung tie and the Quails fell into full possession of the cellar berth as a result of the Sparrow-Quail match in the Columbus Club five-man bowling tournament, last night, when the former took three straight games from the Quails, the last two games being about the most exciting of the tourney. The Quails were off their game in the initial roll and were almost 10[illegible] points in the rear at the end of the game. Regan started off with a 18[illegible] for the Sparrows and Howe finished up for this team with a 214, which went for high score of the match. The Quails' highest match was 193 made by Cannon. The scores were 901 to 816.

The Sparrows fell way down in the second game and only managed to win out by 11 counts, the scores being 832 to 821. Howe again rolled high for the Sparrows, getting a 18[illegible] this time, while Doyle, of the opposing team, hit the pins for a count of 196. With two games against them the Quails received the support of all the rooters present and they almost took the last game as a result of the cheering. Two very low scores by Quail pinners helped greatly to pull down the team score and the Sparrows made it three straight by four points. The score of this game was 786 to 782.

BENEDICTS LICK SINGLE MEN IN BOWLING MATCH

The married men beat the bachelors up so bad in the first two games of the scheduled match on Gates' borough alleys, last night, that the third was not played, the single men admitting that the benedicts had it on them in the bowling line. Walter Conover and George Gates were the best pinners for the married men, the former getting two 191 scores.

The score of the first game was 830 to 758. Connolly and Luthman did the best pinning for the losing team. Gates rolled high score in the last game when he chalked up a 194.

The scores follow:

NETHERWOOD YOUNGSTERS UNBEATEN DURING SEASON

Juvenile footballists living in the Netherwood section have an aggregation which they claim will some day develop into a world beater, having just completed their season's schedule without encountering a single reverse. During the year the junior pigskin chasers annexed six victories and engaged in three ties at the expense of the cream of junior football talent in this section.

Kenneth Guttridge is the captain of the squad and Hamilton Wilmerding has handled the managerial reins throughout the successful campaign. The members of the eleven include Wilmerding, Egge, Brennan and Horan, backs; Wilson, centre; Stevens and Campbell, guards; Delehanty and N. Mullen, tackles, and Guilberg and R. Mullen, ends.

Scattered Sport Gleanings

Dissatisfaction was evident Saturday night among spectators at the Y. M. C. A. basketball games over the action of the management in staging a series of three contests, two preliminaries being played prior to the big attraction. Minor attractions, as a rule, prove irksome to the gallery gods, and the ones Saturday night fell far short of being of the brilliant variety. The big game furnished all that could be desired in the way of amusement but the spectators had lost considerable of their stored up interest by the time the whistle sounded for the big tilt. The specators were not alone in their protests, however, for the players were equally as expressive in their views against the fattened bill.

Ralph Runyon continues to float the Queen City colors to the fore in Metropolitan meets, his latest achievement being the capture of third place in the high jump in a big festival Saturday night.

Official Junior League averages issued by Secretary V. W. Nash, Jr., indicate that the Plainfield colts are doing some good work on the Elks' infant circuit. Occupying third place in the team rating and some significant positions in the individual standings the Queen City wood-splitters are greatly in evidence in the initial statistics.

Two reverses at the start-off is rather discouraging to a basketball team, especially those of the calibre handed to the Plainfield High School boys. Somerville's verdict was a disheartening one because of the slim margin by which it was annexed and the one Saturday night was a great blow because it was administered by an aggregation that appeared to be far out of the High School class. It's about time the red and blue youngsters pulled together and started the ball rolling on the path to victory.

Senior League pinners are having a merry run for the individual average trophy in the Elks' organization this season. Each week a shift occurs in the standings and the race appears to be anybody's at the present time.

Haven't heard much from the basketball bugs in Dunellen this year. Heretofore the indoor sport has been given considerable prominence among the suburban sportsmen, but this year the contests have been few and far between. Why not launch a little boom along this line?

Y. W. C. A. TEAM WILL MEET P. G. C. SEXTET

Good Attraction Will Be Staged in Plainfield High School Gym Tomorrow.

The Y. W. C. A. basketball team will play its second game of the season on the Plainfield High School court, tomorrow night, when it will meet the Plainfield Gym Club team, which is under the supervision of the Recreation Committee and meets every Wednesday night. The association girls won their first game of the season last Saturday night over the borough High School quintet and are looking for another victory tomorrow night.

The same players that were used in the borough game are slated to play this game. The public is invited to atend this game which will start at 8:30 o'clock. The teams will lineup as follows:

March 6, Orange vs. Red.
March 13, White vs. Blue.

ENDRESS WON EVENT.

Endress won the three standing broad jump event of the Indian League at the Y. M. C. A., yesterday, with a mark of 20 feet, 5 inches. He is a member of the Sioux team. Doane, of the Omaha, and Smith, of the Sioux, were second and third respectively, with marks of 20 feet, 2 inches, and 19 feet, 8 inches.

ASURE DIDN'T SHOW UP.

The Azure bowling team failed to meet its appointment with the Anchor pinners on the Second street alleys, last night, and the locals will probably claim the match by forfeit.

SOMERVILLE REDFERNS WON FIRST LEG OF SOCCER CUP

The Redfern soccer team, of Somerville, won the first round of the New Jersey State soccer tournament Saturday afternoon, by defeating the Freehold eleven by the score of 4 to 0. There was not a weak spot in the Somerville team, which played together like clockwork. If they can display the same excellent form in the other ties, they will assuredly lift the cup.

The teams lined up as follows:

Redferns		Freehold
Davis	goal	Robinson
Peat	R. B.	Rew
J. Hunt	L. B.	Lovey
Grundy	R. H. B.	Jones
A. Hunt	C. H. B.	Wilson

COLUMBUS CLUB BOWLING.

The schedule for the rdemainder of the week in the Columbus Five-man Tournament is as follows: Tomorrow night, Peacocks vs. Crows; Friday, Parrots vs. Robins.

NINTH CAVALRY EXPECTED.

Naco, Arizona, Dec. 15—The remainder of the Ninth Cavalry is expected to arrive here soon, a good part of the regiment having been on patrol duty with Naco as a base for some time. A number of bullets, some shrapnel balls and at least one shell fell on American soil today, fired from the guns of the Mexican bands which have been fighting just across the line for several weeks.

BANK STOCK SOLD.

Twenty-five shares of the capital stock of the First National Bank of Plainfield, owned by the Dunellen Realty Company, which is dissolving, were sold at auction yesterday in the law offices of Nelson M. Runyon, of this city, one of its officers, at $143 a share. The sale is said to have been made to one of the interested heirs.

WAR NEWS

Paris, Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—Enver Pasha, the Turkish minister of war, has refused to take command of the Turkish army in the Caucasus.

The French war office gave out the following statement at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

"Between the sea and Lys the English have captured a small forest to the west of Wytschaete. The ground gained yesterday by our troops along the Yser Canal and to the west of Hollebeke has been held despite a vigorous counter attack by the enemy. From the Belgian frontier to the Somme there is nothing to report.

"From the Somme to the Argonne there have been intermittent cannonades, not very violent except in the region of Crouy. In the Argonne we have made some progress and maintained our advance of previous days.

"In the Vosges the railroad station at St. Leonard, south of St. Die, has been violently bombarded at long range by the Germans. In Alsace the enemy's artillery is showing great activity, except at Steinbach, where an attack by German infantry, starting from Uffholtz, was able to gain a foothold. We have maintained everywhere our former progress."

The son of the German imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, was badly wounded at Perskoff and was taken prisoner by the Russians, according to a despatch from Rome to a news agency here.

If any doubt still exists as to the deliberate intention of Germany to force war upon Europe it will be dispelled by the statement made by several Britishers who have just arrived from Shanghai. Germans in the Far East declare they were advised on May 18 that immediately there was any indication of war between Germany and any other power or powers they were to proceed at once to Tsing Tau. "When at the end of July they were ordered to depot themselves at the fortress they went around to the various clubs to say 'god bye' to their English friends. They were," say the Englishmen, "the cream of the business men of the German empire. They said they knew that Japan would come in with the Allies, and that very few of them would live through the siege."

It is estimated that there must have been about seven thousand men in the fortress when the bombardment commenced. The Far East is just beginning to realize what the war means. A few weeks ago the general opinion there was that it would all be over in two months. Now it is realized that it is going to be a long job. Trade has been virtually killed and the outlook is generally very bad.

Berne, Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—An operation on the Kaiser's throat has been decided to be necessary, but the operation cannot be performed immediately because of his high fever, according to a despatch from Munich. The recall of the German crown prince, Frederick Wilhelm, from the front to his father's bedside has been confirmed.

Rotterdam, Dec. 15.—The epidemic of typhoid among the Germans is spreading, according to despatches received here. It is said that there are now more than a thousand Germans ill with typhoid fever at Courtrai, but a few miles back of the battle line.

Rome, Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—Both French and Russian infantry are fighting in the armies of Servia and Montenegro, according to a despatch from Prague to the Giornale D Italia. A despatch from Cettinje declares that the Montenegrin army has again crossed the frontier into Bosnia and again occupies, for several miles, the railway line which runs from Vishegrad to Serajevo, having captured the former town, taking a number of prisoners and a quantity of food and clothing.

A fourth Italian dreadnaught, the Conte Cavour, will be ready in February, and a fifth and sixth will be completed soon after that.

Berlin, Dec. 15 (Via wireless to London.)—The following official statement has been issued at army headquarters: "Light attacks by the French on parts of our positions between the River Meuse and the Vosges Mountains were easily repulsed. Otherwise there is nothing of importance to be reported from the western theatre of war. From East Prussia and Southern Poland there is nothing to report. In Northern Poland our operations are taking their normal course."

According to a statement issued by the official press bureau, the Turkish cruised Midirli, formerly the Breslau, has bombarded Sebastopol.

Johannesburg, S. A., Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—It is semi-officially stated that the government does not intend to go to extremes in the policy of leniency with the leaders of the recent Boer revolt, including General Christian DeWet and Lieut.-Colonel Maritz, but that they will be made to realize the full gravity of their offense.

Copenhagen, Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—Gustaf V, King, of Sweden, has invited Haakon VII, of Norway, and Christian X, King of Denmark, to meet him at Malmo, a fortified town of Sweden, December 18 and December 19. The monarchs will be accompanied by their foreign means to limit the economical difficulties that have been caused by the war.

Athens, Dec. 15 (Central News Cable).—The Nea Hellas says there is reason to believe that Roumania will declare war on Austria before the end of December.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The whereabouts of the German cruiser Cormoran, one of the few left in the Pacific, was established today when Captain Maxwell, governor of the Island of Guam, reported the arrival there to the Navy Department. The warship was short of coal, provisions and water. Captain Maxwell was prepared to furnish it with only a limited supply, and served notice on its commander that it must leave the harbor within twenty-four hours or intern.

When Ladies Wore Masks.

In the seventeenth century ladies wore masks in public, and great was the variety of face screens that were seen. Ladies who had "coralline" lips preferred short masks, as was natural. For others who wished to hide the lower part of the face the mask was completed by a chin piece of linen, which afterward passed under the chin and over the ears. In 1632 a new mask called the mimi, from the Italian mimics, was all the rage and threatened to usurp the place of the black one. It was even the cause of violent quarrels between the ladies who held to the latter and those who preferred the latest novelty. Some years later it became the fashion to trim the upper part of the mask with a ruche of lace, to lengthen it with a beard of the same material and even to cover it more or less with lace to the borders of the eyeholes. Young ladies of this period, however, frequently contented themselves with covering the face simply with a piece of black crape for coquetry's sake and to appear the fairer.

The Boy Told Them.

"An odd incident happened in Albany a number of years ago, when I was a member of the legislature," said a judge. "One day for some reason a member wanted to verify a certain passage from the Ten Commandments, but when a Bible was handed him he did not know where to look. Neither did any of his colleagues know. Nearly everybody was aware that the divine laws were somewhere hidden away in the Old Testament, but this was the end of the combined knowledge of the assembly. At this juncture a meek faced little page, a youngster of some twelve summers, piped up that if the gentleman would look in the twentieth chapter of Exodus he would find the commandments. It was a rather disconcerting thing that a chamber of grown men had to acknowledge the superior information of a child."

Immune.

A mounted policeman riding through Central park came upon some little girls picking handfuls of flowers.

"Hurry up," he heard them say. "Teacher's liable to catch up any minute."

Dismounting from his horse, he grasped one child by the arm.

"Stop it!" he thundered. "You know it's against the law to pick the park flowers! Why, I could arrest you for this, and I'm not at all sure that I won't go ahead and do my duty!"

The small girl wriggled from his grasp. "Oh, stop your fussing and go along!" she said contemptuously as she watched a tall woman hurrying along the path. "You can't pinch us. Why, we're pinched already. We all come from the reform school."—Everybody's.

The Sport of Kings.

In very early times some kings, having made war, went forth in person to fight the battles, ignorantly supposing there was no other way.

But they had not proceeded far till they were swept aside by a great multitude rushing to the front.

"Who are you?" asked the kings, in no small curiosity.

"We? Why, we're the precious fools who are always ready to make somebody else's quarrel our own—patriots in short!" replied the multitude.

"Precious, indeed!" chuckled the kings, and risked their skins no more.—New York Post.

The Hydraulic Ram

She was a pretty girl and was, with her escort, watching a piece of engineering work that was being done about a new bridge. Every once in awhile there came a peculiar grinding noise whose organ she could not locate.

"Jim, what makes that noise?" she asked.

"Oh, that's the hydraulic ram."

"For the land's sake! Where do they keep him?"—Indianapolis News.

"Beware of Greeks."

"Coulter certainly is generous with that car of his. He has offered to teach me how to run it and lend it to me for an entire day."

"Yes? He lent it to me the last time a part was wearing out. Of course I had to replace it when the thing broke down."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Her Discovery.

Small Eloise came home from her first day at school eager to show her mother the physical exercises she had learned.

"It's called fistical culture, mamma," she explained. "'cause you do nearly all of it with your fists."—Chicago News.

Barbers in China.

In China the barbers carry tools, small tubs, razors and scissors about the streets, stopping on the sidewalk to perform their work, just as scissors grinders do in America.

Trade In Plainfield and Grow With Us

The growth of a city depends largely on the amount of money spent within its borders. Are YOU buying in Plainfield? Are YOU selecting our own men to do your work instead of outsiders? Are YOU helping Plainfield to grow? Ask yourself this question. Are you?

Plainfield is one of the prettiest cities in New Jersey. She can point with pride to her magnificent High School, excellent graded schools, elegant homes and beautiful streets. What have you done? If you take Plainfield money and spend it in other cities, are you helping Plainfield to grow? Spend your money home where you and your children are enjoying the splendor of our city. Do YOUR part for a better and bigger Plainfield.

Interesting to Men--But to Women

The question of cultivation of good taste in a home means the purchase of whatever improves the appearance, comfort and welfare of every one connected with it. The woman is the purchasing agent of the American home; keenly interested in high grade merchandise and table goodies; the kind presented by Plainfield merchants, backed by prompt courteous attention, a stock of large variety to select from, and prices that are no higher than the stores of other cities.

Trading in Plainfield is the easiest, safest, and most profitable, and when you purchase an article that is not entirely satisfactory you experience no difficulty in having it exchanged or your money refunded. On the other hand, can an article purchased in stores in these other cities afford you the same protection as our Plainfield merchants? Sometimes an article can be exchanged, but then it is necessary to have it travel 20 or 25 miles back to the store where you purchased it, and the second selection forwarded to you, and if you wern't fortunate enough to make a second selection on the day you did your shopping you are either obliged to make it from a catalog or take another trip yourself to straighten the matter out. Do your shopping in your home town and avoid any unnecessary risks or delays. Help your city to grow.

JUNIORS TO HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET IN NEW BRUNSWICK

The Middlesex Past Councilors' Association of the Jr. O. U. A. M., met last evening at Friendship Hall, New Market, when 100 of the members were present. Routine business featured the gathering, during which it was decided to hold the annual banquet at the lecture rooms of the church at New Brunswick, of which Rev. J. Morgan Read, State treasurer of the order, is pastor.

Among the speakers of the evening were Judge Rene vonMonden, State Councilor, and Past State Councilor William B. LaRue, of Bound Brook. Refreshments were served by a committee of New Market lodge members.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Compton and daughter, Ida May, of Metuchen, have returned after spending the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Terry, of East Sixth street.

MAKE YOURS A PUBLIC SERVICE STORE

This is the age of service. The rewards of today go to the men who give the most in return.

Translated for you, Mr. Merchant, this means that the customers are certain to patronize the store that will give them what they want when they want it.

Cut prices may bring some trade, but better service will bring more.

This is the age when people are reading the advertising in their daily newspapers because they are finding it a distinct part of the service they expect their newspapers to give.

When a nationally distributed article of merit is advertised in the newspapers a demand for it sets in right away.

People want to see it and, if satisfied, want to buy it.

They are going to turn to the store that lets them know it has the article. That store will be giving them the service they want at that particular moment.

If it is a good article they are going to remember the store where they got it and will come back to that store again.

Co-operate with the manufacturers who come into the newspapers of your town to exploit their goods and you will be building business for

RECREATION NOTES

The Messiah is to be given tonight at High School auditorium by the Choral Society and the Symphony Orchestra. The soloists will be from New York. This is the biggest undertaking of the Public Recreation Committee and no one should fail to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing this wonderful oratorio at such a nominal fee.

In the High School gymnasium tonight the young men will meet with Mr. Patch, the phyiscal director. This gymnasium class is proving to be very popular. The swimming pool is to be thrown open to members of the class for a very small additional fee.

The colored people are to gather at the Stillman School this evening where a gymnasium class for girls is to be conducted. The men's club is to meet down stairs and a special meeting of the Dunbar Club is to be held in one of the rooms on the ground floor.

Tomorrow evening the Girls' Athletic Club is to play the Y. W. C. A. basketball team at the High School gymnasium. The public is invited. It is hoped that new interest will be stimulated in girls' athletics and that both clubs will receive new members in consequence. The Girls' Athletic Club which meets each Wednesday evening at the High School gym offers to the girls regular class gymnastics, folk dancing, games and athletics. New members will be very welcome.

FIVE OFFIECERS EXECUTED.

Washington, Dec. 15—A despatch from American Consul Silliman, in Mexico City, announces the summary execution of five officers who had served under President Huerta. Consul Silliman failed to indicate whether the orders for the execution were issued by General Villa or General Zapata.

SETTLEMENT EXPECTED.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Settlement of the Colorado strike situation is expected tomorrow, when Governor Ammon will consult with President Wilson concerning it. The conference probably will have to do with the withdrawal or retention of Federal troops now in the strike zone.

800 IMPRISONED IN MINE.

Tokio, Dec. 15.—An explosion in a coal mine at Fu Kuaka, a seacoast town, sixty-five miles to the north of Nagasaki, today imprisoned 800 laborers. It is feared many

OUR NEW YORK LETTER

Tuesday, December 15th, 1914.

There is a Book Shop in New York wn where one may step from the stle and noise of Fifth Avenue and etly browse in comfort among a lect host of really desirable friends. e Little Book Shop around the cor- r, 2 E. 29th St.—opposite the "Little urch"—is a shop that is different. e Mosher Books of 1914, marked their rare simplicity and perfection expression, are members of this semblage, those of us to whom liter- ure is a passion— an affair of the art more than the head—will find en pleasure and deep interest here.

Christmas Gifts and Wedding Pres- ts abound at either of the fine OSEPH HEINRICH'S SHOPS, 461 fth Avenue and 984 Broadway. autiful and useful pieces in bronze, pper or nickel, in immense variety. mbination Tea and Coffee Sets, con- sting of percolator and tea pot, sugar wl, cream jug and tray—with either cohol or electric heating device lectric $4.50 extra). Prices from 9 up. Then there are the handsome pper or bronze Cocktail Sets, with aker and six cocktail holders with ass shells, at $17.50. Such presents these are always really appreciated, d afford long lasting remembrance a friend's thoughtfulness.

At Gimbels I saw the most fascinat- g assortment of beautiful French anicure Sets in morocco and pressed orocco cases. These will make ideal hristmas gifts. Prices begin at $2.50, r which may be procured a beauti- l folding case containing a set of ree fine steel manicure scissors, in aded sizes, while for $5 choice is nerous indeed. Glossy saffian ather cases in violet, salmon, cadet ue, tan and other new shades; lined ith moire silk and fitted with the ll quota of manicure instruments of he steel with French ivory handles- ou would never expect to pay so nall a price as $5 for any one of hese. Now—you gift seekers, this one of the best suggestions I've of- red so far. You will find them on he main floor next to the jewelry ections.

I hear that Madame Coughlin, ounder of the famous "Mending hop," is going to discontinue her eady-to-wear gown department, as er special order work demands all of r attention. She will dispose of 5,000 worth of the season's smartest rocks—for every occasion—Waists, eckwear and Serge Dresses, at a ower price than she paid wholesale. his should be valuable information or women in need of a larger ward- obe, or even to dealers themselves in nd around New York. I've seen the tock and it is very excellent. Dresses rom $3.50. Waists from $1. 20 Vest 31st Street.

A certain combination of manufac- urers are holding a very large fur ale in quite a small shop on Fifth venue, at 42d St., where the most stonishing values are being offered— 04 is the number—(the only fur tore in the block). Everything in urs from the modest pelts to regal ables, at prices, which are, owing to eather conditions, European con- licts and many other unfortunate cir- umstances, only half what they hould be. A golden opportunity for he gift seeker. Mr. Lindau, well nown in the fur trade, has charge f this sale, so values are dependable.

"Holland," the place of delightful uncheons and afternoon teas. Quiet, estful and spotless. Cooking excel- ent, while prices are surprisingly nodest. The decorative scheme of vory and delft blue is in keeping with he pretty blue uniforms of the spic nd span attendants. The Holland is haven of rest for those tired-out Christmas shoppers. 30 West 34th Street.

It's a pleasure to choose gifts at the BOSTON ANTIQUE SHOP, 275 Fifth Avenue (opposite the Holland House), so choice are the things one finds, especially in the "Paul Revere" Silver Table Pieces, graceful Flower Vases, Tea Sets, Platters, Punch Bowls, etc., from $2 up to $75 each. Also a fine selection of antique furniture, many pieces of which have come from the famous old homes of Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Prices are not exorbitant.

What better than Handkerchiefs for Christmas, and where better to go for them than to the GRAND MAISON De BLANC, 538-540 Fifth Avenue. All the advantage of superb service, and wonderful selection with prices not a bit higher than elsewhere. Handkerchiefs, expertly chosen, whether it be a set of six finely initialed at $1.50, or lovely real lace handkerchiefs at $1.50 each.

Tons of fun, at the beautiful toy shop on the fourth floor of Lord & Taylor's. Never has this shop presented such great assortment. Mechanical toys for the boys who love things that go, and sweet dollies for motherly little ladies to dress and undress. The toymakers of this great big world have sent their best productions, and their ingenuity fairly makes one gasp. New wooly animal without sharp corners to hurt the children. Games by the thousand. Dolls' furniture, carriages, roller skates, ice skates and every article of dolls apparel, at almost every price. Be sure that the children see the "Kewpie" Village. There is one very important fact about this great toy shop and that is the special reductions that are now offered on all the toys. Don't miss seeing the life-like Fur Monkeys, in all sizes, from $3.50 to $20 each.

There is little time left to ply the needle for dainty Christmas gifts, but a peep into Lane Bryant's Smart Shop, 25 West 38th St., will save you the trouble and the desire. Charming boudoir apparel of dainty silks and filmy laces, from the short dressing Sacque of Crepe de Chine at $3, up to the many beautiful and elaborate Tea Gowns at almost any price. The values would be very difficult to equal anywhere I know.

Women who wish to have hemstitching or pleating well and quickly done should write to Mehrlust and Grossman for their attractive booklet of prices and instructions, how to prepare materials. This is a very dependable place, and a fine stock of laces, trimmings and buttons are kept on hand. Address 3460 Broadway, at 141st Street.

Evening Wraps and Luxurious Furs are bringing very little prices this week at the Semi-Annual Clearance Sale of Maison Maurice, Fifth Avenue at 43d St. At this very smart shop one may be sure of authentic style and absolutely reliable furs. Many a beautiful Christmas present may be selected at magnificent savings. Dainty Crepe de Chine Negligees, which were $15, will be $9.75 this week. Purchases made before Christmas need not be paid for until February if preferred.

If you could go to a very exclusive shop and be sure of getting quite the newest styles and colors in Men's Neckties at 50c each, you wouldn't hesitate, would you? Well, you needn't, for I have discovered this very place. Not only for most exclusive neckwear in rich materials, at 50c up, but for Men's Shirts, beautifully made to order for $2.50 up. It's just a step off Fifth Avenue, Doyle & Black, at 45 West 46th St.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

The Adventures Of the Christmas Box.

Its Cover Fell Off and There Jumped Out a Beautiful Fairy.

"'I'D much rather stay right here in this window and watch the sights than to be sent away, goodness knows where,' grumbled the little box to the big box, beside which it was standing in a big shop window on Broadway." Daddy had begun his evening story to Jack and Evelyn.

"'Well,' said the big box, 'for my part I'd like to go away in that Christmas ship that is being sent overseas.'

"'What,' screamed the little box at the top of her tiny voice: 'go over there to that awful place where people are killing one another! Why, the submarines might blow us up before we got there, and if they didn't, good gracious, the Zeppelins might catch us!'

"And the little box shook with fright until its cover fell off and there jumped out a beautiful fairy.

"'I am the spirit of Christmas,' said the fairy, 'and every box that is made has one in it. The only reason I got out was because the little box grumbled and shook so. That box is no place for me.'

"The fairy spirit of Christmas shook out her small skirts, wrinkled her little forehead and pointed her star tipped wand rebukingly at the little box.

"'Why, you ought to be glad to be sold and packed with something for those poor little mites overseas and to brave the dangers of sea and air for the sake of bringing happiness to some poor child that otherwise wouldn't have any Christmas present.

"'Aren't you ashamed of yourself to be so afraid? To think of their having given me such a fraid cat little box to live in!'

"The beautiful fairy spirit of Christmas leveled her wand at the little box, and it began to shrivel.

"First the pretty paper with which the cardboard was covered peeled right off; then the cardboard began to crumble, and there before the astonished gaze of the other boxes it utterly disappeared.

"Then the fairy spirit of Christmas stood in the center of the window and made a little speech.

"'I may seem cruel to you,' she began, 'for having destroyed the little box, but you see the little box had lost its spirit, and when your spirit is gone you die.'

"At this last word the spirit of Christmas unfolded its wings and flew right through the plate glass window, and the last the other boxes saw of it it was perched upon the arm of a very rich man trying to get into his pocket."

"I wonder if it got in?" asked Jack.

"Perhaps," said daddy.

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

The great white stagecoach from Jasper came into town with a flourish and its driver cast the lines on the backs of the four smoking horses. The town gathered about him as he sprang to the platform in front of the post office to hear the news from forty miles away.

The doctor of this mountain village came forward to speak to the driver.

"Didn't West send me a package?" he asked.

"Sure thing," responded the driver, reaching under the seat. "Thanks," and he pocketed the charge. Without waiting for the mail the doctor turned and walked away from the group.

Jasper, a mining village, was situated in a narrow valley, through which a dashing stream scolded and raved over rocks and among slender fir trees. The valley widened where the settlement was, 9000 feet above sea level. There was a winding road, a rustic bridge, and grass smooth as velvet.

The doctor noticed none of these beauties as he climbed the steep path to a log cabin on the hill side. On reaching the door he gave a soft rap, opened it and entered. A pale woman lay on a bed that seemed to dwarf the room, and on her arm lay a tiny scrap of humanity, asleep.

"Everything all right?" he asked seating himself by the bed.

"Tell me about Ed," said the young mother tremulously. "What have they done with him?"

"Nothing yet," replied the doctor, placing his fingers on her pulse and taking out his watch.

"What have you had to eat?" he asked as he put his watch in his pocket.

"Nothing, I am not hungry," she replied.

He rose, mended the fire and put the kettle on. Then he opened his package, taking out some beef extract and crackers. Soon a fragrant cup of bouillon was before the sick woman. She looked gratefully, wistfully at the doctor as he went about the room putting things to rights.

"Now, Mrs. Jacobs will be here soon. I'll stop and speak to her on the way down. Here's something for the little fellow," and he placed a bundle of baby clothes on the bed and went out hurriedly, followed by soft "Oh's" of delight as the little mother unfolded the tiny garments.

He stopped and told Mrs. Jacobs that Mrs. Simms was alone and needed her and was again on his way down the mountain path almost before she could answer. He gave one short rap at the door of a tiny kitchen, then marched in. A plump matron was making pies on a moulding board big enough for a hay scales platform. It nearly filled the kitchen. Before he had time to say a word the door of the other room of the house opened and the constable solemnly announced:

"The court demands your presence."

The matron who acted as clerk at all the trials held before her husband, the Justice of the Peace, hustled her pie into the oven, wiped the flour from her hands and presented herself in the crowded court room, followed by the doctor.

The prisoner sat on a stool by the justice's table. He was a young fellow, well set up, but a look of sullen despair was on his face. Opposite him sat the plaintiff, chewing tobacco and expectorating to the detriment of surrounding objects. He wore a red flannel shirt and a swagger. Court was called to order. The young man was being tried for horse stealing.

"Your honor, may I say a word in my own defense?" he asked. "When the mine shut down here I got a job, ten miles up the trail for I had to have money. I had not been home for three weeks, when a letter came from the doctor here. 'Get a layoff and come home, You'll be needed in a day or two,' it read.

"I went to the foreman and asked for a layoff and was bluntly refused. I knew I was needed. I had to go to Molly, so I took Jake's saddle horse. I'd have asked for it but he was drunk. It was moonlight and I knew I could go to Jasper and back in time to go on the morning shift. I never meant to steal the horse. Honest to God, Jake. It would have been back in the stall in the morning and no one the wiser, if I had not been seen and followed. They found the horse in my shed. They arrested me when my baby was an hour old." He sank down on the stool and buried his face in his hands.

The doctor rose. "Your honor, what Ed says is true. The first thing he said when he came in last night was, 'I must be back at work in the morning.' He's no thief, and remember, a sick woman's life may depend on your decision."

"John," said the plump clerk, putting her arms around her husband's neck, "he's not guilty."

The red flannel arm had reached over to the prisoner for a handshake, and its owner was saying:

"I'm a plum fool. I might of known. Here Judge, call this thing off. I'll pay the costs," and he threw a piece of gold on the table.

"You know I get $5 for clerk fee at these trials," said the pleasant faced woman, going up to the prisoner. "You give this to Molly for her baby outfit. I'm coming up to see her tomorrow," and she slipped the money into his hands

Temperance

NEWS AND VIEWS

Conducted by

THE W. C. T. U.

Oregon goes up to the head of the class—every county voted dry.

The Everett, Wash., Brewing Company has announced its purpose to convert its plant into a wholesale grocery. Less drink—more food needed.

The North Yakima, Wash., Brewing and Malting Company will be converted into a fruit by-products plant.

UP AND AT IT AGAIN!

In the recent election the dry forces of Ohio were beaten in their efforts to bring about the defeat of the brewers' home rule proposal and the adoption of prohibition. The next day the wet campaign managers gave out the statement that prohibition was forever dead in Ohio, and that the election had shown that the people wanted to be secure in their glorious liberties.

All this was said despite the fact that Ohio was one of only two States that went wet on election day. The wets completely forgot the fact that four other States went dry, thereby showing that two-thirds of the States voting had given up their glorious liberty.

Well, folks have been known to be buried alive, and that is just what happened to the Ohio drys. They were buried, all right, but they were'nt dead by a long shot. Sometimes a man gets so hopelessly snowed under that he decides to quit politics. The drys, however, never have any such notions. They believe prohibition is right, and, being right, it is bound to prevail sometime, even in wet Ohio.

So, just as soon as the air was cleared a bit, they began to take stock, and to make an inventory. First off, they found they were not beaten as badly as they had thought on the day after election. Late returns continued to come in and to put a new face on things.

Then, they began to find out wherein they had erred in conducting the campaign, and located the weak spots. So the trustees of the Anti-Saloon League of Ohio got together and voted unanimously to begin another fight right off the bat. The year 1915 will be the date of the election. However, before 1914 has passed into history, the campaign will have been started.

This decision on the part of the drys deeply pained the wet leaders. They pointed out that this is an inopportune time to bring on an election. Why not give the people a rest?

That, of course, is precisely the thing the drys have no purpose of doing. There must be no peace that is dishonorable. "Woe to them that are at ease in Zion!"

In the campaign of 1915 the Ohio drys expect to fight on the single issue of State-wide prohibition. They will not be compelled to defend the State against home rule, for, to carry prohibition means to repeal home rule. It is well recognized that the dry sentiment in Ohio is much stronger now, since election, than at any previous time.

WET VCTORIES.

Who are glad in wet triumphs in elections? The sports, bums, thugs, thieves, food-pads, harlots, grafters liquor hyenas and jackals and the predatory and vicious classes generally. Hell rejoices in them.

Who are sorry in wet victories? The churches and their pastors, the schools and their teachers, the wives, mothers and children, business men, employers of labor, the educated and refined classes generally. Heaven is sorry.

Who will suffer from wet victories? Wives will lose a husband's love and protection and their homes will be wrecked; mothers will have their hearts wrung with sorrow; children will be robbed of the happiness of childhood; the legitimate business man will lose trade; the employer of labor will find his employes less efficient, and young men, now in the prime of young manhood, will be converted into bums and criminals. Society as a whole will suffer in consequence of wet victories.

DRY TOWNS AND ENLISTMENTS.

During the recent wet and dry campaign in Ohio an enlistment officer of the United States was heard to express the hope that the State should not go dry. Asked the reason for his attitude, he said that it was almost impossible to get army recruits from dry towns.

Now this is all powerful anti-saloon argument. Of course, on the whole, our army is made up of material which is far better than that in other countries. It is well known, too, that whenever America is menaced by foes from either without or within, the patriotic citizenry rush to her defense, unmindful of the cost in life or property.

But conversation with army officers will disclose the fact that thousands of men join the regular army because they have no regular occupation. The records disclose more enlistments from cities than from villages and country places, also more enlistments from wet towns than from dry ones.

The reason is plain. In wet towns more boys are taken out of school than dry towns; in wet towns more boys go without education, without trade training and without settled habits than in dry towns. Where liquor is banished there the boys grow up to enter trades, professions and businesses. There are fewer of them coming to manhood unlearned, unlettered and unfitted for service.

Household Hints

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

To Make Wallpaper Stick—Scrape off all loose whitewash so wall is smooth, then wash with strong vinegar. When dry, cover wall with a paste or sizing made of cheap starch, real thin, in which put one-half teacup of dissolved glue to about eight quarts of the sizing. As soon as this is dry, you can put on your paper and it will stick. The vinegar and glue kill the lime in the whitewash.

Cleaning Lace Curtains, Etc.—Take about a half pound of starch, pulverize it, and mix with an equal amount of borax. Toss garment to be cleaned in this powder, rubbing thoroughly spots showing most soil. Cover article to be cleaned with a thick coat of starch and borax, wrap loosely in a clean paper and set aside in this manner for a few days. When needed, take outdoors and shake until powder is all out, then press garment with a warm iron. Also excellent way to clean white plumes, etc. When you have finished you will be surprised to see how dark the powder has become.

To Make Isinglass Like New—Dip a soft cloth in common vinegar, wash isinglass thoroughly, then polish with soft dry cloth until dry. This will make discolored and smokey isinglass in stove clear and bright, so that the cheerful glow of the fire can be seen.

CHEAP PARTS OF A PIG

Pigs' heads cost very little. There is a lot of nice meat on a pig's head and the meat may be used in just the same way as spareribs, which cost twice as much. Cooked with cabbage, pig's head makes a very good dish. Yellow turnips and potatoes cooked together with pig's head and then mashed are also good.

Pig neck bones are very reasonable in price. They may be used in the same way as spareribs, which cost twice as much.

Pig's knuckles cost about the same as spareribs, but they have more meat on them and may be used in the same way as spareribs.

All the above dishes are very nourishing.

Remember that apples are now plentiful and cheap. Apple sauce, fried apples or baked apples served with pork make a very wholesome, economical and tainty dish for all weather.

THE TABLE

Rabbit Potpie—Make a dough as for biscuits. Cook rabbit until tender, cool, pick from bones; crack bones and cook 20 minutes, then strain and make gravy. Add salt and pepper, two good-sized potatoes cut fine, and two onions. Mix all together, put in pie and bake 30 minutes.

Reliable Dumplings (one recipe which may serve two purposes)—One cup sweet milk, pinch of salt, two cups flour sifted with four teaspoons baking powder. Mix well and drop by portions from a spoon over boiling meat and let boil just 10 minutes without removing lid. Serve at once. (These are delicious with chicken.) For a quick pudding: Use same recipe and boil in same way over potatoes, and serve with maple syrup.

Beef Olives on Mock Duck—Have the butcher score a flank steak. Cut in fine pieces. Make a dressing of bread crumbs, small onion, sage and one egg. Fill each piece and sew together with white thread. Put in pan with small piece of butter and just enough water to keep from burning. Cover and cook slowly two hours. When done, put on dish and draw out threads. Cover with gravy and serve.

Scalloped Sweet Potatoes—Boil six potatoes in well salted water till they are tender; skin them, slice thin and put a layer in buttered baking dish; sprinkle with brown sugar; put on more potatoes and more sugar till dish is full. Bake three-quarters of an hour.

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

Skirts that are slightly draped are among the most approved of the season. This four gored model shows drapery at the front edges of the side portions, and the front and back portions form panels.

The inturn at each edge of these portions gives freedom for walking without increasing the apparent width of the skirt. The model is slightly gathered at the upper edge, whether it is finished at the high or the natural waist line; but, if preferred, darts can be taken up at the side portions.

FOUR PIECE DRAPED SKIRT.

The model is adapted to any material soft and graceful enough to hang in folds.

For the medium size the skirt requires five and a half yards of material twenty-seven inches wide.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes from 22 to 32 inches waist measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7882, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

Japan's Isles of Pines.

Matsushima is regarded as one of the sankei, or three most beautiful places in Japan. And it well deserves this reputation, for there are indeed few fairer natural scenes on earth. It reminds the traveler of the Thousand isles of Canada and the English lakes all in one. Here innumerable pine clad islands lift their fronded faces through the purple haze over a sea of silver green, and when the sun sets, throwing the myriad islands into a golden glow, the mind is charmed to ecstasy. Matsushima bay is more than six miles long and five wide, and to visit all the hundreds of islands that adorn the surface of the sea in this place would take years. Yet one may see the best part of Matsushima in two or three days if one knows how.—Japan Magazine.

She Wanted a Title.

A title gives the right to embroider a coronet on the body linen. It is pleasant in a railway train to pour scent on a coroneted pocket handkerchief. La Marechale Niel thought so, I dare say, in the summer of 1859. Her husband escaped the carnage of one of the battles fought that year in Lombardy. He also assured against heavy odds and the terrible blunders of the general staff victory to the French. His wife was with him when his marshal's baton was brought in with a letter from Napoleon III. Niel thought Mme. Niel would have melted into tears from joy. Instead of that her mouth fell. "You are marshal, you are," she said. "That does not make me duchess."—London Truth.

How Ono Got the Name.

The father of a boy baby wished him to be christened Thomas. The mother favored the name of Robert. When they arrived at the church the matter was still undecided. The father informed the curate that the child's name was Thomas.

"Oh, no!" gasped the mother distressfully.

The curate, regarding the woman as the ruling spirit, promptly baptized the infant Ono.

The grave of Ono Titchener is to be seen in the churchyard of St. Giles', Camberwell.—London News.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.

THE Household Loan Company, a local corporation, licensed, bonded and supervised by the Banking Dept. of the State of New Jersey, offers a limited amount of its preferred stock at $10 per share, (bearing six per cent. interest guaranteed in addition to participation of earnings). The field of usefulness of this company (which loans money in small amounts secured by chattel mortgage), is very large at this time, many worthy applications being received daily, so it is planned to increase the business by offering a block of stock to the public which will mutually benefit the people of this vicinity, as well as the holders of such stock issued. Strictest investigation of present status invited, or statement with prospectus will be sent upon request from company's office at 148 East Front St. 12 14 6

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS

FOUR PER CENT INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

To the man of wealth whose wife has everything she wants or can possibly need in the way of jewelry, furs, fine clothes, ornaments, furniture and all else—

And

To the man of moderate means whose wife is satisfied in the possession of actual necessities and the few little trinket tokens of affection given from time to time—

And

To the small wage-earner who finds life's battle hard and luxuries difficult of purchase, but whose helpmeet is happy and contented with his love and devotion—

Make her a Christmas present of a Monthly Income policy of life insurance that will pay her a stated sum every month forever, as forever is measured by her life, and that requires no shopping to buy.

It is a sensible gift, a welcome gift, an unselfish gift.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and look dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.—Adv.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a lifesaver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

The Great Library Contest Exclusively at This Store for the Shoe Purchase

THE CHRISTMAS CHARM OF OUR "COMFY SLIPPERS"

"COMFY SLIPPERS" are felt bedroom slippers, with thick leather faced, felt soles, packed with soft warm wool.

Some are fancifully trimmed with ribbons or turn down "collar" of contrasting shade; others are severely plain.

Women like them because they are dainty.

Men because of their warmth and handiness.

Children for these same reasons and, also, because some have hand carved designs of "Dutch Kids," "Puss-in-Boots" and the like.

"COMFY SLIPPERS" are so welcomed, yet so modestly priced, that you can't go wrong in giving a pair to each and all of your friends this Xmas.

CHRISTMAS FUND TOTALS $200,000

Plainfield Trust Co. Will Distribute That Amount to Patrons on Friday.

CHECKS TO BE MAILED

The Releasing of Large Sum Will Be of Great Benefit to Local Merchants—1915 Savings Club Opens on December 28.

This is a busy week for The Plainfield Trust Company, and "there's a reason." It is closing its 1914 Christmas Club and preparing to gladden the hearts of its members by mailing to them on Friday checks representing the amounts paid into the club during the year. These checks, the company states, will aggregate nearly $200,000—a vast sum, surely, when it is remembered that it is made up of weekly payments ranging from 5 cents to $2.50. This is about $40,000 more than was distributed by the club last year and $130,000 more than was realized by the fund the first year.

The fact that $200,000 is about to be paid out to the people of Plainfield has a deeper significance than is at first apparent. In the first place, it means the releasing of a very large amount of cash at a time when it will be of immense benefit to the local merchants and, in the second place it shows how heartily the people of this city have responded to the opportunity presented to them by The Plainfield Trust Company to save their money by a method which is not irksome and yet produces real results.

This week marks the closing of the club's third season and it is evident that with each year its popularity increases. Those who joined in the beginning and who realize what it has done for them have not only continued their own memberships but have urged their friends to join, and thus the club has grown. As a result many to whom in former years the unusual demands of this season had been a burden now find themselves prepared to meet the Christmas expenses, taxes, the coal bill, etc., without embarrassment.

So that the members of the 1914 club may receive their checks with as little delay as possible, the Trust Company is going to mail them this year and is making a special effort to get them out by Friday night. This method, while involving a great deal of extra work on the part of the employes, will save the members the trouble and annoyance of waiting in line for their checks. Preparations are also being made by the company for the expeditious cashing of checks and for the opening of permanent savings accounts by those thrifty ones who decide not to spend all they receive.

The opening of the 1915 club is scheduled for December 28 and the company now has on hand a large supply of descriptive circulars. It is expected that between December 28 and January 9 a large number of new members will be enrolled.

SUITABLE HOLIDAY BOOKS BY PLAINFIELD AUTHORS

DESCRIBES PUBLIC RECREATION WORK

H. C. White Reviews its Activities at Business Men's Association Meeting.

URGES CO-OPERATION

Association Aims to Regulate "Fly-by-Night" Schemes and Secure More Advantages Shipping Facilities From New York.

The work of the Public Recreation Committee, its development, and the outlook for the future was discussed by Henry C. White at a special meeting of the Business Men's Association, last night. He went into the many interesting details of the recreation work, describing the activities of the various departments, their objects and methods of work. Mr. White made an earnest plea for personal interest in this growing movement.

Mr. White drew attention to the fact that the better class of mechanics from outside of the city might be attracted to Plainfield if the housing conditions were improved and the rentals made more reasonable. The speaker said that the cost of the recreation work to the general public amounts to $1,275 a year, $750 coming from the Board of Education, the remainder coming from the city at large. He said that practically all of the organizations are self-sustaining, the appropriations being used to extend the work into other channels. Between 800 and 1,000 children and young people take advantage of the social gatherings provided each week.

During the business session, a number of important matters were discussed, among which was one suggesting the adoption of an ordinance by the Common Council regulating "fly-by-night" schemes. This matter is to be taken up with Councilman Francis J. Blatz. President A. E. Force called the attention of the body to the fact that Newark and Elizabeth merchants have a great portion of their goods shipped "f. o. b." to their destination, while local merchants have to pay freight or express charges on shipments from New York houses. This matter will also be taken up soon. It was suggested that efforts be made to have en earlier distribution of the Christmas savings fund by The Plainfield Trust Company so that the recipients can do their shopping earlier in the season. During a social hour refreshments were served by Frank C. Cramer, of North avenue.

FREDERICK L. SOPER, JR., ELECTED WORSHIPFUL MASTER

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., at a regular communication held last night in the lodge rooms in the Babcock building, elected the following officers for the ensuing year. Frederick L. Soper, Jr., worshipful master; Samuel Hollingsworth, senior warden; LeRoy DeCamp, junior warden; Clarence Goss, treasurer; Robert Kenny, secretary; L. B. Woolston, Robert Meeker and Charles H. Russell, trustees.

Robert A. Meeker was elected proxy to the grand lodge and Rightful Worshipful Master George T. Caskey was elected representative to the Masonic Hall Association for three years. The installation of the new officers will take place January 12.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY GIVE "ACQUAINTANCE SOCIAL"

The Ladies' Aid Society of Grace M. E. church, held a pleasing social for the members of the church, last night, in the church parlors. The affair afforded an opportunity for all to get better acquainted. There were about one hundred and twenty-five old and new members present. Mrs. J. S. Darby, of Watchung avenue, was the chairman, and she was ably assisted by several committees. After the entertainment part of the program a general social time was enjoyed.

The Misses Dorothy and Louise Seader rendered selections on the piano and cornet, and Mrs. Raymond Miller, gave a read entitled "A Community Christmas." Mrs. E. P. Stevens, chairman of the reception committee of the society, was assisted by the pastor, Rev. C. C. Cain, and the members of the society in receiving the guests. Refreshments, which consisted of home-made cakes, cruilers and cocoa, were served during the evening. The committee in charge of the refreshments consisted of Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. W. J. Conroy, Mrs. Charles Stahl, Mrs. Andrew Lutkins, Mrs. Henry DeMott, Mrs. Walter Smalley and Mrs. Charles Lippincott.

CONNORS TO TRY TO PROVE ALIBI

Arraigned in Union County Court This Morning for Ackerman Robbery.

OFFER FINGER-PRINTS

Clues Obtained by Captain Flynn Expected to Be the Main Point in State's Effort to Convict Notorious Prisoner.

Elizabeth, Dec. 16.—After being confined in the Union county jail here since April 14 last, Charles, alias "Ice-Wagon" Connors, said to be a notorious criminal and second-story man, was arraigned before Judge James C. Connolly in the Court of Quarter Sessions here this morning, for trial on an indictment charging him with looting the home of former State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, on West Seventh street, Plainfield, January 3 last. Connors through his counsellors, William Newcorn, of Plainfield, and Harry L. Prindle, of New York, previously entered a plea of not guilty and the supposition that he would endeavor to prove an alibi was advanced in the courtroom this morning. Chief of Police Kiely, of Plainfield, together with Captain John Flynn, Sergeant Maurice Higgins and Patrolmen George Muir, Martin Flatley and John Kelley were in court as witnesses, having investigated the robbery shortly after it occurred.

State's evidence appears to be based on finger-prints discovered by Captain Flynn, of the Plainfield force and identified by the Chicago Finger Print Bureau as those of Connors. The State's case is being conducted by Union County Prosecutor Alfred A. Stein and his assistant, Martin O'Connor, and Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., of Plainfield, is counsel for the Ackermans.

Mrs. Ackerman was the first witness examined and testified that jewels valued at $17,000 were stolen from the house on the night in question and alluded particularly to a string of eighty-five pearls which was included in the loot. Her testimony was corroborated by Mr. Ackerman.

Edward H. Schwartz, a finger-print expert from Newark, will give testimony this afternoon, inan effort to establish the recorded finger-prints as those of Connors. Although this evidence has never erred in criminal cases and has invariably convicted considerable apprehension is felt in this instance over the possibility of shaking the defendant's alibi that he was not in Plainfield the night the big haul was made.

Chief Kiely was sworn shortly before the noon recess and in cross examination revealed the manner in which the finger prints had been discovered and the circumstances surrounding the burglary.

It is believed that an effort will be made before the case goes to the jury to bring out the source from which a New York insurance company bought back a portion of the loot. More than half of the jewelry has been returned to the Ackermans as the result of an advertisement in a metropolitan paper offering a reward for the return of the loot. This was answered by an emissary who received part of the reward and was allowed to get away without having his identity established by the insurance company.

DR. ANNA H. SHAW TO SPEAK TONIGHT

Will Address Suffrage Gathering at Plainfield High School.

Rev. Dr. Anna H. Shaw, president of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, and perhaps the most conspicuous woman leader of the day, will speak at 8 o'clock tonight at the Plainfield High School, under the auspices of the Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield. Mrs. A. B. Jones, president of the local league, has invited Mrs. E. F. Feickert, State president, to preside. Mayor Percy H. Stewart will extend a greeting to Dr. Shaw.

Among those who will occupy seats on the platform are Ernest R. Ackerman, George M. LaMonte, C. L. Riley, Mrs. Francis deLacy Hyde, C. C. Wheeler and other prominent suffragists who have been asked to sit with the members of the executive board of the local league.

The public is cordially invited to attend the meeting, the admission fee being a nominal sum and all are particularly requested to remain for the questions at the close of the meeting.

FINAL DIVORCE DECREE GRANTED IN HOOD CASE

Newark, Dec. 16.—Final disposition of the litigation between Richard Haden Hood, of New York, and Mrs. Frances Sparks Hood, of 541 Stelle avenue, Plainfield, was made here today when Vice Chancellor Stevens signed a final decree of divorce for which Mrs. Hood made application in October, 1912, and forwarded the same to the Chancellor.

Through a settlement reached in Philadelphia between the parties concerned the Court of Errors recently affirmed a decree nisi which Vice Chancellor Stevens granted to Mrs. Hood, February 25 last, and from which Mr. Hood, through Chauncey G. Parker, appealed.

SCARBOROUGH, HARTLEPOOL AND WHITBY SHELLED, WITH SOME LOSS OF LIFE—THREE ENGLISH FLEETS CLOSING IN ON ENEMY.

WHITBY ABBEY DAMAGED-HOUSES DEMOLISHED

German Vessels Approached Coast Towns About Eight O'clock This Morning—One Woman Killed in Scarborough and Several at Hartlepool—Forty Shells Thrown Into Former Town.

London, Dec. 16.—A daring raid on the North Sea coast of England, and the bombardment of three cities by German war vessels, followed by an engagement with three great English fleets, which closed in on the enemy has overshadowed everything else regarding the war in England today. The bombardment took place between eight and nine o'clock this morning, and the municipalities which were shelled were Scarborough, a city of 40,000 inhabitants, Hartlepool and Whitby. Several lives were lost and many were injured. The property damage was greatest at Hartlepool. While no official statement has been made, other than that the English navy is "engaged with the enemy at various points," it is thought that a great naval battle is in progress somewhere in the North Sea.

The first intimation of the attack by German warships on the northeast coast on England was given in this city when the official press bureau issued the following statement shortly after the first shelling of Scarborough:

"German movements of some importance are taking place in the North Sea. Scarborough and Hartlepool have been shelled. Our flotillas has been engaged with the enemy at various points. The situation is developing."

The British fleets from the Firth of Forth to the north, and from Sheerness, in the mouth of the Thames were promptly dispatched, while the fleet in the North Sea was summoned. The opposing fleets met off Scarborough, and that city was soon enveloped in dense smoke so that it was difficult to see from shore just how the battle was progressing.

Scarborough is on the coast of Yorkshire, and is one of the most fashionable of England's seaside summer resorts. It was estimated that about forty shells from the guns of the German vessels fell in the city, part of them in the vicinity of the railroad station. Hartlepool is a shipping port and in the heart of the Durham industrial district.

It was later learned that the town of Whitby, between Scarborough and Hartlepool, was also bombarded by the German fleet. The historic Whitby Abbey was damanged, and many houses demolished. Several people were injured by shells.

The first actual knowledge of the approach of the German ships was at 8 o'clock this morning, when a vessel of the cruiser type was observed off Scarborough. It steamed in until it was close to the shore and threw its shells into the town for half an hour, doing considerable damage. One woman, believed to have been a visitor, was instantly killed by an exploding shell. About forty shells were thrown in all. The objective point of the German fire was apparently the town hall and the wireless station. The former was slightly damaged, and the latter is intact.

The vessel, after steaming slowly past the town, continuing its bombardment all the time it was within range, disappeared in a southerly direction. Later a dull booming was heard, apparently a great distance away.

The bombardment of Hartlepool was of a larger extent and did more damage than those at Scarborough or Whitby. Several lives were lost at Hartlepool.

The official press bureau gave out the following statement regarding the attack on Hartlepool this afternoon:

"The commander of the forts at Hartlepool reports that the German warships engaged that fortress betweent 8 and 9 o'clock this morning. The guns from the forts succeeded in driving off the enemy. A small German war vessel also opened fire on Scarborough and Whitby."

Paris, Dec. 16.—The German emperior is suffering from a malignant sore throat contracted on his automobile tour of the German front in the east, according to reliable information received in Madrid. According to a despatch from the Spanish capital to the Journal, his condition is said to have improved, although it is still causing grave anxiety.

The French war office gave out the following statement at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

"In Belgium, Westende, northeast of Lombartzyde, has been viodently bombarded by the British fleet. The Belgian army has repulsed a counter attack on St. Georges, and has occupied the embankments on the left side of the Yser. Our troops who had already gained ground in the direction of Klein Zillibele have also progressed, but less appreciably.

"In the region of St. Eloj, the Arras, in that of the Aisne and in the Champagne district there have been artillery engagements in which we have gained the advantage at different points."

Max Barthou, a son of ex-Premier Barthou, of France, died yesterday from wounds received fighting at Thann.

Rome, Dec. 16 (Central News Cable).—The German losses in the immense battle in Poland are estimated to have been 150,000 in killed and wounded, says a despatch to the Messagero from Petrograd. This number does not include the losses of the Austrians, nor the prisoners from both German and Austrian armies which were taken by the Russians. Eighteen German army corps have been engaged in the battle, several of which are now much weakened in numbers.

Amsterdam, Dec. 16.—Bas Milmi khedive of Egypt, who has been in Constantinople since the war started, has started for Vienna for a conference with Austrian military leaders, says a despatch from the Turkish capital.

G. E. CLUB HOLD A FAIR AND DANCE

Under the auspices of the G. E. Club and for the benefit of the volunteer firemen's association of New Market, a successful fair was held in Friendship Hall, New Market, last night. On account of the cold weather the attendance was not as large as it would have been otherwise, but those in charge were able to realize a profit of nearly $40 for the association. The hall was made attractive with numerous booths where plain and fancy articles were sold. Refreshments of all kinds were also offered during the evening and another feature was dancing, music for which was furnished by local talent.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING.

Dr. William H. Murray, of Plainfield, will address the monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association to be held in the Lincoln School, tomorrow night. The meeting will be in the form of a rally session, the time being changed from the afternoon to evening in order to give the men an opportunity to hear Dr. Murray.

BUSINESS DEPRESSION.

Dunellen merchants are feeling the general business depression that has been in evidence recently. Some of them attribute it to "Democratic legislation" rather than the unsettled condition of the county produced by the European war.

Robert Bogardus is confined to his home on New Market road, suffering from a severe attack of the grip.

MAY ENTER LEAGUE.

The basketball activities at the Baraca Class court are beginning to pick up and a boom in this line of sport is underway in Dunellen. A communication from Allen Snyder, the manager of the Plainfield Hope Chapel basketball team, was received yesterday by the Baraca management. This letter invited the local club to enter a six-team league to be composed of quintets in Plainfield, Bound Brook, Westfield, Dunellen and Somerville, and it is likely that some definite action will be taken in the matter at the next meeting of the Baraca club.

Russell Giles, who recently returned from California, is stopping for the present with his father, Nelson Giles, at New Market.

GOOD SKATING.

The cold weather of the past two days has formed a coating of ice over the New Market pond of considerable thickness and it is expected that there will be good skating today or tomorrow.

PLANNING FOR CHRISTMAS.

The Sunday-school of the Baptist church, New Market, is making elaborate preparations for its Christmas services and entertainment. Rev. Dr. T. E. Vassar will, as usual, preach an appropriate sermon at the Sunday service.

POULTRY ASS'N EXHIBITION.

Several poultry fanciers from this place have joined the Middlesex County Poultry Association, and attended the monthly meeting held in New Brunswick, Monday night. They are planning to make entries in the annual poultry exhibition, December 31 to January 1, in New Brunswick.

TO PRESENT FOUR FLAGS.

State Councilor Rene P. F. Vosminden, of New Market, will present four American flags to the North Plainfield public schools, tomorrow, on behalf of the Plainfield Councils, Jr. O. U. A. M., and will also make an address.

JUNIORS' BANQUET JANUARY 8

The Past Councilors' Association Jr. O. U. A. M., of Middlesex county, will hold its annual banquet in New Brunswick on January 8. There will be a number of prominent speakers and other attractive features.

Charles Tingley and family removed yesterday from North avenue to Front street.

Miss Edna Burdick was a member of the Choral Society chorus which rendered "The Messiah" in the Plainfield High School auditorium, last night.

Stylish SR Reliable

Neckwear for His Stocking

Never was there a man, young or old, who didn't appreciate a good scarf as an Xmas remembrance. So—you mothers, sisters, wives and others—here's a tip for you.

FILL HIS STOCKING Xmas morning with a few newest designs in Persian patterns — some dandy neckties at 50c each. They are excellent values for the price and they really look like more money.

If scarfs do not exactly appeal to your fancy, we might suggest Shirts, Gloves, Bath Robes, Smoking Jackets or anything else that would appeal to the man—we have them all.

MUSIC DEVOTEES ENJOYED A TREAT

Fine Rendition by Plainfield Choral Society in High School Auditorium.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM

"The Messiah" Sung by Chorus of 170 Voices Assisted by the Plainfield Symphony Orchestra—S. Frederick Smith in Charge.

Music lovers and critics taxed the seating capacity of the Plainfield High School Auditorium to its limit, last night, when one of the best musical renditions ever staged in this city was given under the auspices of the Public Recreation Committee. George Frederick Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," was sung by the recently organized Plainfield Choral Society under the direction of S. Frederick Smith and assisted by the Plainfield Symphony Orchestra, of which Mr. Smith is the conductor and Wendell Glover the pianist. Selections by visiting solosists added greatly to the pleasing program and the great success of the initial recital assures local music devotees of similar treats in the future.

Accompaniments by the large orchestra and the portion of the program devoted to instrumental numbers were thoroughly enjoyed and the greatest evidence of the keen delight of the audience was shown in the raptuous applause accorded. The chorus, composed of 170 voices, was ably assisted by the following solosists: Soprana, Miss Lillian Vernon Watt; contralto, Miss Sibyl; tenor, Paul G. Haskell; bass, Dr. Hugh Schussler. Much of the credit for the success of the venture is attributed to G. Stuart Simons, chafrman of the committee in charge, who worked untiringly in co-operation with Mr. Smith to bring the concert up to the standard of excellence demonstrated.

The following are the members of the chorus and orchestra:

RUSH MORE TROOPS TO NACO TO PROTECT PROPERTY

Washington, Dec. 16.—Three regiments of Uniter States infantry and three batteries of artillery were ordered to Naco, Arizona, late yesterday by Secretary of War Garrison. The orders were issued after the Secretary had discussed in the cabinet meeting the situation existing in the frontier town. The movement is accepted as an answer to the defiant declaration of General Carranza to the State Department that any action taken by the United States to prevent the firing of Mexican bullets across the international line would be regarded by the Carranzaistas as an act of hostility.

The decision was reached after a message had been received declaring intolerable the situation at Naco, from General Bliss, in command of the United States border patrol, who urged Secretary of War Garrison to close the port of Naco, through which the warring Mexicans are receiving supplies. He indicated that the situation was pressing and asked that Congressional authority to close the port be obtained at once.

Consideration was given by the cabinet when it met to the situation on the Mexican border, and also to the alleged violation of United States neutrality by misuse of wireless in the Panama Canal zone waters. Secretaries Garrison, Daniels and Bryan, on leaving the White House, went into conference on the two problems.

FUNERAL OF CALEB BROKAW.

A large number of friends and relatives attended the funeral services of Caleb Brokaw, of Somerset street, the borough, which was held at 2:30 this afternoon at his late home. Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, officiated. Interment was made at Hillside cemetery.

TO CONFER WITH UTILITIES BOARD

President McCarter, of the P. S. C., Has Nothing to Say as to Gas Decision.

No definite announcement was made yesterday of the action to be taken by the Public Service Gas Company as a result of the decision of the Court of Errors and Appeals setting aside the order of the Public Utilities Board fixing ninety cents per 1,000 as a price for gas. The directors of both the gas company and of Public Service Corporation held meetings, but after they were over all President McCarter would says was:

"The directors discussed the application of the court's decision and left the matter in my hands. There is nothing to be said at present because I feel that courtesy dictates that the matter should be taken up with the Utility Commissioners before any formal statement is made."

BORO COURT NOTES.

Thomas Walsh, of Somerset street, was arraigned this morning, before Recorder Fred Hand, on the charge of being helplessly drunk, having been arrested yesterday morning. Sentence was suspended.

Patrick Finnerty, of 233 Prescott place, one of the sextette, who was placed under arest Saturday night for being drunk and disorderly, and fined $40 in the borough court, Monday morning, was yesterday afternoon taken to the county jail at Somerville to spend forty days, not having paid his fine.

MASQUERADE DANCE.

A masquerade dance will be held in the Watchung Improvement Society Hall New Year's eve. Auto buses will leave Somerset and Front streets at 8 o'clock for the hall to accommodate local people who desire to attend.

MINSTREL SHOW PLEASES INDUSTRIAL HOME INMATES

The inmates of the Industrial Home enjoyed a minstrel show last evening, the performance being given under the direction of William F. Richards. A number of visitors were present. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

The end men included Charles Mumford, James Goodman, G. L. Simon and Benjamin Berse, with Mr. Richards acting as interlocutor. Several solos were sung, including "I Wish You Belonged to Me," by Mr. Goodman; bass solo, "Roll On, Thou Dark Blue Sea," by John B. Richards; "You Can't Get Away From It," by Mr. Berse; "If They Don't Stop Making Them so Beautiful," by Mr. Mumford; "Chauncey's Wooden Wedding," by Mr. Simon. OUR NECESSARY DEFENCE.

One thing is quite sure and that is that this country does not need a large standing army. There is a belief, widespread among the people, that this sudden demand for a large army and a great increase of the navy comes from the lobby behind the makers of military and naval supplies.

This nation is not in favor of militarism. The one thing we should strive to do is to keep out of war. The country stands for peace, and the settlement of all international difficulties by a Court of Arbitration. Better pay indemnity than go to war. It is less expensive and in the end our example and influence would be better.

We can conceive of no cause for which the killing of people should be necessary. We want no other nation's territory. We seek no ambitious position or place of power, among the nations of the earth. We are willing to let every other nation live; and we rejoice to see them all prosper.

An army sufficient for coast defence and internal protection we need and we need no more—Secretary Garrison says one hundred and twenty thousand men. That is not large for a nation of one hundred million people, but it is large enough. Give us a strong navy to protect our coast, and with that, give us the spirit of fellowship with all other peoples, and we can safely trust ourselves to the friendship of the world. The President is right on this question.

THE GAS DECISION.

No recent decision of the courts of the State has caused so much adverse criticism as that of the Court of Errors and Appeals in the 90 cent gas case. Newspapers within and without the State have shown the inconsistency of the findings of the court in such a way that the result seems ridiculous on its face. The Public Utility Commission fixed 90 cents a thousand feet as the rate for gas in North Jersey, and this rate was sustained when the matter was appealed to the Supreme Court by the Public Service Corporation. Now six out of the sixteen members of the Court of Errors and Appeals have decided that the Public Utilities Commission should have taken into consideration the value of the franchises held by the gas company, thus warranting the fixing of a higher rate.

The New York World points out that "Eighty-cent gas is made in New York city at a handsome profit. A rate ten cents higher is denied the adjoining districts in New Jersey on a theory which has apparently been demolished by the Supreme Court of the United States."

The fact that only six of the sixteen members of the Court of Errors and Appeals agreed to the opinion of Justice Parker, causes the Newark News to refer to the findings of the court as "astounding," and the Newark Sunday Call, which editorially analyzes the vote, declares that "the course of the court greatly increases the perplexities which surround the problem."

In analyzing the court's action, the Trenton Times says:

"Because of the positive views held by Supreme Court Justice Black on the general subject of taxation and the value of franchises, it is not difficult to believe that he would have voted against the 90-cent gas decision, if he had been a member of the Court of Errors and Appeals at the time argument was had on the Public Service appeal in the Passaic case. Judge Williams was a member of the Public Utility Commission and voted for the order issued by that body.

"Add these two to Chancellor Walker, Justices Trenchard and Kalisch and Judge Terhune, the four on the record as against the Parker decision, and Justices Swayze, Garrison and Minturn, who sustained the Public Utility Commission's order in the Supreme Court, and these are nine of the sixteen members of the Court of Errors and Appeals who are opposed to the decree just promulgated by the highest court of the State by six of its members."

Doubtless the public service corporations are as much disturbed as are the consumers over this opinion of Justice Parker. As the World sets forth, "The New Jersey Court of Errors and the Supreme Court of the United States seem to differ as to the powers of a public service corporation to overcharge the public without redress." The utilities corporations were beginning to feel safe from further legislative difficulties because of the authority to regulate that had supposedly been placed in the State commissions. The Parker opinion, which has the support of only two other justices and three lay judges, upsets all this, and as the Hudson Observer says: "If the lawmakers were to take it into their heads they could make trouble for the corporations in ways other than by reducing the price of gas to, say, eighty cents."

It is impossible, as the Trenton Times says, that such a determination can stand and establish a precedent. If the case cannot be appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, it should be re-argued or some other method found for permitting the majority to decide. The city attorneys of Paterson and Passaic, who brought the original action, have decided to try to carry the matter before the full court.

THE FORUM

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

The Recreation Committee has presented the community with such a Christmas gift in the beautiful oratorio of the "Messiah" that one feels compelled to return thanks. Not since the late Dr. Richards left Plainfield have oratorio-lovers had the pleasure of hearing this great work and one listener, at least, wishes to express unstinted praise and appreciation for the orchestra, the chorus, the conductor and the soloists. The inexpressibly beautiful music made one feel, first, sorrow and anger for the dreadful, prevailing war, secondly, hunger for peace, thirdly, gratitude for the music, and last, not least, pride and joy in a community which can produce so creditably a beautiful work of art.

POSTPONE AWARDING OF BOROUGH SEWER CONTRACT

The awarding of the contract for the installation of a collecting sewerage system in North Plainfield was postponed by the Borough Council at the special meeting held last night, and it will be necessary for the committee in charge to take under advisement several of the bids that have been offered and which have been singled out as the lowest on both contracts. The proposals were offered by the contractors at a meeting last week and the names of the successful bidder will probably be made known at an adjourned session next Tuesday night.

Semi-officially it has been stated that the Harrison-Burton Company, of New York, and Frank Paglia, of Paterson, are the two lowest bidders.

Missionary Says That Conditions Equal Those in Belgium—Describes the Persecution of Native Christians.

Those who have been following happenings among the warring nations abroad will no doubt be interested in the somewhat important part played by Rev. and Mrs. Phineas B. Kennedy, so well-known here, who were missionaries in Albania for about seven years. Mrs. Kennedy is the daughter of Rev. Lewis Bond, of Plainfield, and she and her husband returned home about three months ago. They are now expecting to return to their mission field soon. The following concerning the Kennedys from the Newark Evening News will be of interest to their friends:

"At the old homestead farm of John Frelinghuysen Kennedy, in a small hamlet about three miles from Stewartsville, are Rev. Phineas B Kennedy and his wife, who have returned only recently from Albania, where they were missionaries. Rev. Mr. Kennedy was pastor of the Asbury Presbyterian church for three years, and then was pastor of the South Easton, Pa., Presbyterian church for five years. He and his wife have been missionaries in Albania for seven years and are expecting orders to return there shortly. They left Albania the latter part of August.

"The conditions in Albania," said Rev. Mr. Kennedy, "are as bad as those in Belgium. Thousands are starving and dying of disease caused by the war. When we first went to Albania as missionaries we went to Kortcha, which is called Korytsa by the Greeks. The people are mostly Christians, members of the Greek church. We went to a small school for girls, which had an attendance of between sixty and eighty.

"At that time the Turkish Government was trying to close the school by forbidding the Albanian language to be used. We moved into the school and placed the American flag over it. The Greek Orthodox church also opposed the school and threatened to imprison those who sent their children there. Then came the Balkan War. In 1913 the powers of Europe created the territory into a separate State."

Rev. Mr. Kennedy was arrested about this time and sent away from the school. He was charged with working against the Greeks and using his mission for political purposes, but the State Department took up the matter and cleared him.

After he left the school, Mr. Kennedy and his wife went to a school for boys at Elbason, which had been opened by Rev. C. T. Erickson, another American missionary. During their relief work among the poor people, the Kennedys were separated frequently for weeks at a time. The Albanians had been driven from their homes by warring factions and many were massacred. The crimes brought to the attention of the missionaries were shocking and said to have been more brutal than those charged during the present war.

"When we left Albania a few months ago," said Mr. Kennedy, "there were nearly 300,000 natives in a starving condition. About 35,000 homes had been destroyed. Conditions defy description, they were so terrible."

ASTOR THEATRE OPENED TO THE PUBLIC TODAY

Several hundred persons attended the reception tendered by Manager Joseph Coven, of the new Astor Theatre, in Plainfield's latest playhouse, last night, and inspected the modernly and elaborately equipped motion picture rendezvous. Today's program will inaugurate the ensuing season of entertainment during which the latest and best films will be shown at afternoon and evening performances. Miss Mana Lucea, soprano, and William Smith, tenor, delighted last night's audience with their singing, as did also the selections by the orchestra directed by Prof. Mondrone.

An Italian orchestra is one of the prominent features of the new amusement house and programs of music will be rendered at each show. Operatic selections will be featured two days a week.

TO DESCRIBE WAR EXPERIENCE.

Held up at the point of a bayonet was one of the experiences Miss Grace Greenwood, of Teachers' College, New York, had while traveling through the European war zone, and she will describe her experiences in a talk at the Netherwood Reformed church tomorrow night. This, it is believed, will be the first lecture in Plainfield, of a similar nature. The talk will be illustrated with stereopticon.

MOSQUITO WORK IN UNION COUNTY

Extermination Commission Conducted Campaign at Reduced Expenditure.

MUCH WORK DONE HERE

Detailed Report Issued by Commission Indicates That Active Crusade Against the Pest Has Been Waged—Local Inspectors.

The third annual report of the Union County Mosquito Extermination Commission has been made by Russel W. Gies, chief inspector, and statistics indicate that remarkable work has been accomplished during the year 1914. The period included in the resume was an unusually hard one for the campaign against the pest owing to the exceptionally rainy weather during the summer and it has been conclusively proven that mosquito breeding can be checked even in the worst weather.

The inspectors having charge of the work in Plainfield, Fanwood borough and township, are Harold W. Schenck, Frank Putnam and Herbert Stine. Dr. Frank C. Ard, of this city, is president of the Union County Extermination Commission. The work this year was carried on at considerable less cost than last year. In 1913 a total of $23,746.35 was expended and in 1914 the amount soared to $31,107.05, the difference and saving being $7,360.70.

Work done by the Commission in District No. 2, including Plainfield and Fanwood, during 1914 included the following drainages and clearings:

Ditches along Green brook, north of West End avenue, cleaned; ditch along Green brook, at foot of Albert street, cleaned; ditch on the north side of Clinton avenue, along Green brook, cleaned; swamp on the north side of Clinton avenue, along Green brook, drained; swamp on Second street, near Rushmore avenue, drained; swamp off Rushmore avenue, drained and filled; pond hole at foot of McDowell and West Fourth streets, filled; swamp hole on Middlesex border, Park avenue, filled; swamp holes in Hillcrest avenue, filled; dump hole on East Seventh street, near Terrill road, filled; swamp on South avenue, drained; swamp on Oxford avenue, drained; swamp on North Sterling street, drained; pond hole north of Terrill road, drained; ditch between Terrill road and Leland avenue, deepened; ditch east of Terril road, running east of Leland avenue, cleaned; pond hole in the Netherwood section opposite Putnam avenue, filled; swamp hole in the Netherwood section opposite Putnam avenue, drained; swamp hole in the Netherwood section oposite Denmark road, drained; Cedar brook between East Seventh street and Randolph road, cleaned; Cedar brook south of Arlington avenue, cleaned.

Fanwood—Ditch on Russell road, cleaned; additional filling in pond hole on Russell road; swamps and pond holes on Morse avenue, near Westfield avenue, drained; depression on Westfield road, opposite Golf links, filled; swamp and ditch on Jerusalem road and Morse avenue, drained; pool opposite Jerusalem road, on the east side, drained; two small ponds on Princeton and Hetfield avenues, drained.

In Plainfield 39,329 yard inspections were conducted, 5,222 premises were inspected, 3,560 inspections of breeding places were made and 178 breeding places were located. A total of 1,386 nuisances were located.

An abstract from the report referring to Plainfield follows

"Plainfield is in a most excellent condition at present. The larger breeding areas have been very greatly lessened by the activity of the local inspectors working in full co-operation with the local Board of Health. All city dumps are being kept in a properly leveled condition, and Plainfield people generally are keeping their premises entirely free of breeding places. Hardly a mosquito was noticeable throughout the entire summer. The city authorities have taken a very progressive stand and each year have promptly appropriated money for eliminating any breeding places on city property that have been called to their attention.

"The large tract of swampy land stretching for some miles along Green brook has been entirely ditched, and the local health department is making arrangements to begin filling in the entire area with ashes as they become available."

TEMPERATURE REPORT.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 12 degrees; 11 a. m., 24 degrees; 1 p. m., 24 degrees.

HORSE SUFFOCATED IN EARLY MORNING BLAZE

Night Watchman James Kiely, of the Century Rubber Company, on North avenue, discovered a fire in the barn owned by Paul Lavoreno, located directly opposite the factory, at 12:15 this morning. Fire headquarters was notified and when the men arrived the small structure was a mass of flames.

One horse owned by Lavoreno was suffocated by the fumes of the burning hay. The origin of the blaze is a mystery. The estimated damage on the barn is placed at $300.

AUCTION SALE.

Robert Murray, the auctioneer, will conduct an auction sale of choice household goods at 12 Madison avenue, Babcock building, near West Front street, at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. This will be the last sale to be held here this season. All of the goods are in fine condition and they consist of a large variety of household furniture. The goods can be seen from 10 to 12 o'clock tomorrow morning. Attention is called to the list of articles to be sold as advertised in another column of The Daily Press.

SANTA HAS TUBERCULOSIS.

On Christmas Eve little Dorothy, possessed of the whooping cough, was doing some fancy whooping for company that had come.

"Dorothy, dear," the mother said, "you must stop coughing or Santa Claus won't come. If he hears you coughing he'll be afraid to come in."

"I should worry," Dorothy replied, showing full familiarity with modern expression. "He's got tuberculosis himself."

"Tuberculosis! Who told you Santa Claus has tuberculosis?"

"Oh, everybody knows that. Don't you buy tuberculosis stamps for him every Christmas."

Trade In Plainfield and Grow With Us

The growth of a city depends largely on the amount of money spent within its borders. Are YOU buying in Plainfield? Are YOU selecting our own men to do your work instead of outsiders? Are YOU helping Plainfield to grow? Ask yourself this question. Are you?

Plainfield is one of the prettiest cities in New Jersey. She can point with pride to her magnificent High School, excellent graded schools, elegant homes and beautiful streets. What have you done? If you take Plainfield money and spend it in other cities, are you helping Plainfield to grow? Spend your money home where you and your children are enjoying the splendor of our city. Do YOUR part for a better and bigger Plainfield.

Interesting to Men--But to Women

The question of cultivation of good taste in a home means the purchase of whatever improves the appearance, comfort and welfare of every one connected with it. The woman is the purchasing agent of the American home; keenly interested in high grade merchandise and table goodies; the kind presented by Plainfield merchants, backed by prompt courteous attention, a stock of large variety to select from, and prices that are no higher than the stores of other cities.

Trading in Plainfield is the easiest, safest, and most profitable, and when you purchase an article that is not entirely satisfactory you experience no difficulty in having it exchanged or your money refunded. On the other hand, can an article purchased in stores in these other cities afford you the same protection as our Plainfield merchants? Sometimes an article can be exchanged, but then it is necessary to have it travel 20 or 25 miles back to the store where you purchased it, and the second selection forwarded to you, and if you wern't fortunate enough to make a second selection on the day you did your shopping you are either obliged to make it from a catalog or take another trip yourself to straighten the matter out. Do your shopping in your home town and avoid any unnecessary risks or delays. Help your city to grow.

RELIGIOUS FEELING IN ERIN'S CHRISTMAS

THE celebration of the festival in Ireland does not differ to any great extent, perhaps, from its method of observance in other countries. The deeply religious sentiment of the country makes the religious observance of the festival its dominant feature.

The humblest habitation wears an air of cheerfulness when decorated with holly and ivy, from which the red berries which grow on the holly peep out in great profusion.

In the Catholic churches in the larger cities and in many of the smaller places as well masses are celebrated hourly from midnight on Christmas eve, thousands flocking first to the midnight mass and later to those that follow. Even in the penal days, when it meant death for a clergyman to perform the holy sacrifice or for those who assisted at it to be caught in attendance, the midnight mass was never abandoned.

When the churches were destroyed by Cromwell and Elizabeth the priest took refuge beneath some protecting rock, and with scouts among the flock thrown out to guard against surprise by the soldiery the mass was offered up as it had been in the earlier days of Ireland's religious glory.

Today, happily, there is no such ban on the religious faith of the people, and the throngs who then flocked to the glen or the mountain side to assist in the holy sacrifice can attend their religious services in comfortable churches everywhere throughout the land.

On Christmas morning, especially in the rural portions of Ireland, the people flock to the morning masses, often traveling eight and ten miles from their homes in the remote hills and valleys of their respective parishes. The goose hangs high in Ireland on Christmas day, and no family is too poor not to provide the delicious bird.

On Christmas night the waxed blessed candle is lighted in honor of Christ's nativity, and music and good cheer of every kind are enjoyed everywhere.

The day following Christmas, St. Stephen's day, is also regarded as practically a holiday. It is mostly availed of by the young people, especially the boys, for fun and frolic of every description. Athletic sports, football matches, hurling and other enjoyments are general.

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER.

WHERE wee feet patter down the hall
Of Want and Wretchedness and Woe,
Where wee eyes shine and wee lips call
Upon a dream they may not know
Or where a mother marks their plea
And turns her misty eyes away
From where they cluster at her knee
To dream with her of Christmas day,

God, hear their prayer through snow and rain
Or wailing wind and driven sleet.
Let it not be they call in vain
To find their dream of Christmas sweet.
Let it not be their eager eyes
Shall look in vain through blurring tears
And find beneath life's shadowed skies
The hurt—the heartache of the years.

God, answer them who still hold faith
Or clasp a dream so brave and true
That Christmas sends no phantom wraith
To those whose message wings to you,
To those who whisper through the night
Of one to come at morning's gleam.
O Father of the Hearth of Blight,
Give them to know their day of dream!

Where love is prone or vanished far,
Where life's gray shadows haunt their play,
Give them to know the eastern star
Which guides them to thy holiday;
Give them for this their day, at least,
All absence from the bitter rod
And through the fullness of their feast
The heart to smile up to their God.

—Grantland Rice.

THE BUSY FAIRIES

I have heard from Uncle Peter, who is wonderfully wise,
That just before the Christmas snow is falling from the skies
The little folk in Fairyland begin to work away
At all the very nicest toys for Santa Claus' sleigh.
He says they choose the nighttime, when you cannot hear a sound,
When the playroom fire has flickered out and shadows gather round.
But silent hours they do not mind, they do not heed the night,
For the moon holds up her candle, and they want no other light.
And Uncle Peter tells me, so I think you should be told,
That those who work for other folk are very seldom cold.
They trim the dollies' bonnets, and they plait the dollies' hair,
They sew the dainty dresses that the pretty dollies wear,
They paint the lovely engines, and the sailing boats they make,
And the best of all the mincemeat pies are what the fairies bake.
And Uncle Peter tells me—and I think he must be right—
That work like this is just the sort to make our Christmas bright.
And don't you think a loving thought should go on Christmas day
To those who for our pleasure work and ask no other pay?

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The committee for the selection of the play to be presented by the junior class has chosen "Strongheart," by William E. de Mille. Tryouts for the parts will be held immediately after the Christmas holidays. The play will be given about the middle of February.

Miss Ellen Cumming, senior English teacher, has been absent from school for the past two days.

The stage and sting committees of senior class held meetings yesterday afternoon to make final preparations for the "Junior Roasts" to be held next Wednesday.

A letter addressed to the manager of the swimming team was received this morning from Dewitt Clinton High School of New York, asking for a date to hold a dual swimming meet.

The game scheduled with the boys Alumni team for Christmas afternoon has been changed to Monday evening, December 28. The girls also have a game with the Alumni that night so that a double-header will be staged.

The Commercial Club will hold a meeting on Friday afternoon in the auditorium. Mr. Tyler, of the Board of Education, will address the club.

SKATING IN ORDER.

The weather of the past few days has been instrumental in covering Willow Lake, at Central and Pemberton avenues, well known as Von Ohl's Pond, with a fine covering of ice, thus furnishing skating to the local youth. This is the earliest date for skating known in this vicinity for several years.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

HOMER BAKER'S FLEET-FOOTED MARVEL

Homer Baker.

If ever there was a runner who was entitled to wear the winged foot of Mercury, the god of speed, it is Homer Baker, who was born in Buffalo, N. Y., June 8, 1893. When eighteen years old the Mercury foot marvel won the national senior half-mile championship of the United States, and had just reached his majority when he completed one of the most successful European campaigns ever waged by an American athlete. On July 4 of this year he won the British half-mile championship in the fastest time the classic event ever was won in, making the distance in one minute fifty-four and two-fifths seconds. On the same day he came home third in the quarter-mile event. While in Europe he defeated Wide, the top-notcher of Sweden, and then beat Braun, Germany's fastest runner. Recently he defeated Meredith, Olympic champion, in a 660-yard event, making it in 1 min. 20 2-5 secs.

RECREATION NOTES

The Girls' Athletic Club will meet tonight at 8:15 in the High School gymnasium. There will be a basketball game between this club and the Y. W. C. A. team. The public is invited to witness this game which ought to be of interest to many. The Girls' Athletic Club meets every Wednesday evening and is opened to all who are interested in gymnasium drills, folk dances and athletic games.

The Italian Dramatic Club and Orchestra will hold a rehearsal this evening in the small gymnasium of the High School.

The Thespian Society will meet tomorrow evening in the High School Auditorium.

THROWN FROM ENGINE.

Harry Hann, a fireman stationed at the East Second street headquarters, was thrown from the automobile apparatus on Park avenue, near West Fourth street, at 2:30 this afternoon, when the engine was being driven to a grass fire on Union street. He sustained slight lacerations about the head and face and had his shins skinned. The fire was discovered at 2:30 this afternoon. The chemical engine put the blaze out, there being no damage.

VALUE OF TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES

Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Has Provided an Up-to-date Institution.

In calling attention of the public to the various departments of Muhlenberg Hospital an injustice would be done if prominent mention were not made of the Training School for Nurses, which is one of the most important of all the departments. This school for nurses at Muhlenberg Hospital provides care for the sick and a definite course of education for the pupils. The training school is the educational department of the hospital. The function of the hospital is the care and treatment of its patients and as contributing very materially to this, it is proper that it should teach its nurses.

It is only when the patients are taken care of in the best way, by the best methods, that the pupil nurse has the best opportunity for instructions. The daily routine of the pupil nurse, at Muhlenberg Hospital, in addition to her specific hours of duty for the care of the sick, embraces practical demonstration in diatetics, dressing for wounds, bandaging, domestic science, cooking, etc. During the six months that is known as the school year, 250 hours are devoted to lectures and demonstrations, covering some 40 fundamental subjects, including children's and contagious diseases, maternity, medical and surgical treatment, etc.

Continued instruction is given in diatetics; practical massage is taught by a graduate masseuse. The lectures are given by Plainfield physicians and surgeons. A staff of highly trained registered nurses provides the daily supervision and demonstrations. The Muhlenberg Hospital pupil nurse lives an active, absorbing life, full of interesting detail and devoid of the drudgery that is so often erroneously assumed to be incidental to training.

The best current magazines and technical literature are provided in the home. The evenings are enlivened by reasonable forms of social life. The plan of the Training School is to provide a broad education in the art of nursing, and the cultivation of a genuine woman. The various departments of the hospital that have undergone alteration and have just been completed will be thrown open to an informal inspection by the public on the afternoons of Saturday and Sunday, December 19 and 20, from 3 until 6 o'clock.

PLAN PROTECTION TO JERSEY COAST

U. S. Rarmy Experts and Harbor Commission Are Holding Conference Today.

Trenton, Dec. 16—The United States Army District Engineers, the New Jersey Harbor Commission and the committee on harbors and navigation of the State Chamber, are sitting as a joint board today to hear reports of storm damage to the New Jersey coast and to develop a comprehensive plan for protection.

The hearing started at 10:30 this morning in the Assembly chamber with President Heppenheimer, of the State Chamber, in the chair. Delegates from coast resorts, municipalities and communities from Sandy Hook to Cape May were present.

In his opening remarks, President Heppenheimer said: "Last year, at Christmas time, a blizzard visited the New Jersey coast. It was followed on January 3 by another severe storm. Most of the damage was felt at Sea Bright, although other communities were affected.

Two weeks ago another storm devastated the coast. At Sea Bright temporary bulkheads were crushed and torn away with great loss of property. The townsfolk had to seek the shelter of the mainland. Long Branch, Asbury Park and Atlantic City suffered as well and the State suddenly realized that one of New Jersey's most valuable assets, the shore front, was in danger of destruction.

"The State Chamber, representing the taxpayers of New Jersey, felt the necessity of having a survey made to determine the responsibility of property-holders, municipalities and counties, before calling upon State and Federal aid.

"Accordingly with the instant approval of Governor Fielder we invited the United States Army District Engineers and the New Jersey Harbor Commission to sit with us as a joint board to hear the evidence submitted at a public hearing. Their willingness to serve is the best evidence of the importance of this meeting and the desire of all affected to co-operate in solving the problem."

WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE

AN ORDINANCE

To Establish, Regulate and Control the Fire Department of the City of Plainfield, (Revision of 1914).

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Sec. 1. The Fire Department force shall consist of the officers and permanent firemen now members of the present Fire Department of said City and of such additional officers and men as the Common Council shall from time to time deem necessary and by resolution order to be appointed. The members of the force shall rank as follows: Chief, Assistant Chief, Captains, Privates. Whenever two or more officers have the same title, they shall rank in relation to each other in the order of the respective dates of appointment to their offices.

Sec. 2. The duties of the several officers and members of the said force shall be those prescribed by the laws of the State, the ordinances of the City and the Fire Department rules and regulations now in force, or such as may from time to time be prescribed and established by resolution of the Common Council.

Every member of said force shall perform such duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by his authorized superior officer.

Sec. 3. Members of the force other than officers shall be divided into five classes according to their respective terms of service, as follows:

Class A.—Fifth year of service and over.
Class B.—Fourth year of service.
Class C.—Third year of service.
Class D.—Second year of service.
Class E.—First year of service.

Provided, that the Common Council, upon recommendation of the Mayor, may advance any regular member of the force from a lower to a higher class for especially good work or meritorious service, whether he shall have served his full time specified above or not.

Sec. 4. The pay of the force is hereby fixed as follows said rates to take effect on and after January first Nineteen Hundred and Fifteen:

Chief	$1800 per annum
Assistant Chief	1,350 per annum
Captains	1,200 per annum
Class A	1,100 per annum
Class B	1,060 per annum
Class C	1,024 per annum
Class D	964 per annum
Class E	892 per annum

Sec 5. Subject to the ultimate control of the Common Council, the Chief shall have authority to station officers and privates belonging to the force at such Fire Houses of the City as he may deem proper, and also to detail such officers and men to such duty in connection with the department as he shall deem for the best interest of the department, and he may change any such station or revoke any such detail at his discretion.

Sec. 6. The Chief and Assistant Chief shall constitute and be called the "Board of Engineers." They shall make such rules and regulations for conducting the Department, not inconsistent with the laws of the State or ordinances of the City, as they may deem advisable, subject to approval by the Common Council.

Sec. 7. All officers and privates, except those now serving in the Department, shall be nominated by the Mayor and confirmed by the Council, in the same manner as other City officers, and then, after confirmation, as well as the officers and men now serving, shall hold their offices and continue in service as such during good behavior, efficiency and residence in the City, and shall not be removed from office or employment for political reasons or any other cause than incapacity, mis-conduct, non-residence, or disobedience of just rules and regulations which are or may be established for the government of the Department.

Persons to be eligible to membership in the Department must be citizens of the United States, of good moral character and able to read and write the English language. They must be in good health, sound in body and mind, and capable of performing the duties required of them; they must present the certificate of the City Physician that they are physically capable of performing the duties required of them. They must be nominated by the Mayor, recommended by the Board of Engineers and confirmed by the Common Council, and before entering upon their duties as members of the Department, they shall sign an agreement, to be deposited with the Chief that they will abide by and conform to the ordinances of the City and such rules governing the Fire Department as have been or may be approved by the Common Council. All applications for membership shall be made in the handwriting of the applicant, who shall present the same in person to the Mayor, the Committee on Fire and Buildings or the Board of Engineers.

Sec. 8. Any applicant or applicants for membership in said Department may be required, by resolution of the Common Council, to submit himself to trial at active fire duty under service conditions for a period not exceeding six months. Such service shall be regarded as part of an examination as to the qualifications of the applicant. But no such service shall be deemed to entitle such applicant to membership in said Department, nor to continue such trial after proper notice to discontinue the same. During the continuance of such trial the applicant shall be entitled to be paid at the rate of Sixty ($60.00) Dollars per month. When any applicant is nominated, recommended and confirmed as a member of the Department after such trial service, the period covered by such trial service shall be deemed and counted, for the purposes of classification only, as service in Class E, and he shall be entitled to pass into Class D at the expiration of one year from the date when his trial service began. But he shall be entitled to the pay provided for Class E members only from the time of his confirmation by the Council.

Sec. 9. In the Department the day shall commence at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and no leave of absence shall begin before that time. Every member of the Department shall devote all his time to the duties of his office, and even when absent on leave shall be subject to immediate recall by the Chief or Acting Chief.

Sec. 10. The Common Council shall from time to time establish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, or the Ordinances of the City, for the government and control of the Fire Department as may be necessary to make the Fire Department efficient, prompt and useful, and may provide therein such penalties or forfeitures as may be deemed necessary or expedient. These rules shall be established by Common Council by the passage of a resolution or resolutions embodying the same, and when so established shall be binding upon all the officers and members of the Fire Department. Printed copies of such rules shall be supplied by Common Council and delivery of at least one copy thereof shall be made to each officer and member of the Fire Department. Such delivery shall be deemed conclusive of the making and contents thereof.

Sec. 11. No persons shall, during a fire, drive a wagon, cart or other vehicle over any hose or other fire apparatus under penalty of Ten Dollars for each offense.

Sec. 12. No person shall hinder or molest or attempt to do any violence to any officer or member of the Fire Department while in the performance of his duty, under penalty of Twenty Dollars for each offense.

Sec. 13. No person or persons shall raise, create or continue a false alarm of fire under penalty of Twenty Dollars for each offense.

Sec. 14. The Chief shall be the Fire Marshal and Fire Inspector of the City of Plainfield and shall perform such duties as shall devolve upon him as such by the laws of the State, and the ordinances of the City of Plainfield. He shall keep an accurate record of the names of the officers and members of the Department and all appointments and transfers, resignations and removals of firemen as the same shall take place from time to time, and such other particulars as may be necessary and proper. He shall have sole and entire command at fires and alarms of fires, and over all members of the Department, apparatus and appurtenances belonging to the same, and all other persons aiding and assisting the Department. In addition to performing his duties as Building Inspector he shall devote his whole time to the service of the Department, and shall report the condition of the Department to the Committee on Fire and Buildings as often as they shall request. He shall order officers, men and apparatus out to work, wash, drill or for inspection, at such time and place as he may designate, and whenever he may deem it necessary for the efficiency of the Department. In the absence or disability of the Chief, the Assistant Chief, and in the absence of both the Chief and Assistant Chief, the ranking captain shall assume command and perform the duties of the Chief, and in such case shall be known and designated as "Acting Chief."

Sec. 15. The Chief or Acting Chief shall be responsible for the property of the Department. He shall see that all engines, motors, hose wagons, trucks, hose and horses, and all other apparatus and property belonging to the Department are kept constantly in order for immediate and efficient service, and shall report immediately any repairs that may be necessary to the property in his charge to the Committee on Fire and Buildings.

Sec. 16. Upon going to or returning from an alarm of fire, in no case shall persons not connected with the Department be allowed to ride on any apparatus of the Department.

Sec. 17. All complaints to the Chief, or Assistant Chief, against any member of the Department for mis-conduct or neglect in the performance of his duty, shall be forthwith reported to the Committee on Fire and Buildings. All complaints made by citizens or persons of good repute to the Mayor or any member of the Common Council against any member of the Fire Department for mis-conduct or neglect in the performance of his duty, shall be forthwith reported to the Committee on Fire and Buildings.

Sec. 18. No intoxicating beverage of any description whatsoever shall be allowed on the premises of the Fire Department. Any member of the Fire Department may, for intoxication, be deprived of his badge and suspended for or dismissed, at the option of the Common Council.

Sec. 19. No person or persons except officers and members of the Department shall at any time enter any of the houses of the Department, except the Mayor of the City, members of the Common Council, visitors accompanied by a member of the Fire Department, or any police officer in the proper discharge of his duty, and no boys shall be permitted in any house of the Department, or to have any access whatever to the apparatus in going to or returning from fires or alarms. The members are hereby enjoined to enforce the provisions of this section. No bills for expenses incurred for the Fire Department shall be presented to the Council until the same shall have been certified by the Chief as correct.

Sec. 20. Any member of the Department who shall violate any section of this ordinance or any rule or regulation made pursuant to the authority of this ordinance shall be liable to reprimand, fine, suspension without pay, or dismissal from the Department, at the discretion of the Common Council.

Sec. 21. The office of "Call Men" is hereby abolished.

Sec. 22. The ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance to Establish, Regulate and Control a Fire Department in the City of Plainfield," approved May 6, 1899, and all amendments thereto, are hereby repealed, and all other ordinances or parts thereof inconsistent with this Ordinance are, so far as inconsistent herewith, repealed.

Sec. 23. This ordinance shall take effect on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifteen, at eight o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

Adopted by the Common Council, December 7, 1914, approved by the Mayor, December 7, 1914.

AN ORDINANCE

To Widen East Second Street from the Northeasterly Side Line of Watchung Avenue to the Southwesterly Side Line of Church Street.

WHEREAS, The Common Council judge that the public good requires the widening of East Second Street between the points named in the title to this ordinance, therefore

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That East Second Street, in the City of Plainfield, from the northeasterly side line of Watchung Avenue to the southwesterly side line of Church Street, be widened and laid out so that said East Second Street shall be of the uniform width of twenty-five feet on each side of the centre line thereof as established by this ordinance, which said centre line is described as follows: Beginning at an iron manhole head, marked, in the centre line of Watchung Avenue, said point being distant four and seventy-four hundredths (4.74) feet in a southeasterly direction along said centre line of Watchung Avenue from an iron monument in the intersection of the centre lines of said Watchung Avenue and East Second Street as at present laid out and opened; and running from said first mentioned point in a northeasterly direction a distance of three hundred and ninety-four and two tenths (394.2) feet to an iron monument in the intersection of the centre lines of Church and East Second Streets as now laid out and opened.

The land to be taken for the widening of said East Second Street on the northeasterly side of the same from the northeasterly side line of Watchung Avenue to the southwesterly side line of Church Street, includes all that part of the property now or formerly of The Home Real Estate Company, William A. Woodruff, Charles M. Raybert and John H. Borman, which lies between the present northwesterly side line of said street as now laid out and opened, and a line parallel with the centre line of said street as established by this ordinance and distant therefrom twenty-five (25) feet in a northwesterly direction.

The land to be taken for the widening of said East Second Street on the southeasterly side of the same from the northeasterly side line of Watchung Avenue to the southwesterly side line of Church Street, includes all that part of the property now or formerly of The United States of America, The Plainfield Milk and Cream Company, The Trustees of the Rahway and Plainfield Monthly Meeting of Friends and Joseph C. Allen, which lies between the present southeasterly side line of said street as now laid out and opened and a line parallel with the centre line of said street as established by this ordinance, and distant therefrom twenty-five (25) feet in a southeasterly direction.

The land to be taken and the lines of the above described portion of East Second Street, as the same is hereinabove ordered to be widened, are shown on a map on file with the City Clerk entitled "Map Showing proposed laying out and widening of East Second Street, from Watchung Avenue to a point 225 feet northeast of the centre of Washington Street, June, 1914."

Adopted by the Common Council, December 7, 1914; approved by the Mayor, December 7, 1914.

RADIN LEADS LOCALS IN EAGLES STANDING

Holds Fourth Place With Average of 178 With George Miller Twelfth.

Secretary Claude H. Reed, Jr., has just issued the official records for the five-man team bowling tournament that is being conducted by the Fraternal Order of Eagles. They show that the Newark quintet is showing the way with a record of ten games won and two lost, the Elizabeths being second with ten victories and five defeats. Newark holds high team average with 860-2. Elizabeth has made the best single game tally to date, a score of 971. McCarthy, of the Somerville team, has the best individual average, a mark of 196, but he has only taken part in six games, and the leading honors really belong to Schwab, of the Somerville team, who has an average of 182-4 for fifteen games. SHANNON HAS HIGH AVERAGE TO DATE

Leader of 175 Class in Columbus Club Tourney Has Mark of 201.4.

The first averages of the Columbus Club five-man bowling tournament have been compiled by George Taylor and they are divided into five classes, the 175, 165, 155, 145 and 135 divisions. The players are put into these classes according to their showings and many of the averages are very high. Shannon leads the high class with an average of 201.4, which is considered very good. Sullivan is next in this same class with a mark of 191.

Duffy, with 185, leads the 165 class, and John Greene heads the next lower with 179.4. Gueterman has pinned well in the second lowest division and has an average of 193.3, while Regan leads the members of the lowest class with 161.1. The official averages follow:

SWIMMERS IN FIRST MEET.

Boston, Dec. 16—The first authorized swimming meet in which women are allowed on the same program with men, under the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union, will be held tonight at Ocean Pier Baths, Revere Beach. A flock of fair swimmers have registered as regular amateurs with the New England Amateur Union, and a handicap 40-yard event and a relay race have been scheduled for the mermaids. It was at Revere that Annette Kellerman developed here wonderful swimming and diving abilities.

WILL ELECT NEW CAPTAIN.

There will be an important practice of the Y. M. C. A. basketball team tonight, and all members of the squad should be present. A new leader will probably be elected to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Captain Al Brynarski, and a hard practice will be held for the game against the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. next Saturday night. The practice will start at 8 o'clock.

BANQUET LOUISVILLE ATHLETE.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 16—The sprinting prowess of Edward Dreveenstedt will be toasted in cordial German fashion tonight, when the Louisville German societies will banquet the athlete who outdistanced all rivals in a five-mile run on Thanksgiving day.

There was some great bowling done last night, by the Elizabeth pinknights in an Elks' Senior League match on their own alleys with the representatives of the Rahway Elks, the home five capturing three games in a row. They had totals of 1,041, 1,019 and 947, averaging 1,002-1. The visitors did good work in the last two games, with totals of 909 and 981, but never gave the home five a real fight.

Harry Clauss totaled 256 in the last game for Elizabeth and averaged 213. Bock was there for 239 and his average for the three games was 202-1. Joe Nolte had counts of 220 and 210 and averaged 204-2. Gathman tallied 209 in the last game and Maloney had 201. McCartney had a count of 234 in the last game for Rahway, Koops had 212, Albright 203 and Langton 201.

New York bowlers succeeded in capturing two games out of three in an Elks' Senior League match on the Rutherford team's alleys last night. The home five started off in fine style with a total of 982, the visitors stopping at 854, but the latter came back with 918 and evened things up, Rutherford rolling only 861 in the second game. The third and deciding game saw the New Yorkers total 888, Rutherford putting up a good argument with 861. A. Walters tallied 224 and 204 for Rutherford, and had an average of 204-2. Clark tallied 214 and Widmayer 201. A. Westphal led the visitors with 224, L. Westphal turned in 216 and Charley Starr had 201.

CLINTON AND BRUGGY CHANGE IN N. Y. LEAGUE STANDING

The week's play of the New York State Basketball League, has changed the standings of Jimmy Clinton and Frank Bruggy, two athletes who are known in these parts as baseball players and the former who is a member of the Cohoes club, advanced from third to second place and now has a total of 115 points. Leary, of Troy, dropped back to third with 114. Clinton has played in 17 games and has scored 42 field goals and 31 fouls.

Bruggy took a big drop during the week, from eleventh to eighteenth place and has a total of 78. He plays guard and has taken part in all the games his team has played. He has 30 baskets and 18 fouls credited to him.

BATTIN TEAM CANCELS.

Because of trouble with the faculty, the boys' basketball team of Battin High School, of Elizabeth, has been forced to cancel the game scheduled with the Plainfield High School team Friday. Manager Zelmas immediately got busy and booked the Randolph Military Academy five to appear on the local court in place of the Elizabethans.

Plainfield Junior Elk pinners dropped a pair of games to the New Brunswick junior "Bills" on the Watchung avenue drives, last night, and the locals now have four games to their credit and five marked against them and are in third place in the standings. Charles Woolston hit the pins in the second game for a 224, which went for high score of the series.

The home players started off poorly, Woolston leading off with a 133 and Hoyt following with a 162. Carberry, of the New Brunswick team, started his team on the road to victory with a 180 and at the end of the match there were 28 points between the two scores, which were 813 to 785. Woolston made his high crack, the only two hundred score of the match, in the second game, which helped materially to bring this contest to the home team. All of the local scores in this game were higher than the corresponding ones of the visitors with the exception of Laing, whose mark was 136.

New Brunswick came back in the last game and easily won the odd roll, the scores being 862 to 816. Waldorf made high score for the home team in this game, getting a 186.

SPORTING NOTES

Connie Mack holds the limelight.

The St. Louis Browns will go to Texas for training, says a despatch.

Dallas has signed up Joe Dunn, of the Atlanta team, as manager.

Two judges and a referee, with decisions, is the Cleveland boxing rule.

Philadelphia now has 24 leagues of basketball, with more than 170 crack teams.

Shifting players is believed by Connie Mack to be a good thing for the game. The theory is new with him.

They made the referee pay $4 to see the Welsh-Shughrue bout over in New York last week. No dead heads there.

Sunday baseball is tabooed in Baltimore, by the court's recent interpretation of the law.

The new record baseball price, $50,000, paid by Comiskey for Eddie Collins, will hold for some time.

Joe Shughrue and Charlie White are matched for ten rounds at New York next Wednesday night.

Charley Frank, scout for the Naps, has signed up as manager of Little Rock in the Southern League.

Bennie Allen, of Kansas City ,is still pool champion. He defeated Maturo, of Denver, 600 to 493.

Jess Willard will probably be trained by Jim Daly, who put Jim Corbett nd Gus Ruhlin into the running.

Leslie Mann, of the Braves, has turned down an offer "your own price" from the Federal League.

Fred Maisel, who stole 74 bases last season, averaged to steal every third time he reached first.

A big plunger is Bert Shank, of Cleveland, who has bought 22 colts and fillies, sired by Peter the Great, paying an even thousand each.

The Cubs will train at Campa, beginning March 1. Coming North they will play at Savannah, Birmingham, Nashville, Chattanooga and Memphis.

Billy Sunday ,the evangelist, himself a former White Sox player, is blamed for poor baseball attendance in Ohio. His revival campaign had them busy praying last summer.

Walter Johnson leaves a big gap in the Senators' roster of twirlers. Joe Boehling is expected to show like a whirlwind the coming season, and the "Old Fox" had visions before the Federals got in their work.

LEAL FIVE LOST TO WESTFIELD QUINTET

Locals Led Opponents at End of First Period but Were Finally Beaten.

The Leal School basketball team lost another hard game to the Westfield High School five on the latter's court, yesterday afternoon, six points separating the scores when the final whistle blew. The score was 19 to 13. In the first half of the contest the private school aggregation had it all over their opponents and, shooting for the poor basket which the Westfield floor possesses, they managed to end the initial period one point to the good, the score being 8 to 7.

The home team, with several fresh men, started off the second half with a rush and soon obtained the lead which was not overcome throughout the remainder of the game. Pearsall, with his trio of field goals in the last period, was largely responsible for the local defeat as he played a fine game both shooting and guarding. The Plainfield forwards could get only three field goals, Stewart scoring a pair of these. Schneider dropped in six shots from the fifteen foot mark.

SHOTS AND MISSES

Battin High School athletes are engaged in their annual battle with the faculty of the Elizabeth institution and once more have cancelled their basketball engagement with Plainfield High School. It's hardly worth while for the local manager to recognize the Battin athletic forces in making up schedules, so frequent are the cancellations, and it might be well to drop that school from the red and blue "calling list."

The Elizabetheans have the habit of getting in "Dutch" with the faculty about this time every year and if that event failed to occur we'd think there was something wrong in Betsytown.

Those North Plainfield High School lassies are going "great guns" on the basketball court just at present and if the present campaign continues in its fierceness that initial interscholastic tilt with the Plainfield girls should be a hummer. Both aggregations appear to be a little below par this year, but nevertheless the squads are evenly matched and the fight for the title will undoubtedly be closely waged.

Plainfield High School athletic manager received a challenge from DeWitt Clinton High School yesterday, for a swimming meet. Such is fame without a team. The New Yorkers, like some other sport promoters, evidently think that the fine new pool in the Ninth street institution should be an incentive to water sports.

The trio of basketball games to be put on at the Y. M. C. A. every Saturday night appears to be somewhat of an overdose. Even basketball fans get indigestion once in a while and a bulky menu of this calibre is likely to produce the worst kind of dissatisfaction.

The announcement to the effect that New York Law School athletes have patched up their differences with the athletic association and will appear here New Year's day comes as a welcome tiding to local followers of the sport who well remember the pair of good games staged with this metropolitan crew last season.

What's the matter with North Plainfield High School? Haven't heard from the male basketball forces over the water in nearly a week. "Canada" is another place where suffrage rules athletics at this writing.

Allen Snyder's movement to organize a basketball league in these parts is a worthy one. Lend your support to make it a reality.

FOURTH COURT WIN FOR BOROUGH SEXTET

North Plainfield Girls Scored Easy Victory Over Cranford Girls at That Place.

Another victory was added to the list of the North Plainfield High School girls sextet when it defeated the Cranford High School girls' "six" at that place, yesterday, by a score of 21 to 9.

The game was not a very exciting one as the North Plainfield delegation gained a good lead in the first half of play and held it throughout the remaining periods, the final whistle blowing with the Cranford team 12 points in the rear.

The first half ended 10 to 4.

Miss Burtis and Miss Debele played good games for the borough team, and Miss McCullough, who has not played in any of the games before this season, held down her position at center very well. Miss Keller also played well at guard.

Captain Johnson, of the opposing team, played the best game for her side and kept the borough players from scoring more baskets than they did.

SPORTING FORUM

Sporting Editor:

In the Press of December 15, a sesever criticism is made of the management of the games at the Y. M. C. A., on Saturday nights. The author is evidently of the impression that the games should be run to suit the convenience of six or seven star players and a few spectators and not the general membership who pay the same membership fee as said players.

The preliminary game called in question had nothing to do with the dissatisfaction among the spectators because this game was over before the usual time for a preliminary game. Surely our critic would not stage a big contest without the usual preliminary game.

If our critic would be influenced less by a few disgruntled players, and more so by the bulk of the membership, who are now having an opportunity to get into the game, he would do well.

Thanking you for the publication of this Mr. Editor, I am,

Very truly yours,
R. L. MEERMANS.

CLARIN WINS FIRST HEAT AND THEN TAKES FINALS

The Senior Color League, of the Y. M. C. A., held the nine-potato race event last night, and two heats and the finals were run off. The first was won by Dave Clarin, the second by Karlberg and in the finals Clarin again came outa winner. The time was 42 seconds flat. The results follows:

First heat: Clarin, White; VanNorden, Orange; Ricketts, Red; second heat: Karlberg, White; Ostrom, Orange; Kenney, Orange; final: Clarin, White, VanNorden, Orange; Ricketts, Red. Time, 42 seconds.

ADMIT THAT "GOLF IS AN OLD MAN'S GAME."

The phrase "Golf is an old man's game," so often tauntingly used by the uninitiated, is being turned to good account in the British Isles. Since the war began bitter criticism has been levelled at golfers who continued to use the links.

"Golf is an old man's game," say friends of the sport, "and only the golfers too old to enlist are playing it now. All the younger ones, including the amateur champion, are at the front."

N. P. H. S. BOYS WILL FORM RIFLE TEAM

New Branch of Sport to Be Introduced if Enough Interest is Shown.

Several boys in the North Plainfield High School are trying to organize a rifle club in the school and much interest has already been shown by a large number of the students. The instigator of the plan is Charles Roll, '16, and if a good per cent. of the boys of the High School can be interested in the plan it will be organized. Roll is being assisted by Richard McDonald. Although it is practically a new branch of sport for a High School, it is being introduced into all of the New York institutions and boarding schools at the expense of the United States Government.

If a required number of the enrolled boys of any High School are willing to form a club the Government will supply the firearms and ammunition free of charge. This plan is to get the young men of this country thoroughly acquainted with the use of army rifles and there is a very small number of High School students who can handle one properly.

The Government will also detail an instructor, probably from a local or nearby company, to have charge of the work. With the permission of the Borough Board of Education, an 80 foot range could be placed in the basement of the Somerset School. A meeting of those interested in this movement will be held in the near future.

JACKSON WINNER OF HOP, STEP AND JUMP EVENT

The running hop, step and jump event was held in the College League at the Y. M. C. A., yesterday, and was won by Jackson, whose distance was 28 feet 7 inches. Case was second with a mark of 26 feet 5 inches. The winner is a member of the Harvard team. The results follow:

Jackson, Harvard, 28.7; Case, Princeton, 26.5; Douglas, Yale, 24.9; Weglau, Princeton, 24.6; Erickson, Rutgers, 24.6; Snyder, Princeton, 23.10; Tomlinson, Harvard, 23.9; Angerbauer, Harvard, 23; Hammann, Yale, 22.9; Condict, Rutgers, 17.9; Canfield, Yale, 15.

SCHOOL FOR FARMERS.

Philadelphia, Dec. 16—The campaign of the Pennsylvania State College to aid farmers in solving the cost of living and increasing the net returns of their work was carried into Philadelphia yesterday, when experts from the college opened a three days' lecture program on seventeen subjects. The care of fruit trees, cultivation of crops, breeding of swine and other animals, sale of products, and may kindred subjects were discussed yesterday and today. Practical demonstrations in judging beef, dairy cattle and other barnyard creatures will be given by Professor W. T. Tomhave.

MURDER TRIAL ON TOMORROW.

Haverstraw, N. Y., Dec. 16.—William V. Cleary, former town clerk of Haverstraw, will be tried tomorrow for the murder of his son-in-law, Eugene Newman. A special panel of 75 talesmen has been drawn. The court ordered that there be night sessions during the trial. Newman, the dead man, had eloped with Cleary's daughter, Miss Anna Cleary, and it is predicted that this will be the motive in the State's case.

BATTLESHIP HORROR INQUEST.

Chatham, Eng., Dec. 16—The inquest into the deaths of the 800 men who were lost when the battleship Bulwark was blown up off Sheernees, opened here today. The Admiralty has already made its investigation of the circumstances surrounding the ill fate of the warship, which sank in November. Identification has been made of the bodies recovered.

THE PROPER COURSE.

Information of Priceless Value to Every Plainfield Citizen.

How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer from kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Plainfield citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived.

Thomas Haskard, 927 South Second street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Randolph's drug store, have relieved me time and time again when I have been suffering from kidney trouble and I owe a great deal to them. I never hesitate to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know of their merit."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Haskard had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

MUTTON DIET FOR AUSTRIA

Campaign Against Paris and London Fashions Bearing Fruit In Vienna. Food Sent by Wives and Sweethearts of Soldiers Destroyed, Owing to Time Occupied In Transit.

A novel appeal to the public has been issued by the mayor and corporation of Brausberg, a township of East Prussia. This district seems to be very prolific in cats, and the authorities have hit upon the idea of thinning out the cats and at the same time benefitting the army in the field.

They therefore call upon the citizens to shoot the cats and to send in the skins as speedily as possible to the town hall. The mayor promises to superintend the conversion of the skins into body belts and mittens.

The proportion of cats, he declares, in this and other townships is so large that it will not even be a sacrifice for the citizens to part with them. He hopes his appeal will be acted on and says that as the cats' skins afford protection against rheumatism they will prove of great comfort and value to the soldiers.

Mutton Propaganda.

But there is no end to the novelties which the war has produced in Austria-Hungary. One of the most amusing items in this same correspondent's dispatch is that referring to a mutton propaganda which has just begun in Vienna. It seems that the Austrian has an obstinate prejudice against this meat, which is seldom touched, while, on the other hand, there are large flocks of sheep in the country and the exportation of them is prohibited. The patriotic mind, clearly seeing that if mutton were fashionable a great saving of the stocks of beef, veal and pork would be effected, has started this mutton propaganda.

A committee has been formed which has arranged a mutton feast, at which appetizing menus of this meat will be practically demonstrated at a trifling cost to the participants and propaganda literature distributed.

The campaign against foreign fashions in Austria-Hungary has taken a practical turn, and under the auspices of the government and commercial bodies in Vienna a commission has been formed to create independent Vienna fashions and educate the Austrian public to adopt these in preference to the modes imported from London and Paris.

Paris Fashions Tabooed.

It has now become an offense against social etiquette for a Vienna woman to wear a Paris hat or for a Vienna man to wear clothes cut in the English fashion.

So the movement of the Austrian milliners and costume makers promises to be successful. Exhibitions of the new fashions are to be held, at which the public are invited to express their opinions. Of these more may be heard later.

Vienna women are very enthusiastic over the war. The empress bestowed the cross of the Francis Joseph order upon the wife of an Austrian lieutenant who followed her husband into the field and even into the trenches, where she displayed conspicuous bravery.

But in another direction the authorities have found it necessary to restrain the ardor of the women. Wives and sweethearts of the soldiers have been in the habit, in spite of earlier prohibition, of sending parcels of perishable food to the front, so that at one center alone 25,000 consignments proved uneatable and had to be destroyed owing to the time occupied in transit. This prohibition has now been stringently renewed.

NEWEST ZEPPELINS TERRORS

They're Armed With Torpedoes as Destructive as 42 Centimeter Shells.

The London Standard's Amsterdam correspondent telegraphs that fresh stories are in circulation about the feverish haste with which the Germans are turning out Zeppelins. It is said that the Germans now have available forty of the new type of Zeppelin. The chief improvement lies in the fact that the explosives no longer are discharged from the navigating cabin, but are fired when the craft goes into action from a special car suspended 500 yards below the airship proper. Only one man occupies this magazine car, so that if anything goes wrong the loss of life will be comparatively insignificant, while, on the other hand, the chances of damage to the airship by premature explosion or other mishap are reduced to next to nothing.

It is again asserted that the new Zeppelins are being fitted with a kind of torpedo, from thirty to forty of which will be carried by each ship. Their explosive power is said to be fully equivalent to that of a shell of the famous 42 centimeter siege guns. For defense purposes a number of quick firers are carried fore and aft, as well as on a special gun platform on the roof of the airship. A new lookout also has been rigged up on top of the envelope, with a telephone to the commander.

The Case of War Talk Jobkins

Jim Jobkins was a salesman, wondrous clever,
Made welcome in a hundred country stores;
His firm esteemed him quite the brightest ever
Where others brought one dollar, Jim brought scores.
But suddenly the Jobkins orders faded,
Expenses, though, abated not a whit;
The firm thought faithful Jim was getting jaded,
'Twas hinted that he'd better rest a bit.

But, spoke the senior manager, explaining:
"I'll tell you just why Jim is falling down.
His customers with war talk he is paining,
He's spouting fight in every country town.
Instead of goods a war map's on the table,
He tells of Krupps and Zeppelins and such;
At analyzing war moves Jim is able,
But war talk doesn't help this firm o'er much."

So Jim received a telegram next morning.
It read, "Leave war to those who have to fight."
And now no stores with war maps Jim's adorning,
He took the hint and orders came all right.
If all the Jims upon commercial highways
Talked not a word of war 'twixt train and train
'Twould help prosperity along the byways.
Let War Talk Jobkins' case be not in vain.

BELGIAN KING'S PALACE SHOWS QUICK FLIGHT.

On Small Desk Was Crystal Glass Half Full of Milk.

The Berlin Tageblatt publishes the following description from its correspondent at the German chief headquarters concerning the now abandoned palace of the Belgian king:

"Sunday morning—the streets of Antwerp are deserted. A few German guards are on the lookout, for a possible passerby is about all to be seen. With three companions I walked upon the long stretches of the elite Place de Meir, which was laid out upon the site of an old canal, long since filled in. We proceeded in the direction of the cathedral and convinced ourselves that not one house along this historic place had been injured.

"The king's palace is situated here, separated only by the Rue de Rubens from a small residential structure of some nobleman. The palace was erected during the eighteenth century. The king and queen of Belgium fled from it on the morning of Oct. 8, and my companions and myself were the first to roam about the deserted chambers since their flight. The living rooms of the king's suite are on the ground floor. In the small antechamber leading to the stairs we found soft silk carpets which muffled every step. Here stands a costly chandelier of massive bronze, with a great lantern surmounted by the Belgian crown. A beautiful though small reception room furnished in the empire style leads into the private apartments of the king. Now we enter the study of the king, a modest chamber in white, with sculptured reliefs about the walls and otherwise furnished in light green. In the center of this room stands the king's mahogany desk, covered with green felt, upon which still lies the inkstand with pen. The king's seal is also there.

"Adjoining the study is a pretty little cabinet furnished in sky blue, in which the young princess in days of peace was wont to dream of her dolls, which she left behind in her little boudoir adjoining. From the elegantly furnished sleeping apartment of the royal pair, the most modern chamber in the entire palace, we step into the 'dressing' room of the king. In this room he had passed his last hour in Antwerp. His flight must have been very sudden. Upon a small desk there stands a crystal glass, half full of milk. Beside this glass lies a paper, the last the king read here, the Cologne Gazette of Oct. 2, opened up and marked here and there; also where the headline 'The Truth About Louvain' appeared, which must have been to Albert, king of the Belgians, like a flaming 'Mene tekel.'"

SOCIAL LIFE IN CELLARS.

Residents of Pont-a-Mousson, France, Seek Shelter From Shells.

Much of the social life here is passed in the cellars while the shells—which have been falling here for more than two months—go whistling by or demolish the ground floor over our heads, says a correspondent at Pont-a-Mousson, France.

The cellar of the Mmes. Francois in this town is typical. It is made of solid concrete, with walls four feet thick and a dome fully as massive. There are two or three narrow slits for light and air and double swinging doors with artistic wrought iron hinges.

The interior is dark even in daylight. In one corner are the dim outlines of wine casks and cobwebby dusty rows of old wine bottles. From the dome are suspended carrots and onions and dried beans. The Mmes. Francois are very hospitable to the thirty or forty neighbors, who rush into their cellar at the sound of the first shell.

Life in the cellar is not too dull. We discuss the probable outcome of the war and closer at hand speculate upon what house is being hit by each particular shell that passes. An especially loud explosion like a clap of thunder would be followed by a rain of debris on the roof.

KHEDIVE OF EGYPT WITH THE OTTOMANS

Has Been but a Nominal Ruler Under England.

The khedive of Egypt, who has been in Constantinople since the war began and who is said to have been forbidden by the British to return to his country, has been placed in command of the Turkish operations against Egypt. He owes spiritual allegiance to the sultan of Turkey as the head of the Moslem faith.

For twenty-two years Abbas Hilmi, khedive of Egypt, has been the figurehead through whom England ruled Egypt.

Egypt still remains a tributary state of Turkey, ruled by a hereditary prince, but since the rebellion of Arabi in 1882 no important decree has been promulgated without the approval previously obtained of the British minister plenipotentiary.

But since the Koran forbids the surrender of Moslem soil, the khedive is still to native eyes the lawful lord of Egypt under the sultan of Turkey. The khedive has declared his loyalty to the sultan and also his willingness to accompany the Turkish army marching on Egypt by way of Palestine.

CAPTAIN DECKER'S RECORD.

He Enjoys the Absolute Confidence of the Government.

Captain Benton C. Decker, now commanding the United States steamship Tennessee in Turkish waters, is an officer with an excellent record during his service, since graduation from the Naval academy, to which he was appointed from Illinois in 1883. Both the president and Secretary Daniels have absolute confidence in his judgment.

He has had considerable experience in duty similar to that which he is now performing in Turkish waters. He was in command of the United States steamship Chester during the war between Italy and Turkey.

During that war the Chester spent considerable time in Tripolitan waters looking out for American interests. Captain Decker was promoted to captain on July 1, 1913, and was ordered to duty on the staff at the Naval war college, from which duty he was detached to command the Tennessee in August last, when that vessel was sent to Europe for the relief of distressed Americans in the war zone.

A GOOD LESSON

was taught last week by the Edison fire that every property owner should take to himself.

This fire substantiated the fact that a building of brick or concrete construction is not fire proof. It also showed that even great minds are short sighted in not protecting their investment with adequate insurance.

We can help you to overcome both obstacles by providing both "fire proof" and "sufficient" protection.

Daddy's Bedtime Story— The Christmas Robin and What Became of It.

The Boy Took Him to the House.

"I THOUGHT the robins were all safe and sound in the southland before Christmas, daddy," said Jack when daddy announced the title of the evening story.

"Most of them are," replied daddy, "but once in awhile one gets left behind, and this story is about the robin that was left.

"When Mrs. Robin was ready to go south she called her family around her and gave them much good advice about the journey.

"Daddy Robin had already departed, and her advice to her family was that they should keep close to her and follow her all the way because, of course, she knew the route and they didn't.

"They all nodded their little heads in assent save one little fellow. This one flirted his tail and tossed his head and winked his beady eyes as much as to say that he would do as he pleased.

"It's he had been talking with a little English sparrow, and the sparrow had told him all about the delights of a northern Christmas, painting in glowing colors the snow-bound hills and the fields of ice.

"And the English sparrow had aroused in the robin's red breast a great desire to remain here and see all this and also to feast upon the crumbs which the sparrow said were so generously thrown to them by the little boy and girl who lived in the brown cottage.

"So when Mamma Robin set out on her journey this flirtatious little fellow stopped behind.

"The weather kept getting colder and colder, and pretty soon the snow began to fall, and, dear me, how cold and miserable the poor little robin was!

"He didn't care at all about hopping around in the snow as the English sparrows did, and so he moped in the barn.

"One morning the little boy from the brown cottage was in the barn, and lying upon the floor he saw the robin.

"It was not dead, but very nearly so. The boy took him to the house and wrapped him up in a piece of flannel, and pretty soon, when he was thawed out, the little boy and girl fed him with crumbs.

"Then they found a canary's cage in the attic, and in this cage they popped Mr. Robin.

"And all through Christmas time he hung in the window all snug and warm and watched the English sparrows hopping around in the snow, and he ate so many crumbs that he grew very, very fat. But that didn't worry him at all. When spring came he told all his friends what a fine Christmas he'd had, for, of course, the boy and girl let him out when spring came."

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

"Now, daddy, we have seen all our Christmas things. We are going to take you to see yours," exclaimed twelve-year-old Frank.

"Let's blindfold him," said mamma, producing a muffler. "Here, Edith, fasten it over his eyes, and Frank and Mildred can lead him to the study."

The children danced for joy over this feature of the program, and after Edith had pinned the muffler in place, the father took her in his arms, and was guided by the two elder children, while mamma opened the doors. They led him to a handsome mission desk, then Edith removed the bandage and all watched the father's face.

He had expected an array of childish gifts, such as they had prepared for him every year, but the desk, excellent in design and workmanship, filled him with amazement.

"What does it mean?" he asked, turning to his wife, whose face was dimpling with happiness.

"It's a long story, dear," she answered, "so sit down while we tell it. This desk has been earned by the children and me. I added a very little from my allowance. The plans were made early last spring. Each one will tell how his money was earned. Let Edith begin, as she is the baby."

"Surely my baby girl, my six-year-old, couldn't earn money for daddy," he said, taking the child on his knee.

"Yes, I did," she answered in sweet seriousness. "I picked up potatoes for grandpa. He gave me five cents for every basket."

"How much did you earn for daddy?" asked the father, giving her a big hug and kiss.

"I earned $1.50. I picked up thirty bushels. Is that right, mother?" she asked.

"Yes, dear. Here, Jack, is a kodak picture I took of her," and she handed the father a photo of the little girl sitting in a potato field.

"I'll certainly have that framed and hung over the desk," said the father, laughing as he gazed and hugged his darling to his heart.

"Frank comes next," continued mamma, "and his plan was his own."

"Well, I started an ice cream business," said Frank. "Mother got the cream all ready to freeze, but I paid for all the stuff and did the freezing and selling. I had some regular customers. Every Saturday I sold a gallon at five cents for a big cooking spoonful. I cleared about sixty cents a trip and made $4.80. I would have made more," he added excitedly, "but Jake Binson met me one Saturday and told everybody I licked the spoon after dishing the cream, and they believed him, though I told them it wasn't so. I never did lick the spoon," he added in great excitement.

"Of course not," said the father reassuringly. "You are a fine little business man. Have you his picture, too? I want all of them in a row over the desk."

"Yes," said mamma, handing over a print of the boy in straw hat and blouse standing by a little express wagon containing a freezer.

"I earned another $2.50 picking up potatoes, too," put in the boy.

"Seven dollars and thirty cents is a big sum for a twelve-year-old to earn," said the father, with a look of admiration that paid the boy for all his efforts.

"Now, Mildred," said the father, turning to a tall slip of a girl with shining dark eyes.

"I made my paint brush do service," began Mildred. "You know how pleased the children were who received the paper dolls I made last Christmas. I took some samples to school and everyone who had a little sister or cousin ordered. I got five cents for some dresses, ten cents for party dresses, twenty-five cents for opera cloaks, and the dainty underwear I made brought in a pretty penny. I made $7 in all."

"Ah! Here is a photo of you at your work," exclaimed father as mamma handed him the print. "Thank you, dear little daughter."

"Now, mother, tell what you did!" chorused the children.

"I conducted parties through the gallery and museum. This is the funniest of all," laughed mamma.

"I do not understand," said her husband.

"You know the different classes of school children visit the gallery and the teachers cannot always take care of them. So a guide is hired to explain the pictures and historical relics. I was paid by the hour and earned $10," explained mamma.

"This is all very wonderful," said her husband. "I never had anything give me so much pleasure in my life. The hours of loving work and the resourcefulness you have shown are the things that count. The desk will always remind me of them as long as I live."

VOTES FOR WOMEN

Conducted by the Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield.

FAVORABLE TREND IN NEW JERSEY.

State Grange and Democratic Club in Jersey City Out for Suffrage.

New Jersey, which will probably be the next State to vote on an equal suffrage amendment, is showing a decidedly favorable trend. The State Grange last week at its session in Atlantic City, endorsed suffrage and advocated the admission of women on equal terms to the Agricultural College at New Brunswick.

At a recent meeting of one of the Democratic clubs of Jersey City one of the members suggested that a speaker on suffrage be secured, and himself made an eloquent speech. The Jersey Journal says:

"He was fired with zeal. His words were burning. Something of his enthusiasm seemed to imbue his hearers. At once there were a score on their feet—their own feet—with resolutions. The chairman, Joe Duff, recognized M. J. McEvoy.

" 'I move that this organization, the Seventh Ward Democratic Club, go on record here this evening as being heartily in accord with the noble fight that our sisters are making for the franchise. I move that this club go on record as endorsing woman suffrage.' Mr. Fowler seconded the motion."

When the vote was taken every man present but one voted "aye."

Miss Florence Leech, of Montana, is to be a field worker for the New Jersey Woman's Suffrage Association.

Miss Rankin, president of the Montana Suffrage Association recommends her as one of the best of her workers during the recent successful campaign. She is a young woman about twenty-five years of age. She will begin work in New Jersey in January.

Suffrage Schools.

Four of these are to be held in the next few weeks. The first was held in Paterson, December 4 and 5; second, Trenton, 18 and 19 (probably); third, Camden, Jan. 8 and 9; Jersey City later in Jan. Information about these may be obtained from Mrs. Wm. Armstrong, 23 North Hermitage avenue, Trenton; Mrs. W. D. Kerlin, 314 State street, Camden, and Miss M. L. MacNaughton, 543 Bergen avenue, Jersey City. The registration fee will be one dollar.

Co-operative Committee.

Mrs. Feickert reported having started a Campaign States Co-operative Committee while in Nashville. The final organization meeting is to be held in Mrs. Catt's office, New York, on December 11. There was three members on the committee from each of the four Eastern campaign States, Masachusetts, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, and the committee will co-operate in the exchange of speakers, and in other ways. The New Jersey representatives on the committee will be Miss Esther G. Ogden, Elizabeth, and Mrs. W. D. Kerlin, Camden, and Mrs. Feickert.

Plans for an efficient speakers' bureau is now under way, particulars of which will be sent to leagues by the first of January. Mrs. Bayard Naylor, our new corresponding secretary, is to take charge of this.

Suffrage Victory Calendars.

Mrs. George G. Scott, Passaic county organizer, for the State association, has for sale a quantity of "Victory" suffrage calendars for 1915. These retail at 12c each, or $1 a dozen, postage prepaid and may be obtained from Mrs. George G. Scott, 899 Valley road, Upper Montclair, N. J.

Nevada President in New Jersey.

Miss Anna Martin, who led the Suffragists to victory in Nevada last month, will speak at a public meeting in Elizabeth on Friday evening, December 18. Place of meeting and other speakers will be announced later.

Gives Automobile for the Suffragists.

The Elizabeth league seems to have very generous friends. Only a few weeks ago a leading citizen, Mr. Henry H. Isham gave the league the use of a handsome store with three show windows for suffrage headquarters, and this week Miss Esther Ogden announces that she has been presented with a new Ford touring car for the use of the league during the New Jersey campaign. This generous gift has been made by a former resident of Elizabeth, a woman who is deeply interested in the suffrage movement. This car is to be named "Victory 1915," and will bear the slogan in yellow letters on the front panels, while across the back of the car will be printed "Votes for Women" in large letters. Three or four members of the league will learn to run the car, so that when the spring campaign opens it will be in constant use for outdoor meetings in Elizabeth and Union county. The Elizabeth league will have a housewarming at its new headquarters on Thursday afternoon, December 17.

Suffrage League of the Oranges.

Mrs. Philip McKim Garrison was in charge of the rummage sale that the West Orange branch of the Equal Suffrage League of the Oranges held for one week, beginning Friday, December 4. The sale was held at 216 Valley road.

Women in Russia.

Necessity contingent upon the war has swept away the hindrances debarring Russian women from certain professions. The Imperial Duma has passed a bill admitting them to the post of lecturers and professors at universities, and as teachers in boys' schools and colleges, and further, has decreed that in these positions they are to be paid salaries equal to those of men. Thus Russia has taken the first step toward granting equal pay for equal work.

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

Almost every week brings forth some new design in draped skirts. The one pictured has a distinctly new shaped front, and the folds and plaits are singularly well arranged.

Women with slender figures will like to gather the skirt at the upper edge, but those who find it necessary to dispense with bulk may use darts. In one view the left side is shown with curved edge, and there is the least suggestion of an opening without being objectionable.

For the medium size the skirt will require three and three-quarter yards of material twenty-seven inches wide. The width at the lower edge is one yard and eleven inches.

This May Manton pattern is cut in sizes from 22 to 32 inches waist measure. Send 10 cents to this office, giving number, 7924, and it will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage. When ordering use coupon.

Household Hints

CHRISTMAS GOODIES

Crystallized Fruit—Boil two cups sugar with one cup water and one-quarter teaspoon cream of tartar. Test it by dropping a little in cold water; when brittle remove from fire, dip into it sections of orange from which all skin is removed; white grapes, cherries or fruit of any kind can be used. Spread on wax paper to harden.

Popcorn Nut Balls—Pop sufficient corn to make six quarts. This should be moistened before popping, as it makes it more tender. Boil one pint of molasses until it forms a ball when dropped in cold water. Mix one cup chopped nuts with the popped corn and pour the syrup over them, tossing with a spoon to mix thoroughly. When cool enough to handle, shape in firm balls.

PUDDINGS

Nut Pudding—One-fourth cup butter, one-half cup sugar, two eggs, one-half cup chopped nuts, one-half cup flour, one-half cup cold water, speck of salt. Cream butter and sugar, add eggs, nuts, flourfi water and salt. Mix good and bake in moderate oven about one-half hour.

Economy Plum Pudding—Three cups flour, one-half teaspoon salt, two large teaspoons baking powder, two cups suet (cut fine), three-fourths cup brown sugar, one cup raisins. Wet with milk or water. Steam three hours.

Canadian Plum Pudding—One and one-half cups flour, one cup sugar, one cup suet, two cups raisins, one cup currants, one cup grated raw potatoes, one cup grated raw carrots, one teaspoon soda, a little salt. Steam three hours. Serve with plum pudding sauce. The carrots, potatoes and suet can be put through a food chopper, and then the citron, lemon peel and nuts may be added. It may seem dry, but mix well with a big spoon and it will be moist enough.

"Hurry Pudding"—One cup molasses, yolks of two eggs, one cup warm water, one teaspoon baking soda, one teaspoon ginger, one and one-half cups flour. Steam one and one-half hours in cups, filling them only about half full. Serve with a good pudding sauce; add whites of eggs to sauce.

Scalloped Apple Pudding—Four large apples peeled and sliced, one cup sugar and one-half teaspoon cinnamon mixed, two eggs and one large cup milk beaten together, two large cups bread crumbs. Butter deep pudding dish, cover bottom with crumbs, add layer of apples, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and small pieces of butter. Add another layer of crumbs, then moisten well with egg and milk. Repeat until dish is full, making top layer of crumbs, sugar, cinamon and butter, adding any of the milk and egg that is left. Bake one hour in moderate oven. Serve with cream.

English Plum Pudding — One pound currants, one pound raisins, half pound citron, half pound brown sugar, three eggs, one pound flour, one pound suet chopped fine. Mix flour and sugar with one teaspoon soda, one teaspoon baking powder, one teaspon cinnamon, one nutmeg grated. Add water to make stiff dough. Boil in a bag four hours.

Yellow Frosting—To the yolk of one egg beaten light add nine heaping teaspoons of powdered sugar. Flavor with vanilla.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

The biggest laugh hit that Proctor's Theatre has booked in many months is promised for the last half of the week, commencing tomorrow, when Sherman & DeForest, vaudeville's greatest pair of mirth-provoking comedians will present their latest chuckle vehicle, "The Jay Circus." This offering has been playing the big time theatres for the past six months and has proven a scream wherever seen. Patrons of the Front street theatre are given a tip in advance to bring something to hold their seats as Sherman & DeForest will otherwise have them sliding out of them. Other numbers on the bill are Wahl & Abbott, in a violin and piano musical novelty; the Versatile Trio in a comedy variety act, and Dawson & Gillette in a comedy skit. Coming to Proctor's on two dates, December 21 and 24, is the latest feature picture put out under the Brady and Shubert management, entitled "The Seats of the Mighty." This film is based on the play and has proven a sensation wherever shown. Don't forget the dates, as "The Seats of the Mighty" is the last word in the feature moving picture.

HEARING ON LAND LEASES.

Washington, Dec. 16—Hearings were begun here today before the Senate committee on public lands on the Lane-Ferris general leasing bill, which has been passed in the House of Representatives. The bill makes provision for coal, oil, gas, phosphate, etc., leases on lands owned by the Government, and is a measure aimed at the development of the mineral resources. Effort will be made to complete the hearings quickly, so that the bill may be considered in the Senate at this session.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is yours.—Adv.

MAKE YOURS A PUBLIC SERVICE STORE

This is the age of service. The rewards of today go to the men who give the most in return.

Translated for you, Mr. Merchant, this means that the customers are certain to patronize the store that will give them what they want when they want it.

Cut prices may bring some trade, but better service will bring more.

This is the age when people are reading the advertising in their daily newspapers because they are finding it a distinct part of the service they expect their newspapers to give.

When a nationally distributed article of merit is advertised in the newspapers a demand for it sets in right away.

People want to see it and, if satisfied, want to buy it.

They are going to turn to the store that lets them know it has the article. That store will be giving them the service they want at that particular moment.

If it is a good article they are going to remember the store where they got it and will come back to that store again.

Co-operate with the manufacturers who come into the newspapers of your town to exploit their goods and you will be building business for yourself.

COMMISSION ON UNEMPLOYED FIND 100 FAMILIES NEED RELIEF NOW

Finance Committee Subscribes $725 to Start the Work—Full Report of Thorough Investigation—Minimum Budget for Average Family of Four Per Month is $22.

Plainfield is living up to its reputation for leading the way in all projects for public good. The most recent illustration is in the problem of the unusually large number of unemployed this winter, owing to the long period of business depression accentuated by the war in Europe. This question is now confronting every city of the country, particularly in the East.

The appointment of the Plainfield Commission for the Relief of the Unemployed preceded by at least a week the forming of a similar body of representative citizens by Mayor Mitchell, of New York city, where the present distress is very great. Public spirit in Plainfield is always quickly aroused, where the improvement of any prevailing condition is at stake.

After a series of meetings, the finance committee of the Commission has today issued the following statement, which should command the attention of every reader of this paper.

"After hearing the report of the Commission's committee on survey, and after careful consideration and discussion of the situation arising from the large number of unemployed men in Plainfield and North Plainfield through the present general business depression, the finance committee has reached the following conclusions:

"First. In common with many other cities in the East, Plainfield has an unusually large number of unemployed this winter. Most of these men are of the unskilled class.

"Second. There is much distress and want among these men and their families. But few of them have sufficient savings or other resources to carry them through the winter. This distress is likely to increase as their resources are further exhausted. The number already needing relief is about 100 families. The amount of relief varies in different cases. The minimum budget for the average family of this class with three dependents is $22 a month.

"Third. There is no great probability of finding permanent work for these men until about April 1, when we anticipate an active demand for unskilled labor.

"Fourth. Although there is in the present situation no element differing from those regularly confronting the poor department of the city and the other existing relief agencies nevertheless no one of these agencies nor all of them together can secure sufficient funds to care for the unusually great need.

"Fifth. We believe that every citizen of Plainfield and North Plainfield should feel it his duty to contribute to the relief of the unemployed here to the extent of his ability. It is an obligation upon the whole community. This Commission has assumed the raising and distribution of the necessary funds. A public accounting will be made and the work will be handled with efficiency and economy, through the employment and the relief committee of this Commission.

"Sixth. Everything will be done after full investigation, both of the general situation and of each of the applicants. Help will be given only where it is known to be needed, and only to legitimate residents of Plainfield and North Plainfield.

"Seventh. The need is real and pressing. We urge everyone, who can give even a little, to pledge a certain amount each month for the next four months in support of this work. Any amount will be welcome. If this is impossible, whatever single sum can be spared should be sent to the Commission now. Checks or pledges should be made out to A. M. Harris treasurer, 935 Central avenue, Plainfield.

"In this winter of appeals on every hand for extraordinary needs, we must realize that our first duty is to our neighbors here. As evidence of its sincerity in this belief, the members of this committee have contributed the sum of $725.

MISS GLADYS A. COLTHAR GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Gladys A. Colthar, of Duer street, entertained a number of her young friends, yesterday afternoon, in honor of her thirteenth birthday anniversary. The time was spent with music and playing games. Miss Dorothy Seader rendered several cornet solos. The hostess was the recipient of many useful and handsome presents.

The refreshment table and room was decorated in red and green. In the centre of the table was a large cake with thirteen lighted candles, and the dates "1901-1014." After wishing the young hostess many happy returns of the day, the guests departed for their homes. Those present were the Misses Hattie Kriney, Margaret Smith, Anna Johnson, Lura Runyan, Elsie Zepp, Edith Mundy, Marjory Dufford, Mabel Bodine, Dorothy Seader, Dorothy VanWinkle, Lavina Todd and Ruth Colthar.

HIT BY AUTO TRUCK, ONLY SLIGHTLY HURT

Joseph Forest in Muhlenberg Hospital Following Mishap Yesterday.

Alighting from a wagon directly in the path of an automobile truck on South avenue, near Woodland avenue, at 3:45 yesterday afternoon, Joseph Forest, of Terrill road, was knocked down and sustained injuries that caused his removal to Muhlenberg Hospital in the ambulance. The truck belonged to Schwartz & Sons, of Newark, and was driven by James W. Schazis, of 722 William street, that city.

In the opinion of those near the scene of the mishap when it happened the victim was directly responsible inasmuch as he thoughtlessly stepped from his own wagon to the roadbed, directly in front of the oncoming machine. At the hospital it was stated this morning that his injuries were not of a serious nature and he will probably be discharged today. The driver of the automobile was arrested and later released on bail to await the outcome of Forest's injuries.

SEND IN PROGRAMS.

The attention of those who may be in charge of the Christmas music and other programs in the churches and Sunday-schools to be presented at the services Sunday, that in order these appear in Saturday's issue of the Daily Press, copy should be in this office by tomorrow evening.

REV. JONES TO SPEAK.

Rev. James Jones, of Nyack, N. Y., will give Bible readings at the Christian and Missionary Alliance meetings at the German Reformed church, corner Duer street and Craig place, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 and night at 7:45. All Bible students are cordially invited to attend.

JOSEPH ROSS CRITICALL ILL.

Joseph Ross, of 145 West Front street, is reported to be in a critical condition at Muhlenberg Hospital, having undergone an operation there for appendicitis a few days ago. Peritonitis developed because of a ruptured appendix and he has gradually been growing weaker.

URGES JUSTICE OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Dr. Anna H. Shaw Addresses Large Audience at High School.

THE RIGHTS OF WOMEN

Speaker Declares That Sex Qualification Must Go as the Next Step in the Evolution of a Republic—Mayor Stewart Also Speaks.

Discussing the question of suffrage chiefly along the line of fundamental justice, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, the foremost exponent of woman suffrage in this country, addressed a large audience at the Plainfield High School last night. Dr. Shaw's address was marked by wit, humor, pathos and plain common sense and throughout her talk she held the close attention of everyone present for more than an hour.

Mrs. E. F. Feickert, president of the State Woman's Suffrage Association, presided at the request of Mrs. A. B. Jones, president of the Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield. Prior to the address by Dr. Shaw, Mayor Percy H. Stewart was introduced and he made an address of welcome in which he referred to Dr. Shaw as the fountain head of a great movement on which the attention of the country has of late years been riveted. He congratulated her on foreseeing the wisdom of a course, pursuing it and living to see its consummation.

UNCONSCIOUS FOR THIRTY-SIX HOURS

Man Who Thoughtlessly Blew Out the Gas in Serious Condition.

Muhlenberg Hospital authorities today expressed considerable apprehension over the condition of George Larsen, of Weehawken, who has remained in a state of coma at the institution for the past thirty-six hours following what appears to have been an accident happening in Westfield early yesterday morning. Coincident with the serious condition of Mr. Larsen is the fact that his wife is critically ill in a boarding-house at 515 Park avenue, her condition being aggravated by the news of her husband's misfortune.

Larsen was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Anderson, of Westfield, Tuesday night, and when he failed to come down to breakfast yesterday morning a maid was sent to call him. She detected the odor of gas issuing from his room and hastily summoned the family. Larsen was found lying in bed in an unconscious condition and the ambulance from Muhlenberg Hospital was called to convey him to that institution. Since his confinement at the local hospital all efforts to arouse him have proven futile. His chances of recovery are said to be slight. Larsen is a painter living at Weehawken, and frequently visited his wife at the Park avenue boarding-house in this city.

COUSIN OF MRS. C. H. FROST KILLED AT YPRES

Mrs. Charles H. Frost, of Franklin place, received a letter today from relatives abroad informing her that a cousin, who was a Colonel of Indian troops, had been killed at Ypres on November 30 last while engaged in warfare. He was about forty-five years old and had performed a great deal of meritorious service on the frontier.

No details as to how Mrs. Frost's cousin lost his life were contained in the letter. It was known that he was a brave soldier and was thoroughly accustomed to hard fighting.

TRANSPLANT TREE TO THE CITY PARK

Big Flourishing Spruce Has Been Secured for "Community Celebration."

ON CHRISTMAS EVE

Thousands of Children Will Sing Carols Accompanied by the Celebrated Aida Quartet of Trumpets—Tree to Be Illuminated at 7:30.

Today the "Community Christmas Tree" is to be transplanted to the City Park, where it will be the centre of the carol singing on Christmas eve. Plainfield always had a generous supply of Christmas trees, but the trouble with them hitherto has been that they were all bought and carried out of sight and set up in homes and clubs and churches where they could be seen in their glory only by folks who "belonged." Thanks to the community feeling that has got abroad this year, the best tree of all, the biggest and most beautiful, and the one with the most lights on it and with the great electric star on top, will be nobody's property and will stand where everybody can see and enjoy it.

The All-Plainfield Christmas tree is a flourishing spruce, born and raised on the frontier between the city and Scotch Plains. Today the contractor, Edward Mobus, will dig it up and move it to the park, where the city fathers have granted permission to plant it in the open space just south of the center. It is hoped that it will take root and live long to be pointed out to every visitor as the children's tree.

One week from tonight at exactly 7:30 at a touch of Mayor Stewart's finger the dark tree will become a tree of light. Around it will gather a thousand or more children to sing carols under the leadership of Charles L. Lewis, supervisor of music in the public schools. The celebrated Aida quartet of trumpets will furnish the accompaniment.

The arrangements for the tree have been made by the Sunday-school Superintendents' Association, of which George E. Hall is president. W. C. Hubbard located the tree after diligent search and J. W. Gavett has charge of the lighting, which will require hundreds of lamps.

It is hoped that families will so arrange their supper hour on Christmas eve as to make it possible for the children to attend the service promptly at 7:30. To see the lighting of the big tree and to sing in the monster chorus, will be worth some inconvenience.

OBJECT TO WEDNESDAY NIGHT ENTERTAINMENTS

The following communication received from a number of Plainfield ministers, explains itself:

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

May we offer through your paper the suggestion that in view of the fact that Wednesday evening is the time appointed in most of the churches for their midweek service that as far as possible the Christian people of Plainfield avoid using this time for lectures, entertainments, etc.

We believe in the paramount importance of this midweek service and that the times demand greater interest in it on the part of church members.

Further, the selection of this evening for such entertainments deprives ministers and loyal church people from attending them.

In the Outlook Club of Montclair, a club founded by Dr. Armory Bradford, Wednesday evening is set aside for the home and the church. This club works for the interests of the whole community, and it wisely gives the church the right of way on Wednesday evenings. We feel that a similar sentiment should prevail in our city.

FIREMAN INCAPACITATED.

Harry Hann, the fireman injured yesterday, by being thrown from the auto engine as it struck a bump at Union and Stelle avenues, is detained at his home on East Second street, as a result of the accident. Both of his knees were gouged to the bone and gashes were inflicted on his face through striking a rear step in his descent. The auto is said to have been running thirty miles an hour at the time and Hann's escape from more serious hurts is considered remarkable. He is at present detained at his home under the care of Dr. Albert Pittis.

EXPERTS TESTIFY IN CONNORS CASE

Newark and New York Finger-print Men Iidentify Photographed Clues.

STATE'S CASE NEAR END

Defense Will Probably Present its Side of the Case at the Hearing Tomorrow—Crowd Packs Courtroom.

Further evidence in the State's case against Charles, alias "Ice-Wagon" Connors, who is alleged to have burglarized the home of former State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, in this city, on the night of January 3 last, was taken late yesterday afternoon and this morning and indications point to the completion of the prosecution work this afternoon. Although the Orphan's Court is slated to convene tomorrow, it is probable that Judge James C. Connolly, who is hearing the Connors case, will announce the postponement of the hearings scheduled and will take up the testimony of the defense tomorrow morning.

Peter A. Frak, a finger print expert of the New York city police department, took the stand this morning and gave a lengthy and instructive lecture to the court and jury on the subject of finger-print evidence. He was formerly engaged in Bertillion work in India. Jacob G. Ruhl, of the Newark police department, gave similar testimony, and corroborated the evidence submitted by his colleague,

SEEKS CUSTODY OF HIS DAUGHTER

Arthur Murphy Complainant in a Chancery Court Action Today.

Jersey City, Dec. 17.—Before Vice-Chancellor Lewis in the Chancery Chambers here, today, Arthur Murphy, of Plainfield, is the complainant in an action brought to obtain the custody of his six-year-old daughter, Lydia, his wife, Mrs. Lydia Murphy, being made the defendant in the case. Mr. Murphy claims that his daughter has been wrongfully restrained and that he has been unable to see her.

Mr. Murphy's application to the court was for an order which will permit him to see and have possession of his daughter which he claims is his legal right. Mr. Murphy is a practicing lawyer in Plainfield. His wife, before her marriage was Miss Lydia Ackerman, of that city. It is said that Mr. and Mrs. Murphy have been separated for sometime.

WANT HEADQUARTERS OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

Borough Police Station Regulations May Be Revised to Suit Needs.

Agitation has been rife in North Plainfield recently for a revision of the police department rules to bring them up to a standard maintained by similar borough departments in the State and make them more adaptable to the needs of the community. Up to the present time the headquarters on Somerset street is closed at certain hours of the day and night and, although it is customary for the men at fire headquarters to take charge of such calls as may come in during the "closed periods" considerable inconvenience has been occasioned at various times.

It is understood that Mayor Robert Clark and Councilman Alexander Milne are endorsers of a plan to so regulate the hours of the present force as to maintain a desk man at headquarters every hour of the day and night. This would probably mean the appointment of a new man on the day force. It seems highly probable that the new idea will be brought to the attention of the Borough Council at one of its first meetings of the year and it is possible that an ordinance wil be drawn in the intervening period.

Oftentimes senders of hurry calls to the police department have found it well nigh impossible to get into touch with the proper authorities without entailing an uncalled for delay and for this reason the change is a much needed one.

ENGLAND ENRAGED BY GERMAN RAID ON NORTH SEA COAST—NO EXPLANATION BY ADMIRALTY

TOTAL DEATH LIST REACHES 70 AND 177 WERE WOUNDED—CITIES AND TOWNS ADOPT STRICT PRECAUTIONS.

FEAR OF ZEPPELIN ATTACK GROWS EVERYWHERE

Amsterdam Hears of Great German Activity and It Is Believed That New German Attack is to Be Made on Dixmude and Nearby Towns—Russians Admit Reverses at Warsaw, But Claim Gains at Soldau.

London, Dec. 17.—There is but one subject of discussion in all England today, that is the raid that was made yesterday by German war vessels on the North Sea coast, and their subsequent escape, without being molested by any of the several British fleets in the North Sea. The people of the entire nation are in a white heat of rage because of the exploits of the raiders, and this was not lessened this afternoon, when it was announced that the steamers Ellerwater and Princess Olga have been sunk by mines supposed to have been left by the Germans in the North Sea, between Flamborough and Scarborough. There is also a rumor that another steamer has been sunk in the same vicinity.

The manner in which the raiders got through the British main fleet is still a mystery, for it was supposed that the Kaiser's ships were securely bottled up. The Admiralty offers no information on the subject, and it does not explain why the coast guard was ineffective in preventing the wrecking of three cities.

An official bulletin given out says that the casualties in Hartlepool and West Hartlepool were 55 killed and 155 wounded. At Scarborough 13 were killed and 17 wounded, and at Whitby eight are dead and eleven injured. That makes a total death list of 64, most of those killed being civilians, and 183 wounded. No estimate has been made of the property loss.

Not only the coast towns, fortified and unfortified, but London itself, are adopting the strictest precautions as a result of the raid.

Added to the probability of another German dash at the coast is the possibility of the long-threatened Zeppelin attack. In all the coast towns street lights have been reduced, patrols watch the ocean and aeroplanes are scouting over the waters all along the North Sea and the channel line.

Fear that the raiders may attempt to attack the transports conveying reinforcements to France was expressed today.

In view of the possibilities of an invasion London is now to have a defense corps under a title hitherto not used in this country—"the national guard." A force under that name is being raised under the presidency of the lord mayor.

There is much speculation here as to how far the German raid has succeeded in creating a panic in coast towns. One of the London newspapers telegraphed to the mayors of all coast towns, asking them what effect the news of the enemy's visit had had. All replies received so far indicate that no panic is felt.

A number of refugees and travelers arrived in London from the bombarded towns during the night. Some of them showed signs of the raid in bandages covering minor injuries received.

The following official statement from Constantinople has been received by a news agency here which claims a victory over the Russians in the Caucasus: "The battles on the eastern frontier, in the region of Wilajetswan, came to a favorable conclusion. The positions at Sarai were taken by surrounding the enemy who is now retreating toward Kotur."

The British squadron did great execution yesterday in the bombardment of the Belgian cost held by the Germans. The gun fire was so accurate that several German batteries were destroyed.

London, Dec. 17—The secretary to the Admiralty issued the following announcement last night concerning the German naval raid in the morning on the east coast towns:

"Yesterday morning a German cruiser force made a demonstration on the Yorkshire coast, in the course of which they shelled Hartlepool, Whitby and Scarborough. A number of their fastest ships were employed for this purpose. They remained for about an hour on the coast.

"They were engaged by patrol vessels on the spot and as soon as the presence of the enemy was reported the British patrolling squadron endeavored to cut them off. On being sighted by the British vessels the Germans retired at full speed and, favored by a mist, succeeded in making good their escape. The losses on both sides were small, but full reports have not yet been received.

"The Admiralty takes this opportunity of pointing out that demonstrations of this character against unfortified towns or commercial ports, though not difficult to accomplish provided a certain amount of risk is accepted, are devoid of military significance. They may cause some loss of life among the civil population and some damage to private property, which is much to be regretted, but they must not in any circumstances be allowed to modify the general naval policy which is being pursued."

The war office issued the following statement, giving further details of the raid:

"At 8 a. m. yesterday three of the enemy's ships were sighted off Hartlepool. At 8:15 they commenced a bombardment. The ships appeared to be two battle cruisers and one armored cruiser. The land batteries replied and are reported to have hit and damaged the enemy. At 8:50 the firing ceased and the enemy steamed away. None of our guns was touched.

"One snell fell in the Royal Engineers lines and several in the lines of the Eighteenth Service Battalion and the Durham Light Infantry. The casualties among the troops were seven killed and fourteen wounded.

"Some damage was done to the town and the gas works were set on fire.

"During the bombardment, especially in West Hartlepool, the people crowded in the streets and approximately twenty-two were killed and fifty wounded.

"At the same time a battle cruiser and an armored cruiser apeared off Scarborough and fired about fifty shots, which caused considerable damage. Thirteen casualties are reported.

"At Whitby two battle cruisers fired some shots, damaging certain buildings. The casualties reported are two killed and two wounded.

"At all three places there was an entire absence of panic. The demeanor of the people was everything that could be desired."

Amsterdam, Dec. 17.—Movements of troops within the German lines and the arrival of reinforcements are reported from western Holland, where news continues to find its way across the border despite the efforts of the Germans to prevent it. The correspondent of the Tijd, at Sluis, believes the movements indicate a new German attack. He says:

"It is possible that at this very moment the Germans are attempting a new and great attack on Dixmude, Roulers and Courtrai."

The Tijd correspondent also reports that several thousand British soldiers who have advanced, from Havre, Rouen, Calais and Dunkirk are in the districts about Furnes and are very active.

A Greek naval officer attached to the Greek legation in Constantinople has been arrested by the Turkish police on a charge of espionage and condemned to death, says a despatch from the Turkish capital. The Greek minister has protested to the Prime Minister.

A despatch from Berlin quotes the Lokalanzeiger as stating that the railway station at St. Leonard, in the Vosges, south of St. Die, has been destroyed by German artillery.

Petrograd, Dec. 17.—The German drive against Warsaw was renewed yesterday, with terrific force, compelling the Russians to fall back a short distance. The threatened attack on the right flank of the Russian army on the Vistula has been averted and the German force which attempted an advance from Soldau has been overwhelmed and driven back upon

ELKS' EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE WILL ACT ON PROTEST SUNDAY

The executive committee of the Senior Elks' Bowling League will meet Sunday afternoon, in the Westfield clubhouse, to hear and act on the protest entered by the Newark team against the Rahway five. The champions claim, and the Rahway team admits, that Albright, of the latter club, used a "loaded" ball and that his high scores helped materially Rahway to cop two games out of three.

This is the first protest that has been entered in the league this year and the committee will probably order the match replayed or forfeited to Newark. President George T. Hirtzel, Jr., will preside at the meeting and the executive committee consists of Archibald Miller, Jersey City; Edward H. Radel, New Brunswick, and Walter Ahrling, Hoboken.

LOCAL TELEPHONE PINNERS TOOK THREE FROM NEWARK

The Plainfield Telephone Company bowling team turned the tables on their Newark opponents on Gates' alleys, last night, when they took three straight games. This evens up the series as the Newarkers took all three last week. A rubber match will probably be played soon. Several of the Newarkers bowled poorly throughout the match, which pulled down their team score.

Wise made high score of the night with a 209 in the second game. The scores were as follows: 638 to 509, 748 to 555 and 691 to 594.

The scores:

MORE GAMES FOR Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. basketball team that has started off its season with two victories is planning several trips to play association teams in other parts of the State. Games with Easton and Trenton are under consideration and both games will be played on opponents courts. The matches will probably take place on Saturday nights and the local team will make week-end trips.

ELECTION POSTPONED.

The election of captain of the Y. M. C. A. basketball team was postponed, last night, because there were only a few players who reported to practice. The leader will be chosen before the game with Elizabeth on the local court next Saturday night.

LOCAL TAXPAYERS SETTLING PROMPTLY

Only a Few Citizens Availing Themselves of New Installment Law.

Despite the recently enacted law which permits New Jersey property owners to pay their taxes by installments only a few Plainfielders have so far availed themselves of the privilege. The statute was passed at the past winter's session of the Legislature and in reality is unknown to a majority of those it was intended to benefit. About twelve persons have made partial payments to date, but it is believed the number will be greatly increased before the delinquency period, which dates from next Tuesday, December 20, is fixed as the final date before interest is added, but as this falls on Sunday an extra day is permitted.

By the terms of the new law, taxpayers can begin payments on October 1 and continue until February 1 with $10 as the minimum amount at any one time. Interest at the rate of ten per cent. is added from December 20. After February 1 all amounts unpaid are filed as delinquent in the customary manner.

The tax offices in both the city and borough have been thronged with payers the last few days and the usual big rush will be on from now until Monday night. On the city side, Collector Townsend looks for a further collection of about $300,000 before he and his assistants can enjoy a breathing spell.

TESTIFY IN CONNORS CASE

Edward Schwartz.

One of his statements was to the effect that evidence of this character was likely to err in but two cases out of a posible 60,000,000. He swore that the finger prints photographed at the Ackerman home following the burglary were identical with those of Connors on file in the Chicago Bureau of Identification.

Patrolmen Cornelius McCarthy, Florence Sullivan, Martin Flatley and George Muir, of the local force, were called as witnesses for the prosecution and all stated that they had guarded the Ackerman home between the time the robbery was reported and the time when the prints were photographed.

Connors' calm and apparently uninterested attitude while seated in the prisoners' docket in the courtroom has attracted no little amount of attention from the large number of spectators who have crowded the courtroom. Despite his confinement in the county jail since April 7 last he presents a well kept appearance. He is clean shaven and nattily dressed.

Edward H. Schwartz, superintendent of the Bureau of Identification in the Newark police department, was on the stand for three hours and a half yesterday He produced a number of photographs taken at the Ackerman home when he was called as a witness. These showed the pillar scaled, the window, and an interior view of the room from which the loot was taken, locating the chiffonier and other furniture. Inasmuch as it was he who photographed the prints which later led to the arrest and identification of Connors in Chicago, it is expected that he will prove one of the State's most valuable witnesses.

Chief Kiely told of the investigation he made, of the discovery of the finger prints which were photographed, and the efforts made to trace the crook by this means. Photos of the prints were sent broadcast to various police departments and a response was had sometime later from the Chicago authorities. Kiely caused the arrest of Connors on this evidence and brought him from Chicago. The accused man made a hard fight against extradition, but was finally surrendered. Two others were indicted with him but they have not been apprehended.

The crime of which the notorious defendant stands accused is the theft of more than $15,000 worth of jewelry from the Ackerman home on West Eighth street, January 3 last. Entrance was gained by the intruder while the family was at dinner by scaling a porch pillar and forcing a second story window. On the stand yesterday Mrs. Ackerman enumerated the articles stolen. These included a necklace with eighty-five matched pearls valued at $10,000; another pearl necklace value at $1,000; a pearl and diamond ring valued at $2,000; a crescent pearl and diamond ring valued at $700; various other diamond, pearl, emerald, sapphire and ruby pins and rings; $293 in cash and a Central Railroad ticket.

HOSPITAL'S MODERN X-RAY DEPARTMENT

One of the Best and Most Powerful Machines Has Been Installed.

No well equipped hospital can adequately and completely serve the community in which it is located without its department of radiology, perhaps better known as the X-ray department. In fact, all the departments of the modern hospital are so inter-dependent one upon the other that it is difficult to realize in this day and generation how they ever got along with any one of the many departments missing, that are now so essentially necessary for performing the complete functions of a well organized and equipped hospital. The practice of medicine, and particularly surgery, are greatly facilitated by the use of photographs of bones and tissues of the human body taken by the X-ray machine. Muhlenberg Hospital has now a thoroughly equipped X-ray department, having one of the best and most powerful new Scheidel-Western X-ray machines, which is capable of doing the most difficult and intricate work.

The department is in charge of physicians who are competent and expert operators and whose work has received most favorable comment from not only the physicians in town but visiting physicians who have seen specimens of their work. This department, together with the new children's ward and other departments of the hospital that have just been completed but are not yet occupied by patients, will be open for informal inspection by the public on the afternoons of Saturday and Sunday, December 19 and 20, from 3 until 6 o'clock.

The public is invited to visit the hospital on one of these afternoons and take some friend with you that they may see what an institution Plainfield has in the new Muhlenberg.

BUILDING THIEVES BUSY NEAR BERKELEY HEIGHTS

Residents of Berkeley Heights are on the lookout for a coterie of petty thieves who have been stealing tools and material from new buildings in that section. A bungalow in course of construction for Stephen Sannoff of New York, was visited a few nights ago and tools, rolls of rubberoid, lumber and other things were carried away in a wagon. Mr. Sannoff who is connected with New York's Department of Charities and Corrections, has offered a reward of $10 for the apprehension of the guilty parties, and the township authorities are considering another reward of equal amount.

A few nights ago another new house being erected by William Bergmiller on Union avenue, was visited by a gang evidently the same. A haul of carpenters' tools was made and a quantity of paint was maliciously daubed over walls and doors, causing considerable damage.

WAR NEWS

the border of Mlawa, releasing part of the Russian force which opposed it. These Russians have been diverted for attack on the Germans on the left bank of the Vistula, and are expected to turn the tide of the battle there.

The Germans have despatched large forces in Silesia, which were intended to reinforce Cracow or to offer a defense before Breslau if the Russians succeeded in taking the Galacian city, to the Carpathians, where an important movement is taking place.

Russian forces of great strength have swept through the Carpathian passes in Hungary and are now in conflict with an Austrian army there.

The Servian legation in Petrograd has issued a statement to the effect that large numbers of the Austrians who invaded Servia were compelled to surrender in groups. Only a small portion of them have crossed the Save River and 60,000 Austrians are now prisoners in Servia. The Servians have entered Bosnia and have taken Vishegrad on the railway to Serajevo.

Paris, Dec. 17.—The French war office gave out the following statement at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

"From the sea to the River Lys we have captured several trenches with the bayonet, strengthened our positions at Lombaertzyde, and St. George, and fortified the ground gained to the west of Ghelvelt. We have advanced at some points in the region of Vernelles, in France.

"There has been no infantry action on the rest of the front, but there has been various effective firing by our heavy artillery in the environs of Tracy Le Val, and the Aisne, and in the Champagne district. In Lorraine and in Alsace there is nothing to report."

The French cabinet has decided to ask Parliament for an appropriation of 300,000,000 francs ($60,000,000) for relief of the inhabitants of French departments recently evacuated by the Germans.

PROSPERITY ON THE WAY.

That the annual spending of millions of dollars of American money abroad by tourists has been customary is a fact that has been evident to everyone. But the magnitude of such expenditure has probably never been realized by the general public. Emerson Hough, in an article in the last issue of the Saturday Evening Post, gives figures which are so astonishing as to be almost beyond belief, were it not for his reputation as a writer. He says:

How much Americans spend annually in Europe it is difficult to say. As long ago as 1907 a good authority gave the annual income of France from tourists as five hundred million dollars; that of Italy as one hundred million dollars; that of England as twenty-five million dollars. It is pretty well established that since then Switzerland has taken from tourists in a single year one hundred and fifty million dollars. Footed up this comes to seven hundred and seventy-five million dollars a year—a sum almost unbelievable yet fairly accurate. The very fowest figure allowed as American tourist expenditure in 1910 was estimated by another authority at three hundred and fifty million dollars.

The opportunity for Americans to go abroad is to all intents and purposes done away with since the war broke out, and aside from the morbidly curious, it is probable that there will be few attractions for a couple of years after the war is ended. That means that three hundred and fifty million dollars which formerly was spent abroad, or at least a large share of it, for every one is retrenching now; will be used in this country. Certainly this is another evidence that prosperity, through the expenditure of American earned dollars in America, is just "around the corner." It cannot make the turn too soon.

A few people, who have not seen all the articles in the local papers regarding the Community Christmas, have formed the impression that all of the money to be raised will go for toys for the children. While it would not be extravagance to spend it all to make the little ones happy, were is necessary, the committee have endeavored to make it plain that much of the money goes for other purposes. After provisions have been made to give toys to all the needy children, the balance will be spent as was the case last year, for fuel, flour and other necessities, for those who would otherwise be without them. Last season many a family was made happy by the visitors from the committee. The time is short to contribute, but those who give may rest assured that every penny will be made to do the work of two.

The only thing that seems to be lacking on the part of Plainfield merchants to drive the "fly-by-night" stores and fake auction sales away is a little co-operation. In Newark a number of the jewelers have clubbed together and taken advertising space in the leading paper there, in which they have plainly branded the sales as being conducted by fakes and robbers, and have warned the people to only buy jewelry from the stores that are in town the year round, if they want to avoid being swindled.

Chicago will try a new experiment on New Year's eve, as a counter attraction for the usual revel held in the cafes in that city. Five municipal dances will be held under the supervision of the department of public welfare, and it is believed that they will keep great numbers of young people, especially women away from the evil influence of the usual celebrations. The idea is a good one, and New York and some of the other large cities might well pattern after the "windy city."

What may have been lacking prior to Tuesday morning in the way of low and seasonable temperatures has certainly been supplied with a vengeance since that time. Weather Prophet Neagle says that the change from snow to rain on Sunday was all that prevented us from having nearly a foot of snow on the ground to add to the misery of the cold spell, so there's something to be thankful for, in spite of the chilly blasts.

It is very evident that the Good Fellows of Plainfield are going to see to it that no child shall lack Christmas cheer. Over $700 has been raised to carry on the good work of the Community Christmas and the Sunday school superintendents have arranged for a monster tree to be shown in City Park on Christmas Eve.

As Saturday of this week is the last one before Christmas, we have asked a well known clergyman, occupying a high place in his church organization, to write the contributed editorial, with Christmas as the topic. It has never been our privilege to publish a more timely lesson than the one which has been prepared.

We suspect that when that $200,000 of Christmas saving money is turned loose late tomorrow by the Plainfield Trust Company the merchants will find that it is followed by one of the busiest days the city has ever seen. Tax Collector Townsend also looks for big receipts.

If anyone doubts that the Y. M. C. A. plays a great part in keeping the young men and boys off the streets, we suggest that they look over the list of activities which is recorded on the sporting page every night. Clean, healthy bodies create clean, healthy minds.

THE FORUM

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

I wish to ask for a small space in your paper to make a protest. Some time ago, some thoughtful people started the cry, "Shop Early." The merchants took it up and bought their Christmas goods early. The people were willing to co-operate, and all was well, so we thought. Then the banks started a Christmas fund. It looked good to the people, and is good, but, alas, they must them spoil it by not giving the people their money to do that "early shopping." Enough said. Will they please come to time with the rest of us?

Respectfully,
MISS McWINNESS,
189 North Avenue.

XMAS ENTERTAINMENT FOR BIBLE SCHOOL CHILDREN

Children of the Monroe Avenue church Bible school enjoyed a Christmas festival in the Epworth League house yesterday afternoon, a special program appropriate to the season being presented by those interested in the work of the department. A large Christmas tree was a feature of the decorations and the program included songs and recitations typical of the holiday period and the Rev. F. J. Hubach delivered a talk on "The Fourth Wise Man."

At the conclusion of the festivities refreshments were served and bags of candy distributed among the attendants. The affair was given for the benefit of the members of the school who convene every Wednesday afternoon for an hour's religious instruction. The school is graded and is under the supervision of a superintendent and nine instructors.

$2,500,000 FIRE RAGES IN POTTSVILLE, PENNA.

Pottsville, Pa., Dec. 17—A fire entailing a loss estimated at two and a half million dollars, swept two entire blocks in the central part of the business portion of this city this morning. It is bounded by Centre, Mahantonga, Norwegian, Second and Third streets. The Miehle building, occupied by the largest department store in the clay and a number of law officers and lodges, the Britton-Hoffman Co., the Woolworth building, Cowan's drug store, Pennsylvania and Union Deposit Bank, the Acodemy of Music and the Union Hall were completely demolished.

MRS. S. F. JOOR PASSES AWAY AT MORGAN PARK, ILL.

Mrs. F. O. Dunning, of Mountain avenue, received word this morning of the death of her sister, Mrs. S. F. Joor, at her home in Morgan Park, Ill. Mrs. Joor has been in Plainfield many times and is well-known here, her latest visit being last summer, when she came on for her health. She was also a sister of John B. Groendyke, of Kensington avenue. Mrs. Dunning and her father, John Groendyke, of Somerville, will leave tomorrow morning for Morgan Park to attend the funeral services.

Mrs. Joor was born in Finderne on the present site of the Johns-Manville plant and lived there for many years. She went to school in Bound Brook. Surviving here are her father, her husband, one sister, two brothers, John Groendyke, of Kensington avenue, and James Groendyke, of Chicago; also three sons and one daughter, all living at home.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Miss Cumming returned to school this morning, after an absence due to illness.

President Daniel McNamee, of the senior class, has appointed the following committee for the decoration of the lower hall and the senior classrooms at the Christmas exercises. The Misses Clare Britton, Elvira Patton, Irene Doane, Anna Franke, Dorothy Stelle and Harold Davis, Curtis Hall, Ernest Hand, Millard McAfee and Ogden Lindzey.

The High School will enter a contestant in the public speaking contest for the Union county championship which will be held on March 19. The tryouts will be in charge of H. F. Biddle. The names and speeches of all contestants must be handed in before February 1.

URGES JUSTICE OF SUFFRAGE

she received an ovation from the audience. In part she said:

"Belief in a Republican form of government pre-supposes a belief that each human being has rights. But inconsistency has marked our nation's progress. The Pilgrims believed in religious freedom, but were unwilling to practice it. American men caught a vision of the highest ideals of government, but have not put these ideals into practice.

"In the Declaration of Independence we read that governments derive their first powers from the consent of the governed and yet only half of the governed are consulted. We are still evolving a Republic out of a Monarchy.

The taxpaying qualification was removed, the color qualification was removed, the sex qualification must go. That is the next step in the evolution of a Republic." Dr. Shaw brought a smile to the faces of her audience at this point by declaring that people speak of the "voice of the people," and forget that there is a soprano as well as a bass.

Taking up again seriously the thread of her argument, Dr. Shaw claimed that a fair argument might prescribe qualifications to be met by all citizens. "But male-ness is not a qualification," said the speaker. "It is an insuperable barrier against the rights and privileges of one-half of the people. Where such qualifications are required it is not a Republic, but an aristocracy of sex—the most absurd aristocracy under the sun.

"Progressive thinkers ridicule Emperor William and the 'Divine Right of Kings,' but men in these United States assume the divine right to rule women. The divine right of kings and the divine right of sex ought to die together and they will."

Dr. Shaw presented in pairs some anti-arguments, such as first, women will not vote; second, women will desert their home to vote, women will vote as their husbands do, merely doubling the vote and women will vote differently from their husbands and divorce will ensue.

In regard to merely doubling the vote, Dr. Shaw made one of her strongest points. "It is not merely doubling the vote," she said, "when two people vote alike. The second vote means another person discussing, reading, thinking and following with interest afterward some matter of public importance."

Dr. Shaw could not understand the great fear in the minds of many concerning a possible difference of opinion. She had scant praise for the couple who lived together twenty years without a single disagreement. To her "the stagnation of a frog pond would be hilarious compared to twenty years of complete, unquestioning agreement."

The most impressive part of Dr. Shaw's speech was the simple story of her own life—devoted to the cause of women. She studied theology and afterward medicine in order to fit herself for the service of her sex. Her life has been a battle to obtain economic justice for women. Dr. Shaw said that her father considered that he supported the family by bringing home a barrel of flour. The flour was useless until made into bread by the mother. The cost of making bread in a bakery is twice the cost of the flour, but none the less the mother's work was counted in. The father supported the family.

"Economic justice is impossible," said Dr. Shaw, "until the brand of inferiority is removed from the womanhood of the world." In closing she offered the men of New Jersey the opportunity of taking the next progressive step in the evolution of a Republic out of a Monarchy. New Jersey will be the next State to vote on women suffrage, concluded Dr. Shaw.

BIBLE STORIES FOR CHILDREN.

"Bible Stories to Tell Children," by William D. Murray, of Plainfield, from the press of Revell, is another one of the interesting and suitable holiday books on sale at the Estil Book Shop. It interests both young and old.

FEATURE NEWS FILMS AT THE ASTOR THEATRE TODAY

A special feature film and comedy and news reels will be shown at the new Astor Theatre this afternoon and evening, the program being an unusually attractive one, with several of the latest screen productions. Tomorrow's leading number is a four-reel film entitled "More Than a Queen."

Tomorrow afternoon and evening operatic selections will be rendered by Miss Mana Zucca, late prima donna of the "High Jinks" Company, and William M. Smight, formerly with the "Chocolate Soldier." Some exceptionally fine music is rendered at all performances by P. Mondrone's orchestra. Souvenirs will be distributed to the women tomorrow afternoon.

"The Seats of the Mighty," at Proctor's Theatre, Monday and Thursday, December 21 and 24.

The 6-part photoplay, "The Seats of the Mighty," which will be presented at Proctor's Theatre, Monday and Thursday, December 21 and 24, by the World Film Corporation, originally extended to ten reels, but has been cut or condensed 40 per cent. without sacrificing the interest or sequence of the story.

"The Seats of the Mighty" is a high-grade feature film, containing French court scenes, duels, a battle, constant plotting and counter plotting, a love story with its attendant disappointments and delays before the lovers are finally united; almost every human passion is vividly illustrated in this picture. Nor are the beauties of art and nature omitted from it, the eye is as generously catered to as are your sympathies and antipathies. It is pure drama from start to finish, without any padding or dragging.

The World Film Corporation in presenting the picture to the public feel that "The Seats of the Mighty" offers an ideal story in dramatic form; produced with lavishness and acted with power.

Sherman & De Forrest, n their comedy sketch, "A Jay Circus," at Proctor's Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Coming to Proctor's Theatre today for the remainder of the week is one of the funiest comedy offerings the Front street playhouse has had in a long time. It is presented by Sherman and DeForest, and their company of five live-wire comedians and is entitled "A Jay Circus." Nothing but laughs is the only term that describes it. Dan Sherman and Mabel DeForest have no superiors as funmakers and in their latest vehicle, written by Mr. Sherman, is pronounced by all their admirers to be the best they have ever had.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE ART DEMONSTRATED

Professor Huff Delivered Lecture Before Poultry Association Last Night.

Another interesting and instructive domestic science lecture was given under the auspices of the Plainfield Poultry Association, at the monthly meeting of that organiation held last night in Coward Hall, by Prof. Huff, now of New York, but formerly of London, England. He gave demonstrations of trussing and preparing chickens and other fowl for cooking and the store. The demonstrator has until recently been connected with one of the large markets in England, bnt now is with the Certified Farms Company, of New York. There were about a dozen butchers present from this city and Westfield as invited guests.

Prof. Huff showed the most approved way to fix the bird for all methods of cooking and also showed many ways in which the public is fooled by the butcher in the size of a chicken. It is only necessary for him to cut the carcass in three places to remove every bone in the chickens body and none are broken in the process. He also stated that there are 289 different ways of trussing birds in preparation for cooking, and that a chicken could be trussed in a little over two minutes. He answered all questions in regards to this subject and showed how to draw in the shortest time.

At next month's meeting the moving pictures will be shown of trapnested fowls and this should prove a very interesting subject. The public is invited to atend these demonstrations. The lecture last night was preceded by the regular business meeting, at which W. H. Tavener, of Westfield, president of the association, presided. Seven members were elected, six being endorsed by W. J. Trembath.

Mr. Tavener spoke about the coming show and urged all to enter their poultry and try for the many prizes that have been offered. He also thanked Mr. Trembath for his work in preparing the show. Mr. Trembath, who is the show secretary, has done the bulk of the work in getting it up and has received a large number of entries. There are many out of town entries and many from other States. The show will start on December 28.

TURK IS NOT SO BAD AS PICTURED

So Declares Rev. Lewis Bond in Discussing Probable Outcome of War.

SOLDIERS ARE ORDERLY

Turkish Government With All its Failings Has Been Remarkably Tolerant of Missionary Effort—Americans Most Favored.

The fact that Turkey has now been drawn into the war which has been in progress among the foreign nations for several months, has raised a number of important questions regarding the probable outcome of the conflict so far as European Turkey is concerned. There is, perhaps, no one better qualified to speak on this subject than the Rev. Lewis Bond of this city, who was a missionary for thirty-six years in Turkey. Regarding the outlook in Turkey, Mr Bond says:

"Now that Turkey is drawn into the war of the Christian nations what about the many foreign missionaries in the empire? Should they be recalled? Ought they to flee the country at once? I would say, let them decide for themselves. As a rule they are men and women of courage and good common sense. I think most of them will prefer to remain.

"Doubtless there will be some destruction of property and possible loss of life, but missionaries can't afford to think too much about personal safety. It is worthy of note that in the many wars and rebellions and massacres of Turkey, missionaries have been wonderfully preserved from violence.

"Speaking from my own experience of thirty-six years in European Turkey, I am free to assert that the Moslem Turk is not half as 'unspeakable' as he is pictured. He does indulge in atrocities on occasions, but so does the Greek and the Serb and even the Bulgar.

"A soldier once made a lunge at me with his saber, after butchering a man in the house across the narrow street, but he was a Caucasian bent on loot, and my Turkish neighbors flew to my rescue. On two occasions I enjoyed the excitement of facing angry mobs who threatened my life, but they were made up of Greek Catholic Church members.

"Turkish soldiers seemed to me remarkably good-natured and orderly. Among the many thousands of them with whom I mingled freely I never once saw any quarreling. The only drunken soldiers I beheld were British Jack tars from the fleet at Salonica and one Russian lying in the street gutter at Philippopolis.

"The chief danger comes from the custom of allowing the troops to engage in looting—and all that goes with it—for a certain number of hours after a place is captured. Fortunately, the foreign flag usually commands respect.

"It is comforting to remember that the Turkish Government, with all its failings, has always been remarkably tolerant of missionary efforts, and the workers from the United States were the most favored. Today our institutions of learning are appreciated as never before, and Moslem boys and girls clamor for admission into them.

"Personally, I am not nervous about those missionaries when I pray for them, and if after all one or two are actually robbed or killed it need not be accounted a dire disaster. The safest place on the face of the earth for any one at any time is the place where one may accomplish the most good."

One of the leading American educational institutions in Turkey is Anatolia College at Marsovan. It is a two day journey inland from Samsoun, upon the southern shore of the Black Sea. This college, which was established in 1886, has an enrollment of 270 young men, of whom seventy-two are in the college department. The students are Greeks, Armenians, Russians, Persians, Turks and Jews. The college occupies a large site on the edge of the city, and is now erecting new buildings necessary to accommodate its rapidly increasing membership.

The attendance at the Girls' College at Constantinople has decreased because of the war. However, those who remain have continued their studies enthusiastically. Recently the girls gave a pageant in which girls of the different nationalities wore their native costumes.

SENIORS TO GIVE "A BOX OF MONKEYS"

Christmas Entertainment to Be Held in Borough High School Tomorrow Night.

The annual Christmas entertainment of the senior class of North Plainfield High School will be held in Saengerbund Hall tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock. The seniors have prepared a very interesting program which will be featured by a two-act farce comedy entitled "A Box of Monkeys." The cast, which consists of five characters, has been rehearsing every day for the past month under the coaching of Miss Helen K. Ray, of the High School faculty. The cast follows; Edward Raiston (Ted), a promising young American, half owner of Sierra Gold Mine, Elmer French; Chauncey Oglethorpe, his partner, second son of Lord Doncaster, Lester Chandler; Mrs. Ondego Jhones, an admirer of rank, Anne Hull; Sierra Bengaline, her niece, a prairie rose, Lucy Douglas; Lady Guinevere Slandpoore, an English primrose, daughter of the Earl of Paynaught, Katharine Giddings.

The presentation of the "knocks" to the members of the junior and senior classes will be made in an extremely novel way and will be in charge of Hoyt Tomkinson, Duclos VanMater and Roscoe VanCamp. Dancing will follow the program. Edson Day, president of the class, will make an address of welcome.

The committees in charge of the entertainment are as follows: Decoration, Miss Jubilee Rowley, chairman; Edson Day, Russell Lee, Richard Schroeder and Frank Fetherston, music, Elmer French; knocks, Hoyt Tomkinson, chairman; Ralph Smalley, Duclos VanMater, Edson Day, Elmer French, Miss Elsie Debele, Miss Lena Mobus and Miss Marion Doughty; program, Miss Jubilee Rowley, Edson Day; play, Lester Chandler, Elmer French, Miss Elva Lippincott, Miss Lucy Douglas; executive committee, Hyman Abrams; business manager, Roscoe VanCamp; stage manager, Russell Lee; house manager, Edson Day; property manager, Miss Helen K. Ray is coach.

FITZ AND HIS SON BOB EXCHANGING JABS IN HIS GYMNASIUM AT DUNELLEN

"I consider Bob Fitzsimmons the greatest fighter of all time," recently declared Promoter James Coffroth. "Why? Because he was the best middleweight, the best light-heavyweight, and the best heavyweight that ever drew on a glove."

Thirteen years in the fight game as king of promoters has made James Coffroth the most capable judge, perhaps, of boxers there is.

"Whom do I consider the greatest fighter of all time?" Coffroth puffed thoughtfully for a moment on his cigarette before answering.

"Bob Fitzsimmons. Why? Because he was the best middleweight, the best light-heavyweight, and the best heavyweight that ever drew on a glove.

"Fitz was a thorough master of battle tactics. The fact that he could fight with equal facility in three different classes was because he was a physical monstrosity.

"The wiry Cornishman had the shoulders and arms of a heavyweight and the legs of a lightweight.

"Outside of Fitzsimmons, Ketchel was undoubtedly the greatest middleweight that ever lived. He had a punch and a style of delivering it that has never been equaled. But he never would have been a match for the invincible Fitz. Nor would John L. Sullivan have stood a chance even in his palmiest days.

"The thing that made the Cornishman great was the fact that he was a decisive fighter. There was never the question of doubt in the mind of the fan as to who won when Fitzsimmons was in the ring.

"Gans was the greatest lightweight and welterweight. Until he became only a shell he beat every lightweight in the game and most of the welter weights.

"Abe Attell was the best featherweight, because he not only cleaned up all the men in his class, but fought lightweights as well.

"Of course, the greatest master of the art of boxing was James Corbett. He was the peer of them all. Corbett was not only clever for a heavyweight, but he was fully as fast as the cleverest of the lightweights, which in a big man is almost phenomenal.

"Other than Fitzsimmons, Corbett was capable of whipping many men in the heavyweight divisions, both before and after the Cornishman's time. It just happened that the rangy Fitz, with his peculiar style, was the master of the clever Corbett.

"The undefeated black champion, Jack Johnson, would, even with his peculiar defensive style and rangy build, have been a victim of the terrible Fitzsimmons' wallop had he fought that freckled monstrosity at the time when he was good. No, Fitz had no peer; he will always stand out in my mind as the greatest monarch of pugilism."

The Peacocks took two games from the Crows in the Columbus Club bowling tournament, last night, winning the first by a difference of 238 pins, getting a 992 score, and setting up high score of the tournament so far. They lost a 1,000 score by a poor miss of the 10 pin spare by "Pacqey" McDonough amidst wild yelling from the side lines. The second game went to the Crows by a difference of 41 pins and the teams started on the last game with a do-or-die spirit, staying nip and tuck until the fifth frame, when "Bud" Murray's ball started a come back hook and "Finn" McCarthy started missing spares, while the Peacocks gradually drew away, winning by 47 pins.

LARGE ENTRY LIST FOR 12-HOUR ENDURANCE ROLL

Much interest is being taken in the twelve-hour endurance bowling contest that will be held Christmas on the Second street alleys by George Miller. The pinning will begin at 12 o'clock Christmas eve and end at noon Christmas Day. Eight teams have already sent in entries for the competition and there are half a dozen out of town teams that will compete. Two have been received from Somerville and four from Westfield besides several from this city.

At present it looks as though there would be enough competition to make the contest interesting. The prizes have not yet been decided upon, but they will be well worth trying for and the winners will be well rewarded for their strenuous half day's work. Entries will still be received by Miller at the alleys any time.

Newark bowlers stepped into second place in the Junior Elks' League, last night, when, on their own alleys, they took three games in a row from the Jersey City team. The Newarks have now won five games and lost four, while the leading Elizabeths have captured eight games and lost one. The Newarks did their best pinning in the second game, when they totaled 1,001. In the first game the locals were there for 896, and wound up with 961. Haggerty put in tallies of 230 and 200 for the Newarks, and averaged 206-2. PICTURESQUE FIGURE QUITS BIG LEAGUES

Mike Donlin.

Mike Donlin has been given an unconditional release by the Giants. When the Turkey steps down and out of the big leagues, one of the most picturesque of baseball characters will bow out. In his day Mike was an eternal heart-breaker to the big league twirlers. He always fought for the lead of the league with Hans Wagner, just as Joe Jackson and Ty Cobb fight it out in the American. Mike was a natural fence buster.

"I knew Mike when he was a green one," relates a friend of Donlin's. "He played with the Sand Crabs, the Santa Cruz team of the California League. Even then Mike was famous, but only in the fruit belts. I've always enjoyed telling this one on Mike:

"I was sitting on the bench in the ball park at San Francisco. The Sand Crabs were playing the Seals, the San Francisco team, one Sunday. Mike, who always had a warm spot in his heart for the cartoonist and scribes, came over and sat down on the bench beside me. He pointed out a few marks among his fellow players as subjects for caricatures and then he dug down in his hip pocket, pulled out a mysterious little red book and began to hunt through it for something. Finally Mike got what he was looking for. It was a tiny stamp photo of himself.

"'Say,' said he with a blush, 'I've never had my picture in the paper. Do you think you could use your influence with the sporting editor and have him run this one of me? It would do me a lot of good in Santa Cruz.'

"Years afterwards I saw Mike again at the Polo Grounds. He had just cleaned up the bases with a three-sacker in a very important game. It was then that I reminded him of the stamp photo incident and how now, perhaps, he had to beseech the sporting editor on the metropolitan dailies to run his pictures only six days out of the seven so that the fans wouldn't get tired of his classic features."

SECOND YEAR GIRLS TOOK EASY WIN FROM FRESHIES

The Sophomore girls of North Plainfield High School defeated the Freshmen, yesterday afternoon, in Saengerbund Hall by a score of 17 to 7. PLAINFIELD ELKS WILL PLAY JERSEY CITY FIVE

Plainfield Senior Elks will play in Jersey City, tonight, and Captain Nash will take his regular squad along which has been pinning very good in the last few matches. The locals are in hopes of grabbing at least two of the rolls tonight. Two other matches will be played in this league, Newark at Hoboken and Rahway at New Brunswick.

In the Junior League, Paterson and Elizabeth will play at Elizabeth. The Somerville Eagles will go to Newark for three games.

Y. W. C. A. TRIUMPH A FAMILY AFFAIR

Sisters Score All Points Made in Basketball Encounter Last Night.

Sensational shooting on the part of the Misses Helen and Ida Hummel, was the star feature of a one sided basketball game played between the Y. W. C. A. team and the newly organized Plainfield Gym Club. The final score was 38 to 4. The association aggregation outplayed its opponents in every department of the game and the two forwards, the Misses Hummel, completely outwitted their guards and shot at will. Shots were made from all parts of the floor and Miss Helen Hummel was particularly good on the long throws. She also made ten points from the fifteen foot mark out of fourteen tries.

Miss Helen Brynarski, playing forward for the Gym team, made the only points for her side, getting one field goal in each half. The close guarding of Miss Doughty held her opponent scoreless. At the end of the half the score was 17 to 2. This is the second victory of the season for the association team:

Somerville	9	6	956
Plainfield	7	11	948
Rahway	6	12	917
Progress	3	9	873

Plainfield Eagle pinners managed to annex one game on the Rahway alleys, last night, and still hang on to fourth place with seven victories and eleven defeats. This game is the first the locals have won out of the last four matches, Somerville making two clean sweeps in succession followed by Newark. The locals captured the middle setto and had only eighteen points to spare, the scores being 859 to 841.

Plainfield started off poorly on the strange alleys, Luthman chalking up 162 for a beginner and Morris following with a 134. The first two scores made by the home pinners were 180 and 160 and at the end of the game the locals were behind their opponents 33 points. The Queen City bowlers took a decided brace in the second game and won this, which gave them a fighting chance for the match. A 208 and a 198 in the last game put the locals out of the running. The scores were 863 to 766.

ELKS WILL MEET PARK CLUB BOWLERS IN SERIES

Pinners floating the colors of the local Elks' Club and the Park Club, will get into action in the initial match of their annual championship series on the Watchung avenue lanes Tuesday night, December 29. A return engagement will be arranged for at some future date for a series on the Park Club alleys and should a rubber meeting be necessary the bowlers will agree on the scene of battle.

The respective leaders have picked the following notables to roll the wooden pills in the curtain raiser:

Elks' Club	Park Club
Blatz	Barlow
Kiely	Daniels
Vail	Long
Nash	Mulford

Scattered Sport Gleanings

Now that someone has started the league idea rolling in this section we expect to see the re-organization of the Dunellen quintet brought about. In previous years basketball has been a flourishing pastime in that borough and the villagers have given Plainfield aggregations some close rubs. Why not stage the revival stunt before the season gets too old?

It's surprising what fame will do. There's a new man on the Company F five in Elizabeth who has been ripping things to pieces with his sensational shooting this season and rarely completes a game without putting a half dozen or more dents in the two-point net. This individual is referred to by one of the Elizabeth sport chronicles as "McDermitt," and by the other one as "Francis." We'll call him Francis McDermitt.

Hope Chapel is due to entertain a team styling itself the "American Five," of Perth Amboy, on the Fourth street battlefield Saturday night. If the name counts for anything the match should prove to be one of the slashing variety with the red, white and blue spirit much in the foreground.

In Miss Ruth Morris, the Plainfield High School feminine quintet has a foul shooter that tops the list of schoolgirl penalty gainers in this section. Her accuracy at foul shooting has been demonstrated in several engagements and her peculiar ability to turn violations of the rules on the part of opponents into tallies may be a big factor in the local institution's Interscholastic League campaign this year.

It's surprising how the old-timers retain the form they exhibited in their school days. A group of former North Plainfield stars, who have weathered many a basketball battle in the last five years' feminine competition, made their appearance on the Plainfield High School court last night and added a little more spice to their already established records.

Rumor has it that one of the speedy local male quintets is about to set adrift from certain affiliations and run independent games on another local court. This listens well, but whaddayagonno do about the financial end?

"It's a Long Way to Tipperary," but it's still further from the Plainfield Elks' berth in the Senior League to the top of the percentage ladder.

Plainfield's representative bowling teams in the several local leagues have a happy faculty of being able to keep below the second rung in each case.

Inasmuch as nearly every other baseball magnate of note has been mentioned as a possible leader of the Yankees' destinities next season, it's about time some of the loyal sparks about these diggin's put in a good word for Ernie Dorflinger.

"Clint" Shannon is the bird of color in the Columbus Club five-man house tourney, according to the first ratings made public yesterday. He has set up a 201-4 mark as a starter-off.

Captain Stout's display of good sportsmanship in yielding his anchor berth on the Elks' Junior League team to Ed Laing in the hopes of bettering his team's work proofited the aggregation but little in the series with New Brunswick, Tuesday night. Stout's consistency would probably show up to better advantage than the little flash of speed Laing gets away with every now and then.

It has been alleged by some follower of the Elks' Junior League that the New Brunswick quintet is a corporation. Granted. But if there were many more corporations of this variety on the circuit there would be some interesting scraps for the cellar berth in the organization. Inasmuch as Elizabeth is being allowed to romp away with the top rung we've got to gather some consolation in the fact that some one's interesting in keeping from falling through the bottom of the standing box.

JUNIORS WON CLOSE GAME FROM P. H. S. FRESHMEN

The inter-class basketball season was opened at the Plainfield High School, yesterday afternoon, when the Juniors beat the Freshmen by a score of 27 to 20.

The Juniors led at the end of the first half by the score of 13 to 7.

The score:

JOSEPH SATTELS MEMBER OF CORNELL CHESS TEAM

J. T. Sattels, '17, of this city, is a member of the Cornell chess team that will compete in the annual chess tournament which will be held in New York during the week of December 28, under the auspices of the Triangular College Chess League. The other two institutions that will compete are Pennsylvania and Brown. The former was the winner of the league last year and again rules a strong favorite this year.

The local boy is a fine player and last year was invited to meet one of the best chess men in the world. Sattels held his opponent at that time to a draw.

SPORT SCRIBES' OPINIONS

Woodbridge, Dec. 17.—A total of sixty-two fouls were called in the basketball game here Friday night, in which the local High School squad downed the North Plainfield High's team by a score of 27 to 24. It is believed that this number of fouls in a single game is a record for this section. Following the contest, Woodbridge players said the officials who had charge of the encounter, were about the strictest referees in the business.—Perth Amboy Evening News.

If value in the number of players it took to get his mean anything then the Phillies next year will have the prize package in shortstops in Dave Bancroft, the Portland, Ore., wonder. It became known yesterday that for the Phils to land this wizard of the Pacific coast they had to surrender title to Shortstop Milton Reed and Herbert Murphy, who finished up the year with Jersey City, and later turned over two more youngsters which Pat. Moran will turn loose. The latter will likely be hurlers.

If Bancroft shows up to measurement in the Southern training camp he will be started at short field, leaving Jack Martin and Bobby Byrne to fight it out for second base, providing Honous Lobert comes to terms with the Phills. If Lobert hurdles then Byrne will go to his old-time haunts, third base, leaving the Keystone sack to be taken care of by Martin. That is the present plans according to the Winter Stove League crowd, although Moran will have the last word on how he is going to line up his fighters.—New Brunswick Times.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

The Right Side Of Bed Christmas Morning.

He Sat on the Bed For a Minute.

"IT was Christmas morning, but Dicky had got out of the wrong side of bed."

Daddy was begining the evening story, so the kiddies snuggled down to listen.

"He sat on the bed for a minute wondering what was the matter with him, for he felt no desire, as he had the Christmas before, to run downstairs and examine his gifts. He just sat there and played with his stockings and wasn't glad because it was Christmas at all.

"But while he sat there a great genie rose out of the floor. He was a wonderful looking genie, with a turban on his head which sparkled in the morning sun and a beautiful costume all covered with jewels.

"'What is the matter this morning, Dicky, boy?' asked the genie

"'Nothin' much,' mumbled Dicky.

"Then the genie took Dicky up in his arms, and in an instant Dicky was downstairs looking at the gifts which Santa Claus had left him.

"There was everything there—mechanical toys, engines of all sorts, drums, guns, flying machines—everything you'd think a boy would be crazy about.

"But Dicky, because he had got out of the wrong side of bed, took no interest in his gifts at all.

"So the genie took him in his arms, and in the twinkling of an eye the genie and Dicky were standing in a poor little room. There were no rugs upon the floor. The windows were stuffed up with cotton rags so that only a little ray of the bright winter sunshine could penetrate into the room.

"The bed was a very poor one—mostly rags—but in the center of it sat a beautiful little golden haired girl.

"And in her arms she held an ugly rag doll, the ugliest doll you can imagine. But she was crooning a little lullaby to it and rocking it back and forth in her arms.

"And her face was wreathed in smiles. Just then her mother came into the room, and in her hand she carried a big red apple.

"'Here is your other Christmas gift, daughter,' said the little mother, and the child laughed.

"Dicky put his arms around the genie's neck and sobbed, 'Take me back, please, and I'll get out of the right side of bed.'

"And when Dicky wakened, for you see this was a dream, he dressed very quickly, ran downstairs and just loved every single thing he found there for his Christmas."

"Let's get out of the right side of bed Christmas, Jack," said Evelyn.

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

"Fifty-six, fifty-seven, fifty-eight, fifty-nine, sixty. Sixty cents. That is all there is," reflected Paul Jethro, dismally looking into the pocketbook, "and Christmas is so near and there has not been a bit of snow to shovel since I earned this quarter."

"Let's ask mother about it," said his sister, brightening. "She's sure to have some plan to help out. I wonder if everybody's mother is so full of fine plans."

"Of course not," said the lad scornfully. "I wonder where she is. Mother!" he called. "Oh, she's in the sewing room," and the children scampered up the stairs to the court of last appeal.

"Now, mother, we want your advice and help about our Christmas presents. We're both hard up and at our wits end," said Amy, dropping into a seat.

"You see, mother, there hasn't been much snow to shovel, and that is what I had been counting upon to help me out, and sixty cents won't begin to reach around," said Paul, jingling his pennies.

"Well, I must put on my thinking cap," said Mrs. Jethro, smiling. "Have you anything planned for Olive and Roy?"

"Not a thing!" came dismally from the children.

She stitched a few minutes in silence, the children watching her eagerly.

"You know Roy is very much interested in his geography. That's his new subject this year. Why don't you make him a puzzle map of the United States or of Europe?" she finally said.

"Tell us how!" chorused the children.

"Up in the attic is a pile of old school books. Get a geography with a good map of the United States; take it out carefully and paste it onto one of those heavy box covers and put a weight on it until it is dry. Tomorrow Paul can take a sharp pocket knife and cut out the states. Rhode Island and Connecticut must be left together, they are so small, also New Jersey and Delaware. Maryland has such a long crooked arm to it, I would leave that with West Virginia. Roy will enjoy learning the names of the states and can soon put the map together.

"You might treat Europe the same way, or use a white relief map. Trace the countries, then paint those fighting with the allies one color, and those with Germany another. That will teach him about the war, too."

"Oh, how fine!" cried the children excitedly.

"We have each of us a present for Roy now."

"I have been thinking of making Olive a set of furniture, but I will turn it over to you," continued mother. "You must make solid wire frames. You may have to hire them soldered. You can wind raffia over the wires and make the most attractive little chairs and tables imaginable. I was looking at the branch that blew off the maple last week. By sawing an inch section and leaving the bark on, you can have a fine dining table top. Sandpaper and wax it, and it will be beautiful."

"What will I put on for legs?" asked Paul.

"Take a short section of a smaller branch, fasten one end on a standard to keep it from tipping, and screw the top to the other end, making a pedestal table.

"For a davenport, take a block of wood the right shape, upholster it and put a pleated valance around it; then select thin pieces of board for back and arms, saw them to fit, pad them and nail them in place; then cover the outside," and Mrs. Jethro paused.

"How she will enjoy all those things," said Amy, "and I will braid a rag rug for the little parlor."

"Now the children are provided for," resumed the mother, "why don't both of you make a number of those lovely reed baskets? I prize the one you made for me, and I am sure grandma and Aunt Grace would appreciate them. Make a large nut basket and six small ones out of fine reed for aunty, and a hanging basket for grandma's vine. Both of you working together could get them done."

"I am going to get right to work," said Paul, starting for the attic.

"Thank you very much for helping us out," said Amy, kissing her mother before she raced after her brother.

Whitehouse

Rev. William J. Lonsdale, pastor of the Reformed church at Lebanon, will preach his Christmas sermon Sunday morning. The rite of infant baptism will be administered. In the afternoon he will lecture in the schoolhouse at Bissell. The children's choir is practising for its Christmas entertainment which will be held in the church next Wednesday evening at 7:30. At the same time the Christmas treat for the members of the Sunday-school will be given.

Frank B. Alpaugh and son, Alfred Alpaugh, of Gladstone, have returned after a visit to Mr. Alpaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Runkle Alpaugh, at Whitehouse Station.

The sidewalk from the garage to the A. C. Durling residence at Whitehouse Station is now finished as far as grading is concerned. In the near future the cinders will be laid. This is being constructed under the direction of the Wishbone Club of East Whitehouse, and a committee of citizens of Whitehouse Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Dilts and Mrs. Elmira Kline have returned to Whitehouse Station after a visit to Easton.

The North Branch Pinochle Club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Dilts at their residence at Whitehouse Station, Friday night.

Alvah A. Conover, who conducts a peltry at Lebanon, has three black bear hides which he has just received from a hunter in Canada.

The Worth While Club will be entertained by Miss Mae Drinkwater at her home at East Whitehouse, Saturday afternoon, December 26. Auction bridge will be played.

Mrs. John Bodine, of Gladstone, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Frederick R. Cook, in Caldwell.

Word has been received in East Whitehouse from George L. Beatty, formerly a resident of that place. He is now in England, where he is teaching aviation. He is located near London and is driving a hydro-aeroplane. He made a number of notable flights in this country several seasons ago.

Miss Emma Voorhees has returned to Lebanon after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, in Somerville.

Work is being continued on the macadam road from this place to New Germantown, but the weather has become so cold it is doubtful if it can be finished this winter.

The dirt road on the Ridge, near the schoolhouse, has been repaired this week by Overseer D. Henry Miller.

Mrs. William Case, of Jersey City, is spending a week at her former home at Pottersville.

Elwood Robinson, of Readington, is able to be about again. He was injured about two weeks ago, when his motorcycle collided with a hay wagon near Whitehouse Station.

Mrs. Martha White, of Bedminster, returned yesterday after a visit in Newark and Jersey City.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

CHRISTMAS GIFT IDEAS

Wonder how many utilize the odds and ends at Christmas time?

Cut out an apron for the miss of six or seven, of lawn or dotted mull. Add a pocket and narrow ruffle. Around edge of apron where it is joined to ruffle sew beading, also across top of pocket. Run red ribbon through it, adding several bows. Be sure to have strings to tie with. Cost of new material about 12 cents.

Make two small pillows of scraps of ticking, stuff with cotton. Make pillow cases with lace on edge. Make a comforter or two, filling with wadding, and tie in the usual way. Two small sheets complete a gift which will please any little miss.

Out of scraps of silk make sachet bags—tiny ones and all of one color if possible. Tie five or six together and give to baby or child for dresser drawers.

Use some bright yarn or cord and make the rope-like strings we all made when children, on a spool with four nails—the rope coming through the hole of spool. Red is especially good. Shape into a harness and, with a few bells added, make an acceptable gift for the boy to play horse with.

THE TABLE

Stewed Kidneys—Split kidneys, peel off skin, slice thin, dust with flour, pepper and salt. Brown some flour in butter, dilute with a little water. Mix smooth. Cook kidneys in it and let them simmer, but not boil, for they cook in a short time. Butter slices of toast, lay on a hot dish and pour over this the kidneys, gravy and all. This makes a very good dish.

Steak and Macaroni—Take round steak. Fry one large or two small onions in fat to a light brown; add one-half teaspoon paprika and two cups tomatoes; salt and pepper. Cut one pound steak in three or four-inch squares, put in tomato gravy and stew till tender (about two hours). When it starts to thicken when cooking, add water and keep meat covered. When done thicken with one cup sour cream and little flour. Serve with macaroni.

Hamburger Hash With Green Peppers—One pound hamburger; one green peper, one onion and one potato chopped fine; mix in hamburger. When cooked, cream and serve on toast. Season to taste.

Fried Liver—Roll liver in corn meal instead of flour and fry as usual. The cooked article really looks attractive and inviting, and it just melts in one's mouth.

Mush Biscuit—Make corn meal mush as to fry. Take about one-half gallon flour in bread bowl; make hole in center, put in three-fourths cup lard, one quart warm mush on top of lard. When cool enough to bear the hands, add one-fourth cup sugar, a little salt, and mix all together. Then add one-half cup good wet yeast and work well. If necessary, add more flour. Set in warm place over night, then work down and put in cool place until you wish to use, when you can mold into gem pans or rolls as you wish. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in moderate oven. Freezing does not hurt this dough.

Quick Apple Salad—Peel and chop four medium-sized apples. Shell one pint peanuts and roll with rollingpin till fine. Mix with apples and boiled mayonnaise and serve on lettuce leaf.

Christmas Honey Cakes—Cook together half cup of honey and molasses for a few minutes; while hot add half cup butter; when butter is melted, stir into half cup sour milk. Add one well-beaten egg, one level teaspoon cinnamon, half teaspoon each of cloves and mace, one-fourth teaspoon ginger. Sift one pint flour and one level teaspoon soda together and stir into mixture, adding a little more flour if necessary to make dough stiff enough to handle easily. Roll dough out one-fourth inch thick, then cut into any shape desired and prick with a fork; lay an inch apart on greased baking sheets and bake in quick oven. When cold decorate with icing, small red candies and nut meats.

German Marrow Balls—When the children refuse to eat soup, add marrow balls, and they will ask for more. Take from a large marrow bone, before cooking, about two tablespoons of marrow, put through food chopper or mash, add one egg, a little salt and parsley, and enough fine cracker crumbs to make a stiff paste. Break off pieces and roll into balls the size of filbert nuts. Drop into soup or broth and boil 10 minutes.

FASHION HINT

By JUDIC CHOLLET

The simple blouse finished with hemmed edges and rolling collar in Robespierre style is a favorite. This one can be made very smart in effect with or without an applied yoke.

In the illustration it is of plain silk, with collar and cuffs of a fancy sort. For a plain, everyday waist a white china silk model with collar and cuffs of embroidery would be nice or with collar and cuffs of the silk having stitched edges or perhaps narrow plaited frills.

For the medium size the waist will require three and one-quarter yards of

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.—Adv.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.

THE Household Loan Company, a local corporation, licensed, bonded and supervised by the Banking Dept. of the State of New Jersey, now offers a limited amount of its preferred stock to the public. Its par value is $10 per share, and may be purchased by people of small or large means, desiring to help the deserving. Six per cent. interest is guaranteed, and all loans are amply secured by chattel mortgage. The number of worthy people desiring loans is very large, and we are not able to serve them all. It is planned, therefore, to extend our work by taking the investing and interested public into partnership with us. We thus hope to be the medium of bringing supply and demand together to their mutual advantage. We invite careful investigation. A statement with our little green book will be sent anyone on request. Call or write. Household Loan Company, 148 East Front street, Plainfield. 12 14 6 was taught last week by the Edison fire that every property owner should take to himself.

This fire substantiated the fact that a building of brick or concrete construction is not fire proof. It also showed that even great minds are short sighted in not protecting their investment with adequate insurance.

We can help you to overcome both obstacles by providing both "fire proof" and "sufficient" protection.

MAYOR STEWART TO PRESS BUTTON

Will Turn on Current and Light Big "Community Christmas" Tree.

10,000 CANDLE POWER

More Than 3,000 Voices Will Comprise Chorus of Children in the Singing of Christmas Carols—Catholics to Co-operate.

The idea of holding a public demonstration on Christmas eve is taking strong hold of the people, old and young. Many are making possible the plans of the Community Christmas Committee by sending contributions to the treasurer, Charles A. Rice, 836 West Seventh street, or dropping their sentiments in silver in the Santa Claus chests in the stores. Other groups in the Bible schools are preparing gifts of cash and groceries, for in most of the schools this year the question is not "What are you going to get for Christmas?" but "What are you giving?" Some are sending to the Belgian and other relief funds; others work through the Community Christmas or distribute their bounty to the needy of their own church.

But the tree in the City Park is the thing that has caught the imagination of everybody, and every housekepeer is trying to arrange early supper on Thursday so that the youngsters may see the big ten thousand candle-power spruce begin to glow when Mayor Stewart's finger presses the button at 7:30 sharp. In all the schools the carols are being diligently sung, and the Sunday-schools are rehearsing them. If all the Bible schools turn out for the celebration, according to the expectation, there will be more than 3,000 voices in the chorus when Chorister Charles L. Lewis and the Aida Trumpet Quartet lead off with "O Come all ye Faithful."

The spirit of the demonstration is shown by the fact that Father Bogan, of St. Mary's parish, and Arthur M. Harris, chairman of the Sunday-school Superintendents' Association, are co-operating cordially to make it a grand success.

Suggestions have come to the committee from many sources. One which is favorably received is that all householders—flatholders, too—be asked to give a festal aspect to the city on Christmas eve by setting lights in windows facing the streets. If all will bear in mind that the tree will be lighted at 7:30 and will illuminate at that hour the effect will be striking.

STOLEN INSTRUMENTS ARE RECOVERED BY DR. CREGAR

Dr. P. B. Cregar, of Grant avenue, although previously in doubt about the matter, is now sure that the true Christmas spirit is in the air. About a month ago a number of valuable surgical instruments were stolen from his automobile. Yesterday, a small boy returned the instruments, explaining that he had found them near the Y. M. C. A.

It is the belief of the doctor that became conscience stricken as Christmas-tide was approaching and decided to return the stolen articles. The instruments were in good condition and the owner was certainly glad to recover his property.

DR. N. H. PROBASCO ILL.

Dr. Norman H. Probasco, of Park avenue, was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday afternoon, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis and other complications. Today the physician was reported to be doing well.

GIVEN PERMISSION TO SEE DAUGHTER

Vice-Chancellor Lewis Signs Order on Application of Arthur Murphy.

Jersey City, Dec. 18.—Vice Chancellor Lewis, following a hearing in the Chancery Chambers here yesterday, in which Arthur Murphy, of Plainfield, sought to determine whether he or his wife, Mrs. Lydia A. Murphy, should have the keeping of their six-year-old daughter, Lydia, signed an order permitting Mr. Murphy to see the child this afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Rushmore, of 732 West Eighth street, Plainfield. Testimony in the action will be taken at a later date.

The Murphys have been separated since September 24, 1913, but in the papers filed in the present suit both declare they have no intention of seeking divorce. In his petition Mr. Murphy charged that his wife is "wrongfully imprisoning and restraining Lydia against her wishes and welfare." He asserts that a nurse is always present whenever he sees his daughter.

Mrs. Murphy, who is represented by Halsey M. Barrett, of Newark, denies her husband's charge. She asserts that the child suffers from insomnia and has been under the care of physicians.

MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR PEACE

John Wanamaker Says "War Has Put Christianity on Trial."

At the dinner given at the Bellevue-Stratford, Philadelphia, Wednesday night, to Martin G. Brumbaugh, Governor-elect of Pennsylvania, by the educational organizations of the city, in cluding the University of Pennsylvinia, John Wanamaker presided. in an address, which is being favorably discussed today, he said in part:

"What shall the harvest be if another year is added to the hatreds, strifes, sufferings caused by the great war? We are but human and we can become more or less indifferent to any condition or air that we live in. How do you suppose the reading and pictures of today will affect the children of American homes?

"Some one some day soon must get the right thought, say the right word, do the right deed to stop this terrible war. God speed that day and stir us all to earnest prayer and wise effort.

"Christianity is much more than a birthright or a vow. These are the days when Christianity is on trial.

"To the pontiff at Rome we express our profound appreciation that he upon his accession to office turned his heart and soul immediately to the efforts for peace, and later in anxiety for his spiritual children engaged in the conflict has again raised his hand and voice in appeals for the cessation of warfare.

"What if it were known today in every city in the Union that a good part of Philadelphia's best representatives and supporters were standing here on tiptoes to shout Christmas greetings over sea and land—think you not that a mighty shout of agreement would go up from every city, town, hamlet, church, lodge, society all over this country?"

MASONIC REPRESENTATIVES CONDUCT FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral of David Paterson Lewis was held at the home of his niece, 1209 South Second street, yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. D. B. F. Randolph, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, officiating. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, including a delegation from Marsh Lodge, No. 188, and Corner Stone lodge, No. 367, F. and A. M., of Brooklyn. Mr. Lewis had been a member of Marsh Lodge for fifty years.

Worshipful Master G. W. Harrington accompanied the delegation from Marsh Lodge, while Worshipful Master Newton H. Benson accompanied the delegation from Corner Stone Lodge. The worshipful masters conducted the Masonic funeral service at the house. The body was taken this morning to Laceyville, Pa., for burial.

Y. M. C. A. PICTURES.

The special Christmas program selected for the motion picture entertainments in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, tomorrow afternoon and evening, will include "The Kiddies' Christmas," in two parts; "The Three Wise Men," "Lost, Strayed or Stolen," "What Three Tots Saw in the Land of Nod."

YALE CLUB AIDS PLAN FOR RELIEF

Contributes $100 Toward the Fund to Help City's Unemployed.

THE FIRST LARGE GIFT

Public Appeal for Money is Meeting With a Ready Response—Every Citizen is Urged to Assist in the Work of Helping Needy Families.

That the Plainfield Yale Club is ready to do its part promptly in any movement for the public good, is shown by the following letter, received this morning by A. M. Harris, treasurer of the Commission for the relief of the unemployed:

"In response to the appeal of your Commission, the executive committee has voted the sum of $100 as the contribution of the Plainfield Yale Club toward the relief of distress among the unemployed in Plainfield and North Plainfield this winter.

"The club deems it a privilege to be among the first to support a work of this kind, which should appeal to the public spirit of every organization and every citizen able to help it. You will find enclosed our check for the above amount.

"THE PLAINFIELD YALE CLUB,
"Edward A. Stevenson,
"President."

This is the first large gift received in direct response to the appeal of the Commission in the Daily Press of yesterday. It is gratifying that the call, for the relief of those who are out of work through no fault of their own, should meet with ready response from a body of representative Plainfield men.

The situation is, however, a matter for the whole community. The whole burden cannot be left to a few organizations or wealthy individuals, who are already being called upon from all quarters. Every citizen of Plainfield and North Plainfield who can give a little, should feel it a duty and a pleasure to help his less fortunate neighbors in this world crisis.

The members of the finance committee who signed the appeal are A. M. Harris, chairman; E. R. Ackerman, A. V. Heely, L. K. Hyde, D. T. Kenney, C. W. McCutchen, Howard McWilliams, T. J. Mumford, Herman Schwed, Frank H. Smith. They did so after careful investigation and discussion, and after being thoroughly convinced that the need is real and pressing. There was no mere supposition.

Plainfield has no more than its share of distress this winter, probably less, but the need everywhere is far greater than usual. We must not be backward in showing that we take care of our own.

22ND ANNIVERSARY OF IONA COUNCIL

Reception and Dance Feature of Celebration by Local Lodge.

Iona Council, No. 14, Degree of Pocohontas, celebrated its twenty-second anniversary, last night, entertaining large delegations from Tonoluka Tribe, of Cranford, and Chippewa Tribe, of Newark. The evening was spent chiefly in dancing, music being furnished by Naylor's orchestra. During an intermission later in the evening supper was served by a committee in charge of the celebration.

Iona Council was instituted on December 14, 1892, with twenty-five charter members. Of that number six are still members in good standing. They are Miss Ella Sebring, Mrs. Sophia Denecklau, Mrs. Louisa Richter, William Newcorn, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Holstein. The council now has a membership of eighty-six and is increasing rapidly.

The council rooms were attractively decorated for the celebration with American flags and flowers. The committee on entertainment in charge comprised Mrs. Agnes K. Clarke, Miss Ella Sebring, Miss Viola Mundy, Mrs. Millie Dunn, Mrs. Julia Hallard and Miss Thompson.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA.

Sunday evening, December 27, Horatio Parker's cantata, "The Shepherd's Vision," and other Christmas selections will be given by the First Baptist church choir. Miss Florence Wohlfert, violinist, and Udo Gossweiler, 'cellist, of Newark, will render several instrumental numbers and also assist in the accompaniments.

BOMBARDMENT THEME OF MISS RICHARDS TALK

Tells Audience That Germany Has Again Violated International Laws of War.

Discussing the war abroad and the Mexican situation, Miss Janet E. Richards gave the fourth of her current event talks in the Hartridge Auditorium, yesterday afternoon, before a large audience of women. She first took up the subject of the bombardment of the English coast on Wednesday by a fleet of German warships, and described the cities of Scarborough, Hartlepool and Whitby, telling especially of the Whitby Abbey, which was built centuries ago. She reviewed the first 600 years of the history of the British Empire.

Miss Richards said that if the Germans succeed in their efforts to destroy England they will bring the world back to the barbarian days, as their present destruction of property was the same as it was with the earliest men. She said that in attacking defenseless towns, as Scarborough and Whitby, the Germans had again violated an agreement of the Hague Tribunal, which provided that no unarmed towns were to be attacked.

In discussing the Red Cross and the generosity of the people of the United States toward the Belgians, she said that while she thought it was a splendid thing, and reflected the true spirit of the people of this country, in her opinion the nations which are causing the trouble should be made to stand by and care for their own people.

The speaker commented on the remark made by one Englishman, as recorded in the newspapers of yesterday, that the attack on the English coast while a surprise might be a blessing in disguise, for it would awaken England to a sober and thoughtful realization of the present situation, as the country has not been awakened up to this time. She spoke about the organizations of women in England, who are prepared now to do all the work of the men, even to running the street cars in some instances, and said that the Suffragists think it is a splendid oportunity for them to show the men that they are entitled to the vote in return for their work during this war.

All of the hatred which has been engendered during the war seems to be between England and Germany, or at least among those high in authority. Miss Richards told of a letter which was sent by a friend of hers in Brittany, a wealth American woman, who was acting as a Red Cross nurse. In this letter it was stated that both the Germans and the English wounded soldiers had one question for each other and that is "What are we fighting about, anyway?" She said that the German, French, Russians and others involved do not seem to show hatred toward each other, but that the German officials especially are bitter toward England. It is merely a case of high officials fighting out a long standing hatred.

One of the unusual things about the war, which will need further explaining, said Miss Richards, is the withdrawal of the Austrian troops from little Servia, without any explanation, other than an announcement that such withdrawal has taken place. No one seems to know why the powerful and great Austrian army has given way to the Servians.

Turning to the United States the speaker said that three clouds were being seen. The first, to the North, would probably never grow unless Germany defeats England, and makes trouble for us along the Canadian border. The second cloud comes from the West in the possibility that we may have trouble with Japan, and the last was the black cloud to the South in Mexico.

The situation at Naco, Arizona, where American citizens have been killed by stray bullets fired by the contending armies across the border was described. Miss Richards said that Mexico would have to be treated like a child but that if the people and various contending factions there will not respond to moral suasion, they must be punished. The trouble at the Panama Canal, where the British have used wireless from within the neutral three-mile limit was briefly explained.

At the conclusion Miss Richards read two Christmas poems, and wished her hearers the compliments of the season. The next talk will be given on January 14.

FATE OF CONNORS IN JURY'S HANDS

Throngs Await Verdict in Case That Has Excited Country-wide Interest.

NO DEFENSE OFFERED

Newcorn Alleges "Frame-up" in His Resume of Testimony—Fingerprint Evidence Plays Important Part.

Elizabeth, Dec. 18.—Failure to place Charles, alias "Ice-Wagon" Connors, on the stand in the Union county court, today, caused no little amount of surprise. It was announced, at the conclusion of the State's case late yesterday, that there would be no witnesses for the defence. Immediately upon the completion of the State's case, William Newcorn, of Plainfield, counsel for Connors, who is alleged to have been implicated in the theft of more than $17,000 worth of jewelry from the home of former State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman in Plainfield on the night of January 31 last, applied for a dismissal of the indictment. His application was refused by Judge James C. Connolly.

This morning was devoted to a summing up on both sides and the case was turned over to the jury shortly after 1 o'clock. There is a maximum sentence of fifteen years in State's prison for a prisoner convicted of this charge.

In his summing up for the defence Mr. Newcorn alleged a "frame-up" on the part of the Plainfield police to convict Connors and made a general attack on the evidence introduced. Assistant Union County Prosecutor Martin O'Connor, who conducted the State's case, reviewed the fingerprint evidence offered, which is considered the strongest link in the prosecution. Mr. O'Connor maintained that duplicates of Connors' fingerprints were furnished to Chief Kiely by the police of Chicago and that this eliminated all possibility of conspiracy inasmuch as it was not likely that the western department would enter into a scheme for the conviction of a prisoner.

One of the surprising features of yesterday afternoon's hearing was the examination of David Angerbauer, an employe of the Kensington Hotel in Plainfield. He declared that Connors was the man who frequented the Plainfield hostelry on or about January 3, and maintained that he was certain of the identification. Aside from the finger-print evidence this is considered the most important point involved.

During the two days of the trial the court room has been thronged with curious spectators and it has been rumored that a number of Con-

ON WILD RAMPAGE IN CITY BUILDING

Hannes Dennison, Under Influence of Liquor, Creates Havoc.

Laboring under the influence of liquor, Hannes Dennison, a painter living on Belvidere avenue, was arrested by Patrolman Dennis O'Keefe in the city building shortly after 8 o'clock last night, after he had created considerable trouble for city officials. He first made a visit to the office of Tax Collector William B. Townsend and after making a general nuisance of himself for fifteen minutes left that place for the office of City Clerk James T. MacMurray.

Mr. MacMurray ejected the troublesome individual from his place and he then proceeded to the second floor of the building, entering the Common Council committee-room where the local assessors were holding a meeting. Singling out Frank J. Hubbard and referring to him as "the leader of the German army" Dennison began chasing him around a table. Dennison was finally sent flying through a door only to retaliate by smashing the glass in the door windows. He continued his wild rampage until the arrival of the police and when Patrolmen O'Keefe and Saunders came on the scene he had demolished a number of panes of window glass in city offices, including one in Overseer-of-the-Poors' office which had just been lettered.

Arraigned in the city court this morning Dennison pleaded guilty to the charge and was remanded until tomorrow morning when disposition will be made of the charges.

PROSPERITY REPORT FROM THE WEST

Harry Rothberg Returns With Optimistic View of Industrial Conditions.

Harry Rothberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kalman Rothberg, of Madison avenue, who has been covering the State of Oklahoma for several years as a salesman for a wholesale concern, returned to this city yesterday to spend a few days with his parents.

Mr. Rothberg, in speaking with a Daily Press representative this morning, referred to the industrial and financial conditions in the Southwestern State as being favorable at this time, the largest cotton and wheat crops in the history of the State having been raised during the past season. While other parts of the South was suffering from the cotton panic, Oklahoma was at ease because of her wheat production, as well as mineral and oil produce.

"Prospects for the continuance of prosperity in that section of the country is bright," said Mr. Rothberg, "as plans are already under way for the decrease of cotton acreage next year, and sowing more wheat. Prohibition, under the laws passed by the State Legislature a comparatively short time ago, is playing its part in increasing the general trend of prosperity of the State of Oklahoma. While, as in the case in many other "dry" States, the law fails in some respects, but is generally being enforced throughout the State, and good results for the betterment of the people are already noticeable."

MISS VAN ZANDT THE BRIDE OF R. H. GANO

Miss Theo Marie Van Zandt, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Van Zandt, of Watchung avenue, and Russell Harrison Gano, of Jacksonville, Fla., were married in the First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, on Monday evening, November 9. Rev. Dr. Junius B. French, pastor of the church, officiated. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about two hundred guests.

The bride, a charming and attractive young woman, was gowned in white lace, trimmed with pearls. The marriage was the culmination of a romance begun two years ago when the bride with her mother and sister spent the winter at Jacksonville. The couple has been enjoying a honeymoon trip through the south.

FIRST SERMON OF SERIES.

Rev. Dr. H. S. Martin, of Temple Sholem, will deliver the first of a series of lectures on "What is Reformed Judaism?" this evening at the regular Friday evening service. The choir will be augmented this evening, while Miss Edna Cohen will render several violin selections.

HEAVY FIGHTING AROUND YPRES

British Fleet Reported to Be Pouring Deadly Fire Into German Ranks.

TWO WARSHIPS SUNK?

German Official Statement Claims That Raiding Fleet Destroyed Enemy's Vessels—Berlin Wild With Joy Over Victory in Poland.

Amsterdam, Dec. 18.—Heavy fighting is reported both north and south of Ypres, which has again been shelled by the British, who have been pouring a deadly fire into the German positions along the entire line from the sea to Ypres.

The road from Elton in Holland to Lobeth in Germany has been closed by the Germans. Nobody is now permitted to cross the frontier from the Netherlands into Germany.

Foreign Minister Loudon has declared in the Second Chamber that Holland has been assured by the surrounding powers that they understand and appreciate the position of the Netherlands in the present war. Minister Loudon added, however, that there always remains the possibility of conflicts and for this reason Holland cannot be too keenly alert.

London, Dec. 18.—A despatch, received here by way of Amsterdam, says that an official statement has been given out by the Germans, which claims that some of the British destroyers which attacked the German raiders on Wednesday, were sunk. The British Admiralty last night gave out a statement regarding the attack, but made no mention of any British vessels being lost. The statement said that the light cruiser Patrol and the destroyer Doon were hit by German shells, and lost five men killed and had fifteen wounded. The German statement made public today says:

"The retreating cruisers were attacked by four British destroyers, one of which was sunk. Another disappeared badly damaged. At another point another English destroyer was sunk."

No definite news has yet come from the Russian side of the great German victory in Poland. The Russian official headquarters report received today gives no information on the subject, and the customary long Petrograd despatches dealing with the military operations there are absent from the London newspaper today, which would seem to indicate a censorship has been imposed at Petrograd.

A Petrograd "Daily Mail" despatch, dated Thursday, refers to alleged instructions of the Kaiser to his staff that an attempt to capture Warsaw must be made at all hazards. Rumors of such instructions have been current for some days, and, according to the "Novoe Vremya," the plan is connected with the idea that the capture of Warsaw would provide a suitable moment for the proposal of a peace conference.

Official confimration is announced of the report that Turkey's suzerainty over Egypt has termined, and that Egypt henceforth is a British protectorate, under the supervision of Sir Arthur Henry McMahon, high commissioner of Egypt.

A despatch from Petrograd declares that Russian warships have found in the Black Sea the bodies of ten sailors of the cruiser Breslau, who are assumed to have been killed by a mine which they were handling.

Ptomaine poisoning is responsible for 150 cases of illness among troops in training at Blackheath Common in Kent. Medical officers have been sent to Blackheath to care for the men, as well as to investigate the cause of the poisoning.

The old Turkish battleship Messudieh, which was torpedoed by a British submarine in the Dardanelles, had been refitted and was ready for service, according to a despatch from Petrograd to the Post, which declares that guns from Germany had been placed on the ship and that a complete complement of German crew and officers manned her.

Berlin, Dec. 18.—The following statement has been given out at army headquarters:

"Yesterday the French continued their attacks without success. Attacks were attempted at Zillebeke and La Bassee which were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy. An attempt by the French to erect a bridge over the Aisne at Soissons was prevented by the fire of our artillery. French earthworks to the east of Rheims were destroyed. There is no news on the east and west Prussian frontiers.

"The Russian offensive against Silesia and Posen has completely broken down. In the whole of Poland the enemy has been forced to retreat after fierce and subbornly

Miss Marion Todd, of Warwick, N. Y., is visiting friends in the borough, where she resided for a number of years.

The December meeting of the Jr. O. U. A. M. was held in the lodge rooms, last evening. The lodge was enlarged by the admitting of several new members.

All of the rooms in School No. 1 have been decorated for Christmas by the children and exercises will be held in each class-room on Wednesday, when school closes for the holiday vacation. The usual festivities will be held in the No. 2 school next week also.

The young people of the borough and Plainfield who held a dance several weeks ago in the Fanwood firehouse, have formed the Sunshine Club and will hold dances at intervals during the winter.

The Rev. Oscar Stuart Michaels, pastor of the All Saints' Episcopal church, is considering the acceptance of a call as pastor to the Murray Hill church, with the idea of conducting the services at that place in the afternoon, as the services in the local church are in the morning.

Such a hearty response met the request from the Willow Grove chapel that the members bring food and articles of clothing to the meeting of the Ladies' Sewing Circle on Wednesday for distribution among the poor that a committee of three has been appointed to take care of the matter. Mrs. George Eberle, Miss Jesse Small and Miss Helen Lambert were appointed.

The horse has nearly finished its work of hacking at the local railroad station as John Ford and Peter Ritter are now running auto taxicabs and John Alberts is soon to have one

BEST WAY TO PUT UP A CHRISTMAS TREE

THE best and easiest way to put up a Christmas tree has never been patented or published—in fact, it is so simple that it could not be patented. Having failed one Christmas eve to provide a suitable foot or base for the family tree, necessity compelled me to invent one, because the two youngest members of the family would not hear of Christmas without a tree.

So I sawed the butt of the tree square, then trimmed off a few of the lowest branches and set the tree in a good sized stone jar. The jar was then filled with stones, pebbles, pieces of brick and coal. All this material was packed down firmly and the position of the tree so adjusted that it stood perfectly straight.

When the tree was in position little Gretel had a happy thought. "Let us give the tree some water," she said, "just as if it were a big flower." And we filled the jar with water. Then we covered the stones with bits of silver tinsel and artificial snow, and now our tree looked as if it was actually growing in a big jar.

From time to time, as the water was drawn up by the tree, we refilled the jar, and the result was that we kept our tree green and fresh for a month. Since that year our Christmas tree is always put up in that way, and we can keep it as long as we wish. A tin pail, a tub or any deep vessel can be used to take the place of the stone jar, and pieces of coal or coke can be used instead of stones to hold the tree in place.

Because It's Chris'mus

JES' because it's Chris'mus
I go smilin' on my way.
An' jes' [illegible]
I'm kind o' mad an' gay.
I'm full o' human kindness
An' as thoughtful as can be;
I develop total blindness
To the faults I used to see.

Jes' because it's Chris'mus
I forgot that I'm depressed,
An' I say whatever happens
Is, by all means, for the best.
An' my thoughts for every brother
That I meet are sweet an' good,
An' I wouldn't skin a rival
Even if I thought I could.

Jes' because it's Chris'mus
I don't think about my debts,
An' the biggest of my worries
Bring to me no vain regrets.
I am sort o' tuned to gladness,
An' I go upon my way
As though nothin' ever happened
Worth a minute of dismay.

Now, my burdens are no lighter
When I come to Chris'mus day,
An' my troubles are no fewer,
An' no smoother is my way.
Than they were in bleak November
Yet I seem to think 'em so
An' jes' because it's Chris'mus
I am smilin' as I go.

If I can laugh at Chris'mus
An' cheer my fellow men
Why can't I laugh in April,
Why not be merry then?
If I can bear my burdens
When it's Chris'mus with a smile
Why can't I face my troubles
In the same way all the while?

Why must I go repinin'
An' whimperin' along
An' blind to all men's goodness,
Seein' only what is wrong,
Till the year is slippin' from me,
An' then suddenly declare
When it gets around to Chris'mus
That there's goodness everywhere?

CHRISTMAS IN SYRIA.

THE Rev. Dr. D. G. Howie, the well known Palestine missionary, describes a Christmas celebration at midnight in a mountain village in Syria:

"From different directions men, women and children bearing their flickering hand lanterns wound their way through the muddy, slushy, crooked and dark lanes under the falling sleet and over a thin layer of snow already on the ground. Men and boys entered by a huge door in the middle of the south wall and occupied the body of the church; women and girls entered by another south door and stationed themselves in the western division of the immense building, which is screened from the other divisions by wooden latticework. All stood erect, motionless, in the cold, comfortless and very dimly lighted and too airy building.

"A few had umbrellas, but waterproofs were unknown, and consequently many of them must have stood in partly wet clothes. The question did occur to me at the time as to whether many British people could be drawn out of their beds, out of their homes, at that hour of night in that kind of weather, fasting, to attend Christmas service amid such dismal, comfortless surroundings."—Tit-Bits.

Over the Christmas Cider.

See the steaming sleighbells
Smoking on the plate!
See the luscious icicles
Blazing in the grate!

Oh, the joys of Christmas,
Driving off dull care!
Hear the mince pies ringing
On the frosty air!

Hear the turkeys chiming
On the distant lea!
Christmas is the season
Best of all for me!

Percy C. Stoddard, of John street, has received word of the death of his cousin, Major W. E. Stoddard MacLellan, of Melford, Angyllshire, Scotland, which was the direct result of a wound received on the battlefield. Major MacLellan was a member of the Third Essex Regiment of His Majesty's Third Battalion.

His death occurred at Surrey, England, following an injury sustained in the battle of Aisne.

LECTURED ON NATIONS IN WORLD'S GREATEST CRISIS

Miss Grace Greenwood, of the Teachers' College, New York, gave an interesting illustrated lecture at the Netherwood Reformed church, last night, describing her experiences in the European war zone at the outbreak of hostilities. Miss Greenwood was on the German frontier when war was declared and from that time until she sailed for home had many thrilling experiences, being held up at the point of a bayonet on sexeral occasions.

A number of stereopticon slides were displayed, illustrating the important points where the nations are now engaged in war. Miss Greenwood returned home as a steerage passenger.

in commission. The two last named are new at the motor business and will keep their horses to have for emergency.

The weekly prayer meeting in the Methodist church was advanced a day this week and was conducted last evening by Dr. H. K. Carroll, the pastor.

The Rev. Oscar S. Michaels will conduct a service in the All Saints' Episcopal church on Christmas morning at 11 o'clock. Special music will be rendered by the church choir.

Miss Bertha Gifford has returned to her home in the township from boarding school in Ohio and will remain home for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. William White have closed their home on Forest road and are spending several weeks with relatives on Long Island.

Dr. Maurice Hall, a resident of the borough, but spending the winter in New York, has returned from a trip to Mexico.

James Traynor, who has conducted the blacksmith at the corner of South avenue and the Central crossing for the past month, has turned it over to Joseph Green. Traynor ran the place several years ago and sold out to John Van Nosdall, but opened the establishment again when Van Nosdall was taken ill a short time ago.

Southard Outwater, of Tillitson road, has taken a position with a well known firm in New York.

North Branch.

A sociable and bazaar was held last night in the chapel of the Reformed church at South Branch, under the auspices of the Ladies' Bible Class. There was a sale of fancy articles and an entertainment. Refreshments were served. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church.

Mrs. George B. Seals will entertain the Young Ladies' Mission Circle, of the Reformed church, at her residence, Tuesday afternoon, December 29.

The North Branch Five Hundred Club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. William V. D. Jelliffe, at North Branch Depot. There were four tables of players.

Miss Mary Walters, of South Branch, left yesterday to spend a week visiting various relatives in Elizabeth and New Brunswick.

James Little, who was very ill at his home near Neshanic for several weeks, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Ralph Young returned to Neshanic, Wednesday, after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Mary Baird, in Somerville.

Michael McGowan returned to North Branch Depot, Wednesday, after a visit in Phillipsburg.

Mrs. Chas. M. Hennion, of Easton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Shafer, near South Branch.

The Methodist church at Neshanic Station will present a Christmas cantata, "Down the Chimney With Santa Claus," Thursday night, December 24.

Mrs. Sarah J. Williams returned to Neshanic, Wednesday, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. James Little, near Frankfort.

Work has been resumed on the new schoolhouse at Neshanic and the building will be pushed rapidly to completion.

Mrs. Alfred Burroughs, of New York, is spending a week visiting at her former home in South Branch.

The special meetings in the Presbyterian church at Pluckemin have been discontinued. Various ministers from neighboring churches assisted the pastor. A number professed conversion.

Mrs. Adrian Van Fleet is the guest of Mrs. Jasper Agans, at Centreville, for a few days.

CIVIL SERVICE IN COUNTY.

Elizabeth, Dec. 18—Heads of county departments and members of the Board of Freeholders conferred yesterday afternoon, with the State Civil Service Commission, which sat at the courthouse, to make plans for the civil service regime which begins in the county today. The county officials were instructed to send a roster of employes to the Commission. While the Commissioners do not seem to know exactly who and who are not under civil services, so far as heads of departments are concerned, it was stated that where an officer's term is fixed by statute such official is in the exempt class and not protected by civil service.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE NAMES KNOLLWOOD WOMAN

After serving two years as secretary, Mrs. Lawrence Swift, of Knollwood, has been named for president of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association. The nominating committee composed of Mrs. Howard F. Whitney, chairman; Mrs. J. A. Philbrick, Mrs. T. B. Nielsen, Mrs. Frederick H. Reynolds, and Mrs. H. Reeve Stockton, of Plainfield, announced their selections last night. Mrs. Swift will succeed Mrs. Myra D. Paterson, of Englewood, as chief executive. Mrs. F. E. Donohoe, of Montclair, is named for vice president again and Miss Marion Hollins, of Westbrook, former metropolitan champion, will become secretary to succeed Mrs. Swift.

Mrs. Joseph E. Davis, of Nassau, is nominated for treasurer. The executive committee will be composed of the officers and the following persons: Miss Lillian B. Hyde, South Shore, the metropolitan champion, Mrs. J. A. Moore, Sleepy Hollow, and Mrs. A. B. Holden, Essex County. The annual meeting will be held at the Biltmore, on Thursday, January 28, at 11 o'clock.

CATTLE OWNERS WARNED.

Elizabeth, Dec. 18.—Farmers of Union county were warned to be on the watch for evidences of the hoof and mouth disease among their cattle by E. R. Collins, president of the Board of Agriculture, which held a meeting yesterday. There were no cases reported outside of those in Hillside. A person going from one barn, where the disease was prevalent, to another barn, could carry the ailment, Mr. Collins said. There was no cure for it. He blamed Pennsylvania cattle for its prevalence in this State and said that three or four times the sum already spent by the State and nation to wipe it out would have to be expended before it was eliminated. About $80,000 has been expended, he said.

CONDITION IS UNCHANGED.

Joseph Ross, of West Front street, who is critically ill at Muhlenberg Hospital, following an operation for appendicitis, remains about the same. Peritonitis developed after the operation.

Plainfield, N. J., Dec. 18, 1914.

$2,200 A MONTH.

Coming as it does during the first serious cold spell of the present winter, the report of the committee which has investigated the situation regarding the unemployed in Plainfield calls for the serious attention and interest of every resident. There is nothing to be gained by comparing conditions in Plainfield with those in other cities, and saying that we are much better off than is the case elsewhere. That does not help matters here, and it is no time to make comparisons.

There are, on the average, one hundred families in this city who will be in want and suffering until April first, unless those more fortunately situated see to it that at least $22 a month is supplied to keep these families from freezing and starving. That means $2,200 a month at least, must be provided, and Plainfielders are not going to let the reputation of the city for caring for those who are in need be injured.

To every man, woman and child who is not sufficiently clothed, well housed and supplied with fuel, this freezing weather means tragedy. The committee on the unemployed have carefully investigated conditions and probably never before has the situation among the poor been so thoroughly looked into as is the case now. Not a dollar is being asked for to help people who are not permanent residents of this city. Not a dollar is going to support any of the good-for-nothing characters who loafe around town, and make trouble for the police.

We wish that every resident of the city could take a look around for themselves, and see the conditions in some parts of Plainfield. We wish that they could go into some of the homes which those representing the Charity Organization Society have had to go into in the last few weeks. We wish that they could see, gathered in one great group, the families whose meager earnings are really never sufficient to properly protect them when freezing weather prevails, and who this winter are without even that small income, through no fault of their own. They are the sufferers every resident of Plainfield, who can afford to do so, must assist.

The weather we are having nowadays may be pleasant and a welcome change for those of us who have warm overcoats and abundant fuel, with plenty of things to eat, but to the jobless, the poor in leaky houses, with no fuel or not enough to do any good, and no warm clothing it is tragedy.

SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE.

Manufacturers have been compelled to seek new channels for much of the trade which went to Europe prior to the war. World's Work for December is given over to a discussion of the possibilities for increasing business with South America, and it presents a very valuable idea of the opportunity that awaits the business men of the United States. The Peruvian minister to this country is quoted as saying:

I have received letters at this time from several parts of the country asking me the most extraordinary questions, but the greater part of them contain this query, and it is a selfish sentiment: "How can we increase our trade with you?" There is no consideration shown to our countries; there is not a single word about "How can we establish closer relations between you and us? How can we facilitate your interests? How can we do things for you that will also benefit us?" But it is always one sided.

His indictment of the business methods of a large majority of those who seek trade in his country is not only applicable there, but in every other one of the Republics of South America. The main query, as World's Work says, is not how we can serve these sister republics, but how we can sell to them. It is a natural state of mind for our manufacturers to be in. Our own people have been fenced off from outside service for the more or less exclusive use of our manufacturers. By a half century of this treatment the manufacturing part of our nation has come to feel that it should be given a market. Nothing is more natural, then, than to inquire of the Peruvian Minister what he has to offer in that line.

But it is only fair to explain to the Peruvian Minister that there is much less of that spirit now than there was five years ago, and that there will be much less five years hence than there is now. With the downward revision of the tariff we have recognized that the American purchaser is the person of paramount importance, and with that recognition will come, also—is coming very fast—a more unselfish and broader minded attitude toward foreign consumers.

Had anyone said a week ago that the German fleet could make such a raid as that of Wednesday on the coast of England, they would not have been believed. The very audacity of the Germans throughout the entire war has made them feared and respected by their enemies in every one of the allied nations.

Christmas will be the theme of tomorrow's contributed editorial. It will be the first contribution to the column from Rev. Frederick J. Hynach, district superintendent of New York conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and a popular local clergyman.

Things theatrical in Plainfield promise to be lively for a while, even if it is an off season.

THE FORUM

Editor Plainfield Daily Press:

I must earnestly protest against your use of the term "especially women" in the article on your editorial page today with reference to the effort of Chicago to provide respectable entertainments to minimize the evil influence of the cafe orgies on New Year's eve.

The inference is plain as the item stands that "women especially" are liable to run into evil associations, and more than men need to be safeguarded in this respect.

This is not true either in Chicago or elsewhere in this country. Only as men recognize this and come to measure up to the standard of women shall there be less and less need to safeguard anyone from evil influences of any city.

SECOND ANNIVERSARY.

A large number of people attended the serviceat the Rescue Mission last evening, when David Bowden observed the second anniversary of the renewal of his covenant. Short addresses were made by Mr. Bowden, Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor of Hope chapel, of which Mr. Bowden is a member, and John LeMatty, superintendent of the Mission. Singing by the gathering was a notable feature of the meeting.

FUNERAL OF INFANT.

The funeral services of William Dorflinger, the four months' old infant sont of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dorflinger, of 945 South Second street, were held this afternoon from the home of the parents. Rev. Dr. D. B. F. Randolph, pastor of the Monroe Avenue Methodist church, officiated.

FUNERAL OF MISS HARRIS.

The funeral services of Miss Sarah E. Harris, of Manning avenue, the borough, will be held at the Shiloh Baptist church, this city, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Interment will be made in North Plainfield cemetery.

Christmas Greens

EVERYBODY knows the Christmas trees, holly, mistletoe and Christmas greens on our markets, but where these cheering plants come from and how they grow is not so well known.

Christmas trees are furnished principally by two families of trees—the spruces and the firs. The spruces are the more bushy looking trees, with numerous small cones near the top. All through northern New England, northern Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota the spruces form vast forests. The black spruce grows in swamps, where few other trees can live, while the white spruce competes with the noble pines for higher and better soil.

Every year millions of young spruces are cut in the northern forests and shipped to the cities and prairie states in carload lots. If the woodsmen can find a stand of young firs they take them also. The firs look more refined and less bushy, and their green leaves often stand away from the slender branches like the teeth of a comb.

While the use of Christmas trees has come to us from Germany, the custom of decorating our houses with holly and mistletoe originated in England.

Holly.

The home of our American holly is in the woods of New England and the Allegheny mountains. In the north it is a small evergreen shrub, but in the south it sometimes grows to be a tree fifty feet high. With its glossy green leaves and bright scarlet berries the holly is an object of beauty in its native woods as well as in our fashionable flats and churches. The hand of man has never cultivated this beautiful shrub, at least not on a commercial scale, but the wild birds are attracted by its bright berries. They eat the scanty pulp and scatter the seed far and wide. While some species of holly grow as far south as Texas and westward into Missouri and Arkansas, the great forests of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota contain not a single species of these beautiful shrubs.

Mistletoe.

A queer kind of plant is the mistletoe. If one saw it for the first time he might mistake it for the common witch's broom which is familiar to every northern woodsman. In reality the mistletoe is a parasite which grows and lives on other trees, such as maple, poplar and tupelo. Its white fruit is eaten by birds, and the small seed are accidentally dropped on the branches of trees. The seeds adhere to the bark, and if they happen to have been planted on the right kind of host they germinate and send a kind of sucker like growth into the bark and wood of their host, and a new mistletoe plant begins its life and grows at the expense of its host, from which it derives nearly all its nourishment. Our Christmas mistletoe is restricted to the middle and southern states, growing from New Jersey to Missouri and south as far as Florida and Texas, but is not found in the northern states. Several species of mistletoe, however, do occur in our western forests.

Christmas Greens.

The most humble plant of this happy season is the small plant known as Christmas greens or ground pines. It is a close relative of the ferns and mosses and, like these, occupies the shady nooks and places of the forest floor, where it trails and twines among the roots of the stately pines. It never produces any flowers or true seeds. Its small heads, which look like tiny ears of grain, are filled with a yellow dust. This dust is carried away by the wind or shaken out and carried off by the gentle touch of squirrels, rabbits and other woodland folk. From this fine dust the new plants grow.

Few of us who enjoy the cheer of these Christmas plants do ever meet them in their native haunts in winter; we can only study them where they grow when we take our summer outing to the northern woods and to the mountains.

THE CHRISTMAS BABY

We had the nicest Christmas day
We ever had. The tree,
With candy, toys and picture books,
Was full as it could be.
There wasn't room for one thing more,
Which was the reason, maybe,
That Santa Claus in mamma's room
Just had to put the baby.

I got a lovely set of furs
(I'm nearly twelve years old),
And Bobby got a soldier suit,
Trimmed up with red and gold,
And Bessie got a lady doll—
It came from Paris, maybe—
But mamma got the best of all,
For mamma got the baby.

A little mite, all pink and white!
They let me take a peep
Where in his satin blankets blue
He cuddled fast asleep
And mamma says if I am good
When I grow up, then, maybe
Old Santa Claus will bring to me
Some day a Christmas baby.

Gifts For Children.

It is, after all, the gifts we make to children at Christmas that are the most interesting gifts we give. No matter how much our grownup friends may like our choice of gifts, they seldom show the liking and appreciation that our smaller friends show. So buying Christmas gifts for children ought to be a real pleasure.

PRESENT FLAGS TO THE BORO SCHOOLS

Pupils Take Part in a Program of Patriotic Exercises.

INSIDE .bfib-UDfF

State Councilor Rene F. F. von Minden, of New Market, presented two American flags to the North Plainfield public schools, yesterday afternoon, on behalf of the members of Franklin, Somerset, Plainfield and Benevolent Councils, Jr. O. U. A. M. The presentation was made in the assembly hall of the Somerset Street School, and was witnessed by a large number of High School and grammar school pupils.

The exercises began with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," and closed with the singing of "America." Mr. von Minden made a patriotic address in presenting the flags, impressing upon all the significance of the American flag. Dr. Justus H. Cooley accepted the flags for the Board of Education.

Similar exercises were held at the Watchung School, where two American flags were presented by former State Councilor William LaRue, of Bound Brook. They were accepted by Thomas E. Currin, Jr., a member of the Board of Education. Representatives of the local Jr. O. U. A. M. councils were present at the exercises.

MRS. JAMES LANCEY DIES AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS

Mrs. Anna Spencer Lancey, widow of the late James Lancey, aged about eighty years, for several years a resident of Mercer avenue, the borough, died yesterday, after a short illness. Mrs. Lancey was a native of this city, but during her early married life was a resident of Philadelphia, returning to the borough about six years ago.

During the past summer, Mrs. Lancey spent some time in Europe, having been taken ill since her return home. She was associated with the Plymouth Brethren, who meet at 312 West Second street. One son, Donald D. Lancey, of Waterbury, Conn., survives. Funeral services and interment will be private.

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yetman, of 616 East Third street, gave a birthday dinner in honor of their son, Edward Yetman, at their home on Wednesday night. The evening was spent in a very enjoyable way, music being a feature. Those present were William Mayse, William and Leon Jones, C. Brown, Edward Yetman, Verona Marcellus, Daniel Wright, of Westfield, and John R. Gates.

CONNORS' FATE WITH JURY

nors' notorious "pals" from Chicago and other western cities have been anxiously watching the progress of the hearing. The full corps of Union county constable and private and county detectives are scattered about the courthouse as a precaution against any possible outbreak from "the gang."

Every stranger who alights at either the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania depots in Elizabeth is watched and plainclothesmen and detectives patrol the main streets and avenues leading to and from the courthouse. So great are the crowds that court attendants have been kept busy clearing the space inside the bar in the courtroom, every individual not directly interested in the case being eliminated. In dismissing the jury last night Judge Connolly instructed them to avoid all conversation dealing with matters pertaining to the case and requested them not to read the newspapers.

One of the most interesting bits of testimony taken at the trial was that offered by Peter A. Flak, of New York city, said to be the only independent finger-print expert in the country, not connected with a municipal or government police bureau. He was formerly in His Majesty's service in India, at Singapore, in the British Columbia government's identification bureau, and has been engaged in business for himself for the past seven years. He testified that he has examined more than 200,000 finger print impressions, and gave it as his opinion, positively, that the finger print found on the porch of Senator Ackerman's home, after the robbery was discovered, was made by Connors. His testimony complimented that of Edward A. Schwartz, of Newark, and he illustrated by photographic facsimiles and enlargements of the finger prints and by hand-sketched drawings the peculiar characteristics of Connors' prints which, he declared, are indisputably evident in the marks found on the Ackerman porch.

William Newcorn, of Plainfield, counsel for Connors, made a hard fight to prevent the photographic comparison of the admitted and disputed finger prints from going in as evidence. His contention was to the effect that the photographs constituted only secondary evidence, not admissable when primary evidence is obtainable. He contended that it was feasible and practicable to have cut out from the porch at the Ackerman home that portion which contained the finger-print, so that the jury could compare it with any exhibit which might be produced at the trial and the jurors then draw their own conclusions. Judge Connolly overruled their objections and more than thirty photographic prints, with as many negative and positive photographic plates, went into evidence.

The exhibits included two prints each of admitted and disputed impressions of the "middle" and "ring" fingers. Ten points of similarity were shown concerning the "middle" finger impressions, and thirteen points concerning the "ring" finger.

The defense attempted, in the examination of Chief Kiely, of the Plainfield force, to show that the witness had a personal interest in the conviction of Connors, the inference being drawn that their testimony may be influenced by the hope of obtaining fully or in part the rewards which have been offered by Senator Ackerman and by the insurance company which guaranteed to indemnify him in the event of burglary. These rewards aggregate about $15,000.

Connors has been confined in the Union county jail at Elizabeth since April 14 last and during the time intervening between the trial Chief Kiely spent considerable time in gathering evidence to offer at the trial of the notorious prisoner. Many Plainfielders appeared as witnesses at the trial, the State employing many minor points unearthed by Chief Kiely in an effort to convict the defendant.

NURSE WRITES OF PATIENCE AND COURAGE OF THE WOUNDED

None Has Courage to Tell Blind Soldier That He Will Never See Again.

Young Fellow, In Early Twenties, of Splendid Physique, Paralyzed From the Waist Down.

SCENES in the American Ambulance hospital in Paris, where the wounded of all nations are received, are reflected in a letter which Miss Frances L. Howland, who is now serving as a nurse, has written to a friend in New York. Extracts from Miss Howland's letter have been made public by the committee for the American Ambulance hospital.

"It has been easy to give you an idea of the hospital, its organization, workers, etc., but when it comes to the men themselves that is a different matter," it says. "Such patience, such cheerfulness, such splendid courage it is difficult to imagine, almost impossible to describe. Many of the men not only bear their sufferings uncomplainingly, but are actually looking forward to the time when they can go back again to the front. When one of them told me this I asked him if he hadn't had enough of it. 'Well, sister,' he said, 'somebody's got to do it!'

"I try very hard to take the same broad view of the situation that they do, but I cannot lose sight of the individual.

Blinded by a Bullet.

"One night a man was brought into our ward with both eyes closely bandaged. Like lightning the word ran through the ward—blind! A bullet had gone through one eye and out of the other, and both were totally destroyed. He was very cheerful, apparently having no idea of the seriousness of the injury. In fact, after two or three days he told his nurse he knew he was improving, as he then was able to roll his eyes about. Every once in awhile he asks us how he is—if he is not better—but as yet none of us has had the courage to tell him.

"Opposite him is a young fellow in the early twenties, of splendid physique, with a fine, intelligent face, plainly a man of gentle breeding, for the men of some of the best families are serving in the ranks. He lies in bed paralyzed from the waist down. A piece of shrapnel has injured the spine and made him helpless for life. The first night he was here I offered to help him with his supper, for he is flat on his back and it is difficult for him to eat. He begged me not to trouble and then added uncomplainingly, 'I am one of your most troublesome patients, but it is not my fault.' I fed him very slowly, letting him take his own time about it, and when he had finished he turned to me sweetly and said, 'Like the wounded, you have learned patience.' We shall not have to tell this man the truth. His face shows that he knows it.

"I was feeding another patient one night, for he was wounded in the arm, leg and through the body and so was unable to sit up. The little Frenchman in the next bed watched us with great interest and then turned to me and said, 'You would have made a good mate.'

Boy's Leg Had to Be Cut Off.

"Halfway up the room is a French boy of twenty, but he is so gentle and so frail that he seems a child. His knee was shattered and the wound badly infected, but he begged the doctors to save his leg, and they fought hard to do so. Every day for weeks these terrible dressings have taken place and several operations have been performed as well. The nurses out of their own pockets have bought him all sorts of delicacies to try to build him up and help him fight the poison. But every night his temperature has flown to 102, 103 and 104 until finally last night the doctors had to tell him that his leg must be amputated if his life was to be saved. The poor fellow's heart was almost broken, and he pleaded with the doctors to save his leg. But it was no longer possible to do so, and this morning the operation was performed.

"I suppose you know about the medaille militaire—that it is the highest honor France can award for courage on the battlefield. We have had three men here who have won this distinction. As far as I have been able to learn the story of the first man, he was a French artilleryman, and when all his companions had been shot down he continued to serve his gun alone till he was shot through the body and half his face was torn away. He died two days ago, after several weeks of terrible suffering, but the precious medal reached him before he died.

Sergeant Walker's Bravery.

"An Englishman, Sergeant Walker of the infantry, alone won the medaille. He is recovering from amputation of the leg, so I went upstairs to pay him a little call, and as he sat on the bed, surrounded with knitting needles and wool (for, like many of the English soldiers, he was knitting) he told me how when a shell shattered his leg he took out a little silver pocket knife and cut off what was left of it. When I asked him for what he received the medal he grew scarlet, mumbled something about merely doing what he ought to and then grew silent. By roundabout questioning and by talking with another Englishman in the ward I finally learned that Walker's regiment was nearly surrounded by the Germans, so the officer in command was obliged to give the order to retire. Walker offered, with twelve other men, to hold the enemy back and cover the retreat of his regiment. This he did for five minutes, finally making his own escape as best he could.

"The third man to win this honor is in our ward, and my nurse and I have the joy of taking care of him. He is Charles Maree, corporal in the automobile division, and one day in October he was told that two German armored motors were coming down a certain road to try and break through the line of the allies, and he was ordered out to stop them. In an ordinary car of high power he started up the road and then turned about so as to face in the same direction in which the Germans were coming.

"When they appeared and bore down on him he suddenly shot in front of one of their cars, overturning and killing the two men in it. A man from the other car, however, shot him, inflicting a terrible wound, so that when the surviving German car fled Corporal Maree's companions brought him home. The pelvic bone is broken and the wound infected, so you can imagine what he must feel when we have to move him for the dressings.

"The first day I helped him I put one arm around his shoulders and gave him the other hand to hold. The moment we started to turn him I felt a spasm run through his body, he gripped my hand as though he would break it, and his face was contorted with agony, but he made no sound.

Silent Under Suffering.

"The terrible suffering continued all through the dressing and while we were laying him on his back again, but he never for one instant lost his wonderful self control. When it was over and the doctors had gone I felt limp and helpless, as though I, too, had endured all that pain. I was standing by the bed trying to pull myself together, when he looked up, instantly took in the situation and very gently, without a word, he reached out, took my hand and kissed it.

"I can never express to you what it has meant to be able to help these men. Their appreciation is so great and their gratitude so touching that you feel nothing you do for them is work—it is just a wonderful privilege.

"I am very anxious about my little medaille militaire tonight. He is not doing so well—has had a bad hemorrhage and is growing weaker. He calls me 'my little mother' and says over and over again, 'I shall never forget you.' I am very fond of him."

SHAM BATTLE WITH BULLETS.

Eight Hundred Silhouette Figures Represented Enemy In Texas Fight.

A sham battle, with real ball cartridges in place of the usual blanks, was staged by Brigadier General John J. Pershing down in Texas, with remarkably instructive results.

The battle was on a large scale, participated in by the Sixth, Sixteenth and Twentieth infantry, one squadron of the Fifteenth cavalry, one battalion of the Sixth field artillery and Company I, signal corps. Out on the prairie near El Paso these forces attacked the enemy, supposed to consist of two regiments of infantry and two battalions of field artillery. But the position of this force was outlined by a great number of targets, more than 800 silhouette figures, representing soldiers, and electrically controlled, which received the impact of about 100,000 ball cartridges.

Certain important defects in organization and equipment were developed, and altogether the exercise is said to be of incalculable value in an educational way.

TO CHEAPEN COST OF RADIUM.

Process of Extraction Found by United States Bureau of Mines.

Joseph A. Holmes, director of the United States bureau of mines, in his annual report announces that chemists and engineers of the bureau have demonstrated that a process they have devised for the extraction of radium from ores can be successfully used on a large scale and will prove more efficient than that used by the largest foreign producers of radium. "Through this process," says Dr. Holmes, "it is possible that the cost of radium to the consumer will be reduced to one-third of the present price. The process is to be patented and dedicated to the public." He added:

"With radium now selling at $120,000 a gram, its reduction in price to $40,000 will result in many hospitals throughout the country being able to purchase a supply. The process devised by the bureau's chemists has been already tested with success in the plant of the National Radium institute, which is under the supervision of the mechanical staff of the bureau of mines."

ELKS AND EAGLES WIND UP THEIR BOWLING SCHEDULES FOR THE YEAR

Local representative in the Senior and Junior Elks' Bowling Leagues and in the F. O. E. League have closed their pre-holiday schedules and all three will renew their matches against Elizabeth aggregations after Christmas. The local Seniors pinned their last series last night on the Jersey City drives and were deprived of two of the decisions by the clever work of the Skeetertown wood splitters on their home drives. Brunswick's triple defeat of the Rahway clan gave the Queen Cityites an opportunity to crawl out of the cellar and into ninth position. Plainfield concludes the first half of the season's schedule with a record of ten wins and seventeen defeats and a high score of 975. Although the schedule of the league does not call for a reappearance of the Plainfielders until they entertain the New Brunswick tribe here on January 5, the management has come to an agreement with the Elizabeth aggregation by which the postponed series with the Betsytowners will be rolled off at that place on December 30.

Plainfield Junior Elks completed their 1914 schedule last Tuesday night, when New Brunswick sent its squad to this city to take two out of the trio rolled. With four wins and five reverses the Plainfielders are coveting third place and their high team score is 878. Captain Stout's players will be idle until January 7, when they will take a trip to Elizabeth.

Plainfield Eagles finished up their league's schedule Wednesday night, on the Rahway alleys and will reopen on the Elizabeth chutes January 7. The local birds are in fourth place with seven victories and eleven defeats and a high team score of 948.

WHY WAIVE ON BENDER?

There seems to be no regret among organized baseball men that Chief Bender has gone over to the Feds. When Connie Mack surprised the baseball world recently by asking for waivers on his famous Indian pitcher it was confidently believed that Bender would be claimed and signed by one of the other clubs in the American and National Leagues. It turns out, however, that all of the major league clubs waived claim to Bender's services, although it was admitted that he had not reached the end of his diamond career. Now why do you suppose the big leaguers did not care to keep Bender in the fold?

Baseball	35	918
Football	13	3,000
	159	4,080

Chicago, Dec. 17—The toll of life and limb exacted by sport is declining. Careful records kept of the three major sports for the season just closed show that Americans are attaining a more safe and sane policy on their many playgrounds and in the forests. Of the millions of red-blooded American men and boys who have gone into the woods with the rifle, played the great national game of baseball, and put their muscles to the strenuous tests of football, only 159 have met death this year. The injuries that the tabulators classed as serious total 4,080, and of this number fully half entirely recovered.

When one stops to think of the many who engage in these three great pastimes, fully 10,000,000 at the least estimate, the toll of deaths and injuries does not seem so terrible. In fact, it is believed that the same number of men and boys, if engaged during the same number of hours in work or travel, would meet with injury and death in proportion fully as great as they did in their favorite sports.

The hunting fatalities of the year fell off from 135 last year, although the injuries jumped from 125 to 162. The comparison shows a satisfactory gain for sane hunting. A campaign of warning was waged in each of the eighteen States from which the figures are drawn. Wisconsin lost 33 hunters, Michigan 27, Minnesota 12. Michigan had 42 injured huntsmen, Wisconsin 36 and Washington 20. From the statistics of the game license bureaus, it is estimated that 150,000 hunted deer during the open season.

Baseball, in which nearly every boy in America indulged, and fully one-fifth of American men took part, besides the numberless professional and semi-professional players, makes a remarkably good showing with only 35 deaths attributable to injuries received in the game. Of this number 20 were hit by pitched balls, 5 were struck with bats, 4 over-exerted themselves, 1 was hurt sliding to base and one was killed in a fight. Of the 918 injuries recorded as apparently serious, 314 were of broken limbs, 18 had concussion of the brain, 13 had their skulls fractured, 4 were paralyzed, 37 received serious sprains, 26 were spiked, 17 received fractures, 7 were put out of the running by dislocations, and 10 were victims of torn ligaments. In the minor leagues, 116 were injured; in the American League, 69; National League, 61; Federal League, 56, and on college teams, 8.

Football, the most strenuous of American games, exacts a remarkably light toll this year. Of course, the death list of 13 does not convey the full seriousness of the game. Among the injured, and they are so many and constant that they could not all be accurately tabulated, many are permanently injured. Considering the great numbers of school teams, college teams, and boys who took part in the game this year, and the opportunities for rough work which are always present in the game, the wonder is that the death list is so small. This is attributed in part to the thoroughly trained condition of the school and college teams, and the careful selection of the most hardy youths to make up the teams. Only two of the fatalities were among college men; one of these died from heart disease and the other from injuries in a class game. The others were members of High School, preparatory school or free lance teams. None of the boys were over 20 years of age. Tackling was the principal cause of the injuries that resulted in death. Of the four thousand and more cases of injury noted, fully half are known to have entirely recovered, and it is estimated that the recoveries will reach three-quarters of the number.

WALTER JOHNSON TO GET $500 PER GAME

High Salaries of Ball Players May Eventually Run National Sport.

Baseball seems to have entered the stage of frenzied finance. Federal League managers were recently said to have offered Walter Johnson $20,000 per year, with a contract for three years. That is a lot of money. Just how much it is is shown by a few estimates of what Johnson would get if he worked in forty full games a year—more pitching than the average hurler in a big league does, as the work of pitching 154 games is usually divided among six or eight men.

A salary of $20,000 would mean that the pitcher received—

At least $500 for every game pitched.

An average of $5 for every ball hurled to the plate during the season.

Two hundred and fifty dollars for every hour worked during the season.

Approximately $4.16 for each minute of time put in during games.

More money for eighty hours' actual work than 90 per cent. of the bank presidents of the country receive for toiling all year.

Nearly three times the salary per annum of United States senators, who shoulder the responsibilities of a nation.

And there are still unoccupied cells in some of our observation wards!

The bidding for Johnson has renewed the old controversy as to who is the highest paid private in the ranks of ball players. John Henry Wagner, of Pittsburgh, held the honor for years. Wagner never climbed over the $12,000 mark. Tris Speaker knocked Wagner's high water notch into a cocked hat when he made the Boston Americans raise the ante to $18,500 per year.

Tyrus Cobb, of Detroit, is said to be drawing $15,000. Nap Lajoie has a $9,000 yearly contract with Cleveland. Bresnahan claims to be drawing $10,000 per season with the Chicago Nationals. The salary of Christy (Big Six) Mathewson has never been given out. Matty surely goes above the $10,000 figure.

Johnny Evers, of the Boston Braves, boosted his total earnings this year to the $40,000 mark. Boston assumed his Chicago managerial contract and paid him a big bonus when he was transferred east. His share of the world's series and other side-line pickups raised Evers' total to $40,000—a stupendous figure for a ball player.

It's enough to make Buck Ewing, Dad Radbourne and famous stars of the $2,400 period turn in their graves. Connie Mack never had a high priced player on his club. He paid Jimmy Collins $5,000 one season. That was doubtless the limit for Mack. McGraw pays two players—Mathewson and Marquard—fancy money. According to Willis Johnson, of the Feds, Doc Crandall worked for $2,400 in New York last year. McGraw's salary is $18,000 per annum. This fact was disclosed when the Little Napoleon made his tax return.

M'GRAW NOT TIGHT.

John McGraw, of the Giants, is said to be the most generous man in baseball. He always has a nickel for the needy. His acquaintances affirm that a story of distress will always make him dig into his jeans. "I'll bet he gives away something like $2,000 a year," said a baseball writer recently, "and it is especially true when the team is South in the spring. There may be a woman standing at the gate of the park when the team leaves for the hotel. She will tell McGraw that her husband played with him or against him years ago and he never fails to help her. He deals out dollar bills without a second thought. There are many persons entirely dependent on him, broken down ball players, players' widows and others. Very seldom does he fail to hear a story of woe."

The North Plainfield High School basketball team will take on the Somerville school five, tomorrow afternoon, in Saengerbund Hall, in the first game of the Somerset county title series. The county seaters came to Plainfield recently and took home a two-point victory from the city school team and the boroughites will have a tough proposition to face.

CATASTROPHE NARROWLY AVERTED ON NEWARK TRACK

A big catastrophe was narrowly averted at 7:51 o'clock at the Newark Armory, last night, when every electric light in the place suddenly went out and plunged the large ampitheatre into total darkness. There was no warning whatever, and the ten riders who were on the track taking part in the six-day bicycle race were circling the saucer at a fairly rapid pace.

They were riding in the home stretch at the time, and when they hit the turn all of the riders went down in a heap. Eddie Root was leading the riders at the time and was pretty well scratched up. The accident, it is said, was caused by the changing of motors in the power house.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF TENNIS PLAYERS MEETS

New York, Dec. 18.—A movement to develop and encourage young players of the game was sprung on the annual meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, which opened at the Waldorf Astoria today. Raymond D. Little reported a plan for the development of schoolboy tennis championships, declaring that McLoughlin began to play when he was twelve years old; Williams, the national champion, started at eight years of age, and Karl Behr, Beals Wright, Nat Niles and George Church were all beginners when ten years old.

Gold medals designed by famous American sculptors are to be awarded to each of the tennis players who have held a national championship title. The details of the plan and the selection of the designs will be made at the meeting before it closes tomorrow. The tennis committee believes prize cups are an expensive luxury to keep and protect, and has selected gold medals for the honored players.

A committee headed by George T. Adee will report on the movement to improve the quality of tennis balls.

The entire evening will be devoted tonight to the report of the ranking committee to be submitted by Frederic C. Inman. It is evident that there is a difference of opinion as to whether or not Maurice E. McLoughlin or R. Norris Williams, 2d, is to be rated in the position of number one.

Davis Cup matters, the establishment of a new amateur rule, and possibly the shifting of several important tournaments will also come up for deliberation. The proposal to hold the national interscholastic championships on courts other than at Newport will be considered.

SEEKS HARVARD LUCK.

John McGraw has decided to get the winning colors. Next season the Giants will wear black sweaters with red trimmings. The color scheme is copied from the Harvard football team, which McGraw saw in action against the Yale eleven. For the last two years the New York university has been the model of the New York Nationals, but the violet has not proved to be a victory bringing color. If the red and black does as well for McGraw as it did for Harvard, the fans will have no complaint.

NEW BRUNSWICK ELKS MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP

There were three Elks' Senior League bowing matches decided last night, the Newarks dropping two games out of three at Hoboken, the New Brunswicks cleaning up against the Rahway five at New Brunswick, and the Jersey City bowlers, at home, winning two games out of three from the Plainfield Elks. There was a lot of good pinning exhibited. At New Brunswick the home five was there for 1,013 in the second game and had two other totals right at the 950 mark. The Rahway bowlers were there with a good argument in the final game, in which they totaled 921, but the others were easy for New Brunswick. Coyne rolled 236 and 205 for New Brunswick, Burton had 226 and 210, Harkins was there with 214 and Greenwald had 208. Koops led the visitors with 202.

In Hoboken's there was some decidedly close competition. The Newarkers got a decision in the first game by two pins, with 818, and the home five returned the compliment by taking the last game by two pins, with 874. In the second game the Hoboken five did its best work with 933, and Newark's 892 did not suffice. Billy Weingarth rolled 211 for the Newarks and Connie Leick was there with 201. Earle led the Hoboken team with 245 and Miller handed in 213.

The scores:

JOKES IN BASEBALL DRAFT.

Two big jokes turned up in this year's drafting. Seven major league clubs put in drafts for Hugh Ellis, of the Americus (Ga.) club. Investigation developed the fact that Ellis was really Hugh Hill, who had been playing for fifteen years in the Southern League. One club put in a draft for Pitcher Joe Meyers, of the Wilkesbarre (Pa.) team, but withdrew it when it was learned that Meyers had a trial with the Philadelphia team in 1898.

Plainfield	10	17	975
Rahway	9	18	981

Plainfield Senior Elks were only able to outscore their Jersey City brothers in one game on the latter's alleys, last night, the home five taking the first two games rolled. John Cose took Vail's place, rolling third for the locals. Blatz and Kiely started off well in the initial game, the former scoring 192 and Kiely going up to 206. Cose fell down to 161 and then Captain Nash chalked up a 180. But all this time the Jersey City pinners were making high scores, Murphy hitting the pins for a 212 and Wasserman scoring 196. The lowest score made by the home team was 179. Fifty-nine points separated the two teams at the end of the first tilt, the scores being 901 to 960.

The locals were not in it during the second game and the home team made three scores in the "200" class, the highest being 222, made by Corydon, anchor man. Plainfield's highest in this roll was 186, made by Nash, and the other four scores were all below the 180 mark. Wright, who is one of the leaders in the individual standings, started off the second game with a 188 and Murphy fell down to 158. Then came Wasserman's 200, Mahlenbach's 213, and Corydon's 222, which made a total of 981 against their opponents' 879. Campbell's 232 in the last game helped materially in annexing it, although the home pinners made scores of 217 and 255, the last of which was high score for the match.

The scores of this game were 968 to 954, only fourteen points separating the scores. While the locals were winning one the Rahway team, that has been fighting Plainfield for last place, was losing three and Plainfield advanced from last to ninth position.

NOTABLE PERFORMANCES IN AMATEUR SPORTS DURING YEAR THAT IS ABOUT TO CLOSE

This has been a notable year in the world of amateur sports, though in international contests America suffered some noteworthy defeats. America's greatest victory during the year was on the Thames at Henley, England, when Harvard captured the blue ribbon of the rowing world. The British polo team defeated the Americans. The yacht Resolute did not get the opportunity to avenge this defeat, as the war interfered with the international races. Jay Gould won the international racquet championship from England during the year. In football, Percy Haughton's Har-

TWO POINT VICTORY FOR BOROUGH HIGH

Just Managed to Nose Out Kearny Five by Two Fouls Yesterday.

Two points separated the scores of the North Plainfield High School and Kearney High School basketball teams on Saengerbund Hall court, yesterday afternoon, the final count being 18 to 16 in favor of the boroughites. The game was a spirited one throughout and it was not until the final whistle blew that the local five could feel sure that they had won the game. This is the second meeting of these two teams, the first also being a victory for the North Plainfield team, three points being the difference in the scores in that encounter.

The locals played a listless game all during the first half and many shots went to waste as a result of hurried shooting or lack of passing. On the other hand, the visitors were out to win and displayed fine teamwork at times which counted for their one point lead at the end of the initial period of play. They had the short, snappy pass down to perfection and managed to score three field goals and two fouls in the first half which gave them a mark of eight against North Plainfield's 7.

The boroughites played better in the last half and after tying the score at the start obtained a six-point lead which they maintained until the last few minutes of play. Two field goals in succession by the visitors closed the gap in the score within two points and that tally stayed until the final whistle was sounded. Townley, Conroy and VanMater did all the scoring for the locals, while every member of the visiting team had a hand in the counting.

BALL PLAYERS ARE EXPENSIVE

Costs Lots of Money to Develop Talent.

M'GRAW WILL SFEND $50,000

He Will Go South on the Training Trip With More Than Fifty Men and May Not Develop a Real Star—Discard Must Be Sold to the Miners at a Loss on Each Busher.

Ball players cost a great deal of money—just how much the average fan has little idea. He hears about players being "sold" for $5,000 or for $20,000 and he knows these sums are not unusual, but they are paid for recognized stars whose names are known and whose fame as well as playing ability will bring money into the box office. But players that are not bought at high prices, but who are developed, are also expensive. A player obtained by a big league club by the drafting process costs $1,500 and when he fails to make good this money is nearly all lost.

Consider the case of Manager McGraw of the New York Giants. He knows that he must have some fresh blood if he is to maintain a place at the top or close to the top of the league. So next season he will go to the training camp in Texas with at least fifty-two players and the experiment is bound to cost the club between $45,000 and $50,000. Just consider these figures.

Under a new league rule the clubs will have to cut down their teams to twenty men after the season gets under way. This means that McGraw will have to get rid of thirty-two.

These thirty men cost the club on an average of $2,000 each. The drafting price alone is $1,500 with traveling expenses. But most of them were bought outright, the price in many cases being as high as $7,000.

The cost of the bunch, therefore, at a conservative estimate would be $64,000. To keep these men at Marlin and pay their traveling expenses around the country will average $200 a man. That runs the total up to $70,000—all paid out before there are any returns.

In selling the surplus players off to minor leagues McGraw will be lucky indeed if he can get an average of $700 a player. Thirty-two at that price would total $22,400. Take this from the $70,000 paid out and you can get a pretty fair idea of what it costs to try and build up a team in the big league. Some receipts are not big either.

The Brooklyn Federal League club, for instance, did not take in $30,000 at the gate all last season.

Bedford's Promising Trotter.

E. T. Bedford of Brooklyn, who bred three trotters which have beaten 2:06—Hamburg Belle, Tenera and Brighton B.—has a green one that he expects to send to the races. This is a five-year-old gelding by Bingen, dam Bemay, 2:14¼, and he is said to have trotted the farm half mile track in 2:10. He will be tried out at the Panama exposition and then raced down the big line if he suits the Maddens, who own a half interest in the prospect.

WAR NEWS

fought battles, and is being pursued in all directions. During the fighting in northern Poland yesterday and Tuesday the bravery of the west Prussian and Hessian regiments was instrumental in gaining the victory. The effect of this victory cannot be estimated."

Berlin is today wild with joy over the great victory of the German army in Poland. No sooner had the official announcement been made than the people began to celebrate.

American visitors, who a few days ago commented upon the nondisplay of flags, scarcely recognized the streets, which everywhere were gay with the German black, white and red and the Austrian orange and black, at many places intertwined.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 18.—A Rio Gallegos despatch declares the Dresden, the only German cruiser to escape after the defeat of Admiral von Spee's squadron off the Falkland Islands on December 8, has been sunk by the British cruiser Briston. The report has not been confirmed.

Rome, Dec. 18 (Central News Cable).—An official despatch from Trieste states that the Austrian naval training ship Beethoven has been blown up, as the result of striking a mine. The crew of the ship and all the cadets on board were lost.

When the Servian army occupied the height of Tarlak above Belgrade the Austrians fled in disorder across the River Save in the direction of Semlin, says a despatch from Nisa to the Girnale D Italia. Ten thousand Austrians who were unable to find means to cross the river were captured, bringing the total held by the Servians to 80,000.

Petrograd, Dec. 18.—The steamer Derentie, of the German Levantine line, has been sunk off Kerasunt, on the Black Sea, by a Russian warship, according to an official announcement. The Derentie was found navigating off the Turkish coast. All on board were ordered to leave. Two Turkish officers and twelve soldiers left the ship and the others went down with it. It is reported that the Derentie was being used as a transport.

Paris, Dec. 18.—The French war office gave out the following statement today:

"The day of December 17 was marked, as we announced yesterday, by progress on our part in Belgium, where all counter attacks by the enemy were repulsed. In the region of Arras a vigorous offensive made us masters of several trenches before Uchy, La Bassee, Loos, St. Laurent and Blangy.

"In the Argonne the Germans succeeded in blowing up one of our trenches north of Four De Paris, and tried to debouch with three battalions. That attack of the enemy's infantry and another attack made against St. Hubart has been repulsed."

Trade In Plainfield and Grow With Us

The growth of a city depends largely on the amount of money spent within its borders. Are YOU buying in Plainfield? Are YOU selecting our own men to do your work instead of outsiders? Are YOU helping Plainfield to grow? Ask yourself this question. Are you?

Plainfield is one of the prettiest cities in New Jersey. She can point with pride to her magnificent High School, excellent graded schools, elegant homes and beautiful streets. What have you done? If you take Plainfield money and spend it in other cities, are you helping Plainfield to grow? Spend your money home where you and your children are enjoying the splendor of our city. Do YOUR part for a better and bigger Plainfield.

Interesting to Men--But to Women

The question of cultivation of good taste in a home means the purchase of whatever improves the appearance, comfort and welfare of every one connected with it. The woman is the purchasing agent of the American home; keenly interested in high grade merchandise and table goodies; the kind presented by Plainfield merchants, backed by prompt courteous attention, a stock of large variety to select from, and prices that are no higher than the stores of other cities.

Trading in Plainfield is the easiest, safest, and most profitable, and when you purchase an article that is not entirely satisfactory you experience no difficulty in having it exchanged or your money refunded. On the other hand, can an article purchased in stores in these other cities afford you the same protection as our Plainfield merchants? Sometimes an article can be exchanged, but then it is necessary to have it travel 20 or 25 miles back to the store where you purchased it, and the second selection forwarded to you, and if you wern't fortunate enough to make a second selection on the day you did your shopping you are either obliged to make it from a catalog or take another trip yourself to straighten the matter out. Do your shopping in your home town and avoid any unnecessary risks or delays. Help your city to grow.

GRANT FIVE PER CENT. RAILROAD RATE RAISE

Interstate Commerce Commission Today Handed Down Decision in Case.

Washington, Dec. 18.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today granted to the eastern railroads a general advance of five per cent. in rates with a few exceptions. The exceptions include rail, lake and rail, and rail and lake rates. These, together with the rates on bituminous coal and coke, anthracite coal and iron ore, and rates held by unexpired orders of the Commission are excepted.

The Commission said, in the case: "In view oif the tendency, we are of the opinion that the income of the railroads is smaller than demanded in the interest of the public in railroads, and it is our purpose to aid in solution of the problem."

The Commission did not acquiesce in the carriers' proposal, but suggested various methods by which the railroads may possibly conserve their revenue. This is the gist of the opinion handed down today. Interstate rates to and from New England from and to points on trunk line territory may be increased, says the Commission, not to exceed five per cent. Atlantic port differential rates to and from New York may be increased five per cent. and rates to and from Portland, Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore may be increased to the extent necessary to maintain said differentials, except as otherwise stated.

Specific rates in official classification territory may be increased by not more than five per cent., but rates increased since July 29, 1914, may not now be again increased so as to exceed those then in effect by an aggregate of more than five per cent. of the inter-territorial rates.

COURT SUMMONED IN GAS HEARING

Chancellor Will Permit Forty Cities to Present Petitions to Re-open Case.

PLEA SET FOR MONDAY

Opportunity Will Be Given to Re-argue the 90 Cent Gas Rate Decision Which Was Handed Down Last Week.

Trenton, Dec. 18 — Chancellor Walker, in response to a request by municipalities interested, announced yesterday that he will call the Court of Errors and Appeals together Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, to afford to the municipalities an opportunity to present a petition for a reopening and re-argument of the ninety-cent gas rate decision rendered last week Wednesday. The power of assembling the members of the court resides in the Chancellor by virtue of the fact that he is the head of this highest tribunal in the State.

Representatives of about forty municipalities from all parts of the State, wtih Frank H. Sommer, counsel for the Public Utility Commission, were present to reinforce the request made yesterday, which was formally presented by George L. Record, acting as counsel for the cities of Paterson and Passaic.

With Mr. Record, Edward F. Mercey, city counsel of Paterson, and Dr. Albert O. Miller, city counsel of Passaic, were present as formal associates. Newark was not represented. Others who did appear included John Milton, corporation attorney of Jersey City; John J. Fallon, Hoboken; Borden D. Whitin, East Orange, Jerome T. Congleton, Millburn; W. Eugene Turton, Irvington; Charles E. Bird, Trenton, and Oscar E. Redrow, who appeared in behalf of Camden and twenty-five other municipalities.

The aggregation of legal representatives was assembled upon brief notice sent out by Mr. Sommer. They had no legal standing in the case, but gathered to indicate to the court that sentiment all through the State was aroused against the ruling of the court.

If it can be said in connection with any legal proceeding, the Chancellor seemed to be in sympathy with the justice of the cause pleaded before him, and added that the applicants were at least entitled to the opportunity to present arguments to the court for the re-opening of the action.

Without the action that was taken by the Chancellor, the decision of the court would have become effective next Monday without further recourse for the municipalities.

In opening the matter, Mr. Record told the Chancellor that the ruling had aroused great public interest, that much space had been devoted to it by the press, that all municipalities of any size at all were affected, and that it was generally recognized that the decision itself was of immense public importance, inasmuch as for upwards of ten years afforts had been made to have the courts define what were public rights in connection with various public utilities, including railroads.

Owing to the public importance of the decision and the fact that the case was not merely between a couple of private litigants, Mr. Record felt that the opportunity should be given to re-argue. This chance should be given for the additional reason, the lawyer urged, because of the narrow margin by which the decision was supported among the members of the court recording as acting. This fact indicated that the court itself had found the questions involved hard to define, which was another reason why further argument should be permitted.

In view of the facts that the decision, if it became effective, would have the effect of nullifying the whole scheme of public regulation of rates, and that the court was so closely divided, the ultimate word should not be pronounced until every possible phase of the subject was most thoroughly presented.

Every Woman Secretly Wishes for---a Fur Gift

A fur coat, a fur set, what woman does not want them?

The fur market at Wanamaker's offers to men—furs individually selected, labeled true to their name, furs moderately priced because this is a twelve months in the year business.

Scattered all through our collections are exceptional values. Some of the finer furriers are already starting to plan their next season's business and have turned over to us small lots of beautiful furs at 25 to 40 per cent. less.

For tomorrow, Saturday, we will call special attention to the following furs in wide variety of desirable styles and qualities.

Pointed Fox
Muffs, $20 to $125.
Scarfs, $19.50 to $87.50.

Black Fox
Muffs, $12.50, $16.50, $25, $28, $35, $38, $45, $55.
Scarfs, $9.50 $12.50, $16.50, $22.50, $37.50, $48.

Skunk Furs
These are one of our specialties.
Muffs, $25, $28, $32.50, $39.50, $42 and $56.
Scarfs, $10, $11.50, $16.50, $21, $25, $37.50, $50.

Fur Coats
Pony coats, $25, $28 and up to $50.
Caracal coats, $40 to $325.
Hudson seal (dyed muskrat), $65 to $350.
Nearseal Coats (dyed coney), $55 to $85.
Persian lamb coats, the dignified fur, $100 to $325.
Moleskin coats, $125 to $400.

Many men are coming here each day to choose gifts of furs and our experts are always glad to pick out for them the best possible quality at any certain price or advise them as to the best style of coat or set for any particular type of woman.

EDUCATORS HONOR DR. H. M. MAXSON

Invited to Address New Jersey Teachers' Association at Atlantic City.

Dr. Henry M. Maxson, superintendent of the Plainfield public schools, has just been invited to deliver an address before the meeting of the New Jersey Teachers' Association which will be held at Atlantic City during the Christmas vacation, on an original system of efficiency tests, which has attracted widespread attention in educational circles.

These tests are designed to focus the work of the teachers on the weak spots in each class, and on the subjects in which each pupil is in most need of special attention.

Each fall, Supt. Maxson gives all the grades, from the third to the eighth, tests of efficiency in language, arithmetic and spelling. The results are recorded so as to show where each pupil and each class stands. In May, tests of the same kind are given again, and when compared with the first tests show the progress that the class and each individual in it has made during the year. The fall tests enable the teacher to see what are the special deficiencies of each child and so give individual instruction where it is most needed. This concentration of the instruction on a definite point of weakness makes it much more effective; and the result is that the work in these subjects has been very greatly improved since these tests were instituted.

In spelling, one of the tests consists of "The One Hundred Demons'," as Dr. Maxson calls them, that is to say, the one hundred words that have been found, by specialists, studying the work of children, to be the words that are the most often misspelled. In the tests given last June, the average of all the third grade children in the city (the lowest grade in which the test was given) was 96.6 per cent., while the average of the highest grade was 99.9 per cent.

It has been found that the four worst misspelled words in the English language are "which," "there," "their," and "separate." Dr. Maxson proposes that no pupil shall graduate from the Plainfield schools without being sure of spelling these words.

The American Association for the Advancement of Science has also invited Dr. Maxson to address them at their next meeting on the same subject.

Westfield.

The amounts to be paid out this week and next by the three banks of Westfield in the various holiday savings funds will amount to $102,000. This is considered a good showing for a town with a population of about 7,000.

The Board of Education has twenty-five applications for the position of janitor of the Washington School which will become vacant January 1 through the resignation of the present janitor. Each of the applications wil be investigated and a report made to the Board next week.

To show the work done in the domestic science course of the High School, the class will offer mince pie and plum pudding for sale at the schoolhouse this evening.

The Westfield Democratic Club met last night in the parlors of Kelley's Hotel to act on the resignation of Councilman Robert F. Hohenstein, who has resigned as a member of the club and of the town executive committee, because of the action of Congressman William E. Tuttle, Jr., recommending the appointment of a postmaster for the local office without consulting the local committee. Mr. Hohenstein has served on the Town Council for eight years, being returned from a ward where the normal Republican majority is two to one.

CASH CHRISTMAS CHECKS.

Samuel Rothberg, the West Front street clothing merchant, is planning to cash the Christmas checks which are mailed today by the Plainfield Trust Company. Undoubtedly other merchants will also make similar plans before the checks are mailed.

TO PREACH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SERMON

Rev. Dr. Strong, of First Baptist Church, Announces Theme for Sunday Night.

Following his custom now maintained for several years of preaching a sermon-story at Christmas-time, Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, of the First Baptist church, will on Sunday evening give such a story bearing the title "Hiram Fargo's Dream; or, Christmas All the Year." The story will possess, Dr. Strong thinks, an interest fully equal to the two which he has previously told in Plainfield and which have drawn such large audiences. As in previous instances there will be introduced poetic recitations and stories within the story.

The discourse, as its title implies, is a story pure and simple, carrying its own moral without text or application. Fact and fiction, actual experience and observation in the narrator's own life, together with a free play of imagination will be invoked to make the story interesting and helpful. It will consist of four parts: I, Uncle Hiram; II, Christmas at the old church; III, A dream that shaped a life; IV, What came of it all.

The chief interest will center about Uncle Hiram, a most interesting and unusual character, the man with a double-face, but a double-face in a most beautiful sense,—such a face as few have ever seen who have not met Uncle Hiram. The scene of the story is laid in western New York, the early home of Dr. Strong. How much of actual fact enters into the narrative is only known to the one who has framed and delivers it, but more of actual fact perhaps than may appear upon the surface. A most cordial invitation is extended the public to be present and it is hoped that those who come will come promptly at the opening of the service, seven forty-five.

German Valley. and Chester

Reginald Rinehart, of Chester, is recovering from tonsilitis and complications.

Mrs. Millie Weil, of Chester, is recovering from an attack of bronchitis.

Twelve dollars was realized from the delicatessen sale given last Saturday afternoon by the Chester Congregational church.

A new heating plant soon will be installed in the Chester Congregational church.

Rev. Charles H. B. Seliger, pastor of the Chester Congregational church, tendered his resignation last Sunday to take effect by or before April 1. Mr. Seliger expects to continue his work in a broader field, but has not yet decided on a place.

The Chester Literary Circle met yesterday at the home of Mrs. William E. Young, of Budd avenue. The readers were Miss Louise C. Call and Miss Florence Keogh. The meeting of December 31 will be at the home of Miss Grace A. Beams. Mrs. William J. Abel will discuss "Education."

The Sunday-school of the German Valley Lutheran church will hold Christmas exercises entitled "The Divine Stranger," in the church auditorium next Thursday.

A GOOD LESSON

was taught last week by the Edison fire that every property owner should take to himself.

This fire substantiated the fact that a building of brick or concrete construction is not fire proof. It also showed that even great minds are short sighted in not protecting their investment with adequate insurance.

We can help you to overcome both obstacles by providing both "fire proof" and "sufficient" protection.

Of Interest to Women and the Home

While Columbus Knelt the Man Stood Up Very Straight.

Daddy's Bedtime Story— In the Royal Hall of Barcelona.

"IT was a festal day in Barcelona," daddy had begun his evening story, and the kiddies were all round eyed attention. "The sunlight played upon the palace walls and upon the plumed helmet of many a noble Spanish knight.

"And in the royal hall, spacious, sumptuous and bright, upon the great throne sat Ferdinand, the king of Spain, and Isabella, his queen.

"By his throne were all the noblest courtiers of the land, and grouped around the hall were many beautiful women dressed in glittering jewels, rich velvets and silks, perfumed with scents of Araby.

"An air of expectancy pervaded the throng. These beautiful women and brave men appeared to be awaiting the appearance of some one.

"Soon a whisper was passed along, and then a man appeared. Very modest was his dress and mien, though in his manner there was a certain quiet triumph.

"'Columbus! Columbus!' was the whisper, and then the whispers grew to a shout of triumph as Columbus neared the throne and knelt before his king and queen.

"This was a moment of triumph for Columbus. He had vindicated himself from the assertions of some of King Ferdinand's and Queen Isabella's subjects that he was only a penniless adventurer.

"For, following Columbus and bearing in their hands trophies of the new lands which Columbus had discovered, came his sailors, marching through the crowd up to the foot of the throne.

"But back of the company of sailors came a strange looking lot of men, whose like the great Spanish ladies and courtiers had never seen.

"They were clothed in animals' skins, upon their heads were tall feathers ending in a long tail down their backs. Their faces were fantastically painted, and they carried great bows, and a quiver full of arrows was slung over one shoulder.

"Columbus took one of the men by the hand and drew him toward the throne. While Columbus knelt the man stood up very straight and tall.

"Then Columbus told the story of his wonderful voyage of discovery and ended by saying:

"'I have brought you new subjects, oh, king—these men whom I have called Indians.'

"Then every one shouted 'Hail, hail!' to the great hero who had once been shunned as a penniless adventurer."

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

"Oh! Herbert!" was all Mrs. Fonda said as she handed her husband a letter. She was very pale, and her eyes were red. He opened it and read:

"Dear Mother: I know that what I am doing will give you and father pain, but I cannot help it. I have tried, God knows I have tried, to make you understand my position, but I have utterly failed, and I simply cannot live as I have been living any longer.

"Four years ago I wanted an allowance. I wanted to be independent, but father would not listen and you were indifferent. I surely did my part in the home. I helped with the work and did all the children's sewing, yet I never had any money of my own. I had to ask for everything. I did all the shopping for you and the children, but my heart sank every time a shopping trip was necessary, for try as I would I could not please you and we were sure to have a stormy scene.

"You thought I paid too much for everything, and I, driven to desperation, told you to do your own buying. Why you would not I never could see. In short, your attitude on the money question made me prefer to go without anything rather than ask for it. I never had what the other girls had. If we could not have afforded those things it would have been all right, but we are not poor.

"I married Clarence last night and we are on the way to our new home. I was sure you would object to the marriage on account of my youth if for no other reason, and scenes are distressing to me, so we went quietly to the minister's from Ella's house and then took the train.

"You may be sure of one thing. I have made it very plain to Clarence that I must have money of my own to spend unquestioned. He is going to give me part of his salary and we shall divide the expenses.

"I hope now that we are separated that we can better understand one another. Kiss the dear children for me and forgive

"Your daughter, CLARA."

Mr. Fonda laid the letter on the table, took off his coat and hung it in the hall, then came and sat down by his wife, who was crying softly.

"Poor little girl," she sobbed; "to think I could be so blind."

"I can remember her leaving the table in tears because I refused to get something she asked for when I did not think she needed it," said Mr. Fonda. "I thought she was getting so much more sensible lately because she asked for so little."

"And now she's married and only nineteen. We have driven her from home with our stupidity and if she is unhappy in her marriage she has us to blame," added the mother.

"I don't know much about Clarence. I never dreamed that she cared for him," said Mr. Fonda.

"That's it; we neither of us 'dreamed.' We were so busy with our humdrum work that we did not take time to understand our daughter."

Mr. Fonda was quick to take a more cheerful view. "We will both write her a letter that will let her see we love her anyway. We'll invite them right here for New Year's and fit her out with a bride's clothes and help with the furnishing of the new home. We'll do everything we can to make their marriage a success."

"Maybe it will be all right," Mrs. Fonda said, brightening. "He seemed a nice boy. They are both only children. We must help them," and she rose to serve the dinner.

Household Hints

CANDIES

Apple Cream Fudge—Two cups granulated sugar, one cup boiling water, one-eighth teaspoon cream tartar, whites of two eggs, one apple (grated).

Boil sugar, water and cream of tartar till it forms a soft ball in cold water. Have whites of eggs beaten stiff with apple mixture added. Add cooked mixture and beat till quite soft. Then spread in buttered pan and, when cool, cut in squares. Nuts may be added.

This is a delicious frosting for a cake when not beaten so stiff.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

Churning on Sewing Machine — When you have just a small amount of cream to churn, try putting it into a half gallon fruit jar, put rubber and cover on, wrap in a cloth to avoid its slipping around, and place it on the treadle of machine. You may then either slip off the band and run machine fast for a few minutes, or place the jar between your feet on the treadle and go on with your sewing and in a few minutes you will have a nice little dish of butter. From one-half to one and one-half pounds may be made this way.

To Save Gas—The average housewife spends four times the amount of gas for cooking a meal than is necessary, and at the same time positively injures food values and quality of the article she is cooking. To get the greatest amount of heat units from a gas range, the flame should not be turned any higher than will give a perfect blue flame. When the flame becomes a yellowish red, you are wasting gas and getting a heat that not only smokes and smudges your kitchen utensils, but decreases their longevity to one-half. The flame should be about one-half inch of clear blue, and after the article you are cooking has come to a boiling point, reduce it to a point that will just keep it boiling. This is equally true in the oven; invariably the gas is turned too high for baking, and the bread or cake is burned. This also means waste of gas and a constant anxiety about the oven, which would not be necessary if gas were used at a lower temperature.

Stocking Help—Take some small snap fasteners; sew one part of fastener on one stocking at the top and the other part on the other stocking at the top. Then when stockings are taken off to put in the wash, have each snap his pair together. It does not interfere with the washing and no clothespins are necessary when they are hung on the line. Best of all, the pairs of stockings are always together. This is very much appreciated where there are several children in the family.

THE TABLE

Stuffed Green or Red Peppers—One-half dozen red peppers; cut tops off, let soak in water before using. Take one pound fresh pork ground with piece of suet; one-half cup rice boiled 10 minutes (cold before using); grate one onion; add one egg; mix well together and fill peppers. Turn one can tomatoes over peppers, let boil till tender; when done take peppers out, strain tomatoes through a sieve (only seeds should be left), then place peppers back again and warm up read to use. Fill green peppers (not red) same way and boil in sauerkraut.

PITH AND POINT.

In enumerating his virtues many a man counts his money first.

The man with an easy look often has a time lock on his pocketbook.

The only time some people ever count the cost is after they get the bill.

If you have a bad temper starve it by giving it nothing on which it can feed.

When the world owes a man a living it takes most of his time making collections.

The unfortunate thing about good resolutions is that they are so often made too late.

A fool can ask a lot of puzzling qestions, but it never does him any good to have them answered.

England will soon be aroused to the seriousness of the war. Already the taxes are being doubled.

Before embracing an opportunity it is a good plan to find out who has been embracing it before.

Whether a spy is called a patriot or a traitor often depends on which national language is used in writing his biography.

That man who was going to cross the Atlantic by aeroplane will wait until there is a safe place in Europe to land on.

In an appeal to arms it is always important to know who fired the first shot. And of equal importance is it to know who is going to fire the last one.

The Writers.

Miss Margaret Anderson, the writer, is literary critic of the Louisville Post and a poet and lecturer on art subjects.

Florence Barclay, the author, is in private life the wife of an English vicar and a most enthusiastic church worker.

Herbert Putnam, on whom Brown university has conferred the degree of doctor of literature, has been librarian of congress since 1889. He is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and has published numerous articles in reviews and professional journals.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

Sherman and DeForest's comedy sketch, "The Jay Circus," headed the week-end bill at Proctor's yesterday, and made an instantaneous hit. The act is one big scream from start to finish, and when the finale comes with the breaking down of the trapeze, people in the audience "are falling out of their seats." Dan Sherman, as "Old Dan Tucker," and Louis Stanton, as "Rube Tucker," are the funniest pair Proctor's has had in many a day, while Mabel DeForest does much to keep things lively. Another set on the bill that made a hit yesterday is the Versatile Trio, three men who sing, dance and give pantomime right up to the minute. Their burlesque on a poker game is a refreshing bit of originality. Wahl and Abbott offer a vocal and instrumental act, using the piano and violin to good advantage, and Dawson and Gillette present a comedy singing and talking skit. The big feature film, "The Seats of the Mighty," will be shown at Proctor's Theatre, Monday and Thursday of next week. No patron of the house should fail to see it, as it is a masterpiece of camera production.

LITERARY

Most readers, probably, will turn first in the January Century to the Kipling story, "Swept and Garnished." It is a story of the war, but the chief figures—almost the only figures—are five children, such dream children as only Kipling pictures. Other fiction of the issue includes Virginia Tracy's "The Web," Max Beerbohm's "James Pethel," Ethel M. Kelley's "Making Over Mary," Herman Scheffauer's "The Battle-Film," Louis N. Parker's one-act play "A Minuet," and the final chapters of James Lane Allen's "The Sword of Youth." In its January issue The Century continues its discussions of the larger issues of the war by authorities. Edwin Davies Schoonmaker presents with sympathy and a large general understanding the position of Russia and her desire, as it is Germany's, for "a place in the sun." Estelle Loomis, whose stories of the theatre have aroused so much attention, and who is now the wife of Gelett Burgess, tells in spirited and vivid paragraphs of Paris as she saw it at the outbreak of the war. Samuel P. Orth describes "The Soul of the French," and draws a picture of Old Paris and New France. James Harvey Robinson, who received his doctor's degree from a German university, and has devoted much time to the study and exposition of the history and institutions of Germany, offers in this number "An Explanation of the German Point of View." He also shows how the present terrible situation is by no means discouraging for those who ardently hope for the permanent disappearance of war.

Flemington.

Mrs. Christobel Kidded, of Boston, will present "The Piper" in the auditorium of the grammar school building tonight under the auspices of the children's choirs of Flemington.

Ringoes Grange will hold its annual meeting tomorrow night.

Miss Katherine L. Sonne entertained seventeen persons at the home of her parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Sonne, Tuesday night. The occasion was her birthday anniversary.

Miss Ada Hansen has returned to Philadelphia after spending a week at her home in Flemington.

The Flemington boys' group of the Y. M. C. A. was organized Tuesday night, with the following officers: President, Boswell Dewey; vice president, Harry Stout; secretary, Edwin Case; treasurer, Thomas Garis.

FINDING JOBS FOR TWO MILLION MEN

Nation-wide Effort to Aid the Unemployed Fight Hunger and Cold.

New York, Dec. 18—A nation-wide campaign to aid the unemployed in American cities and towns has begun. Never before has such a comprehensive campaign of brotherly love been devised. That America has her own fields of starvation, her own afflicted, to aid, has been brought home by the great movement to rescue the starving and freezing Belgians. In the great process of gathering funds, food and clothing for the afflicted Europeans, there has arisen a closer view of our own problem. It has suddenly been discovered that fully 2,000,000 Americans are facing the rigors of winter and empty larders, through unemployment.

The causes of this condition form a special duty in themselves. Whether strikes, industrial depression or shiftlessness are to be blamed, the human problem of relief stands forth. The committee of prominent men who are studying the problem for the city of New York, headed by Judge E. H. Gary, are making every effort to get at the causes and to formulate a campaign of relief. A municipal employment bureau has been opened, to bring the employers and the jobless together. Two hundred women, wives and employers, have pledged themselves to aid the jobless during the winter.

In Philadelphia, every city ward is organized for relief work, and a concerted effort is being successfully made to help all needy and unemployed. The city has gathered a fund to employ extra help on public works.

In Chicago the problem has been well handled, so far as unemployed women is concerned. The campaign to aid jobless men is now underway.

In Boston, the State Free Employment Bureau shows a falling off in labor demands. Mayor Curley is heading a committee that is mapping out work to secure employment and relieve the distress.

In Seattle, an appropriation of $2,400 has been made to care for unemployed men and women.

St. Louis reports an unusual number of unemployed, and soup kitchens have been opened for those who cannot provide for themselves.

In Detroit, Henry Ford has opened up his new hospital for the relief of the needy, and has provided beds and food for the jobless.

In Ontario, the Government has allowed an extension of the season for cutting wood on crown lands, because of lack of employment in certain parts of the province.

In Ohio, conditions are exceedingly bad, on account of the strike of the miners. It is estimated that 41,000 are affected. The strike funds are low, and the families of the strikers are facing a cheerless Christmas. The State is giving 1,000 discarded militia uniforms, and many local organizations are aiding in the relief. The issue is the wage scale, the miners standing out for three cents a ton more than the operators will offer.

In Camden, N. J., the street commissioner has been flooded with applications for work, since the city undertook to employ all idle citizens. An emergency appropriation of $5,000 has been raised.

In Milwaukee, the county and city relief funds have been found inadequate to meet the situation this fall. A committee is holding regular meetings to devise a method of getting work for the unemployed.

In Newport, Ky., public funds are being used to employ idle citizens. An appeal to aid the unemployed of Covington, Ky., has come about through many cases of idleness.

The American Federation of Labor recently recognized the gravity of the situation when it asked that the Government hurry its plans for public buildings, so that the unemployed would get work.

With all the measures that are being taken throughout the country to solve this great problem of the unemployed, there is a general optimism that the boom in industrial centers, promised by the vast orders for material and articles from abroad, will soon relieve the situation.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the alminative tissues clog and the result is kidney troubles, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid. —Adv.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

"NEW MUHLENBERG" MODERN THROUGHOUT

Institution Has Been Completely Overhauled, Renovated and is Up-to-date.

In using the term "The New Muhlenberg" as applied to Muhlenberg Hospital, it is done advisedly and with an understanding of the full meaning of the phrase. It is indeed a new institution in every way. The operating room, while not entirely new, is so changed in appearance and conditions that it is hardly recognizable. It has been completely overhauled and renovated, and is now from every standpoint a model of what an operating room should be. It is now as perfect, as sanitary and scientific knowlegde can make it. There is often the necessity of using the operating room at night for emergency cases, and the new light, which has been installed, is a combination of gas and electric light which gives a perfect artificial light and approaches more closely to the rays of daylight than any other artificial light.

The improvements in the group of rooms adjoining the operating room and used in connection therewith cover increased light, and air and general sanitary conditions. The same may be said of the rooms used for the various clinics, these rooms having had their windows enlarged improving the light and ventilation and rendering them more suitable for the purpose. A word in passing as to the various clinics maintained at the hospital cannot but emphasize the hospital's usefulness to the community. There are six clinics conducted at Muhlenberg as follows: General medical and surgical, orthopaedic, eye, ear, nose and throat dermatological or skin, genito-urinary, and dental.

The first four of these clinics have been part of the hospital service for years and it is not necessary to enlarge upon their usefulness. Attention is now particularly directed to the last two clinics, the dental and genito-urinary. The dental clinic is a very important addition to the dispensary service of Muhlenberg Hospital, and one whose usefulness in many hospitals has been very much underestimated. The care of the teeth and all forms of practice associated with it are of far greater importance in the scheme of maintaining health than is commonly realized. The dental clinic in charge of Dr. Charles G. Davis as chief, is equipped with all the most modern appliances, and is prepared to render exceptional service to the people of the community.

The other new clinic, the genito urinary, is in charge of Dr. F. E. Du Bois, as chief. The main work of this department is not the treatment of venereal diseases, these are merely incidental, but the clinical treatment of all conditions of the urinary tract with a special reference to the diagnosis of diseases of the kidneys and bladder. All these departments will be opened to the public for inspection on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, December 19 and 20, from 3 till 6 o'clock.

COUNTY EMPLOYES WILL BE PAID BEFORE XMAS

Elizabeth, Dec. 18—Union county employes are chagrined because they will not receive their bi-monthly salaries until after Christmas. This is due to the Civil Service rules which became operative today.

The payroll must be approved by the Civil Service Commission and cannot be returned until December 28 at the earliest.

So far as is known, John C. Blore and Edward Sherwood, both deputy sheriffs, who were ousted by Sheriff Otto before the Civil Service Law could become effective, have taken no action toward reinstatement. Their places have been filled.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION ENDORSED BY C. E. UNION

There was a unanimous endorsement of the prohibition resolution, by the Union County Christian Endeavor Union, at the executive committee meeting held Tuesday evening, at the residence of Miss Edna G. Schmidt, Elizabeth. Harold L. Gray, secretary of the union, was authorized to notify Congressman William E. Tuttle, Jr., of the action taken, also to forward him a copy of the resolution adopted.

The resolution was presented by Clarence B. LaRue, of Plainfield, chairman of the good citizenship department. Mr. LaRue also requested that all societies devote a period of the C. E. service on Sunday evening to prayer for the passage of the amendment, which is to be voted upon next Tuesday.

There was a lengthy discussion as to how the executive committee might keep in touch with the more inactive and rural societies. This resulted in the appointment of a visitation committee, with Frederick L. Mintel, of Rahway, as the chairman. An invitation to attend the reception of the State union officers, to be held at Elizabeth on January 12, was extended to the Endeavorers through Arthur E. Warner, of Elizabeth, chairman of the 1915 convention committee.

Immediately following the business session, President Randolph introduced John B. Payne, president of the Brooklyn C. E. Union, who gave an informal talk to the committee, telling of the activities of the Brooklyn organization, and emphasizing various plans and methods for strengthening the county work. Following Mr. Payne's remarks, refreshments were served and a very enjoyable social hour was had by the delegates present.

New Providence.

Marshall T. James, of Union avenue, West End, is in New York.

A special meeting of the borough Board of Health was held last night, at the home of the secretary, William Woodruff.

The men of the Methodist Episcopal church gave an oyster supper in the church parlors, Wednesday night. Councilman-elect Wilbur F. Brower acted as chef. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church. Members of Starry Flag Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., attended in a body.

Miss Edith Kipple, of Elkwood avenue, is visiting in New York. While there she will participate in an affair to be held in the Seventy-first Regiment Armory for the benefit of the German and Austrian armies.

The schools of the borough and township closed after the morning session yesterday, to allow the teachers to attend the group meeting for county teachers held yesterday afternoon at Springfield. There are eight teachers in the borough and six in the township.

AN ORDINANCE

A further amendment to an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to License Inns and Taverns and to Regulate and Prohibit the Sale of Spirituous and Fermented Liquors," approved February 10, 1892, and amended by several ordinances approved respectively April 7, 1894, July 12, 1898, February 7, 1901, November 17, 1904, September 5, 1905, and May 3, 1909.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That Section Twenty-seven of the amended ordinance, the title whereof is recited in the title of this ordinance, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 27. That in order to enable the Common Council have effectively to regulate the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors within said city as they deem most conducive to the public good, the place in which any applicant for license to sell spirituous and fermented liquors, or for license to sell spirituous, vinous, malt or brewed liquors, under any of the preceding sections of this ordinance proposes to carry on his business under such license, is hereby required to be accurately set forth in the application for such license, and to be within the territory comprised within the following boundary lines, to wit:

Beginning at a point in the city line at Green Brook distant one hundred and fifty (150) feet northeasterly from the centre line of Watchung Avenue; thence running southwesterly along said city line to the centre line of Grove Street; thence southeasterly along the centre line of Grove Street to the centre line of West Front Street; thence southwesterly along the centre line of West Front Street to a point distant one hundred and fifty (150) feet southwesterly from the centre line of Central Avenue; then southeasterly in a course drawn parallel with the centre line of Central Avenue distant one hundred and fifty (150) feet southwesterly therefrom to the tracks of the main stem of the Central Railroad of New Jersey as the same now lies; thence northeasterly along said tracks to a point on said tracks distant one hundred and fifty (150) feet southwesterly from the centre line of Park Avenue; thence southeasterly in a course drawn parallel with the centre line of Park Avenue and distant one hundred and fifty (150) feet southwesterly therefrom to a point in said course distant one hundred and fifty (150) feet southeasterly from the centre line of West Fourth Street; thence northeasterly in a course drawn parallel with the centre line of West Fourth Street and East Fourth Street and distant one hundred and fifty (150) feet southeasterly therefrom to a point in said course and the projection thereof distant one hundred and fifty (150) feet northeasterly from the centre line of Watchung Avenue; thence northwesterly in a straight line to the point of beginning.

PROVIDED, nevertheless, that the foregoing provisions of this section shall not prevent the granting of any renewal of any license lawfully in force at the time this section takes effect.

Adopted by the Common Council, December 7, 1914; approved by the Mayor, December 16, 1914.

PERCY H. STEWART, Mayor.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.

THE Household Loan Company, a local corporation, licensed, bonded and supervised by the Banking Dept. of the State of New Jersey, now offers a limited amount of its preferred stock to the public. Its par value is $10 per share, and may be purchased by people of small or large means, desiring to help the deserving. Six per cent. interest is guaranteed, and all loans are amply secured by chattel mortgage. The number of worthy people desiring loans is very large, and we are not able to serve them all. It is planned, therefore, to extend our work by taking the investing and interested public into partnership with us. We thus hope to be the medium of bringing supply and demand together to their mutual advantage. We invite careful investigation. A statement with our little green book will be sent anyone on request. RECOGNITION OF REV. DR. HUDSON

New Pastor of Park Avenue Baptist Church is Formally Welcomed.

DR. STRONG PRESIDES

Local Ministers Take Part in An Interesting Program—Reception to Pastor-elect and Family Follows.

Recognition services for Dev. Dr. Birney S. Hudson, the new pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, were held at the church, last night. They were largely attended by the pastors and members of the other city churches and a most cordial welcome was extended to Dr. Hudson. Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, was the moderator, and in introducing the speakers of the evening, had some pleasant things to say appropriate to the occasion.

The opening exercises consisting of prayer and Scripture reading were in charge of Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, of the Congregational church, and Rev. J. Y. Broek, of Trinity Reformed church. Interspersing the other features of the program, there was special music, including anthems by the choir.

Rev. Evarts C. Conover, of the Temple Baptist church, delivered the charge to the pastor-elect, in which he gave him some timely suggestions and a cordial welcome to Plainfield. Rev. J. Madison Hare, of the Baptist church, Scotch Plains, gave the charge to the church and congregation and he made several suggestions to the congregation as to the treatment of its pastor.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, pastor of the Crescent Avenue church, extended greetings on behalf of the Plainfield Ministers' Association, and he also cordially welcomed Dr. Hudson to Plainfield and the fellow-ship of the ministers and churches here. Dr. Hudson made a happy response, thanking the ministers for their kind and cheering words.

The address of the evening was made by Rev. Frank A. Smith, pastor of the Central Baptist church, Elizabeth, in which he brought words of encouragment as to the progress the Baptists are making, not only in New Jersey, but throughout the country, and he made all the Baptists present proud to think that they were members of that denomination. During his remarks he also spoke praiseworthy of Dr. Hudson and of his previous work at Atlantic City, and bespoke for him the hearty co-operation of every member of the church.

Following the services, a reception was held in the Sunday-school rooms, at which time all present were given an oportunity to meet and become acquainted with Dr. Hudson and his family.

TAX OFFICE HOURS.

Willam R. Townsend, the local tax collector, announced yesterday that his office would be open this evening and Monday night until 9 o'clock for the accommodation of taxpayers. Owing to the fact that December 20 the last date set by law for the purpose of receivng taxes, falls on Sunday, taxes will be received on Monday, this being the last day for the paying of taxes without having interest being added to the bills.

Notice.

Oscar Michael & Co., Newark, announce that their store will close at 7 today and at the same time all evenings until Christmas.—Adv. **

LIVELY DEBATE AT TAX HEARING

D. T. Kenney Makes Strenuous Effort to Secure Reduction of Assessment.

APPEAL IS DISMISSED

Complainant Tries Hard to Show By Comparison That Discrimination is Shown—Gives Notice of Appeal to State Tax Board.

Strenuous efforts on the part of David T. Kenney, lasting nearly two hours, to persuade the County Tax Board to consider Elizabeth valuations in comparison with those in Plainfield for similar property, resulted in failure on his part, due to the continued objections raised by Assistant Corporation Counsel Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., all of which were sustained by the Board. Mr. Kenney appeared to protest against the assessment of twenty-one dollars a front foot on property he owns on North avenue, near the Netherwood station, which he stands ready to sell for fifteen dollars a foot. The property is assessed at $6,850, and Mr Kenney does not think that the amount should be more than $4,032. During the hearing there were several tiffs between the members of the Board, Mr. Hetfield and Mr. Kenney which brought forth acrimonious debate.

Mr. Kenney was sworn by the Board, as they were under the impression that he intended taking the matter to the State Board to the Equalization of Taxes, and as the testimony was taken by a stenographer. He started to ask the members of the Board a number of questions, directing them to Mr. Collins president of the body, and Mr. Hetfield objected from the start. "Do

IN COMA 60 HOURS, GAS VICTIM DIES

George Larsen Overcome by Fumes in Friend's Home Tuesday Night.

After being unconscious for a period of sixty hours, George J. O. Larsen, Sr., of 515 Park avenue, passed away at Muhlenberg Hospital, last night, where he had been taken following what appears to have been an accident occurring in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Anderson, of Westfield, where he had been visiting Tuesday night. When Mr. Larsen failed to get up Wednesday morning, his host sent a servant to call him. Gas fumes were issuing from the keyholes and cracks in the door of his home and the maid gave the alarm.

Rescuers found Mr. Larsen in an unconscious condition on the bed and a physician was called who ordered his removal to the hspital. From the time he was received at that institution all efforts to arouse him from his coma have proven futile.

The victim's wife is ill at her home on Park avenue, her ailment being aggravated by the news of her husband's death, and it is reported that Larsen was a painter working in Weehawken and made frequent visits to this city where his wife boards.

MAN DREW A REVOLVER ON HIS WIFE AND CHILD

Further investigation, with a view to determining his mental condition, will be made by the borough police into the case of J. Edward Demarest, of this city, who was arrested in North Plainfield by Marshall Pope last night after he had created havoc in the home of his father-in-law, William H. Day, on Somerset street. He was arraigned before Recorder Hand this morning and remanded for a second hearing.

It is alleged that Demarest went to the home of Mr. Day shortly after 7 o'clock last night declaring that he had come to force his wife and child, from whom he has been selaparted, to live with him again. After forcing his way into the house he drew a revolver and flourishing the weapon over his head in a menacing fashion proceeded to enforce his declaration.

INTEREST WILL BE CHARGED.

Tax Collector W. R. Townsend wishes to correct the impression that those who makke partial payment of taxes will escape paying the interest. All taxes remaining unpaid after Monday will include interest at the usual rate. The tax office will remain open till 9 o'clock tonight and Monday.

RAISED CHECK BEARER WAS PUT TO FLIGHT

Attempted to Pass Fraudulent Paper With Signature of Peter B. Hodge.

Soome detective work on the part of the City National Bank authorities yesterday morning thwarted an individual who sought to cash a "raised check drawn on Peter B. Hodge, a local druggist, at the Plainfield banking institution. Becoming suspicious of some expert erasures on the face of the check the banking authorities communicated with the payer and during the time intervening between Mr. Hodge's arrival at the bank the applicant evidently became alarmed and fled. Efforts to locate him later proved futile.

On December 14 last Mr. Hodge forwarded a check for $10 to the firm of A. W. Bell in New York city and this was presented at the bank yesterday with the amount raised to $200 and the name of the payee erased and "bearer" substituted. So neat was the erasing that only a careful inspection would reveal the changes. It was endorsed by "M. H. O'Neill."

Communicating with the New York firm Mr. Hodge learned that the check had never been received and it is the supposition of those concerned that the bearer extracted it from the mail.

BEGINS PASTORATE HERE TOMORROW

Rev. John Baltzby Takes Charge of Activities at All Souls' Church.

Rev. John Baltzly, the pastor-elect of All Souls' Unitarian church, this city, will begin his pastorate here tomorow, preaching at the morning service and taking charge of the parish activities. Mr. Baltzly is a native of Ohio and received his collegiate training at Wittenberg College and his theological training at the Wittenberg Theological Seminary. His father, Rev. Dr. Jacob B. Baltzly, a minister of the Lutheran church, well-known in his day, had been graduated from these institutions before him.

The son began his ministry at Indianapolis, where he served for nine years as minister of the First Lutheran church. He served next for six years, as minister of the First Presbyterian church of Fond du Luc, Wisconsin. He then spent a year and a half in post-graduate study at Stanford University and at Harvard University, intending to turn to the work of teaching. While at Cambridge, however, he made up his mind to apply for admission to the Unitarian fellowship and he was received into that fellowship in January, 1898. He was installed as a minister of the First Unitarian Society, of Hudson, Mass., March 1, 1898. In this, his first pastorate in the Unitarian fellowship, he has served up to the present time, almost seventeen years.

The Christian Register, a Unitarian publication, in the current issue, calls attention to the fact that Mr. Baltzly has accepted the call to the local church, and that at a meeting of the society of Hudson, Mass., from which the new pastor comes, resolutions were adopted accepting his resignation with earnest expressions of reserved us loyally and faithfully for sixteen years; who has during all the dignity and beauty of the church service."

CHARLES CONNORS IS FOUND GUILTY

Notorious Criminal Convicted of $17,000 Burglary at Ackerman Home.

WILL APPEAL VERDICT

Second Union County Conviction Brought About Through Finger-print Evidence—Liable to Fifteen Year Sentence.

Elizabeth, Dec. 19.—Due solely to finger-print evidence offered by famous experts, Charles, alias "Ice-Wagon" Connors, notorious "second-story" man and "bail jumper," was found guilty of the robbery of more than $17,000 worth of jewels from the home of former State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman in Plainfield on the night of January 3 last, by a jury in the Court of Quarter Sessions here, yesterday afternoon. The case was given to the jury at 1 o'clock and three hours later the result was announced.

The verdict created considerable excitement among "pals" of Connors who had traveled from Chicago to learn their confederate's fate. It was popularly conceded that the veteran crook would be found guilty inasmuch as his counsel saw fit to forfeit his opportunity to offer defensive evidence and allowed the case to rest after the State's evidence had been presented. It is the second conviction on finger-print evidence in Union county.

William Newcorn, of Plainfield, chief counsel for Connors, said he would appeal. The Chicago man will probably be sentenced next Thursday, Friday being Christmas Day. The maximum sentence for the crime of which he has been determined guilty

STEADY FLOW OF CHRISTMAS FUNDS

An Abundance of Good Cheer to Be Distributed in Plainfield.

With a steady current of generous contributions flowing into the treasury of the Community Christmas Fund, the committees are busy spending it in such a way as to reach the largest number of needy an ddeserving persons. The purchasing committee, of which Mrs. William B. Tyler is chairman, has bought the playthings for the children. For the committee would feel that it was taking Santa Claus' name in vain if it distributed only dry goods and groceries at homes where there were children. But the toy fund is only a small fraction of the whole. Several hundred suits of warm under clothing and a generous supply of blankets, are included, and another large item will be coal, flour and other supplies.

Persons who are planning private gifts for the needy will help the committee by calling up "Plainfield 103" and giving the name of the family to be helped. This may save duplication, and so enable the fund to go farther.

In the last three days contributions have been received from the following persons and societies, bringing the total amount to $905.35. Contributions may be sent to Charles A. Rice, treasurer, 836 West Seventh street, or left at any of the stores that have the sign of the children's saint.

WEDS COUSIN OF FORMER HUSBAND

Mrs. Ida B. Pittis Becomes the Wife of Edward A. Pittis, of Washington.

DIVORCED IN OCTOBER

Ceremony Was Performed by Rev. William L. Holland, at Fort Meyer Heights, Va.—Couple to Reside in Washington After a Trip.

The filing of legal papers in Alexandria county, Virginia, yesterday, revealed the fact that Mrs. Ida Borsum Pittis, who was granted a divorce from her husband, Dr. Albert Pittis, of this city, on October 15 last, had been married on December 14, to Edward A. Pittis, of Washington, D. C., a cousin of the local physician. The ceremony was performed at Fort Meyer Heights, Va., by Rev. William L. Holland, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. Only the necessary witnesses were in attendance.

No further details of the marriage were given in the messages sent to Plainfield today, but the news occasioned great surprise. Edward Pittis is engaged in business in Washington, where he has resided for many years. He attended the Alexandria county proceedings when Mrs. Pittis made her application. This action was not defended by Dr. Pittis, with the result that an absolute decree was granted. In a previous action brought by Mrs. Pittis in the Chancery chambers at Newark about a year ago, she was granted a divorce and alimony of $50 a week, together with counsel fees of $1,100. The decree was set aside when the defendant carried it to the Court of Errors and Appeals. The proceedings in Virginia marked the next step in the plaintiff's determination to sever the matrimonial bonds and the marrige coming so closely on the heels of the Virginia decision explains her activities. The various legal manoevures were at times to puzzling to Dr. Pittis' friends, but they now appear in a different light.

Edward Pittis has never been a resident of Plainfield, but is quite well-known here through visits to his relatives. Mrs. Pittis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Borsum, former well-known residents, now living in Newark.

STUDENTS MADE HIT IN CHRISTMAS PLAY

Record Audience Attended School Function in Saengerbund Hall.

The North Plainfield High Class senior class presented a two-act farce comedy entitled "A Box of Monkeys," at the annual Christmas entertainment in Saengerbund Hall, last night. The playlet was a laugh throughout and the members of the cast all did themselves credit in acting the various parts. There were five in the cast. Miss Lucy Douglas, as "Sierra Bengaline," a prairie rose, was especially good, while the method of Americanizing "Lady Guinevere Llandpoore," an English primrose, played by Miss Katherine Giddings, and Miss Anna Hull, as "Mrs. Ondego Jhones," an admirer of rank, were also very good.

Much credit is due Miss Helen K. Ray, who coached the cast. Afterward Miss Ray was presented with a handsome picture by Edson Day, president of the class.

The "knocks" were original and made a big hit with the audience. The scene was a wireless room on board the Mauritania and the operators of the wireless apparatus were Messrs. Hoyt Tomkinson and Roscoe VanCamp. Duclos VanMater read the messages to the members of the junior and senior classes and was assisted by Russell Lee. The majority of the "knocks" were "roasts" on the various members of the classes. Dancing was enjoyed until 1 o'clock. Music was furnished by Paroubek's orchestra.

The hall was attractively decorated with the class colors, green and gold, and a large High School banner was hung over the stage. During the dancing refreshments, consisting of punch and cake, were served by the chaperone committee of the Parent-Teacher Association.

FORCE GERMANS AWAY FROM LILLE

Allies Take Town by Fierce Attacks on Trench After Trench.

RUSSIANS CLAIM GAINS

Semi-Official Announcement Made That Army Has Been Victorious in North of Poland—Germans Evacuated Lodz?

Paris, Dec. 19.—The German lines on the Lys River have fallen back from Armentieres and Lille to positions before Menin, Tourcoing and Lanney, south of Roubaix. The fighting in Lille was hotly contested. The Allies by bayonet rushes, took trench after trench until the Germans broke under their attack and withdrew, under the protecting fire of their own artillery.

The French war office gave out the following statement at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

"In Belgium during day of December 18 we fortified the ground gained the day before to the south of Dixmude, and pushed forward our front to the south of the Kortekern. Our advance to the south of Ppres is being continued in marshy ground very difficult for our troops.

"From the Lys to the Oise we have advanced. Despite very severe counter attacks the positions captured on December 17 have been held. In region of Albert during night of December 17 and 18 and during day of December 18, we advanced under a very violent fire and reached the wire entanglements of the second line of the enemy's trenches.

"To the north of Mericourt we have abandoned a trench taken the day before, and set on fire by the enemy by means of hand grenades.

"Several German trenches have been captured by us in the region of Nantes, and in that of Limons. Three violent counter attacks by the Germans have been repulsed. Near St. Hubert the enemy succeeded in advancing slightly by means of a very fierce attack."

Petrograd, Dec. 19.—A Russian victory in the north of Poland is announced semi-officially. The German army which advanced from Soldau to attack the Russian right wing on the north bank of the Vistula, and which intended to strike at the same time General Von Hindenburg was hammering at the gates of Warsaw, has been met by a superior force and driven back past the border into East Prussia. With this peril from the north averted the struggle before Warsaw continues with the advantage to the Russians on their right flank, while the Germans continue to press forward against their centre and left.

The Den quotes a high authority as stating that the Germans have evacuated Lodz on finding that the town cannot serve as a base for their military operations. It is believed that the German plan to capture the right bank of the River Vistula, then advance from Mlawa and exert pressure on the left bank, has completely failed.

London, Dec. 19 (Central News Cable.)—An official announcement states that no British warship of any kind was lost when the German ships shelled the east coast on Wednesday, German statements to the contrary notwithstanding. All such statements are untrue.

Amsterdam, Dec. 19.—Fugitives from Zeebrugge, the German submarine base on the coast of Flanders, who have made their way into Holland, state that the Germans have strongly fortified that port.

The Handelsblad publishes an article stating that the undrilled members of the German Landsturm of the second levy have been called to the colors. This levy is constituted of men from 39 to 46 years old.

A victory over the Russians in Caucasia is claimed by the Turks in an official statement issued in Constantinople, which has been received in this city. The Statement in part says, "Russian troops supported by guns and machine guns were repulsed by the Turkish forces after a five hours' battle near Saral."

Austrian newspapers, according to a despatch from Vienna, join in emphasizing the great significance which may be attached to the defeat of the Russians in Poland. They declare that it will have an important effect on the whole campaign.

Athens, Dec. 19.—It is learned from a reliable source that 100 members of the crew of the Messudiyeh, the Turkish battleship which was torpedoed in the Dardennelles by a British submarine, perished. Included in this number were several German officers.

C. H. HUMPHREYS NOW FIGHTING FOR ENGLAND

C. H. Humphreys, who made many friends while associated here in the express business with H. Clifford Smith, and who shortly after the outbreak of the present conflagration returned to England to join his regiment, is now in all probability somewhere along the 150-mile battle front in France facing the musketry and heavy artillery, etc., of the Kaiser's military machine, as Mr. Smith received the following short letter from him on Monday: "Have gone to the front in France is all that I can write."

Speaking of Humphreys' ability as a marksman, Mr. Smith said: "I had always wondered whether Humphreys with all the practice that he received while in the army was a much better shot than I, who seldom had a rifle in my hand. So one day last summer while down at Coney Island we passed a shooting gallery and I challenged him to a match. I won the first match with quite a number of misses by a close score and he won the next match in a like manner. During the second match I had watched him closely and it became quite apparent to me that he was not shooting his best as he seemed to fire his rifle without taking aim. At the conclusion of the match I accused him of laying down and asked him to let me see how well he could shoot. This he did by hitting the target, which was by no means an easy one, 25 times in rapid succession without a miss."

CHRISTMAS SERVICES IN DUNELLEN CHURCHES

Special Christmas services will be held in all of the churches of the borough tomorrow with the exception of St. John's church, which will hold its services on Christmas day.

In the Methodist Episcopal church at the 10:30 o'clock morning service there will be special music by the choir, and the pastor, Rev. D. W. C. Ramsey, will preach from a text in keeping with the occasion. At the 7:30 evening service Dev. Dr. F. J. Hubach, the district superintendent, will preach. At the close of the preaching the second and third quarterly conferences will be held.

At the Presbyterian church at the 10:30 o'clock morning service there will be special music by the choir and the pastor, Rev. E. R. Brown, will preach a Christmas sermon. In the church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the Sunday-school will hold its special Christmas exercises. There will be no church service in the evening.

A special communion will be held at Holy Innocents' church at 8:30 o'clock in the morning. At 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon the Christmas services of the church will be held. There will be an appropriate sermon by the rector, Rev. Arthur S. Phelps, and special Christmas music by the vestry choir.

Casper Harris, of Plainfield, has accepted a position with Frank Cashin, the North avenue grocer.

Theodore Tinsman, of North avenue, has accepted a position as traveling salesman with a Boston tobacco house.

John Costello, son of Mrs. Mary Costello, of Lincoln avenue, is still confined to his home as a result of an injury sustained to one of his limbs while playing football about a month ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Russell and son, Elmer, of Front street, have made arrangements to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Wynkoop, of Front street, entertained a "500" party from Plainfield on Thursday evening.

The board of trustees of the Free Public Library held its monthly meeting in the library rooms last evening.

The Crow Patrol of the local organization of Boy Scouts held a social in the Presbyterian chapel last evening. The young lady friends of the Scouts were present and a general good time was had in playing games, etc. Refreshments were served during the evening.

J. M. Barto, of Front street, who has been ill for a week or so, was able to take a constitutional yesterday afternoon.

The Doty house on North avenue, near Jefferson avenue, was purchased on Wednesday at a sheriff's sale by Real Estate Operator Henry Wrage.

Supervising Principal Guy H. Rentschler, of the local schools, has made arrangements to spend the holidays with his parents at Ringstown, Pa.

Fred Nelson, of Brooklyn, a former resident of this place, was a visitor in the borough yesterday afternoon.

Capt. and Mrs. B. A. Cole spent yesterday in Newark.

Peter Ritter, of Prospect avenue, left last evening for Jacksonville, Fla., where he will spend the winter.

Owen J. Mohan, Jr., of Dunellen avenue, has accepted a position in the office of the Niles-Bement-Pond Company at Plainfield.

Philip Pfeister, of Front street, has been working at New Brunswick the past three days for W. E. Bartle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hunt, of Lincoln avenue, are entertaining relatives from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Westcott, of Washington avenue, attended a dance at the Seventh Regiment Armory, New York, last evening.

Mrs. Alden Wilmot, of Third street, spent Wednesday in New York.

Louis Feldman, the popular North avenue shoe dealer, was a recent visitor at Somerville.

Miss Rita G. Brokaw, of Center street, has been able to resume her duties as teacher in the Whittier School after an illness of about two weeks duration.

Mrs. A. F. Samson spent yesterday in New York.

'Plains & Fanwood.

The services in All Saints' Episcopal church tomorrow will be as usual. At the 11 o'clock morning service Rev. Oscar S. Michael will preach on "The Second Advent of Christ," and will endeavor to answer the question, "When Will Christ Come Again?" Sunday-school will start at 10 o'clock.

Rev. J. Madison Hare will conduct the services in the Baptist church tomorrow. Bible school, with classes for all ages, will start at 9:30, morning service at 10:45 and B. Y. P. U. meeting at 7:30 in the evening.

The morning and evening services in the Methodist church will be at the usual hours tomorrow and will be in charge of the pastor, Dr. H. K. Carroll. In place of the session of the Sunday-school in the afternoon the children will render the program that will be held at the Christmas entertainment on Thursday, including music and recitations. The only thing missing will be Santa Claus.

The Sunday-school and adult Bible class will meet in the Willow Grove chapel tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

A rather novel program has been mapped out for Christmas at the Willow Grove chapel for this year. The adults greatly outnumber the children and so the singing of old Christmas carols will take the place of recitations and songs by the youngsters. Later in the evening the grown-up folks will tender a surprise party to the youngsters.

About thirty of the members of the Sigma Phi Club and their friends enjoyed a pleasant evening at a dance in the Fanwood firehouse last evening. The hall was gay with Christmas trimmings and music was furnished by a Plainfield orchestra.

The young men's class of All Saints' Episcopal church were busy at the Fanwood firehouse this morning erecting the stage for the cantata that will be given by the Sunday-school of the church the day following Christmas. It has been decided not to charge admittance but to take a silver collection to defray expenses. A large packing case is to be placed at the entrance as a receptable for the articles that are to be brought for distribution among the poor. Each member of the school will receive a remembrance.

A routine session of the Township Committee was held in Excelsior Hall last evening, when all business was cleared up, as it is the last meeting before the new members come in.

A meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Literary Club will be held on Tuesday afternoon.

The Altar Guild met in All Saints' Episcopal church this morning.

Robert Thrane, of Paterson, the well-known 'cellist in Walter Damrosk's orchestra, in New York, will render several selections at the Christmas services in All Saints' Episcopal church on Friday morning.

Maurice Hall has returned to New York, where he is spending the winter, after speding the past week with friends in the borough.

A meeting of the Fanwood Township Sunday-school Association will be held on Monday evening at the home of William Sisserson, the president, at his home in Westfield. A meeting of the association will be held in the Sunday-school room of the Baptist church probably in the week following New Year's.

Dorothy Beeken, of North avenue, who is a student at Vassar College, is visiting her parents.

Now that the plans for School No. 3, to be erected in the Graceland section of the township, have been approved by the State it is probable that the Board of Education will take steps at its next meeting to have the construction of the building started as soon as the weather permits.

William Taber and Robert G. Meggy, the committee in charge of the revising of the by-laws of the Fanwood Fire Company, have finished work on the same and reported it to the company.

The young people of the Baptist church gathered in the Sunday-school room last evening and spent a very enjoyable time playing various games. As the coming Friday will be Christmas no meeting will be held.

The weekly meeting of the Lend-a-Hand Society of the Baptist church was held in the church parlors yesterday afternoon. The time was spent in sewing useful articles for the missions and other purposes.

Bound Brook.

Mrs. Lena Dunlap, of Brooklyn, spent a few days this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Annie Knutter, at Greenbrook.

Special Christmas servces will be held n the Presbyterian church tomorrow night. There will be a double quartet choir composed of Mrs. R. H. Brokaw and Miss Mae Higgins, sopranos; Miss Cresence Maier and Mss May Fisher, contraltos; Andrew T. Higgins and Walter H. Rugen, tenors; H. D. Austin and Jacob Byer, basses. Miss Adella LaRue will preside at the organ, Miss Gertrude VanNest at the piano, Miss Dorothy Granert, Floyd Casterlin and Ernest Robinson, volins. An illustrated lecture will be delivered by Rev. C. J. Culp. The program will be as follows: Organ prelude, Christmas Pastorali; hymn, "The Great God of Heaven is Come Down to Earth;" anthem, "There Were Shepherds;" anthem, "Angels from the Realms of Glory;" illustrated Christmas lecture, Rev. Culp; hymn, "O Little Town of Bethlehem;" organ prelude, "Triumphal March."

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rawlings have gone to East Orange to spend some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Laird.

Ralph Prugh, who has been working on a large stock farm at Kaukanna, Wis., is spending the holiday season at the home of his mother, Mrs. Emma Prugh, on East street. Mr. Prugh expects to return early in January and take a short course in agriculture at the University of Wisconsin.

Miss A. E. Kunzie, of Charleston, S. C., is spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Charles Fisher, of this place.

Robert Thompson, of New York State, has been visiting his brother, William H. Thompson.

Mrs. R. H. Brokaw is entertaining her sister, Miss Zimmerman, of Highland Park.

The Cathelmar Club met with Miss Mary Teston last evening.

Warrenville.

The Warrenville School held its Christmas entertainment Thursday afternoon. Several of the pupils' parents attended. When the exercises were over Santa Claus made a visit to the school and presented each of the children with a box of candy.

Daniel F. Scott and William B. Saunders went to Newark yesterday, with two loads of dog-wood.

The Misses Anna and Helen Conlan will return to their home in Wilkes Barre, Penn., for the holidays, and the schools will reopen January 4.

The Congregational church of Coontown will hold its Christmas exercises Christmas night, instead of Christmas Eve.

GIVEN SURPRISE ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Nelson Were Married Twenty-five Years Ago.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Nelson, of 25 Somerset place, were given a surprise at their home, last night, in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The affair was arranged by some of the women of the Grace M. E. church, of the borough, of which the couple are members. There were about twenty-six guests.

During the evening the host and hostess were presented with a silver tea set from the guests, the presentation being made by the Rev. C. C Cain, pastor of the church. Games were played throughout the evening and a general good time was enjoyed, refreshments being served at a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have lived in the borough since their marriage a quarter of a century ago and had five children.

MISSSIONARY AND AID SOCIETY'S XMAS EXERCISES

The Missionary and Aid Society, of Warren chapel, held its business meeting and Christmas exercises yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor, conducted the devotional service preceding the formal gathering, with Mrs. McKelvey presiding.

The exercises in keeping with the Christmas season as arranged by Mrs. R. O. Stewart was a complete surprise to the fifty members of the society who had gathered for the business session. A large tree had been decorated, with a large picture of the Christ among the features of the tree. A number of smaller trees were placed about the various tables which were taken as souvenirs of the occasion. Each of these smaller trees had packages attached containing gifts for the members.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the gathering by a committee composed of Mrs. John Higgins, Mrs. James Causbrook, Mrs. David Smith, Mrs. William Newmiller Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. David Kline Mrs. George Hoagland and Miss Hattie Taynor.

The next all day sewing meeting of the society is to be held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Stiglitz, 3 Allen place January 6.

YOUNG WOMEN'S GUILD HOLD TEA AND SALE

The Young Women's Guild of Grace Episcopal church held a tea cake and candy sale in the parish house yesterday afternoon, under the direction of Miss Katherine Titus chairman. About $33 was realized which will be used for charitable purposes in Plainfield. Miss Gwendolyn Gough and Miss Mary Rushmore gave a "Punch and Judy" show for the children and were assisted by Miss Kathafine Scribner.

The various committee were as follows: Tea tables, Mrs. Avery, the Misses Marguerite Carpenter, Eleanor Iredell, Christine Scott, Anna Edwards, Emily Poucher. Candy, Mrs. Seymour Perkins, Mrs. George L. Babcock, Miss Barbara Fleming Lemonade, Miss Hope Ivins. Cake, Miss Mabel Trenbath and Miss H Marguerite Edwards. The tea room was decorated for Christmas and lighted by candles with red shades. The candy table was especially pretty with a large gold basket of holly and lighted by candles.

MISS JANE ELIZABETH KYTE DIES AT FANWOOD

Miss Jane Elizabeth Kyte, of Fanwood, one of the oldest residents of the borough, died suddenly at her home yesterday from a paralytic stroke. She has been ailing for some time. Miss Kyte was the eldest daughter of the late Charles and Elizabeth Haynes Kyte. She was a member of the All Saints' P .E. church, of Scotch Plains.

Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the All Saint's church. The Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, pastor of the Grace P. E. church of this city, will officiate and will be assisted by the Rev. Oscar S. Michaels, pastor of the All Saint's P. E. church. Interment will be made in Scotch Plains cemetery.

DESTROYS SLEEP.

Many Plainfield People Testify to This.

You can't sleep at night
With aches and pains of a bad back—
When you have to get up from urinary troubles.
If the kidneys are at fault
Set them working aright with Doan's Kidney Pills.
Here is Plainfield proof of their merit.

Mrs. O. C. Moore, 57 Manning avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I endured much misery from backache which was caused by my kidneys. Many nights I was unable to rest at all and in the morning, my limbs were so stiff and sore that I could hardly get out of bed. Whenever I caught the least cold, it settled on my kidneys and any strain on my back made the aches and pains worse. I was treated by physicians, but their medicine ddn't help me and it was not until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Randolph's drug store, that I had any hope of getting rid of the trouble. They made me feel like a different person and I have never had any serious trouble since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

SILVER JUBILEE AT MT. ST. MARY'S

The silver jubilee or twenty-fifth anniversary of the profession in the Order of Mercy of Reverened Mother Cecelia, Mother M. Catherine, Sisters M. Teresa, M. Zita, M. Winifred and M. Regina will be celebrated by the students of Mt. St. Mary College, and Academy of Mt.St. Mary at 2:30 o'clock tomorow afternoon. The parents and friends of the students and the alumnae have been invited and an elaborate program has been prepared by the college.

Mrs. George N. J. Sommer, president of the alumnae, will deliver an address and present the silver purse gift of the association. On Saturday, services to commemorate the event will take place in the college chapel. The relatives and friends of the sisters will be present on that day. A special program of music will be rendered and a reception will be given them in the afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Mother Cecelia and the sisters who celebrate tomorrow have been identified with Mt. St. Mary College since it was established here and they are beloved and esteemed by all of the student body as well as a large circle of acquaintances.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION AT MUHLENBERG HOSPITAL

The Woman's Auxiliary Board of Muhlenberg Hospital, as has been the custom for many years, will remember the patients and the nurses at the hospital at Christmas time. A special committee comprised of Mrs. Evarts Tracy, chairman; Mrs. Isaac Schwed and Miss Harriet Halloway will have charge of the arrangements. Miss Arnold on behalf of the pupils of the Plainfield Seminary, is to contribute small Christmas trees and holly and various gifts. The Woman's Auxiliary Board will give toys to the children and appropriate gifts to the patients. The decoration of the hospital with Christmas greens gives much pleasure and happiness at the holiday season.

"PEACE ON EARTH, GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN."

That was not merely a song. The "Gloria in Excelsis Dei" has seemingly not meant much more than a song, tho' the walls of famous churches the world over have echoed and re-echoed its strains for centuries. And we shall keep on singing it. Yet many will be constrained this year to sit in questioning silence, the thought of the awful lack of peace and good will among men thrusting itself into the foreground, despite angelic choirs. And yet, let us keep on singing. For that shall bring to us again the thought that there was born in the little town of Bethlehem, He, who was heralded before as "Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." Sing it, and let it bring to mind his message: "Blessed are the peace-makers, for they shall be called the children of God." Blessed indeed are they that do the things in times of peace that make for peace. Sing it, and remind all his followers who would draw the sword, that once he rebuked the too ardent spirit, saying: "Put up again thy sword into its place; for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword." Sing it, and remind men of His definition of Christianity: "My kingdom is not of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now is my kingdom NOT from hence."

This is not the song of the jingoists, and militarists. They sing:

We don't want to fight; but by jingo if we do,
We've got the ships, we've got the men,
We've got the money, too.

Militarism mocked the Christ. Militarism spat upon him. Militarism clad him in scoffing and crowned him with thorns. Militarism utterly misunderstood him, and therefore nailed him to the cross. Altho He had many times refused to be dragged into the camp of revolutionists, altho they knew that He had publicly advised men to "render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's" yet the Roman soldiery did him to death. And now mark His dying words: "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." These words will go down through the centuries as the answer to all peace-destroying death-providing militarists, who cry that only the sword can conquer men. This is the Christ we must make known to men. This is the world's model of pure, unadulterated altruism. Militarism is organized egoism. Christ is personified altruism. Egoism says: "Every man for himself; devil take the hindmost." Christian altruism says: If any man would follow me, let him deny himself daily." The horrors of war, the miles-long graves, the ghastly ruins of once peace-filled homes, the wan faces of husbandless wives, and sonless mothers and fatherless children, THESE are not representative of Christianity, no, NO! These have come because men WOULD NOT say NO! to SELF. If you say that present conditions in Europe prove Christianity a failure, you may be reminded that the world has not yet attained to Christianity. For Christianity is what Christ is! We must not merely judge EUROPE harshly, because of this awful war. For the elements for such a war exist potentially everywhere, where man has not learned to deny self!

When China proposed most seriously to rid herself of the opium vice, so-called Christian England smiled, sent her soldiers, took a fine slice of Chinese territory and compelled China to buy English opium. When so-called Christian America sends a missionary abroad, she sees to it that a cargo of rum shall nullify his work. If one American teaches Christianity and ten Americans sell rum whose fault is it if the heathen China man cannot discriminate?

The Christ is again facing opposite the nations at war who call themselves Christians, crying as he did when opposite Jerusalem at the end of his days of God-inspired evangelism: "O Jerusalem, O Jerusalem, how often would I have gathered thy children together even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings. AND YE WOULD NOT!" Churches had been planted in Germany as early as 200 A. D. and churches were planted in Britain fully as early, and if traditions be considered, much earlier. Yet today, he who will, may hear above the roar of guns in Flanders and Poland, above the noise of strife and the tumult of battle, again that same heart-broken cry of the Prince of Peace: "O Germany, Germany—O England, England! How often have I—but ye WOULD NOT!"

Fellow Americans, it is not a peculiar call that comes to us at this season in the ringing of Christmas bells and in the Christmas glorias. It is the SAME call, only louder, only in thundertones, and its meaning to us is: "Suppose ye that the Germans and Russians and Britains and French are sinners above all Americans? I tell you nay; but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." (Luke 13:1f).

It is OUR responsibility and OUR solemn obligation to give to the world a better type of Christianity than she HAS had; the pure type; Christ's kind, which in all consistency and sincerity and in all honor can say: "Peace on earth, Good will toward men."

LIVELY DEBATE AT HEARING

you rely on the Plainfield assessors to fix valuations?" "Do you try to assist the assessors?" were two of the questions put, and then William A. Coddington was asked whether he ever conferred with the Plainfield assessors. Mr. Herald objected to one question after another, as they were put by Mr. Kenney from a prepared list, and finally the attorney said that he thought that Mr. Kenney should be told to stop the line of questioning, as "it was very evident that he was trying to embarrass the County Tax Board."

Stating that under his rights as a taxpayer he thought that he should be given the information desired, Mr. Kenney took another tack, but was equally unsuccessful in breaking the sphinx-like silence of the members of the Board. He wanted to know at what figure similar land could be purchased in Elizabeth, which called forth a statement from Commissioner Lloyd Thompson that he thought that the only matter under consideration was the question of the valuation on the Kenney property only, and that the Board would be very glad to learn of any errors that might have been made by the assessors in the treatment of that property. Mr. Kenney then asked Mr. Collins whether he would correct an error by the Plainfield assessors, if they could be shown to have made one. This called for a retort from Commissioner Coddington, who said that "if Mr. Kenney is here to annoy us, I object to continuing the hearing. If he does not know how to present his appeal he should have some one here who does." He was told to confine himself to Plainfield.

The matter of certain assessments for factory property along the railroad on North avenue and South Second street was then brought up by Mr. Kenney. He showed where he thought there was discrimination on similar property in four other instances, all being assessed lower than his was. He told how he had inserted an advertisement in the Plainfield papers offering the property for fifteen dollars a foot, and insisted that the figures on his property were too high. He tried hard to bring into evidence the fact that in Elizabeth a piece of factory property which sold for over $45,000 recently, was only assessed at $24,700, and that if such conditions existed there, the Plainfield property owners were bing discriminated against.

Assessor Thomas J. Hughes told how the assessment was reached, and Matthew C. Stewart gave testimony, as an expert, as to how he valued the land in the neighborhood under question, saying that in his opinion it was worth perhaps thirty dollars a front foot. Mr. Kenney asked Mr. Stewart whether he had ever sold any similar property to that in question and he said no. He also said he did not have the Kenney property listed and did not know the prices paid for property Mr. Kenney had sold on the former Kenney tract.

After hearing all the evidence, the assessment was upheld.

The following reduction were granted:

Henry Johnson, 1117 Midway avenue; reduction of $175 on land.

George W. Cole, 1315 East Front street; reduction of $200 on land.

George W. Cole, 1249 East Front street; reduction of $1,275 on land.

Joseph Grendel, 775 Kensington avenue; reduction of $500 on personal property.

Anna Grendel, 775 Kensington avenue; reduction of $500 on barn and $200 on personal property.

P. J. Zeglio, 112 East Seventh street; reduction of $500 on building.

A GOOD LESSON

was taught last week by the Edison fire that every property owner should take to himself.

This fire substantiated the fact that a building of brick or concrete construction is not fire proof. It also showed that even great minds are short sighted in not protecting their investment with adequate insurance.

We can help you to overcome both obstacles by providing both "fire proof" and "sufficient" protection.

CONNORS FOUND GUILTY

is fifteen years in State Prison.

Assistant Union County Prosecutor Martin O'Connor conducted the State's case, which was based chiefly on finger-print evidence, backed up by personal identification. Former Assistant Union County Prosecutor Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., of Plainfield, acted as personal counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Ackerman.

The Ackerman robbery was committed on the night of January 3, 1914, and was the largest haul made in this city in eighteen years. Jewelry valued at more than $17,000 and several hundreds of dollars in cash were taken from a bureau drawer on the second floor of the home at 506 West Eighth street, while the family was at dinner. Leaving behind a small fortune in money and other valuables, the thieves made their getaway in a high-powered automobile. Michael Higgins, a local taxi-cab driver, being the only one who saw them fleeing. Police Chief Kiely was called into the case and set to work solving the mystery practically without a clue. When the thieves were making their getaway a check made out to Mrs. Ackerman by H. E. Weber for $25 on the Third National Bank, of Cumberland, was found at the intersection of Plainfield avenue and Fourth street, indicating that the burglars had either traveled westward, casting the check away as they went, or had made a detour of the city, to throw off pursuers.

Captain John Flynn and Sergeant Maurice Higgins were detailed to the case and the former discovered finger-prints on the porch post which the thief had evidently scaled. Chief Kiely had these photographed by Michael Evans, of the Chicago Bureau of Identification, and they tallied exactly with those of Charles Connors, better known to the police of western cities as "Ice-Wagon." Information gleaned from David Angerbauer, a bartender in the Kensington Hotel, on North avenue, substantiated the contention that Conhors was in Plainfield several days before the robbery was committed and Angerbauer maintained that he could identify the criminal. It was afterwards learned that Connors, who was commonly accepted as the thief, had two accomplices and they were also indicted by the Union County Grand Jury, but are still at large. It was afterwards learned that Connors and his confederates were negotiating with a tourist agency for a trip around the world at that time, but that there was a hitch in their plans and the prospective travelers again visited the agency's office saying that they would make arrangements elsewhere.

While Chief Kiely was making a country-wide search for his man, inquiry at the office of the New York casualty company, which carried insurance on the valuables, brought forth the information that part of the loot had been recovered. George Johnson, who handled the case for the concern, said that after advertising a $5,000 reward for the return of the jewelry an emissary of the crooks came to the New York office and turned over a portion of the loot for which he was rewarded. Johnson says that no promise of immunity was made to the man and that he departed without leaving any clue that would aid in identifying him.

Connors was apprehended in Chicago and Chief Kiely and Assistant Prosecutor Martin O'Connor went to the "Windy City" for the man indicted by the Union County Grand Jury. He put up a stiff fight against extradition but was finally turned over to the chief, who brought him directly to Plainfield. After some preliminary proceedings were attended to here he was committed to the county jail in Elizabeth, where he has since been confined. During his incarceration he has lived like a lord and his keep has not cost the county a single penny. All of his meals were brought in from an outside restaurant and he had his own barber three times a week.

Connors is about thirty-five years of age and hails from Chicago. Although he is said to be a noted criminal, he has served only one short term in Joliet Penitentiary during his career as a "porch-climber." He was arrested in London three years ago and although he escaped conviction he was forced to leave England. Connors was apprehended on December 13, 1913, in Westchester county, with three other men as they were about to commit a burglary by scaling a porch. They were discovered in the act by a chauffeur who gave the alarm and after shots were exchanged they were all captured. Somehow Connors induced the authorities to release him on a bond of $250 on his promise to return the "swag" stolen from another house at Irvington-on-the-Hudson. Cash bond was given and Connors, after his release, sent an emissary to the police with a message stating that all negotiations were off unless his confederates were released on a nominal bond of $250. The other two were held and are still in jail.

It has been stated that rewards aggregating $15,000 have been offered by the casualty company and Mr. Ackerman for the arrest and conviction of the thief, but such is not the case. The remuneration does not amount to ten per cent. of that sum and to date the Plainfield authorities have not received a single cent in return for their capture, although it has been alleged that certain police officials anticipate a share of the melon when it is cut.

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

Scattered Sport Gleanings

Taking the "minor league" basketball talent that is being developed in the "bushers" of the various high school classes these days as a criterion one might expect that Plainfield will some day have its little quintet holding down an average berth on the major circuit. Seldom does an afternoon pass but what a couple of these infant squads get together in a friendly tilt on either the local or boro high school courts.

Newark police basketeers are advertising in the sport chronicles around these parts for opponents. Why not muster together a little enthusiasm in the local department and go after these Newarkers who are all primed up to squelch anything that comes in their direction?

At last we've got something started in that Elks-Park Club bowling series. Last year's engagement developed into an interesting affair and even more spice promises to be forthcoming from the 1914 fracas.

Coach Jack Fritts will introduce his indoor performers to the public in an athletic festival with the Bank Clerks on the P. H. S. gym floor tonight. Inasmuch as the coin distributors are the feature attraction for the initial tilt no admission will be charged.

Rattling the skeleton again—How about that public school athletic league someone was going to organize around this village a couple of weeks ago?

Feminine basketball appears to have reached its zenith of popularity in Plainfield this season. There are more aggregations of the fair sex assaulting the basketball here at the present time than there have been since the sport was first introduced.

Next Wednesday is set down for the opening Interscholastic League engagement. The dopester's forecasts are likely to be set adrift when the real playing season is sent under way. Keep an eye pealed for some surprises on the schoolboy circuit this year.

Captain Brynairski's retirement from Y. M. C. A. basketball activities comes as a sad blow to both the team and the spectators who have supported the aggregation. "Al" is one of the most popular performers playing the game hereabouts and his absence will be keenly felt.

Another familiar basketball elite who is missed on local courts this year is Billy Coyle. Billy, by the way, is rapidly recovering from his football injury and will probably make a visit downtown during the next couple of weeks

How about that financial report of the Holy Cross football season that "Doc" Doyle was going to issue some time ago?

The old sage who declared that bowling was a parlor sport ought to take a day off and give this town the once over just now. Men of all ages and in every walk of life are splitting wood on the numerous local drives this winter and each night brings out some new phenom to be added to the list of luminaries.

It takes the feminine quintets to keep Plainfield on the map in the southern part of the State. The Y. W. C. A. team is planning a venture to take in Trenton in the near future and will then emerge over the boundary line into Easton, Pa.

Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. basketeers, who cherish the record of never having tasted victory in the local Y. M. C. A., will invade the local Association quintet's territory tonight in an effort to shatter this repuation. Some collegians who have returned to Betsytown to welcome the coming of Santa Claus are due to appear in the visitors' lineup and the Plainfielders will no doubt have their work cut out for them this trip.

We've heard of visiting teams being tardy for basketball contests on the North Plainfield High School court, but yesterday was the first instance in which we have noted a home squad coming on the floor one hour late. Kearney High School representatives garnered rather a poor idea of the way they do things in the borough.

The Daily Press basketball schedules for the Plainfield High School boys' team made their appearance Thursday. Have you been supplied.

P. H. S. FOOTBALL MANAGER.

The Boys' Athletic Association of the Plainfield High School held a meeting yesterday afternoon and elected Roscoe Blanchard, of the sophomore class, manager of the football team for next season.

Y. M. C. A. VS. ELIZABETH.

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team will play the Elizabeth association team on the local court tonight at 8:15. The team from down the road has been playing a good game so far this year and will undoubtedly give the locals a hard rub for the decision. Brynarski will be out of the game for the first time this season, but there is hopes of the former leader coming back to the team after his knee gets better. A captain will be elected before the game.

ROSENSON STARS IN P. H. S. COURT WIN

Little Forward Shoots Eight Field Goals Against Academy Five.

The boys' basketball team of the Plainfield High School won a game from Randolph Military Academy, yesterday afternoon, on the local court, by the score of 34 to 27. The game was hard and fast throughout, although the local team had it on its opponents in team work, many goals being lost by poor judgment.

Randolph had a star man in Captain Hebard, who made some beautiful shots from seemingly impossible angles. During the game he caged seven baskets, but "Benny" Rosenson, o fthe locals, did him one better by dropping in eight pretty goals The half ended at 16 to 13 in Plainfield's favor.

Randolph continued scoring, and soon after the beginning of the second half a basket by Webster gave Randolph the lead by the score of 20 to 19.

Two local boys played the guard positions on the Randolph team. "Dave" Fitch and "Johnny" Cottrell were both members of the High School last year, Cottrell graduating with last year's class.

MARTIN AND BACON SKATING CHAMPIONS

Won Twenty-four Hour Grind in Madison Square Garden.

Freddy Martin, of Milwaukee, teamed up with Frank Bacon, of Detroit, were the winners of the twenty-our-hour team roller skating championship which was concluded last night in Madison Square Garden, New York. Fve thousand persons witnessed the final sprint for titular honors in which three teams were represented. The contenders were Arthur Launey and Arthur Eglington, the latter the only Englishman in the race. Each of these teams rolled up 293 miles and 3 laps in the round of the clock, which constitutes a new record. Martin is also the twenty-four-hour individual champion.

According to the condition which required the teams tied for first to sprint one mile for the championship title the men elected to do the racing for their teams were Arthur Eglington, Freddie Martin and Arthur Launey. For fourth place Billy Yale and John Clark made bids. All were called from the track and preparations made by Dick Rudolph, of the Boston Braves, to send them on their journey, a flying start being the style. A snail-like pace was the system pursued by the trio, who did everything but skate backward for six laps, so fearful was each of setting the pace.

At this stage Martin jumped to the front and stalled off every effort of Launey, who was eventually beaten a yard, being unable to get by from the last turn home.

LEALS PLAY COLUMBIA FIVE AT Y. M. C. A. NEXT MONDAY

After suffering defeat at the hands of the Westfield High School five, Leals will take on its first metropolitan school opponent Monday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A., when the Columbia Grammar School team, of New York, is booked to appear.

This team has always been a strong opponent of the local aggregation and on previous occasions a good game has always resulted.

This contest will put the private school players in the best of shape for the first interscholastc contest with North Plainfield High School next Wednesday, barring all accidents.

TWO POINT VICTORY FOR P. H. S. ATHLETES

Jack Fritts' Charges Took the Bank Clerks Into Camp Last Night.

The first dual meet of the Plainfield High School track team was held in the High School gym last night, against the bank clerks. Every event was so closely contested that the winner was not decided until the last event. The points then totalled up: Plainfield High School, 28; Bank Clerks, 26.

Four first places were captured by the Bank Clerks and two by the High School boys. Walier and Marsten were tied for the individual high score with two first places and one second place each, for a total of thirteen points. Runyon was third with two first places and two thirds, for a total of twelve points. The results of the events were as follow:

20-yard sprint—First, Waller; second, Beekman; third, Mills. Time 2 3-5 seconds.

Running high jump—First, Runyon, 5 ft. 3 in.; second, Marston, 5 ft. 1 in.; third, Mills and Daniels, 5 ft.

Running broad jump—First, Runyon, 18 ft. 10 in.; second, Waller, 17 ft.; third, Daniels, 16 ft. 9½ in.

Shot put—First, Waller, 34 ft. 7½ in.; second, Berrien, 33 ft. 10½ in.; third, Chamberlain, 33 ft.

Standing broad jump—First, Marston, 9 ft. 3 in.; second, Trowbridge, 9 ft. 1 in.; third, Runyon, 8 fet. 9 in.

Standing hop, step and jump—First, Marston, 24 ft. 4 in.; second, Daniels, 24 ft. 3½ in.; third, Runyon, 23 ft. 11 in.

Doves	2	4	.333	885
Crows	3	6	.333	953
Quail	1	5	.167	818

The Parrots were ousted from first place in the Columbus Club five man tournament last night, when they were handed a triple defeat by the Robins, who now occupy the top rung with seven victories and a pair of defeats. All of the games were won by large scores, the nearest the Parrots came to their opponents' score was 66 points in the first game, when the scores were 846 to 780.

Both teams fell down in the last game and Sullivan's 224 put his team score above their opponents. Sullivan had an average for the match of 202.2, turning in scores of 170, 214 and 224. Monday night the Sparrows and Doves will roll and on Wednesday the Quail and Hawks.

THAD DOANE, JR., DISCOVERS FIRE ON FERRYBOAT

Fire yesterday afternoon caused considerable damage to one of the pilot houses on the Central Railroad ferryboat Wilkesbarre, as she was making the 3:40 trip from the New York side. A large number of Plainfielders were on the boat. Thad Doane, Jr., was in the upper cabin when he discovered smoke blowing in through cracks in the ceiling. He notified an attache, who immediately put a line of hose on the blaze. The boat was rushed into her slip, and the passengers all landed in safety, while the crew fought the fire. None of the latter were injured.

TAYLOR AGAIN TOPS ELKS' SENIOR LEAGUE

Paterson Pinner Regains Lost Laurels and Has An Average of 196.

Paterson Elks in the Senior Bowling League still have a hold on first place in both the team and the individual standings, issued this week. The team suffered a blow this week by losing a series, but still has a firm grip on the top rung. Taylor, of Paterson, heads the individual standings with an average of 196, with Mahlenbrock, of Jersey City, second, his average being 195.6.

Although Laing, of the local team, has anaverage of 186.1, he has only taken part in four games and Captain V. W. Nash, Jr., is really leading Plainfield with a mark of 179.15. The standings follow:

Daddy's Bedtime Story— The First New England Christmas.

What Do They Do In England?

"THE 25th of December, 1620, was a very cold, bitter day. Anchored at Plymouth rock, the good ship Mayflower held 202 persons who had no other home." Daddy was telling Jack and Evelyn the evening story, and they were all sitting on the broad divan before the flaming log fire.

"The men of the Mayflower had gone ashore to cut down logs. With these logs the pilgrims meant to build log cabins.

"The women of the Mayflower also were busy this gray December day. In a corner of the deck a bright fire was burning, for when it wasn't raining or snowing the pilgrims cooked on deck. The fire was built on a large hearth covered with sand, and over this fire a big soup pot hung on the crane, and in the pot simmered a delicious onion soup.

"Near the fire sat a little girl playing and singing to herself. This little girl was Remember Allerton, who was only six years old, and she was playing with some Indian arrowheads her father had brought her the night before.

"Hannah, Mistress Carver's maid, was tending the fire and watching the soup to see that it did not burn.

"'Ah, me, she sighed; 'this is not a very merry Christmas!'

"'What is a merry Christmas, Hannah?' piped up the little maid.

"'Ah, 'tis true, thou dost not know! Christmas, Remember, is the birthday of the Christ Child, of Jesus, whom thou hast learned to love.

"'But, Hannah, why don't we make a merry Christmas of his birthday when we love him?'

"'Tusooth, dear little one, there are many reasons; but they make a long, long story, and Hannah has not a clever tongue to tell them so a little maid will understand. Thou must ask Mistress Brewster or Mistress Standish.

"So little Remember ran down the stairs into the cabin and up to Mistress Standish, who was knitting. 'Tell me about Christmas!' she cried.

"'Ah, little one, I thought to spare you the story until you grew older, but you may as well hear it now. The reason we are here in this cold, bleak America is because an English king thought that every one in England should think as he thought and go to a church like his. Some of us did not believe as he did, but he said he would send us away if we did not do as he ordered.

"'We went away to Holland before he had an opportunity to send us away, but we were not wholly happy with the good Dutch people.

"'So we came over to America. But the reason why we do not observe Christmas day is because we do not approve of part of the service which is given in the English church, and so we determined not to follow any of the other customs which the king and his followers observe upon that day.'"

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

"When I think of the simple life I lived as a child, I am appalled at the lavish expenditure of money by and for children in these days," said Mrs. Sloan, putting the glasses in the dishpan.

"No; you sit right here and talk. You needn't wipe these dishes. Well, if you insist, here is a clean towel for the glasses. I can remember my mother paid me three cents for washing up the kitchen oilcloth and two cents a shelf for changing the papers in the pantry. I earned every cent I spent, and I had a little book in which I kept track of all my earnings and spendings. I came across it the other day. I would not take anything for it," and Mrs. Sloan poured hot water into the rinsing pan.

"My husband has original ideas on the subject of children's allowances," said Mrs. White, as she polished the glasses. "He began with Lew when he was six years old. He gave him a tiny pocketbook with ten pennies in it. He explained carefully to the boy that men must always have money on hand for an emergency; that they must never let their pocketbooks get empty. 'Now,' he said, 'this is your money to spend as you choose, but you must not spend all of it before I give you more. That will be four weeks from today. If your pocketbook is empty, I will not give you any money next month.'"

"That certainly is an original idea. How did it work out?" asked Mrs. Sloan.

"The first month Lew hardly spent a cent, he was so afraid his pocketbook would get empty," laughed her friend. "But after that he spent more freely, and several times the money was all gone and he got no pennies and was heartbroken; but on the whole he has done pretty well. It is no uncommon thing for his father to say suddenly, 'Lew, give me your pocketbook.' If there is money in it, no matter how little, he will say, 'All right, my boy. I am glad money doesn't burn a hole in your pocket.' If it is empty he is much displeased and says, 'What if something should happen and you wanted money very much? What would you do? A man's helpless if he has nothing to fall back on!'

"The boy has not lost a month's allowance for over a year now. He was promoted to a quarter a month on his tenth birthday.

"Where do you put your silverware?" asked Mrs. White.

"Just leave it on the table. I will put it away when I finish here," answered Mrs. Sloan. "Now, Lew will have learned to spend money carefully by the time he is grown," she continued, "and I think that is fully as important as learning to earn it. In fact, that is where most people fall down. I am putting Helen on an allowance for her clothes. She is fifteen, and I mean to have her educated to live within an income before she is married, if she ever is, and if she is a bread-winner, she surely will need to know how to make ends meet. I go with her, of course, to help her buy her clothes now, but I hope in a year or so she will have made progress enough to assume that responsibility. She is immensely pleased over the idea. It is marvelous the difference it makes in one's feelings, to have some money in one's purse," laughed Mrs. Sloan.

"No; that is all. Thank you ever so much. When I get these dishes put away we will go out on the porch with our sewing."

"Has Helen no restrictions on her allowance?" asked Mrs. White.

"Nothing, except that she cannot go in debt," and Mrs. Sloan carried a tray of dishes to the china cupboard.

ANTI-SUFFRAGE

Conducted by Plainfield Branch New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage.

Women are occasionally accused of being illogical. How can any one controvert Dr. Shaw's argument for equal suffrage?

Government exists by the consent of the governed.

Fully two-thirds of the women of the United States do not consent to the demand for woman suffrage.

Therefore woman suffrage should be forced on those who do not want it. That is true Shaw logic.

The following extracts (want of space forbids giving the entire article) form enlightening review of Mrs. Pankhurst's account of Militancy.

The reader who proposes to take her argument seriously is likely to be exasperated by the constant evidence of a feline sophistry; to begin with, of course, the common feministic sophism, implied in the "emancipation" of women, in which she likens the present situation of women to that of the negroes before the war, and herself to Wendell Phillips. But her whole argument is characterized by a quiet ignoring of obvious considerations and by a cat-like agility in shifting ground. The main object of the book is to show that Militant methods have simply followed the accepted traditions of British politics, with the implication that they are now resented because they are employed by women. Thus it is time-honored custom to break up political meetings and embarrass the speakers by putting questions. Here she fails to note that it is also a time-honored custom, when the questioners cease to be amusing, to throw them out; and that it is no part of the accepted tradition to claim the privilege of "chivalry." In defence of the policy of "obstruction" she points to Mr. Parnell and his followers, who doubtless never expected to escape punishment for breaking the rules of the game. Of course, the "woman's revolution" and the assertion of the right to be treated as "political prisoners" are simply begging the question.

Says Ellen Key: "The English women have set out from the wrong notion that, because men, driven to political despair, have committed deeds of violence, women also should in cold blood conceive and organize similar outrages." Here we have a clear distinction which Mrs. Pankhurst has apparently never cared to consider. All that she thinks necessary for the justification of violence is (when she conveniently can) to find a precedent. Her justificattion of arson is very simple: had not arson proved a potent argument in 1832? She passes easily over the statement of Mr. C. E. H. Hobhouse that "in the case of the suffrage demand there has not been the kind of popular sentimental uprising which accounted for Nottingham Castle in 1832 or the Hyde Park railing in 1867. There has not been a great ebullition of popular feeling."

This is the point, the decisive point, which Mrs. Pankhurst keeps dexterously dork throughout her "story," and especially in her attempts to convict Mr. Herbert Gladstone of shuffling inconsistency and Mr. Asquith of treachery. No extraordinary powers of intuition are needed to see that when Mr. Gladstone advised the Suffragists to create a force majeure, what he meant was a force, not of disorder, but of imperative popular sentiment; and it was as impudent to hold him responsible for the summons of Suffragists to "rush the House of Commons" as to pretend (as seemed at first convenient) that the summons contemplated no disorder.

The truth is, however, that for moral justification of Militant methods, by appeal to tradition or otherwise, Mrs. Pankhurst cares little or nothing. For her the only argument of importance is expediency. Here is her explanation of the policy of burning houses and destroying letters:

"Now our task was to show the Government that it was expedient to yield to the women's just demands. In order to do that we had to make England and every department of English life insecure and unsafe. We had to make English law a failure, and the courts farce-comedy theatres; we had to discredit the Government and Parliament in the eyes of the world; we had to spoil English sports, hurt business, destroy valuable property, demoralize the world of society, shame the churches, upset the whole orderly conduct of life—"

In other words, the justification is "Militant necessity." In this bland statement Mrs. Pankhurst completes a contemporary trio of distinguished moral obtusities, taking her place beside the German foreign secretary who politely pointed to "military necessity" as a sufficient explanation of the violation of Belgian neutrality, and the ex-President of the United States who said, "I took it."

In her foreword Mrs. Pankhurst tells us of the "noble," "generous" and "patriotic" conduct of the Militants in laying down arms when war broke out with Germany, and she wonders that the Government, "mindful of their unselfish devotion," has failed to come forward with the proper reward. To take Mrs. Pankhurst seriously at this point would be an insult to her understanding. A tithe of her shrewdness was sufficient to foresee that, when Englishmen were being killed and maimed by the thousand on the field of battle, the fate of a few women who chose wilfully to starve themselves to death would pass unnoticed, and they could quietly be allowed ot starve. When war broke out the Militant game was over.

Nor was this all. The traditional Philistine argument against suffrage has always been that the responsibility of voting belongs to those who can back it by bearing arms. During the long period of peace the argument had grown rather thin. But the present cataclysm is sufficient to revive it in full vigor. Let the argument be good or bad, it serves to remind us that woman suffrage belongs to an advanced civilization, and presupposes a state of things in which the argument of force is ready to yield to the argument of right and reason. This is something for Suffragists to remember. Mrs. Pankhurst to the contrary, women can accomplish nothing by force; all that the Militant "warriors" have done has been to take advantage of masculine notions of chivalry. If suffrage is finally to win, it can only be through the appeal to reason, justice and fair play. And this means that Suffragists must not merely play the political game that men are playing, they must play a better game. If the tactics of Mrs. Pankhurst and her Militants have been copied from any part of the man-made world, it has been the lowest part. That they might have succeeded; we are not now in positon to deny; there can be little doubt that they have served to discredit the cause of suffrage in the eyes of many thoughtful men and women.—N. Y. Evening Post, December 12, 1914.

PROGRESS AND PROSPERITY IN PLAINFIELD

MONTHS' BUILDING AGGREGATES $22,090

Five Permits Issued by Inspector T. O. Doane This Week.

Five permits issued this week by Inspector T. O. Doane is the total of new building operations for this city developing during the course of the past week. These permits call for the erection of two dwellings, two garages, and one covers alterations to a dwelling. The total cost is $8,740. This amount brings the total for the month to date up to $22,090.

Comparing figures from this city with similar returns from other cities as contained in trade journals, it is to be concluded that Plainfield is securing her share of construction work, if proportions are to be considered. The writer, on a recent visit to Charleston, S. C., found that that city, with a population twice the size of Plainfield and North Plainfield put together, granted construction permits to the extent of $8,000, while in this city permits were issued to the extent of over $29,000. Other similar instances might be quoted.

The permits as granted this week are as noted below:

First Ward.

B. Diana is to construct a two and a half story, two family frame dwelling at 746 St. Mary's avenue, the estimated cost of which has been placed at $1,740. The building will have a frontage of nineteen feet, with twenty-three feet in the rear, and a depth of thirty-one feet.

W. M. Kates, of 341 Leland avenue, is to have a two story extension to his dwelling at the above address. The addition will be 12x18 feet, of hemlock framing, concrete foundation and slate roof. W. H. Clum is the architect, while both the masonry and carpentry contracts have been awarded to Peter Dickerson.

Second Word.

C. E. Loizeaux is to erect a one-story frame garage at 812 Dixie lane at a cost of $100.

B. F. Haley has been granted a permit for the erection of a 12x18 foot cement hollow block garage at 318 Franklin place. The foundation will be of concrete, and the roof of asbestos. The cost has been placed at $100.

Third Ward.

Clifford D. Manning and Clarence Brouard are to erect a two and a half story dwelling on Sheridan avenue, east of Grant avenue. The structure will have a frontage of thirty-eight feet, and a depth of twenty-four feet. The cost is estimated at $6,000. The base course will be of concrete, with a brick foundation, and a shingled roof. A modern steam heating system is to be installed. The architecture of the dwelling will be modern in every detail and will be in keeping with other structures on this tract of residential property. W. H. Clum is the architect, W. Townley & Brother, of the borough, the mason contractors, and J. Newton Apgar, of Dunellen, the carpenter contractor.

TEN PLANS APPROVED FOR TENEMENT HOUSES

Tenement and apartment houses still remain the feature of building activities throughout the State, according to the reports of the approval of plans made by the State Board of Tenement House Supervision made for the week ending last Saturday. During that period ten plans were approved, calling for the expenditure of $121,600.

The number of permits for the preceding week was the same, although the value amounted to but $83,000. Three of the permits issued last week were for alterations, the estimated cost of which has been placed at $7,600. Union county was without any permits, while Middlesex county drew one for alterations.

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES IN COUNTY ARE QUIET

Construction activities throughout the county remain quiet, with very little change in the conditions which have been existing for several weeks past. During the two weeks ending last Saturday, twenty-three contracts were filed with the county clerk at Elizabeth, calling for the expenditure of $42,236.

All parts of the county are effected alike in the off season dullness, with no part having any great amount of work. Local contracts are as noted below:

Joseph Osgood, Jr., with M. Thompson, entire work new building, Jackson avenue, Plainfield $2,460

Archibald R. Plasock with Bloom Construction Company, plumbing work two new buildings, West Fourth street, Plainfield $950

JUST NOTES

From present indications, the First ward will come out ahead of the Fourth for the number of dwellings for which permits have been issued by Inspector Doane during the present year. Both wards have kept an even pace during the past twelve months for this style of new buildings. Another fat year of prosperity in local shops would undoubtedly increase the number of dwellings in both wards.

While the borough has not enjoyed an over prosperous year in construction lines, another year with the joint sewerage and collecting systems underway, will probably shift a fair portion of building activities across Green brook.

Plainfield is blessed with a number of thriving suburbs, where contractors have not been afraid to build dwellings in their respective towns for investment purposes. This fact has had a tendency to relieve the local building situation to some degree. Would that the same spirit and faith in the community and its possibilities prevailed in Plainfield to a greater degree.

Dunellen will also have its share of increased construction work next year, owing to its part in the joint sewer work. While a number of dwellings and business buildings have been erected there during the course of the past season, the presence of an adequate sewerage system, thus doing away with the necessity of cesspools, will add to the attractiveness of the hustling little burg.

South Plainfield and Fanwood ownship have more than held their own in construction lines this year, considering the tightness of the money market.

Although the past year has been an off season in money circles, it is to be noticed that a number of the stores about town which were vacant last spring are now occupied. Further movements along this line, and our business section will start to expand.

Seventy-seven dwellings, aside from various apartments, have thus far been covered by permits this year. Not so bad for an off year.

From now until the first of March, very little change will be noted in the local building arena, the elements during that period of time generally being considered as being unfavorable for starting new work.

The painting and alterations to the Depew building at Park and North avenues were practically completed during the past week.

The Bonnie Burn Sanatorium, near Scotch Plains, is being equipped with improved lamps with the idea of giving more light and less expense.

Armstrong Mulford, the North avenue real estate agent, closed a deal yesterday, in which he sold his house at 206 Netherwood avenue, at present tenanted by Frank A. Cooper, to Thomas J. Kenney and wife, of Brooklyn.

LEHIGH VALLEY WILL BUILD NEW STATION

Cranford, Dec. 19.—The Lehigh Valley Railroad is to erect a new station at South Cranford. The new station will be built on the site of the present small structure in Centennial avenue. The agent now located at Aldene will be transferred here, and the Cranford station will care for the freight business in Cranford and Aldene. The Aldene business will be looked after by an assistant to the local agent.

The Lehigh has at present ten commuters from Cranford, and could easily have sixty if there were more trains. At present there are only two trains to New York in the morning.

In the past few years this section of Cranford has experienced considerable growth. Six new houses on the Sheehen property were recently completed.

TWENTY CITIES SHOW A MARKED IMPROVEMENT

Permits taken out for new building during November, according to figures received by Dun's Review from seventy-eight of the largest cities in the United States, indicate general contraction as compared with a year ago. The falling off at New York city was very pronounced, all boroughs except the Bronx and Queens reporting smaller totals than last year. The permits for new projects at the seventy-seven cities outside of New York also make an unfavorable exhibit.

Of the cities making a report, twenty show a gain over the same month of a year ago, although their is not a sufficient gain at these points to offset the losses at the other points. The net decrease is placed at 26.2 per cent. Two New Jersey cities are included in the report, both Newark and Trenton showing decreases.

IN THE SUBURBS

Fanwood Borough.

Although building operations in Fanwood have about stopped for the year more land is being bought in various parts of the borough for building in the spring than ever before. H. C. Lockwood & Co. have disposed of the majority of lots along South and LaGrande avenues and are contemplating cutting several streets between the two avenues. Work is being finished on the houses of John Reed, on Hunter avenue, William Betts, on LaGrande avenue, and a dwelling owned by a New York party on North avenue.

The finishing touches have been put on the houses and grounds of James Minnegeck, on Midway avenue, making it one of the show places of the borough. The MacGuire house, on Forest road, has also just been completed.

REALTY TRANSFERS

The following transfers from the surrounding towns have been recorded at the Middlesex county seat at New Brunswick recently:

William R. Way and others sold to Ralph Bullman, two lots, Piscataway township, near Plainfield.

Frederick W. Shipman bought of George E. Loeffler Land and Improvement Co., two lots, Park Avenue Estates, Piscataway township.

Ellen Hickey has transferred to Metuchen Realty and Improvement Co., three tracts in Metuchen.

Metuchen Realty and Improvement Co. has transferred to John Englereth, a plot in Metuchen Estates.

Merchants and Traders Realty Co. has transferred to Carmine Valicenti, a number of little farms in South Plainfield Estates, Piscataway township.

James Henry Bunn has transferred to W. M. Ostrander, house and two lots in Lincoln.

Household Hints

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS.

Two very cute and novel Christmas presents are the yarn dolls and the Dinah Doorstep.

To make the yarn dolls requires one skein of white yarn, about two yards of colored baby ribbon and a white ivory ring.

Cut the yarn into two 12-inch pieces. Fasten both in the middle, double and tie about one inch from top with the ribbon. This forms the head. Make eyes, nose and mouth with red thread. Tie again with ribbon three inches from top.

For the arms, take a smaller strand of yarn of the desired length and tie one-half inch from the ends, then slip through the body. A small crocheted bonnet of the same color to match the rest completes the doll girl. For the boy, follow the same directions and divide the bottom of the body into two equal parts, tying each one-half inch from the ends. A small round cap is put on his head. The ends of one-half yard of the ribbon are sewed to the tops of the bonnet and cap to join them with the ring tied in the middle by which they are hung up.

To make the Dinah, fill a round, narrow-necked bottle with sand and cork tightly. For the head take a round piece of black cloth, stuff with cotton and tie onto the top of bottle. Make eyes and nose with white thread and the mouth with red. Fold a square of red cloth cornerwise and tie it around the head for her dusting cap. Cover bottle with flannel. Make arms of black cloth the shape of a glove finger, stuff with cotton and sew onto the flannel. Dress her with a dark blue gingham dress and a white apron. Dinah, besides being comical, will hold your door open, as her last name implies.

CANDIES, ETC.

Peanut Butter Fudge—Two cups confectionery sugar, one-half cup sweet milk, two heaping tablespoons peanut butter; boil five minutes exactly; remove from fire and stir.

Candied Nuts—Put one pound of ripe shelled nuts and one pound sugar into a stewpan with half a pint of water. Boil over moderate fire until nuts show signs of cracking, drain them and leave them on the rack until perfectly dry. Then shake all the sugar from them through a wire sieve; put this back into the pan with some of the coloring which comes in an envelope in every package of plain gelatin; this color gives it a pretty pink. Boil it up, put the nuts in the sirup and keep stirring over the fire until they are dry and crystallized.

Pineapple Marshmallow is delicious and decidedly different from the ordinary candies. Soak four ounces gumarabic in one cup pineapple juice until dissolved; then strain through cheesecloth. Put into saucepan with half pound best powdered sugar and place saucepan in pan of hot water on stove. Stir mixture until it becomes thick and white. Drop a little into cold water, and if it becomes a firm ball remove from fire and whip into it the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs. Flavor with a teaspoonful of vanilla. Dust a square pan with cornstarch and pour in the mxtiure, which should be an inch thick. Let it stand in a cold place for 12 hours, then cut into inch squares and roll in powdered sugar and cornstarch.

THE TABLE.

Potato Pancakes—Wash, peel and grate together seven or eight large potatoes and one medium-sized onion; add one egg, one scant half cup flour, salt to taste and just a little milk to make nice and brown. Mix all together and fry same as any other pancake. Serve hot.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.

THE Household Loan Company, a local corporation, licensed, bonded and supervised by the Banking Dept. of the State of New Jersey, now offers a limited amount of its preferred stock to the public. Its par value is $10 per share, and may be purchased by people of small or large means, desiring to help the deserving. Six per cent. interest is guaranteed, and all loans are amply secured by chattel mortgage. The number of worthy people desiring loans is very large, and we are not able to serve them all. It is planned, therefore, to extend our work by taking the investing and interested public into partnership with us. We thus hope to be the medium of bringing supply and demand together to their mutual advantage. We invite careful investigation. A statement with our little green book will be sent anyone on request. Magazine writers are busy at this season of the year exploiting the "Christmas Spirit."

Despite their worthy efforts thousands of their readers will miss the point.

The real "Christmas Spirit" represents something above a perfunctory exchange of sometimes unwelcome and more often useless gifts.

It means friendship and affection, some sacrifice if necessary, and a remembrance of more than transient worth.

The married man who gives his wife the protection of life insurance may count himself in full harmony with the "Spirit of Christmas."

The 1915 Christmas Club

will open on Monday, December 28th, 1914, and will run for fifty weeks. Members may be enrolled between December 28th, 1914, and January 9th, 1915.

There will be FOUR CLASSES IN THE NEW CLUB as follows:

CLASS 5. Payments start at 5c and increase 5c each week. Total $63.75 with interest.
CLASS 5-A. Payments start at $2.50 and decrease 5c each week. Total $63.75 with interest.
CLASS 100. Even payments of $1.00 made each week. Total $50.00 with interest.
CLASS 500. Even payments of $5.00 made each week. Total $250.00 with interest.

Class 500 is the new feature of the 1915 Club and it is expected that it will be very popular with those who are saving for definite objects.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Plainfield Trust Company has been requested by some of its customers to close the fund earlier next year and while the Club is a copyrighted scheme and supplies are made up in bulk for some two hundred and fifty banks throughout the country on the basis of the fifty-week Club, the Company is working out a plan whereby it hopes to be able to distribute checks a week earlier next year. It has always been the policy of the Company to co-operate with every good work in the community and it desires to meet the wishes of its customers whenever it is possible to do so.

Superb Christmas Perfumes

There's not a person—old or young, of either sex—who does not like a fragrant natural flower perfume. We have just received from our labratory in Boston—owned by nearly 5,000 Rexall stores—a large assortment of popular odors and combinations, some in plain bottles, some in rich cut glass, and package goods in a hundred unique ideas, expressly for gift giving at prices that will interest you. Here are the brands:

Harmony Intense Perfumes, Violet Dulce, Bouquet Jeanice.

No matter what odor or brand you select from, you can never mistake the real odor of the flower. All the freshness and sweetness of bloom is there.

As a Christmas gift for particular women, if you want a perfume with an individuality, you make no mistake in presenting her with any of the above named brands.

The Rexall guarantee stands back of them.

SERVICE

A 4% SAVING PLAN

The opportunity is presented to the people of Plainfield to acquire the "habit" of systematic saving. We have been a nation of spenders, but there is ample evidence that people are now seriously considering the matter of laying aside a portion of their income regularly, and no better method for saving in a systematic way can be found than that offered by our four per cent. saving bond plan, which we heartily commend to anyone having a regular fixed income as a method by which he may lay aside automatically a regular amount monthly, to be used when the unexpected happens or for some particular purpose.

Many objects for such saving readily suggest themselves—a fund for the higher education of son or daughter; a capital fund with which to take advantage of investment opportunities; a fund to start a son in business; money to pay off a possible mortgage on the home; money to defray the expenses of some long anticipated trip; and last, but not least, a fund to provide against the exigencies of misfortune that may some day overtake you. Any of these objects should be sufficient to stimulate a desire to make a beginning, and a beginning once made will be easy to continue.

The operation of the plan is as follows: An Installment Bond in denomination of from $40 to $1,000 is purchased, the first payment being from $1 to $25. A similar payment is made monthly, and at the end of 38 months, all that has been paid in may be withdrawn, together with 4% interest. In the meantime, if necessity requires it, 80% of the paid-in value may be borrowed, OR payments may be discontinued and the amount paid in withdrawn at any time. Begin now while the suggestion is before you. Save to save and not to spend.

ANNIVERSARY FOR COLLEGE SISTERS

Six Celebrate Twenty-five Years of Work in Order of Mercy.

IMPRESSIVE PROGRAM

All Have Been Identified With Mt. St. Mary College Where the Event Was Commemorated—Purse From the Alumnae Association.

Friends and students and members of the alumnae of Mt. St. Mary College, numbering over 500, attended an impresive gathering in the collegiate auditorium yesterday afternoon, when the twenty-fifth anniversary of the profession in the Order of Mercy of Reverened Mother Cecelia, Mother M. Catherine, Sisters M. Teresa, M. Zita, M. Winifred and M. Reginia were celebrated. Inspiring exercises participated in by the college students were conducted and Mrs. George N. J. Sommer, president of the Alumnae Association, made the presentation of the association's silver purse. She delivered a short speech commenting on the nature of the occasion and the part her association sought to play in the jubilee exercises.

Father Hart, pastor of St. Joseph's church, in North Plainfield, and Rev. John F. Baldwin, chaplain of the college, were the invited guests. Mother Cecelia and the other sisters who celebrated the quarter of century of work in the Sisters of Mercy organization, have been identified with Mt. St. Mary College since it was established here and they are beloved and esteemed by the present student body and those who have graduated and taken an active interest in the welfare of the institution. The program included the following numbers:

Orchestra, "Cyclone March;" "A Message of Love,' by little girls; orchestra, "Enchantment Waltz;" operetta, "Jubilee in Flowerland," by High School department; orchestra, "Chain of Daisies;" "Let Wars Cease," by little boys; "The Drying Up a Single Tear has More of Honest Fame Than Shedding Seas of Gore," Byron, jubilee ode by students of college department; orchestra, 'Speedway March," and presentation by the alumnae.

BURGLARS RANSACK BORO HOUSE BUT GET LITTLE

Burglars last night ransacked the home of Henry Woodland, of Fairview avenue, North Plainfield, and although they made a thorough search of the premises their visit yielded them little of value in the way of loot. The deed was probably committed between 8 and 9 o'clock, entrance being gained through windows on the side porch.

The missing articles reported by Mr. Woodland inclued a gold watch, a Masonic emblem and one or two smaller articles. The thieves left through the front door, which they neglected to close in their haste to make a getaway. No clues were left by the culprits and Chief Weiss is working on the case today.

FALL INJURES ANKLE.

Mrs. Charles L. Ryder, of Grant avenue, is numbered among the victime of Saturday night's icy pavements. She slipped on a walk as she stepped from the porch at her home and it is not yet certain if her right ankle is broken or badly sprained. Dr. Albert Pittis, who is in attendance, will conduct an X-ray examination Thursday.

COMMISSION MUST HAVE MORE FUNDS

Plan of Relieving the City's Unemployed Will Require a Considerable Sum.

The report of the Commission for the Relief of the Unemployed has aroused general interest throughout Plainfield and North Plainfield, and the response so far is pleasing to the finance committee, though the amount of money needed is still by no means in sight. In a few cases people have even promised to assume the care of some one family at the rate of $22 a month, which is the minimum budget for a family of four until April first unless employment is found sooner. In others the givers have preferred to pledge a certain quantity of coal or food each month instead of money. Such contributions are of course also heartily welcomed.

The Commission's work comprises far more than the mere raising and distribution of funds. It is an intelligent effort, directed by many of the leading citizens of Plainfield serving on the various committees, to relieve an unusual situation in an efficient way, and without pauperizing those whom they help by indiscriminate giving of alms. No family will be supported for one day longer than it takes to make it self-supporting and no one will be given anything if there is any way of enabling him to earn it. The Commission has no idea of fostering dependency.

If Plainfield deserves its cherished reputation for civic pride and progressiveness and prosperity, this movement will be aided by everyone in the community who can give even fifty cents to it. Much money will be needed for relief while work is being sought. And the money should come from Plainfield as a whole, if Plainfield is to have the credit for it. Many places have a few people who can give and do give liberally to every public cause, but this situation must not be met in that way. All of us must do our share. Whoever you are there is someone just now who is worse off than you are, and you can spare something for him if you only realize it.

"F. P. A." said recently in the "New York Tribune, "We hesitate to speak harshly of the far-famed human race, as we count some of our best friends among its members. But we know about a man who refused to give to the Belgian Relief Fund because, he said, there were so many urgent cases just around the corner and immediately after he refused to help somebody he knew, alleging that the isolated case was nothing compared to thousands of starving Belgians."

When you say, "There are so many appeals this winter, that I don't know what to do," does it mean that you have really given all you can afford or simply that you are shirking a responsibility? It is an extraordinary time, and we all must make extraordinary efforts to meet it. And we should begin in Plainfield.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH RAISES $600 FOR WORTHY POOR

Father B. M. Boan, pastor of St. Mary's church, at the morning service, yesterday, announced that between $500 and $600 had been raised recently in the parish for the help of the poor of the city. Of this amount $205 was raised by the choir of the church at a euchre party and a committee of young women of the parish raised $206 in a similar way.

In addition to the above amount, Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, contributed $100 to the fund and the Ancient Order of Hibernians contributed $25. A number of other individuals also contributed toward the worthy object.

"FIRE-BUG" BURNED HELPLESS ANIMALS

Set Fire to Bedding in Stalls Under George Schenck's Horses.

Fire thought to have been of an incendiary origin, was discovered early Sunday morning in a barn owned by George A. Schenck, a New Market ice dealer, the structure being located on the old Clark T. Rogers property, near the New Market pond. The building was not badly damaged but two horses, valued at $500 each were so badly burned that they had to be shot.

The culprit broke into the barn and set fire to the bedding under the horses. The animals were tied and had no chance of escaping, both being terribly burned. Agonized neighing of the equines aroused the neighborhood and when help arrived the dumb beasts were so badly burned that they could not be removed from the structure. There is little doubt but what the act was a deliberate one as the proof that the two fires were started separately is clear. It is the opinion of the owner that the fires were allowed to blaze long enough to burn the animals and were then put out with wet blankets, it being the desire of the "fire-bug' to put the horses in agony.

The stalls are located in the basement of the barn and entrance was gained by lifting the hook which fastened the door upstairs with a wire. The culprits then went downstairs and broke the door leading to the stalls.

When interviewed by a Daily Press reporter, Mr. Schenck said that he knew of no one who harbored a grudge against him and that he would spare no expense in running down the culprit. The acts calls to mind a similar one perpetrated six years ago in New Market, when some person broke into Charles Day's store and destroyed the entire stock of meat by saturating it with kerosene.

AGED MAN SERIOUSLY HURT IN FALL ON LINDEN AVENUE

While walking to his home, 38 Rockview avenue, Saturday afternoon, A. E. Faber, an aged man, slipped on the icy pavement on Linden avenue, near Duer street, and sustained serious injuries. His shoulder and hip were broken in the fall. He was carried to his home where Dr. Endicott attended him and he is reported to be resting comfortably this afternoon.

Owing to his advanced age and the seriousness of the hurts his condition is considered critical. Mr. Faber is one of the best known residents of the borough, where he has lived for many years.

PRAISES LOCAL SCHOOL SYSTEM

State Commission of Education in Report Commends Medical Inspection.

SATISFACTORY RESULTS

In Reviewing Educational Work of State Plainfield is Cited as One of Two Cities With An Approved Method.

State Commissioner of Education Calvin E. Kendall, in his annual report just published, cites Plainfield as one of two cities in the State of New Jersey with a satisfactory system of medical inspection in schools.

The following account of Plainfield's work for better health in schools is taken from Commissioner Kendall's report.

In Plainfield medical inspection properly covers the work of four agencies: The medical inspector, the dental inspectors, the school nurse and the physical supervisor.

The medical inspector examines every pupil in school in the early fall noting conditions of vision, hearing, tonsils, nose and throat, defects in heart and lungs, enlarged glands, anaemia, goiter, mal-nutrition, inflamed eyelids, parasitic diseases, etc. The results are recorded in permanent form and note is made of cases needing special attention. Notices are sent home to the parents and the cases are turned over to the school nurse, to be followed up. The medical inspector also examines all candidates for the athletic teams, who cannot take part in any school even without a certificate from him.

In case of contagious disease, the school room is at once disinfected by the Board of Health, and the medical inspector makes daily inspections of the other members of the class until danger from the disease is over. The inspector's office is in telephone connection with each school, and as the teacher looks over her class each morning or as the nurse makes her regular inspection, if any suspicious symptoms are noticed in any child, he is set aside and the inspector summoned by telephone to view the case. We note an increased desire on the part of parents that their children

400 FAMILIES TO BE REMEMBERED

Everything Ready for the Distribution of Xmas Cheer on Thursday.

The "Community Christmas" committe, of which Arthur M. Harris is the chairman, held its final meeting at the Y. M. C. A., yesterday afternoon, and everything is now practically ready for the distribution of foodstuffs, etc., on Thursday. This will be done by the aid of automobiles under the direction of W. H. P. Vesey. It was reported that nearly four hundred needy families throughout the city and borough will be benefited by the Christmas plan adopted by the committee.

Charles A. Rice, treasurer for the committee, reported that up to yesterday the total amount of subscriptions to the general fund was $1,009.65, and he said he expected to receive at least $200 additional before Thursday.

Christmas cheer is also to be carried to Bonnie Burn Sanitorium where there will be a "Santa Claus," and at the City Industrial Home. Both Mr. Harris and Councilman Richard A. Claybrook spoks words of encouragement over the success of this year's plan to aid the worthy poor. Mr. Harris said that he was gratified to learn that nine-tenths of the money received was given without solicitation.

The commitee urged that all householders light their windows on Christmas eve. It was stated that the big tree is now in the city park, arrangements for the Christmas eve celebration having been made by the Sunday-school Superintendents' Association. This will be lighted at 7:30 o'clock sharp and more than 3,000 children will comprise a large chorus, in the singing of carols. The Aida trumpet quartet will accompany the singers.

PUBLIC INSPECT THE NEW HOSPITAL

Institution Thronged With Visitors Who Are Pleased With Modern Equipment.

Hundreds of people thronged Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday afternoon, on the occasion of the public inspection of the new buildings and wards which have just been completed. The visitors were shown throughout the various departments, the children's ward especially, the clinics, dining-room, operatin pavilion, laboratory, and all were much pleased witn modern equipment of the institution.

It is now the opinion that Muhlenberg Hospital stands second to none in the State and those who have had charge of building up this fine institution are justly proud of the achievement.

Members of the Board of Governors served as a reception committee, yesterday, escorting visitors through the buildings and explaining the different equipment. Those who received the visitors included George P. Mellick, Frank J. Hubbard, S. D. Lounsbery, E. H. Ladd, Jr., John P. Stevens, Mrs. Frank D. Warren, Mrs. John Gray Foster, A. M. Collens, Herman Schwed, George H. Goddard, William R. Cock, Harry L. Hall, John M. Whiton and Mayor Percy H. Stewart.

MAN FOUND SLEEPING IN EMPTY DWELLING

Patrolman John Fritts made an arrest Saturday night that may lead to the solution of certain petty robberies that have been perpetrated in this city and borough recently. He took into custody a man describing himself as John Birder, who was sleeping in a house located at 1116 West Seventh street. The place is owned by Mrs. Edward Randolph and, although fully furnished, it is unoccupied.

Articles of value have been missing from the place recently and neighbors who saw the man go in and out of the place communicated with the police. He was remanded by Judge DeMeza this morning, to be examined today and will be given a hearing tomorrow morning.

"JACK" PAYNE GIVEN A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Twenty-five friends from this city, New Brunswick and other places, tendered a surprise to John C. F. Payne at his home on Union street, in honor of his birthday, Saturday night. The affair was in the nature of a pig roast as all preparations had been made in advance.

The committee brought along a fine, fat suckling porker, selected from "Mayor" Tune Melick's flock of blue-ribbon swine at Pluckemin. There were also plenty of "fixin's' including apples sass.

Thomas Burke, the well-known restaurateur, was supervising chef of the cusine department and also acted as toastmaster when dinner was served. Speeches were made by Mr. Payne, Archibald Bailey and Constable Amos Hulsizer, the last named of Lee, Mass. Mr. Payne's former home. A song and dance number given by Frank Leonard, elicited great applause, and solos were sung by "Cutie" Moyer, of New Brunswick, and Russell Brennan, of this city. It was after midnight when the festivities closed with an ensemble chorus of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

A number of appropriate gifts were made to the celebrant, among them a gold-headed walking stick, a token from the members of the party. The presentation speech was made by Cornelius Heenan, and Mr. Payne responded fittingly.

LUCKY ESCAPE FOR PARTY OF AUTOISTS

Seven Men Thrown Clear of Wreckage When Heavy Machine Turns Turtle.

Seven occupants of a large touring car had a miraculous escape from serious injury early yesterday morning when the machine turned turtle in the thoroughfare opposite the residence of Councilman Thomas F. Hylan, on West Seventh street. The party was traveling westward when the auto skidded on the slippery roadbed and turned completely over. Fortunately all of the men were thrown clear of the wreckage and landed several feet away from the heavy car.

Residents of that section who were awakened by the noize caused by the accident rushed to the scene. A telephone message to police headquarters informed Captain John J. Flynn that a group of intoxicated men were mixed up in an auto acident and he sent the patrol wagon to the place of the accident.

At headquarters nve of the men gave their names and addresses as follows: Henry Mincoska, 38 South Gaston avenue, Somerville, owner and driver of the car; William Teeter, 215 Main street, South Bound Brook; Jacob Sutton, 109 East Second street, Bound Brook; William Morecraft, High street, South Bound Brook, and Frank Gregory, a patrolman on the Bound Brook police force. Two others in the party made a hasty getaway at the sight of the patrol wagon and their identity is not known.

They were held at police headquarters pending medical examinations to determine their sobriety. City Physician Norman W. Currie was called in and stated that while in his opinion the men had been drinking none of them were intoxicated. City Judge William G. DeMeza released Mincoska under $25 bail at 3 o'clock yesterday morning to appear for a hearing today. The others were instructed to appear as witnesses. In the city court, this morning, Judge DeMeza announced a postponement of the hearing until next Monday morning.

BEDTIME STORY WRITTEN BY LOCAL READER OF PRESS

Miss Elvira Patten, a reader of the Daily Press, has followed the bedtime stories which are printed daily on the women's page, and which are read each night to scores of Plainfield children. Today's story was written by Miss Patten, and follows the style of the regular feature. It is entitled "The Story of the Big Tree and the Little Tree," and is particularly timely just now, because of the hundreds of Christmas trees being offered for sale on the streets of Plainfield. The article will be found today on page 6.

ANXIOUS COMPANIONS BREAK SMALL BOY'S LEG

William Callahan, Jr., the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Callahan, of Woodland avenue, is confined to his home with a broken right leg, the result of a peculiar accident which befell him near his home Friday. With a number of other children he was sliding on a stretch of ice near his home when his foot slipped into a hole. He was unable to extricate himself and his companions grabbed hold of his clothing to help him out. The sudden jerk shoved him forward so violently, the imprisoned limb snapped like a pipe-stem.

The little fellow's parents were notified and he was carried to his home where he was attended by Drs. Platt and J. Hervey Buchanan. The physicians say he will be invalided for six weeks.

MISS M'CARTHY AND EZRA WATERHOUSE WED HERE

Miss Della McCarthy, daughter of Jeremiah McCarthy, of New York, and Ezra Waterhouse, a New York police official being attached to Commissioner Wood's office, were married last evening in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church by Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring. The couple was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Blimm, of Darrow avenue, the bridegroom being a cousin of Mrs. Blimm.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blimm. Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse will return to New York, today, and after a trip to Bermuda will reside in New York.

DENY DECISIVE GERMAN VICTORY

Petrograd, While Admitting Advances at Warsaw, Says They're Not Important.

ALLIES TAKE DIXMUDE

French and English Troops Continue Offensive—Berlin Anxiously Waiting More Details of Struggle in Poland.

London, Dec. 21.—The tide of battle in Poland has swerved from the region west of Warsaw, between the Pilitza and Vistula Rivers, to the region north of the Vistula, where the Russian victories over the German columns advancing from Mlawa have threatened the left wing of General Von Hindenburg's main force.

Despatches from Petrograd, while they admit the advance of the Germans south of Warsaw, attirbute to it none of the decisive character which is claimed from Berlin.

The Russian armies in northern Poland and in the Mazurian Lakes region of East Prussia continue their operations with indomitable energy. A demonstration in the Mazurian Lakes region is expected as the logical move by Hindenburg to free his army in Poland from the peril which threatens its left.

An Exchange Telegraph Company despatch from Amsterdam says:

"The Germans have evacuated Dixmude, but the report that the Allies have taken Middelkerke is untrue."

It appears that the French are slowly developing their offensive, and that material gains are daily being made along the Russian right. Fighting is violent on the Yser with the British fleet shelling the coast. Roulers is apparently still in German hands, bu the battle is raging between there and the angle of Ypres and Dixmude.

An official communication issued by the Russian staff in the Caucasus says:

"The fighting with the Turks, who had concentrated considerable forces in the direction of Van, has developed favorably for us. We have repulsed the attacks of the enemy near the village of Alagoez, where the Turks had a great number killed."

An Exchange Telegraph Athens despatch reports that the Allied fleet bombarded the interior forts of the Dardanelles, Saturday.

The Flushing correspondent of the Vaz Dias agency reports that a Franco-British force has considerably advanced its strategic positions and succeeded in occupying Middelkerke and St. Joris. Combined movements of the Allies elsewhere have resulted in the occupation of Dixmude and Roulers. The latter one of the German concentration centres, which was defended desperately before being yielded.

Paris, Dec. 21.—The French war office gave out the following statement at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

"During the day of December 20 there was nothing important to report in Belgium, except some progress in the region of Lombaertarde, St. George's and to the southeast of Kortker Inn.

"Between the Yys and the Aisne we captured a forest, near the road of Aix Noulettes Souchez, and occupied also all the first line of Motre Dame De Lorette, southwest of Loos.

"The enemy bombarded Arras. Our heavy artillery silenced that of the enemy in several combats. It likewise gained the advantage on the Aisne, and on the sector of Rheims. Between the Argonne and the Meuse we have made some progress on all the front."

Amsterdam, Dec. 21.—A private despatch from Berlin says that the population is anxiously awaiting details of General Von Hindenburg's victory in Russian Poland, and that public feeling is uncertain as to the actual outcome of the battle.

The report that Roulers has been occupied by the Allies is not confirmed.

Petrograd, Dec. 21.—Fierce battles are reported to be developing on the northern slopes of the Carpathian Mountains between the Russians and the Austro-German forces. A new grouping of Russian forces is being effected which evidently presages an offensive of considerable importance. The military authorities recognize that the general staff is able to foresee with a nicety the manoeuvres of the enemy, and is planning to checkmate each move on their part.

The temporary lull in the fighting on the left bank of the River Vistula is explained by the circumstances that the Russians purpose in that region has been accomplished.

Russian scouts traversing portions of the Carpathian Mountains have found small detachments of Austrian

MRS. S. L. DENTON NINETY YEARS OLD

Aged Resident of Dunellen is Given a Birthday Surprise Party.

The neighbors of Mrs. Sarah Lovell Denton gave her a very pleasant surprise in honor of her ninetieth birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lida E. Parker, of Second street, on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Denton is active and in the best of health and she enjoyed the afternoon as much as her younger friends. The most interesting part of the afternoon was when Mrs. Denton, at the request of her friends, indulged in memories of the past and told stories of her youth. Another feature of the afternoon was when a birthday cake, decorated with a olden "Ninety," sourrounded by nine candles, was cut to the tune of "Old Lang Syne," by Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Mary E. Hunt, the other aged member of the party.

Mrs. Denton received many handsome gifts in remembrance of the day. Those present were Mrs. Frank Bowlby, Mrs. William Lienau, Miss Lulu Behrens, Mrs. William A. Craig, Mrs. Egbert Gessner, Mrs. John Z. Kelly, Mrs. Theodore Apgar, Mrs. Samuel Strickland, Mrs. Robert Wright, Mrs. Edward Ayers, Mrs. Mary E. Hunt, Miss Elizabeth Hunt, Miss Mary Hunt, Mrs. Henry S. Garretson, Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. George Law and Mrs. Benjamin Harris and Mrs. John T. Runyon, of Plainfield.

Mrs. Denton was born at Thomaston, Me., but lived the greater part of her life in and about Boston. Her father, the late Rev. Stephen Lovell, was the editor of the Olive Branch and a prominent clergyman of his time. At the time of his death he was master of the Grand Lodge Masonic Fraternity of the State of Massachusetts.

The Lovell family is among the oldest of colonial ancestry, a certain Robert Lovell having come to the colonies in 1636 from Weymouth, England, and settled in Weymouth, Mass.

Mrs. Denton was married in 1848 to J. Warren Denton, of Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Denton was an iron master and was associated during the Civil War with Major Rodman at the arsenal located at Watertown, Mass., in the manufacture of the then famous Rodman gun. In the later years of his life he taught this branch of technical knowledge at Stevens Institute. Mr. and Mrs. Denton celebrated their golden wedding in 1898. A year later Mr. Denton died. Since then Mrs. Denton has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lida E. Parker. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Denton has a son, Dr. James E. Denton, of Maplewood. Dr. Denton was head of the engineering department at Stevens Institute for years and is now professor emeritus of that college.

214 W. FRONT ST.

ICE-COVERED SIDEWALKS CAUSE MANY ACCIDENTS

Quite a number fell in the borough Saturday evening as the result of ice-coated sidewalks. David Terry fell in front of his residence on Mountainview Terrace. He landed on his shoulder, which caused him considerable pain when he attempted to move his arm. Dr. Longbotham is treating the injury.

Joseph Penrose, of New Market, fell in front of Koschek's butcher shop on North avenue about 7 o'clock. In falling Mr. Penrose first struck his elbow and then his head. He was dazed by the fall and was assisted into the home of his son's mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna Johnson, nearby. After resting for ten minutes or so he was able to proceed to his home in New Market.

Jefferson Davis (colored), while on his way home at about 7:30 o'clock, fell on the sidewalk in front of a house on Front street injuring his ankle. He also hit his head a pretty good blow. Dr. Pittis, of Plainfield, is attending him.

Paul Rabouin, of the Park Stables, was also numbered among those who attempted to break the sidewalk. He fell in New Market shortly after dusk, striking his head, which had only recently been injured by a fall out of a wagon. Fortunately for Paul tre blow was not a severe one and after making one trip to his physician, Dr. Platt, he appears to be none the worse for his experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weiner, of Prospect avenue, entertaintd Mrs. Thomas Cook, of Raritan, yesterday.

ATTENDED COUNTY MEETING.

President Lawrence Kerwin, Recording Secretary Michael Kerwin, Secretary Valentine McLaughlin and Treasurer Patrick Costello, of the local lodge of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, attended the county board meeting of that lodge at Columbia Hall, New Brunswick, yesterday afternoon.

John Egan, of Prospect avenue, was a visitor at New Brunswick, last evening.

A fifty foot lot on North avenue adjoining the Kupfenburg bakery, has been sold by Real Estate Agent John Fedderman for Mrs. Gretcham Winges to Robert Broadway, of New Market.

Wesley Huff and Edward Lewis spent Saturday in Newark.

John P. Faber, of Washington avenue, spent yesterday in New Rochell, N. Y., as the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Pelham.

Assessor and Mrs. J. H. L. Peters entertained a relative from Rahway on Friday.

Richard Pennock, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Pennock, who suffered a severe attack of acute indigestion recently, is rapidly recovering from the effect of the attack.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Meyers, of Washington avenue, entertained Harold Welch, of Philadelphia, over the week-end.

Oscar Victorson, the North avenue tailor, who has been ill for the past week with the grip, is rapidly improving.

C. L. Wahl, Jr., and Kasper Fuchs spent yesterday afternoon at Westfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meyers, of Raritan, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George Meyers, of Prospect avenue, yesterday.

Arthur Voorhees, of Jackson avenue, has recovered from his recent indisposition and is able to be out again.

COUNCIL TO MEET.

An adjourned meeting of the Mayor and Common Council will be held in the Borough Hall this evening. The bids for the borough's collecting sewerage system 5 per cent. bonds will be opened at this meeting and the contract for constructing the system will also in all probability be awarded.

MRS. CLARK'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Mrs. William H. Clark will be held from the late home down country, tomorrow morning. The service will be in charge of Rev. E. R. Brown, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Interment will be in Hillside cemetery. Friends of the family are invited to attend the service. Conveyances will be at the Dunellen station at 10 o'clock for the benefit of those desiring to attend.

MINIATURE XMAS VILLAGE.

Harry G. Morse, of 253 New Market road, has made a complete miniature village operated by electricity. There is an electric railroad with depot, semi-phone signals and gates at crossing that work; Eiffel tower with elevator and a searchlight on top; a lake and bridge; houses, streets, sidewalks, stones, mountains, tunnels, and what not. Anyone interested, especially the children, are invited to view it in operation any evening after Xmas betweeen the hours of 7 and 9.

INJURED BY A FALL.

Charles S. Day fell on the ice-coated sidewalk in front of his grocery store at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, breaking one of the small bones in his ankle. He was carried into his home across the street and Dr. Longbotham summoned. The ankle has been placed in a plaster cast.

Miss Margaret Mineak, who has been ill with a severe cold, was able to return to her duties as teacher in the New Market School today.

Miss Doris Schenck daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Schenck, of Center street, who has been ill with an ulcerated throat, is much improved.

UNDERGOES OPERATION.

Mrs. Joseph Hague, of Lincoln avenue, underwent an operation in the Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, for gall stones, on Saturday afternoon. She came out of the ether all right, but passed a very poor Saturday night. Her condition at the present time is not known.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

The special Christmas exercises resulted in good congregations assemblying in the churches of the borough yesterday.

In the Presbyterian church at the 10:30 morning service the pastor, Rev. E. R. Brown, preached a strong Xmas sermon from Luke II., 8, 9, 10, 11. The singing of the choir was especially beautiful. The program was an anthem, "Behold I Bring Good Tidings," Geibel; a response, "Lord Bow Done Thine Ear," Handel; anthem, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," Weidlinger; anthem, "There were Shepherds Abiding in the field," Vincent." In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the Sunday-school hald a beautiful musical exercise. There was no evening service in the church.

In the Methodist Episcopal church at the 10:30 o'clock morning service, the pastor, Rev. D. W. C. Ramsey, preached a splendid sermon. The Strength," Jamounean, and "Lift Your Hearts and Voices," Moti. At the 7:30 o'clock evening service Rev. tendent, occupied the pulpit. The choir sang "Bethlehem," Meredith, and "Daughter of Zion," Maker. After the service the twenty-second and third quarterly conferences were held.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Funeral services for Miss Jane Elizabeth Kyte, who died at her home in the borough on Friday following a paralytic stroke, were held from the All Saints' Episcopal church this afternoon at 2:30. Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, pastor of Grace Episcopal church, Plainfield, officiated, assisted by Rev. Oscar S. Michael. Interment was made in the Scotch Plains cemetery.

The weekly meeting of the Boy Scouts scheduled to be held in the Baptist church Sunday-school room tomorrow night will be postponed as the Christmas entertainment of the Sunday-school, to which most of the Scouts belong, will be held tomorrow evening in the church.

The members of the executive board of the Fanwood Township Sunday-school Association, representing all of the Sunday-schools in the association, will meet at the home of William Sisserson, the president, in Westfield, this evening and talk over plans for the coming year.

Richard Tull, of North avenue, is spending some time in Atlantic City recovering from the effects of a fall sustained while on a Southern trip.

The cantata selected for the Episcopal church Sunday-school, to be held in the Fanwood firehouse on Saturday evening, is "The Birth of Christ." Several rehearsals will be held at the home of Miss Babcock this week to smooth over any rough spots.

Augustus Kirch, who recently moved in with Lucarena, of Mt. Bethel, is working for John C. Cooper trimming his fruit trees.

Old Time English Recruiting.

Recruiting in the great war which ended in the fall of Napoleon was a vastly different matter from that which prevails today. Take the militia act of 1803, for instance. In each subdivision of a county a list was made of all men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, classified into (a) those under thirty and without children, (b) over that age, (c) men with no children under fourteen, (d) men with only one child under fourteen and (e) all others. If the men required equaled the number in the first or second or any set of consecutive classes they were taken. If not, all the names were put in a bag and drawn until the requisite number was obtained. Any balloted man could purchase exemption for five years on paying a fine of $50, raised to $75 in 1803, the money being paid for a substitute. The men paying fines were exempted from the second ballot, and the money was devoted to enabling the men in the second ballot to obtain substitutes. On this vicious principle the only man really obliged to serve was the poor man drawn in the first ballot.—Dundee Advertiser.

A Curious Worm.

There is a flat worm about half an inch long called Planaria velata which reproduces itself in a most extraordinary manner. According to an article in the Biological Bulletin, when it grows old it loses its appetite, its colors fade and its movements become slow. It drops a tiny fragment of its tail, then another, still another and so on until it has left about half of its body in scattered pieces. Each detached piece curls up, secretes a mucus that soon dries and forms a hard shell. In this condition the fragments remain throughout the summer, fall and winter. In the spring the shells burst and liberate many minute worms, which eat voraciously and soon grow to adult size. The fore part of the worm, after it has shed all these bits, either dies or encysts itself in its turn.

NO IMMIGRATION FROM BELGIUM NOW

Rev. J. F. Stillemans Writes to L. J. Ellis Regarding Relief Work Plans.

LeRoy J. Ellis, of this city, who is connected with the Norfolk and Western Railroad, is in receipt of a letter from Rev. J. F. Stillemans, director of the Belgium Bureau and president of the Belgian Relief Committee, in which he presents some interesting facts concerning the various plans for the relief of the Belgians and their families.

He says that quite a number of Belgians are arriving in this country to escape the horrors of war. The majority of them are men, but all intend to go back home after the war is over. For that reason it is impossible to colonize them and it is desirable also to keep them as close to New York as possible, in order to facilitate their return. They come almost exclusively from the cities, and are not fit for work on farms. Efforts are being made to find temporary employment for the men until they can return.

Mr. Stillemans says that practically speaking, there is no immigration from Belgium at present. A number of people appear to be in favor of promoting Belgian immigration and locating Belgians on tracts of land in various parts of the country, but in the opinion of Mr. Stillemans the best interest of Belgium demands that no effort be made to take away from Belgium its farmers or laborers, because these people will be needed for the reconstruction work in Belgium.

Mr. Stillemans further says that after due consideration he thinks it would not be practical to try and carry out a suggested plan of bringing Belgian orphans to this country and finding homes for them here for obvious reasons, one being that the majority of the Belgian children are Catholics and it would be entirely against the will of their parents or relatives that they be brought up outside of that faith. He concludes that after the war these people must be brought together and only then will it be known who are orphans who must be supported by outsiders.

CONDUCTED A SERVICE AT THE INDUSTRIAL HOME

A pleasing service was held yesterday afternoon, at the Industrial Home by a large delegation from the Park Avenue Baptist Bible school, accompanied by their pastor, Rev. Dr. Birney S. Hudson. In addition to the [illegible] given by the school, the solo, "I Am Saved," was rendered by Miss Evelyn Manley and a duet by Miss Marion Manley and Raymond Manley. Mrs. John Manley presided at the organ.

Dr. Hudson gave a talk that touched the hearts of the men and women at the Home. He said he doubted whether they would receive as great a blessing from the visiting friends as would the friends themselves in coming. He assured them that a visit to the Home was in itself an inspiration capable of resulting in the consecration of one's life to the work of carrying help and comfort to those in need.

The service was greatly enjoyed by the inmates of the Home, and was one of the most helpful services ever conducted by the Park Avenue Baptist school.

Still Carry Boar's Head at Christmas

THE medieval Yuletide custom of carrying a boar's head in procession to the Christmas banquet was once common in England. Today it is confined to Queen's college, Oxford, and one or two baronial houses.

The reason for the custom surviving at Queen's is, according to tradition, on account of a valorous deed performed centuries ago by a Queen's scholar. He was walking in the fields studying his Aristotle when a wild boar rushed at him open mouthed. With great presence of mind the student crammed the book down the animal's throat, and it was thus choked to death with philosophy; hence the survival of the boar's head at the college of which this bold scholar was a member.

No fitter setting for a ceremony that links up the twentieth century with the past could be provided than the cloisters and dining hall of Queen's college. Queen's, whose foundation dates back to 1340, was the college of the Black Prince, Henry V., Cardinal Beaufort, Addison, Wycherley and many other famous men.

The procession of the boar's head is formed up at the buttery. At its head walks the soloist, a former scholar of the college. Next comes the boar's head. This is borne on a silver salver upon the shoulders of two stalwart servitors. The great head presents a quaint and handsome appearance, being surmounted by a glittering and be jeweled crown and decked with frill of gilded bay and rosemary. Between the tusks is placed a golden orange. Flags bearing the college arms and devices are fixed in the head.

Immediately behind the great dish comes the college organist, wearing the brilliant robes of an Oxford doctor of music, and followed by his surpliced choir of men and boys.

Meanwhile the provost of the college, standing on the dais at the end of the hall in the midst of the principal guests, says a Latin grace, after which the dinner call is sounded in the cloisters upon a trumpet. Then with stately pomp the procession slowly advances from the buttery, through the cloisters and into the great dining hall, and the soloist sings the proclamation:

The boar's head in hand I bear,
Bedecked with bays and rosemary
And I pray you, my masters, be merry

Then the choir sings in harmonious chorus the curious old Latin carol:

Quot estis in convivio.
Caput apri defero,
Reddens laudes Domino.

By the time the carol is finished the procession has reached the dais, and the boar's head is deposited on the high table. Then the provost, or, in his absence, the senior official of the college who is present, removes the flags, which are used year after year and are of considerable antiquity, and presents to each of the principal guests a portion of the gilded evergreens. The remainder is eagerly scrambled for by the other guests.

After this prelude the dinner is served as ordinarily save that the most valuable and antique silver plate and pewter are used, special sauces are served with the meats, and home brewed ale and queen's own special beer, a liquor of great potency, are served in the valuable old tankards.

troops frozen to death, evidently as they had camped to keep warm. It was observed that the Austrian soldiers' clothing was inadequate and unsuitable for the cold climate.

Rome, Dec. 21 (Central News Cable).—A royal decree has been issued maintaining under the colors soldiers of the 1892 class, who otherwise would have been dismissed shortly and calling up all men of that class now on leave of absence.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

A. M. Harris spoke at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the association building. He told of the Community Christmas plan. Christmas stories were read.

Fifteen cent suppers will be served every night this week from 5 to 7 o'clock, and everyone is invited to attend.

The building will be open all day Christmas and the general public is invited to visit the association. Tea will be served from 4 to 6 o'clock.

The Christmas vesper service will be held at 4:30 o'clock next Sunday afternoon. An attractive program is being arranged.

Christmas parties have been arranged for the senior and junior members of the association on Tuesday afternoon, December 29, from 3 to 5 o'clock. The juniors are invited to the party and the following night at 8 o'clock the senior party will be held.

All classes have been suspended for the holidays and will be resumed on January 4.

CHRISTMASTIDE.

RED, red the holly berries glow,
The crimson beads that fairies blow
At Christmastide
When wonder eyed
The children gather close to hear
Strange tales that move upon the inner ear
And dim the eyes
With plaintive sighs
Till downward slips the silent tear.

And may no sorrow at the heart abide
Now that this gracious Christmastide
Moves down the world from shore to shore
With wonder ships of golden store.
Where every child in fancy seems
The captain of his fleet of dreams.
And may the old forget again
Their unwise wisdom bought of pain,
And may their voices sweet and clear
Ring out the notes of festal cheer.

Ring, ring the bells with me!
Sing, sing all joyously!
While faith and hope and love still reign
The world must ever young remain.
So sing and sing and ring the bells
O'er holt and heath and down the dells.
And may no sorrow at the heart abide
Now that this is glad Christmastide.
—T. Howard Wilson in Los Angeles Times.

Age of the Christmas Card.

Could you say offhand how old is the Christmas card which is now making its annual appearance in the shops? It is younger than most people imagine, for its age is only about seventy years. There would seem to be two claimants (both famous) to the honor of having invented it. According to some, Cuthbert Bede designed the first card when a student at Durham university in 1845, and designs of his circulated among his friends for two years before the printers conceived the idea of offering similar cards for sale to the general public. Others claim the invention for Horsley, the artist, who designed one for Sir Henry Cole in 1846. And a specimen of this card has fetched as much as £50.

PRAISES SCHOOL SYSTEM

should have their defects corrected, and they frequently voluntarily consult the inspector as to their children's physical good.

A list has been prepared of all the children in the city that are three years of more behind their grade, and after removing names of those whose retardation can be explained by absence or similar cause, the list is put in charge of the inspector who has had a course at Vineland. Pupils are examined with unusual care for physical defects by the medical inspector and also by the dental inspectors, and are also specially tested by the Binet tests. After these examinations, the inspector, after consultation with teachers, mages assignments to the special classes for retarded pupils.

The inspector also makes it his business to look after the general hygienic conditions of all the appointments of the schools and of the school regulations and management, making recommendations as needed.

The dental inspectors examine the mouth of every pupil each fall, recording results and sending notices to parents, in the same manner as the medical inspectors.

The nurse follows up the work of the inspectors by taking the cards of pupils that need attention following up the notices, where necessary, by personal visits, to explain the conditions to the parents and to persuade them to have the work attended to. If the parents cannot afford to employ a physician, the nurse takes the child to the hospital clinic, and secures treatment there. If glasses are needed, which the parents cannot furnish, she finds a source from which they can be obtained.

In addition to this, the nurse visits each school building twice a week and personally inspects each child below the sixth grade, as to skin, eyes, throat and hair. On the second visit she sees those that need to be followed up. In the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, each pupil is examied twice a month. On these inspections by the nurses, children who are found to be in unsatisfactory condition meet the nurse in the office of the principal and are then sent home with a note to the parent explaining the trouble, and the need of attention.

In the afternoon and between sessions, the nurse visits various homes, gives instruction to the parents how to meet the mild ailments, and in a general way does what she may to elevate the hygienic conditions of the home and to educate the parents to better hygienic customs. The nurse also takes charge of the cases of children that are excluded for contagious disease, or in quarantine, and sees that they are speedily returned to school on the expiration of the period of exclusion.

The supervisor of physical training gives a physical examination to all pupils from the fifth grade to the High School, and to all High School pupils doing gymnasium work. The result of this examination and the measurements are recorded on cards. Where a physical defect is found like curvature of the spine, incorrect carriage of the body, uneven hips, or uneven shoulders, projecting shoulder blades, etc., a prescription of corrective exercise is given the child. All these defective cases in the class are examined a second time, in the spring, to note the progress of the cure.

In the High School, the pupils are examined twice a year. At the fall examination, the pupil is given a record showing the result of the examination, and side by side with this on the card is given the normal standard for a child of his age, in order that he may note the difference and may follow the physical exercises that will bring him to the standard. At the second measurement, in the spring, he is again given the record for comparison with the fall record, that he may note his advancement.

When this work was begun in the High School, seven years ago, 92% of the pupils were found to have defects of various kinds that needed corrective work. The examinations in 1912 show only 18½% defective. The value of this work is shown strongly when these figures, 18½% are placed side by side with the fact that the girls entering one of the large women's colleges in New England were found by the examiner to show 52% with physical defect from uneven shoulders alone.

"THE MESSIAH" INSPIRED DR. HUDSON'S DISCOURSE

Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," which was so splendidly presented a week ago by the Plainfield Choral Society under the direction of S. Frederick Smith, inspired the sermon delivered last evening by Rev. Dr. Birney S. Hudson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, in which he told of the tremendous impression the music had made upon him at that time, creating in him an intense desire to preach on this subject at the earliest opportunity.

Dr. Hudson reviewed in their return the scriptural references upon which the great oratorio is founded, and with marked power and tenderness pictured the lights and shadows of this wonderful composition in its matchless story of the life of Christ. The sermon strongly impressed the large congregation present.

SELLS BOTTLING BUSINESS.

Adolph Bohren, who recently purchased the Tier property on East Front street, has disposed of his bottling business on Greenbrook road, the borough, to Frank Vitello and Peter Arenella. It is expected that the transfer of the license will be made at Somerville on Thursday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Vitello were formerly engaged in the tailoring business, the former at Bound Brook, and the latter in New York. They have been living in the borough sometime.

FIVE-BACK PLAY TOMORROW.

The weekly five-back bowling tournament of the Park Club will be played tomorrow night, instead of the usual night, Thursday, the latter being Christmas Eve.

WASTING STATE MONEY.

When the county tax boards were created, it was with the idea that they would bring the assessments on all property up to their true value. For eight years they have had the opportunity to accomplish this purpose, and things are probably in much worse shape now than they were before the Boards were created. People in Plainfield have had a splendid opportunity to observe the rulings of the Board this year, for a large number of appeals have been taken from the work of the local assessors.

When David T. Kenney appeared before the Board last week, he tried to show them that in certain cases in the city of Elizabeth the assessments on factory property are about fifty per cent. of their true value, while here in Plainfield they are placed at practically one hundred per cent. But the members of the Board did not want their attention called to the injustice which they permit in other municipalities, and refused to admit the figures which Mr. Kenney wished to present as testimony. Even if the figures had no bearing on the Plainfield case, the members of the Board had a splendid opportunity to show that they really wanted to do their duty. They could have permitted the local man to state his case, and the bearing upon Plainfield property, and then if they could not see their way clear to allow him the reduction, they could have said so. What he had to say would have shown them that the Elizabeth assessors are not doing their duty, and the Board could make an investigation of the subject which might result in assessments in Elizabeth being made to comply with the law, as is the case in Plainfield.

If there was needed an example to show the absurdity of the entire plan under which the County Tax Boards work, that example was presented at the Kenney hearing. The Republican majority in the House of Assembly have let it be known that they are going to strive to abolish the boards at the coming session of the Legislature. Not much has been said by the Senate members, but the Republicans realize that they are on trial, having pledged economy in State affairs, and the cutting off of $96,000 at one time looks good. If there was a need for the county tax boards they have certainly outlived it, and the sooner they are done away with the better will it be for the State.

Who said Plainfield was a slow burg? The building page editor rises to remark that the city of Charlestown, S. C., had $8,000 worth of building permits during the month of November, while the Queen City went up as far as $29,000, and thought she was doing poorly. Charleston has twice the population of city and borough combined.

By the way, we wonder what the program of the Board of Trade may be in regard to pushing a consolidation election on the city side of the great divide. The movement had better be started soon so that a vote on this issue may be held during the coming spring. Let other civic bodies join in a movement at an early date for a campaign of education for the voters, that all may have a clear understanding of the subject.

Many sidewalks in all parts of the city would stand a little attention from the property owners. During a recent heavy rain, puddles of water of various sizes were quite noticeable. Two causes bring this about, the unevenness of the flagging, and the little ridge of earth between the walk and the gutter. The elimination of the causes would bring forth a multitude of "amens" from pedestrians.

Many voters of the city have expressed themselves as being favorably inclined toward the Commission form of government for Plainfield. Mere expression accomplishes nothing. It would be pleasing to learn what steps individuals or organizations are taking in this matter.

A few of our fellow citizens have suggested that charity begins at home, and for that reason hesitated in making a contribution to the Belgian Relief Fund. It is not too late for these citizens to contribute to the Community Christmas.

Do not wait until January 1 to get rid of those mail order house catalogues. Do it now. Do it for Plainfield. Get ready to start the New Year right by patronizing home merchants.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The choir of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will give an ancient carol service next Sunday afternoon.

FINGERPRINT ART IS WIDELY USED

Plainfield Department Convicted "Ice-Wagon" Connors by This Science.

INTEREST IS AROUSED

Trial of Notorious Criminal in Elizabeth Last Week Stirred up Country-wide Enthusiasm Over Possibilities of Discovery.

Country-wide interest in the Bertillion system with its special department of fingerprint science has been aroused as the result of expert opinions offered at the trial of Charles, alias "Ice-Wagon" Connors in the Union county court of Quarter Sessins last week and it is not unlikely that efforts will be made to have it introduced as an asset to criminal work in certain New Jersey departments, including Plainfield. The conclusive powers of conviction were clearly shown in the trial of the notorious criminal accused of looting the home of former State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman in this city and this trial acted as a severe and convincing test of the system.

To the collection and application of fingerprint evidence by the local police force heads must be attributed the bulk of the credit for the conviction of the country-famous "second-story" man and "bail-jumper" who has several times before eluded the hand of the law. The State's case was founded on fingerprint testimony and very little evidence of another nature was introduced. Since the Ackerman robbery was committed Chief Kiely has made a thorough study of the science and is greatly impressed with its possibilities. Demonstrations and hand-drawn and photographic facsimiles presented by experts at the trial were keenly interesting to the department heads and it seems likely at the present time that several experimental installations will be made in nearby departments in the near future.

The science was first used extensively by the British government in India for making and identifying deeds, mortgages and other legal documents. Experience and research indicated that this method of identification was so accurate and reliable that its use was extended, first as a means of identifying government employes, then for identification of natives who were illiterate, but with whom the government had extensive dealings involving the payment of moneys and it was later adapted to police work.

The science has been developed to such a great extent that today it is claimed that it is possible to take measurements of a criminal so accurately that they can be filed away like a letter, and may be registered in a thousand different bureaus so that they will be immediately accessible. Then or fifty years later, impressions taken from the same fingers of the criminal are readily and surely classified in the same manner. Comparison of the two impressions, even though they may be fifty years apart, will reveal them to be identical.

Peter A. Flak, of New York city, said to be the only independent fingerprint expert in the country, gave out some valuable information to the numerous police heads and county officials gathered at the Connors trial. He appeared as a witness for the prosecution and gave a lengthy lecture on the merits of the system. Mr. Flak was formerly in His Majesty's service in India, in the British Columbia government's identification bureau, and has been engaged in business for himself for the past seven years.

He testified at the trial to having installed the system of identification in many of the large cities of the United States, for the police departments and has also instructed the officers who have been placed in charge. He was the father of the system in Boston, Chicago, Detriot and Newark. Besides installing the police system Flak testified to having perfected another system of fingerprint identification, used chiefly by banks and savings institutions, which he has installed for the use of 300 banks, three of which are in Newark. The system requires the use of impressions from only three fingers. The police system, through which the Plainfield department located Connors, employs the impressions from the thumb and fingers of both hands, making ten in all. The banks use fingerprints as a means of identifying drafts and checks presented by customers who cannot write legibly, or as safeguards in certain classes of accounts.

RECREATION NOTES

The Italian Club will meet tonight in the Lincoln School. A Christmas party will be held.

The Needlecraft Club will meet at the Stillman School tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Girls' Friendly Club will meet in the Stillman School tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Stillman School will be open tomorrow night for the colored people. The girls will take part in gymnastics.

The Young Men's and Girls' Athletic Clubs that meet at the High School, will not meet again until after the holidays.

REDUCED BAIL REFUSED.

New York, Dec. 21—Judge Malone in General Sessions today, refused to reduce the bail of Joe and Jake Cohen, the chicken pullers, now in the Tombs in absence of $25,000 bonds each. The men were arraigned on a charge of having instigated an assault on Arthur A. Pearson, representative in this city of Western chicken shippers, and a close associate of Barnet Baff, the murdered poultry dealer.

Acting District Attorney Delehanty oposed the proposed reduction vigorously, and announced that by Wednesday the two defendants would probably be held on a more serious charge. This was taken to mean that they will be indicted for the murder of Baff.

SENT TO STATE HOSPITAL.

J. Edward Demarest, of this city, who was placed under arrest in the borough, Friday night, for entering the home of his father-in-law, William H. Day, and flourishing a revolver, was yesterday committed to the State Hospital at Trenton. Demarest was examined Saturday afternoon by Dr. William H. Anthony and Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan.

MEXICAN BORDER TROUBLE IS LESSENED BY MAYTORENA

Washington, Dec. 21—The crisis that faced the United States by reason of indiscriminate firing across the international boundary line at Naco, Ariz., apparently has passed, the State Department announced today. The department based its conclusion on a telegram from United States Consul Silliman, at Mexico City. The consul reported General Maytorena had advised Provisional President Gunitierrez that he had withdrawn his troops to a convenient distance from the entrenched position of General Hill and would not reply to the latter's fire.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. L. M. Angleman, of this city, is seriously ill at Muhlenberg Hospital.

Thomas Brantingham, of Park avenue, is detained at home by illness contracted while on a recent hunting trip in Northern Jersey.

George E. Leighs, of West Fourth street, has returned home after spending some time visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Edna Koggleman, of Pensecola, Florida, is spending the winter with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs Kohen, of Prospect avenue.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICES.

Watch night services will be held in the Grace M. E. church on December 31 at 9 o'clock. This will be in place of the mid-week services. A Christmas prayer meeting will be held Wednesday night, and the adult probation class, which generally meets in the parsonage Thursday nights, will be omitted this week and will meet next Monday night at 8 o'clock. The regular Christmas services will be held next Sunday morning and night.

MASONIC TEMPLE BURNED.

Hoboken, Dec. 21—The five-story Masonic Temple was today gutted by flames. The building and contents being almost a complete loss. No one was injured, although several firemen had narrow escapes.

SALVATION ARMY APPEAL.

The Salvation Army, in its faithful service, is endeavoring to give the poor and needy of Plainfield a Christmas dinner; but in so doing, find it difficult to secure sufficient funds to meet the demand of those worthy of such hospitality, even in supplying merely the necessary articles for the purpose. So the officers now appeal to the general public of the city and borough to contribute all they can to this noble cause, remembering at the same time that it is more blessed to give than to receive and to know that God loves a cheerful giver.

FUNERAL OF MISS HARRIS.

The funeral services of Miss Sarah E. Harris, of Manning avenue, the borough, were held Saturday afternoon at the Shiloh Baptist church, Rev. Edward Roberts officiating. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance. Those who were bearers at the funeral of Miss Harris' mother two weeks ago acted in the same capacity Saturday for the daughter. The interment was made in the North Plainfield cemetery.

FUNERAL OF MISS KYTE.

Many relatives and friends attended the funeral services of Miss Jane Elizabeth Kyte this afternoon, at All Saints' church, Scotch Plains. Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, of the Grace Episcopal church, this city, officiated, assisted by Rev. Oscar S. Michaels, of the Scotch Plains church. Interment was made at the Scotch Plains cemetery.

GOING TO FLORIDA.

Halstead C. Compton and daughter, Miss Mary Compton, and Miss Carrie Drake left today for Cromanton, Fla., where they will spend the winter in Mr. Compton's fine new bungalow.

CORREL—APGAR.

Miss Kathleen Correl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Correl, of Newark, was married to John Apgar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neaf Apgar, of Clinton avenue, by the Rev. Dr. D. B. F. Randolph, of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was attended by only the immediately relatives of the couple.

PIANO PUPILS GIVE PLEASING STUDIO RECITAL

An interesting musical was given by the pupils of Mrs. Grace Powell Karr Giese in her studio in the Babcock building on Saturday. Many guests were present and were pleasantly entertained by the following pupils: The Misses Josephine E. Hanlon, Marjorie Burtis, Ruth R. Carver, Mary E. Roth, Sadye Weintrob, Alva M. Hansen, Marian D. Rose (pupil of Miss Madeline V. Hughes), Mattie E. Douglas (pupil of Miss Hughes), Margaret A. Endress, Grace H. Gillahan, Lucy Kuntz, Gertrude E. Rittenhouse, Alice F. Simons, Bessie Rosalsky and Masters Herbert M. Hooker and Albert Monck.

The pupils all showed marked improvement in self-control, memorizing, interpretation and technique and their work reflected much credit on their teachers. Following the musical there was an informal reception for the guests and pupils.

YEAR FURNISHED MANY THRILLS TO THE DEVOTEES OF PROFESSIONAL SPORT

This has not been a bad year for the devotees of professional sport. There were many thrills, not the least of which was the victory of the Boston Braves. Batting honors in the National league went to Jake Daubert; in the American league to Ty Cobb. Freddie Welsh won the lightweight boxing title. Directum I, whose best mark was 1:58, was the champion harness horse. Willie Hoppe retained his titles in billiards. Automobile racing honors go to Eddie Pullen, who won the Grand Prize race and the Corona event over the Santa Monica course; and to Ralph de Palma,

For the devotees of professional sport the year that is about to close has not been a disappointing one. The baseball season was made famous by the remarkable performance of the Boston Braves, who not only won the National League championship, after a wonderful midseason spurt, but subsequently defeated the Philadelphia Athletics for the world's title. Baseball history does not record a feat similar to that of the Boston Braves, who, in the short space of a month, climbed from the bottom of the championship ladder to the top, and having once reached the top rung held it to the close of the season.

Connie Mack's team played consistent ball throughout the season. The manager of the Athletics followed his policy of former years, carried his players along steadily, and always in a commanding position. In the contest for the world's championship the Athletics were outplayed and lost four straight games by the scores of 7-1, 1-0, 5-4 and 3-1. The victory of the Braves was largely due to the pitching of Rudolph and James and the batting and catching of Gowdy.

Daubert and Cobb Best Hitters.

For the second time National League batting honors went to a Brooklyn player. Jake Daubert, the Superba's star first baseman, proved to be the best batter in the National League, while Ty Cobb again carried off the batting honors in the American League, with Eddie Collins a close second. In pitching, James, of Boston, was the best in the National League. Leonard, of Boston, led American League pitchers.

The invasion of the Federal League formed a conspicuous feature of the season. The outlaws succeeded in materially weakening many of the teams in the major leagues by signing the star players, but the season was a poor one financially, the baseball public failing to patronize the games.

Billiard enthusiasts had little to stir them during the year. So far as 18.1 and 18.2 balkline billiards are concerned, Willie Hoppe is so far ahead of his nearest rivals that it is difficult to arouse interest in a championship match.

Great Year for Harness Racing.

In point of speed the championship performances for the season of 1914 for harness racing far surpassed all former records. During the racing season twelve trotting and fifteen pacing world's championship records were established. In trotting, Etawah, 2:03¾; Peter Volo, 2:03½; May Mack, and Rythmel were among the leaders in record-breaking heats. Peter Volo, by winning $33,700, made himself the second highest money winning trotter in one season.

In the pacing division the most notable performer was the New York bred and owned Directum I., whose best mark was 1:58 in a race. Only one other pacer covered a mile in a race in less than two minutes.

Andrew Miller's Roamer, the three-year-old son of Knight Errant-Rose Tree II., carried off the honors on the running turf. He reached the top of his form at Saratoga, where he captured the handicap at a mile and a quarter, in 2:02. One of the features of a very successful season was the running of the two-year-olds from James Butler's stables. He bought a number of yearlings from the late James R. Keene, and raced them with great success. The Quincy Stable's Trojan took down the Futurity, the most coveted two-year-old race of the season.

Auto Racing Honors to Pullen.

Automobile racing honors go to Eddie Pullen, in a Mercer car, who won the Grand Prize race and the Corona event over the Santa Monica course. In the latter event he established a world's record. Ralph de Palma won the Vanderbilt Cup race, defeating Barney Oldfield by more than a minute over the 294-mile course. These three auto pilots easily led in the competitive events during the season. Three French cars secured the first three places in the 500-mile International Sweepstakes at Indianapolis. Thomas, in a Delaye, was first, with Duray and Guyot second and third, respectively. Barney Oldfield was the first American to finish in this event. He was fifth.

Bicycling again came into its own, and during the season a number of profesional riders from Europe and Australia competed here. Frank L. Kramer, of Newark, retained his professional racing crown in spite of a formidable array of speedy riders who pushed him to the limit to win. Kramer has become almost invincible at all distances up to twenty-five miles. The annual six-day race at Madison Square Garden went to Alfred Goullet and Alfred Grenda, who established a new world's record for the event.

With the exception of the victory of Freddie Welsh in the lightweight division no boxing titles changed hands. Welsh defeated Willie Ritchie after twenty rounds at the London Olympia. He received the decision on points. Champion Jack Johnson's contests can hardly be considered in the nature of championship battles, as his opponents were not of high calibre.

OBSERVE XMAS IN THE CHURCHES

Interesting Services Held in City and Borough Edifices.

ELABORATE PROGRAMS

Special Music by Choirs and Children Together with Appropriate Sermons Enjoyed by Many Worshippers.

Special Christmas programs comprising recitations, the singing of carols and appropriate sermons were presented in many of the local churches yesterday. The programs were as follows:

TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Christmas was observed in Temple Baptist Bible school, yesterday morning, and was in every way successful. It was observed as "White Sunday," with all the decorations in white. There was a new depature for the school this year. It was made a giving Christmas, and each class bought of their gifts for the King. The result was beyond expectation. Around the large white cross which stood in one corner of the room were piled high the provisions which had been brought and will now be given to the Children's Home, for which they were donated. It was a great day for the school.

The church was completely filled, and there was present, probably the largest number of members of the school that ever assembled for a session of the school. Every teacher was present and every officer except one, who was unavoidably detained, and seven classes were complete. The program was carried out as arranged and was in every way a most enjoyable day. The committee in charge, Mrs. E. E. Conover, George E. Hall and P. I. Minton.

The Sunday-school session and the morning service at the Temple Baptist church were held together at 10:30 a. m., with the following music included: "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks," "O Worship the King," "Manger Song," by the primary department; "Joy to the World" and "Dear Little Stranger." A salute to the flag, an address of welcome by Miss Florence Bouton, a roll call of the classes, with announcements of their contributions to the Children's Home of Plainfield and a story, "The Other Wise Man," by Rev. E. E. Conover, pastor of the church, was also included in the order of service.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

Morning service at 10:30: Organ prelude, "Jubilate Deo," Silver; doxology, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," Ken-Burgeois: response, "Lord, Have Mercy Upon Us," Wilson; gloria, "Allelulia!! O Lord of All," Neidlinger; hymn, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear;" response, "Hear Us, O Father," McAfee; hymn, "O Little Town of Bethlehem;" cantata, "The Adoration," Nevin; sermon, "The Unspeakable Gift;" offertory-duet, "Holy Night," Dossert; hymn, "Hark the Herald Angels Sing;" choral benediction, "Grace Be Unto You," Beethoven; organ postlude, "Festival Offertoire," Read.

Bible school at 3 p. m.: Processional, singing, school; song, beginners' department; exercise, "The First Christmas," Hazel DeNise, Wilma Van Hone, Marie Glaentzer, Elizabeth Trembath; song, "The Christmas Story," Edmund Young, Herbert Young; recitation, "An Up-to-date Santa Claus," Stanley Higgins; exercise, "Living On Hope," Edward Kellog, Francis Anson, Edgar Seader, recitation, "Old Kris Kringle's Coming," Clifford Gary; recitation, "A Serious Question," Louise Pangborn; recitation, "My Choice," Edith Coriell; recitation, "Too Good to Last," Harry Messler; song, "Chiming Bells," Helen DeNise; recitation, "The Gray Lamb," Pauline Davidson; singing, school; offertory anthem, "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings," Brown; recitation, "Message of the Stars," Hazel Creveling, Alma Allegar, Frances Neighbor; recitation, "Star Children," Alva Hansen, Marjorie Martin, Ethel Stryker, Florence Hibbard, Marjorie Van Emburgh, Ruth Colthar, Helen Foster, Gladys Bye; singing, school; address; singing, school.

CRESCENT AVE. PRESBYTERIAN.

The four Sunday-schools of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church held a union service, yesterday afternoon. Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, pastor of the home church, presided, and was assisted by the pastors and superintendents of the visiting schools. The program included the following: Organ prelude; voluntary, High School Orchestra; hymn, "Holy Night;" hymn, "What Child Is This?" hymn, "We Three Kings of Orient Are;" address by William D. Murray; exercises by the schools of Hope and Warren chapels; hymn, "O, Little Town of Bethlehem;" hymn, "The First Noel;" offertory; hymn, "Thou Didst Leave Thy Throne;" organ postlude.

The following Christmas music was rendered at the morning service of the Crescent Avenue church: Prelude, "Largo" (concerto for organ), Handel; anthem, "Child Jesus Comes," Old Noel; anthem, "There Were Shepherds" (manger throne), Manney; offertory anthem, "A Joyful Christmas Song," Old French; postlude, "Hallelujah," Handel.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Sunday-school of this church met yesterday morning at 9:45 for its Christmas exercises, with A. M. Harris presiding. The program included the following: Cornet call to order, Miss Jewel; carol, "Merry Christmas," by the school; exercises by beginners' and primary departments; recitation, the junior department; calor, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," by the school; address by George H. Bachelor, of the Men's Bible class; song, by Miss Helen Roseberry, of the intermediate department, accompanied by Katherine Endress; carol, "The Snow Lay On the Ground," by the school; solo, "Lullaby of the Chimes," by Mrs. Frank, of the Jones Bible class; recitation, "Legend of Service," by Josephine Giglio, of the Matlack Bible class; carol, by the senior department; violin solo, by Miss Marguerite Burnett, of the Chapman Bible class; a quartet selection from the Probasco Bible class; reading, by Miss Baldwin, of the Beta Alpha class; carol, "Tell it Once Again," by the school. The members of the school also made Christmas gifts of dinners, etc. The Christmas music by the choir will be given next Sunday night.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

The Sunday-school annual carol service was held in Vincent chapel, of the First M. E. church, yesterday morning, with an unusually large attendance. The room was decorated with Christmas greens and red bells by Walter Kennedy. The school sang carols, led by C. A. Braider, with instrumental accompaniment by Miss Gertrude Sharp, pianist; Erwin Leland, trombone; L. W. Henderson and Merton Glover, cornets.

Recitations were given by the following members of the beginners' class: Elizabeth McGee, Claude Hann, Florence and Wilbur Bolsterle, Norman Durrant, Marian Moyer, Herbert von Dreele, Eleanor Coward, Alice Sutphen and George Knight. Alice Sutphen, Ursula Johanson, Hazel DeNice and Eleanor Coward sang a cradle song.

The boys and girls from the primary department who spoke were: Edith Conway, Hazel Tilley, Hazel McVoy, Elsie Hunter, Daisy Hill, Irene Meermans, Harry Kleiner, Kathryn Clark, Howard Kennett and Joseph Odgers.

The Christmas entertainment will be held tonight at 8 o'clock. The party for the younger children will be given Tuesday, December 29.

HOPE CHAPEL.

The choir of Hope chapel rendered special music at both morning and evening services yesterday, when the pastor, Rev. Frederic L. Greene, delivered two sermons appropriate to the occasion. Both services were well attended.

NETHERWOOD REFORMED.

Rev. Edward S. Ralston, pastor of the Netherwood Reformed church, used stereopticon slides at the evening service yesterday, illustrating the childhood life of Christ, Mr. Ralston telling the story of the life as the slides were shown. Special Christmas anthems interspersed the slides. Mr. Ralston preached a sermon at the morning service appropriate to the Christmas serson. Music also marked the latter service.

P. H. S. GIRLS TASTE A 17 TO 11 DEFEAT

Hackensack Players Familiar With Home Court and Outscore Visitors.

The girls' basketball team of the Plainfield High School traveled to Hackensack by automobile Saturday, to play the girls' basketball team of that place. After a closely contested game they were forced to return home with a defeat by the score of 17 to 11. Plainfield's only scores in the first half were a foul goal by Miss Simons and a field goal and a foul by Miss Crane; while for Hackensack, Miss Bogert scored two foul goals and Miss Enrich scored two field goals.

Throughout the first part of the second half the teams played along on even terms, but towards the end Hackensack showed superior strength and gradually drew away.

The score:

NOTHING CAN STOP ELIZABETH JUNIORS

Betsytown League Leaders Going "Great Guns" on the Junior Circuit.

Representatives of the Elizabeth lodge command a wide advantage in the Elks' Junior Bowling League race, according to the statistics compiled for the week by Secretary V. W. Nash, Jr., and made public today. The Betsytown wood-splitters have experienced the sting of defeat in but one start and have managed to collect eleven victories out of four series or twelve games. Three clean sweeps and a "two out of three" are credited to the league leaders who present a battling front that bids fair to bring to earth the first gonfalon in the infant organization.

Captain Chauncey Stout and his Plainfield colts cling to third position in the team race with four wins and five reverses, for an average of .444. Newark trails Elizabeth for the leading honor with five victories and a quartet of defeats. Besides being the runner-up in the team records the pinners from Jersey's metropolis cherish the high team score record, floating a tally of 1,001. Elizabeth ranks second in the team high score honors with a 961 and Jersey City, although warming the cellar step, comes in for a close third with a 952. The Skeetertown Elks occupy the pit with an average of .222 for two wins and seven reverses. Besides holding the first place advantage the Union county seat pinners also cherish the record of having engaged in one more series than any of the other five contenders up to the Christmas holiday period. Pinning in the organization will be at a standstill from now until the first week in January, the usual holiday recess being in order.

Blythe, a member of the top-notchers, is the individual average leader with a record of 185.7. Sorter, of Newark, is placed on the top of the heap, but has engaged in but one series and therefore the honor logically belongs to the Elizabethean, who has *participated in the full quota of en*gagements. Sorter has started off with a flourish and in three contests set up a record of 206.2. Hudson, of Jersey City, who led the pack last week, has fallen to fifth place with a tally of 181.8 for nine contests. VanBergen, of Elizabeth, managed to retain his high individual tally throughout the week, none of the rival pinners being able to touch his 239. Haggerty's 230 comes in for second honors and Sorter ranks third with a 228.

Thirty-two bowlers have taken part in the contests in which the half dozen aggregations have participated to date, leaving but two substitutes.

P. H. S. ALUMNI WILL HAVE STRONG TEAM MONDAY NIGHT

The Plainfield High School basketball team will have its hands full next Monday night, when it meets the Alumni team on the High School court. There are nine of the graduates who will don uniforms and all will probably be put into the contest. Five of the players have at one time had first team berths and two of the men were captains.

Four colleges will be represented by the Alumni, with Monroe Good from Colgate, Edson Woodhull from N. Y. U., Jim Nash from Temple, and Donald Sminck from Y. M. C. A. College. Others that will play against the present team are John Heron, Jack Ricketts, Jim Buckle, Arthur VanZandt and Arthur Grisley. Out of this aggregation five can be picked that will give the present team a good run for the highest score.

N. P. H. S. USES Y. M. C. A.

The North Plainfield High School basketball team was granted the use of the Y. M. C. A. court this afternoon from 2 to 3 o'clock by Physical Director Meermans, to practice for the coming league game with Leal's next Wednesday. A good practice was held with all members of the squad present.

THAW MUST GO BACK TO NEW YORKK STATE

U. S. Supreme Court Decides Extradition Request Is Regular.

Washington, Dec. 21—A decision was handed down in the Supreme Court today, in which it was decided that Harry K. Thaw, who has been fighting to avoid extradition to New York State from New Hampshire, where he is now in custody, must be returned to New York to face an indictment for conspiracy or whatever disposition New York sees fit to make of him.

The court held that the extradition request of New York was regular, thereby disagreeing with the decision of Federal Judge Aldrich, of New Hampshire, who sustained Thaw's habeas corpus proceedings.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — The Little Cabin In the Winter Time.

The Children Had Seen a Pretty Little Cabin.

THE children had enjoyed a sleigh ride with daddy that afternoon, it being Saturday and with no school sessions. They had driven through a piece of woodland that in summer was very beautiful, but which now looked quite desolate. The children had seen a pretty little cabin, well back from the road, with its roof all covered with snow.

"My," said Evelyn, with a little shiver, "it seemed so cold and lonely, daddy. I was so sorry for the little cabin, all alone by its cold little self in the woods."

"Huh," retorted Jack scornfully; "a cabin's only wood! It can't feel any, can it, daddy?"

"I'm not so sure of that, son," replied daddy very seriously. "Everything in this world is a mystery which we can only attempt to explain. When daddy took you to the old fort that figured in the war of 1812 didn't it seem to be telling you things?"

"Yes!" cried Jack, his eyes very bright. "I know what you mean, daddy."

"Of course you do," answered daddy. "Well, children, maybe the little cabin in the woods is not as lonely in the winter time as you think. Let's see about that. It won't do us any harm to guess.

"In the first place, the little cabin's logs are portions of trees that used to grow there and were cut down to make the cabin, and these logs may enjoy their new life in the making of a summer home for men—who knows? And perhaps in the winter time, when the surrounding trees are all bare and the wind is howling and the snow lies on the ground, the logs tell the trees all about the new life, and the trees tell the logs about what the squirrels and other animals that live in and around them are doing, and they have the nicest time ever and visit just like grown folks—who knows?

"And they visit with the snow that calls upon them for awhile, and the snow tells them all about what is going on up in the clouds, and then the north wind comes and tells them about old Jack Frost and how he is having fun with the world and about what King Snow up at the north pole is planning for the new year.

"Then after awhile along comes the south wind and whispers of how soon spring will be along to make the world warmer and happier, and the trees are glad to hear that the leaves will return to their branches, and the cabin is glad to learn that its beloved people will return to it.

"No, kiddies; maybe the little cabin isn't as lonely in the winter as you think."

"Good night, kiddies."

The Wife's Money

BY MRS. EVA LEONARD

"Tell me what is the matter, John," begged Mrs. Stoddard as her husband sank into a chair and buried his head on his arm.

"We are ruined, Amy," he answered in a low voice.

"Ruined," she echoed. "Surely not as bad as that. Tell me the worst, but I can't believe it means ruin."

He raised his head wearily. "The packing house has refused to let me have any more meat and threatens to close our shop if I do not pay up at once. If that's not ruin I don't know what you would call it."

He looked haggard and old as he sat there, and his wife's heart was filled with pity. She sat down on the arm of his chair and put her arm around his neck, drawing his head to her shoulder.

"How much have you due you on accounts?" she asked.

"A full $100 more than I owe, but I can never collect more than fifty per cent," and he relapsed into silence.

The clock ticked away as she sat turning over his problem. Finally she said brightly:

"I have it all planned out. Let the company close you up. Give them the books. They will collect what you owe them all right. People know you are easy going and they impose on you. The money will come when the debts are in other hands to collect."

"What then?" he asked bitterly. "Paying my debt will not support my family."

"You know my sister Nellie has been urging us to come to Stratton," continued his wife. "She says she is sure there is a good opening there for a meat market. You know more about buying and cutting meat than the average meat man. Your only trouble has been with your collections. Start a cash market. Make no deliveries. You told me deliveries raised the price of meat nearly three cents on a pound. In your opening announcement state that and say you propose to give people the benefit of that three cents. That will draw these hard times."

"It sounds all right, if we had the money to start with," answered her husband, beginning to brighten under her cheery influence.

"We have the money!" she said gaily. "I have saved $200 from my allowance during all these years, and now that will start us toward getting on our feet again. I will go and write Nellie and say we are coming. May I?"

"Bless your heart! A man who could fail with you for a wife must be a poor bird, indeed," and he put his arm around her and held her close as he continued:

"I will go right down to the packing house and then take the train for Stratton this afternoon."

"Get a shop with living rooms overhead. It will be cheaper and I can help you out during busy hours," she replied.

"All right. Goodby," and he kissed her and swung out of the door.

The new butcher shop in Stratton had the name of being the only immaculately clean shop in town. Mrs. Stoddard saw to that. There was never a spot on the apron or cap worn by her husband. People soon learned that a note describing just the cut desired if sent by a child would bring as good meat as that selected in person. The cheaper prices drew trade.

After the children were off to school, Mrs. Stoddard went to the shop and while her husband cut and weighed the meat she wrapped the parcels and made the change. At the end of a year there was a comfortable sum in the bank to their credit.

Before many years they moved to a cozy home in the pretty part of town, but every week the maid thoroughly scrubbed the shop under the supervision of the mistress, for she insisted, "Scientific cutting of meat and absolute cleanliness have made our success."

"That and no debts," supplemented her husband.

SCHOOL FRATERNITY HELD XMAS PARTY

Girls Met Santa Claus in Y. W. C. A. Parlors Saturday Night.

The Sigma Gamma Kappa, of North Plainfield High School, held a Christmas party in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A., Saturday evening, the affair being arranged by the different members of the society.

The larger part of the evening was spent in playing games and a prize was awarded to Miss Marjorie Burtis for the best representation of a certain adjective in the game of charades.

Everybody who attended the party brought a small gift and these were all placed under the Christmas tree which was tastily decorated with many beautiful colored ornaments. The guests were then blindfolded and one at a time went up to the tree and drew a present from among the packages strewn beneath its branches. Refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, ice cream and cake.

Those present were: The Misses Philadelphia basketeers took the Smith, Edna Green, Dorothy Lee Madeline Blair, Marjorie Burtis, Lillian Spencer, Dorothy Martin, Bertha Keller, Lucy Douglas, Margare Brizzi, Marian Avery, Elsie Debele Marion Wooley and Salina and Florence Cornwell, Edna Aller and Mrs Goddard.

The committees in charge were Refreshment, Dorothy Martin, chairman; Marion Wooley and Salina Cornwell; entertainment, Dorothy Lee, chairman; Ann Hull, Margare Brizzi and Mary Buchanan; decoration, Elsie Debele, chairman.

CAMPAIGN PROVED A GREAT SUCCESS

As a Result the "New Muhlenberg" is Today a Reality.

About three years ago, when the "Whirlwind Campaign" was contemplated and authorized by the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital the success of the enterprise was viewed by many friends of the hospital with considerable skepticism and doubt. It did not seem possible to them, in view of the condition of the times, that the results desired could be accomplished. When the returns were all in it was then seen that the fondest hopes of the supporters of this movement were more than realized.

The liberality and generous support of the people at that time have made it possible for the Board of Governors to create an entirely new and modern institution for the care of the sick in the community. The "New Muhlenberg" as it exists today is an institution that the people of Plainfield and the surrounding community might well be proud of.

In is interesting, and most encouraging to hear from patients leaving the hospital cured of their passing ailments, words of commendation and pleasure at their treatment while in the hospital, and satisfaction at the condition and general atmosphere of the place.

Inasmuch as the people of Plainfield have made the "New Muhlenberg" hospital, and as its support is maintained through their continued generosity, the Board of Governors is particularly anxious that the people should see and acquaint themselves thoroughly with the conditions now existing. It is hoped that your interest in the affairs of this institution will take you to the institution for an inspection and that you may see for yourself. Seeing is believing.

N. P. H. S. NOTES.

The double quartet which was to sing in the Christmas exercises Wednesday has been cut to a single quartet, because of the failure of some of the members to turn out to rehearsals. Those who will sing are: Townley, first tenor; French, second tenor; Chandler, first bass; Schroeder, second bass.

SPECIAL PRAYER SERVICE.

In accordance with a request from the Union County Christian Endeavor Union, the societies thoughout the county yesterday set aside a few minutes for a special service of prayer that the National Prohibition amendment to the Constitution be passed by Congress. It is expected that a vote will be taken in Congress tomorrow.

Daddy's Bedtime -- Story --

The Story of The Big Tree and The Little Tree

Written by MISS ELVIRA PATTEN, 927 West Fourth St., Plainfield

Way up in the State of Maine there are many, many woods. One of them has more fir trees than anything else. In this wood lived the trees that I am going to tell you about.

About a mile from the beginning of the wood there are two trees. One of them is a great big fir tree and the other is a little tiny bit of a fir tree. The big tree is very proud of himself and holds his head way up in the air. He sometimes looks down on the little tree alongside of him and makes fun of it because it is so tiny.

One day, about two weeks before Christmas, there was a very bad snow storm in the woods. The soft, white flakes came down in thousands and made the forest all white. It clung to the branches of the big tree and made it look very pretty indeed. The big tree knew that it looked pretty and bent down to tell the little tree to look at him. He looked down, but at first he couldn't see his little neighbor. Then a gust of wind came along and blew some of the snow off the little tree. You see the little tree was so very tiny that it was all covered up by the snow.

"Ht! ha!" laughed the big tree, "how funny you look all covered up with snow. See how pretty I look with the snow on me. I'm big enough so that I can be seen even if it does snow. But you are so—oh, dear me, I'm afraid I'll bend in two laughing at you."

"Never you mind," said the little tree in a smothered voice, "you might be sorry that you are so big some day. You know that the woodmen are coming every day to chop down trees to use for Christmas. They will see you standing out so big and high and will cut you down. But they won't see me because I am so little. You will be taken away and I can stay here with my friends."

This started the big tree thinking and he wished now that he was not quite so big. But it was too late now. The next day two woodmen came with axes and saws and cut down the big tree.

One of the men saw the little tree and said, "do we want this tree, Bill?"

"No," said Bill, "that's too little."

And so the little tree was left to stay in his home in the forest while the big tree was taken away.

Household Hints

TO MAKE UNBREAKABLE DOLL

One-half yard of tennis and one bolt of stickerei braid will make two dolls.

For the body of doll take a piece of tennis four inch by six inches, fold together and sew across one end and one side, then stuff with cotton batting. Take colored crayons, make eyes, nose and mouth.

Then sew a skirt made of stiff paper about 2½ inches from top of the body.

For outside skirt take a piece of tennis 18 inches by 10 inches, sew braid around bottom, sew up and gather, then fasten to doll.

For cape, take a three-cornered piece of tennis eight inches by ten inches; round the corners and hollow the neck; sew braid all around it and fasten to doll.

For muff, take a piece of the tennis about two inches by three inches, sew braid on sides, sew up ends, run a piece of cloth folded through the muff and pin underneath the cape.

For hood, take a three-cornered piece of tennis 7½ inches by 9½ inches, round the corners, sew braid all around, then gather neck a little, also one-half inch back of edge in front, and fasten to doll. Place a red ribbon bow on the top of the hood and one at the back of the neck.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

Tack a piece of cheesecloth on under side of register; will find a great decrease in amount of dust coming through the hot air pipes.

To Clean Duck or Goose—After picking off all feathers, take some finely powdered rosin and rub it on the bird; this will remove all the down. Scald as soon as you rub the rosin on.

To Patch Wire Screens—Cut wire cloth patch of desired size. Unravel one strand on each edge and with a couple of table knives you can turn up the projecting ends of each edge at right angles. Then place patch over hole, push ends of wires through screen carefully and bend and rub down smooth, making a neat patch, hardly visible and without needle or thread.

THE TABLE

Doughnuts—One and one-half cups sugar, two eggs well beaten, one cup sweet milk, three teaspoons melted butter and lard, pinch of salt, two teaspoons cream of tartar, one teaspoon baking soda mixed in a sifter of flour, one teaspoon nutmeg. Add enough flour to make a soft dough. Roll out about 1½ inches thick, fry in smoking hot fat. A piece of suet in the lard will prevent them from absorbing grease.

Fruit Cake That Is Not Baked—Half pound dates chopped fine, half pound figs, half pound citron, half pound seedless raisins, half pound walnut meats. Grind or chop all together fine; roll in a cup of powdered sugar, roll in waxed paper and keep in a cool place. It is very nice and will keep a long time. It will be ready to eat in 24 hours after making. Do not bake it.

SIMPLE HOME REMEDIES

For Chilblains—Slice raw potato with skin on, sprinkle over a little salt. Wash chilblains with the liquid that draws from the potatoes.

For Chapped Hands—The following has brought relief when all others failed to do so: One ounce acetic acid, one ounce glycerin, one ounce witch hazel, juice of two lemons. A little perfume may be added if desired.

For Perspiration in Armpits—Apply something that will destroy the odor, but not stop the perspiration. The following will not soil or spoil the waist: Ten cents' worth of zinc ointment mixed with one teaspoon boric acid, 10 drops carbolic acid and 10 drops lavender. This ointment should be rubbed well under armpits after they have been bathed and dried. Then dust on a powder made of one-fourth pound cornstarch mixed with two ounces orris root.

Ringworm—Get 5 cents' worth of gunpowder and wet it with a little vinegar; put on at night, leave on till morning. Do this three nights and you will see no more of it. Make a paste of the powder and vinegar.

WE do not take this space to tell you how cheaply we print. We do not want that kind of printing.

The kind of printing we do, however, cannot be bought for less, anywhere.

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and further more, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jads Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Adv.

Third Episode Shown December 23.
"The Mystery of the Dutch Cheese Maker."

The hundreds of Plainfielders who have been following the story of Zudora, the mystery serial photo-play at Proctor's Theatre, will be given an oportunity on Wednesday of this week to see "the mystery of the Dutch Cheese Maker" solved, when episode three will be the feature of the popular Front street theatre. Each installment of this production of the Thanhauser Film Corporation becomes more interesting to the spectators, and Dr. Daniel Carson Goodman, the originator of the plot, has worked out one of the greatest masterpieces of the film. There is a rarely exciting panorama of constantly changing events. Again the hand of the mystic detective, Hassam Ali, is turned against John Storm, sweetheart of his niece, Zudora, who, unknown to herself, on her eighteenth birthday, becomes heir to the great Zudora mine. The $20,000,000 value represented by this mine, Hasam Ali wants for himself. If he can only get rid of Zudora he can accomplish this end, for he is the next heir at law to his clever and pretty ward. Zudora has twice pitted her skill as a mystic against her uncle's, and, in doing so, twice rescued her lover from peril. In the present episode her daring and resourcefulness is put to a supreme test.

The picture begins by showing John Storm in the store of the Dutch cheese maker who has asked the young lawyer to draw up his will for him. After their conversation is completed, the old man gives his counselor a piece of cheese as a present and Storm goes out the door with it tucked carelessly under his arm, and, as luck would have it, going down the steps he drops it. Quick with suspicion and on the alert for any chance, Hassam Ali, who has come up behind him, stoops and picks up the cheese.

A minute later the mystic is approached by a miserably clothed, old, long bearded tramp, who asks his aid in marketing some diamonds. Hassam Ali learns from this old man, that he manufactures diamonds that are seemingly as wonderful as Nature's own. Hassam Ali gives the old man his card, and learns that his plant is in the cellar of this very building and directly under the shop of the Dutch cheese maker. They go down and examine it, and the inventor, flinging carbon in a blast furnace, causes an explosion, that produces a diamond. This diamond Hasam Ali takes to a jeweler and learning that it is genuine becomes greatly excited.

When he returns to the inventor's, however, he learns that the old man is being systematically robbed, and that his suspicions have centered on the mystic as the only man who has been in the underground quarters. The two men clinch, but Hassam Ali subdues his frailer opponent and then convinces him that he has taken nothing, and that they must try to apprehend the thief. They set a trap in the hope of doing this, and Hassam Ali goes home where he opens his package dropped by Storm and to his intense astonishment and glee discovers that the cheese is full of diamonds. Here, indeed, is a case where he can surely convict Zudora's manly young sweeheart, and get rid of him once and for all. When his niece says that she is going to make this mystery the third of her twenty cases, her uncle laughs to himself. He has promised her that if she solves twenty cases for him, he will give his permission to her marriage with Storm, but he feels confident that this time she is going to fail.

Making careful inquiries of all concerned from the little daughter of the Dutch cheese maker, who is now in prison, to Storm himself, Zudora finally goes down the rickety stairs into the dusty cellar occupied by the diamond inventor. Thinking that at last the thief who has robbed him so systematically of his gems is about to fall into his clutches, the old man rushes at her in a fury and she is only saved by the arrival of Hassam Ali. While the mystic does not raise his hand to help her, the old man stops at sight of him and Zudora gets a chance to explain. Just by chance, when they free her, she escapes putting her foot in a great mantrap set on the floor, but, as she leans back against the wall, gasping faintly, the solution of the whole mystery suddenly occurs to her.

She has heard, between the walls, the scamper of hurrying feet, and she immediately goes and looks into one of the great cheese vats. There she finds two mice. Their noses are sticky with cheese, and one glance at them convinces Zudora. Running back to the cupboard where the diamonds are kept she pushes her arm in and smilingly waits her chance. Presently she hears the mice enter. Soon her hand closes round one of them, and she brings the little pet out and holds him up with a diamond firmly stuck to the cheese on the end of his nose. This explains how the diamonds got into the cheese, and the cheese maker, when he is released from jail promises, in future, to restrict the activities of his pets. Once more John Storm is cleared by the wit of his sweetheart, and once more the evil designs of Hassam Ali are frustrated.

COLBY TO SPEAK AT FISH DINNER AT ELIZABETH

The complimentary dinner being given in Elizabeth by members of the Roselle Park Good Government Campaign Committee to Mayor Harwood Fish, Edwin T. McNaughton, Harry F. Langhans and Benjamin W. Brown, the candidates elected on the Progressive ticket at the recent election, promises to be successful. The dinner will be held tomorrow night, and nearly 200 diners, both men and women, are expected.

An interesting musical and oratorical program will be provided. The principal speakers of the evening will be Everett Colby, of Essex county, Mrs. Robert S. Huse, of Elizabeth, who will speak on Woman's Suffrage, and the successful Roselle Park candidates, Mrs. Edythe Currie, of Cranford, will present her celebrated suffrage monologue, while violin, piano and vocal selections will complete the program.

Captain Alfred Atkins will act as toastmaster. Charles E. Renton is chairman, and Councilman Lewis V. Hobbs treasurer of the dinner committee.

PROCTOR'S THEATRE

The bill at Proctor's Theatre for the first half of this week will be headed by the Laurent Trio, Europe's latest novelty act, in which the members of the company present their great "human stone breaking" act. The Laurents are listed among the world's strongest men, and they perform feats of strength never before seen in this city. Breaking large stones with their fists places their work out of the ordinary, and caps the climax in physical possibilties. Other numbers on the bill are Caryle & Grindell, comedy variety; Marius & Clements, high-class singing; Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, comedy sketch, and Budd Barlow, black face comedian. Feature pictures will be an added attraction at Proctor's Theatre all next week. On Monday and Thursday, the latest Broadway sensation, "The Seats of the Mighty," will be shown; on Tuesday, the feature will be the twentieth epsode of "The Perils of Pauline," and on Wednesday the third episode of "Zudora" will be flashed on the screen. Other big feature pictures will be announced within a few days.

STOLE POOR WOMAN'S FOWLS FATTENED FOR XMAS SALE

Local and borough police are making a vigilant search for a chicken thief who entered the coop of Mrs. Mary Romanski, at 725 South Second street, and got away with sixteen chickens. The poultry had been fattened in preparation for selling before Christmas and the woman had counted on turning the returns into a Christmas fund for the family.

FINNERTY IS RELEASED.

Patrick Finnerty, of Prescott place, who was committed to the Somerset county jail, Wednesday, owing to his inability to pay a fine of $40 imposed upon him for his part in a street fight a week ago, has been released following the payment of the fine by one of his friends. Fines amounting to $130 were collected as a result of the free-for-all-fight in which Finnerty was engaged.

WILL PAY FOR DAMAGE.

Hennes Denison, who was arrested by the police Thursday night following a rampage in the city building, while under the influence of liquor, was arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court, Saturday, and promised to pay for all damages, including several large window panes which he broke. He also took the pledge.

SUCCESSFUL RUMMAGE SALE.

The Equal Suffrage League held a very successful rummage sale at the headquarters on Depot avenue. The sale will be continued today from 9 until 5. Special articles on sale will be carpets and rugs, shoes, warm clothing, dress suits, men's shirts, out-grown Christmas toys and dolls.

MEETS WEDNESDAY.

The local Building Trades' Council which regularly meets Friday evenings, will meet during the next two weeks on Wednesday evenings, owing to Christmas and New Year's falling on Friday.

N. P. H. S. TO PLAY EX-CHAMPION FIVE

City and County Title Holders of 1912 Will Reorganize for One Night.

One of the best basketball attractions of the Christmas holidays will be staged in Saengerbund Hall next Saturday night, when the North Plainfield High School aggregation will play the North Plainfield 1912 city and Somerset county champions. This will probably be the last time that the five alumnae that played three years ago will be together and Manager VanMater has booked this game for a holiday attraction.

Two of the members of the double champion team are at college at the present time, but George Townley has returned home for his holiday vacation, and Carroll Taylor, who is a student in the Colorado School of Mines, is expected to arrive tonight for a visit with his parents. These two players, with "Bill" Taylor, Burner and Dunning, will complete the 1912 aggregation that will play the present aspirants for the city title.

All of the "grads" are in good shape, three being members of the local Y. M. C. A. squad, and Townley and Taylor both getting their training at school. "Bill" Taylor is heading the Alumni quintet and plans to unearth the old number signals that were so successful when this team was in action. He captained the team in 1912. Another feature will be dancing until midnight after the game.

—Write a better "To Let" advertisement than is printed today, and see how quickly you'll find a tenant.

SHOTS AND MISSES

Some notables results were chalked up by the four teams engaging in the double preliminary bill in the Y. M. C. A. gym, Saturday night, each of the two league contests being terminated with the teams a single point apart. Another feature is garnered in the fact that the winning aggregation in each instance was hopelessly in the rear at the completion of the initial period of battling, spurts in the final session being responsible for both verdicts.

As far as close fighting is concerned the minor attractions far surpassed the main bill, which was a one-sided affair throughout with the locals way out in front. Some good shooting and clever passing, however, made up for the one-sidedness of the score.

With a couple of overwhelming victories to their credit the Hope Chapel and Y. M. C. A. aggregations will go into the initial city match on the association court Christmas night, primed to spring something out of the ordinary. Hope also disposed of its opponent in easy fashion Saturday night.

No matter how poor an exhibition these two rivals put up against other teams during the season they are always there with the punch when they meet as court combatants. The Xmas card will be one well worth the price of admission and local fans should make it a point to be "among those present."

Taking results of Somerville engagements as a criterion we would say that the North Plainfield High School aggregation is just about 100 per cent. better than the Plainfield High School squad. Somerville, an aggregation that made the locals look like novices, was walloped by N. P. H. S., Saturday afternoon.

Substantiating our contention that Somerville High School sends the scrappiest delegation of athletes to Plainfield and the borough of any schoolboy rival, the Somerset county youths put up the "dirtiest" exhibition of the court sport seen in Saengerbund Hall in many moons, Saturday afternoon. The visitors had no regard for rules and sought only to bring their fists and feet into prominence.

Coach Wardlaw, of Leal School, and Coach Patch, of Plainfield High School, were side-line witnesses of the N. P. H. S.-Somerville fracas, Saturday afternoon. Both were noticed to slip out the door before the scuffle ended. Draw your own conclusions.

WONDERFUL FINISH OF SIX-DAY GRIND

Fred Hill Injured and His Partner Pedals Unaided to Victory.

When the judges finished the arduous task of compiling the points that were scored by the bicycle riders in the last hour of the second six-day race held in Newark, and which finished Saturday night at the First Regiment Armory, the team of Alfred Goullet and Fred Hill was declared the winners, with a total of 101 points.

The reconstructed team of Clarence Carman and Harry Kaiser, the paced champion and ex-amateur champion, finished in second place, fifteen points back of the winners, while Gordon Walker, the Australian, and Gus Wohlrab, the Jersey City ex-amateur, finished in the third place, with a total of eighty points. Fourth and fifth places were divided between the teams of Jimmy Moran and Peter Drobach, of Chelsea and South Boston, respectively, and Bobby Walthour, the six-day veteran from Atlanta, and Frank Cavanagh, the Newark giant. Each team scored sixty-seven points.

Sixth place was taken by Bob Spears and Frank Corry, the Australians, who scored three points less than the two teams who were tied. Last place went to the team composed of Victor Linart, the Belgian, and Marcel Dupuy, the Frenchman, who scored only twenty-one points up to the ninth sprint when they abandoned the contest.

LOTS OF SHOOTING FEATURED CONTEST

Y. M. C. A. Caged 31 Baskets During Game With Elizabeth Saturday Night.

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team registered another easy victory Saturday night, when it defeated the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. aggregation by the score of 66 to 18. This is the highest score that the local five has made this year and it is also the lowest they have held their opponents to. The tight guarding of the local guards was one of the main features as the visitors were all good shooters and made the majority of the shots they tried.

During the entire game the home team outplayed its opponents, its passing keeping the ball in dangerous territory most of the time. In the first half the Elizabeth team made 15 points while the local five totalled up 39. In the second half, Ricketts relieved Moulton, Newkirk took Glover's place and Gavett played center in place of Dunning. Parsons, a guard, made the only field goal scored in this half by Elizabeth.

Ricketts, Gavett and Taylor each scored four field goals in this period. Wilkinson and Reeves were the best scorers for the Elizabeth team.

M'LAUGHLIN AGAIN TOPS LIST OF TENNIS NOTABLES

While it was the first time in thirty-five years that a national champion had not been placed first in the list by the ranking committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, the announcement Saturday night that R. Norris Williams, of Philadelphia, the present titleholder, had been placed below Maurice F. McLaughlin, the California wonder, created no surprise.

It was almost universally admitted that McLaughlin's record in 1914 clearly surpassed that to the credit of Williams. That the latter defeated McLaughlin in the nationals at Newport was the only argument in the former's favor. He lost to both Brooks and Wilding in the Davis Cup, while McLaughlin defeated both these Australians. McLaughlin also defeated Williams at Longwood earlier in the season and his defeat at the hands of the Philadelphian is the only mar on his record.

GAVETT TEMPORARY LEADER.

Joe Gavett, who plays center for the Y. M. C. A. basketball team, was appointed temporary captain before the game Saturday night, to fill the place of Al. Brynairski until he is again able to play. Brynairski was at first going to quit the game for the rest of the season, but was persuaded to retain the captaincy until a future date.

HOPE CHAPEL FIVE WALLOPED AMERICANS

Perth Amboy Visitors Allowed Only Two Points in the Initial Period.

The American A. A. basketball team, which hails from Perth Amboy, was no match for the Hope chapel five Saturday night, and was defeated by a score of 43 to 12. The Hope team was the leader at all times and by excellent team work the ball was fed to Heron and Walls, who scored almost at will. The local guards played a very close game at first and the visiting forwards could not get a shot. Hurster, who played a guard for the Amboy five, made the only count of the half for his team. The initial period ended with the score 21 to 2.

Three field goals and four fouls were scored by the visitors in the second half which gave them a total of twelve points, while the Hope players were increasing the score continually. Heron made seven goals and three fouls and Walls made five field goals.

WHITES NOSE OUT BLUE TEAM BY JUST ONE POINT

One point separated the final scores of the Blue and White teams of the Y. M. C. A. Color League, Saturday night, the Whites taking the decision by the score of 18 to 17. SOMERVILLE TROUNCED BY BOROUGH QUINTET

County Seaters No Match for Speedy "Champs" in Game Last Saturday.

The North Plainfield High School basketball team took the lead in the race for the Somerset county interscholastic court title, Saturday afternoon, on the Saengerbund Hall court, when it trounced the Somerville High School five to the tune of 46 to 18. The local players were in the game all the time and their passing and accurate shooting continually increased the score.

The long distance shots tried by the Somerville players rewarded them but once, this being when VanPelt scored a fine basket from the middle of the court. North Plainfield worked the ball under its opponents' basket by a series of short, speedy passes and then it was dropped in by one of the forwards. "Bob" Hebert played a stellar game at guard and also scored five field goals while he held his opponent scoreless. For the first nine minutes of play Somerville did not score and Robeson broke the ice with a two-point tally. The first half ended with the score 25 to 13.

At the beginning of the second half the home team slowed up and Somerville scored several times. Conroy started the "Canadians" on their way again with one of his side shots and then they almost doubled the score of the first period. The game was a rough one throughout and many fouls were called on both sides. Townley was credited with nine field goals while Conroy had five and four fouls. For the visitors VanPelt and Robeson were the main point getters.

SUFFRAGISTS PLAN TO OFFER AMENDMENT

Senator White and Assemblyman Peacock Will Present it in the Legislature.

The Joint Legislative Committee of the four New Jersey Suffrage organizations, the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association, the Women's PoPlitical Union, the Equal Franchise Society and the Men's League for Woman Suffrage, of which Mrs. Philip McKim Garrison, of Llewellyn Park, is chairman, met in Newark on December 17 to discuss its program for the coming session of the Legislature. It was decided to have the suffrage amendment resolution, which will come up for ratification, introduced by Senator Blanchard White and Assemblyman Robert Peacock in the Senate and House of Assembly respectively. Both these men are strong suffragists and have spoken as well as voted for the Constitutional amendment more than once. By a singular coincidence, they both represent Burlington county in the Legislature and both live in the city of Mt. Holly.

As the same resolution was passed by the last Legislature by a vote of 49 to 4 in the Assembly and 15 to 4 in the Senate, and as the platforms of both political parties contain a referendum favoring Woman Suffrage, it is anticipated that both Houses will ratify the resolution this year by a practically unanimous vote.

SHERIFF'S SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between Benjamin Kline, complainant, and Plainfield Plumbing, Hardware and Paint Supply Company and Jersey State Realty Company, defendants. Fi fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the sheriff's office in the Courthouse, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that tract or parcel of land and premises, hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the City of Plainfield, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey.

First Tract—Beginning at a point in the easterly side line of Johannis place, said point being distant northerly along said side line of Johannis place seventy-five (75) feet from its intersection with the northerly side line of West Front street, as the same is now laid out and opened, and running from thence easterly along line of lot number 35, twenty-nine and sixteen one-hundredths (29.16) feet to a point and angle in line of lot number 36; thence northeasterly along line of lot number 36 sixty-five and nine one-hundredths (65.09) feet to a point and corner of lot number 37; thence northwesterly along line of lot number 37, ninety-eight and fifteen one-hundredths (98.15) feet to a point and corner of lot number 29; thence westerly along line of lot number 29 twenty-five and forty-three one-hundredths (25.43) feet to a point and corner in aforementioned easterly side line of Johannis place; thence southerly along said line of Johannis place one hundred and sixty-one and sixty-three one-hundredths (161.63) feet to the point and place of beginning.

Being known as lot numbers 31, 32, 33 and 34, on a map entitled, "Map of property mapped out by Jersey State Realty Co., Plainfield, N. J., March, 1912, F. J. Hubbard, civil engineer, Plainfield, N. J."

Second Tract—All that tract or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey.

Beginning at a point being the intersection of the easterly side line of Johannis place with the northerly side line of West Front street as the same is now laid out and open, and running from thence in a northerly direction along said easterly side line of Johannis place seventy-five (75) feet to a point and corner of lot number 34; thence easterly along line of lot number 34 twenty-nine and sixteen one-hundredths, (29.16) feet to a point and corner of lot number 36; thence southerly along line of lot number 36 eighty-one (81) feet to a point in said northerly side line of West Front street; thence westerly along said northerly side line of West Front street fifty (50) feet to the point and place of beginning.

Being known as lot number 35 on a map entitled, "Map of Property mapped out by Jersey State Realty Co., Plainfield, N. J., March, 1912, F. J. Hubbard, civil engineer, Plainfield, N. J."

"The first tract above described is subject to taxes and tax sales amounting to approximately $250.

"The second tract above described is subject to taxes which upon an apportionment between this and other property are estimated to amount to approximately $65.

"A small portion of the second tract is possibly subject to a prior mortgage of $3,000, covering also other property."

The above described property to be sold in the order and manner described in the writ.

3COOP, THE CUB REPORTER — The Two Strongest Fighters in the Army Come Together — BY "HOP"

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

P. E. Thomsen, of New York, lectured at Coward Hall, 109 Park avenue, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the Associated Bible Students, speaking on the subject, "Peace On Earth, Good Will to Men." An interesting feature of the gathering was the use of a chart portraying the history of the world, past, present and future, according to the Scriptures.

Rev. Dr. Birney S. Hudson, pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, preached yesterday at the morning service on the subject, 'Christmas and the Creative Experience." The subject for the evening service was "The Messiah."

Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, of the Congregational church, preached yesterday morning on the subject, "Three Great Thoughts With Which To Approach Christmas." Special Christmas anthems were sung by the choir.

PERSONAL.

Miss Maude Casselle, formerly a teacher in the borough school, but now of East Orange, was the week-end guest of Miss Bertha Spencer, of Fairview avenue.

Edmond H. Putnam and son, Edmond, Jr., formerly of Woodland avenue, this city, but for the past year of Naples, N. Y., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of East Sixth street.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.

THE Household Loan Company, a local corporation, licensed, bonded and supervised by the Banking Dept. of the State of New Jersey, now offers a limited amount of its preferred stock to the public. Its par value is $10 per share, and may be purchased by people of small or large means, desiring to help the deserving. Six per cent. interest is guaranteed, and all loans are amply secured by chattel mortgage. The number of worthy people desiring loans is very large, and we are not able to serve them all. It is planned, therefore, to extend our work by taking the investing and interested public into partnership with us. We thus hope to be the medium of bringing supply and demand together to their mutual advantage. We invite careful investigation. A statement with our little green book will be sent anyone on request. Call or write. Household Loan Company, 148 East Front street, Plainfield. 12 21 6

The 1915 Christmas Club

will open on Monday, December 28th, 1914, and will run for fifty weeks. Members may be enrolled between December 28th, 1914, and January 9th, 1915.

There will be FOUR CLASSES IN THE NEW CLUB as follows:

CLASS 5.	Payments start at 5c and increase 5c each week.	Total $63.75 with interest.
CLASS 5-A.	Payments start at $2.50 and decrease 5c each week.	Total $63.75 with interest.
CLASS 100.	Even payments of $1.00 made each week.	Total $50.00 with interest.
CLASS 500.	Even payments of $5.00 made each week.	Total $250.00 with interest.

Class 500 is the new feature of the 1915 Club and it is expected that it will be very popular with those who are saving for definite objects.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Plainfield Trust Company has been requested by some of its customers to close the fund earlier next year and while the Club is a copyrighted scheme and supplies are made up in bulk for some two hundred and fifty banks throughout the country on the basis of the fifty-week Club, the Company is working out a plan whereby it hopes to be able to distribute checks a week earlier next year. It has always been the policy of the Company to co-operate with every good work in the community and it desires to meet the wishes of its customers whenever it is possible to do so.

CAPITAL $100,000. SERVICE

A 4% SAVING PLAN

The opportunity is presented to the people of Plainfield to acquire the "habit" of systematic saving. We have been a nation of spenders, but there is ample evidence that people are now seriously considering the matter of laying aside a portion of their income regularly, and no better method for saving in a systematic way can be found than that offered by our four per cent. saving bond plan, which we heartily commend to anyone having a regular fixed income as a method by which he may lay aside automatically a regular amount monthly, to be used when the unexpected happens or for some particular purpose.

Many objects for such saving readily suggest themselves—a fund for the higher education of son or daughter; a capital fund with which to take advantage of investment opportunities; a fund to start a son in business; money to pay off a possible mortgage on the home; money to defray the expenses of some long anticipated trip; and last, but not least, a fund to provide against the exigencies of misfortune that may some day overtake you. Any of these objects should be sufficient to stimulate a desire to make a beginning, and a beginning once made will be easy to continue.

The operation of the plan is as follows: An Installment Bond in denomination of from $40 to $1,000 is purchased, the first payment being from $1 to $25. A similar payment is made monthly, and at the end of 38 months, all that has been paid in may be withdrawn, together with 4% interest. In the meantime, if necessity requires it, 80% of the paid-in value may be borrowed. OR payments may be discontinued and the amount paid in withdrawn at any time. Begin now while the suggestion is before you. Save to save and not to spend.

HARRIS FORBES CO. GET SEWER BONDS

Dunellen Council Sells $55,000 Issue to New York Firm for $55,651.75.

THREE BIDS RECEIVED

H. K. Corbin Company's Bid of $82,604.20 for Collecting System Contract is Accepted—Work to be Started Soon.

At the adjourned session of the Mayor and Council of Dunellen, last night, the $55,000 of 5 per cent. collecting sewerage bonds were awarded to Harris, Forbes & Company, of New York city, at a price of $55,651.75 and accrued interest. There were only two other bidders, the First National Bank, Dunellen, who bid $55,272 and accrued interest, and Parson Son & Company, of 115 Broadway, New York, who bid $55,358 and accrued interest.

The H. K. Corbin Company's bid of $82,604.20 for the contract of constructing the collecting sewerage system was accepted last night. Prior to this action being taken, Councilman Jones read a list of the various contractors who had put in bids for the work. This list showed the highest bid to have been made by A. D. Ambrosio, of Hartford, Conn., who bid $171,722. The references of the Corbin Company, which were looked up by the special sewerage committee of which Councilman E. M. Jones is chairman, were of the best. The firm's qualifying bond is $41,301.03 and is furnished by the Globe Indemnity Company, of New York. The contract of the work, which will be executed at another adjourned meeting to be held next Monday night, calls for the work to be started between the first and fifteenth of April, but Mr. Corbin said last night that if the weather will permit that his company will begin work within three weeks.

Two petitions calling for the laying of two storm and drainage sewerage systems were received. The route of one of these systems is along North avenue from Washington avenue to Chestnut street, and thence along a continuation of North avenue to Bonegut brook, and the route of the other is from Front street and Madison avenue, down Madison avenue to Green brook. The petitioners agree to bear eighty per cent. of the cost of the work, the remaining per cent. to be borne by the borough out of its general assessment and funds. The petitions were unanimously received by the Council and two committees appointed to see if the required number of frontage feet is covered by those who have signed the petitions. The two committees as appointed by Mayor Latham are Ryan, Bolard and Castner, Jones, Neighbour and Shively.

A communication was received from Horace G. Bisland, of New York requesting that a map of Dunellen, showing the streets, be sent to him. The matter was referred to Borough Engineer Churchill.

Two copies of appeals from taxation as filed with the County Board of Equalization of Taxes were received by the Council. The Western Union Telegraph Company wants the valuation of their property in the borough reduced from $5,000 to $3,700, and W. S. Simpson, assignee, of Moscow, Pa., wants the valuation of a house reduced from $800 to $400.

In his report Chairman Castner, of the street committee, recommended that Second street, between Washington and Jackson avenues, along which thoroughfare houses are now in the process of erection, be put in such condition that water pipes can be laid there. Favorable action was taken upon Mr. Castner's recommendation and the street committee instructed to advertise for bids for the work.

Chairman Ryan, of the law and or-

H. E. PARKER TO LEAVE Y. M. C. A.

Resigns to Become General Secretary of the Passaic Association.

Following the announcement of the resignation of C. William Bingeman, as boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., comes word of the resignation of Herbert E. Parker as general secretory of the local association. The latter announcement caused considerable surprise among the friends of Mr. Parker and the association. Mr. Parker will leave here to take a similar position with the Passaic association. His resignation was read at a meeting of the board of directors last night.

Mr. Parker is planning to take his new position soon after January 1. He has been secretary of the local association seven years during which time he has won the esteem of many Plainfielders for his faithful and conscientious work in the interest of men and boys. Mr. Parker came to Plainfield from Trenton, where he had been successful in association work. Mr. Bingeman, who has resigned, will become general secretary of the Madison association.

W. H. WALSH WEDS MISS MARY JAEGER

Ceremony Performed in New York on November 28 Last, is Just Announced.

A belated announcement was made yesterday of the marriage of Miss Mary V. Jaeger, daughter of Mrs. Mary Jaeger, of Lee place, this city, to William H. Walsh, of Somerset street, the borough, the ceremony having taken place at St. Jerome's Catholic church, New York, November 28. Rev. Father William Bayard, rector of the church, officiated. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzpatrick, cousins of the bride. Following the ceremony, the bridal party attended a wedding supper at the American Hotel.

The announcement comes as a complete surprise to the friends of both bride and groom. Miss Jaeger is a graduate of St. Mary's Parochial School, and was for three years employed as a stenographer by the Newark Gas and Electric Fixture Company, of Newark. Mr. Walsh is employed by the International Motor Company as cost clerk at the offices of the local plant. The couple will make their new home at 21 Grove street.

PETTY BURGLARIES POINT TO WORK OF LOCAL GANG

Reports from various parts of the city within the past ten days indicate that a gang of petty thieves is at work. Several houses in the Netherwood section, adjacent Truell Hall, have been entered, but nothing of any great value was taken. In one place an overcoat was removed from a hall-rack, beneath which a pet dog lay asleep. The dog was evidently not disturbed as the family heard no sound.

The residence of Herbert Langford, on Compton avenue, was entered a few nights ago and a quantity of silverware was taken. Entrance was gained through a conservatory window. Although no clues were found, the burglary is believed to be the work of the same gang operating in the Netherwood section.

KING'S DAUGHTERS DANCE.

The In His Name Circle of King's Daughters will conduct their annual holiday reception and dance in the Park Club, Wednesday night, December 30. VanEpps Brothers' orchestra, of this city, has been engaged to supply the music and tickets are obtainable from the various members of the organization.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Sunday-school of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will hold its Christmas entertainments today, the younger departments this afternoon, while the other departments will gather tonight for their exercises.

REPLACING CLOCK.

The large electric clock in front of Carl Silbert's store on West Front street, which was destroyed several months ago by an automobile colliding with it, is today being replaced by a new one.

SMALLEY DROPPED FROM THE BOARD

North Plainfield School Commissioners Oust Former Mayor From Office.

F. O. DUNNING ELECTED

School Authorities' Action is Based on the Fact That He Absented Himself from Meetings Without Cause—Mr. Smalley is Satisfied.

Because of his failure to attend the meetings of the North Plainfield Board of Education, Frank O. Dunning was elected a member of the Board at last night's meeting to succeed former Mayor Newton B. Smalley, who has been a member of that body since last March. It was on the motion of Judd Stuart, which was seconded by H. A. Woodruff, that Mr Dunning was chosen to succeed Mr Smalley. The Board's action was taken on the grounds that the law provides that if any member is absent from three meetings without good cause his place may be filled. T. E. Currin, Jr., nominated Mr. Dunning.

In an interview with Mr. Smalley today, he told a reporter for The Daily Press that he had decided to retire, in fact he had sent his resignation to Clerk Frank Rowley several weeks ago, but in some way it was lost and never reached the clerk. He said that he could not agree with other members of the Board and thought the best thing to do was to retire.

Warrants to the amount of $4,398.32 were ordered paid, which include teachers' salaries, bills, clerk, janitor supply clerk and accompanists' salaries and an amount due the retiring fund. The reports of the district clerk, custodian and auditing committee were read. Warrants were also drawn up for six months' interest due on bonds. By request of several members of the Board, the clerk was ordered to file the amount of last year's bills that have been paid by the present body.

J. A. VanMater, of the building and grounds committee, reported that the final plans for the new Harrison Avenue School were not yet ready and they had not yet been accepted by the State Board. It was decided to have Charles S. McDermott, of Trenton, State inspector of buildings, examine one of the fire escapes on the rear of the building. Supervising Principal D. Fred Aungst read his monthly report. There are at present a total of 1,214 pupils attending the borough schools. Mr Aungst proposed several changes and made several suggestions to the Board in his report.

MRS. ALETTA HUFF DIES AT CENTREVILLE

Mrs. Aletta Huff, widow of Hiram Huff, mother of Horace Huff, of Codington avenue, and Mrs. Arthur Mosher, of Watchung avenue, died at her home in Centreville, Hunterdon county, this morning, at the age of 75 years. Mrs. Huff has been in delicate health for about a year, but was only confined to her bed for two weeks with pneumonia. Mrs. Huff had lived in Centreville all her life and had visited her children in this city many times and has a large circle of friends here.

No funeral arrangements have been made yet, but they will be announced later. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Maggie Craig, of Centreville; one brother, Robert Hall; one daughter, Mrs. Arthur Mosher, of this city, and two sons, Horace Huff, of Codington avenue, and Oscar Huff, who lived at home.

DUTCH ARMS MEET.

"Ladies' Night" was observed last evening at Trinity Reformed church, when the members of the Dutch Arms Men's Club entertained their wives and women friends. A musical program was furnished by the well-known Till family, of Bayonne, who presented a number of selections on their "rockaphone." A social hour followed the formal program. A business session of the organization was held early in the evening.

COUNTERFEIT $10 NOTE.

Washington, Dec. 22—Discovery of a new counterfeit ten dollar note on the National Park Bank of New York city, is announced by United States secret service operatives. The counterfeit bears the check letter F, the portrait of William McKinley, charter bank number 257321, treasury number 644,594 and should be readily detected.

YOUNG GIRL STRUCK BY DELIVERY AUTO

Sustained Painful Injuries in Accident on South Avenue This Afternoon.

While crossing South avenue at Richmond street shortly after noon today, Enid Starr, a colored girl living at 336 East Fourth street, was struck by an automobile delivery car owned by the Century Rubber Company and driven by one of its employes. She was picked up by passersby and removed to a nearby residence where first aid remedies were administered.

Dr. A. H. Dundon was summoned and ordered the victim's removal to the hospital. At that institution it was found that her injuries were not of a critical nature, although she suffered painful bruises and lacerations. Her face and arms were cut and part of her clothing was pulled from her body.

MISS ALICE MEHL READ THE CHRISTMAS STORY

Miss Alice Mehl, daughter of Captain and Mrs. George Mehl, of Madison avenue, read the Christmas story at the annual exercises which were held at the Montclair Normal School this morning. Miss Mehl is a senior at that institution and is the president of her class. The auditorium, in which the exercises were held, were all dark save for candles carried by those who took part in the entertainment. Jack Mehl, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Mehl, led the entire procession.

After all had been gathered around the Christmas tree, Miss Mehl told the Christmas story. The local student will be graduated next June.

HAD EXCITING EXPERIENCE ENROUTE TO THE WAR ZONE

Letters received by friends of Salo Kahn, formerly of this city, who left for England aboard the Lusitania, December 5, indicate that the young voyager had a most exciting trip across the Atlantic, experiencing incidents that will be remembered in a vivid manner throughout his life. Mr. Kahn reached the pier a few seconds after the time for sailing, just as the gang-plank was being drawn in, and had to be conveyed to the Cunard liner aboard the tug. When he was being put aboard the ocean-going vessel he was put through a series of cross-questioning by the boat's captain, whom he had to convince that he was not a German spy.

He reports that the strict censorship maintained over the wireless equipment on the boat made this feature of little value and it was used infrequently. Great fear was entertained by the passengers for German mines off the Irish coast. He will spend some time in touring England, visiting Liverpool and London on business.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Elizabeth, Dec. 22.—The suit of John Parker Hill, of Rahway road, Plainfield, against his wife, Martha D. Hill, for divorce, is being tried before Vice Chancellor McGee, today. The action is based on questionable conduct by the defendant. Mr. and Mrs. Hill were married at Springfield, this county, during 1901, and were separated in 1911. Robert Newton Crane is counsel for the complainant.

LODGE ELECTION.

Anchor Lodge, F. and A. M., will hold their communication and election of officers, at Masonic Hall, Babcock building, this evening. Several matters of business of importance will be discussed, and a full attendance is desired.

DEFENDS LOCAL TROLLEY SERVICE

Councilman Claybrook Declares That It Has Been Greatly Improved.

OBJECTIONS ARE RAISED

Councilman Calkins Says There is No Schedule on Arlington Avenue and Councilman Hylan Says Fourth Street Service is Impossible.

Councilman Richard A. Claybrook defended the local trolley service in the face of considerable criticism at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council, last night, declaring that after an investigation he had found it greatly improved, and also that he had the word of several persons who had previously complained that there was an improvement in the service.

Mr. Calkins took exception to the service on the Arlington avenue line, adding there is at present no schedule, that it is impossible to tell when a car is coming along. He said that once a car loses five minutes it is almost impossible for that time to be made up. He had heard many complaints about the service and thought it was far from being what it should be.

Mr. Hylan, referring to the Fourth street line, said that the service there is impossible and that he had frequently heard complaints. In response to this statement, Mr. Claybrook said that enlarged and improved cars are now being operated there and he considered the service good. Replying to Mr. Hylan's remark that he thought the cars were to have larger platforms, Mr. Claybrook said that they are larger and invited Mr. Hylan to measure them. This remark brought forth a hearty laugh from the councilmen.

Mr. Claybrook said that he had spent a half-day with the company's officials at Elizabeth and had carefully gone over the situation and had been assured that the company was giving excellent service in Plainfield. He said that the company had agreed to operate cars in Plainfield connecting with the 8:30 New York train and to give extra service for the 6 o'clock train at night. The councilman felt sure that many people who complain do not know the true situation. He said that he had found J. J. Gettings very courteous and obliging and disposed to do anything possible for Plainfield.

There have been many complaints recently regarding the operation of flat wheels on the Arlington avenue line, one resident of that street declaring today that they were driving people almost to distraction with the constant pounding of the flattened wheels over the rails.

During the evening a commuication was received from Mr. Gettings in which he said that the company was willing to do anything possible to improve the service here.

COUNCIL WILL NOT EXTEND EXCISE HOURS

The Plainfield Ministers' Association, through Rev. Lewis Bond, secretary, communicated with the Common Council, last night, thanking that body for its decision not to extend the hours for the sale of liquors at local hotels as requested, and expressing the hope that such a concession be not granted.

Recently, Peter Floersch, proprietor of the Queen City Hotel, made such a request and last night, Councilman C. C. Graves reported back the petition recommending that it was not wise at this time to make such changes. The matter will be dropped for the present.

WILL GIVE LAND FOR WIDENING OF STREET

Postmaster Alvin E. Hoagland in a communication to the Common Council at its adjourned meeting, last night, stated that he believed that if the city should petition for the same, the Government would be willing to donate a portion of its property on East Second street, necessary to widen that thoroughfare as proposed to fifty feet. He requested that the Council communicate with the Federal authorities before making the improvement.

It is the intention of the Council to widen the street from Watchung avenue to Church street, the ordinance calling for this improvement having been passed at a recent meeting, following a public hearing. The widening is proposed because of the plans for the new Federal building.

CLAY IS CHOICE FOR PRESIDENCY

But Council is Non-Committal Regarding the City Clerkship.

Although no official action nor announcement has been made it is believed that Councilman George S. Clay will be re-elected president of the Common Council for 1915. Following last night's adjourned meeting the Council held a caucus presumably to decide on the presidency and the city clerkship. According to one of the members present action was taken in neither matter, the time being spent talking over plans for next year.

As to the city clerkship there is not a single member of the Council that is willing to express an opinion. John J. Carroll, the chairman of the City Republican Committee, who has announced himself as a candidate for the office to succeed James T. MacMurray, according to rumors has assurances of plenty of support, while there are others who are in close touch with affairs who declare that Mr. MacMurray already has a sufficinet number of votes in the Council to re-elect him. The councilmen decided to hold another caucus on Monday night.

$400,000 RECEIVED BY TAX COLLECTOR

W. R. Townsend Reports This Year's Receipts to Be Unusually Heavy.

Despite the reported hard times and scarcity of money, Tax Collector William R. Townsend reports that the tax receipts this year were as heavy as in previous ones. The big rush occured yesterday, the last day for the payment of taxes without the interest charges being added. Although not able to give the exact figures, Mr. Townsend said that up to today the receipts would total about $400,000. This morning's mail brought in a large number of checks from near and distant points. Mr. Townsend says that this year's mail was one of the heaviest in years.

The same "rush" conditions existed in North Plainfield, where Tax Collector George F. Brown was kept unusually busy until a late hour last night receiving money. A notable fact was that Christmas fund checks from The Plainfield Trust Company were received in large numbers in both the city and borough tax offices. From today on 10 per cent. interest will be charged on all tax bills not settled previously.

POLICE SEARCHING FOR BOYS MISSING FROM HOME

The local police were asked today to be on the look-out for two Plainfield boys, Arthur McCormack and Harold Westerband, both sixteen years old, who had been missing since yesterday morning. They left their homes at the usual hour to go to school, but failed to reach there. The belief exists that the boys ran away.

McCormack is the son of Letter-carrier John McCormack, of 1040 Sherman avenue, and is described as follows: Weight, 115 pounds; height, five feet six inches; black hair, scar on finger; wore a blue suit and brown overcoat. Westerband lives at Rock avenue and West Seventh street and is described as being five feet six inches; weight, 120 pounds; wore knickerbockers and gray overcoat.

No trace of the boys had been discovered up to noon today and it is probable they are far away from the city. The police of other towns have been asked to aid in the search.

TEN-DAY LAY-OFF.

Manchester, N. H., Dec. 22.—Notices were posted in all departments of the Amoskeag Textile Mills, employing 17,000 hands, announcing a shut-down of ten days, beginning Thursday.

TO BUY FOUR VESSELS.

London, Dec. 22.—The Canadian-Pacific has completed negotiations at Belfast for the purchase of four vessels now under construction by Harland & Wolff. The four vessels will cost 500,000 pounds.

GERMAN LINES ARE RETIRING

Report That Middlekerke, Wish Ende and West Rochbeke Evacuated.

ZEEBRUGGE SHELLED

London Hears that Another Effort Has Been Made to Destroy German Submarine Base—Poland Situation In Doubt.

Amsterdam, Dec. 22.—The Germans have evacuated Middlekerke, West Ende and West Rochbeke, says a despatch from a special correspondent of the Tyd in Sluis, who adds that these towns have been visited by French and British patrols, but have not been occupied by the Allies. The success of the Allies, the correspondent says, northeast of Ypres following the occupation of Dixschoote, Langemarck, Passchondaele and Morslede is the most important of recent events.

The Germans are concentrating as many men as possible in this region in the hope of regaining lost territory. The Allies' line proceeds with disquieting regularity in a long line from Bixschoote to the Roulers-Menin Railway, and thence to Cille.

Paris, Dec. 22.—The French war office gave out the following statement at 3 o'clock this afternoon:

"Between the sea and the Lys nothing happened during the day of December 21, except artillery conflicts. Between the Lys and the Aisne we rolled back a German attack and took some houses at Blangy. An attack by the enemy upon Mametz and neighboring trenches was not permitted by our troops to make any progress from that side.

"In the regions of Lihons the attacks by the enemy have been repulsed. We have made a slight gain to the east and to the west of Tracy Le Val. Our artillery successfully shelled the plateau of Nouv Ron.

"In the sections of the Aisne and Rheims there are artillery conflicts. In the Champagne region and in the Argonne around Souain there were violent bayonet combats. We have not made progress in that region.

"We captured in the environs of Perthes Les Hurlus three German works, representing a front of 1,500 yards of trenches. Between the Argonne and the Meuse we advanced slightly through Vaugois. From the Meuse to the Vosges there is nothing to report."

London, Dec. 22.—British warships have shelled Zeebrugge again, seeking to destroy the German submarines hiding there. Between Zeebrugge and Heyst the shore was shelled heavily, causing embarrassment to the Germans, who are strengthening their defences all the way to the border of Holland. The British flotilla is reported to have been strengthened.

Especially in northeastern France has the struggle been desperate on either side for the possession of a few yards of the enemey's territory. Before Lihons the fighting has been furious, as the Germans have striven to regain trenches won by the French in that region. Four times heavy assaults were delivered, but each time the enemy was rolled back, leaving most of the attacking force on the field.

The Germans have lost some of their first line trenches northwest of Puisalenne, in the region of Noyon, while the French have made progress in the woods of St. Mard, according to the official report.

Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, is quoted in an interview as declaring that Great Britain now has more than two million soldiers and sailors under arms, and that before next spring there will be five hundred thousand new soldiers in the field.

The Kaiser has recovered sufficiently to return to the western battle front. This is said to have been against the advice of his physicians, but his war advisers declared that his presence with the troops on Christmas would be a great stimulant to them.

The German forces invading Russian Poland as the Russians withdrew and narrowed their front, have again placed themselves in a position of danger, according to Petrograd. As an offset to the German reports of great victories, the Russian general staff has issued an explanation intimating that a heavy blow is about to be struck the enemy.

The narrowing of the Russian front, it says, was decided upon after full and free consideration after the concentration of the Germans in considerable force on the Russian front became apparent. The statement adds:

"Moreover, this program offers other advantages concerning which, unhappily, we cannot give details for

REPORTS NORMAL CONDITIONS THROUGHOUT THE WEST

Ruliff J. Fisher, who is employed as salesman for a large Western fibre concern, has arived home to visit his mother, Mrs. Jacob Fisher, who has been seriously ill. Mr. Fisher finds hs mother greatly improved. He will probably remain home over the holidays.

Speaking of the state of business in the territory traversed by him, which include the States of Michigan, Illinois and Iowa, Mr. Fisher said that conditions appeared to be normal for this time of the year and that merchants were looking forward confidently to the usual spring revival in business. "The war doesn't seem to have any effect then on business conditions in your section," Mr. Fisher was asked. Mr. Fisher replied: "You wouldn't know that there was any such thing as the present war out there if you didn't read the newspaper."

Paul Ratti, of North avenue, was a business visitor in New York yesterday.

H. D. Williams and family, of Prospect avenue, spent Saturday in Newark.

Wesley Huff, the local "white hope," gives an hour's exhibition of scientific bag punching every evening with the exception of Sunday, at his training quarters on North avenue. Free tickets to these exhibitions can be procured by applying to Huff's manager, John McMahon.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ELECTS.

At a meeting held after the regular session of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday-school, on Sunday afternoon, the following Sunday-school officers were elected for the ensuing year: H. S. Townley, superintendent; Joseph Tetlow, assistant superintendent; Harold Seal, secretary; W. W. Giddes, treasurer; Horace Williams, librarian; Estelle Eick, organist, and Winifred Schenck, assistant organist.

BOARD OF TRADE ELECTS.

The only business transacted at last evening's monthly meeting of the Board of Trade was the annual nomination and election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, Joseph G. Walton; vice-president, Henry S. Garretson; secretary, William P. Deering; treasurer, Lewis T. Churchill. The following were elected as members of the executive committee: E. H. Dean, chairman; E. J. Dusel, Lewis Schneider, J. E. Dix and W. H. Cockburn.

Albert Maurer, son of Edward Maurer, of Madison avenue, who is attending the Bordentown Military Academy at Bordentown, has arrived home to spend the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Thomas McGuire and children have arrived from California to make Mrs. McGuire's mother, Mrs. Helen Brakeley, of Front street, a visit over the holidays.

Mrs. William E. Terry, of Washington avenue, who has been ill with the grip, is able to be about.

Eugene R. Smalley, of the firm of Smalley Brothers, was a business visitor in New York yesterday.

The basketball team of Crow Patrol will play the North Plainfield High School freshmen on the Presbyterian court this evening.

Contractor J. Newton Apgar has sold the house that he is erecting on Second street to Mrs. George I. Apgar, Sr., of Front street, who will take possession on April 1.

William Kennedy has been serving subpoenas in the case of John Fedderman vs. The Watchung Investment Company, which according to the county court calendar, will be moved before the Circuit Court, Judge Lloyd, at New Brunswick, Thursday.

The Christmas entertainment of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday-school will be held tomorrow evening. The weekly prayer meeting will be held this evening.

Contractor J. Newton Apgar has decided to erect a house for speculative purposes on a lot owned by him adjoining the residence of Clarence T Voorhees, on Lincoln avenue.

Mrs. Clarence T. Voorhees, of Lincoln avenue, is substituting in the local postoffice during the Christmas rush.

MANY ACCIDENTS REPORTED.

David Torrey, who fell in front of his residence on Mountainview Terrace, Saturday evening, sustained a broken shoulder instead of merely a badly bruised one as was at first thought.

Mrs. Joseph Dealaman, of Washington avenue, was another victim of Saturday evening. She fell on North avenue and is now walking with a limp.

Mrs. William H. Clum, of Lincoln avenue, another victim, was walking up the walk leading to the residence of W. N. Apgar, which adjoins her home, when she slipped and in falling struck her head against a concrete porch abuttment, sustaining a bad gash.

XMAS EXERCISES.

The Christmas exercises of the Whittier School will be held in the local theatre at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The cantata to be given by the Lincoln School pupils will be held in the Lincoln School at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

FAILED TO PAY TAX.

James Greenhalgh, of North avenue, was taken to New Brunswick, yesterday afternoon, by Marshal I. V. Smalley for failing to pay back poll taxes.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Out of respect to the memory of Miss Jane Elizabeth Kyte, who died at her home on Martine avenue, on Friday, there will be no meeting of the Belgian Relief Society scheduled to be held on Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be in two weeks.

The meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Literary Club, which was to have been held this afternoon, has been postponed another two weeks, owing to the approaching holiday season.

Yesterday was the last day that taxes were payable without paying interest and Borough Collector Charles Sheelen says that he has the largest delinquent list in the sixteen years that he has held the office. He says that $3,000 is still due, but he soon hopes to collect it all.

Owing to the stormy weather of yesterday, only one session was held in the local schools, the youngsters going home at noon. Christmas exercises will be held in the schools tomorrow at 1 o'clock.

Miss Anna Littell, departmental teacher in School No. 1, has obtained a few days' leave of absence, following the death of her sister and her place is being temporarily filled by Miss Anna Hastings, of Westfield.

The Sunday-school of the Baptist church will hold its annual Christmas exercises in the church at 7:30 this evening, being the first of the local schools to do so this year. Songs and recitations will include the program, which will close by the distribution of presents by Santa Claus.

All of the local Sunday-schools were represented at a meeting of the Fanwood Township Sunday-school Association, held at the home of William Sisserson, in Westfield, last evening. Plans for a banner year for 1915 were discussed.

Mrs. A. Storr and daughter, Marion, have returned from spending the past week with relatives in Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. James Minnizeck, of Midway avenue, are the parents of a young son born last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Slocum, of Martine avenue, entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Thetford, of Belleville, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William White, of Forest road, have returned home after spending several days with friends on Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hyer, of North avenue, are entertaining Mrs. Hyer's sister, Miss Florence Quinn, of Philadelphia, over the holidays.

There will be no prayer meeting in the Methodist church this week, as Friday, the night the meetings are held, is Christmas.

Miss Claire Hall, a student at Mt. St. Mary College, is spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, who are spending the winter in New York.

Watchung.

Rev. D. A. McNeill, of Princeton, conducted the services in the Mary E. Wilson Memorial Union church Sunday.

Miss Marie A. Texier spent the week-end in Trenton.

The annual Christmas entertainment of the Watchung School will be held tomorrow afternoon beginning at 1:30.

Miss Theresa E. Schmidt, who has been the guest of her sister at the Trenton Normal Hall, has returned home.

Mrs. Elmer E. Kinman, of New York, has returned to her home after spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Platt, of Hillcrest road.

SCOUT COUNCIL TO HOLD EXAMINATION

Merit Badges Will Be Presented to Successful Candidates Tomorrow Night.

Boy scouts who have made application to the Scout Council for examination in merit badges may appear before the court tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The court will sit until 9 o'clock. Scouts desiring to receive badges instead of certificates will bring with them fifteen cents for each badge covering the art, craft or trade they are prepared to be examined in.

Liberal response is being received by Secretary George T. Moore in the matter of the "Big Brother Fund" that the members of the council are raising. There is still some distance between the sum in hand and that desired in order to make the fund workable.

The commissioner has received applications from several scouts in various troops for employment. In each case the boys who find it encumbent upon them to help in the support of their families have good records. They are ambitious, enthusiastic and are keen for an opportunity to work themselves up along the line of their particular endeavor in scout work.

National headquarters has requested the local scout authorities to warn merchants in Plainfield against anyone who approaches them with an advertising proposition for Boy's Life, the official scout paper. Merchants have been swindled by false representations in other cities.

PROCTOR'S IN YULETIDE SPIRIT.

The Christmas spirit has invaded Proctor's Theatre and patrons of the popular Front street playhouse are quickly made aware of the fact on entering the spacious lobby. The big entrance-way is festooned with yuletide decorations which present a pleasing effect and further the holiday atmosphere prevailing everywhere. The decorating scheme was devised by Leonce Texier, of the house staff, and reflects credit on himself and the up-to-date Proctor employes who assisted in the work.

CARROLL TAYLOR HOME.

Carroll Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Taylor, of Fairview avenue, arrived home yesterday afternoon from Golden, Colorado, where he is attending the Colorado School of Mines. He intends to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents and will return the first of the year.

BORO COUNCIL MEETS.

The North Plainfield Common Council will meet tonight, at which time the business for the year will be completed, and bids for $150,000 worth of sewer collecting system bonds received.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Plainfield Transit Company will hold its annual meeting Monday, January 11, at which time officers will be elected and other matters of importance taken up.

POPULAR LEADER QUITS Y. M. C. A.

C. William Bingeman Will Go to Madison as General Secretary.

WAS HERE SIX YEARS

Efficient Boys' Secretary Has Done Much to Place Local Department on its Present Plane of Efficiency —Resigned Last Night.

Following a six years' term as the secretary of the boys' department of the local Y. M. C. A., C. William Bingeman, one of the best known boys' work directors in the State and an active promoter of every juvenile interest in this city and surrounding suburbs, last night, tendered his resignation to the association's board of directors. His contract with the local department will terminate January 1, 1915, and he will then become general secretary of the Madison Y. M. C. A., a position he recently accepted. While Mr. Bingeman's many friends in this city regret his unexpected action some condolence is found in the fact that his new position is one of far greater importance than the one he holds here and he has the well wishes of all in his new enterprise. During his service here as boys' secretary he has served efficiently and faithfully and many novelties have been injected into the work of the association under his auspices and supervision. The Madison Y. M. C. A. has a membership that surpasses in figures that of the local association and occupies a building of modern type and facilities that has been recently constructed. Three years ago the State Boys' Conference met at that place and during the three days' session Mr. Bingeman and the representation of Plainfield boys became thoroughly acquainted with the workings of the institution. He will succeed W. T. Appell who, recently resigned to take up ministerial study in preparation for entering the foreign missionary field.

Mr. Bingeman was graduated from the International Y. M. C. A. Training School at Springfield, Mass., in 1906, and took up boys' work in the Kingston (N. Y.) Y. M. C. A. in July, 1909. When he came to Plainfield, George L. Listman was the head of the physical department of the association and Herbert E. Parker was general secretary. Since that time he has worked with George Whitaker, E. C. Ostlin and Robert Meermans, the present incumbent, as physical directors. Since coming to Plainfield he has induced seven other members of the local department to pursue courses of Y. M. C. A. work in the Training School, the students now interested in that profession being Charles H. Line, Schuyler Line, Donald Sminck, Herbert Stine, George Townley, Arthur Ferris and James Nash. Charles Line completed a post-graduate course last year and now holds the position of membership secretary of the Providence (R. I.) Y. M. C. A.

While the head of the local branch of work Mr. Bingeman has been the father of the "league idea," a phase of fostering all-around Y. M. C. A. work among the younger set that has proven vastly popular and efficient. He has also organized various other novelties that have placed the local boys' department on a plane with the best in the State. He has been actively interested in the New Jersey State Y. M. C. A. camp for boys at Lake Wawayanda and during the five years he has been here he has directed delegations aggregating 118 and twenty-eight men leaders to the rendezvous, establishing a precedent for local interest in this State work. He has also been prominent in New Jersey boys' conference work and each year attended the sessions with Plainfield boy representatives. He has been Charles R. Scott's associate director at the camp for the past two years. He was the first scoutmaster appointed in this section, the initial patrol of Boy Scouts of America being organized following a summer's camping trip at Lake George in which local Y. M. C. A. members headed by Chauncey Murphy participated. Three years ago he acted as special army secretary at the National Guard encampment at Sea Girt. Rally meetings such as were conducted last year in the local association are another innovation of Mr. Bingeman's.

He was active in the work of the Congregation church and the First Baptist church and was the associate teacher of the Prosbasco Bible class. One of his ideas has been the founding of a High School Boys' Bible class, one of the greatest innovations in religious work among boys ever attempted in this city. It is a flourishing organization, meeting Friday nights and has a membership average of 48 and a total of eighty-one members.

Mr. Bingeman's loss will be keenly felt by the local association and the members, friends and parents of Plainfield boys with whom he has maintained a personal acquaintance. An all-around man, with thoroughly modern ideas and fostering the highest ideals, Mr. Bingeman has gained a place for himself in the hearts of each individual with whom he has come in contact. He has sought to raise the standard of boys' work to the highest level of supremecy and in doing so has reached men and boys of every type, nationality and standing in life. His accomplishments are generally known throughout Y. M. C. A. circles in the State and a better aspirant to the position of general secretary would be hard to single out.

dinance committee, reported that 74 replies had been received to the notices that had been sent to the delinquent dog tax payers and that the marshals were going to see those who had not replied to the notices and if that did no good the delinquents would then be summoned before a justice of the peace and fined $5. Other business included granting the Board of Education permission to ring the fire bell on days when the condition of the weather is such that there should be no school, and the authorization of the payment of bills aggregating $51.01.

EXPECT SETTLEMENT SOON.

Washington, Dec. 22—Settlement of the Alaskan Railroad question is expected within the next few days, when President Wilson will determine whether the proposed Government line shall be built by the army engineers or by private contract. The President was advised today that the report of the special commission investigating conditions in the territory was almost completed.

MANY IN LINE AWAITING PARCELS POST SERVICE

Clerks at the parcel post window in the local postoffice have experienced a continual rush during the past twenty-four hours, hundreds of package senders visiting the windows for the purpose of getting Christmas packages off. Yesterday afternoon and this morning a single file of patrons extended from the window in the postoffice to a point in front of Shirley & Johnston's store in the same building.

The usual hours are being observed at the postoffice and it will be necessary for those wishing to send parcels via this method to stand in line. Hundreds of pounds of mail matter were sent out by parcels post last night and the amount promised to be greatly increased during the remaining days before Christmas.

EMPLOYES GET STOCK.

New York, Dec. 22—The Atlas Powder Compay has advised its employes that it will continue this year the plan of offering a block of Atlas stock to them, which was very generally taken up by the employes last year.

Think Mistletoe Brings Trouble.

In many parts of the United Kingdom the silver berries and the gray-green leaves of the mistletoe are looked upon as anything but an emblem of good cheer. On the contrary, the plant is regarded with dread as being the bringer of ill luck and the sign of ill omen. This superstition exists both in Devonshire and in Ireland, and, strange to say, in neither of these places does the plant flourish.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Adv.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Lustre and Abundance.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

REMOVED TO MUHLENBERG.

Elmer Gayle, of Vine street, the borough, who was injured in a motorcycle accident at Morristown, while crossing the tracks of the Lackawanna Railroad on the morning of Thursday, December 10, was this morning removed from the hospital at that place to Muhlenberg Hospital, this city, by Dr. Arthur H. Dundon. Mr. Gayle's leg was broken between the ankle and knee.
